LI. Provided also, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them (who are hereby empowered and required to examine the Matter upon Oath) that any Cocoa Nuts have been lawfully imported into this Kingdom before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and that the Duties then payable by Law upon the Importation thereof have been paid, or secured to be paid, it shall and may be lawful for the Owners or Importers thereof, to export the same at any Time or Times before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five (Security against fraudulently relanding the same being first given, as is usual in Cases of Exportation;) and upon such Exportation such and the same Drawbacks, Allowances and Advantages shall be had and allowed to such Importers or Proprietors respectively, as if the same had been exported within the respective Time or Times allowed by Law for the Exportation thereof: Provided such Cocoa Nuts shall, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, be brought into some or one of the Warehouses to be appointed pursuant to this Act, or the Key or Keys of the Warehouse or Warehouses, where the same are or shall be then kept, be, on or before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, delivered to some or one of the Officers to be appointed for the said Inland Duties, to prevent Frauds in relation thereto; any Law, Usage or Custom, or any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided such Cocoa Nuts be brought into such Warehouse, &c.

Relief granted to Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, &c.

LII. And whereas all the Real and Personal Estate of Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, attainted of High Treason, was forfeited, and great Part thereof, by one or more Act or Acts of Parliament, is vested in Trustees, to be sold for the Use of the Publick; which Part, so vested in the Trustees, hath been sold accordingly for the Sum of five thousand one hundred Pounds: And whereas the said Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, having for these eight Years and upwards been destitute of all necessary Subsistence, has contracted considerable Debts for the Support and Maintenance of himself and his Family: Now in Compassion to the deplorable Condition of the said Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, and his Family, we your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do humbly pray, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the said five thousand one hundred Pounds, arising from the Sale or Produce Produce of the Estate of the said Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, so forfeited as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums of Money (after paying the proportionable Part of the Demands of such Creditors, whose Claims have been allowed upon, and do affect the said Estate) shall and may be taken, issued and applied, for and towards the future Support and Maintenance of the said Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, and his Family, and for the Payment of his Debts, without Account, Imprest or other Charge to be set upon him for the same, as his Majesty in his great Goodness shall, by his Sign Manual, think fit to direct and appoint:

And the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby authorized, impowered and directed, to cause the same to be paid to the said Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, or his Assigns accordingly, without Abatement for Fees, Charges or other Deductions whatsoever; any former Law, Custom or Statute to the contrary, or any Incapacity by reason of the Attainder of the said Robert Dalzell, late Earl of Carnwath, notwithstanding.

C A P. XI.

An Act to prevent Multiplicity of Prosecutions upon an Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, it is, amongst other Things enacted, That all Wrought Silks, Bengals, and Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba of the Manufacture of Persia, China or East-India, and all Callicoes painted, dyed, printed or stained there, whether the same shall be mixed, sewed or made up together for Sale, with any other Goods or Materials, or otherwise, which from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and one, shall be found in any House, Shop or Warehouse, or other Place whatsoever (other than in such Warehouses, as shall be approved of by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs) shall be forfeited, and subject and liable to be searched for and seized; in which said Act it is provided, that the Powers therein shall not extend to any such Silks, Bengals, Stuffs or Callicoes which shall have been made up and used in any sort of Apparel or Furniture before the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and one: And whereas several Persons have, since the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and one, inadvertently made up and used the said prohibited Goods in Furniture and Household-Stuff, believing the said Act extended to Apparel only, and thereby have subjected themselves to the Penalties of the said Act: For Remedy whereof, and preventing the numberless Prosecutions that might happen from such Inadvertency, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend to any Silks, Bengals or Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba, or painted, dyed, printed or stained Callicoes, manufactured in Persia, China or East-India, which were made up, or used in Furniture or Household-Stuff before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act 11 W. 3.

and if the said Court of Directors for the Time being should be satisfied in the Justice of such Claim or Claims, or that any Debt or Sum of Money ought to be paid thereupon, or that the Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance so claimed, or any Part thereof, ought to be allowed, and should declare their Satisfaction therein, by any Resolution or Resolutions of that Court; and if the Party or Parties, by or for whom such Claim should be made, should likewise, in a Book or Books to be kept in the said Trustees Publick Office for that Purpose, declare in Writing under his, her or their Hands, his, her or their Acquiescence in such Resolution or Resolutions of the said Court of Directors for the Time being, touching his, her or their Debt, Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance so claimed, at any Time or Times before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; then in all and every such Case and Cases the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, should give Warrant for the Payment and Discharge of every such Debt or Sum of Money so liquidated or adjusted, out of such Monies as should come to the Hands of the Cashier of the said South-Sea Company for the Time being, for the Purposes in the said Act expressed: And it was by the said Act further enacted, That the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of them, sitting at the same Time and Place, and not otherwise, should, and they were thereby authorized, from Time to Time, to hear and determine all Differences, Disputes and Controversies touching or concerning any Debts, Estates, Interests, or Incumbrances, which should be claimed within the respective Times therein before limited for making such Claims, and could not or should not be liquidated or adjusted between the said Court of Directors for the Time being, and the respective Claimants within the Time before limited in that Behalf, and all Incidents relating thereunto, in such Manner, as by the said Act is directed: And by the said Act it is further enacted, That the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, upon a Complaint to be made by or for any Claimant of any such Debt, Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance, whose Claims should not be liquidated or adjusted as aforesaid, (so as such Complaint be made on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two) should proceed in such Manner as by the said Act is directed; and the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, in all Cases where they should find that any Debt or Sum of Money ought to be paid to such Claimant upon such Claims, or that the Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance so claimed, or any Part thereof ought to be allowed, should and might, at any Time or Times before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, transmit a Certificate or Certificates thereof to the said Trustees in the said Act nominated: And by the said Act it is provided and enacted, That the Powers given by the said Act to the said Justices and Barons, for hearing and determining such Differences, Disputes and Controversies relating to such Claims as aforesaid, and issuing their Certificates concerning the same as aforesaid, should continue and be in Force until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred twenty three, and no longer. And whereas by another Act of Parliament made in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for prolonging the Times for bearing and determining Claims before the Trustees, in whom the Estates of the late South-Sea Directors, and of John Aislaby Esquire, and likewise of James Craggs Esquire, deceased, are vested, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; several of the Times in the former Acts limited, have been enlarged to several further Times therein expressed: And whereas by another Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for further enlarging the Times for entering, bearing and determining Claims on the Estates vested in the Trustees of the South-Sea Company, and for obliging Persons to claim Stock by the Time therein mentioned, for Money Subscriptions, and for other the Purposes therein mentioned, the Times in the last mentioned Act limited, have been enlarged to several further Times therein expressed, which Times by the last Act limited, are now near expiring: Now forasmuch as the Claims

An Act for encouraging the Greenland Fishery.

I. WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, for encouraging the Greenland Fishery, a Company was incorporated, exclusive of the rest of their then Majesties Subjects, and by the said Act it is enacted, That it should be lawful for the said Company, and for all and every the Ships and Vessels belonging thereto, or employed by the said Company, truly belonging to England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and whereof the Masters should be Englishmen, and inhabiting within the Places aforesaid, and for no other Ship or Vessel whatsoever, from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, until the first Day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seven, employed for catching of Whales in the Greenland Seas, during such their Voyages, to be navigated with one Third of the Mariners English at the least, and yet to pay no farther or other Custom for the Oil, Blubber or Fins, caught and imported in such Ships or Vessels, than if such Ships or Vessels had been navigated with three Fourths of the Mariners English: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for taking away half the Duties imposed on Glass Wares, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, and for granting (in Lieu thereof) new Duties upon Whale Fins and Scotch Linen, it is amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the tenth Day of July one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, there should be answered and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Whale Fins, that should be taken, caught and imported, in and by any Ships or Vessels whatsoever, of or belonging to the Company established for the Greenland Trade, the Sum of three Pence for every Pound Weight thereof, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for all Whale Fins, which are or shall be taken, caught or imported by Foreigners, or by any Ships or Vessels not belonging to the said Company, the Sum of six Pence for every Pound Weight thereof, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity: And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for enlarging and encouraging the Greenland Trade, it is amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and two, it should and might be lawful for any of her Majesty's Subjects whatsoever, that would adventure to Greenland for fishing of Whales, to have and enjoy all the Privileges that were granted to the said Company by the aforesaid Act of Parliament, and should not pay any further or other Duty, than if they had been of the said Greenland Company; and that no Harpioneer or other Foreigners, that were permitted by the said Act for carrying on the said Fishery, should be imputed for her Majesty's Service: And whereas by one other Act of Parliament made in the said first Year of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, the said Duty of three Pence per Pound on Whale-Fins caught as aforesaid, is continued, and since made payable to her said Majesty, her Heirs and Successors for ever, for the Purposes in the same Act prescribed and directed, subject to such Proviso and Powers of Redemption, as are in and by the said Act contained and prescribed, of and concerning the same, as by the said several Acts, Relation being had to them respectively, more at large may appear: And whereas notwithstanding the great Privileges granted by the several Acts of Parliament aforesaid, the fishing in the Greenland Seas hath been entirely neglected by his Majesty's Subjects, and is like to continue so, as long as the Duty aforesaid is payable upon Whale-Fins taken and caught in the said Seas, by Ships belonging to his Majesty's Subjects; and in regard that the permitting his Majesty's Subjects to import Oil, Blubber and Whale-Fins, taken and caught in the said Seas, without paying any Duties for the same for a competent Time, may very much contribute to the regaining the said Greenland Trade, and will encourage the Navigation, and promote the Consumption of the Manufactures of this Kingdom: Therefore may it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c.

After 25 December 1714. British Subjects may import Whale-Fins, Oil and Blubber, Custom-free, for seven Years. Master to swear that the Whale-Fins, &c. were caught in the Greenland Seas by the Crew of the Ship, and navigated according to Law. By 12 Geo. 2. c. 26. s. 7. The Benefit of this Act is extended to Davis's Streights. EXP.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better regulating of Pilots for the conducting of Ships and Vessels from Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, upon the Rivers of Thames and Medway, together with a Clause for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, contained in an Act passed in the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further preventing his Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East-Indies under foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto, and further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, which is near expired, shall be further continued, from the Time of the Expiration thereof, for the Space of eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act to regulate the Price and Assize of Bread, together with such Alterations, as were made in and by an Act passed in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing several Laws therein mentioned relating to Coals, Hemp and Flax, Irish and Scotch Linen, and the Assize of Bread; and for giving Power to adjourn the Quarter-Sessions for the County of Anglesea, for the Purposes therein mentioned, which by an Act made in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of the late Queen ANNE, to regulate the Price and Assize of Bread; and for continuing the Act of the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain, was continued, and is now near expiring, shall be further continued, from the Expiration thereof for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act made in the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain, which by the said last recited Act of the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, was continued for the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, be further continued, and shall remain in full Force for the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for ascertaining the Breadths, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses in manufacturing Serges, Pladdings and Fingrums, and for regulating the Manufactures of Stockings, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, so far as the same relates to Serges.

I. WHEREAS an Act passed in the sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for ascertaining the Breadths, and preventing Frauds and Abuses in manufacturing Serges, Pladdings and Fingrums, and for regulating the Manufactures of Stockings, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland: And whereas notwithstanding the Provision made by the said Act, many Disputes have arisen thereupon, and many Frauds and Abuses have since been committed by Persons employed in working and making of Serges, and in selling and disposing of the same, to the great Prejudice of Trade and Commerce: For preventing whereof, and the better regulating the Manufactures of Serges for the future; Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, every Piece of Rock Serge made in Scotland, and white out of the Loom, shall be of the Breadth and Length herein after mentioned; that is to say, Thirty-six Inches in Breadth at least within the List or Selvage, and sixty-three Yards in Length; and that every Half-Piece of such Serge shall be proportionable in Length to a whole Piece as aforesaid; and that all such Pieces and Half-Pieces of Serge shall be taken up in Folds, or a soft Roll, and shall not be stretched by hard Rolling; and no white broomed or tarred Wool shall be wrought or mixed together, but that each Piece shall be wrought up of one and the same Sort, without any other kind of Mixture whatsoever; and that the same shall be equally worked, and of the same Fineness from one End of the Piece to the other: And that every Piece of Rock and Wheel Serge shall be made of equal Goodness and Strength, and shall be of the Breadths and Lengths following; that is to say, A Scotch Ell in Breadth at least, and forty-two Scotch Ells in Length; and that every Piece of Serge, commonly called the Strapping or Narrow Sort, shall be three Quarters of a Scotch Ell in Breadth, and forty-two Scotch Ells in Length; and that every Half-Piece of each Sort of the last mentioned Serges shall be proportionable in Length to a whole Piece, and none of the Serges before mentioned shall be made or wrought of unscoured Worn.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace shall, in their respective Counties and Stewartries, or in case they shall make Default, the Commissioners of Supply shall be and are hereby impowered and required, from Time to Time, at their quarterly Sessions to be holden by the said Justices, or annual Meetings of the said Commissioners in Scotland, to appoint a Stamp or Stamps to be made and kept for the Purposes aforesaid, at some proper Place where such Serges are sold, within the respective Counties, as the said Justices of the Peace, or Commissioners of Supply, shall think proper.

The Justices in their Counties to appoint a Stamp.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Stamp-Master so appointed as aforesaid shall for himself, or by any other Person or Persons, trade, traffick, buy, sell, dispose of, or stamp, any such Serges, which are not made of well sorted Worn, equally wrought, and of equal fineness from one End of the Piece to the other, and of such Breadths, Lengths, and Qualities as aforesaid, he or they so neglecting or offending therein, shall forfeit and pay for every Piece of such Serge the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling, and shall be made incapable of serving in such Office for the future; and if any Person or Persons shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, affix any Stamps, without the Authority aforesaid, or shall counterfeit the same, such Person or Persons so offending shall respectively forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, or suffer six Months Imprisonment, if found insolvent.

No Stamp-Master to Traffick in Serges, or Stamp them, not of the proper Lengths, Breadths, and Qualities. Penalty.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Weavers, and such other Person or Persons, as shall work and make Serges for Sale as aforesaid, shall and they are hereby required to carry, or cause the same to be carried to the Stamp-Office, there to be inspected and sealed by the Stamp or Seal-Master, to whom they shall pay the Sum of one Shilling of Scotch Money for sealing or stamping of each Piece, and no more, and Half-part thereof for any Half-piece; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall sell and deliver, buy and receive, transport or export, or expose to Sale, any such Serges, without having a Stamp so affixed thereto, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling; and the Goods so found without the Stamp so affixed, shall also be confiscated, the one Moiety shall go and be to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Stamp-Office, to be disposed of as the Magistrates shall direct and appoint.

Weavers to carry their Serges to the Stamp-Office to be sealed.

The Price of Sealing.

Serges not sealed forfeited, and 20 s.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Weaver or Weavers, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall make, work, or cause to be made or wrought any of the Serges before mentioned, not conformable, or contrary to the Regulations and Restrictions aforesaid, and shall offer the same to be sealed, the Owners of such Serges so offered to be sealed, shall respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling, and the said Serges so offered to be sealed, shall be confiscated, and shall be disposed of in such Manner, and to such Uses, as the said Justices, or any two or more of them, or the said Magistrates shall order and direct; and such Weavers or Manufacturers, as shall make such Serges, or cause the same to be made, shall also pay the Value of such Serges so made, to the Owners thereof respectively, besides the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling directed to be paid as a Fine as aforesaid.

Penalties on Weavers working Serges not conformable to these Regulations.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Deans of Gilds of the several Head Boroughs of the respective Counties shall, and they are hereby appointed to be the sole Judges within the respective Boroughs; and the said Dean of Gild, with the Beroys or Proprietors of all and every publick Fair or Market, or any having their Authority, are hereby declared jointly Judges of the Offences committed against this present Act; and in Default of the said Dean of Gild, or of the said Master of the Fair and Market, or their Deputies, that either of the said Judges shall be sole Judges of such Offence committed in such Places, Villages, Fairs and Markets, where the said Serges shall be vended or exposed to Sale as aforesaid, to and for all and every the Intents and Purposes hereby specified and contained touching the same.

Deans of Gilds sole Judges in their Boroughs.

And they and the Proprietors of Fairs jointly Judges.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Weavers, and other Workers and Makers of such Serges as aforesaid, for Sale, who shall neglect to work or make the said Serges according to the Regulations aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to bring the same to the Stamp-Office to be sealed, as is hereby directed, and shall be thereof convicted by the Oaths of two or more credible Witnesses, or by the Oath of the Person prosecuted, as the Judge or Judges shall see cause, and so shall be convicted of any of the Offences aforesaid, or refuse or neglect to pay any Penalties and Forfeitures by him incurred, by Reason or Means of this present Act, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Judge or Judges respectively, before whom such Conviction shall be made, (and such Judge or Judges are hereby required) to issue out one or more Warrant or Warrants, under his or their Hands and Seals, to the respective Officer or Officers, or to the Constable of the Town or Place where such Offender doth inhabit, or can be found, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, returning the Overplus (if any be) to the Offender, and in case no such Distress can be found, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Judge or Judges to commit the Offender to the House of Correction, or Gaol of the County or Corporation, there to detain and keep such Offender or Offenders for and during such Time, as the Judge or Judges (before whom such Conviction shall be made) shall direct and appoint, not exceeding the Space of three Months for any one Offence.

Weavers not working according to these Regulations, or not bringing the Serges to the Stamp-Office, or not paying the Penalty, the Fine may be levied by Distress, or Imprisonment for three Months.

Merchants altering the Number of Ells marked on each Piece, forfeit 5 l. for each Piece.

Fingrums made in Aberdeen, Bamf, &c. excepted.

Prosecution to be within 60 Days after Offence committed.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant, or other Person whatsoever, in any County or Royal Borough within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall before or at the Time of transporting any Serges, Pladding or Fingrums, whether to foreign Ports or Coastwise, cancel or alter the Number of Ells marked upon each Piece, according to the settled Use and Practice concerning the same, every such Offender, for each Piece of Serge, Pladding or Fingrum, whereof the Mark shall be so cancelled or altered, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, one Moiety to the Informer, the other Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to be recovered in the same Manner, as the other Penalties inflicted by this Act, or by the said recited Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, are to be recovered, or shall suffer three Months Imprisonment for every such Offence, if insolvent.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to make any Alteration in the Lengths or Breadths of the Serges, commonly called Fingrum and Fingrum-wheeling Serges, manufactured in the Shires of Aberdeen, Bamf or Murray, but that the same shall remain as they are settled by former Laws and Acts of Parliament; any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred or inflicted for any Offence against this Act, shall be sued for and prosecuted within sixty Days after the Offences shall be committed or discovered, and not afterwards; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XIX.

An Act for explaining the Law concerning the Trial and Admission of the Ordinary Lords of Session.

I. WHEREAS the Nomination and Appointment of the Lords of the Court of Session in Scotland, is an inherent Prerogative of the Crown, and his Majesty is most desirous that none should be Lords of Session, but Persons of known Probity and Understanding in the Laws, and such as are duly qualified according to the several Statutes for that Purpose made; Therefore, for the attaining of these good Ends, and for the more plain and easy Execution of the Laws in this Behalf already made, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That when any Ordinary Place shall be vacant in the said Court of Session, the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall nominate and appoint thereto a Person qualified according to an Act made in Scotland in the sixth Parliament of King JAMES the Sixth, intituled, Anent the Admission of the Ordinary Lords of the Session, and Reformation of certain Abuses therein; and according to another Act made in Scotland in the twelfth Parliament of King JAMES the Sixth, intituled, Anent the Jurisdiction, Presentation, Qualities and Age of the Lords of Session; and according to the Articles of Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; and the Qualifications of such Person so nominated and appointed, may be examined, and shall be tried by the Ordinary Lords of the Court of Session only; and if the Person so nominated shall on such Examination be found duly qualified, according to the Act and Articles aforesaid, then they shall forthwith admit and receive him to such Ordinary Place; but if on such Examination the said Ordinary Lords of Session shall be of Opinion, that there is just Ground to object to the Qualifications of the Person nominated as aforesaid, in every such Case the said Lords of Session are hereby required, with all convenient Speed, to transmit and certify the whole Matter to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in order that the Royal Pleasure may be finally had thereupon; and if his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors shall afterwards signify under the Sign Manual the Royal Will and Pleasure, that the Person so nominated shall be admitted and received into the said Place, in such Case the Lords of Session are hereby required forthwith to admit and receive him accordingly: But if his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, after such Examination as aforesaid, shall see Cause sufficient not to admit the Person so nominated, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, to nominate some other Person in Manner aforesaid, still subject to such Examination and final Determination concerning the same, as is herein before enacted and declared.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever the Places of the four present Extraordinary Lords of Session, or the Place or Places of any one or more of them, at any Time or Times hereafter shall become vacant, no Presentation or Nomination of any Person or Persons whatsoever shall be made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies: And if any such Presentation or Nomination shall at any Time hereafter happen to be made, the same is hereby declared to be null and void; any Thing to the contrary thereof contained in an Act made in the fifth Parliament of King JAMES the Fifth, concerning the Authority of the Chancellor and Lords, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XX.

An Act for the better viewing, searching and examining of all Drugs, Medicines, Waters, Oils, Compositions, used or to be used for Medicines in all Places where the same shall be exposed to Sale, or kept for that Purpose, within the City of London and Suburbs thereof, or within seven Miles Circuit of the said City.

Reciting the Patent of H. S. to the College of Physicians.

I. WHEREAS King HENRY the Eighth, by his Letters Patent under the Great Seal, bearing Date at Westminster the twenty-third Day of September in the tenth Year of his Reign, for the Common Wealth of this Realm, in due exercising and practising of the Faculty of Physick, and good Ministration of Medicines to be had, did erect, found and establish a College, Commonalty or Incorporation of Physicians in the City of London, to be, remain and have Existence for ever; and by the same Letters Patent did further give and grant unto John Chambre, Thomas Linacre, Ferdinando de Victoria, Nicholas Halsewel, John Francis and Robert Yaxley, then learned, discreet and profound Practisers in the Faculty of Physick in the said City of London, that they and all of the said Faculty of Physick of and in the said City, should for ever thenceforth be in Name and Deed one Body, and perpetual Commonalty or College; and further by the

the same Letters Patent did give and grant unto the said College and Commonalty full Power, Ability and Authority for ever, annually to elect and make one of the said College or Commonalty to be President of the said College or Commonalty, for the taking Care and governing thereof for that Year; and that the same President, College or Commonalty should have perpetual Succession, and a Common Seal for the Service of the said President and Commonalty for ever; and by the same Letters Patent did also further give and grant unto the said President, College and Commonalty, and their Successors, that they the said President, College or Commonalty, and their Successors, might lawfully, and without Danger, make among themselves lawful Assemblies, and Statutes, and Ordinances, for the good Government, overseeing and correcting of the said College or Commonalty, and of all Men exercising the same Faculty in the said City, or within seven Miles Circuit thereof, as Necessity should require, when and as often as there should be Occasion; and that none should exercise the said Faculty in the said City, or within seven Miles Circuit thereof, unless licensed thereunto by the said President and Commonalty, or their Successors for the Time being, by the Letters of the same President and College, sealed with their Common Seal, under the Penalty of one hundred Shillings for every Month in which he should exercise the said Faculty, without being so licensed, half thereof to be applied to his said Majesty and his Heirs, and half to the said President and College; and by the same Letters Patent did further grant, That four Persons should every Year be chosen by the said President and College for the Time being, and their Successors for ever, who should have the supervising and searching, correcting and governing of all and every the Physicians of the said City using the Faculty of Physick in the same City, and other foreign Physicians whomsoever, in any Manner using and practising that Faculty of Physick within the said City and the Suburbs thereof, or within seven Miles Circuit of the same City, and the punishing of them for their Offences in not well executing, practising or using that Faculty; and also the supervising and searching of all Manner of Medicines, and the Receipts thereof, to be given, administered and applied by the said Physicians, or any of them, to the said King's Subjects, for the curing and healing of their Infirmities, when and as often as there should be Occasion, for the Benefit and Advantage of the said Subjects, so that the Punishment of such Physicians, using the said Faculty of Physick, so offending in the Premises, might be executed by Fines, Amerciaments, Imprisonments of their Bodies, and by other fit and reasonable Ways: And whereas in the Parliament held at London the fifteenth Day of April in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of the said King HENRY the Eighth, and from thence adjourned to Westminster the last Day of July in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of the same King, and there held, reciting, That forasmuch as the making the said Corporation was meritorious, and very good for the Commonwealth of the Realm, it was enacted, That the said Corporation of the said Commonalty and Fellowship of the Faculty of Physick aforesaid, and all and every Grant, Articles and other Thing contained and specified in the said Letters Patent, should be approved, granted, ratified and confirmed in the same Parliament, and clearly authorized and admitted by the same good, lawful and available to the said Body Politick, and their Successors for ever, in as ample and large Manner as may be taken, thought and construed by the same: And whereas by one other Act of Parliament made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of the said King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, For Physicians and their Privileges, It is amongst other Things enacted, ordained and established for the Common Wealth and Surety of the Subjects of this Realm, That the President for the Time being, Commons and Fellows of the said Corporation, and their Successors, might yearly, at such Time as they should think most meet and convenient for the same, elect and choose four Persons of the said Commons and Fellows of the best learned, wisest and most discreet, such as they should think convenient, and have Experience in the said Faculty of Physick; and that the said four Persons so elected and chosen, after a corporal Oath to them ministred by the said President, or his Deputy, should and might, by Virtue of that Act, have full Authority and Power, as often as they should think meet and convenient, to enter into the House or Houses of all and every Apothecary then, or at any Time then after, using the Mystery or Craft of Apothecary within the said City, only to search, view and see such Apothecary Wares, Drugs and Stuff, as the Apothecaries or any of them had, or at any Time then after should have in their House or Houses, and all such Wares, Drugs and Stuffs as the said four Persons should then find defective, corrupted and not meet nor convenient to be ministred in any Medicines for the Health of Man's Body, the same four Persons, calling to them the Wardens of the said Mystery of Apothecaries within the said City for the Time being, or one of them, should cause to be burnt or otherwise destroy the same, as they should think meet by their Discretion; and if the said Apothecaries or any of them, at any Time then after should obstinately or willingly refuse or deny the said four Persons yearly elected and chosen, as is aforesaid, to enter into their said House or Houses for the Causes, Intent and Purpose before rehearsed; that they and every of them so offending, contrary to the said last recited Act, for every Time that he or they should so offend, to forfeit one hundred Shillings; the one Half to his Majesty, and the other Half to him that should sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the King's Courts, wherein no Wager of Law, Essoin or Protection should be allowed: And whereas by one other Act made in the first Year of the Reign of Queen MARY, intituled, An Act touching the Corporation of the Physicians in London, It is amongst other Things enacted, for the better Execution of the Search and View of Poticary Wares, Drugs and Compositions, according to the Tenour of the said Statute, made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of the said King HENRY the Eighth, That it should be lawful for the Wardens of the Grocers, or one of them, to go with the said Physicians in their View and Search, and that if the said Warden or Wardens should refuse or delay his or their coming thereunto forthwith and immediately, when the said President, or four of his College elect as aforesaid, should call upon him or them, that then the said Physicians might and should execute that Search and View, and the due Punishment of the Poticaries for any of their evil and faulty Stuff, according to the Statute therein last before mentioned, without the Assistance of any of the said Wardens; any Clause in the said therein aforesaid Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: And every such Person or Persons, as would or should resist such Search, should forfeit for every such Resistance ten Pounds, the same Penalty to be recovered in the Manner in the same Act mentioned: And it is thereby further enacted, That all Justices, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables and other Ministers and Officers within the City and Precincts above written, upon Request to them made, should help, aid and assist the President of the said College, and all Persons by them, from Time to Time, authorized for the due Execution of the said Acts or Statutes, upon Pain for not giving of such Aid, Help and Assistance, to run in Contempt of the Queen's Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, as by the said several recited Statutes may appear.

II. And whereas it has been found by Experience, That the said several recited Statutes, and the Powers thereby given to the said College of Physicians, and such four Persons chosen by them as aforesaid, have been very beneficial to the Subjects of this Realm; but nevertheless divers other Apothecaries, dwelling in the the Suburbs of the said City, and in Places in the Country within seven Miles Circuit of the same City, and also divers other Persons, as well as Apothecaries, inhabiting within the said City of London, or seven Miles Circuit of the same City, do sell Drugs, Oils, Waters and Compositions used or to be used for Medicines, which ought to be viewed, searched and examined, as well as those prepared and sold by the Apothecaries, and the want of sufficient Powers for that Purpose may be very detrimental to the Health of his Majesty's Subjects: For remedying whereof, Be it enacted, &c. EXP.

The Censors of the College, calling to their Assistance the Wardens of the Apothecaries, may in the Day-time enter into any Apothecaries, &c. Shop within seven Miles of London, to examine the Medicines, and may destroy all Drugs, &c. not meet to be used in Medicine. If the said Wardens refuse to go with the Censors, then they may execute their Power without them. If the Censors judge any Medicines to be defective, and any Person appeal to the President and Fellows, the Censors are to cause the Drugs, &c. and their Reasons for condemning them, to be put into a Box, and carried to the College. An Assembly of the President and Fellows to be summoned within 14 Days, who are to examine the Drugs, &c. and finally determine. If the Censors Judgment be confirmed, the Drugs, &c. to be burnt before the Owner's Door. If the Assembly do not confirm the Censors Judgment, the Drugs to be returned to the Place where they were found. Resisting Search forfeits 10*l.* General Issue. Not to extend to Medicines made by Virtue of any Letters Patent. Persons censured by the Censors, may appeal to the President and Fellows, whose Judgment shall be final. Continuation for 3 Years, &c.

An Act to enable the Pier-Wardens of the Town of Margat, in the County of Kent, more effectually to recover the ancient and accustomed Droits, for the Support and Maintenance of the said Pier.

I. WHEREAS the ancient Town of Margat, in the County of Kent, hath Time out of Mind had a Pier and Harbour, very commodious and of great Benefit and Advantage to the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, in the Preservation of Ships and Mariners in Storms and Strefs of Weather, and from Enemies in Times of War, and also very convenient for the Exporting and Importing many Sorts of Commodities: And whereas (the Safety of the said Town of Margat and of all the neighbouring Country depending upon the Preservation of the said Pier and Harbour) there hath, for and towards the Maintenance and Preservation thereof, been, Time immemorial, paid to the Pier-Wardens, or their Deputies for the Time being, certain Droits, commonly called Poundage and Lastage, and other Rates or Duties (which have been confirmed by the Orders and Decrees of the Lords Wardens of the Cinque Ports) and without the due Payment thereof the said Pier and Harbour must inevitably fall to Decay, to the utter Ruin of the Inhabitants of the said Town and of all the neighbouring Country, and to the great Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom. And whereas it is necessary to make more effectual Provision, as well for Recovery of the said Droits and Rates or Duties aforesaid, and for enforcing due Payment thereof, in case of Refusal or Non-payment, as also for better securing the said Pier and Harbour: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, That it may be enacted, &c. P R.

The ancient Droits for Maintenance of Margat Pier continued. Pier-Wardens to chuse Collectors. Pier-Wardens yearly to audit Collectors Accounts. Warden of the Cinque Ports, &c. may be present at the Audit. Pier-Wardens, &c. guilty of Embezzlement, may be complained of in the Admiralty of the Cinque Ports. The Judge of that Court may examine the Matter of the Complaint, and award treble the Sum embezzled, &c. Pier-Wardens, &c. may enter into any Vessel to demand the Duty. Pier-Wardens may summon Masters of Ships to be examined. Penalty on Masters not appearing, &c. 10*l.* The Money collected to be laid out for Support of Margat Pier. Pier-Wardens to prevent Annoyances in the Harbour.

C A P. IV.

An Act for preventing the Inconveniencies arising for want of Elections of Mayors or other Chief Magistrates of Boroughs or Corporations being made upon the Days appointed by Charter or Usage for that Purpose, and directing in what Manner such Elections shall be afterwards made.

I. WHEREAS in many Cities, Boroughs and Towns Corporate within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, the Election of the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, is by Charter or ancient Usage confined to a particular Day or Time, without any Provision how to act or proceed, in case no Election be then made; and it frequently happens, that by such Charter or Usage particular Acts are required to be done at certain Times, in order to and for the completing of such Elections, and by the Contrivance or Default of the Person or Persons who ought to hold the Court, or preside in the Assembly where such Elections are to be made; or such Acts to be done, or by Accident, it hath sometimes happened, and may frequently do so, if not timely prevented, That no Courts or Assemblies have been held, or Elections made, or such Acts done within the Time fixed for that Purpose; in which Cases, if Elections of such Officers could not afterwards be made or completed, or in consequence of such Omission the Corporation should be dissolved, great Mischiefs might ensue: For Remedy and Prevention whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if in any City, Borough or Town Corporate within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, no Election shall be made of the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers of such City, Borough or Town Corporate, upon the Day or within the Time appointed by Charter or Usage for such Election, or such Election being made, shall afterwards become void, whether such Omission or Avoidance shall happen through the Default of the Officer or Officers who ought to hold the Court, or preside where such Election is to be made, or by any Accident or other Means whatsoever, the Corporation shall not thereby be deemed or taken to be dissolved or disabled from electing such Officer or Officers for the future: But in any Case where no Election shall be made as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Members or Persons of such City, Borough or Corporation, who have Right to vote, or be present at, or to do any other Act necessary to be done, in order to or for the completing of such Election, and they, or such of them as shall not be hindered by any reasonable Impediment or Excuse, are hereby required respectively to meet or assemble together in the Town-Hall or other usual Place of Meeting for making such Election, within such City, Borough or Town Corporate, upon the Day next after the Expiration of the Time within which such Election ought to have been made, unless such Day shall happen to be Sunday, and then upon the Monday following, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon of the same Day; and that the Members or Persons having Right to vote at, or to do any other Act necessary to be done in order to such Election, or such of them as shall be so assembled or met together, shall forthwith proceed to the Election of a Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers for such City, Borough or Corporation, and to do every Act necessary to be done in order to or for the completing of such Election, in such Manner as was usual in, or in order to the Election of such Officer or Officers, upon the Day or within the Time appointed by Charter or Usage for such Election; and in case upon such Day of Meeting hereby appointed for such Election the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other proper Officer or Officers, who ought to have held the Court, or presided at the Assembly for such Election, or doing any other Act necessary to be done in order to such Election, if the same had been made or done on the Day fixed, or within the Time limited by Charter or Usage for that Purpose, shall be absent, then such other Person having a Right to vote, being the nearest then present in Place or Office to the Person or Persons so absentsing himself or themselves, shall hold the Court or preside in the Meeting or Assembly hereby appointed, and shall have the same Power and Authority in all Respects therein, as belongs to the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers of the same City, Borough or Town Corporate, at any Court or Assembly for the Election of Officers for such Place, or for doing any other Act necessary to be done in order to such Election.

Where Election for Mayors or other chief Officers shall not be made on the Days appointed by Charter or Usage, Corporation not dissolved or disabled from electing:

But may meet together at the Town-Hall, &c. on the Day after,

and proceed to Election.

Mayor, &c. absentsing, the nearest in Place may hold the Court.

If no Election be made, or the Election become void, King's Bench may award a Mandamus for electing.

Six Days publick Notice to be given of the Election.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall happen that in any City, Borough or Town Corporate within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, no Election shall be made of the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers of such City, Borough or Town Corporate, upon the Day or within the Time appointed by Charter or Usage for that Purpose, and that no Election of such Officer or Officers shall be made, pursuant to the Directions herein before prescribed, or such Election being made, shall afterwards become void as aforesaid, in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, upon Motion to be made in the said Court, to award a Writ or Writs of Mandamus, requiring the Members or Persons of such City, Borough or Town Corporate, having a Right to vote at, or to do any other Act necessary to be done in order to such Election respectively, to assemble themselves upon a Day and at a Time to be prefixed in such Writ or Writs, and to proceed to the Election of a Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, as the Case shall require, and to do every Act necessary to be done in order to such Election, or to signify to the said Court good Cause to the contrary, and thereupon to cause such Proceedings to be had and made, as in any other Cases of Writs of Mandamus granted by the said Court for Election of Officers of Corporations, and of the Day and Time appointed in and by any such Writ or Writs of Mandamus for holding such Assembly, publick Notice in Writing shall, by such Person as the said Court shall appoint, be affixed in the Market-Place, or some other publick Place within such City, Borough or Town Corporate, by the Space of six Days before the Day so appointed, and such Officer or other Person respectively shall preside in such Assembly, as ought to have presided at the Election of such Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, or at the doing any other Act necessary to be done in order to such Election, in case the same had been made or done upon the Day herein before prescribed for that Purpose.

Where Mayors, &c. are to be nominated or sworn at a Court-Leet, &c. and in Default of the Lord or Steward no Court be held,

King's Bench may award a Mandamus for holding the Court-Leet.

Mayors, &c. so elected, shall take the Oaths before the presiding Officer.

No such Election valid, unless as great a Number be present and concur, as required by Charter, &c.

Mayors absenting themselves, &c. shall suffer Imprisonment for six Months, &c.

No Corporation dissolved or disabled by any Omission already happened.

This Act not to make void any Charter, nor to make good any Election, where Judgment of Ouster has been awarded since last Day of Mich. Term 1724.

Return to be made to the first Writ of Mandamus.

III. And whereas in certain Boroughs and Towns Corporate within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, is or are to be nominated, elected or sworn at a Court-Leet or View of Frank-Pledge, or some other Court, and by reason of the Contrivance or Default of the Lord or his Steward, or such other Officer by or before whom such Court ought to be held, in not holding the same, or by some Accident, it hath happened and may hereafter happen, that no due Nomination, Election or Swearing of such Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, hath been or shall be had or made: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, upon Motion to be made in the said Court, to award a Writ of Mandamus, requiring the Lord or his Steward or other Officer, by or before whom such Court ought to be held, to hold or cause to be holden such Court-Leet or other Court, and to do every other Act necessary to be done by him in order to such Nomination, Election or Swearing, at such Day and Time as shall be for that Purpose judged proper by the said Court of King's Bench, and shall be appointed in such Writ, or to signify to the said Court good Cause to the contrary, and thereupon to cause such Proceedings to be had and made, as in other Cases of Writs of Mandamus granted by the said Court, for holding of any Court, and of the Day and Time appointed in and by any such Writ of Mandamus for holding such Court, publick Notice in Writing shall, by such Person as the said Court of King's Bench shall appoint, be affixed in the Market-Place, or some other publick Place within such Borough or Town Corporate, by the Space of six Days before the Day so appointed: And where a Nomination of Persons in order to the Election of any such Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, is to be made at such Court-Leet or other Court, in every such Case, after such Nomination made, all and every other Act and Acts necessary to be done in order to such Election, shall be had, made and done at such Assembly, and in such Manner and Form, as the same ought to have been had, made and done, in case such Election had been made upon the Day next after the Expiration of the Time prescribed for such Election by the Charter or Usage of such Borough or Corporation, according to the Directions herein before-mentioned.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, who shall be elected pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall take the Oath or Oaths by Law required at the Time of his Admission into such Office, before such Officer as shall preside at such Election, in Pursuance of this Act, who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath or Oaths; and shall have the same Privileges, Precedence, Powers and Authorities in all Respects, as any Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers of the same City, Borough or Corporation, elected on the Days or Time fixed by Charter or Usage for that Purpose ought to have or enjoy.

V. Provided always, That no such Election, nor any Act done in order thereunto, shall be valid, unless as great a Number of Persons, having Right to be present at and vote therein, shall be present at the Assembly holden for such Purpose, and concur therein, as would respectively have been necessary to be present, and concur in such Election or Act, in case the same had been made or done upon the Day or within the Time appointed for that Purpose by the Charter or Usage of such City, Borough or Corporation, saving only, that the Presence of the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers who ought to preside, shall not be necessary.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers of any City, Borough or Town Corporate shall voluntarily absent himself or themselves from, or knowingly and designedly prevent or hinder the Election of any other Mayor, Bailiff or other Chief Officer in the same City, Borough or Town Corporate, upon the Day or within the Time appointed by Charter or ancient Usage for such Election, the Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall for every such Offence suffer Imprisonment for the Space of six Months without Bail or Mainprize, and shall be for ever disabled to take, hold or exercise any Office belonging to the same City, Borough or Corporation.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Corporation shall be deemed or adjudged to be dissolved or disabled from electing a Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, by reason of any Omission or Default, which hath already happened in not nominating, electing or swearing a Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers of such Corporation, upon the Day or within the Time limited for such Nomination, Election or Swearing, by the Charter or Usage of such Corporation, or by reason of the Absence of the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers who ought to have presided at the Assembly for such Nomination, Election or Swearing, or by reason of such Election having become void as aforesaid, but every such Corporation shall be adjudged, deemed and taken to be and to have been subsisting and capable of electing such Officer or Officers, to all Intents and Purposes; any such Omission, Absence, Default or Avoidance, or any Defect, Disability or Forfeiture arising therefrom, in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to invalidate or make void any Charter heretofore granted to and accepted by any City, Borough or Town Corporate, or any Corporation within the same, or any of them, or any Elections or Acts had, made or done in Pursuance of any such Charter; nor to make good the Election of any Officer or Member, or of any Person claiming to be an Officer or Member of any City, Borough or Corporation, against whom any Judgment of Ouster shall have been entered or given upon any Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, or whose Election shall have been avoided upon any Writ of Mandamus, on or before the last Day of Michaelmas Term in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Writ of Mandamus shall issue out of the Court of King's Bench in any of the Cases aforesaid, the Person or Persons to whom such Writ shall be directed, shall make his or their Return to the first Writ of Mandamus.

An Act for rating such unrated Goods and Merchandizes as are usually imported into this Kingdom, and pay a Duty ad Valorem upon the Oath of the Importer; and for ascertaining the Value of all Goods and Merchandizes not inserted in the former or present Book of Rates; and for repealing certain Duties upon Drugs and Rags; and for continuing the Duty upon Apples; and for ascertaining the Method of admeasuring of Pictures imported.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

I. W HEREAS by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of ^{12 Car. 2. c. 41} King CHARLES the Second, a Subsidy called Poundage was laid upon all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes of every Merchant, natural-born Subject, Denizen and Alien, to be brought into this Realm, or any the Dominions to the same belonging, by way of Merchandize, of the Value of every twenty Shillings of the same Goods and Merchandizes, according to the several and particular Rates and Values of the same Goods and Merchandizes, as the same are particularly and respectively rated and valued in the Book of Rates therein mentioned and referred unto (subscribed with the Hand of Sir Harbottle Grimstone, Baronet, then Speaker of the House of Commons) twelve Pence, and so after that Rate; in which Book of Rates it is provided, That if there should happen to be brought into this Realm any Goods liable to the Payment of Custom and Subsidy, which either were omitted in the said Book, or were not then used to be brought in, or by reason of the great Diversity of the Value of some Goods could not be rated; That in such Case every Customer or Collector for the Time being should levy the said Custom and Subsidy of Poundage according to the Value and Price of such Goods, to be affirmed upon the Oath of the Merchant in the Presence of the Customer, Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor, or any two of them: And whereas a further Subsidy of Poundage, of twelve Pence in the Pound, was granted to his Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (of glorious Memory) for his Life, by an Act made in the ninth Year of his Reign, upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported (except such as are therein excepted) which further Subsidy was again granted to her late Majesty Queen ANNE for her Life, by an Act made in the first Year of her Reign; and the said further Subsidy was again granted to his present Majesty for his Life (which God long preserve) by an Act made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, with the like Provision with respect to any Goods imported that were not rated in the said Book of Rates, as was made touching the like Goods liable to the first mentioned Subsidy of twelve Pence in the Pound, granted by the said Act made in the twelfth Year of King CHARLES the Second: And whereas by an Act made in the second Year of her said late Majesty another Subsidy of Poundage was granted upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported (except as therein is excepted) commonly called the one third Subsidy; and by an Act passed in the third Year of her said late Majesty another Subsidy of Poundage was granted upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported (except as therein is excepted) commonly called the two thirds Subsidy; which said several Subsidies of one third and two thirds are, by the respective Acts which granted and continued the same, to be paid in Proportion to the said further Subsidy granted by the said Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, and since continued during his present Majesty's Life as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, an Imposition (commonly ^{2 W. & M. sess. 2. c. 4.} called the old Impost) was laid on several Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and it is provided, That where any Duties upon Goods and Merchandizes therein granted are to be levied according to the Value of the same, where such Goods or Merchandizes are particularly rated in the said Book of Rates, the Value shall be understood and taken according to such Rate, and where they are not particularly rated, the Value shall be taken by and according to the Oath of the Importer, and not otherwise (the Duties imposed by the said Act not to be reckoned into the Value of the same:) And whereas by an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties, an additional Impost was laid upon several Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned according as the same stood rated in the said Book of Rates, and also upon all Goods and Merchandizes imported not particularly rated in the said Book of Rates, paying Duty at Value, five Pounds for every one hundred Pounds Value thereof, to be affirmed upon the Oath of the Importer according to the Direction of the said Book of Rates (except Mum, and such Goods and Merchandizes as were particularly charged by the said Act of the fourth Year of their said late Majesties, or by the said Act of the second Year of their said late Majesties Reign:) And whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, an additional Duty of twenty-five ^{7 W. 3. c. 20.} Pounds per Centum ad Valorem was laid upon all Goods of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of France imported (other than those particularly rated) to be raised, levied, collected and paid by such Rules, Means and Ways as are mentioned in the said Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the twelfth Year of his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second: And whereas by an Act made in the third Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, a further Duty was granted after the Rate of four Pounds for every one hundred Pounds Value, for and upon all unrated Drugs (dying Drugs excepted) that should be imported from any Parts or Places (other than the East-Indies, Persia, China, and other Parts within the Limits of the Charters granted to the East-India Company) and that the Values of such unrated Drugs should be affirmed by the Oaths of the Importers of such Drugs respectively; all which Acts, which granted the said several Subsidies, commonly called the old Subsidy, the one third Subsidy and two thirds Subsidy (except the said further Subsidy, which is granted to his Majesty during his Life) as also the said Impositions, additional Duty on French Goods, and the further Duty upon unrated Drugs, are by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the Values of the several Sorts of Goods usually imported, and not rated in the said Book of Rates, which are sworn to or affirmed by the Importers, according to which the said Subsidies and other Duties are to be paid, have been very unequal, some Persons greatly undervaluing the same, to the Detriment of the Revenue and Discouragement of the fair Traders: Now (for remedying the Abuses aforesaid, aforesaid, and for putting Trade on a more equal Foot) We your faithful Commons in Parliament assembled do beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Provisions and Clauses contained in the said recited Acts and Book of Rates before-mentioned, for ascertaining the Value of Goods or Merchandizes imported according to the Oaths or Affirmations of the Importers, so far as the same relate to the particular Goods and Merchandizes mentioned and expressed in a certain Book of Rates herein after mentioned and referred unto, shall, from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be and are hereby repealed and made void.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the said former Rates and Duties ad Valorem, repealed by this Act, there shall, from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be payable and paid for the said old Subsidy the several Rates and Duties mentioned and expressed in one Book of Rates, intituled, An Additional Book of Rates of Goods and Merchandizes usually imported and not particularly rated in the Book of Rates referred to in the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, with Rules, Orders and Regulations, signed by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Esquire, Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons, the said Rates and Duties to be paid upon Importation of the said Goods and Merchandizes respectively into any Port or Place within this Kingdom, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; which said last mentioned Book of Rates, composed and agreed on by your Majesty's said Commons, and every Article, Rule and Clause therein contained, shall be and remain, during the Continuance of the said first recited Act of Tonnage and Poundage, of full Force, and shall be put in Execution as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly inserted in the Body of this present Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any of the said Goods or Merchandizes mentioned in the said Book of Rates are by Law subject or liable to the Payment of the said further Subsidy, the one third Subsidy, the two thirds Subsidy, the old Impost, the additional Impost, the additional Duty on French Goods, and the further Duty on unrated Drugs, or any of them, according to the respective Values set thereon for the said old Subsidy, or in Proportion thereto, the same shall, from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be paid propor-tionably according to the particular Value set thereon in the said Book of Rates last mentioned for the old Subsidy aforesaid, and not according to the Oath or Affirmation of the Importer; any Thing in the respective Acts which granted the said Duties, or in any other Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty QUEEN ANNE (for laying several Duties upon all Sope and Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) a new Duty, after the Rate of twenty Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value, was laid upon all Paper, White or Brown, or of any other Colour or Kind whatsoever, which should be imported or brought into this Kingdom (not being particularly charged in that Act) and by another Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, a further new Duty, after the Rate of ten Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value, was laid on the like Sorts of unrated Paper imported, the said Values of such Paper in the two Acts last mentioned to be taken to be so much as such imported Kinds are really worth to be sold at the Port of Importation, without any Abatement for the Duties charged by the said Acts, or any former Acts, the said new Duties, so payable ad Valorem, to be received and levied upon the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant or Importer; which said Acts are by subsequent Acts continued for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five the said several Acts of Parliament made in the tenth and twelfth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty, so far as they relate to the levying the said respective new Duties of twenty Pounds per Centum, and ten Pounds per Centum, on all Paper, White or Brown, or of any other Colour, imported, not particularly charged in the said Acts, according to such Valuations thereof upon the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant or Importer, shall be and are hereby repealed, and instead thereof the said new Duties of twenty Pounds per Centum and ten Pounds per Centum, so payable ad Valorem, shall be answered, levied and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, over and above the Subsidies and other Duties on unrated Paper, for and towards the Fund granted by the said Acts of the tenth and twelfth Years of her said late Majesty, and during the Continuance thereof, according to the respective Rates and Values for and upon the several Kinds and Sorts of unrated Paper mentioned and expressed in a certain Book of Rates before-mentioned, signed by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Esquire, Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity, as fully and effectually as if the said Rates and Values, and the Clauses and Rules relating thereunto, were inserted in the Body of this present Act; any Thing in the said Acts of the tenth and twelfth Years of her said late Majesty, or in any other Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And for the more equal Payment of the said several Duties upon unrated Paper imported or brought into this Kingdom from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any new Fabrick or Sorts or Kinds of Paper shall be imported, which are not particularly valued or rated in the said respective Books of Rates, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament, such Paper or Papers shall pay the several and respective Duties that are charged thereon according to the Values and Rates of those Sorts or Kinds of Papers, which are nearest above in Size and Goodness to the several Sorts or Kinds of Papers valued or rated in the said respective Books of Rates, or by this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament, without any Distinctions of Country or Place from whence the same shall be imported; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And

VI. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Subsidies, Impositions, Duties, new Duties, and further new Duties upon the said several Sorts of unrated Goods, shall be paid or secured, and shall be raised, levied and collected in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Discounts, Allowances and Drawbacks as are mentioned and expressed in the several Acts of Parliament which granted or continued the same respectively; and all Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles and Clauses therein contained (except in such Cases where any Alteration is by this Act made) shall continue in full Force and Effect during the Continuance of the said respective Subsidies, Impositions and other Duties, and new Duties, and shall be applied, practised and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, securing, answering, paying and appropriating the said respective Subsidies, Impositions and other Duties according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Clauses, Matters and Things (except as aforesaid) had been again repeated in the Body of this present Act; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the several Subsidies on unrated Goods are to be raised.

VII. And whereas it may happen that several Goods and Merchandizes may be imported, which are omitted to be rated in either of the said Books of Rates; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in such Case the Value and Price of such Goods and Merchandizes shall be ascertained by the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant, in the Presence of the Customer, Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor, or any two of them, and the old Subsidy, and other Duties which are payable in Proportion to the said old Subsidy, are to be paid according to such Value and Price.

How Goods not rated in the Books of Rates are to pay.

VIII. And the better to prevent Frauds to the Revenue, and that all Merchants may be upon a more equal Foot in Trade, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Collector and Comptroller, or other proper Officers of the Customs, to open, view and examine such Goods and Merchandizes paying Duty ad Valorem, and compare the same with the Value and Price thereof so sworn to or affirmed; and if upon such View and Examination it shall appear, that such Goods or Merchandizes are not valued by such Oath or Affirmation according to the true Value and Price thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, that then and in such Case the Importer or Proprietor shall, on Demand made in Writing by the Customer or Collector, and Comptroller of the Port where such Goods or Merchandizes are entered, deliver or cause to be delivered all such Goods and Merchandizes into his Majesty's Warehouse at the Port of Importation, for the Use and Benefit of the Crown; and upon such Delivery the Customer or Collector of such Port, with the Privy of the Comptroller, shall, out of any Money in his Hands, arising by Customs or other Duties belonging to the Crown, pay to such Importer or Proprietor the Value of such Goods and Merchandizes so sworn to or affirmed for the said old Subsidy as aforesaid, together with an Addition of the Customs and other Duties paid for such Goods, and of ten Pounds per Centum over and above the Value thereof, taking a Receipt for the same from such Importer or Proprietor, in full Satisfaction for the said Goods, as if they had been regularly sold; and the respective Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the said Goods to be fairly and publickly sold for the best Advantage; and out of the Produce thereof the Money so paid or advanced as aforesaid shall be repaid to such Collector, to be replaced to such Funds from whence he borrowed the same, and the Overplus (if any) shall be paid into his Majesty's Exchequer towards the Sinking Fund; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Proper Officer may examine Goods paying ad Valorem, and if not valued to the true Price, may warehouse the Goods for the Use of the Crown, and pay to the Importer the Value sworn to, with the Customs paid, and 10 l. per Cent. over.

IX. And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE (for laying additional Duties on Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, and new Duties on Starch, Coffee, Tea and Drugs, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) a Duty was granted after the Rate of twenty Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of all Kinds of Drugs imported (dying Drugs imported from foreign Parts and Turpentine imported from the British Plantations excepted) over and above all other Customs, Subsidies and Duties imposed upon or payable for the same: And whereas it has been found by Experience, That the laying the said additional Duty of twenty Pounds per Centum on the said Drugs has not answered the Intention thereof, the said Duty being so excessive high, that the fair Merchant cannot import the said Drugs, which gives Opportunity to run the same clandestinely, to the Prejudice of the Revenue; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Duty of twenty Pounds per Centum upon Drugs, payable by Virtue of the said last mentioned Act, shall, from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, cease, determine, and be no longer payable; any Thing in the said Act or in any other Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

10 Ann. c. 26. sect. 32.

The additional Duty 10 Ann. on Drugs to cease after 25 March 1725.

No Duty on old Rags imported.

X. And for the Encouragement of the making of Paper in this Kingdom, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five it shall and may be lawful to import into this Kingdom any old Rags, old Ropes or Junks, or old Fishing-Nets, fit only for the making of Paper or Pastboard, without paying any Subsidy, Custom, Imposition or other Duty for the same, so as a due Entry be first made thereof in the Custom-house belonging to the Port into which the same shall be imported, in the same Manner and Form, expressing the Quantities and Qualities of the said Goods, as was used and practised before the making of this Act, and so as the same be landed in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers appointed for that Purpose; and on Failure of such Conditions such Goods shall be liable to Forfeiture, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted, and the Value thereof divided, as if this Act had never been made; any Law, Statute, Usage or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (for paying off and cancelling one million of Exchequer-Bills, and for other Purposes therein mentioned) an additional Duty of two Shillings for every Bushel was laid upon all Apples imported after the Feast-Day of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, to continue during the Term of three Years, and until the End of the next Session of Parliament next following the said Term of three Years; which Term being near expired, and it being found necessary to continue the same for a further Term of Years; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Duty of two Shillings for every Bushel of Apples imported shall be further continued, from and after the Expiration of the Term and Time aforesaid, for and during the Term of seven Years; and the said Act so made in the eighth Year of his present Majesty, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles and Clauses therein contained (for or concerning the said additional Duty on Apples imported) shall continue and be in Force, and be applied, practised and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, answering and paying the said additional Duty upon Apples imported, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Matters and Things in the said Act, so far as the same relates to the additional Duty on Apples imported, had been again repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act; any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clause for ascertaining the Method of admeasuring Pictures imported.
3 Geo. I. c. 20.

XII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That from and after the Feast-Day of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two there shall be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all Pictures which shall be imported into Great Britain, the certain Duties following, according to the respective Dimensions of such Pictures; that is to say, For every Picture of four Feet square or upwards, or of any Dimensions, which being reduced will produce a Square of four Feet or upwards, the Sum of three Pounds; for every Picture of two Feet square, and under four Feet square, the Sum of forty Shillings; and for every Picture under two Feet square, the Sum of twenty Shillings: And whereas some Doubts have arisen as to the reducing Pictures to the said several Squares of four Feet and two Feet; for obviating and preventing such Doubts for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Pictures, which from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five shall be imported into Great Britain, shall be measured and reduced to superficial Measure, that is to say, every Picture, which being reduced will produce a Square of four Feet or upwards, shall be a Picture that shall contain sixteen superficial Feet or upwards, and shall pay the said Sum of three Pounds; every Picture of two Feet square, and under four Feet square, shall, when reduced, produce four superficial Feet or upwards, and under sixteen superficial Feet, and shall pay the said Sum of forty Shillings; and every Picture under two Feet square shall be a Picture which, when reduced, shall produce less than four superficial Feet, and shall pay the Sum of twenty Shillings; any Thing in the said Act of the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, or any other Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

An Additional Book of Rates of Goods and Merchandizes usually imported, and not particularly rated in the Book of Rates referred to in the Act of Tonnage and Poundage made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second: With Rules, Orders and Regulations, signed by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Esquire, Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons.

Rules, Orders and Regulations.

ANY of the Rates aforesaid, or any Thing contained in this Additional Book of Rates, is not to extend to alter the Method prescribed by Law for ascertaining the Values upon such unrated Goods, Wares and Merchandizes imported, as are of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of the East-Indies, China or other the Parts within the Limits of the Charters granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies: Or,

To the charging any Duty upon such Sort of Wood, Plank or Timber wrought or unwrought, or any of the Goods called Lumber, which are to be imported, Duty-free, by Virtue of the Act made in the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, on the Conditions therein mentioned, during the Continuance of the said Act: Or,

To the charging any Duty upon such Drugs, or other Goods used in Dying, which are to be imported Duty-free, by Virtue of another Act made in the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, on the Conditions therein mentioned.

And whereas it may happen, that several Goods and Merchandizes may be imported, which are omitted to be rated in the Book of Rates made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, or in this Additional Book of Rates, or in some particular Act of Parliament, in such Case, the Value and Price of such Goods and Merchandizes for the Old Subsidy (other than of those of India, Persia or China) shall be ascertained by the Oath or Affirmation of the Merchant, in the Presence of the Customer, Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor, or any two of them; and the better to prevent Frauds, and that all Merchants may be upon an equal Foot in Trade, the Collector and Comptroller, or other proper Officers of the Customs, may open, view and examine such Goods and Merchandizes paying Duty ad Valorem, and compare the same with the Value and Price thereof so sworn to or affirmed; and if upon such View and Examination it shall appear, that such Goods or Merchandizes are not valued by such Oath or Affirmation, according to the true Value and Price thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, that then and in such Case the Importer or Proprietor shall on Demand made in Writing by the Customer or Collector and Comptroller of the Port where such Goods or Merchandizes are entred, deliver or cause to be delivered, all such Goods and Merchandizes into his Majesty's Warehouse at the Port of Importation, for the Use and Benefit of the Crown; and, upon such Delivery, the Customer or Collector of such Port, with the Privy of the Comptroller, shall, out of any Money in the Hands of such Customer or Collector, arising by Customs or other Duties belonging to the Crown, pay to such Importer or Proprietor, the Value of such Goods and Merchandizes so sworn to or affirmed, for the said Old Subsidy as aforesaid, together with an Addition of the Customs and other Duties paid for such Goods, and of ten Pounds per Centum to such Value, taking a Receipt for the same from such Importer or Proprietor, in full Satisfaction for the said Goods, as if they had been regularly sold; and the respective Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the said Goods to be fairly and publickly sold for the best Advantage, and out of the Produce thereof, the Money so paid or advanced as aforesaid, shall be repaid to such Customer or Collector, with the Privy of the Comptroller, to be replaced to such Funds from whence the same was borrowed, and the Overplus (if any) shall be paid into his Majesty's Exchequer, towards the Sinking Fund, by the Title of Unrated Goods imported undervalued.

C A P. VIII.

An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; and for transferring the Deficiency of a late Malt Act to this Act; and for explaining a late Act in relation to Stamp-Duties on News-Papers; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for disposing certain Overplus Money to proper Objects of Charity; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer-Bills, Lottery-Tickets and Orders, lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed; and for giving further Time to Clerks and Apprentices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures and Contracts.

XIII. AND whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, it is (amongst other Things) enacted, that the following Duties should be paid on all Books and Papers commonly called Pamphlets; and for and upon all printed News-Papers or Papers containing publick News, Intelligence or Occurrences (that is to say) for every Pamphlet or Paper contained in Half a Sheet, or in any lesser Piece of Paper printed, the Sum of one Half-penny; and for every Pamphlet or Paper being larger than Half a Sheet, and not exceeding one whole Sheet, one Penny; and for every Pamphlet or Paper, being larger than one whole Sheet, and not exceeding six Sheets in Octavo, or in a lesser Page, and not exceeding twelve Sheets in Quarto, or twenty Sheets in Folio, a Duty after the Rate

Rate of two Shillings for every Sheet of any Kind of Paper which shall be contained in one printed Copy thereof, as by the said recited Act, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear: And whereas the Authors or Printers of several Journals, Mercuries and other News-Papers, do, with an Intent to defeat the aforesaid Payments, and in Defraud of the Crown, so contrive as to print their said Journals and News-Papers on one Sheet and Half-Sheet of Paper each, and by that Means they neither pay the aforesaid Duties of one Penny for each Sheet, nor a Half-penny for the Half-Sheet, as by Law they ought to do, but enter them as Pamphlets, and pay only three Shillings for each Impression thereof, whereby his Majesty hath been much injured in his Revenue, and the Printers of other News-Papers, who do regularly pay the said Duties, are great Sufferers thereby: For Remedy whereof, it is hereby enacted and declared, That such Journals, Mercuries and News-Papers, so printed on one Sheet and Half-Sheet of Paper, shall not for the future be deemed or taken as Pamphlets, to be entered and to pay only three Shillings for each Impression thereof.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, the following Duties shall be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon every Journal, Mercury or other publick News-Paper, which shall be printed and published in Great Britain, during the Term mentioned in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, by which the Duties aforesaid are granted or continued, (that is to say) for every Sheet of Paper, on which any Journal, Mercury or other News-Paper whatsoever, shall be printed, a Duty of one Penny Sterling, and for every Half-Sheet thereof, the Sum of one Half-penny Sterling; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Duties shall be levied, collected and paid in the same Manner, and subject to the same Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, Appropriations and Redemptions as are mentioned and contained in the aforesaid Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, or any other Act of Parliament relating to the Duties thereby granted.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Monies lent and to be lent to his Majesty upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and so much Money (if any such be) of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise, and remain after all the Loans made, or to be made on the same Act, or thereby transferred, or directed to be transferred thereunto, and all the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Land Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same; and all the Money lent or to be lent to his Majesty, by Virtue of this present Act, and so much of the Duties on Salt, Hum, Cyder and Perry, thereby granted or continued, as shall arise or remain, (if any such be) after all the Loans hereby directed to be made, and all the Interest thereof, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the same Duties, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and the Sum of thirteen thousand and ten Pounds seven Shillings and two Pence three Farthings, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, on Arrears of former Land Taxes, shall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are herein after prescribed, (that is to say;) It is hereby enacted and declared, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum not exceeding fifty-seven thousand nine hundred fifty-three Pounds five Shillings and nine Pence Half-penny, to make good the Deficiency of the Fund, commonly called the General Fund, for raising seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one fifth Part of a Penny per Annum, for the Year ended at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred twenty-four.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding seven hundred thirty-four thousand two hundred ninety-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and nine Pence, for or towards the Naval Services herein after more particularly expressed, (that is to say) For or towards defraying the Charge of the Ordinary of his Majesty's Navy, and for Half-pay to Sea-Officers, and for and towards Utual, Wages, Wear and Tear of the Navy, and the Utualling thereof, performed and to be performed, and for or towards Sea-Services in the Office of Ordnance, performed and to be performed, and for or towards other Sea Services of the Navy, performed and to be performed.

XVIII. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding eighty thousand and eighty Pounds eleven Shillings and ten Pence, for or towards defraying the Charge of the Office of his Majesty's Ordnance for Land-Services, performed and to be performed, and for defraying several extraordinary Expences of the Office of Ordnance for Land-Services, not provided for by Parliament.

XIX. And it is hereby likewise enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall or may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of nine hundred and twelve thousand nine hundred sixty-eight Pounds two Shillings and eight Pence Farthing, for or towards maintaining his Majesty's Land-Forces, and other Services herein after more particularly expressed; That is to say, any Sum, not exceeding six hundred fifty-four thousand four hundred eighty-eight Pounds seventeen Shillings and eight Pence, for defraying the Charge of eighteen thousand two hundred sixty-four effective Men, including Commission and Non-Commission Officers and Invalids, for Guards, Garrisons and other his Majesty's Land-Forces in Great Britain, Jersey and Guernsey, and other Services relating to the Forces for the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-five; and any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding one hundred fifty-two thousand six hundred thirty-seven Pounds sixteen Shillings and five Pence Half-penny, for maintaining his Majesty's Forces and Garrisons in the Plantations, Minorca and Gibraltar, and for Provisions for the Garrisons of Annapolis Royal, Placentia and Gibraltar for the Year one thousand thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; and any Sum and Sums of Money not exceeding twelve thousand Pounds, upon Account for Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital for the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-five; and any Sum and Sums of Money not exceeding sixteen thousand eight hundred forty-one Pounds eight Shillings and six Pence three Farthings; for defraying several extraordinary Expences and Services incurred, and not provided for by Parliament, on Account of Provisions for the Garrison of Gibraltar; and for a Loss by Bills of Exchange drawn by Moses Beranger in the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-one, for remitting Subsistence to his Majesty's Forces in Minorca and Gibraltar, which were returned protested, and on Account of what is due to the Garrison of Placentia; and the four late Independent Companies of that Garrison, between the twenty-fourth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, and the twenty-fourth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, when the said Companies were regimented; and any Sum and Sums of Money not exceeding seventy-seven thousand Pounds, upon Account of Half-pay to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land-Forces and Marines, for the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-five, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as are herein after prescribed concerning the same; and any Sum and Sums of Money not exceeding thirty-seven thousand nine hundred thirty-one Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence half-penny, towards making good the Deficiency of the Grants for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-four.

Surplus of this Sum, appropriated. 12 Geo. 1. c. 12. § 35.

XX. And be it enacted, That the said Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before-mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies before directed to be satisfied out of the said Loans, by any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in this Act, or in the said Act of this present Session of Parliament, for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax.

Not to be applied to other Uses.

XXI. And as to the said Sum of seventy-seven thousand Pounds by this Act appropriated on Account of Half-pay as aforesaid, It is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules herein after prescribed shall be duly observed in the Application thereof; that is to say, That no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor under the Age of sixteen Years at the Time when the Regiment, Troop or Company, in which he served, was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop or Company; that no Person, having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice, or other Preferment in Great Britain or Ireland; shall have or receive any of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who hath resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Persons by Virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons who would have been otherwise entitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the five Regiments of Dragoons, and eight Regiments of Foot, lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

Rules to be observed in Application of the Half-pay.

XXII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, to raise Money by Way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-four, and for other Purposes therein expressed, several Supplies, which had been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, among which any Sum or Sums not exceeding the Sum of seventy-nine thousand Pounds, upon Account of Half-pay, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land-Forces and Marines, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf; now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Sum of seventy-nine thousand Pounds, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers, according to the said Rules by the aforesaid Act prescribed to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall or may be disposed to such Officers who were maimed or lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or to such others as by Reason of their long Service, or otherwise, his Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants, under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act, or the said former Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for continuing the several Annuities of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and one hundred thousand Pounds to the Bank of England, until Midsummer one thousand seven hundred twenty-seven; and from thence, for reducing the same to seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, redeemable by Parliament; and for preventing the uttering of forged, counterfeited or erased Bank-Bills or Notes.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, (of blessed Memory) intituled, An Act for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England; and for raising a further Supply to her Majesty, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine; the Governor and Company of the Bank of England were obliged, in the Manner therein mentioned, to deliver up to be cancelled certain Exchequer-Bills, which had been made forth by a former Act of Parliament in that Behalf; which Bills, with Interest thereupon, were computed to amount to seventeen hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny; and to the End the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, might have a competent Recompence and Consideration for so doing, and for all their Demands relating thereto, it was by the said Act of the seventh Year of her said late Majesty's Reign enacted, that from and after the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, should have, receive and enjoy one Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand and five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, out of such Duties on Houses as are therein mentioned: But it was thereby provided and enacted, That at any Time, upon one Year's Notice to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, and upon full Payment to them of the said Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, (if any should be then due) then, and not till then, the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum, should cease and determine; and then also the said Duties on Houses should be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and should not be issued, paid or applied to any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but by the Authority of Parliament: And whereas in an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for redeeming several Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, pursuant to former Provisoes of Redemption; and for securing to them several new Funds and Allowances redeemable by Parliament; and for obliging them to advance further Sums, not exceeding two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, at five Pounds per Centum per Annum, as shall be found necessary to be employed in lessening the National Debts and Incumbrances; and for continuing certain Provisions formerly made for the Expence of your Majesty's Civil Government; and for Payment of Annuities formerly purchased at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum; and for other Purposes in the said Act mentioned, reciting, that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in Regard the common Rate of Interest-Money was very much lessened under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, and that several of the Funds of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the said Act mentioned, were redeemable at such Times, and in such Manner, as in the said Act are particularly set forth; and that they the said Governor and Company were willing and contented to accept one Annuity of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, being after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the said Principal Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, in Lieu of their then present Annuity or Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence per Annum; and that the said Governor and Company were also willing and contented to discharge and deliver up to be cancelled, as many of the Exchequer-Bills, formerly made forth, as amounted to two millions in Principal Money, and to accept an Annuity or Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, being after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the same: It was in and by the said Act of the third Year of your Majesty's Reign enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, should have, receive and enjoy the said Annuity or yearly Sum of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, in Respect of the said Principal Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny; which annual or yearly Sum of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, was thereby charged upon, and made payable from Time to Time, out of all the Monies arisen or to arise, at the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer, of or for the particular Duties on Houses therein mentioned, and of or for the said Duties and Revenues, commonly called the Aggregate Fund, and every or any of them, and was to be paid to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for ever, from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year, by even and equal Portions; all which Payments were to be made in such Manner and Form, and with such Preference as are in the said Act prescribed in that Behalf: But it was thereby also provided and enacted, That upon one Year's Notice to be given at the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, or any quarterly Feast-day after, and upon Repayment by Parliament, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, of the said Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny per Annum, (if any should be then due) then, and not till then, the said Annuity of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny per Annum, should cease and determine; and in and by the said Act it was further provided and enacted, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England should, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, deliver up as many Exchequer-Bills formerly made forth (then being uncanceled and undischarged) as amounted to the Sum of two millions in Principal Money, to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, should nominate, to be discharged, cancelled and made void; and that, from and after the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for ever, should have, receive and enjoy one Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, computed upon the said Principal Sum of two millions; which yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds was thereby charged upon and made payable, from Time to Time, out of all the Monies arising or to arise at the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer, as well of or for the said several Duties, Revenues and Incomes, called the Aggregate Fund aforesaid, as of or for the said particular Duties on Houses, and was to be paid at such Times, and in such Manner and Form, and with such Preference as are in the said Act prescribed in that Behalf: And it is by the said Act also enacted and provided, That at any Time, upon one Year's Notice to be given at the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, or any quarterly Feast-day after, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, of the said Sum of two millions, and of all Arrearages of the said yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds (if any should be due at the Time of such Payments) then, and not till then, the said Annuity of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum should cease and determine, as in and by the said Act it doth and may more fully and at large appear: And whereas, pursuant to the said Act, and the Provisions therein contained, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England did, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, deliver up as many of the said Exchequer-Bills as amounted to the said Sum of two millions in Principal Money

Money, and the same were discharged, cancelled and made void; and they the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England have, ever since the said Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, received and enjoyed the said Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, and are still entitled unto the same: And whereas in and by one other Act of Parliament, made in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for applying certain Overplus Monies, and further Sums to be raised, as well by way of a Lottery as by Loans, towards paying off and cancelling Exchequer-Bills, and for lessening the present great Charge in Relation to those Bills, and for circulating and exchanging for ready Money the Residue of the same Bills for the Future, It is amongst divers other Matters and Things enacted and declared, That all the said particular Duties on Houses, and all the said other Rates, Duties, Revenues and Incomes, which by the said Act of the third Year of your Majesty's Reign were settled for answering the respective Payments therein mentioned (and which are denominated to be the Aggregate Fund) and every of them should be continued, and be paid and payable to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors for ever, and that all the Monies of the said Duties, Revenues and Incomes, which should or ought to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, issuing, paying and accounting for the same) should be and are hereby appropriated; and should be issued and applied to and for the Repayment and Satisfaction of several yearly and other Sums in the said Act particularly expressed, in the due Course, and with such Preferences as are thereby appointed, amongst which Payments an express Provision is made for Payment of the said several and respective Annuities of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum; and it was thereby enacted, That the said several Annuities, and either of them, should severally and respectively be redeemable upon such Payments, and in such Manner and Form as in and by the respective Provisions contained in the recited Act of the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, are prescribed for the Redemption thereof: And whereas due Notice was given by the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Esquire, Speaker of the House of Commons, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for paying of the said Principal Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and for redeeming the said Annuity of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, attending thereon, at the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and pursuant to the said Notice, the same is redeemable accordingly: And whereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have agreed and consented, That in case they may be permitted to enjoy the said Annuities of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and one hundred thousand Pounds, until the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven; That from and after the said Feast-day not only their said Annuity of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, but also their Annuity of one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, upon the respective Sums of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and two millions, shall be actually reduced to four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and be likewise from thenceforth redeemable by Parliament: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to have the publick Debts and Incumbrances lessened and discharged as fast as conveniently may be, with Regard to Justice and the publick Faith, do humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, the said respective Annuities aforesaid shall cease and determine; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors (subject nevertheless to the Provision and Power of Redemption hereafter in this Act contained in that Behalf, and none other) shall have, receive and enjoy, in Lieu of the respective Annuities aforesaid, one Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, in Respect of the said Principal Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand and twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and one other Annuity or yearly Sum of eighty thousand Pounds, in Respect of the said Principal Sum of two millions; which said several and respective annual or yearly Sums of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, shall be and are hereby charged upon and shall be paid and payable, from Time to Time, out of all the Monies arisen, or to arise, at the said Receipt of the Exchequer, of or for the said particular Duties on Houses aforesaid, and of and for the Duties and Revenues called the Aggregate Fund, and every or any of them; and shall be paid and payable to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for ever, from the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, at the four most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year, by even and equal Portions; all which Payments shall also be made in such Manner and Form, and on such Conditions, and with such Preference, as are in the said Act prescribed and directed, in Relation to the said several Annuities of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum respectively.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, of the said several and respective Principal Sums of one million, seven hundred seventy-five thousand twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and two millions, without any Deduction, Discount or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same, or any Part thereof, and of all Arrears of the said respective Annuities of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds per Annum, (if any such shall be then due) then, and not till then, the said several and respective Annuities of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings and eighty thousand Pounds, or either of them which shall be so redeemed, shall from thenceforth cease and determine; any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Provisions, Matters

As any Part of the Principal Sums are paid off, a proportional Part of the Annuities to be abated.

III. And in Regard it is intended that the said Annuities may be satisfied by any Payments, not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain at a Time, and that as the said Principal Money shall be paid off, the said Debt and Annuities shall proportionally sink and be abated; Be it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times Payment be made of any Sum or Sums of Money, (not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time,) in Part for the respective Principal Sums, for which the said Annuities shall be payable as aforesaid, and also if Payment be made of all Arrearages then due to them, of the same Annuities, or so much of those Arrearages, as shall bear a Proportion to the Principal Monies from Time to Time remaining unsatisfied, being computed till the Time of every such Payment of Part of the Principal respectively, then from and after every such Payment so made, so much of the said Annuities, as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in Part of the said Principal, shall cease, determine and be abated; any Thing in this, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

These Annuities Personal Estates.

IV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Annuities, or Sums of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, and either of them, shall be deemed and adjudged to be Personal Estates, and the same, and the Stock and Stocks, which the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, now have, or are entitled unto, as also all such Stock or Stocks, which the said Governor and Company shall or may be entitled unto by Virtue of this Act, and also the Principal Sums and Annuities payable to the said Governor and Company, for or in respect of any such Stock or Stocks, are and shall by Virtue of this Act be clear and free, and freed and discharged of and from all Taxes, Charges and publick Impositions whatsoever, charged or to be charged thereupon, and shall not be liable to any foreign Attachments; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Powers of former Acts continued, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said former Acts above recited or mentioned, and all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, Rules, Directions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, being now in Force (such Alterations as are therein made by this Act only excepted) shall continue and be used, exercised, insisted, applied and put in Practice and Execution, as fully as if the said Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, Rules, Directions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were again repeated and reenacted in the Body of this present Act; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall continue to be a Corporation, and shall enjoy the several Annuities or Sums of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, till they respectively shall be redeemed as aforesaid; and shall enjoy all such Capacities, Powers, Privileges and Advantages, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as a Corporation belonging, until the said Annuities or yearly Sums shall be redeemed (according to the Proviso in this Act contained concerning the same) freed and discharged of and from all former and other Provisoes and Powers of Redemption whatsoever, for redeeming the said Duties or Revenues called the Aggregate Fund, or the said Duties on Houses, or any of them; any former Act or Statute, or any Clause, Matter or Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Forging, &c. Bank-Bills or Notes, Felony.

VI. And whereas of late divers Frauds and Deceits have been put upon the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and other Persons, by the altering, forging and counterfeiting of the Bank-Bills, and Bank-Notes of the said Governor and Company, and by the erasing and altering the said Bills and Notes, and the Endorsements thereupon, and by the tendering in Payment, uttering, vending, exchanging and bartering, of such altered, forged, counterfeited and erased Bills and Notes, and the Endorsements thereupon, to the Prejudice of publick Credit, and to the great Hurt and Diminution of Trade and Commerce; For redressing whereof for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall alter, forge or counterfeit any Bank-Bill or Bank Note, made or given out for the Payment of any Sum of Money, by or for the said Governor and Company, or any Bank-Note of any Sort whatsoever, or shall erase or alter any such Bill or Note, or any Endorsement thereupon, or shall tender in Payment, utter, vend, exchange or barter, any such altered, forged or counterfeited Bill or Note, or any erased or altered Bill or Note, or the Endorsement thereupon, or demand to have the same exchanged for ready Money by the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, or any other Person or Persons (knowing such Bill or Note, or the Endorsement thereupon, so tendered or demanded to be exchanged, vend, or bartered, to be altered, forged, counterfeited or erased) and with Intention to defraud the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, or any other Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate; then every such Person or Persons so offending, (being thereof lawfully convicted) shall be, and is hereby declared and adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer as in Cases of Felony.

An Act for incorporating the Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Thomas Guy, late of the City of London, Esq; deceased, and others, in order to the better Management and Disposition of the Charities given by his said Last Will.

I. WHEREAS Thomas Guy, late of the City of London, Esquire, deceased, having in his Life-time, at his own Costs and Charges, erected in the Parish of St. Thomas in Southwark, one new large Building, consisting of two Squares; with several other proper Edifices thereunto adjoining or belonging, did on the twenty-seventh Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, depart this Life, having duly made and executed his Last Will and Testament, bearing Date the fourth Day of September before the said Day of his Decease, and in and by his said Last Will and Testament, did give, devise and bequeath, all the Rest and Residue of his Estate whatsoever and wheresoever, both Real and Personal, after the Payment of his Debts, Legacies and Funeral Charges therein mentioned, and subject to the Payment of several Annuities and yearly Sums therein bequeathed (which said residuary Part of the said Testator's Estate, is computed by the Executors of his said Will, to be of the Value of two hundred thousand Pounds and upwards) unto Sir Gregory Page, Baronet, Charles Joye and William Clayton, Esquires, Mr. Thomas Hollis, Senior, John Kenrick and John Lade, Esquires, Dr. Richard Mead, Moses Raper, Esquire, and Mr. John Sprint, Governors of the present Hospital of St. Thomas, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, upon the Trust, and for such Uses, Intents and Purposes, as are therein directed and appointed; and did thereby likewise ordain, constitute and appoint the said Sir Gregory Page, Baronet, Charles Joye and William Clayton, Esquires, Mr. Thomas Hollis, Senior, John Kenrick and John Lade, Esquires, Dr. Richard Mead, Moses Raper, Esquire, and Mr. John Sprint, Executors of his said Last Will, on Trust as aforesaid, and did thereby declare his Mind and Will to be, That until such Incorporation by Letters Patent, or Act of Parliament, as is therein directed, could be obtained and take Effect, his said Executors, and therein last mentioned Trustees, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, and afterwards such Corporation should, out of the Residue of his Estate, or the Rents, Interests, or other Profits thereof, carry on, erect, finish, and fit up, the two new Squares of Buildings in Southwark, by him then sometime since began, and intended for an Hospital for Reception of such sick Persons as are therein after mentioned; and such other Erections, Offices and Buildings, as should, in the Opinion of his said Executors and Trustees, be for that Purpose further necessary; and also provide and furnish the same with Beds, and all other Conveniences, for the Reception of, and receive and entertain therein, four hundred poor Persons, or upwards, labouring under any Distempers, Infirmities or Disorders, thought capable of Relief by Physick or Surgery, but who by reason of the small Hopes there might be of their Cure, or the Length of Time, which for that Purpose might be required or thought necessary, were or might be adjudged or called incurable, and as such, not proper Objects to be received into, or continued in the present Hospital of St. Thomas, or other Hospitals, in and by which no Provision had been made for Distempers deemed or called incurable, (of whom he declares his Mind to be, that they receive and entertain Lunatics, adjudged or called as aforesaid incurable, not exceeding twenty in Number at one Time) such poor Persons to be chosen and appointed by his said Executors and Trustees, out of such Patients and Persons, who shall be discharged out of the Hospital of St. Thomas or Bethlehem, or other Hospitals, on account of the small Hopes of their Cure, or the great Length of Time for that Purpose required or thought necessary, and on such or any other Account, adjudged or called incurable, and not fit to be continued in the said Hospital of St. Thomas or Bethlehem, or other Hospitals, or such other poor sick Persons or Lunatics, as under such or the like Circumstances, should apply to his said Executors and Trustees for Relief, at the Discretion and Pleasure of his said Executors and Trustees, to whom he submits the several Species or Kinds of sick Persons deemed or called incurable, who shall be admitted into the said intended Hospital; and has further thereby directed, that his said Executors and Trustees should provide suitable and proper Diet, Physick, and all other Necessaries, for the Maintenance, Relief or Cure of such sick Persons during their Lives, or for so long Time as his said Executors and Trustees should think fit to continue them under their Care in the said intended Hospital; and hath thereby further declared his Mind and Will to be, that such poor sick Persons received into, and entertained in the said intended Hospital, should be subject at all Times to his said Executors and Trustees, and to such Rules and Orders as they should think fit to make for their Behaviour in the said intended Hospital, and liable to be expelled from thence and removed at the Pleasure of his said Executors and Trustees, and other like sick Persons admitted and entertained in their Room; and thereby further declares his Mind and Will to be, that if his said Executors and Trustees should not find Cause, or should on any Account whatsoever not think fit to keep all, or great Part of the Beds or Wards in the said intended Hospital, filled and supplied with sick Persons deemed or called incurable, it should be lawful for them to cause any Number of the said Beds or Wards to be filled and made use of in like Manner, and with like Patients, as the Beds in the Hospital of St. Thomas are ordinarily used for; all which Patients so to be received and taken in from Time to Time into the said intended Hospital as incurable or otherwise, he hath declared his Mind to be, that his said Executors and Trustees should provide in all Things, as near as might be, according to the Course, Customs and Usage of late Years prevailing and practised in the said present Hospital of St. Thomas; and he hath thereby further declared his Mind and Will to be, and for the better and more regular Disposition and Management of the Affairs and Business of the said intended Hospital, and for perpetuating the Charity thereby intended, and the Provision for the same, he hath thereby ordered and appointed, and earnestly desired and entreated his said Executors and Trustees, forthwith after his Decease, by humble Application to his Majesty, or to the Legislature, to endeavour to obtain Letters Patent under the Great Seal, or an Act of Parliament, incorporating his said Executors and last named Trustees, together with Mr. Benjamin Drake, Senior, Mr. Thomas Clark, William Cole, Esquire, Doctor Thomas Crow, Doctor Francis Fauquier, Mr. Joshua Gee, Mr. Matthew Howard, Doctor Edward Hulse, Mr. Samuel Lessingham, Mr. Henry Lovell, Mr. Samuel Monk, Mr. Joseph Paice, Senior, Mr. Daniel Povey, Mr. Thomas Styles, Senior, and also Robert Wood, Robert Bristow and Jonathan Blackwell, Esquires, Mr. James Brooks, Deputy Richard Chauncey, Richard Chiswell, Esquire, Deputy John Carbonnel, William Dawson and Richard Ducane, Esquires, Sir Peter Eaton and Sir Nathaniel Gould, Knights, Thomas Geating and Peter Godfrey, Esquires, Mr. Nathaniel King, Mr. John Gunston, Edmond Halsey, Esquire, Mr. Henry Hankey, Mr. Thomas Hucks, Mr. William King, Mr. James Lamb, Mr. James Leaver, Mr. Percival Lewis, Captain Daniel Locke, John London, Thomas Malyn, Junior, and Nathaniel Micklethwaite, Esquires, Mr. Samuel Mayo, Mr. Thomas Norton, Mr. Francis Moulst, Mr. Josiah Nicholson, Mr. Nathaniel Newnham, Jeremiah Sambrooke, Esquire, Mr. Samuel or Things therein contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

As any Part of the Principal Sums are paid off; a proportional Part of the Annuities to be abated.

III. And in Regard it is intended that the said Annuities may be satisfied by any Payments, not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain at a Time, and that as the said Principal Money shall be paid off, the said Debt and Annuities shall proportionally sink and be abated; Be it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times Payment be made of any Sum or Sums of Money, (not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time,) in Part for the respective Principal Sums, for which the said Annuities shall be payable as aforesaid, and also if Payment be made of all Arrearages then due to them, of the same Annuities, or so much of those Arrearages, as shall bear a Proportion to the Principal Monies from Time to Time remaining unsatisfied, being computed till the Time of every such Payment of Part of the Principal respectively, then from and after every such Payment so made, so much of the said Annuities, as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in Part of the said Principal, shall cease, determine and be abated; any Thing in this, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

These Annuities Personal Estates.

IV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Annuities, or Sums of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, and either of them, shall be deemed and adjudged to be Personal Estates, and the same, and the Stock and Stocks, which the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, now have, or are entitled unto, as also all such Stock or Stocks, which the said Governor and Company shall or may be entitled unto by Virtue of this Act, and also the Principal Sums and Annuities payable to the said Governor and Company, for or in respect of any such Stock or Stocks, are and shall by Virtue of this Act be clear and free, and freed and discharged of and from all Taxes, Charges and publick Impositions whatsoever, charged or to be charged thereupon, and shall not be liable to any foreign Attachments; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Powers of former Acts continued, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said former Acts above recited or mentioned, and all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, Rules, Directions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, being now in Force (such Alterations as are therein made by this Act only excepted) shall continue and be used, exercised, insisted, applied and put in Practice and Execution, as fully as if the said Powers, Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, Rules, Directions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were again repeated and reenacted in the Body of this present Act; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall continue to be a Corporation, and shall enjoy the several Annuities or Sums of seventy-one thousand and one Pounds two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, till they respectively shall be redeemed as aforesaid; and shall enjoy all such Capacities, Powers, Privileges and Advantages, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as a Corporation belonging, until the said Annuities or yearly Sums shall be redeemed (according to the Provision in this Act contained concerning the same) freed and discharged of and from all former and other Provisions and Powers of Redemption whatsoever, for redeeming the said Duties or Revenues called the Aggregate Fund, or the said Duties on Houses, or any of them; any former Act or Statute, or any Clause, Matter or Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Forging, &c. Bank-Bills or Notes, Felony.

VI. And whereas of late divers Frauds and Deceits have been put upon the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and other Persons, by the altering, forging and counterfeiting of the Bank-Bills, and Bank-Notes of the said Governor and Company, and by the erasing and altering the said Bills and Notes, and the Endorsements thereupon, and by the tendering in Payment, uttering, vending, exchanging and bartering, of such altered, forged, counterfeited and erased Bills and Notes, and the Endorsements thereupon, to the Prejudice of publick Credit, and to the great Hurt and Diminution of Trade and Commerce; For redressing whereof for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall alter, forge or counterfeit any Bank-Bill or Bank Note, made or given out for the Payment of any Sum of Money, by or for the said Governor and Company, or any Bank-Note of any Sort whatsoever, or shall erase or alter any such Bill or Note, or any Endorsement thereupon, or shall tender in Payment, utter, vend, exchange or barter, any such altered, forged or counterfeited Bill or Note, or any erased or altered Bill or Note, or the Endorsement thereupon, or demand to have the same exchanged for ready Money by the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, or any other Person or Persons (knowing such Bill or Note, or the Endorsement thereupon, so tendered or demanded to be exchanged, vend, or bartered, to be altered, forged, counterfeited or erased) and with Intention to defraud the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, or any other Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate; then every such Person or Persons so offending, (being thereof lawfully convicted) shall be, and is hereby declared and adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer as in Cases of Felony.

and he hath thereby further declared his Mind and Will to be, and for the better and more regular Disposition and Management of the Affairs and Business of the said intended Hospital, and for perpetuating the Charity thereby intended, and the Provision for the same, he hath thereby ordered and appointed, and earnestly desired and entreated his said Executors and Trustees, forthwith after his Decease, by humble Application to his Majesty, or to the Legislature, to endeavour to obtain Letters Patent under the Great Seal, or an Act of Parliament, incorporating his said Executors and last named Trustees, together with Mr. Benjamin Braine, Senior, Mr. Thomas Clark, William Cole, Esquire, Doctor Thomas Crow, Doctor Francis Fauquier, Mr. Joshua Gee, Mr. Matthew Howard, Doctor Edward Hulse, Mr. Samuel Lessingham, Mr. Henry Lovell, Mr. Samuel Monk, Mr. Joseph Paice, Senior, Mr. Daniel Powle, Mr. Thomas Styles, Senior, and also Robert Atwood, Robert Bristow and Jonathan Blackwell, Esquires, Mr. James Brooks, Deputy Richard Chauncy, Richard Chiswell, Esquire, Deputy John Carbonnel, William Dawson and Richard Ducane, Esquires, Sir Peter Eaton and Sir Nathaniel Gould, Knights, Thomas Gearing and Peter Godfrey, Esquires, Mr. Nathaniel Garland, Mr. John Ginston, Edmond Halsey, Esquire, Mr. Henry Hankey, Mr. Thomas Hucks, Mr. William King, Mr. James Lamb, Mr. James Leaver, Mr. Percival Lewis, Captain Daniel Locke, John London, Esquire, Thomas Mahyn, Junior, and Nathaniel Mickelthwaite, Esquires, Mr. Samuel Mayo, Mr. Thomas Martin, Mr. Francis Moulst, Mr. Josiah Nicholson, Mr. Nathaniel Newnham, Jeremiah Sambrooke, Esquire, Mr. Samuel

Mr. Samuel Sheafe, John Smith, Esquire, Sir John Tash, Knight, Peter Theobalds, Esquire, and Mr. James Townshend, of Cheapside, (the said Gentlemen being then all Governors of the present Hospital of St. Thomas) or so many of the said Gentlemen, as should be living at the Time of procuring such intended Corporation, and willing to become Members thereof, and so many other Gentlemen, Governors, or reputed Governors of the present Hospital of St. Thomas, or others, by his said Executors, or the major Part of them to be appointed, as together with his said Executors and other the Gentlemen above named, shall make up the Number of fifty at the least, and not exceed sixty, and their Successors, in Manner by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament directed and expressed, to be from Time to Time elected and admitted Members of such intended Corporation, into one distinct and separate Body Politick or Corporate, with perpetual Succession, for the better managing and governing of the said intended Hospital, and for the better settling and applying the said Residue of his Estate for such Uses as aforesaid, and for such other and further Uses as are therein after appointed, with a President and Treasurer, and such other Officers of the said intended Corporation, as by his said Executors should be thought necessary or convenient in such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament to be named and appointed, and in Manner therein directed, to be from Time to Time for ever thereafter successively into such respective Offices elected and admitted, by such Name or Names, as to his Majesty or the Legislature should seem proper, and by such Name or Names to have perpetual Succession, with Power to have and use a separate and distinct Common Seal for the necessary Affairs of the said intended Corporation, and with Power by such Name or Names as aforesaid, to have, hold, take, enjoy, alien, transfer, and dispose of the said thereby before devised residuary Part of his Estate, and therewith or with any Part thereof, to purchase, take and enjoy Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Fee-Farm Rents, or other Estates of Inheritance, for Perpetuity or otherwise, and to the Value of the said residuary Part of his Estate, or to such further or other yearly Value, as to his said Majesty or the Legislature should seem convenient, and with Power and Capacity in Law to sue and be sued, to implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto by such Name or Names as aforesaid, in any Court or Courts of Record, or elsewhere, and with such other Powers, Privileges and Capacities in Law, as to his Majesty or the Legislature should seem meet to be granted; and declared his Mind and Will to be, and further desired his said Executors and last named Trustees, by such humble Application as aforesaid, to his Majesty or the Legislature, to endeavour to obtain and procure that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament as aforesaid, a Committee be appointed of one and twenty of the Members of such intended Corporation, for the more constant and ordinary Management and Application of the said residuary Part of his Estate, and of the Charity thereby intended, to which Committee, or to such Number of them as should be thought convenient, when convened and assembled, by and with the President and Treasurer of the said intended Corporation, or one of them, he hath declared his Will and Desire to be, That his said Executors and Trustees, by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament as aforesaid, endeavour to have granted and appointed such Powers as may enable them in the most effectual Manner to manage, settle, and apply the said residuary Part of his Estate, and the Rents, Interests, Dividends, or other Profits or Produce thereof, to such Uses as by his said Last Will are directed and appointed; and that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament it might be provided, that seven of the said Committee of one and twenty, or one third Part thereof at the least, may yearly and every Year go out of and be excluded their respective Places, as Members of the said Committee, by the Appointment of a General Court or Assembly of the Members of the said intended Corporation, to be assembled and convened by the President or Treasurer of such intended Corporation, yearly and every Year, at a Time or Times in such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament to be appointed; and that for that Purpose at such General Court or Assembly as aforesaid, fourteen of the Members of the said Committee, for the Year next preceding such General Court or Assembly, be first elected and chosen Members of the said Committee for the Year then next ensuing, and seven other Persons out of fourteen of the Members of the said intended Corporation, who were not Members of the said Committee for the Year then next preceding, to be first nominated by the said Committee for the Year next preceding, be by and at such General Court and Assembly as aforesaid, elected and appointed Members of the said Committee for the Year then next ensuing such Election; and that in and by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament it be further provided and appointed, that the Management and Accounts of the said Committee of one and twenty, be from Time to Time subject to the Approbation or Disallowance of a General Court or Assembly of the Members or Governors of such intended Corporation, to be from Time to Time convened and summoned by proper and convenient Notice, by the President or Treasurer of such intended Corporation for the Time being; and did further declare his Mind, Will and Desire to be, that his Executors, by like humble Application as aforesaid, should endeavour to procure and obtain, that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament as aforesaid, the said Sir Gregory Page, Baronet, be appointed the first President of the said intended Corporation, and the said Charles Joye, Esquire, the first Treasurer thereof, and the said William Clayton, Esquire, Mr. Thomas Hollis, Senior, John Kenrick and John Lade, Esquires, Doctor Richard Mead, Moses Raper, Esquire, and Mr. John Sprint, and the said Mr. Benjamin Braine, Senior, Mr. Thomas Clark, William Cole, Esquire, Doctor Thomas Crow, Doctor Francis Fauquier, Mr. Joshua Gee, Mr. Matthew Howard, Doctor Edward Hulse, Mr. Samuel Lessingham, Mr. Henry Lovell, Mr. Samuel Monk, Mr. Joseph Paice, Mr. Daniel Powle, and Mr. Thomas Styles, be appointed the first Members of the said therein before-mentioned and intended Committee, for the more constant and ordinary Management of the said residuary Part of his Estate, and Charity thereby intended; or in case of the Death of any of the Gentlemen last above named, or their Refusal to accept of the respective Trusts thereby intended, as President, Treasurer, or Members of the said Committee, then such other fit and able Persons to be named and appointed by his said Executors, to be President, Treasurer, and Members of the said Committee, making up the said Number of one and twenty; and that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament as aforesaid, it be provided and granted, that the future Elections of the President and Treasurer of the said intended Corporation, and also the Election of the Physicians and Surgeons, and of the Register, or Clerk and Solicitor, and of the Chaplain to be employed in and about the Charity thereby intended, be referred to and reserved for the Members and Governors of the said intended Corporation, or the major Part of them in General Court assembled as aforesaid, as also their Removal, Displacing and Filling up; and that the Offices of the Apothecary, Steward, Matron, Cook, Sisters, and all other Officers to be employed in and about the said intended Hospital and Charity, be referred to the Election of the said intended Committee and their Successors, and by them, and at their Pleasure to be altered, and the respective Officers to be removed, displaced, supplied and filled up; and he the said Testator hath hereby declared his Mind and Will further to be, that as soon as such intended Corporation can be obtained and take Effect, his said Executors do forthwith pay, assign, transfer, and in due Form of Law, convey and make over all the said residuary Part of his Estate therein before

before devised to them, or so much thereof as should not have been applied and expended in and about the Execution of his said Will, to and for the Uses thereby directed and appointed, subject to the Payment of the several Annuities therein before devised, to the said thereby intended Corporation and their Successors, upon the Trusts, and to be by them applied, from Time to Time, to and for such Uses, Intents and Purposes, as are in his said Will for that Purpose directed and appointed; and has declared his Will further to be, that the said President, Treasurer, Committee, and Governors intended to be incorporated as aforesaid, do as soon as the same can be done conveniently, lay out of the Surplus of the said residuary Part of his Personal Estate, or so much thereof, as shall not be expended in building, furnishing, and fitting up the said two Squares of Building, or other the necessary Charges and Disbursements for such Purposes, in the Purchase of Messuages, Lands, Ground-Rents, Fee-Farm Rents, or other Estates of Inheritance, or the Reversion thereof in Fee-simple, to the Intent that the yearly and other Rents and Profits of such Purchases, together with the Rents and Profits of the said residuary Part of his Real Estate, be from Time to Time applied to; and become a perpetual Provision for the Maintenance and Cure of such poor sick Persons as are to be received into, and entertained in the said intended Hospital, and for defraying and answering all other the constant necessary Charges and Expences in and about the same; and that until the said residuary Part of his Personal Estate shall be laid out in Purchases as aforesaid, the Interest, Dividends, and other Income or Profits thereof, be from Time to Time, applied to such Purposes as are before appointed for the Application of the Rents and Profits of such Purchases; and he hath declared his Mind and Will further to be, that if it shall appear to the President, Treasurer and Governors, to be incorporated as aforesaid, that the yearly and other Rents and Profits of the said residuary Part of his Real Estate, and of the Lands, Messuages, or other Estates, to be purchased as aforesaid, shall be more than sufficient to provide for, and answer the Maintenance and Cure of such poor sick Persons, as are thereby directed to be received into, and entertained in the said two new Squares of Building, and other necessary Charges and Expences upon or about the said intended Hospital, it should be lawful for the said President, Treasurer and Governors, incorporated as aforesaid, in General Court to be assembled, and convened as aforesaid, or the major Part of them, to lay out, expend and apply, or direct and empower the said Committee to lay out, expend and apply, such Surplus of the Rents and Profits of the said residuary Part of his Real Estate, and of other the Messuages, Lands, and other Estates, to be purchased as aforesaid, to and for the Relief of such other poor sick Persons, or such other proper Objects of Compassion, as from Time to Time, to the said President, Treasurer and Governors incorporated as aforesaid, should appear most worthy and deserving of Pity and Relief, or for such other publick and charitable Uses and Purposes, as they should think convenient, as in and by the said Last Will and Testament, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas the said recited Last Will and Testament of the said Thomas Guy, deceased, hath been since duly proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, and the Administration thereof committed on their Application for that Purpose, under the Seal of that Court, to the said above named Charles Joye, John Lade and John Kenrick, Esquires; and whereas the said Charity deserveth to be promoted and encouraged, and will greatly tend to the Honour and Good of the Publick, and the good and generous Intentions of the said Testator cannot be so well and fully effected as by an Act of Parliament, and therefore for the promoting, establishing, making good and effectual the said pious and charitable Intentions of the said above named Testator, in his said Last Will expressed; May it please your most excellent Majesty, at the humble Petition of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the said Sir Gregory Page, Charles Joye, William Clayton, Thomas Hollis, John Kenrick, John Lade, Doctor Richard Mead, Moses Raper and John Sprint, Executors of the said above recited Last Will and Testament of the said Thomas Guy, deceased, that it may be enacted, &c. P R.

An Act for redeeming the Annuities of twenty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, charged on the Civil List Revenues, by an Act of the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign; and for discharging the Debts and Arrears due from his Majesty to his Servants, Tradesmen, and others.

c. 27.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, by charging Annuities, at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Civil List Revenues, till redeemed by the Crown; and for enabling his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, (by causing such a Deduction to be made as therein is mentioned) to make good to the Civil List the Payments, which shall have been made upon the said Annuities; and for borrowing Money upon certain Lottery Tickets; and for discharging the Corporations for Assurances of Part of the Money they were obliged to pay to his Majesty; and for making good a Deficiency to the East-India Company, it was enacted, That yearly and every Year, from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, a certain yearly Fund, to be computed after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for and upon all the Annuities to be purchased on the said Act, was and should by Force and Virtue of the said Act, be settled and established, and be payable in the Manner and Form therein expressed and declared, for satisfying and discharging the same Annuities, from Time to Time, until the same should be redeemed by your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and that the said yearly Fund was and should be charged and chargeable upon, and be payable out of all the Revenues, additional Revenues, Duties and Branches whatsoever, settled or appointed for the Support of your Majesty's Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as well those which are Hereditary, as those which were granted during your Majesty's Life, and every of them, for and during the whole Term of your Majesty's Life, unless all the said Annuities should sooner be compleatly redeemed, according to the Proviso and Power of Redemption therein contained in that Behalf; and in case of your Majesty's Demise before the compleat Redemption of all the said Annuities, then the said yearly Fund was thereby charged upon the said Hereditary Revenues, Duties and Branches, and every of them, until the compleat Redemption of all the said Annuities: And by the said Act it was enacted, That any Person or Persons might contribute, advance and pay to the Person, and in the Manner therein mentioned, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, for the Purchase of any Annuity or Annuities, to commence from the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, to be paid and payable to such Contributor or Contributors, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns respectively, until the same should be redeemed according to the Provisoes and Power of Redemption therein after contained; which Annuities should be computed after the Rate of five Pounds per Annum for every one hundred Pounds, and proportionably for any greater Sum so to be advanced or paid, and the same should be payable Quarterly, in Manner as therein is mentioned; and by the said Act, amongst divers other Clauses and Things therein contained, it was enacted, That all the Monies to be contributed on the said Act, should be deemed, reputed and taken to be one Joint Stock, on which the said Annuities should be attending, and that the same should be transferrable at the Bank of England: And it was thereby provided, That it should be lawful for your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, at any Time, upon one Quarter of a Year's Notice, to be given in Manner as by the said Act is directed, to redeem the said Annuities, and every of them, by paying to the then Proprietors of the same Annuities the Consideration or Purchase-Money, which was originally paid for the same, and all Arrearages of the said Annuities, which shall be incurred till the Time of such Payment to be made at the then next ensuing quarterly Feast-Day; and that from and after such Payment made, or reserving Money in the Exchequer to make such Payment on Demand, then and not till then, the same Annuities, and every of them, should from thenceforth cease and determine, and the said Revenues should be discharged of, from and against the same: And to the End your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, might be enabled to reimburse yourself, or themselves, such Sum and Sums of Money, as in Pursuance of the said Act should be issued out of the Civil List Revenues, for or towards Payment of the said Annuities, or for or towards the Redemption thereof, it was thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful for your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, to cause a Deduction to be made, not exceeding six Pence in the Pound, out of all Monies which, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, should be paid for and upon all Pensions and Annuities, charged upon any of the said Hereditary or Temporary Duties, and for and upon all Salaries, Fees and Wages, payable for or in respect of Offices of Profit, granted by or derived from the Crown, and for and upon all other Payments from the Crown whatsoever, or for or upon any Arrearages of them, or any of them, incurred or to be incurred, (the Pay of Commission and Non-Commission Officers, and private Men serving in the Navy or Army, only and always excepted) the same Deductions to be made for the Use of your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of your or their Civil Government, so long as the said Annuities should, by Virtue of the said Act, be payable out of the Revenues charged therewith as aforesaid, and until the same Annuities should be redeemed pursuant to the said Act, as by the said Act, (amongst divers other Clauses and Provisoes therein contained) relation being thereto had, more fully and at large it doth and

and may appear: And whereas in Pursuance of the said Act, the said whole Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds hath been advanced or contributed, and the Annuities attending thereon, and charged on the said Civil List Revenues, amount to the yearly Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds; and whereas the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, so contributed on the Credit of the said Act, was not sufficient for answering the Purposes intended by the said Act, by discharging all the Arrears then due to your Majesty's Servants, Tradesmen, and others, by Means whereof, and of several extraordinary Expences arisen since the making of the said Act, divers Arrears of Salaries, Wages, Diet, Monies, and other Allowances, and sundry Debts for Emptions, Provisions, and other Causes, still remain due to your Majesty's Servants, Tradesmen, and others, amounting to a very considerable Sum in the whole: Now your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being deeply sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's wise and happy Government, and being desirous, not only that your Majesty may partake of the Benefit of the present happy State of the publick Credit, but also that your Majesty, in the Administration of your Civil Government, may not remain under any Difficulties in respect of the Arrears or Debts contracted as aforesaid, and being therefore desirous that a Sum, not exceeding one million of Pounds Sterling, may be raised to enable your Majesty, as well to redeem the said Annuities of twenty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, as to discharge the said Debts and Arrears, do for that End and Purpose most humbly pray your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c. EXP. See 12 Geo. 1. c. 2.

Treasury may issue new Exchequer-Bills, not exceeding 1,000,000 l. at 2 d. per Diem Interest. Counterfeiting these Bills is Felony. Contractors to have one Part of the Cheques, Indents or Counterfoils, to prevent Counterfeits. Treasury to contract with Persons to circulate these Bills at 3 l. per Centum per Annum. Contractors after 24 June 1725. may direct these Bills to carry a lower or higher Rate than 2 d. per Diem. So long as these Bills remain uncanceled, the Deduction of 6 d. per l. to continue. These Exchequer-Bills charged thereon, and on the Civil List. The Sums issued out of the Civil List Revenue, about these Bills, to be deemed Part of the yearly Sum of 700,000 l. 500,000 l. to be applied for Redemption of the Annuities of 25,000 l. per Annum. At Michaelmas yearly, Exchequer to take an Account of all the Monies received of the Deductions of 6 d. per l. &c. His Majesty by Letters Patent made before 24 Decem. 1725. may appoint a yearly Sum for an Annuity at 3 l. per Centum, till redeemed. His Majesty may direct the Sum to be raised on that Credit, &c.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act for regulating Elections within the City of London, and for preserving the Peace, good Order and Government of the said City.

WHEREAS of late Years great Controversies and Dissentions have arisen in the City of London at the Elections of Citizens to serve in Parliament; and of Mayors, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and other Officers of the said City, and many evil-minded Persons; having no Right of voting, have unlawfully intruded themselves into the Assemblies of the Citizens, and presumed to give their Votes at such Elections; in manifest Violation of the Rights and Privileges of the Citizens, and of the Freedom of their Elections, and to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace: And whereas great Numbers of wealthy Persons, not free of the said City, do inhabit, and carry on the Trade of Merchandize and other Employments, within the said City, and refuse or decline to become Freemen of the same, by Reason of an antient Custom within the said City restraining the Freemen of the same from disposing of their Personal Estates by their Last Wills and Testaments: And whereas great Dissentions have arisen between the Aldermen and Commons of the Common Council of London, in or concerning the making or passing of Acts, Orders or Ordinances in Common Council, which if not timely settled and determined, may occasion great Obstructions of the Publick Business and Concerns of the said City, and create many expensive Controversies and Suits at Law, and be attended with other dangerous Consequences: Now to the Intent that suitable Remedies may be provided for preserving the Privileges of the City of London, and the Freedom of Elections therein, and for settling the Right of such Elections, and putting a Stop to the aforesaid Controversies and Dissentions, and the ill Consequences of the same, and that a constant Supply may be had of able Officers, capable of supporting the Dignity of and maintaining good Order and Government within that antient, populous, and loyal City, which is of the greatest Consequence to the whole Kingdom; Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at all Times, from and after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, upon every Election of a Citizen or Citizens to serve for the said City of London in Parliament, and upon all Elections of Mayors, Sheriffs, Chamberlains, Bridge-masters, Auditors of Chamberlains and Bridge-masters Accounts, and all and every other Officer and Officers to be chosen in and for the said City, by the Liverymen thereof, and upon all Elections of Aldermen and Common Council-Men chosen at the respective Ward-motes of the said City, the presiding Officer or Officers at such Elections shall, in case a Poll be demanded by any of the Candidates, or any two or more of the Electors, appoint a convenient Number of Clerks to take the same, which Clerks shall take the said Poll in the Presence of the presiding Officer or Officers, and be sworn by such Officer or Officers truly and indifferently to take the same, and to set down the Name of each Voter, and his Place of Residence or Abode, and for whom he shall poll, and to poll no Person who shall not be sworn, or being a Quaker, shall not affirm according to the Direction of this Act: And every Person before he is admitted to poll at any Election of any Citizen or Citizens to serve in Parliament, or of any Officer or Officers usually chosen by the Liverymen of the said City as aforesaid, shall take the Oath herein after mentioned, or being one of the People called Quakers, shall solemnly affirm the Effect thereof, that is to say;

On all Elections by the Liverymen, and at the Wardmotes, Presiding Officer to appoint a convenient Number of Clerks to take the Poll, &c.

None to be polled who is not sworn.

Liveryman's Oath at Elections.

YOU do swear, That you are a Freeman of London, and a Liveryman of the Company of _____ and have so been for the Space of twelve Kalendar Months; and that the Place of your Abode is at _____ in _____ and that you have not polled at this Election.

So help you God.

And in case of any Election of any Alderman or Common Council-Man, every Person, before he is admitted to poll, shall take the Oath herein after mentioned, or, being one of the People called Quakers, shall solemnly affirm the Effect thereof, that is to say,

Oath at Ward-motes.

YOU do swear, That you are a Freeman of London, and an Householder in the Ward of _____ and have not polled at this Election.

So help you God.

On Refusal to swear, Poll to be rejected.

And if any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to take the Oaths hereby respectively appointed to be taken, or being a Quaker shall refuse or neglect to make such solemn Affirmation as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Poll or Vote of such Person or Persons so neglecting or refusing shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be null and void, and as such shall be rejected and disallowed.

The Oath 1 Geo. 1. to be taken, if requir'd.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at all Times from and after the said first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, upon every Election of such Citizen or Citizens, Officer or Officers, by the Liverymen of the said City, and upon every Election of such Officer or Officers at any Wardmote of the said City as aforesaid, all and every Person and Persons having a Right to vote or poll at such Election or Elections shall, before he be admitted to vote or poll thereat (if required by any of the Candidates, or any two or more of the Electors) first take the Oaths in and by an Act made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess SOPHIA, being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors, appointed to be taken, or being one of the People called Quakers shall, if required as aforesaid, solemnly affirm the Effect thereof; and if any Person or Persons shall, being required thereunto as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to take the said Oaths by the said Act appointed to be taken, or to affirm the Effect thereof as aforesaid, That then the Poll or Vote of such Person or Persons so neglecting or refusing shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be null and void, and as such shall be rejected and disallowed; and the presiding Officers at all and every the respective Elections aforesaid, and such sworn Clerks as shall be by them appointed, are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to administer the above-mentioned Oaths and Affirmations; and if any such presiding Officer or Officers, sworn Clerk or Clerks, shall neglect or refuse so to do, or shall otherwise offend in the Premises, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every such Officer and sworn Clerk shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of sixty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, besides Costs of Suit.

Presiding Officer and sworn Clerk to administer the Oaths, on Penalty of 60l.

Penalty on falsly taking the Oaths or suborning.

III. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully, falsly and corruptly take the said Oaths or Affirmations set forth and appointed in and by this Act, or either of them, and be thereof lawfully convicted by Indictment or Information, or if any Person or Persons shall corruptly procure or suborn any other Person to take the said Oaths or Affirmations, or either of them, whereby he shall wilfully and falsly take the said Oaths or Affirmations, or either of them, and the Person so procuring or suborning shall be thereof convicted by Indictment or Information, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury at the Common Law are liable unto.

Presiding Officer how to act, if a Poll be demanded.

IV. And to the Intent that the Poll at every such Election may be expeditiously and duly taken; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if a Poll shall be demanded at any of the Elections before-mentioned, after the said first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, the presiding Officer or Officers at such Election shall begin such Poll the Day the same shall be demanded, or the next Day following at the furthest, unless the same shall happen on a Sunday, and then on the next Day after, and shall duly and orderly proceed thereon from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until such Poll be finished, and shall finish the Poll at Elections by the Liverymen within seven Days, exclusive of Sundays, and the Poll at the Wardmote within three Days, exclusive of Sunday, after the commencing the same respectively, and shall, upon adjourning the Poll on each Day, at all and every the Elections aforesaid, seal up the Poll-Books with the Seals, and in the Presence of such of the respective Candidates, or Persons deputed by them, as shall desire the same, and the said Poll-Book shall not be opened again but at the Time and Place of Meeting, in Pursuance of such Adjournment; and after the said Poll is finished, the said Poll-Books, being sealed as aforesaid, shall within two Days after be publicly opened at the Place of Election, and be duly and truly cast up, and within two Days after such casting up the Numbers of the Votes or Polls for each Candidate shall be truly, fairly and publicly declared to the Electors at the Place of Election, by the Officer or Officers presiding at such Election; and if a Scrutiny shall, upon such Declaration made, be lawfully demanded, the same shall be granted and proceeded upon, and the respective Candidates shall immediately nominate to the presiding Officer or Officers at such Elections, any Number of Persons qualified to vote at such Election, not exceeding six, to be Scrutineers for and on Behalf of the Candidate or Candidates on each Side, to whom the presiding Officer or Officers at such Election shall, within six Days next after such Scrutiny shall be demanded, upon Request and at the Charge of the Candidate or Candidates, or any the Scrutineers on his or their Behalfs, deliver or cause to be delivered to him or them a true Copy, signed by such Officer or Officers, of the Poll taken at such Election; and all and every the Scrutinies to be had or taken upon any Election to be made by the Liverymen of the said City, shall begin within ten Days after the Delivery of the Copies of the said Polls, and be proceeded on Day by Day (Sundays excepted) and shall be finished within fifteen Days after the Commencement of such Scrutiny; and thereupon the presiding Officer or Officers shall, within four Days after the finishing such Scrutiny, publicly declare at the Place of such Election, which of the Candidates is or are duly elected, and the Number of legal Votes for each Candidate appearing to him or them upon such Scrutiny; and on the Election of any Officer or Officers at the respective

A true List to be given of the Voters disallowed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, upon Request to him made by any Candidate or Candidates, his or their Agent or Agents, at any Election of a Citizen or Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, or of a Mayor, or any other Officer or Officers to be chosen by the Liverymen thereof, where a Scrutiny is demanded and granted, shall issue his Precepts, as has been usual, requiring the Masters and Wardens of the Livery Companies of the said City respectively, to cause their Clerks forthwith to return to him two true Lists of all the Liverymen of their respective Companies; and the said Clerks shall return such their respective Lists upon Oath within three Days after the Receipt of any such Precepts, one of which Lists so returned the said Mayor shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to deliver or cause to be delivered to the Candidate or Candidates on each Side at such Election, or to his or their Agent or Agents respectively.

Mayor to issue Precepts to the Companies to bring in Lists.

VII. And whereas divers Controversies and Disputes have arisen in the said City of London touching the Right of Election of Aldermen and Common Council-Men for the respective Wards of the said City; For quieting all such Disputes and Controversies for the future, It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, the Right of Election of Aldermen and Common Council-Men for the several and respective Wards of the said City shall belong and appertain to Freemen of the said City of London, being Householders, paying Scot as herein after is mentioned and provided, and bearing Lot, when required, in their several and respective Wards, and to none other whatsoever.

Election of Aldermen and Common Council-Men to be by Freemen paying Scot and Lot,

VIII. Provided nevertheless, That the Houses of such Householders be respectively of the true and real Value of ten Pounds a Year at the least; and that such Householders be respectively the sole Occupiers of such Houses, and have been actually in the Possession respectively of a House of such Value in the Ward wherein the Election is made, by the Space of twelve Calendar Months next before such Election.

and paying 10 l. per Ann. Rent.

IX. Provided also, and for the better ascertaining what are the Rates and Taxes to which such Householders ought to contribute and pay their Scot, the same are hereby declared and enacted to be a Rate to the Church, to the Poor, to the Scavenger, to the Orphans, and to the Rates in lieu of or for the Watch and Ward, and to such other annual Rates, as the Citizens of London, inhabiting therein, shall hereafter be liable unto, other than and except annual Aids granted or to be granted by Parliament; and in case any such Householder, within the Space aforesaid, shall have been rated and charged, and contributed and paid his Scot to all the said Rates or Taxes, or thirty Shillings a Year to all or some of them, except as aforesaid, every such Person shall be deemed and taken to be a Person paying of Scot.

The Scot ascertained.

Householder paying 30 s. a Year in all, may vote.

X. Provided always, That such Householder, within the Space aforesaid, shall have been rated or charged, and contributed or paid his Scot to all and singular the Rates and Taxes (other than and except annual Aids granted by Parliament) whereunto the Citizens of London, inhabiting therein, are or shall be liable, or shall have paid in the Whole to the said Rates and Taxes, or some of them, except as aforesaid, thirty Shillings a Year at least; and in case any two or more Partners carry on a joint Trade in any such House together, and shall have been Householders of such House by such Space of Time as aforesaid, such Partners shall, paying their Scot in Manner aforesaid, and bearing their respective proper Lots, if required, have Votes at the Elections aforesaid; so as such House, wherein such Partners carry on their Trade, be of the true and real yearly Value of as many respective Sums of ten Pounds a Year, computed together, as there are Partners.

This omitted on the Roll.

Partners in Trade may vote, each paying 10 l. per Ann. Rent.

XI. Provided also, That where two Persons and no more, not being Partners, shall have by the Space aforesaid severally inhabited in the same House, such two Persons severally paying their Scots, and bearing their respective Lots as aforesaid, shall have Votes at the Elections aforesaid; so as such House, wherein such two Persons inhabit, be of the true and real yearly Value of twenty Pounds or upwards, and that each of the said Persons doth pay the yearly Rent of ten Pounds at the least for his respective Part of such House.

Two inhabiting the same House, each paying Scot, and 10 l. per Ann. Rent, may vote.

XII. Pro.

What Persons
exempted from Scot and Lot
may vote.

XII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to oblige any Person or Persons to pay any Scot or bear any Lot, from the doing of which they are or shall be exempted and discharged by Act of Parliament, Charter or Writ of Privilege; but that such Person and Persons so exempted and discharged shall and may vote at any Election of any Alderman, Common Council-Man or other Officer usually chosen at the Wardmotes of the said City, notwithstanding he or they shall not have born such Lot, or paid such Scot, in such Manner as he or they should or might have done, in case this Act had not been made, and no otherwise.

as also the Commons. Rep.
19 Geo. 2. c. 8.

XV. And to the Intent that a final End may be put to all Disputes between the Mayor and Aldermen and the Commons of the Common Council of the said City, touching the making or passing of Acts, Orders or Ordinances in Common Council, and that no Act, Order or Ordinance may for the future be made or passed in Common Council without the full Consent of the representative Body of the said City, according to the ancient Constitution of the same, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Act, Order or Ordinance whatsoever, at any Time from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, shall be made or passed in the Common Council of the said City without the Assent of the Mayor and Aldermen present at such Common Council, or the major Part of them, nor without the Assent of the Commons present at such Common Council, or the major Part of them.

Exception.

XVI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Election, Nomination or Appointment in Common Council of any Common Serjeant, Town-Clerk, Judges of the Sheriffs Court, Coroner, Common Cryer, Commissioners of Sewers, Garbler, and the Governor and Assistants of London of the new Planta- tion of Ulster in Ireland, but that the Election, Nomination or Appointment of all or any of the said Officers shall and may, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be made by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons in Common Council assembled, or the major Part of them; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

What Freeman

1724, may dispose of their Personal Estate as they think fit.

XVII. And to the Intent that Persons of Wealth and Ability, who exercise the Business of Merchandize, and other laudable Employments within the said City, may not be discouraged from becoming free of the same, by reason of the Custom restraining the Citizens and Free- men thereof from disposing of their Personal Estates by their Last Wills and Testaments, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons who shall, at any Time from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be made or become free of the said City, and also to and for all and every Person and Persons, who are already free of the said City, and on the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five shall be unmar- ried, and not have Issue by any former Marriage, to give, devise, will and dispose of his and their Personal Estate and Estates, to such Person and Persons, and to such Use and Uses, as he or they shall think fit; any Custom or Usage of or in the said City, or any By- Law or Ordinance made or observed within the same, to the contrary thereof in any wise not- withstanding.

Exception.

XVIII. Provided nevertheless, That in case any Person, who shall at any Time or Times from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five become free of the said City, and any Person or Persons who are already free of the said City, and on the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five shall be unmarried, and not have Issue by any former Marriage, hath agreed or shall agree by any Writing under his Hand, upon or in Consideration of his Marriage, or otherwise, that his Personal Estate shall be subject to, or be distributed or distributable according to the Custom of the City of London; and in case any Person so free, or becoming free as aforesaid, shall die intestate, in every such Case the Personal Estate of such Person so making such Agreement, or so dying intestate, shall be subject to, and be distributed and distributable according to the Custom of the said City; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XIX. And it is hereby further enacted, That there shall, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be omitted and left out of the Oath of a Freeman of the said City, the Words following, that is to say, Ye shall know no Foreigner to buy or sell any Merchandize with any other Foreigner within the said City or the Franchise thereof, but ye shall warn the Chamberlain thereof, or some Minister of the Chamber; and also these Words following, that is to say, Ye shall implead or sue no Freeman out of the City, whilst ye may have Right and Law within the same City; and after these Words, Ye shall take no Apprentice, the Words immediately following shall also be omitted, that is to say, But if he be Free-born, that is to say, no Bondsmen's Son, nor the Child of any Alien; and For no, and instead thereof these Words, For any, shall be inserted in the said Oath.

Words to be omitted in the Oath of a Freeman.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Forfeitures hereby enacted or insisted shall be distributed in Manner following, that is to say, One third Part thereof to the King's most excellent Majesty; one other third Part thereof to the Chamberlain of the said City, to the Use of the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the said City; and the remaining third Part thereof to him or them that will sue for the same within six Calendar Months next after the same shall be incurred, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoin, Privilege, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance.

Forfeitures, how to be distributed.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall in all Courts and Places be deemed and taken to be a publick Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and Courts whatsoever without specially pleading the same.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, upon any Complaint or Complaints at any Time or Times to be made to a Judge of any Court, out of which the Writs or Process herein after mentioned shall issue, of such Obstruction and Opposition within the said Hamlet, or elsewhere within the said Bills of Mortality, wherein Persons shall unlawfully assemble and associate for the sheltering themselves from their Debts, of which Complaint shall have been made by a Presentment of the Grand Jury at a General or Quarter Sessions of the proper County, by any Person or Persons who hath or have or shall have any Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money due or owing to him, her or them from any Person or Persons now being, or which shall hereafter be sheltered and reside within the said Hamlet of Wapping-Stepney, and Places adjacent, or elsewhere within the said Bills of Mortality, wherein Persons shall unlawfully assemble and associate for the sheltering themselves from their Debts, of which Complaint shall have been made by a Presentment of the Grand Jury at a General or Quarter Sessions of the proper County, such Creditor or Creditors having any legal Writ or Process taken out for prosecuting, recovering or levying any such Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money, and making Oath before such Judge, that a Debt or Debts, exceeding fifty Pounds, is or are justly due to him, her or them from the Person or Persons against whom such Complaint shall be made, and that such Creditor or Creditors verily believe, that such Person or Persons do then reside, and is or are sheltered, within such Place or Places as shall in such Oath be particularly mentioned, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Judge, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, in all and every such Case and Cases (if he in his Discretion shall find it to be requisite) to issue his Order from Time to Time to the Sheriff of the County of Middlesex, or to the Sheriff of any other County into which the said Bills of Mortality do extend for the Time being, thereby strictly enjoining and respectively requiring him or them, his or their respective Deputy or Deputies, Officer or Officers, under such Penalty as by this Act is prescribed for Non-performance of his or their Duty therein, to raise and take the Posse Comitatus, and enter the said Hamlet of Wapping-Stepney, and Places adjacent, or any Place elsewhere within the said Weekly Bills of Mortality, as shall be mentioned in the said Oath, and to arrest, and in case of Resistance or Refusal, to open or break open any Door or Doors in the Day-time, to arrest such Person or Persons upon any meane Process or other Process, Extent or Execution, and to seize the Goods of any such Person or Persons upon any Execution or Extent; and if any such Sheriff or Sheriffs, or any his or their Deputy or Deputies, Officer or Officers, or any of them, shall wilfully neglect or refuse, upon any such Order, to use his or their best Endeavours for the executing of such Process, Execution or Extent, he or they so neglecting or refusing to execute such Process, Execution or Extent, shall forfeit to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt or of the Case, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Escoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed: And if any Person or Persons shall knowingly and wilfully resist or oppose any Officer or Officers of Justice, or any Person or Persons who shall be aiding or assisting to such Officer or Officers, in the Execution of any Writ, or of any legal Process, Execution or Extent, within the said Hamlet of Wapping-Stepney, and Places adjacent, or elsewhere within the said Bills of Mortality, wherein Persons shall unlawfully assemble and associate for the sheltering themselves from their Debts, of which Complaint shall have been made by a Presentment of the Grand Jury at a General or Quarter Sessions of the proper County, or shall make Rescous of any Prisoner taken upon any such Process, Execution or Extent within the Places aforesaid, or shall there knowingly harbour or conceal any Prisoner so taken, or any Person or Persons who rescued any such Prisoner, or shall be any ways contriving, or knowingly and willingly abetting, aiding or assisting in resisting any such Officer or Officers, or in rescuing any such Prisoner or Prisoners taken as aforesaid, all and every Person and Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted upon any Indictment or Information to be brought or filed within six Months after the Offence committed, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for seven Years to some or one of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and in such Manner and under such Pains and Penalties, as Felons in other Cases are by Law to be transported.

III. And whereas divers Persons, who have taken Shelter within the said Hamlet of Wapping-Stepney since the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, have rented Houses and Land to the yearly Value of ten Pounds per Annum or upwards therein, but by reason of their Poverty were never rated, nor paid to the Relief of the Poor of the said Parish, nor served any Parochial Offices there; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no such Person or Persons so taking Shelter, or their Families, shall be judged to have gained any legal Settlement in the said Parish by virtue of having rented any Houses or Lands of such Value, unless such Person or Persons have been rated and have paid to the Relief of the Poor of the said Parish, or have served Parochial Offices there; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act for making more effectual an Act passed in the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing of Mischiefs which may happen by keeping too great Quantities of Gunpowder in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof.

5 Geo. 1. c. 26. I. WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing the Mischiefs which may happen by keeping too great Quantities of Gunpowder in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and nineteen it should not be lawful for any Person

Person or Persons to keep more than six hundred Pounds of Gunpowder, each Hundred containing five Score Pounds net Weight, at any Time in any Storehouse, Warehouse or other Place within the Cities of London and Westminster, or either of them, or within the Suburbs thereof, or within three Miles of the Tower of London, or within three Miles of his Majesty's Palace at Saint James's, or within two Miles of any Magazine erected for keeping Gunpowder belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Use of the Publick: And whereas since the making of the said Act many Dealers in Gunpowder, and others, have divided their Houses and Warehouses into several small Partitions or Apartments, and there keep great Quantities of Gunpowder, whereby and by other evil and indirect Means and Practices the good Designs of the said Act are notoriously eluded and evaded, to the apparent Danger of several publick Offices and the Lives and Fortunes of many thousands of your Majesty's Subjects: And whereas it is necessary for publick Safety to lessen the Quantity of Gunpowder allowed by the said Act to be kept within the Limits aforesaid, and it is also requisite to make the said Act more effectual; May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five it shall not be lawful to have or keep, within the Limits aforesaid, more than two hundred Pounds of Gunpowder at any Time in any House, Storehouse, Warehouse, Shop, Cellar or other Place, or in any Houses, Storehouses, Warehouses, Shops, Cellars or other Places under one or the same Roof, or in any Part or Parts within the Limits aforesaid, for more than the Space of twenty-four hours, upon Pain of forfeiting all such Gunpowder and the Value thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to any Person or Persons, other than and except the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of, or other Person or Persons interested in such Gunpowder, who will inform and sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoin, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparance, provided such Suit or Action be commenced and prosecuted within six Calendar Months next after such Forfeiture or Penalty shall be incurred.

After 1 June 1725, none to keep more than 200lb. of Gunpowder in any one Place in London or Westminster, &c. for more than 24 Hours.

Penalty.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace authorized by the said recited Act to issue their Warrants to search after dangerous Quantities of Gunpowder within the Limits aforesaid shall, upon Demand made by any Parish-Officer, or by any two or more Householders, being Inhabitants within the said Limits, assigning a reasonable Cause for the same, issue such Warrants gratis; and that upon every or any such Search it shall be lawful for the Searchers, or Persons finding the same, immediately to seize, and then, or at any Time within twelve Hours after such Seizure, to remove or cause to be removed all such Gunpowder as shall be found within the Limits aforesaid, exceeding the Quantity allowed by this present Act; and every Person wilfully obstructing or hindring any such Seizure or Removal shall for every such Offence forfeit to the Informer five Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be recovered as aforesaid, with full Costs of Suit.

Justices to issue Warrants gratis, to search.

Searchers, within 12 Hours, to remove such Gunpowder.

III. And for preventing the dangerous Use of Iron Hammers, or Hammers shod or plated with Iron or Steel, in any Warehouse or other Place used for keeping Gunpowder within the Limits aforesaid, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case any Person shall, after the said first Day of June, presume to use or work with any Iron Hammer, or any Hammer shod or plated with Iron or Steel, in any such Warehouse or Place, while any Gunpowder is there, every such Person so offending, being thereof convicted, within one Month next after the Offence committed, by the Oath or Oaths of any credible Witness or Witnesses, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace within the Limits aforesaid, which Oath or Oaths such Justice or Justices are hereby authorized and required to administer, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit twenty Shillings to the Informer, to be levied (in case of Non-payment) by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of any such Justice or Justices, tending the Overplus to the Owner, the Charges of such Distress and Sale being first deducted; and for want of sufficient Distress, every such Offender, being convicted as aforesaid, shall be sent by such Justice or Justices to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding one Month, nor less than fourteen Days, as such Justice or Justices shall in his or their Discretion or Discretions think fit.

Working with Iron Hammers in such Warehouses forfeits 20s.

IV. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend in any wise to affect any Storehouse or Magazine belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, wherein Gunpowder or other Stores shall be kept for the Use of the Publick, or to hinder the proving or trying Gunpowder by his Majesty's Officers, as is usual, for the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or to the carrying of Gunpowder to or from any of his Majesty's Magazines, or with Forces in their Marches.

Not to affect any Magazine belonging to the Crown, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Suit or Action shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in Pursuance of this present Act, in every such Case such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance or by the Authority of the said Act; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his, her or their Suit or Action after Issue joined, or, if upon Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, and shall have the like Remedy for the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

General Issue.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said recited Act, and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, not hereby altered, shall be of full Force, and shall or may be observed and put in Execution, for preventing the Mischief aforesaid, notwithstanding the making of this Act, and that the said Act, and this present Act, shall be deemed and taken to be publick Acts, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such in all Courts and Places by all Judges, Justices and others, without specially Pleading the same.

Act 5 Geo. 1. not hereby altered, to be in Force. See 22 Geo. 2. c. 38. Publick Acts.

7 Ann. c. 33.

I. WHEREAS an Act was made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better ascertaining the Lengths and Breadths of the Woollen Cloth made in the West-Riding of the County of York, which, notwithstanding the many good Provisions and Directions therein contained, hath nevertheless been found by Experience not to be effectual for the preventing the Frauds, Abuses and Deceits which are frequently used and practised in the Manufacture of Woollen Broad-Cloth, made within the West-Riding of the said County of York, particularly in the deceitful working, and unreasonable stretching and straining, and dressing the said Cloths, which ill Practices tend very much to the debasing, undervaluing and discrediting of the said Manufacture, both at home and in foreign Parts beyond the Seas, where a great Part thereof hath been usually vended: For Remedy whereof, and for encouraging the said Manufacture, by preventing the said Frauds, Deceits and Abuses, and every of them for the Future, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, every Woollen Broad-Cloth made within the West-Riding of the said County of York, whether the same shall be called an End or Half-Cloth, or a Long or Whole Cloth, being well scoured and fully milled, shall at the least be five Quarters and an Half, by the Standard Yard-Mand in Breadth within the Lists in the Water, being fully wet, and every such Cloth, called an End or Half-Cloth, shall not exceed in Length twenty-four Yards, being fully wet, and every such Cloth, called a Long or Whole Cloth, shall not exceed in Length forty-eight Yards, being fully wet.

The Length and Breadth of Broad-Cloth in the West-Riding of York ascertained.

Penalty on Clothiers offending, for every Inch in Breadth, and Yard in Length, 20s.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Clothiers or Makers of Broad Woollen Cloth, shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, make, offer or expose to Sale, any of the aforesaid Cloths which shall not be of the respective Breadths, or shall exceed the respective Lengths herein before-mentioned, directed and prescribed, every such Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted by the Oath of any one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the West-Riding of the said County of York, or any Corporation within the same, (provided such Justice or Justices be or are not a Merchant or Trader in the Woollen Manufacture) and which Oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby impowered to administer, shall for every Inch such Cloth shall fall short of the Breadth before-mentioned, and for every Yard the said Broad-Cloth, called a Long or Whole Cloth, shall exceed the said Length of forty-eight Yards, and for every Yard the said Broad-Cloth, called an End or Half-Cloth, shall exceed the Length of twenty-four Yards, shall forfeit respectively the Sum of twenty Shillings: Provided always, that if it shall happen that any of the Cloths aforesaid, without any wilful Default of the Maker thereof, shall, in some Parts thereof, (not exceeding in the whole one fifth Part of the Length) fall short and want of the Breadth before directed, yet in case of such Accident, such Cloths may notwithstanding be sold without incurring any of the Penalties by this Act imposed on the Maker or Seller thereof.

Broad-Cloth to be measured at the Fulling-Mill.

Millman to be sworn.

Millman to affix a Seal of Lead to the Cloths.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Woollen Broad Cloth to be made shall be measured at the Fulling-Mill, after the same shall be fully milled and scoured, and thoroughly wet, by the Master, Owner or Occupier of every such Fulling-Mill, who shall, and he is hereby obliged to take an Oath before some Justice of the Peace for the said Riding, that he will well and truly perform such Measuring, (which Oath such Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and required to administer, and to give such Master, Owner or Occupier of such Fulling-Mill, a Certificate of such Oaths having been administered and taken) and every Master or Occupier of every such Fulling-Mill shall affix, or cause to be affixed, at each End of every such Cloth, before it shall be carried from the Mill, a Seal of Lead, to be furnished by the Clothier; and the said Master or Occupier of every such Fulling-Mill shall rivet the same on every such Cloth, and stamp his Name in plain Words at length thereupon, and in Figures plainly to be seen and known stamp likewise the Length and Breadth of every such Cloth, for which he shall be paid by the Owner of every such Cloth, two Pence, one Penny whereof to be paid to the Treasurer of the said West-Riding, for the Time being, to be applied by Direction of the Justices of the Peace at their General Quarter-Sessions, towards the Salaries of Searchers by them to be appointed by Virtue of this Act; and the Length and Number of Yards, so stamped on such Seals, shall be a Rule of Payment for every such Cloth by the Buyer of the same: Provided, that if it shall happen, that after any Cloth shall have been milled, sealed and stamped as aforesaid, any Part thereof shall by any Accident be damaged and taken off, such Part of the same, as shall not be damaged, shall be again measured, sealed and stamped, as is before directed, and the said Seal shall be affixed to that End of the Cloth from whence such Part was cut off.

Penalty on Millman offending, &c. 5l.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, if any Owner, Master, Occupier or Millman of any Fulling-Mill shall refuse or neglect to take the before mentioned Oath, or to fix such Seals at each End of every Woollen Broad Cloth, before it shall be carried from the Mill, in Manner and with such Stamp or Impression as is before directed, and to enter in a Book to be kept by such Master, Owner, Occupier or Millman, a fair and true Register or Entry of the Marks, Sort, Number, Length and Breadth of every such Cloth, or shall refuse to permit and suffer any Buyer or Searcher of Cloth to inspect the said Book, in order to compare the Marks, Sorts, Number, Length, Breadth and Admeasurement of any or every such Cloth, wherein he or they are respectively concerned, with such Book or Register, or if any Person or Persons shall afterwards take off such Seal or Seals, or deface, counterfeit or alter the same, before the Cloth is sold to the Retailer in Great Britain, or is sent beyond the Seas, except the Millman who milled the said Cloth, or some other sworn Millman, who is in that Case also to register the same in Manner as aforesaid, every Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, be-

foze one or more such Justice or Justices for the said Riding, or any Corporation within the same, shall for every such Neglect or Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and distributed as is afterwards provided for by this present Act.

V. Provided, That in case such Merchant or Buyer shall have Cause to suspect the real and true Lengths and Breadths of such Cloth or Cloths not to be the same as stamped upon such Seal or Seals, such Merchant or Buyer shall and may for Proof thereof have the Liberty, within six Days after Delivery thereof, and upon two Days Notice given in Writing to the Seller or Maker of such Cloth, unless it be otherwise agreed by the mutual Consent of the Buyer and Seller, to put such Cloths into Water for any Time not exceeding four Hours, and afterwards to cause the same to be measured by any two indifferent Persons to be appointed and chosen, one by the Buyer and the other by the Seller of such Cloth; and in case they disagree in ascertaining the Length and Breadth of the said Cloth, then the said Admeasurement shall be made by a third Person, to be chosen and nominated by the said two Persons appointed as aforesaid; and in case the said two Persons shall neglect or refuse to choose and nominate such third Person within the Space of two Hours, or if such third Person so chosen shall refuse or neglect to take upon him the Admeasurement of the said Cloth, at the Request of the Buyer or Seller thereof, then a fit Person shall be nominated and appointed by the next Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate of the Place where the said Cloth shall happen to be sold, to make such Admeasurement; which said Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate is hereby authorized and required to appoint and swear such Person, truly to admeasure the same, and the Person so appointed shall be and is hereby obliged to be sworn, and to act for the Purposes aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of forty Shillings, on Conviction before such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, to be levied by his Warrant, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender; and if, upon such Admeasurement last mentioned, there shall be found a less or smaller Quantity of Cloth in Length, or a less or smaller Quantity in Breadth, in more than one fifth Part of the Length than is mentioned in the Seal or Seals before directed to be affixed to such Cloth, in every such Case every Clothier, Owner or Seller of such Cloth, shall forfeit the sixth Part of the Value of every such Cloth to the Poor of the Parish where such Cloth shall be found to be defective, and the said Forfeiture shall be paid by the Buyer of such Cloth to the Overseer of the Poor of such Parish, for their Use, and by such Buyer to be deducted and retained out of the Price of such Cloth so found wanting in Measure as aforesaid, upon paying for the same, after Certificate of such Defect made by the Person or Persons measuring the same, and Oath made thereof by such Person and Persons, before any Justice of the Peace of the said Riding, or any Corporation within the same, which Oath in such Case, such Person and Persons are required to make, and such Justice is required to administer, and thereof to give a Certificate to such Person or Persons taking the said Oath, without Fee or Reward; and all such Sums of Money which the Clothier, Owner or Seller of any such Cloth shall forfeit and pay on Account of such fraudulent Seal or Seals of such Master, Owner, Occupier or Millman of such Mill, being fixed to the said Cloth, shall, upon Demand, be repaid by the said Master, Owner, Occupier or Millman of the said Fulling-Mill, who affixed or caused to be affixed the said Seals, to such Clothier, Owner or Seller of such Cloth, and upon Refusal to be recovered and levied as is herein after provided.

Buyer may wet the Cloths, and measure them, &c.

Penalty for false Measure.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, if upon such Admeasurement the Seals affixed by the Millman are found not to contain the just Lengths and Breadths of such Cloths, in such Case the Clothier shall be obliged to carry it back to the Millman, where it was before stamped, in order to affix on the said Cloths new Seals, to be made and affixed as aforesaid, which shall contain the true Lengths and Breadths of the said Cloth, and that the said Measurer or Measurers shall have and receive from the Buyer of such Cloth six Pence, and no more, for every Piece of Cloth which shall be by him or them so measured.

Millman to affix new Seals.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, if upon such Admeasurement as is last mentioned, any Cloth so measured shall be found not to be of the respective Breadths, or shall exceed the Lengths herein before mentioned, directed and prescribed, or in Case upon such Admeasurement there shall be found a less or smaller Quantity of Cloth in Length, or a less or smaller Quantity in Breadth, in more than one fifth Part of the Length than is mentioned in the Seal or Seals before directed to be affixed to such Cloth, in every such Case the Merchant or Buyer of such Cloth, which shall be so found to be fraudulent and defective as aforesaid, shall be at Liberty, within three Days after such Admeasurement, to return such fraudulent or defective Cloth to the Clothier or other Person who sold the same, who thereupon is hereby required to repay unto such Merchant or Buyer all such Money, Charges and Expences as he shall have paid or been put unto, for or by Reason or Means of such defective or fraudulent Cloth, the same to be ascertained by the Oath of such Merchant or Buyer, before any Justice of the Peace of the said Riding or Corporation as aforesaid, to be recovered, upon his Refusal, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, not being a Dealer in Woollen Cloth, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person so refusing.

Merchant may return defective Cloth to the Clothier.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Clothier and Maker of such Cloth shall, at the Time of making thereof, weave or sew into the Head of the Cloth, in distinct Letters and Words, plain to be read, at Length, the Name and Place of Abode of such Clothier and Maker: And, if any Clothier or Maker of such Woollen broad Cloth shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, expose to Sale any Cloth without such Seals as before directed, or without such Name and Place of Abode, so woven or sewed into such Cloth in Words at Length, plainly to be seen and read, such Clothier or Maker so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted upon the Oath of any one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, made before any such Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said Riding, or any Corporation within the same (he being no Dealer in Cloth) who is hereby authorized to administer the said Oath, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds for every such Piece of Cloth; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall willingly take off, alter, counterfeit, deface, obliterate or cut out, any of the aforesaid Seal or Seals of Lead, so fixed and riveted to such End or Half Cloth, or to such Long or Whole Cloth, or the Figures, Letters and Words thereon thereon stamped, made or set, or therein woven or sewed, before the Cloth be sold to the Retailer or Consumer thereof, for the Consumption of Great Britain, or be exported beyond the Seas, every Person or Persons so offending, and every Person in whose Custody any such Cloth without Seals, or with the Seals defaced, altered, cut out or obliterated, before it be sold to such Retailer, or be exported beyond the Seas, shall be found, being thereof lawfully convicted, for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

Overstretching
the Cloth forfeits 20s. for every Half-yard
in Length, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, shall, over and beyond the Measure set and contained in the said Seal or Seals, stretch or strain, procure or cause to be stretched or strained, any End or Half-Cloth, more than one Yard in Length, or any Whole or Long Cloth, more than two Yards in Length, or any Piece of the said Broad Cloth, more than one Inch in every Quarter of a Yard in the Breadth, every such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall, for every Half-Yard in Length, and every Inch in Breadth so over stretched or strained as aforesaid, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be levied by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of any Justice or Justices of Peace for the said County, Riding, City, Liberty or Place where the Offence shall be committed, not being a Merchant or Trader in the Woollen Manufacture.

Cloths to be dressed in all Parts alike.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, every Woollen Broad Cloth made within the West-Riding of the said County of York, whether the same be called an End or Half-Cloth, or a Long or Whole Cloth, shall throughout be dressed in all Parts alike, not only at the Sides or Edges next to the List (as hath of late Years been the Custom) but also in the Middle, and at the Edges, from End to End, that is to say, That the Middle of the Cloth, and so throughout the whole, from End to End, have the same Work or Dressing, the one Part equal with the other; and in order to discover such Abuses, every Cloth-Dresser or Cloth-Worker is hereby obliged to affix or cause to be affixed at the head End of every such Cloth dressed by him or them, a Seal of Lead, and shall rivet the same, and stamp his Name in Words at Length thereupon, that it may be thereby discovered who the Dresser of each Cloth shall be, that the Work may be done and performed as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall, for every such Neglect or Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

Worker to affix at the Head End his Mark.

Penalty, 5 l.

The Lengths of Yards to be numbered on the Tenters, on Pain of 5 l.

XI. And, for the better and more easy Discovery of the undue stretching and straining of Cloth, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Proprietor of any Center or Centers in the said West-Riding of the said County of York shall, and he is hereby required to measure such Center and Centers, as shall be made Use of for tentering of Cloth, and to mark or number in Figures, plain and fair to be seen, the true Length of Yards of each Center or Centers, beginning at Number 1. and so continuing it to the End thereof, marking and numbering each Yard, distinctly, plainly and fairly to be seen upon the top Bar belonging to each Center on the fore-side thereof; and if any such Center or Centers shall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be found not to be measured and truly marked and numbered as aforesaid, the Owner or Proprietor of such Center or Centers shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for each Center that shall be found not so numbered and marked as aforesaid; such Penalty to be levied and recovered as any other Penalty is hereby directed to be recovered and levied.

Quarter-Sessions

Searchers to inspect the Mills:

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace for the said West-Riding of the said County of York shall at their Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said West-Riding, next after Midsummer next, and afterwards at their General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden next after Easter, yearly and every Year, choose and appoint so many Men of good Character and Repute within the said Riding, as they shall think reasonable, to be Searchers for the Year ensuing, and may allow to each of them a Salary, not exceeding fifteen Pounds per Annum, to be paid out of the Money as shall be received by the Treasurer of the said West-Riding as before directed; which said Searchers shall and may, by the Direction and Authority of any one of the said Justices of the Peace of the said West-Riding, or any Corporation within the same, have full Power, at all reasonable and convenient Times, to enter and inspect in the Day-time, (Sundays excepted) the Mill and Mills of any Clothier or other Person for milling of Cloth, and, if he or they think fit and reasonable, to measure the Length and Breadth of any Cloth he shall find there, before it be carried from thence; and all and every such Searcher and Searchers, before he or they shall enter upon the Execution of his and their said Office, shall take the following Oath, before any such Justice of the Peace, videlicet;

Their Oath.

I A. B. do swear, That I will well and truly execute the Office of a Searcher of Broad Woollen Cloth, within the West-Riding of the County of York, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, and according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge.

So help me God.

They may enter into Houses, &c. to search for Frauds, on Pain of 10 l.

XIII. And it shall and may be lawful for every such Searcher and Searchers, from Time to Time, as Occasion shall require, more especially when directed and required by any such Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said Riding, or any Corporation within the same, in Writing under his or their Hands so to do, in the Day-time to enter into any House or Houses, Shop or Shops, Out-house or Out-houses, Center-Grounds or the Warehouse of any Merchant or Merchants, Seller or Sellers, or any other Dealer in Cloth, or the Mills of any such, or any Out-house or Out-houses belonging thereto, within the said Riding, to search for any Woollen Broad Cloth, which shall be stretched and strained beyond the Lengths or Breadths aforesaid, or any Alteration in the Seal or Seals, contrary to the Direction, true Intent and Meaning of this present Act; and, for the better discovering of such Abuse, to measure or cause to be measured, any such Cloth which he shall suspect to be so over-stretched or strained in Length or Breadth as aforesaid; and in case of Resistance or Refusal by by any Person, to permit and suffer such Searcher or Searchers to enter the said Places, or any of them, for the Purposes aforesaid, the Person so refusing or refusing shall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds on Conviction thereof before any such Justice; and if such Searcher or Searchers shall at any Time find any Woollen Broad Cloth (after it hath been tentured) without the Seal or Seals hereby directed to be put, or such Seal or Seals defaced, counterfeited, altered or pulled off, except it shall appear that such Seal or Seals was or were accidentally lost or maliciously taken off, and that it shall appear the said Cloth hath not been unduly stretched or strained when put into Water, or that any of such Cloths appears by the Mark or Stamp, or such Seals, to be over-stretched or strained, either in Breadth or Length, beyond the Dimensions allowed of and provided for by this present Act, or that the Name and Place of Abode of the Maker of such Cloth shall be cut out or altered, in such Case the Owner of such Cloth shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

On Discovery of
forfeit 5 l.

XIV. Provided, and be it enacted, That if any such Searcher or Searchers, appointed as aforesaid, do or shall act therein against his or their said Oath or Oaths, he or they, being convicted thereof in Manner aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Searchers acting against their Oaths, 20 l.

XV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any Power or Authority to such Searcher or Searchers (to be appointed pursuant to this Act) to search and examine such Broad Cloths as shall be pressed and packed up for Exportation, unless such Searcher or Searchers shall be first authorized and impowered by Warrant, under the Hand and Seal of one or more of such Justice or Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, made upon Information upon Oath of one or more credible Person or Persons, that he or they have good Reason to suspect, and verily believe, that some Fraud hath been committed in the Cloth so pressed and packed up, contrary to the Direction, true Intent and Meaning of this Act: And if, upon the searching and examining such packed up Cloth, no such Fraud as aforesaid shall be found, then and in such Case such Informer or Informers are hereby directed to pay unto such Merchant or Dealer in Cloth, whose Cloth shall be so opened and searched, after it hath been so pressed and packed up, five Shillings for every Cloth which shall be so unpacked, towards the Damage that such Merchant or Dealer shall sustain by such causeless or malicious unpacking; and in Default of Payment thereof, the same to be levied in such Manner as any other Penalties are hereby directed to be levied.

Searchers not to examine Cloths

hereby authorized and required to issue out one or more Warrant or Warrants, under his or their Hands and Seals, to the Constable of the Town or Place, or Bailiff or Bailiffs of the Liberties, Wardens or Limits where such Offender or Offenders doth or shall inhabit, thereby commanding him or them to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, returning the Overplus, if any be, after paying likewise the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Offender or Offenders demanding the same, and where no sufficient Distress can be found, to commit the Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction within the said West-Riding, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of six Months.

Person aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter-Sessions.

XIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, if any Person or Persons shall find him or herself aggrieved by any Order or Warrant made by any Justice or Justices, upon any Conviction before him or them, in Pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may appeal to the next General Quarter-Sessions to be held for the said Riding of the said County of York, giving ten Days Notice of such Appeal to the Person or Persons discovering the Offence on which the Conviction was made; and, if the Justices at their said Quarter-Sessions shall think fit either to confirm or disannul the Orders or Proceedings of the said Justice or Justices, they shall allow such Costs and Charges to the Party aggrieved thereby as they shall think reasonable, to be levied and paid in such Manner as is usual in Cases of Appeals from any Order of the Justices of the Peace to the Sessions, whose Order herein shall be final.

All Actions on this Act to be laid in Com-Ebor'.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, if any Action or Suit, after the Commencement of this Act, shall be brought, commenced, sued or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, by this Act authorized to put the same or any Part thereof in Execution, in every such Case the Action shall be laid in the said County of York, and not elsewhere; and every such Person and Persons so sued or prosecuted, may to such Action plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear so to be done, or that such Action or Actions shall be brought in any other County, that then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and that upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited or discontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, for which he and they shall have the like Remedy, as in Cases wherein Costs are by Law given to Defendants; and that this Act shall be taken and allowed as a publick Act in all Courts within this Kingdom; and all Judges, Justices and other Persons are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such, without special Pleading the same; and that this present Act shall continue in Force for the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

See 26 Geo. 2.
c. 29.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual securing the Peace of the Highlands in Scotland, it was enacted, That from and after the first Day of November which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, it should not be lawful for any Person or Persons (except only such Persons as are therein mentioned and described) within the Shires of Dunbartain on the North-side of the Water of Leven, Sterling on the North-side of the River of Forth, Perth, Kincairdin, Aberdeen, Inverness, Nairn, Cromarty, Argyle, Forfar, Banff, Sutherland, Caithness, Elgin and Ross, to have in his, her or their Custody, use or bear, Broad Sword or Target, Poynard, Whingar or Durk, Side-Pistol or Side-Pistols, or Gun, or any other warlike Weapons, in the Fields, or in the Way coming or going to, from or at any Church, Market, Fair, Burials, Huntings, Meetings or any other Occasion whatsoever, within the Bounds aforesaid, or to come into the Low Countries armed as aforesaid: And in case any of the said Person or Persons above described should have in his Custody, use or bear Arms, otherwise than in the said Act was directed, every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted before one or more Justices of the Peace, or before any other Judge Competent of the Place summarily, should, for the first Offence, forfeit all such Arms, and be liable to a Fine not exceeding forty Pounds Sterling, and not under five Pounds Sterling, and to be imprisoned till Payment of the said Fine, which, if not instantly paid after Commitment, the said Fine might and should be levied out of the Offender's Goods and Estate, by Warrant of the Judge, who should pronounce any such Sentence, to be applied in such Manner as by the said Act was directed, and the Offender should be further liable to a Month's Imprisonment; and, being convicted for a second Offence, before the Court of Justiciary, or before the Judges at their Circuits, should forfeit such Arms, and be liable to a Fine not exceeding eighty Pounds Sterling, nor under ten Pounds Sterling; and for every subsequent Offence, to a Fine the Double of the former, to be levied and applied, as by the said Act is directed; and that, for the want of Payment of any such Fine, or a sufficient Distress to satisfy the Payment of it, the Offender should be liable to be transported to any of his Majesty's Plantations beyond the Seas, there to remain for the Space of seven Years, as by the said Act, Relation being thereunto had, may at large appear. And whereas, notwithstanding the said recited Act, many Persons within the said several Shires and Bounds still continue possessed of great Quantities of Arms and warlike Weapons, which they use and bear as formerly, and therewith, in Contempt and Defiance of the Laws of the Kingdom, commit many Robberies and Depredations, oppose the due Execution of Justice against Robbers, Outlaws and Persons attainted of High Treason

Treason for the late unnatural Rebellion, and collect, for their own Use, the Rents of Estates forfeited by such attainted Persons, and belonging to the Publick, to the Dishonour of the Government, and the Terror and great Loss of his Majesty's faithful Subjects inhabiting in that Part of the Kingdom: Now, for putting a Stop to the said present Mischiefs, and for preventing the like in Time to come, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant of every one of the said Shires, or to and for any such other Person or Persons as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, by his or their Sign Manual, from Time to Time, think fit to authorize and appoint in that Behalf, to cause Letters or Summons to be issued in his Majesty's Name, and under his or their respective Hands and Seals, directed to such of the Clans and Persons within the said several Shires and Bounds, as he or they, from Time to Time, shall think fit, thereby commanding and requiring all and every Person and Persons of or belonging to such Clan or Clans, and all and every such other Persons therein named, inhabiting within the particular Limits therein described, on a certain Day in such Summons prefixed, to bring in and deliver up, at a certain Place in such Summons also to be mentioned, all and singular his and their Arms and warlike Weapons unto such Lord Lieutenant, or other Person or Persons authorized and appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in that Behalf as aforesaid, for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and to be by him or them disposed of in such Manner as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors shall afterwards appoint; and if, at any Time after the Day in such Summons prefixed, any Person or Persons belonging to the Clan or Clans in such Summons named, or any other Person or Persons aforesaid in such Summons mentioned, shall, by the Oath of any two or more credible Witnesses, be convicted before any two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Shire or Stewartry, where such Offender or Offenders reside, or is or are apprehended, of having or bearing any Arms or warlike Weapons after the Day prefixed in such Summons, such Person or Persons being so convicted as aforesaid, shall and may, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices of the Peace, be forthwith committed to such safe Custody as in the said Warrant shall be expressed, to be there kept and detained without Bail, until the said Justices of the Peace shall cause him or them to be delivered over (as they are hereby respectively impowered and required to do) unto such Officer or Officers belonging to the Forces of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors as shall be appointed, from Time to Time, to receive such Men, within every such Shire or Place respectively, to serve as Soldiers in any Part of his Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, for which Purpose the respective Officers who shall receive such Men, shall then cause the Articles of War against Mutiny and Desertion to be read to him or them in the Presence of such Persons as shall so deliver over such Men unto such Officers respectively, who shall cause an Entry or Memorial thereof to be made, together with the Names of the Persons so delivered over, and a Certificate thereof in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to be delivered to the Officers appointed to receive such Men; and, from and after reading the said Articles of War, every Person so delivered over to such Officer, to serve as a Soldier in his Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, shall be deemed a listed Soldier to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be subject to the Discipline of War, and in case of Desertion shall be punished as a Deserter.

Lords Lieutenants in the Highlands, or others deputed under the Sign Manual, may summon the Clans to bring in their Arms at a Place appointed.

On bearing Arms afterwards to be delivered over to serve as Soldiers in his Majesty's Dominions beyond Sea.

II. And because divers evil-minded Persons may take upon them, in Disobedience to this present Act, to hide and conceal the Arms which they are commanded to deliver up, in Hopes of escaping the Punishment due to their Offence, from the Difficulty of bringing Proof that the Arms were so hidden and concealed by them, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after the Days severally to be prefixed for delivering up of Arms, in Execution of this Act, any Arms or warlike Weapons whatsoever shall be found hidden or concealed in any Dwelling-house, Barn, Office, House, Out-house or any other House whatsoever, within the Limits summoned to deliver up Arms as aforesaid, the Tenant or Possessor of such Dwelling-house, and to whose Possession such Barn, Office, House, Out-house or other House belongs, shall be deemed and taken to be the Owner of such concealed Arms, in Contempt of this present Act, and, being thereof convicted in Manner above mentioned, shall, if a Man, suffer the Penalties hereby above enacted; and if the Tenant or Possessor of such House where Arms are so found, shall be a Woman, she being thereof convicted in Manner above mentioned, shall, by Warrant of the Justices of the Peace, before whom she shall be so convicted, suffer Imprisonment for the Space of two Years, within the Tollboth of the Head Burgh of the Shire or Stewartry, in which she shall be convicted, and shall be further liable to be fined by the said Justices of the Peace, according to their Discretion, in any Sum not exceeding one hundred Pounds, lawful Money of Great Britain; unless such Tenant or Possessor, in whose House, Barn, Office, House, Out-house or other House by them possessed, such Arms shall be found concealed, do give sufficient Evidence to the Satisfaction of the said Justices of the Peace, before whom he or she shall be tried, that such Arms were so hid and concealed without his or her Connivance, Privy or Knowledge; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall be accessory or privy to the hiding or concealing such Arms in the Fields, or in any other Place whatsoever, he, she or they being thereof lawfully convicted before any two or more Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, shall suffer the Penalties respectively above enacted.

If Arms be found hidden in those Limits, the Possessors, if a Man, shall suffer the said Penalties:

If a Woman, shall be imprisoned for two Years, and fined, not exceeding 100 l.

Vol. IV.

Head Burgh of the Shire or Stewartry, within which the said Lands lie, eight Days before the Day appointed for the said Delivery of the Arms; and in case the Person or Persons employed to affix the said Summons on the Doors of the several Parish Churches, or any of them, shall be intercepted, molested or forcibly hindered to affix the said Summons on the Doors of the said Churches, or any of them, upon Oath made to the Effect aforesaid, before any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the Summons affixed on the Market-Cross of the Head Burgh of the Shire or Stewartry as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient Notice to all the Persons commanded thereby to deliver up their Arms; and they, upon their Neglect or Disobedience, shall suffer and be liable to the Conviction and Penalties above expressed, in the same Manner as if the Summons had been regularly affixed on the Doors of the several Parish Churches.

IV. And to the End that sufficient Evidence may remain, in all Time to come, of the Execution or Notice given of the Summons for disarming the several Clans and Districts as aforesaid, it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the elapsing of the said several Days to be prefixed for delivering up Arms, the Person or Persons employed to affix Copies of the Summons above mentioned, on the Market-Cross of the Head Burroughs of any Shire or Stewartry, shall, before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said Shire or Stewartry make Oath, that he or they did truly execute and give Notice of the same, by affixing it as aforesaid; and the Person or Persons employed to affix the said Summons on the Doors of the Parish Church or Parish Churches, shall make Oath in the same Manner and to the same Effect, or otherwise shall swear, That he or they were intercepted, molested or forcibly hindered to affix Copies of the said Summons as aforesaid; which Oaths, together with full Copies or Duplicates of the Summons, to which they severally relate, shall be delivered to the Sheriff or Stewart Clerk of the several Shires or Stewartries, within which the Lands, intended to be disarmed, lie, who shall enter the same in Books which he and they is and are hereby required to keep for that Purpose; and the said Books in which the Entries are so made, or Extracts out of the same, under the Hand of the Sheriff or Stewart Clerks, shall in all Time to come be deemed and taken to be full and compleat Evidence of the Execution of the Summons, in order to the Conviction of the Persons who shall neglect or refuse to comply with the same.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any such Sheriff or Stewart Clerk neglect or refuse to make such Entry as is above mentioned, or shall refuse to exhibit the Books containing such Entries, or to give Extracts of the same, being thereto required by any Person or Persons, who shall carry on any Prosecutions as aforesaid, the Clerk so neglecting or refusing shall forfeit his Office, and shall be further liable to a Fine of one hundred Pounds Sterling, to be recovered upon a summary Complaint before the Court of Session, for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

VI. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant of any of the Shires aforesaid, or the Person or Persons authorized by his Majesty, as above mentioned, or for any two or more Justices of the Peace, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, to authorize and appoint any Person or Persons whom he or they shall think fit, to enter into any House or Houses, within the Limits aforesaid, either by Day or by Night, and there to search for and seize all such Arms and Warlike Weapons, as shall be found contrary to the Direction of this Act; Provided, That if the said Search shall be made in the Night-time, between Sun-setting and Sun-rising, it shall be made in Presence of a Constable, and if any Persons, to the Number of five or more, shall at any Time assemble together to obstruct the Execution of any Thing hereby required to be executed, it shall and may be lawful to and for every Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenant, or Justice of the Peace where such Assembly shall be, and also to and for every Peace-Officer within any such Shire, Stewartry, City, Borough or Place where such Assembly shall be, and likewise to and for all and every such other Person or Persons as by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall be authorized and appointed in that Behalf as aforesaid, to require the Aid and Assistance of the Forces of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by applying to the Officer commanding the said Forces, and all other his and their loving Subjects (who are hereby authorized, impowered and commanded to give such Aid and Assistance accordingly) to suppress such unlawful Assembly, in order to the putting this Act in due Execution, and also to seize, apprehend and disarm, and they are hereby required to seize, apprehend and disarm such Persons so assembled together, and forthwith to carry the Persons so apprehended before any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the Shire or Place where such Persons shall be so apprehended, in order to their being proceeded against for such their Offences according to Law; and that if the Persons so unlawfully assembled, or any of them, or any other Person or Persons summoned to deliver up his or their Arms, in Pursuance of this Act, shall happen to be killed, maimed or hurt, in the dispersing, seizing and apprehending, or in the endeavouring to disperse, seize or apprehend them, by reason of their resisting the Persons so dispersing, seizing or apprehending, or endeavouring to disperse, seize or apprehend them, that then all and every such Lord Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or any Peace Officer or Officers, and all and every Person and Persons authorized and appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors in that Behalf as aforesaid, and all and singular Soldiers and other Persons, being aiding and assisting to him, them, or any of them, shall be freed, discharged and indemnified, as well against the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other Person and Persons, of, for or concerning the killing, maiming or hurting any such Person or Persons so unlawfully assembled, that shall be so killed, maimed or hurt as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Civil or Criminal, shall be brought before any Court whatsoever against any Person or Persons for what he or they shall lawfully do in Pursuance or Execution of this Act, such Court shall allow the Defender the Benefit of the Discharge and Indemnity above provided, and shall further decern the Pursuer to pay to the Defender the full and real Expences, that he shall be put to by such Action or Prosecution, thereof.

VIII. Provided

Person employed to affix the Summons to make Oath that he hath so done, or that he was forcibly hindered.

Oaths and Duplicates of the Summons to be entered in the Sheriff's Books.

Sheriff Clerk not making such Entry, &c. forfeits his Office and 100 l.

Lord Lieutenant, &c. may appoint Persons to search for Arms.

On Opposition the Forces to assist.

All Persons indemnified in maiming or killing such Opposers.

All Courts to allow Defendants the Indemnity, &c.

VIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Peers of this Realm, nor their Sons, nor any Members of Parliament, nor any Person or Persons who, by the Act above recited of the first Year of his Majesty, were allowed to have or carry Arms, shall by Virtue of this Act be liable to be summoned to deliver up their Arms or Warlike Weapons, nor shall this Act be construed to extend to exclude or hinder any other Person, whom his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by Licence under his or their Royal Sign Manual, shall permit to wear Arms, or who shall be licenced to wear Arms, by any Writing or Writings under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of any Person or Persons authorized by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to give such Licence, from keeping, bearing, or wearing such and so many Arms and warlike Weapons, as in such Licence or Licences, or either of them, shall for that Purpose be particularly specified.

IX. And to the End that no Person or Persons intended to be disarmed, may be discouraged from delivering up their Weapons, from the Apprehension of the Penalties and Forfeitures, which they may have incurred through their neglecting to comply with the Directions of the Act above recited of the first Year of his Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual securing the Peace of the Highlands of Scotland; Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the Time of affixing any such Summons as aforesaid, no Person or Persons, residing within the Bounds therein mentioned, shall be sued or prosecuted for his or their having, or having had, bearing, or having born Arms, at any Time before the several Days to be prefixed or limited by Summons as aforesaid, for the respective Clans and Districts to deliver up their Arms; but if any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to deliver up their Arms, in Obedience to such Summons as aforesaid, or shall be afterwards found in Arms, he and they shall be liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures of the Statute above recited, as well as to the Penalties of this present Act.

X. And to the Intent that no Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall be convicted by any Civil Magistrate, or Court of Judicature, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, of any Crime, importing a Capital or any other Corporal Punishment, may be grieved by the over hasty Execution of such Sentence, without allowing Time for Application to his Majesty, or to his Heirs and Successors, for his or their gracious Pardon; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, no Sentence or Judgment of any Civil Magistrate, or Court of Judicature, importing a Capital or any Corporal Punishment, if pronounced in Edinburgh, or any other Part of Scotland to the Southward of the Frith, or River of Forth, shall be put to Execution within less than thirty Days after the Date of such Sentence; and if pronounced in any Place to the Northward of the said Frith or River of Forth, shall be put to Execution within less than forty Days after the Date of such Sentence: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall hinder or disable the Courts of Judicature, or any other Civil Magistrate within Scotland, to commit to Gaol, and detain in Custody, in order to Trial, or in Order to the Execution of Sentences, as they by Law might have done before the making of this Act.

XI. And whereas it is found by Experience, that the Sums for which Bail is to be taken on any Criminal Information, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in Pursuance of the Act of Parliament made there in the Year one thousand seven hundred and one, intituled, An Act for preventing wrongous Imprisonment, and against undue Delays in Trials, are too small and disproportioned to the Danger of the Criminals escaping from the Punishment appointed by Law, extending no higher than to the Sum of six thousand Merks for a Nobleman, three thousand Merks for a landed Gentleman, one thousand Merks for any other Gentleman or Burgess, and three hundred Merks, all Money of Scotland, for any other inferior Person; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, it may and shall be lawful to and for all and every Magistrate, Judge, and Court of Judicature within Scotland, who by the said Act above recited, were, in case of Criminal Informations and Accusations, directed to limit the Bail by them to be taken to the several and respective Sums above mentioned, to extend the Bail to be given in the said several and respective Cases to double the Sums provided by the aforesaid Act, if he or they upon the Circumstances of the Case shall think fit.

XII. And whereas for want of a sufficient Fund for defraying the Charges of apprehending Criminals in North Britain, and of subsisting them when apprehended, until Prosecution, and of carrying on the necessary Prosecutions against them, it often happens, that Criminals there escape the Punishment due to their Offences; For preventing of which Inconveniences for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Freeholders of every Shire, County or District in North Britain, to assess the several Shires or Stewartries where their Estates lie, at their Meetings at any of their Head Courts yearly, in such Sums as they shall judge reasonable and sufficient for the Purposes aforesaid; and that such Monies so from Time to Time to be assessed, shall be collected, received and accounted for by such Person and Persons, and in such Manner, as such Freeholders shall from Time to Time appoint, and shall be applied for defraying the Charges of apprehending of Criminals, and of subsisting of them in Prison until Prosecution, and of prosecuting such Criminals for their several Offences by due Course of Law, and to and for no other Use or Purpose whatsoever.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of this Act, and of all and every the Clauses and Provisoes herein contained, which are mentioned, or intended to put a stop to, and for preventing for the future the Discharges in this Act first recited, and which concern and relate to the summoning and disarming the Persons herein before mentioned and intended to be disarmed, shall be, remain and continue in full Force and Virtue, for and during the full Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer; any Thing herein before said or contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

I. WHEREAS by an Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Mischiefs that may happen by Fire, it is, amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eight, all and every House and Houses, that shall be erected and built, either upon old or new Foundations in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or other Parishes or Places comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, shall have Party-Walls between House and House wholly of Brick or Stone, and of two Bricks thick at the least in the Cellar and Ground Stories, and thirteen Inches thick upwards from the Foundation quite through all the Stories of each House, and eighteen Inches above the Roof, and that no Mundillion or Cornish of Timber or Wood under the Eaves shall thereafter be made or suffered in any such new House or Houses, but that all Front and Rear Walls of every House and Houses shall be built of Brick or Stone, to be carried two Foot and a Half above the Garret Floor, and coped with Stone or Brick, under the Penalty therein mentioned: And whereas by another Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty (for making more effectual the said Act) it is, amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and nine, all and every House and Houses, that shall be erected and built, either upon old or new Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or other Parishes or Places comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality (except Houses on London-Bridge, and on the River of Thames below Bridge,) shall have Party-Walls between House and House, wholly of Brick or Stone (except Door-Cases, Windows, Lentils, Breast-Summers, Story-Posts, and Plates) of two Bricks thick at the least in the Cellar, and one Brick and a Half thick upwards to the Top of the Garret Floor, and all Gable-Ends to be one Brick in Length, and eighteen Inches above the Roof, and to have no Beams or Rafter lie or stand, or to be in the Brick Works of the Gable-Ends: And for preventing Suits about Differences in Party-Walls, it is therein further enacted, That all Party-Walls shall be built nine Inches on each Man's Ground, whether the old Party-Wall be Brick, Stone or Timber, and that the first Builder shall have Power to pull down the same, and build up the new Party-Wall as aforesaid, and be paid by the Owner of the next House after the Rate of five Pounds per Rod, as soon as he shall have built the said Party-Wall; and for all Houses thereafter to be built, that do not yield the Rent of twenty Pounds per Annum more than the Ground-Rent, to be left to the Discretion of the Builders, provided, That all Party-Walls for the same be built with Brick: And whereas divers Doubts and Disputes have arisen upon the said recited Acts touching the Power of the first Builder to enter into the next adjoining House to shore and support the same, and at whose Expence, during the Time the Party-Wall shall be pulling down and rebuilding, as also touching what Proportions of the Charges of Building Party-Walls ought to be born by the Owners and Occupiers of Houses, having different Interests therein, and other Doubts and Difficulties arising upon the said Acts, it is necessary to explain and amend the same, and to make the said Acts more effectual, May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, all and every Person or Persons who shall erect or build, or cause to be erected or built, any House or Houses upon any old or new Foundation or Foundations, in any Place or Places in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or any Parish or Place comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, or within the Parish of Saint Mary la bone and Paddington, or within the Parishes of Chelsea and Saint Pancras, or either of them, in the County of Middlesex, (except Houses on London-Bridge and on the River of Thames below Bridge,) and who shall think it necessary to pull down any Partition-Wall between such House and the next adjoining House, shall (in case the Owner or Occupier of such adjoining House will not, or by Disability cannot agree,) give three Months Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of such adjoining House, to whom any Part of the said Wall belongs, of such his, her or their Intention to pull down such Party-Wall, to the Intent that before such Party-Wall shall be pulled down, the same may, within the Space of one Month next after such Notice, be viewed by four or more able Workmen, two or more of which Workmen shall be named by such first Builder, and the other two or more by the Owner or Tenant or Occupier of such next House to that which is intended to be pulled down; and in case either of the said Parties shall refuse or neglect to name within three Weeks (next after such Notice) such Workmen, that then the other of the said Parties shall name four or more Workmen, who shall view the Party-Wall intended to be pulled down, and (without Consent) the same shall not be pulled down, unless in any of the Cases aforesaid, the major Part of such Workmen shall certify in Writing under their Hands, to the Justices of the Peace in the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the City or County, where such Party-Wall is intended to be pulled down, that such Party-Wall is defective and ruinous, and ought to be pulled down; and in case any Person or Persons shall think him, her or themselves aggrieved by any such Certificate, such Justices shall, upon Complaint to them made, summon before them one or more of such Workmen, and such other Person or Persons, as they shall think fit, and shall examine the Matter upon Oath (which Oath or Oaths they are hereby impowered to administer) and upon such Examination or Examinations the said Justices are hereby authorized and required to make such Order or Orders in the Premises, as they in their Discretions shall think to be just and reasonable, and the Determinations of the said Justices shall be final and conclusive to all Parties without any Appeal from the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if within three Days after such Certificate made by Workmen as aforesaid, a Copy thereof shall be delivered to the Owner or Occupier of such next adjoining House, or left there, and there shall be no Appeal from the same within the Time aforesaid, in every such Case, if such Owner or Occupier shall neglect or refuse to shore and support his, her or their Houses within six Days after the Time

Time allowed by this Act for Appeal as aforesaid, That then it shall and may be lawful to and for such first Builder or Builders, giving Notice as aforesaid, to enter into such House or Houses (at all reasonable Times) with Workmen and Materials, to shore and support the same, and shall shore and support the same at the Charge and Expence of such Owner or Occupier; and after the same shall be so shored and supported, it shall and may be lawful to and for such first Builder or Builders, to build up a new Party-Wall, according to the Directions of the said recited Acts, and within ten Days after such Party-Wall shall be so built, such first Builder or Builders shall, in Writing, leave at such next House, or with the Owner or Occupier thereof, a true Account of the Number of Rods in such Party-Wall, and one Moiety or Half-Part of the Expence thereof, after the Rate of five Pounds per Rod, shall be paid by the Owner or Owners of such House or Houses, who are entitled to the improved Rent thereof; and it shall and may be lawful to and for such Tenant or Occupier to pay such first Builder or Builders for the same, as also for the shoring and supporting the House as aforesaid, after he or they shall have built such Party-Wall, and to deduct the same out of the next Rent that shall become due from him or her to such Owner or Owners, under whom he or she holds or enjoys the same, and in case of Neglect or Refusal to pay the Expence of building the Party-Wall, or the Expence of shoring and supporting the Houses aforesaid, within one and twenty Days after Demand thereof, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such first Builder or Builders, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, to sue such Owner or Owners for such their Proportions of the Expences of building or rebuilding such Party-Wall, and shoring and supporting such House as aforesaid, by Action of Debt, or on the Case, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be allowed.

and build up a Party-Wall.

First Builder may sue for the Proportion of the Expence.

III. And for the better preventing the spreading of Fires from one House to another, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful to make or have in any Party-Wall of any House, which after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, shall be erected or built within the Limits aforesaid, any Door-Case, Window, Lintel, Breast-Summer, or Storey-Poss or Plates whatsoever, unless where two or more Houses shall be laid together, and so used or occupied as one House only, and during the Time of such Usage, and no longer, upon Pain that the Owner or Owners of any such House shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; but it may be lawful that such Door-Case, Window, Lintel, Breast-Summer, or Storey-Poss or Plates shall or may be fixed or put in the Front of such House or Building for the Convenience of a Shop or Shops only.

No Door-Case, Window, &c. to be in Party-Walls.

Penalty 50 l.

IV. And whereas several old Houses within the Cities of London and Westminster, and other the Limits aforesaid, have instead of one Party-Wall, two old Timber-Walls or Partitions, one belonging to each House, and separate from one another, and Disputes may arise touching pulling down and rebuilding such Walls or Partitions, as there may be Occasion, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such first Builder as aforesaid, giving three Months Notice as aforesaid, to the Owner or Occupier, or Owners or Occupiers, shall have Power to pull down both the said Timber-Walls or Partitions, and to build a new Brick Party-Wall of such Thickness and Height, as is directed by the said recited Acts, and to pull down and rebuild the same, and shall be paid for such Party-Walls in such Manner, as herein before directed and appointed, subject to such Appeal and Determination by the Justices of the Peace as aforesaid.

First Builder may pull down old Timber Walls, and build a new Brick Wall.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Water falling from the Tops of the said Houses to be built after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, within the Limits aforesaid, and the Water falling from the Balconies and Penthouses thereof, shall be conveyed into the Channels by Party-Pipes on the Sides or Fronts of the said Houses, on Pain that the Owner or Owners offending herein shall for every Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds.

Water from the Tops of the Houses, &c. to be conveyed by Party-Pipes.

Penalty 10 l.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted or imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, levied and recovered in like Manner, as is herein before mentioned, and one Moiety or Half-Part thereof shall be to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety thereof to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed.

Penalties how to be levied and disposed of.

VII. And whereas divers Houses are or may hereafter be built on new Foundations, within the Limits above-mentioned, and which stand singly by themselves, and have no House adjoining to one End or Side thereof, by Means whereof such Builder or Builders have been at the whole Charge and Expence of building two Party-Walls and a Fence-Wall to one and the same House, and some other Person or Persons may build upon the Ground next adjoining to such House or Houses, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful to and for any such second Builder or Builders, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to make Use of or take the Benefit of such Party-Wall and Fence-Wall, nor shall such second Builder or Builders, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, on any Account whatsoever, lay any Wood or Timber, or cut any Pole for Cupboards, Presses, or any other Uses, in such Party-Wall, under the Penalty of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty 50 l.

VIII. And whereas by the said recited Act of the sixth Year of the said late Queen there is a Penalty of fifty Pounds laid upon the Owner and Head Builder or Workman, who should neglect to build every House thereafter to be built according to the Directions of the said recited Act, one Moiety whereof to be to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish wherein such Buildings should be erected: And whereas Persons convicted upon the said Act, after they have paid the said Penalty thereby inflicted, are not obliged to make good such Partition-Walls and Defects, for which they have been prosecuted, so that the preventing the Danger that may happen from Fire, which the said Act was designed for, will in a great Measure be evaded and rendered ineffectual; and whereas since the passing of the said recited Act, there has been a very great Increase of Buildings within the Limits aforesaid, and many of the Houses so built are not in every respect built according to the Directions of the said recited Acts, whereby the several Owners and Head Builders thereof have incurred the said Penalty, and several Persons are informed against, and now under Prosecution for the same, which if they are convicted for, they are not liable to make good the said Defects, so that the Mischief from Fire, that by the said Acts were intended to be prevented,

Builders making

Charges, not liable to Penalties, &c. EXP.

vented, will be defeated in all those Houses so built, and many Families probably be utterly ruined; and whereas the said first Owners, Head Builders or Workmen of such Houses so irregularly built are willing and desirous to make good the said Defects, whereby the Intent of the said Acts would be fully answered, provided they may be exempted from the Penalties already incurred by the said former Acts; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such first Owners, Head Builders or Workmen, who shall, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, make good such Defects, pursuant to the Directions of the said Acts, and shall pay or cause to be paid to every Informer or Informers (if by them demanded) such their reasonable Costs and Charges of Prosecution or Suit, which shall have been so commenced (upon which no Conviction shall be obtained before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five) to be settled and fixed by three or more of such Justices of the Peace of the City or County where the Offence hath been committed, shall not be liable to the Penalties of the said Acts, but shall and are hereby acquitted and discharged of and from the same; but in case such first Owner, Head Builder or Workmen shall not make good such Defects, and pay such reasonable Costs and Charges of Prosecution, so fixed and settled as aforesaid, within the Time herein before limited, that then for such Neglect, he, she or they shall forfeit double the Penalty in the said Act mentioned; and all such first Owners, Head Builders and Workmen, who shall have been convicted by Virtue of the said recited Acts, or either of them, before the said tenth Day of May, and who shall not make good such Defects (for which they or either of them were so convicted) before the Time herein before limited for making good the same, shall notwithstanding such Conviction, be further liable to the Penalties of the said Acts, all which Penalties are to be recovered and paid in such Manner, as by the said Acts are directed: Provided nevertheless, That in case the present Owners or Occupiers of such House or Houses as are so defective, and built contrary to the Directions of either of the said recited Acts, shall refuse and deny such first Owner, Head Builder or Workmen, within the Time above limited, on giving him, her or them thirty Days Notice at least, in Writing, to be left at their Dwelling House or Houses, to enter into and upon the Premises, and to bring Materials for making good the said Defects, that then upon Proof made on Oath before two or more Justices of the Peace of such Denial or Refusal, such first Owner, Head Builder or Workmen shall, and are hereby discharged of and from the Penalties of the said recited Acts and of this present Act, and such present Owner or Occupier so denying and refusing, shall be, and is and are hereby declared subject and liable to pay the same Penalties, as the said first Owners, Head Builders or Workmen should have paid; any Thing herein or in the above recited Acts contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Conviction before two Justices.

IX. Provided, That whereas the said Conviction for the said Forfeitures was to be only before one Justice of the Peace, it is hereby enacted and declared, That the said Conviction shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be before two Justices of the Peace at the least.

Manufactures,
continued for three Years, &c.
Further continued
by 26 Geo. 2.
c. 32.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Clauses for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported, contained in an Act made in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, which said Clauses were to have Continuance for three Years from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be and are hereby continued from the Expiration thereof for and during the Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Two last Clauses
in an Act 9 Geo.
I. c. 8. to be in Force.

III. And be it enacted, That the two last Clauses (for the more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuses in the said Manufactures) contained in an Act made in the ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for continuing some Laws, and reviving others, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, shall be of full Force, and shall be put in Execution accordingly.

Further continued
by 21 Geo. 2.
c. 33.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent the clandestine running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby, and to prevent Ships breaking their Quarantine, and to subject Copper Ore of the Production of the British Plantations to such Regulations, as other enumerated Commodities of the like Production are subject, which Act was to continue in Force for two Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be and is hereby continued, from the Expiration thereof, for and during the Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, except so much of the same Act as relates to Ships or Vessels performing Quarantine.

Exception.

V. And whereas by an Act made in the fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for en- 4 Geo. 1. c. 12. forcing and making perpetual an Act of the twelfth Year of her late Majesty, intituled, An Act for preserving all such Ships, and Goods thereof, which shall happen to be forced on shore or stranded on the Coast of this Kingdom, or any other of his Majesty's Dominions, and for inflicting the Punishment of Death on such as shall wilfully burn or destroy Ships, it is amongst other Things enacted, That if any Owner of, or Captain, Master, Mariner, or other Officer belonging to any Ship, shall after the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighteen, wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy the Ship, of which he is Owner, or unto which he belongs, or in any manner or wise direct or procure the same to be done, to the Prejudice of any Person or Persons that shall underwrite any Policy or Policies of Insurance thereon, or of any Merchant or Merchants that shall load Goods thereon, he shall suffer Death.

VI. And whereas some Doubts have arisen touching the Nature of the Offence provided against by the said recited Act, and the Trial and Punishment to be had and inflicted for the same, Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Owner of, or Captain, Master, Officer or Mariner belonging to any Ship or Vessel, shall after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy the Ship or Vessel, of which he is Owner, or to which he belongeth, or in any wise direct or procure the same to be done, with Intent or Design to prejudice any Person or Persons, that hath or shall underwrite any Policy or Policies of Insurance thereon, or of any Merchant or Merchants that shall load Goods thereon, or of any Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, the Person or Persons offending therein, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed and adjudged a Felon or Felons, and shall suffer as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Wilfully destroying Ships, Death.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the said Offences, in wilfully casting away, burning, or otherwise destroying any Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, shall be committed within the Body of any County of this Realm, the same shall and may be enquired of, tried, determined and adjudged in the same Courts, in such Manner and Form, as Felonies done within the Body of any County, by the Laws of this Realm, are to be enquired of, tried, determined and adjudged; and if any of the said Offences shall be committed upon the High Seas, the same shall be enquired of, tried, determined and adjudged before such Court, and in such Manner and Form, as in and by an Act made in the eight and twentieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, For Pirates, is directed and appointed for the enquiring, trying, determining and adjudging of Felonies done upon the High Seas.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues; for preventing Fraud^s in the Salt Duties, and for giving Relief for Salt used in the curing of Salmon and Codfish, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, exported from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; for enabling the Insurance Companies to plead the General Issue in Actions brought against them; and for securing the Stamp-Duties upon Policies of Insurance.

I. W H E R E A S notwithstanding the many good Laws, which have been made and passed for preventing of Frauds and Abuses in his Majesty's Duties of Excise, and other his Majesty's Duties which have been put under the Receipt and Management of the respective Commissioners of Excise in Great Britain, the several and respective Revenues, arising by and from the said several and respective Duties, are very much lessened, by the clandestine and collusive Importation of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits and Strong Waters, Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts and Chocolate, into this Kingdom of Great Britain, from Parts beyond the Seas, without Payment of any of the Duties by Law chargeable on the same, and the fair Dealers in the said Commodities much prejudiced in their Trade therein: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of his Majesty's Revenue of Excise, or any of them, to go on board and enter into any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, which shall be within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, and to continue on board the same, and to rummage and search in like Manner, as the Officers of the Customs may now legally do, for all such Arrack, Rum, Brandy, Spirits or Strong Waters, or other exciseable Liquors whatsoever, and for all Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa-Paste, and to seize, for his Majesty's Use, as well all such of the said Commodities as shall be there found, as by the Laws thereunto respectively relating shall be forfeited, together with the Casks, Boxes, Chests, Bags, or other Package containing the same, and in like Manner to seize such of the Commodities aforesaid, every or any of them, as before due Entry thereof with the proper Officer or Officers, and without paying or securing the Duties on the Importation thereof, shall be found unshipping or unshipped out of such Ship or Vessel, to be laid on Land without Entry and Payment of the Duties due for the same respectively, together with the Casks, Chests, Boxes, Bags, or other Package whatsoever containing the same.

After 24 June
1725. Officers of Excise may go on board Ships to search for Brandy, &c. as Custom Officers legally may.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer or Officers for the said Duty of Excise shall have Cause to suspect that any foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits or Strong Waters shall be fraudulently hid or concealed in any Place whatsoever, either entered for keeping the same as aforesaid, or not entered, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty of the Duties thereon, then and in such Case, if such Place shall be within the Cities of London or Westminster, or within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, or any two or more of them, or in case the same shall be in any other Part of Great Britain, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division or Place, where such Officer or Officers shall suspect the same to be hid or concealed, setting forth the Ground of his or their Suspicion, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, before whom such Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made, if he or they shall judge it

Officer by Special Warrant may search for Brandy, &c. fraudulently hid.

it reasonable, by special Warrant or Warrants under his and their respective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers by Day or by Night, but if in the Night-time in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, to enter into all and every such Place or Places where he or they shall so suspect such foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits or Strong Waters shall be so fraudulently hid or concealed, and seize and carry away all such foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits or Strong Waters, which he or they shall then and there find so fraudulently hid and concealed, as forfeited, together with all the Casks or other Vessels and Things wherein the same shall be contained; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall obstruct, oppose, molest, let or hinder any Officer or Officers of or for the said Duties, or any of them, in the doing, performing or executing any of the Powers or Authorities by this Act given to such Officer or Officers, every such Person or Persons offending therein shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Obstructing Officer forfeits 100l.

No Brandy, &c. to be exposed to Sale but in an entered Place.

6 Geo. I. c. 21.

Sellers of Brandy, &c. having more than 6 lb. of Coffee, &c. to be deemed Dealers.

Adulterating Tea forfeits it, and 100 l.

10 Geo. I. c. 20.

Warehoused Coffee, &c. exported since 24 June 1724, or to be exported before 25 March 1726, draws back all the Duties, except Half of the old Subsidy.

No Tea to be imported but from the Place of its Growth.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five no Arrack, Brandy, Rum, Spirits or Strong Waters, whether British or Foreign, shall be sold, uttered or exposed to Sale, either by wholesale or retail, but when the same shall be in some or one of the Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults or other Places, entered or to be entered in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Revenues of Excise and Customs, Stamp-Duty and House-Money, on Pain of forfeiting all such Arrack, Rum, Spirits and Strong Waters which shall be so sold, uttered or exposed to Sale contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, together with the Casks, Bottles or other Vessels containing the same, over and above the Penalty of forty Shillings per Gallon imposed for the said Offence by the said Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who shall keep a Publick House, Shop, Cellar or Warehouse, for selling of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits or Strong Waters, and shall have in his, her or their Custody, or in the Custody of any other Person or Persons for his, her or their Use, any Coffee, Tea, Chocolate or Cocoa Nuts exceeding the Quantity of six Pounds of any of the said Commodities, shall be deemed and taken to be Sellers and Dealers in the said Commodities within the Meaning of this and the said former Act for charging Inland Duties upon Coffee, Tea and Chocolate.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five no Dealer in Tea, or Manufacturer or Dyer thereof, or pretending so to be, shall counterfeit or adulterate Tea, or cause or procure the same to be counterfeited or adulterated, or shall alter, fabricate or manufacture Tea with Terra Japonica, or with any Drug or Drugs whatsoever, nor shall mix or cause or procure to be mixed with Tea any Leaves, other than Leaves of Tea, or other Ingredients whatsoever, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Tea so counterfeited, adulterated, altered, fabricated, manufactured or mixed, and other Thing or Things whatsoever added thereto, or mixed or used therewith, and also the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

VI. And whereas by an Act passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa Paste, and for granting Inland Duties in lieu thereof, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it was enacted, That the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, of such Coffee and Tea as were found in the Warehouses appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs for the Reception thereof, should, in one Month next after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, or upon Delivery thereof out of the said Warehouses before the Expiration of the said Month, make an Entry at the Customhouse of all such Coffee and Tea so found, and pay or secure the remaining Customs or Duties due thereon, or on Failure thereof, that all such Coffee and Tea should be forfeited and lost, and in case such Coffee and Tea, or any Part thereof, should be exported within the Time allowed by Law for that Purpose from the Importation thereof, the Exporter or Exporters should, on a proper Debenture, be entitled to draw back all the Duties paid on such Importation, or the Security for the same should be vacated (except Half of the old Subsidy).

VII. And whereas a considerable Quantity of Coffee and Tea was found in the said Warehouses, which had been there upwards of three Years, and for which the remaining Duties were paid or secured according to the Directions of the said Act, Part of which Coffee and Tea hath been exported to Parts beyond the Sea, and some Doubts have arisen upon the making out of the Debentures for drawing back the Duties of such Coffee and Tea so exported, the Exportation of which Coffee and Tea not being by Law restrained to any particular Time; For obviating of which Doubts, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Exporters of all such Coffee and Tea, as have been exported since the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, or shall be exported before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, are and shall be entitled to draw back the respective Duties so paid or secured for the same, (except Half of the old Subsidy;) any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. EXP.

VIII. And whereas great Quantities of Tea imported into Flanders, Holland and other Parts beyond the Seas, directly from the East-Indies by Foreigners, are from thence imported into this Kingdom on Pretence that such Tea was formerly exported from hence, to the great Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and to the great Discouragement and Loss of the fair Importers of the said Commodity from the Place of its Growth; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five no Tea whatsoever shall be imported into this Kingdom from any Place whatsoever, other than from the Place of its Growth, although the same may have been formerly exported from hence, or upon any other Pretence whatsoever, on Pain of Forfeiture of all such Tea; one Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person and Persons as shall seize and sue for the same; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary whatsoever notwithstanding.

IX. And

IX. And whereas, in order to increase the Weight of roasted Coffee, whereby to defraud and impose upon such as buy the same, divers evil-disposed Persons, at the Time or Times of Roasting such Coffee, or soon after, or before the Selling thereof, do use or mix, or cause to be used or mixed therewith, or do add or cause to be added thereto Butter, Lard, Grease, Water or other Materials, whereby such Coffee is rendered less wholesome, to the Prejudice of the Health of his Majesty's Subjects, and to the Loss and Injury of all honest and fair Dealers therein; For preventing whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, no Person or Persons whatsoever, either in Roasting or soon after the Roasting, or before Selling thereof, shall, in Order to increase the Weight of such Coffee, use or add thereto, or mix therewith any Butter, Lard, Grease, Water or other Materials whatsoever, on Pain of Forfeiting for every such Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Trader or Dealer in Coffee shall knowingly buy or sell any Coffee so mixed, or to which such Addition shall be made, every such Trader or Dealer shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on Roasters of Coffee, mixing Butter, &c. therewith, 100l.

X. And whereas several Dealers in Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits and Strong Waters, Coffee, Tea and Cocoa-Nuts, in Order to secure Quantities of the said Commodities, which have been clandestinely imported without paying any of the Duties by Law charged thereupon, from being seized, as forfeited for such clandestine Importation thereof, do frequently take out Permits from the Officer or Officers for the said Duties upon Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits and Strong Waters, for the Removing of the said Commodities from one Place to another, but in Reality do not remove the Commodities from the respective Places they are authorized by such Permit to remove the same to the respective Places they are by such Permit authorized to carry the same Commodities unto, but make use of such Permits for securing the like Quantity of Commodities mentioned in such Permits, which have been clandestinely imported, from being seized, as forfeited for such clandestine Importation; For Remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall take out any Permit or Permits from the Officers employed in the said Duties, or any of them, for removing of any of the said Commodities from one Place to another; and if, within the Times limited in such Permit or Permits respectively, the Party or Parties, by or for whom such Permit or Permits shall be so taken out, shall not either actually and really send away all the Commodities by such Permit or Permits authorized thereby to be sent away, pursuant to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, or in Default of so sending away such Commodities, shall not, before the Expiration of the Time limited in and by such Permit and Permits, respectively, return such Permit and Permits to the Officer or Officers, from whom the same was had; then, and in every such respective Case and Cases, the Person or Persons taking out such Permit or Permits, or for whose Use such Permit or Permits shall be taken out, shall, for every Gallon of Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits and Strong Waters, and for every Pound Weight of Coffee, Tea and Cocoa-Nuts, mentioned in such Permit or Permits, and not removed according to the Purport thereof, forfeit and lose treble the Value thereof, to be estimated according to the highest Rate of the like Commodities at the Time when such Forfeiture shall be incurred; and if such Permit or Permits are not so returned, as aforesaid, and in Case, upon taking an Account by any of the Officers for the said Duties upon Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits and Strong Waters, and for the said Inland Duties of the Stock of the Coffee, Tea and Cocoa-Nuts, remaining in the Hands or Custody of the Person or Persons, from or out of whose Stock the Commodities, mentioned in such Permit or Permits, as aforesaid, are thereby authorized to be removed, there shall not appear a sufficient Decrease to answer the Removal of the Commodities mentioned in such Permit or Permits, as aforesaid, respectively; then, and in such Case, the respective Person or Persons, from or out of whose Stock the said Commodities mentioned in the said Permit or Permits shall be authorized to be removed, shall forfeit and lose the like Quantities of the respective Commodities, so permitted to be removed, and not removed according to such Permission, to be seized and taken by the Officers for the said respective Duties, for his Majesty's Use, out of the like Commodities then in the Possession of the Person or Persons forfeiting the same: Provided always, that no Person or Persons whatsoever shall demand, take or receive, any Permit or Permits from any Officer or Officers for the said respective Duties, for the Removal of any of the said Commodities from one Place to another, without the special Direction in Writing, of the Person or Persons, or the known Servant or Servants of the Person or Persons, from or out of whose Stock the said Commodities are to be removed, upon Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence therein the Sum of Fifty Pounds, or, in Default of the Payment thereof, shall suffer Imprisonment for and during the Space of Three Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

Penalty for taking out Permits, and not sending away the Commodities in the Time limited, or not returning the Permits, treble the Value.

If there does not appear a sufficient Decrease to answer the Removal, Officer to seize a like Quantity of the Brandy, &c.

No Permit for Removal, but by Direction of him from whose Stock Commodities are to be removed.

Penalty 50l. or Imprisonment.

XI. And whereas by the Act, whereby the said Inland Duties on Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, are granted, several Oaths and Affirmations are appointed to be administered to the Sellers of and Dealers in the said Commodities, relating to their Trade therein, and the Entries by them made with the Officers for the same Duties, for better securing the same; and whereas it hath been observed, that in some Instances, where such Oaths and Affirmations by the said Act are to be taken and made by such Sellers and Dealers, yet many of them neglect or refuse to take the same, insisting, that by the said Act no Persons are expressly authorized to administer the same unto them: For Remedy whereof, Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons, as the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties for the Time being, or the major Part of them in that Behalf shall appoint, from Time to Time, to administer the said Oaths and Affirmations to the Sellers and Dealers, who do or shall reside within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and to and for the Collectors and Supervisors of Excise in all other Parts of Great Britain, to administer the said Oaths, and to take Affirmations from the respective Sellers and Dealers in any of the said Commodities, within their respective Collections and Districts.

Commissioners to appoint Persons to administer the Oaths to Dealers in these Commodities.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Inland Duties, or any Two or more of them for the Time being, within the respective Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, upon any Officer or Officers for the said Inland Duties

Duties making Complaint, upon Oath, to such Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, that he or they do suspect any Dealers in the said Commodities not to have made true and just Entries in the Books, which he, she, or they, are obliged, in Pursuance of the said Act, to keep for that Purpose, of such of the said Commodities, as he, she, or they, from Time to Time, sell or deliver out or consume, in which Oath shall be set forth the Causes of such Suspicion, to summon such suspected Person or Persons to appear before the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, with their respective Entry-Books aforesaid, to the Intent that such Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, may examine such suspected Person or Persons, or such as keep the said Book or Books, upon his, her, or their Oaths or Affirmations, touching the Truth of the Entries made in their said Books; and any such Dealer in Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, who shall neglect or refuse to make such Oaths or Affirmations, as are by the said last mentioned Act required, and by this present Act appointed to be administered, as aforesaid, being thereunto required by the respective Person or Persons, who by this Act is and are authorized to administer the same, or shall neglect or refuse to attend such Summons, as aforesaid, with his, her, or their respective Entry-Books, and be examined upon Oath, as aforesaid, touching the Truth of the Entries made in their respective Entry-Books, then, and in every such Case or Cases, the Person or Persons offending therein, or either of them, shall, for each and every of such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIII. And whereas in and by the said Act of Parliament, whereby the said Inland Duties on Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate are granted, it is enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever should at any Time counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited or forged, the Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device, which by the said Act of Parliament is directed to be provided and made use of on the Paper inclosing each Pound of Chocolate, in Pursuance of that Act, or should vend or sell such Chocolate with such counterfeit Mark, Stamp, Impression, or Device thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeit, then every such Person or Persons offending therein, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and also should be committed to the next County Gaol, there to remain for the Space of Twelve Months without Bail or Mainprize: And whereas the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties, having, pursuant to the said Act, provided such Marks, Stamps, Impressions, and Devices, for the stamping and marking Papers inclosing such Chocolate; and whereas such Chocolate, as, pursuant to the said Act, has been duly entred with the proper Officer, and for which the said Inland Duties have been charged or paid, has, from Time to Time, been inclosed in such Paper and Papers, having on it and them the Impression of such Marks or Stamps so provided, as aforesaid; and whereas, after such Papers, having on them the Impression of such Marks or Stamps, have been taken from such Chocolate, as has been so duly entred, and for which the said Duties have been duly charged or paid, the same Paper or Papers, having on it or them the Impression of such Mark or Marks, Stamp or Stamps, have been fixed unto, placed upon, and made use of to inclose other Chocolate, which has not been duly entred, and for which the said Inland Duties have not been duly charged or paid, whereby his Majesty has been and is as much and as effectually defrauded of and in his said Inland Duties on such Chocolate, as if the Actors in such Fraud had counterfeited and forged a Stamp or Stamps, Mark or Marks to resemble such Marks or Stamps so as aforesaid provided by the said Commissioners: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if and in Case, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, upon any Chocolate, which has not been duly entred with the proper Officer, and for which the said Inland Duties have not been duly charged or paid, fix or place such Paper or Papers, having on it or them the Impression of such Mark or Marks, Stamp or Stamps, or shall in such Paper or Papers inclose such Chocolate, as hath not been duly entred with the proper Officer, and for which the said Inland Duties have not been duly charged or paid, with Intent to defraud his Majesty of the said Inland Duties, for and in respect of such Chocolate, that then, and in every such Case, every Offender therein shall be subject and liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures, which by the said Act, made in the Tenth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, are set and imposed upon Persons for counterfeiting or forging the Stamp or Stamps, Mark or Marks provided, or which shall hereafter be provided by the Commissioners for the said Inland Duties for the Time being, and as if such Offender or Offenders had actually forged or counterfeited such Stamp or Stamps, Mark or Marks.

XIV. And whereas it often happens, that after Chocolate is made up for Sale, and duly stamped, as the Law directs, it receives Damage by lying by, or otherwise becomes unfit for Sale, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owner of such stamped Chocolate, in the Presence of an Officer of Excise for the Division or Place where such Chocolate shall be, to open the said Chocolate so made and stamped, as aforesaid, and to deliver the said Stamps to the said Officer, and to work the same Chocolate over again with fresh Cocoa-Nuts, and that such Owner shall be allowed to have the Chocolate restamped, paying the Inland Duty for so much Chocolate, as shall be added and used in the Reworking the same, and no more.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons whatever, who shall work their Chocolate over again, shall make Proof before the Commissioners of the Inland Duties, or the major Part of them, in case the same shall be worked over again within the Limits of the Bills of Mortality, or in case the same shall be worked over again out of the said Limits, before any Two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Division, Town or Place, where such Chocolate shall be so worked, that all and every of his Majesty's Duties for the Cocoa-Nuts, wherewith such Chocolate was made, and for what Cocoa-Nuts shall be added thereunto in the Reworking thereof, have been duly and fully paid, and that all the said Chocolate so to be reworked and restamped had been duly entred with the proper Officers appointed for that Purpose, and upon Failure of such Proof to be made, it shall in no wise be lawful to rework and restamp the same.

XVI. And for the more effectual Discovering and Detecting the Running of any Goods, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever, which are either prohibited to be imported, or which are liable to any Duty or Duties of Customs and Excise, and Inland Duty or Duties, or to any or either of them, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-twenty-five, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit or suffer to be harboured, kept, or concealed such prohibited Goods, or run Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatsoever, liable to any Duty or Duties of Customs, Excise, and Inland Duties, or to any or either of them, the Party or Parties offending therein, whether he, she, or they, have or have not, or do or do not claim or pretend to have any Property or Interest in such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities so harboured, kept or concealed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose all such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever so harboured, kept, and concealed, and treble the Value thereof.

Concealing Goods liable to Duties, forfeits the Goods and treble Value.

XVII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the single Value and Worth of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities whatsoever so forfeited, shall, from Time to Time, be deemed and taken to be, according to and at the Rate and Rates, Price and Prices, as the best Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities of the like Sorts, Kinds, and Denominations do or shall, at such respective Time or Times, bear and sell for in London.

The Value of Goods forfeited

the best Rate.

XVIII. And for the better Detecting and Discovering the Selling or Exposing to Sale any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, which are or shall be prohibited, or which have been or hereafter shall be run, or shall be pretended so to have been, or to be, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall offer or expose to Sale any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatsoever, which are or shall be prohibited, or which actually have been, or shall be, or shall, by the Party or Parties so offering or exposing the same to Sale, be pretended to have been run, all such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Commodities whatsoever, together with the Package whatsoever including and containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by the Party or Parties, to whom the same shall be so offered or exposed to Sale, or by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; Provided, that within the respective Times next after such Seizure herein after mentioned, that is to say, If such Seizure shall be made in any Place or Places within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, then and in such Case, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours, and if such Seizure shall be made in any other Place or Places out of the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, that then and in such Case, within the Space of Forty-eight Hours next after such Seizure, such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities so seized, shall, from Time to Time, be put into, and be placed, lodged, and secured in Manner herein after mentioned, that is to say, If such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities are prohibited, or liable unto, or chargeable with only Duties of Customs, or Import Duties, and are not liable unto, or chargeable with any Excise, or Inland Duty or Duties, that then the same be put into, and be placed, lodged, and secured in some Warehouse or Warehouses belonging to his Majesty, under the Care and Management of some of the Officers of his Custom or Import Duties, near to the Place where the same shall be seized; and in Case such Seizure be made at a Place too remote from any such Warehouse, the same shall be lodged in some Excise-Office near to the Place of such Seizure; but if such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or other Commodities be liable to any Excise, or Inland Duty or Duties, that then, and in such Case, the same, within the respective Times aforesaid, be put into, and be placed, lodged, and secured in some Office or Offices of Excise, or for the said Inland Duties, or other safe Place, under the Custody of some Officer or Officers of Excise, or for the said Inland Duties, near to the Place where the same shall be so seized, as aforesaid.

Prohibited or run Goods offered to Sale
may be seized.

Where such seized Goods
shall be lodged.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person and Persons whatsoever, so offering or exposing to Sale such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, as aforesaid, over and besides the Forfeiting such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Commodities, shall also forfeit and lose the treble Value thereof, to be estimated in Manner as aforesaid.

Offering to Sale such Goods, forfeits the Goods and treble Value.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the like prohibited or run Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatsoever, so, or as such, bought by any Person or Persons whatsoever, together with the Package containing the same, shall in like Manner be forfeited, and shall and may be seized, and taken from such Buyer or Buyers thereof, either by the Seller or Sellers thereof, or by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; provided that within the like respective Times, as are herein before limited and appointed, of and concerning Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities to be seized from the Person or Persons exposing or offering thereof to Sale, such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities so to be seized from such Buyer or Buyers thereof, be placed, lodged, and secured in the like Places respectively, and in the like Manner, and in the Custody of the like Persons respectively, as is before directed and appointed, of and concerning Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, seized or to be seized from the Person or Persons offering or exposing thereof to Sale.

Prohibited Goods
may be seized
from the Buyer.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Case, where any Person or Persons whatsoever shall buy any such prohibited or run Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatsoever, or which, by the Seller, at the Time of Selling thereof, shall be pretended so to be either prohibited or run, he, she, or they so buying, over and besides the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities so bought, as aforesaid, shall also forfeit and lose treble the Value thereof, to be computed and estimated in Manner as aforesaid: Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That it is not meant or intended by this Act, that as well the Party or Parties buying, as also the Party or Parties selling, or offering or exposing to Sale such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, as aforesaid, shall, in any Case or Cases, both and each of them respectively forfeit or be prosecuted for the treble Value of One and the same identical Parcel or Parcels of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, as aforesaid, but that the Party or Parties, whether Buyer or Seller of, or offering or exposing to Sale such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, who with Effect shall first prosecute the other of the said Parties for such the treble Value of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, shall, shall, in every such Case and Cases, be and is hereby declared discharged and acquitted of and from the like Forfeiting, or being prosecuted for or on Account of the treble Value of every such respective Parcel and Parcels of Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, or Commodities, for and on Account whereof the other Party or Parties shall be prosecuted with Effect: Provided always, that if, within One Month next after making such Seizure, as aforesaid, either by the Seller or Buyer, or by the Party or Parties, to whom such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities are or shall be offered or exposed to Sale, a Prosecution or Prosecutions is not commenced, and afterwards carried on for the Adjudging and Determining of and concerning the Forfeiting or not Forfeiting of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, by the Party or Parties, as shall so seize the same, That then and in every such Case and Cases, the Warehouse-keeper, or Keeper of the Office of Excise or Inland Duties, or other Person or Persons, in whose Custody such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and other Commodities shall be lodged and secured, shall and may prosecute for the Forfeiture of such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, as, after having been so lodged and secured, as aforesaid, shall not, within such Month next after such Seizure, be prosecuted for by the Party or Parties who shall have seized the same.

XXII. And whereas, before and at the Time of the Commencement of the Inland Duties upon Chocolate, granted by an Act made in the Tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa-Paste imported, and for granting certain Inland Duties in Lieu thereof, and for prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa-Paste, and for better ascertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa-Nuts, imported, there were in his Majesty's Warehouses, under the Care and Custody of his Officers of Customs, several Quantities of Cocoa-Paste, and of Chocolate imported ready made, which had been seized for having been imported and landed without making due Entries and paying the Duties thereof: And whereas several other Quantities of Cocoa-Paste and Chocolate imported, and landed and seized, since the Commencement of the aforesaid Act, and contrary thereto, already are and hereafter may be in such or the like Warehouses: And whereas one Moiety of the appraised Value of such Cocoa-Paste and imported Chocolate, when condemned in his Majesty's Courts of Exchequer, either at Westminster or in Scotland, or of the Rate and Price for which the same hath been or shall be bought at in his said Majesty's said Courts respectively, doth and will belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Party or Parties, who seized or hath bought the same, as aforesaid, but neither of the said Moieties can be raised, unless the same be sold and disposed of, which cannot be done without being liable to be seized a second Time, unless the same be inclosed in Paper, stamped or marked with the Stamp or Mark already provided, in Pursuance of the aforesaid Act: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That, as for and concerning such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste, as in the Manner before mentioned, actually and really was in such Warehouse or Warehouses before the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, in Case the respective Seizors or Buyers thereof do or shall respectively, on or before the Twenty-fourth Day of July now next ensuing, enter the same with the respective Receiver or Collector of the Inland Duties of the Place and Places, where such respective Warehouse or Warehouses shall happen to be, and shall give to such Receiver or Collector Satisfaction, that such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste was actually and really in such respective Warehouse or Warehouses, on or before the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, That then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Receiver and Collector, and he and they respectively are hereby authorized and required, gratis, to give to such Proprietor or Proprietors, under the Hand of such Receiver or Collector, a Certificate and Certificates in Writing, specifying and expressing the respective Quantities of such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste, and the Time when, and the Warehouse or Warehouses from whence the same is intended to be taken, to the Intent, that by Virtue of such Certificate or Certificates, the respective Seizors or Buyers of such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste may either carry the same to the next Office for the said Inland Duties, there to be inclosed in Papers, stamped with the Stamp or Mark, pursuant to the said Act appointed, provided, and used for Chocolate Stock in Hand, which it is hereby declared, may, in such Case, lawfully be done without Fee or Reward, or to have such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste so to be delivered out, to be made up into Chocolate, after the Manner of making Chocolate in Great Britain, and that after the same shall be so made up, as aforesaid, that then the same shall and may be inclosed in Papers, stamped with the like Stamp and Mark, pursuant to the aforesaid Act, appointed and provided, and used for Chocolate Stock in Hand, which it is hereby further declared, shall and may, in such Case, be likewise lawfully done, without Fee or Reward, and without being charged with, or paying the Inland Duty for such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste so to be delivered out by Virtue or Means of such Certificate or Certificates, as aforesaid; and as for and concerning such other seized Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste, which since the said Twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four has been, or hereafter shall be brought into such Warehouse or Warehouses, as aforesaid, the Seizors or Buyers thereof respectively, upon his, her, or their Entering the same, with the Receiver or Collector of the said Inland Duties of the Place and Places, where such Warehouse or Warehouses shall happen to be, and his, her, or their paying, or causing to be paid, to such Receiver or Collector, the said Inland Duties for the same, at and after the Rate of one Shilling and Six-pence per Pound, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity of such Chocolate and Cocoa-Paste, such Receiver or Collector of the said Inland Duties shall and is hereby authorized and required, gratis, to give to such Seizors or Buyers a Certificate or Certificates in Writing under his Hand, specifying and expressing therein the Quantity and Quantities of such Chocolate and Cocoa-Paste, and of the Time when, and the respective Warehouse and Warehouses from whence such Chocolate or Cocoa-Paste is to be taken, to the Intent that the same may be either inclosed in Papers stamped with the Mark or Stamp, pursuant to the said Act appointed and provided to denote the Charging and Paying of the said Inland Duties, either before or after the same shall again be made up into Chocolate in the Manner now used in Great Britain.

upon Candles, and the fair Traders in Candles are very much discouraged and injured in their respective Trades by the fraudulent and private Makers of Candles: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, if any Chandler or Maker of Candles, other than and besides Compounders for the Time being for the Duties of Candles by them respectively made, or hereafter to be made, shall, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, make Use of any Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room or other Place whatsoever, either for the Making or Keeping of Candles, or for the Melting or Keeping of any Wax, Tallow or other Materials proper to be made into Candles, or of any Copper, Kettle, Pot, Furnace or other Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, for the Melting of Wax, Tallow or other Materials to be made into Candles, or of any Mould or Moulds, or other Utensil whatsoever, for or in the Making of Mould-Candles, or of other Candles, without first making or having made, with the proper Officer or Officers respectively appointed, or to be appointed for that Purpose, at the next Office of Excise, within the Limits whereof either such Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room or other Place, shall be situate, or such Copper, Kettle, Pot, Furnace, Mould or Moulds, or other Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, shall be so, as aforesaid, used, a true and particular Entry or Entries in Writing thereof, and of every and each of them respectively, every such Chandler and Maker of Candles, other than Compounders for the Duties on Candles, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Melting-house, Work-house, Ware-house, Store-house, Shop, Room or other Place whatsoever, and for every such Copper, Kettle, Pot, Furnace, Mould and Moulds, or other Vessel or Utensil whatsoever, so made Use of, without first making or having made thereof respectively such Entry and Entries, as aforesaid.

Makers of Candles, except Compounders, using any Melting-house, &c. without a particular Entry thereof, forfeit 100l.

XXIV. And whereas, when Excise-Officers, either early in the Mornings or in Evenings, repair and go to the Houses, Work-houses and other Places belonging to and made Use of either by professed Chandlers or Makers of Candles for Sale, or by others who privately and clandestinely make Candles, (not being Compounders) in order to search such Houses, Work-houses and other Places, in order to discover the clandestine making of Candles at such Houses, Work-houses and other Places, the Persons concerned in such Frauds, pretending such Time and Times of such coming of such Officer or Officers to be in the Night, and not in the Day, they the said Officers ought to have with them some Constable or other Officer of the Peace: And whereas, by Colour thereof, and on other like Pretences, the Excise-Officers are not admitted to enter into such Houses, Work-houses and other Places, but are debarred therefrom, and kept out of such Houses, Work-houses and other Places, and thereby are prevented and hindered from discovering such Frauds as then are there respectively carrying on: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, upon Demand and Request made by any Officer or Officers of Excise, between the Hours of Five in the Morning and Eleven in the Evening, either with or without a Constable, or other Officer of the Peace, or between the Hours of Eleven in the Evening and Five in the Morning, with a Constable or other Officer of the Peace, the Door and Doors of such House, Work-house or other Place whatsoever, are not immediately opened, and if such Officer or Officers are not immediately admitted, and permitted to enter and go into any House, Work-house or other Place whatsoever, belonging to or made Use of by either any such professed Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale, or by such private Makers of Candles, not being Compounders; and if such Officer or Officers, being so entered into such House, Work-house or other Place or Places whatsoever, all Chests, Trunks, Boxes, Drawers or other like Things, are not, upon the Demand or Request of such Officer or Officers immediately opened, or if, such Officer or Officers is not permitted quietly to search and examine all such Houses, Work-houses or other Places whatsoever, and also all Chests, Trunks, Boxes, Drawers or other like Thing or Things there found, or if, by keeping such Houses, Work-houses or other Places, or such Chests, Trunks, Boxes, Drawers or other Thing or Things locked or otherwise fastened, or if, by any other Ways or Means whatsoever, such Officer or Officers shall be obstructed from or hindered or molested in such searching and examining any such House, Work-house or other Place whatsoever, or such Chest, Trunk, Box, Drawer or other like Thing or Things whatsoever, that then and in every such Case and Cases the Offender therein shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

XXV. And whereas Excise-Officers coming to search the unentered Houses, Work-houses and other Places of private and clandestine Makers of Candles for Sale, are by one Means or other kept out of and not permitted to enter or go into such unentered Houses, Work-houses or Places, until either a Stop is put to the Work there going on, or until the Candles there privately made or making are carried off, but upon such their Searches do find such other Circumstances and Things in such Posture and Condition, as sufficiently demonstrate that at such Time and Times such private making of Candles was carrying on, or just before had been there carried on; Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, any Excise-Officer or Officers, on his or their searching any unentered House, Work-house or Place, shall find Candles, either made or making, or shall find Tallow or other Materials for making Candles, melting or then melted, or Cottons or Rushes spread for the making of Candles, or any Copper or other Vessel or Utensil for melting Tallow to be made into Candles, or any Mould or other Utensil for the dipping or making Candles, warm with Tallow, or other Materials for the making Candles, remaining at the Bottom or about the Sides of such Copper, Mould or other Vessel or Utensil as aforesaid, such finding in such unentered House, Work-house or other Place, such Tallow or other Materials for making Candles, so melting or melted, or such Cottons or Rushes so spread, or any such Copper, Mould or other Vessel or Utensil warm with Tallow, or other Materials remaining at the Bottom or about the Sides of such Copper, Mould or other Vessel or Utensil as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be and hereby is declared to be sufficient Evidence to convict every the Offender or Offenders, in every such Case and Cases, of having at that Time made Use of such House, Work-house or other Place, or of such Copper, Mould or other Vessel or Utensil,

If Officer, on searching an unentered House &c. shall find Candles, &c. it shall be sufficient Evidence to convict the Offender, fil, and to subject and make him, her or them, where the same, or any of the Particulars before mentioned, shall be found, liable to the aforesaid Penalty and Forfeiture of one hundred Pounds, for having, at such Time and Times, made Use of them, every or any of them, without having made such Entry or Entries thereof, as is before required, unless the Party or Parties prosecuted for the same shall give to the Commissioners or Justices respectively, before whom such Prosecution shall depend, or be depending, such Satisfaction therein, as shall to them respectively appear to be sufficient to acquit him, her or them of and from the same.

What shall be a sufficient Summons to Persons using unentred
Work-houses.

XXVI. And whereas such private and clandestine Makers of Candles for Sale as aforesaid, do assume to themselves, and are called by other than their true Names, and when discovered, to avoid being prosecuted for the same, do withdraw and abscond themselves, that they may not personally have Notice of any Prosecution for the same, or be served with any Summons or Process to answer the same: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, the leaving a Summons at the Place or Places where such Discovery as aforesaid shall be made, directed to the Person or Persons who shall be prosecuted for making or having made Use of such unentred House, Work-house or other Place, or of such unentred Copper, Mould or other Vessel or Utensil as aforesaid, for making Candles for Sale, directed to such Person or Persons by his, her or their right or assumed Name or Names, shall be deemed to be, and is hereby declared to be as legal and effectual Notice and Summons, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Notice or Summons was personally given or delivered to or into the Hands of the Party or Parties for whom the same shall be designed, and as if such Notice or Summons was directed to the Party or Parties to and for whom the same shall be designed, by his, her or their proper Name or Names.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, any Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale shall begin to work upon, dip or make any Course or Making of Candles, not being Mould Candles, or, in order thereto shall make any of the Preparations herein after mentioned, without first making and delivering, or causing to be made and delivered, to the Officer or Officers under whose Survey such Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale shall be, a Declaration in Writing of his, her or their Intention to make such Course or Making of Candles, and of the particular Hour or Time of the Day or Night when such Course or Making is intended to be begun, and of the true Number of Sticks of which such Course or Making is intended to consist, and of the Sizes and true Number of Candles intended to be made on every and each Stick intended to be made in and at such Making or Course, every such Chandler and Maker of Candles for Sale, on every Failure or Default in all or any the Particulars before mentioned, or having in and at such Making or Course more Sticks or more Candles, or larger or bigger Candles on any Stick or Sticks in or of such Making or Course, than shall be mentioned in such Declaration, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds, and if, after such Declaration so made as aforesaid, such Making or Course of Candles shall not be begun and proceeded upon at the Hour and Time or Times mentioned in such Declaration, or in three Hours next after such Hour and Time, then every such Declaration shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void.

deemed to be a Beginning to work on a Course of Candles.

XXVIII. And, for avoiding Disputes of what shall or shall not be deemed to be a Beginning to work upon a Making or Course of Candles, Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That lighting any Fire under any Copper, Kettle or other Utensil for the melting Tallow or other Materials for the making Candles, or the finding in such Copper, Kettle or other Utensil, or in any Mould or other Utensil for the dipping of Candles, Tallow or other Materials for the making of Candles melted or melting, or Cottons or Rushes spread or spreading, every or any of them shall be deemed to be, and are hereby declared to be, such a Beginning to make and work upon such making of Candles, as shall make and cause every such Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale, where the same or any of them shall be found, subject and liable to the aforesaid Penalty and Forfeiture, and the aforesaid Sum of fifty Pounds.

forfeits 100l.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, any Chandler or Maker of Candles for Sale shall mix or mingle Candles which have not been duly weighed by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise with others which have been weighed, or shall, from the Place or Places of his, her or their making of Candles, fraudulently remove Candles before they have been weighed by the Surveying Officer or Officers, or shall fraudulently hide or conceal any Candles whatsoever, or Materials for the making of Candles, with Intent to deceive his Majesty of or in his Duties upon Candles, that then and in every such Case respectively every such Chandler and Maker of Candles for Sale shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

XXXI. And whereas by the Statutes and Laws relating to the Duties of Excise, and to other Duties under the Receipt and Management of the respective Commissioners of Excise, either as Commissioners of Excise, or as Commissioners of those respective other Duties, several and respective particular Acts and Things authorized by the said Statutes to be done by the Officer or Officers of Excise, and of and for the said other respective Duties, some in the Night-time, and others in the Day-time, are, by the said Statutes, directed to be done in the Presence of a Constable or other Officer of the Peace, but not without such Presence of such Constable or other Officer of the Peace: And whereas of late Constables and Officers of the Peace, upon Request duly made to them, have refused and do refuse to go with such Officers of and for the said Duties, and to be present at the doing and performing such Act and Acts, Thing and Things, at the doing and performing whereof their Presence is absolutely necessary, and for want whereof such Acts have remained and do remain undone, whereby his Majesty's Revenues arising by the said Duties are very much lessened; for Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, upon due Request made by any Officer or Officers of Excise or of the Duties before-mentioned, or any of them, to any Constable, Headborough or other Ministerial Officer of the Peace, to go along with him or them, and to be present at the doing or performing of any such Act or Acts, Thing or Things, at the doing and performing whereof the Presence of such Constable, Headborough or other Officer of the Peace, by the Statutes already made or hereafter to be made, is or shall be necessary, such Constable, Headborough or other Ministerial Officer of the Peace, shall refuse and neglect to go along with or to be present with such Officer or Officers of and for the said Duties, or any of them, at the doing or performing such Act or Acts, Thing or Things; and if such Constable, Headborough or other Ministerial Officer of the Peace, after such Request, shall not go along with such Officer or Officers, and shall not be present at the doing such Act or Acts, Thing or Things, at the doing and performing whereof the Presence of such Constable, Headborough or other Officer of the Peace, by the said Laws and Statutes is or shall be necessary; that then and in every such Case such Constable, Headborough or other Ministerial Officer of the Peace so refusing, neglecting and not going or being present, shall, for every such Offence, Neglect or not going or being present, forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

On Request of an Officer to a Constable, &c. to go with him, Constable, &c. refusing, forfeits 20 l.

XXXII. And whereas, notwithstanding the Act made in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office and House-Money, great Difficulties have frequently arisen upon the Trial of divers Actions, and other Prosecutions, concerning his Majesty's Revenue, or for resisting or obstructing the Officers thereof in the Execution of their Offices, by requiring strict Proof of the Commissions, Deputations or other Authorities of such Officers; For Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, if, upon the Trial of any Information, Action or Suit whatsoever, relating to his Majesty's Customs or Excise, or the Duties upon Salt, or to any other Duties whatsoever, or to any Seizure or Seizures, Penalty or Penalties, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, touching or concerning the said Duties or any of them, or the Collection thereof, or if upon the Trial of any Indictment, Action, Suit or Prosecution whatsoever, against any Person or Persons for any Thing done by Virtue or in Pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said Duties, or any of them; or if upon the Trial of any Information or Indictment for assaulting, resisting or obstructing any Officer or Officers of the Customs, Excise or Duties upon Salt, or other Duties due and payable to his Majesty, in the Execution of his or their respective Office or Offices, or for rescuing any Goods or Merchandizes seized or to be seized by any such Officer or Officers; any Question shall arise, whether any Person be an Officer of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or for any of the said Duties: In every of the said Cases, Proof shall and may be made and admitted, that such Person was reputed to be, and had acted in, and in fact exercised such Office, and at the respective Time and Times, when the Matter or Matters in Controversy upon such Trial or Trials shall happen to have been done or committed, or omitted to have been done or performed, without producing or proving the particular Commission, Deputation or other Authority, whereby such Officer was constituted and appointed, and that in every such Case such Proof shall be deemed and taken by the Judges or Justices before whom any such Trial shall be had, to be good and legal Evidence, unless by other Evidence the contrary shall be made to appear; any Law or Usage to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

6 Geo. 1. c. 24.

If on Trial of an Information relating to the Customs, Excise, &c. any Question arise whether the Person be an Officer of the Duties, Proof shall be admitted that he was reputed to be such Officer, without producing the Commission, &c.

XXXIII. And whereas, by the unfair and fraudulent Practices of some Makers of Sope, not only his Majesty's Revenue, arising by and from the Duties on Sope, is very much lessened, but other Makers of Sope, and fair Traders therein, are thereby very much discouraged and injured; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, every Maker and Makers of Sope respectively, before he, she or they doth, do or shall begin to make or work upon any making of Sope of any Sort or Kind whatsoever, shall give to the Officer of the Division or Place where such Sope is intended to be made, Notice in Writing of the particular Time and Hour when and at which such making is intended to be begun, as herein after is mentioned, (that is to say) if such making is intended to be in or at any Place or Places within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, then and in such Case such Notice shall be by the Space of twelve Hours next before the Beginning of every such making, and if such making is intended to be in or at any other Place or Places out of the Limits of the said Weekly Bills, then and in such Case such Notice shall be by the Space of twenty-four Hours next before the Beginning of every such making, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of fifty Pounds, at every Time and Times, when any making of Sope shall be begun to be made or wrought upon, without first giving such Notice as aforesaid.

Sope-Makers to give Notice of the Time of making Sope:

If within the Weekly Bills, 12 Hours before working:

Otherwise 24 Hours.

Forfeiture 50 l.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the putting Lees or Lye into the Copper, Pan or other Utensil whatsoever, usually and commonly used used by such maker of Sope for the making of Sope, shall be deemed to be and is hereby declared to be a Beginning to work upon and make such making of Sope, and shall subject the Maker of Sope, where the same shall be found and discovered, to the Penalty and Forfeiture before-mentioned.

What shall be deemed a Beginning to work.

Notice void if making do not begin within 6 Hours in the Weekly Bills, or 12 Hours elsewhere.

Penalty on Maker working without new Notice.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such intended making of Sope, whereof such Notice shall have been given, shall not be begun to be worked upon, and to be actually making, within the Times herein after mentioned, (that is to say) if within the Limits of the said Weekly Bills, then and in such Case within the Space of six Hours, and if in any other Place or Places out of the Limits of the said Weekly Bills, then and in such Case within the Space of twelve Hours next after the particular Time or Hour mentioned and expressed in such Notice or Notices respectively, then and in every such Case and Cases, such Notice and Notices respectively shall be null, void and of no Effect; and every Maker whatsoever of Sope, who, after the Expiration of the said Times, shall begin to make or work upon such Making of Sope, without having first given a new or other like Notice as aforesaid, of his, her or their Intention to make or work upon such Making, shall, in every such Case, incur and be subject unto the like Penalty and Forfeiture, as if he, she or they had not thereof given any Notice at all.

20 Ann. c. 19.

XXXVI. And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for laying several Duties upon all Sope and Paper made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; and upon chequered and striped Linens imported, and upon certain Silks, Callicoes, Linens and Stuffs, printed, painted or stained; and upon several Kinds of Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and upon certain printed Papers, Pamphlets and Advertisements; for raising the Sum of eighteen hundred thousand Pounds by way of a Lottery, towards her Majesty's Supply; and for licensing an additional Number of Hackney Chairs; and for charging certain Stocks of Cards and Dice; and for the better securing her Majesty's Duties to arise in the Office for the Stamp-Duties by Licences for Marriages and otherwise; and for Relief of Persons who have not claimed their Lottery-Tickets in due Time, or have lost Exchequer-Bills or Lottery-Tickets; and for borrowing Money upon Stock (Part of the Capital of the South-Sea Company, for the Use of the Publick,) It is amongst other Things provided and enacted, That in case stale or rotten Sope, or cuttings of Sope, be put into a Copper or Pan, in the Presence of an Officer for the said Duties, in order to be refreshed or made new, such Officer shall from Time to Time make an Allowance of the Duty of the stale or rotten Sope or Cuttings so put in, and certify every such Allowance upon his Report to be returned to the Head Office in the said Act mentioned.

Stale or rotten Sope put into any Makings of Sope without due Notice to the Officer, no Allowance to be made for it.

XXXVII. And whereas, under Colour and Pretence of making such Allowances, pursuant to the aforesaid Clause, and by Combinations and Confederacies between fraudulent Makers of Sope and corrupted Officers of and for the said Duties, who by Bribes have been prevailed upon, in such their Reports of the Makings of Sope, sometimes to certify great Quantities of stale or rotten Sope, or of Cuttings of Sope, put into such Makings of Sope, when in Fact and in Truth no such stale or rotten Sope, or Cuttings of Sope, have really and in Fact been put into such Makings of Sope; and at other Times, when small Quantities of stale or rotten Sope, or of Cuttings of Sope, have been put into such Makings of Sope, such Officers have been by the Means aforesaid prevailed upon to certify, in such his and their Report and Reports, Quantities of such stale or rotten Sope, or Cuttings of Sope, much greater and far exceeding the Quantity or Quantities which at such Time and Times really and in Fact have been and were put into such respective Makings of Sope, whereby his Majesty has been greatly defrauded of and in his Duties on Sope; For preventing whereof for the Future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any stale or rotten Sope, or any Cuttings of Sope, in order to the refreshing thereof, shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, be put into any Making or Makings of Sope, unless of the Intention and Designing so to put such stale or rotten Sope or Cuttings of Sope there shall be or shall have been given to the Officer of the Division or Place where such putting in is intended to be, such Notice in Writing as herein after is mentioned, (that is to say) if such putting in is to be within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, then and in such Case, by the Space of twelve Hours next before the respective Time and Times of such putting in such stale or rotten Sope or Cuttings of Sope, but if in any other Place or Places out of the Limits of the said Weekly Bills, then and in such Case, by the Space of twenty-four Hours next before the respective Time and Times of such putting in such stale or rotten Sope or Cuttings of Sope, that in every such Case and Cases whatsoever, where such putting in shall be, or shall have been without such Notice, the Officer shall not certify such putting in, or any Allowance for or in Respect thereof; nor shall the Maker or Makers of Sope, in any such Case or Cases, have or be entitled to have any Allowance or Allowances whatsoever, for or in Respect of such putting in such stale or rotten Sope, or of such Cuttings of Sope; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Officers pretending to have had due Notice, and making Allowance, &c. forfeit 10s. for every Pound, and also the Maker.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, any Officer or Officers of Excise, or for the said Duties on Sope, shall falsely pretend that he or they hath or have had due Notice in Writing of such putting in of such stale or rotten Sope or of such Cuttings of Sope, in any Case and Cases where and in which he or they really and in fact shall not have had such due Notice in Writing, and shall make such Allowance and Allowances as aforesaid, and shall falsely certify the same, every such Officer and Officers, for every Pound-Weight of such stale or rotten Sope or Cuttings of Sope, so falsely allowed or certified as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Shillings; and every such Maker and Makers of Sope, who shall demand, claim, have or take any Benefit or Advantage for or in Respect of any such Allowance, so falsely made or certified by such Officer or Officers, in every such Case and Cases, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Shillings for every Pound-Weight of such stale or rotten Sope or Cuttings of Sope, as shall be claimed, demanded, had or taken by such Maker or Makers of Sope, for and in Respect of such Allowance, so falsely made or certified by such Officer or Officers.

How these Penalties shall be sued for, and divided.

XXXIX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act before imposed, of and concerning the suing for, recovering and dividing whereof other Directions are not herein given, shall be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture is is or may be sued for, recovered, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws relating to his Majesty's Revenues of Excise, or any of them, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster for or on Account of any Thing done or omitted to be done contrary to this Act in the Part and Parts of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in the Court of Erchequer in Scotland, for or on Account of any Thing done or omitted to be done contrary to this Act in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and that one moiety of every such Fine, Penalty and Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety thereof to him or them that shall sue or inform for the same.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if and in case any Person or Persons whatsoever, liable to the said Duties on Soap, or to the Duties of Excise, or to any other Duty or Duties whatsoever, under the Management of the respective Commissioners of Excise, either as Commissioners of Excise, or as Commissioners of such other Duty or Duties, or to any of them, in order to corrupt, persuade or prevail upon any Officer or Officers of or for the Duties due or payable for and in respect of the Goods, Wares or Commodities before-mentioned, or of any or either of them respectively, either to do or perform any Act or Acts, Thing or Things whatsoever, contrary to the Duty of such Officer or Officers, or to neglect or omit to do or perform any Act or Acts, Thing or Things whatsoever, belonging or appertaining to the Business and Duty of such Officer and Officers, or to connive at or conceal any Fraud or Frauds relating to the said Duties, or any of them, or not to discover the same, shall from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five give or offer to give or secure to any such Officer or Officers, any Bribe, Gratuity, or other Reward whatsoever, that then and in every such Case and Cases the Offender and Offenders therein respectively shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds, which shall and may be sued for, levied, recovered and mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture is or may be sued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Erchequer in Scotland; and that one moiety thereof shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety thereof to the Poor of such Parish or Place where such Offence shall happen to be committed.

XLI. And whereas by an Act made and passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in Foreign Parts, and for better securing the Duties on Salt, it is amongst other Things enacted, That at the End of every fishing Season the Officer for the Duty on Salt shall take a particular Account of the Quantities of Foreign and British Salt respectively remaining in Hand, which remaining Salt shall be immediately locked up in the joint Custody of the Officer and Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, and the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents of the said Salt, using the said Salt, shall as soon as possible after the End of every fishing Season, deliver an Account in Writing into the said Office for the said Duty on Salt, containing the Quantity of Fish exported and entred, or shipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of the said Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, has been used or consumed, together with a Certificate or Certificates, by the proper Officers of the several Ports, where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account, which Certificates the said Officers are thereby directed to give gratis; which said Account delivered into the said Office as aforesaid, shall be affirmed by the Oath of the said Proprietor or Proprietors using the said Salt as aforesaid, or his or their Agent or Agents, who have used the same, and shall remain in the said Office, to the End that the Quantity of Fish cured for Exportation, and the Quantity of Salt used in curing the said Fish, may from Time to Time appear upon Oath, and be compared together; and in case any of the said Salt shall be delivered over to any other Persons, and used by them in curing of Fish, the several Quantities of Salt so delivered over shall be expressed in the said Account, and each Person to whom such Salt shall be so delivered, or his Agent, shall likewise upon Oath make another Account of the particular Quantity of such Salt used by each of them in the curing of Fish so exported or shipped for Exportation as aforesaid, which said Account, together with proper Certificates as aforesaid, shall likewise be transmitted into the Office aforesaid, there to remain for the Purposes above-mentioned; but if such Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, or any other Person or Persons, to whom any Quantity of Salt should be by them delivered over as aforesaid, should for the Space of six Months after the End of every respective fishing Season, neglect or refuse to deliver such Account attested upon Oath as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, and such other Person or Persons as aforesaid, should for every such Offence forfeit forty Pounds: And whereas since the making of the said Act, several Frauds and Abuses, and many Inconveniencies have been discovered, whereby his Majesty's Revenue, arising out of the said Salt, has been very much lessened, and the certain Quantity of Salt used in the curing of Fish not any ways ascertained, they the said Proprietors, at their Pleasure, during the fishing Season, convert and dispose of, for their own private Advantage, but in a secret Manner, great Quantities of Salt to Persons unknown, who sell the same, without paying any Duty for the same, or giving any Account thereof, as by the said Act is required, by which Means the fair Trader also is undersold; Now for preventing for the future any Frauds, Imbezilments or Misapplications of any Salt, whether British or Foreign, and for avoiding all Disputes and Controversies that may hereafter happen or arise between the Owners of Salt-Works, Proprietors of Salt for curing of Fish, and the Officers for the Duty on Salt, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, if any Proprietor or Proprietors of Salt, his or their Agent or Agents, shall deliver over to any Person or Persons any Quantity of Salt, which he shall have received from the proper Officer or Officers as aforesaid, such Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents shall, by Oath or otherwise, make it appear to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer or Officers, that such Salt so parted with, or delivered over to any Person or Persons as aforesaid, was by him or them used in curing of Fish according to the Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and in Default thereof, every Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Agent or Agents, shall be adjudged guilty of Imbezilment and Misapplication of such Salt, and shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds Sterling.

Recital of the Act 5 Geo. 2. c. 12. relating to the British Fishery.

Proprietors delivering over any Salt to any Person, received from the Officer, to make appear that it was used in curing Fish.

Forfeiture 50 l.

3 Geo. 1. c. 18.

XLII. And whereas by the said recited Act it is further enacted; That the present Allowances given by the Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Fish cured with foreign Salt, should be no longer paid upon Fish exported, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, but that the curers of Fish, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, should and might cure their Fish with British or foreign Salt, without paying any Duty for the same, except the Customs payable upon the Importation of foreign Salt, and be entitled to have and receive upon the Exportation thereof such and no other Allowances, than are therein mentioned and appointed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Act for the Exportation of Fish cured with foreign Salt, so as to be entitled to the Allowances then given, was too short, in respect that being the prime Season of the Salmon-fishing, considerable Quantities of Salmon and Codfish were then in the Hands of several Curers of Fish in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, which they were under a Necessity to cure with foreign Salt, the Duties whereof were either paid or secured to be paid: And whereas it may be just and reasonable, that the Curers and Proprietors of all such Fish, actually and really in Hand on the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, legally and duly cured with foreign Salt, according to the several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, the Duties of which Salt were either paid or secured to be paid, should be paid the same Allowances, and in the same Manner, as if exported on or before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Barons of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, upon receiving a satisfactory Proof of what Quantities of Salmon and Codfish were actually and really in Hand on the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, duly cured with foreign Salt, and legally exported, the Duties whereof have been either paid or are secured to be paid, shall and may order and direct the proper Officers to make out Debentures to the Proprietors or Curers of such Fish, certifying the Allowances for the Fish contained in such Debentures to be the same as were payable before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and to be paid in the same Manner.

Relief for Foreign Salt used in curing Salmon and Codfish in Scotland in 1719, and legally exported.

6 Geo. 1. c. 18.

XLIII. And whereas by an Act passed in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better securing certain Powers and Privileges intended to be granted by his Majesty by two Charters for Assurance of Ships and Merchandizes at Sea, and for lending Money on Bottomry; and for restraining several extravagant and unwarrantable Practices therein mentioned, his Majesty was enabled to erect two distinct Corporations for Assurance of Ships, Goods and Merchandizes at Sea, or going to Sea, and for other Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas his Majesty hath been graciously pleased, pursuant to the said Act, to erect two distinct Corporations for the Purposes aforesaid, one by the Name and Title of The Royal Exchange Assurance, and the other by the Name and Title of The London Assurance; and whereas the said Corporations, in Pursuance of the said Act, and the Ends and Purposes for which they were so incorporated, have, from Time to Time, as Occasion hath required, entred into and executed great Numbers of Policies of Assurance for the assuring of Ships and Goods and Merchandizes, at Sea or going to Sea, and still continue so to do; but by Reason of their being Bodies Corporate, such Policies of Assurance could not be entered into by their subscribing of the same, as is the constant Usage for private Insurers to do, but the respective Common Seals of the said Corporations are set to such Policies of Assurance, and by Means thereof, the Manner of Proceeding and Pleadings in any Suit or Action to be commenced upon such Policy of Assurance under the respective Common Seals of the said Corporations are different from the Proceedings and Pleadings in Actions and Suits commenced upon Policies of Assurance entred into by private Insurers, or Persons not incorporated in Manner as aforesaid; and by Reason of the Necessity of pleading specially in such Cases, the whole Merit of the Case in question cannot oftentimes come into Consideration, and the Jury, by the Rules of Law, are often obliged to find a Verdict for the whole Sum of Money assured, though it be never so apparent, that in Justice only a small Part thereof is due to the assured by such Policies of Assurance; and the said Corporations are thereby forced to seek Relief in Courts of Equity, when the Matter in question might be as well determined at once by a Jury, as it is done in the Case of private Insurers, or Persons not incorporated; For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, on all Actions of Debt to be sued or commenced against either of the said Corporations, upon any Policies of Assurance under the Common Seal of such Corporation for the assuring of any Ship or Ships, Goods or Merchandizes at Sea or going to Sea, it shall or may be lawful to and for the said respective Corporations, in such Action or Suit, to plead generally, that they owe nothing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Action; and that in all Actions of Covenant, which shall be sued or commenced against either of the said Corporations upon any such Policy of Assurance under the Common Seal of such Corporation for the assuring any Ship or Ships, Goods or Merchandizes, at Sea or going to Sea, it shall and may be lawful for the said respective Corporations, in such Action or Suit, to plead generally, that they have not broke the Covenant in such Policy contained, or any of them, and if thereupon Issue shall be joined, it shall and may be lawful for the Jury, if they shall see Cause, upon the Trial of such Issue, to find a Verdict for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Action, and to give so much or such Part only of the Sum demanded, if it be an Action of Debt, or so much in Damage, if it be an Action of Covenant, as it shall appear to them upon the Evidence given upon such Trial, such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ought in Justice to have, or is or are entitled unto; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Insurance Companies may plead the General Issue in Actions brought against them.

Policies of Insurance to be stamped, on Forfeiture of 100l.

Promissary Notes for Insurances void.

XLIV. And whereas several Persons have of late endeavoured to evade the Payment of the Stamp-Duties on Policies of Assurance or Insurance, by giving Promissary Notes instead of Policies for the insuring Goods, Ships or Merchandizes at Sea, by which Notes the Insurer notifies or expresses the Terms on which he would insure, to the great Detriment and Loss of his Majesty's Revenue, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Vessel, Goods or Merchandizes shall be insured, a Policy duly stamped shall be issued, or at least made out within the Space of three Days at furthest, and the Insurer or Insurers neglecting to make out such a Policy or Policies within the Time aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every such Offence, to be sued for and recovered, and divided in the same Way and Manner, as other Penalties and Forfeitures may be sued for, recovered and divided by the Laws relating to the Stamp-Duties; and all Promissary Notes for Assurances or Insurances of Ships, Goods or Merchandizes, at Sea or going to Sea, are hereby declared void, and nothing shall be recovered thereon by the insured.

Anno Regni GEORGII Regis Magnæ Britanniae, Franciae & Hiberniae, duodecimo.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the ninth Day of October, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, in the ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And from thence continued by several Prorogations to the twentieth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; being the fourth Session of this present Parliament.

C A P. I.

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land-Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-six. EXP: 2s. in the Pound.

Surplus arising hereby how appropriated, 12 Geo. 1. c. 12. sect. 28.

C A P. II.

An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sum of one Million; to be raised by way of a Lottery.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, by charging Annuities at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum; upon the Civil List Revenues, till redeemed by the Crown, and for enabling his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors (by causing such a Deduction to be made, as therein is mentioned) to make good to the Civil List the Payments which shall have been made upon the said Annuities; and for borrowing Money upon certain Lottery-Tickets; and for discharging the Corporation for Assurances; of Part of the Money they were obliged to pay to his Majesty; and for making good a Deficiency to the East-India Company, it was (amongst many other Matters and Things) enacted, That to the End your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, might be enabled to reimburse such Sum and Sums of Money, as in Pursuance of the said Act should be issued out of the Civil List Revenues, for or towards Payment of the Annuities charged by the said Act, it should and might be lawful for your Majesty, your Heirs or Successors, to cause a Deduction to be made, not exceeding six Pence in the Pound, out of all Monies, which from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one should be paid for or upon all Pensions and Annuities charged upon any of the said Hereditary and Temporary Duties, and for and upon all Salaries, Fees and Wages, payable for or in respect of Offices of Profit, granted by or derived from the Crown, and for and upon all other Payments from the Crown whatsoever, or for or upon any Arrearages of them, or any of them, incurred or to be incurred (the Pay of Commission and Non-commission Officers and private Men, serving in the Navy or Army, only and always excepted) the same Deductions to be made for the Use of your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of your or their Civil Government, so long as the said Annuities should, by Virtue of the said Act, be payable out of the Revenues charged therewith as aforesaid; and until the same Annuities should be redeemed, pursuant to the said Act, as by the said Act, Relation being thereunto had; more fully and at large it doth and may appear: And whereas by Virtue and in Pursuance of another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eleventh Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for redeeming the Annuities of twenty-five thousand Pounds per Annum, charged on the Civil List Revenues by an Act of the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign; and for discharging the Debts and Arrears due from his Majesty to his Servants, Tradesmen, and others, a Number of new Exchequer-Bills, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of one million of Pounds Sterling, were made forth, and the Principal, Interest, Premium; or Rate to grow due thereon, were charged and chargeable upon the Monies arisen or to arise by or from the said Deductions, and also upon such Monies, as at any Time or Times, from and after the making forth such Exchequer-Bills, should be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, arisen or to arise from all or any the Duties, Revenues or Branches granted to your Majesty for the Support of your Household, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as well those which are Hereditary, as those which are granted during your Majesty's Life; and from and after your Majesty's Demise, then upon all such Monies as from thenceforth shall grow due and come into the Receipt of the Exchequer from the Hereditary Revenues, Duties and Branches therein mentioned, except as therein is excepted and provided; and the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, Part of the said Sum not exceeding one million, in Exchequer-Bills, was issued and applied for the Redemption of the said Annuity of twenty-five thousand Pounds per Annum; and the remaining five hundred thousand Pounds in Exchequer-Bills was issued towards satisfying the Debts and Arrears, and other Uses of your Majesty's Civil Government, as in and by the said last mentioned Act was directed and appointed: Now the Publick Service requiring that the Exchequer-Bills remaining uncanceled and undischarged, which were issued by Virtue of the said Act, and which do amount to the Principal Sum of nine hundred and ninety thousand Pounds should, without Delay, be cancelled and discharged, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly pray your Majesty that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to continue the said Deductions of six Pence in the Pound for the Purposes in this Act mentioned, in the same Manner, and as the said Deductions have been made and raised by Virtue of the said Act passed in the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, subject nevertheless to the Savings and Exceptions in the said Act mentioned.

their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in the Manner hereafter in this Act expressed, until the Redemption thereof according to the Proviso hereafter in this Act contained in that Behalf; and that the said yearly Sum of thirty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the Sums which shall grow due from Time to Time for or upon the said Annuities at the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall from Time to Time be paid Half-yearly, at Christmas and Midsummer, by even and equal Portions, until Redemption of the said Annuities according to the true Meaning of this Act, at the said Receipt of Exchequer, to the Chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being, by way of Imprest and upon Account for Payment of the same Annuities; the first Payment of the said yearly Sum to the said Cashier to be made on the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; and the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer, Under Treasurer and Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for the Time being, are hereby strictly enjoined and required to cause the said yearly Sum of thirty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, to be impressed and paid from Time to Time to the said Cashier accordingly, without any further or other Authority for the same; any former Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for or towards raising the said Sum of one million it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute by paying, at or before the respective Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, to any Receiver or Receivers to be appointed for that Purpose, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of ten Pounds, or divers entire Sums of ten Pounds, upon this Act; and that every such Contributor or Adventurer for every such Sum of ten Pounds, which he, she or they shall so advance, shall be interested in such Lot or Share of and in the said yearly Fund established by this Act, as is herein after directed and appointed, and the same entire Sums of ten Pounds each are hereby appointed to be paid unto such Receiver or Receivers at such Time or Times, and in such Proportions at a Time, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, as shall be appointed by the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being; and the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby empowered to cause such an Allowance out of the Sum so to be contributed, or any of them, for prompt Payment, to be made as he or they in his or their Discretion shall think meet and reasonable.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Persons as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall nominate or appoint, shall be Managers and Directors for preparing and delivering out Tickets, and to oversee the Drawing of Lots, and to order, do and perform such other Matters and Things as are hereafter in and by this Act directed and appointed by such Managers and Directors to be done and performed; and that such Managers and Directors shall meet together from Time to Time at some publick Office or Place, for the Execution of the Powers and Trusts in them reposed by this Act; and that the said Managers or Directors, or so many of them as shall be present at such Meeting, or the major Part of them, shall cause Books to be prepared, in which every Leaf shall be divided or distinguished into three Columns, and upon the innermost of the said three Columns there shall be printed one hundred thousand Tickets, numbr'd one, two, three, and so onwards in Arithmetical Progression, where the common Excess is to be one, until they rise to and for the Number of one hundred thousand; and upon the middle Column in every of the said Books shall be printed one hundred thousand Tickets, of the same Breadth and Form, and numbr'd in like Manner; and in the extreme Column of the said Books there shall be printed a third Rank or Series of Tickets, of the same Number with those of the other two Columns; which Tickets shall severally be of an oblong Figure, and in the said Books shall be joined with oblique Lines Flourishes or Devices, in such Manner as the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them, shall think most safe and convenient; and that every Ticket in the third or extreme Column of the said Books shall have written or printed thereupon (besides the Number of such Ticket) Words to this Effect, The Bearer hereof is entitled to seven Pounds ten Shillings, Part of the Joint Stock of one million, attended with Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, or to a better Chance.

Guardians may contribute for Infants, &c. Tickets to be exchanged for Certificates. Bank to give Credit, &c. E X P.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Accountant General of the Bank of England for the Time being, to whom the said Certificates are to be directed as aforesaid, shall, upon receiving and taking in of the said Certificates, or any of them, give Credit to the Persons named therein, in a Book or Books to be by him provided and kept for that Purpose, for the Principal Sums contained in every such Certificate; and the Persons to whose Credit every the said Principal Sums shall be entred in the said Book or Books, his, her or their Executors and Administrators, shall and may have Power to assign and transfer the same, or any Part, Share or Proportion thereof, to any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate whatsoever, in other Books to be provided and kept by the said Accountant General for that Purpose; and the Principal Sums so assigned or transferred shall carry the said Annuity of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and shall be taken and deemed to be Stock transferrable by this Act, according to the Power and Authority thority herein after mentioned, until the Redemption thereof as aforesaid: And the said Accountant General of the Bank of England for the Time being is hereby authorized and directed to cancel and file the Certificates as they shall from Time to Time be received and taken in by him, and to give the Persons bringing the same a Note under his Hand, testifying the Principal Money for which they have Credit in the said Book or Books, by Reason or Means of the Certificates so received, taken in and cancelled as aforesaid, and of the Annuity attending the same.

XX. And it is hereby enacted, That every Person so to be named in the said Certificates, his, her and their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall have, receive, and enjoy and be entitled, by Force and Virtue of this Act, to have, receive and enjoy an Annuity or Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the respective Principal Sums specified in such Certificate, until Redemption thereof, according to the Proviso herein after contained in that Behalf, out of the Money of the said yearly Fund by this Act established and appropriated for that Purpose; which Annuities shall be payable and paid half-yearly at the Feast-Days above-mentioned, by even and equal Portions, or within six Days next after every or any such Feast-Days, until the said Annuities shall be redeemed by paying off the said respective Principal Sums and all Arrearages of the same Annuities, if any be, according to the Proviso herein after mentioned; the first Payment to begin and be made at the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, or within six Days after; and that the said yearly Sum of thirty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient from Time to Time to answer and satisfy the said Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as the same shall become due, are and shall be appropriated and applied thereunto, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, That the said Annuities payable after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and all and every the Principal Sums for which the same are to be payable, shall be free from all Taxes, Charges and Impositions whatsoever.

XXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall from Time to Time, until the said Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum shall be redeemed according to this Act, appoint and employ one sufficient Person within their Office in the City of London to be their Chief or First Cashier, and one other sufficient Person within the same Office to be their Accountant General; and that the said Cashier or Cashiers, to whom the said Monies shall from Time to Time be issued for Payment of the said Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall from Time to Time, without Delay, apply and pay the same accordingly, and render his Account thereof according to the due Course of the Exchequer: And the said Accountant General for the Time being shall from Time to Time inspect and examine all Receipts and Payments of the said Cashier, and the Vouchers relating thereunto, in order to prevent any Fraud, Negligence or Delay; and that all Persons and Corporations, who shall be entitled to any of the same Annuities, so to be payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being, pursuant to this Act, and all Persons claiming under them, shall be possessed thereof as a Personal Estate, and the same shall not be descendable to the Heir, and shall not be liable to any foreign Attachment by the Custom of London, or otherwise; any Law, Statute or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Principal Monies for which the said several Annuities, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be one Capital or Joint Stock on which the same Annuities shall be attending, and shall be called, The Joint Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities; and that all Persons and Corporations, in Proportion to their respective Annuities, shall have a Share in such Stock; and that all such Shares shall be assignable, transferrable and deviseable in the same Manner as is prescribed by Act or Acts of Parliament made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, touching the Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum therein mentioned; and that no Stamp-Duties whatsoever shall be chargeable on such Transfers; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England (notwithstanding the Redemption of all or any other Funds or Annuities, in Pursuance of the Acts for establishing the same, or any of them) shall continue a Corporation to all Intents and Purposes, relating to the Receiving, Paying or Accounting for the said Annuities of three Pounds per Centum per Annum so payable by their Cashier, till the same shall be redeemed according to this Act; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Members thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by reason of their doing any Matter or Thing in Pursuance of this Act.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fee or Gratuity whatsoever shall or may be demanded or taken of any of his Majesty's Subjects for paying the said Annuities of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, or any of them, by the said Cashier for the Time being; and that no Fee or Gratuity shall be demanded or taken for any Transfer of any Sum, great or small, to be made in Pursuance of this Act, upon Pain that any Officer or Person offending, by taking any Fee or Gratuity contrary to this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds to the Party grieved, to be recovered with full Costs in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

XXV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the King's Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, at any Time, upon six Months Notice to be given under his or their Sign Manual, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, at any of the Feast-Days of Payment of the said Annuities, to redeem the same Annuities, and every of them, by paying to the then Proprietors of the same Annuities the Consideration or Purchase-Money which was originally paid for the same (without Deduction of the Allowance for prompt Payment) and all Arrearages of the said Annuities which shall be incurred till the Time of such Payment, to be made at the then next ensuing half-yearly Feast-Day; and that from and after such Payment made, or reserving Money in the Exchequer ready to make such Payment on Demand, that then and not till then the same Annuities and every of them shall from thenceforth cease and determine, and the said Revenues shall be discharged of, from and against the same.

XXVI. And for the better ascertaining and securing the Payment of the Annuities aforesaid, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Monies as shall arise and come into the Receipt of the Exchequer, of and from the Deductions of six Pence in the Pound as aforesaid, shall be applied and appropriated, and the same are hereby accordingly appropriated for and towards paying and discharging the said Annuities, till redeemed as aforesaid, and that half-yearly, to wit, on or within twenty Days next after the twenty-fifth Day of December, and the twenty-fourth Day of June aforesaid, in every Year, the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall cause an exact Account to be made and taken of the Monies which shall, on or before every respective Half-year of and in each and every respective Year, have arisen and been brought into the Exchequer in the preceding Half-year, for or upon the said Deductions; and that the Monies so arising and coming into the Exchequer in such preceding Half-year shall be immediately, from Time to Time, paid over to the Chief Cashier of the Bank of England, towards paying and discharging the Annuities aforesaid; and in case the said Deductions shall at any such Half-year appear to be so deficient, that the same shall not be able to answer and pay so much as shall then be due for or upon the said Annuities in and by this Act appointed and intended to be paid out of the same, according to the true Meaning of this Act, then and in every such Case, and as often as any such Deficiencies shall happen, the same shall be provided for, answered and made good by and out of any Monies arisen or to arise from all or any the hereditary Revenues settled and appointed for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown.

Deficiency, how to be made good.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall be found and appear, that the Monies arising and coming into the Exchequer by the said Deductions of six Pence in the Pound, in every or any Year, shall have proved so low and deficient, as not to have brought into the Exchequer the said full yearly Sum of thirty thousand Pounds, that then and in every such Case, and so often as any such Deficiency shall so happen, the Arrears shall be paid and made good out of the first Money that shall arise or be brought into the Exchequer for or upon the said Deductions, after the End of such a Year wherein such Deficiency happened; and any Sum or Sums of Money paid out of his Majesty's said hereditary Revenue shall be also replaced and paid out of the same; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Surplus to remain in the Exchequer.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case at the End of any one Year the Monies arising into the Exchequer by and out of the said Deductions of six Pence in the Pound shall be more than sufficient to answer and pay the said thirty thousand Pounds per Annum, and to replace what may have been in the same Year issued out of the said hereditary Revenues, towards making good the same, such Surplus shall from Time to Time be reserved in the Exchequer, and not be thence issued or applied, but by Authority of Parliament.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being shall, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, by and out of the Monies arising out of the Contributions on this Act, or by and out of any other Monies granted to his Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, provide and direct, that all the said Exchequer-Bills now remaining undischarged, and so, as aforesaid, amounting to nine hundred and ninety thousand Pounds Principal Money, be effectually discharged and cancelled; and that in the mean time and until the effectual Discharging and Cancelling the same, or reserving sufficient Money in the Exchequer for Discharging and Cancelling the same upon Demand, all and every the Duties and Revenues by the said recited Act of the eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign appropriated for the Circulating, Exchanging and finally Cancelling the same, shall remain, continue and be subject and liable to the Circulating, Exchanging and Cancelling the same in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as they were subject and liable before the Making of this Act; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. IV.

An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; and for the more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Shipping of Malt for Exportation to foreign Parts; and for ascertaining the Price of Ale to be sold in Scotland; and for making good the Deficiency on the Lottery-Tickets of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer-Bills, Lottery-Tickets and Orders, lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed.

No Malt entred
for Exportation only shall be charged with the Duties on Malt, nor any Drawback allowed on Exportation.

XLVIII. AND whereas it hath been found by Experience, That the Drawbacks given by the several Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties on Malt out of the Duties by the said Acts granted, for and upon the Exportation of Malt from Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas, do very much exceed the Duties charged upon the same Malt at the Time of making thereof, by means whereof the Makers of such Malt are encouraged to run out their Malt into Combe, and thereby in the making thereof increase the same, before it be dried, to more than double the Quantity which the same individual Parcel of Malt so exported did contain by Gaging or Measure, when the same was gaged and charged by the Officers for the Duties chargeable thereon; and notwithstanding the Allowances and Abatements made by the said Act out of every twenty Bushels of Malt, at the Time that the Duties charged thereon are paid, that is to say, an Abatement or Allowance of four out of every twenty Bushels of Malt which shall be charged by the Officer by a Gage taken in the Cistern or in the Couch, and in case the Charge shall be made from a Gage which shall be taken upon the Floor, then an Allowance or Abatement of the Duties of ten Bushels out of every twenty twenty Bushels which shall be so charged from such Floor Gage; notwithstanding which Abatements and Allowances so made out of the said Duties as aforesaid, yet nevertheless the said Exporters do demand and insist upon it, that they are to have a Drawback of six Pence for every Bushel of Malt so by them exported as aforesaid, although the same Malt so exported, by their fraudulent Way of working the same, is worth little more than the Drawback paid and allowed on the Exportation thereof, to the great Disparagement of the British Malt in foreign Parts, and the Diminution of his Majesty's Duties upon Malt: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six no Malt which shall be entered and made for Exportation only, in the Manner by this Act prescribed and directed, shall, by Virtue of this Act, be charged or chargeable, or subject or liable to any of the Duties by this Act charged or imposed upon any Malt to be made in Great Britain; and that no Drawback out of the Duties on Malt by this Act granted, shall be paid or allowed for any Malt whatsoever, which from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six shall be made and exported from any Part of Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six all and every Malster and Baker of Malt for Exportation shall from Time to Time, before he, she or they shall begin to wet or steep any Steeping of Corn or Grain to be made into Malt for Exportation, give or leave Notice in Writing with the respective Officer or Officers for the said Duties on Malt for the Division or Place where such Malt is to be and shall be made, of the respective Quantities of Corn or Grain intended to be contained in each Steeping so by him, her or them intended to be made into Malt for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas; which said Corn or Grain so intended to be made into Malt for Exportation shall from Time to Time be kept separate and apart, by the respective Bakers thereof, from all other Corn or Grain, either made or to be made into Malt for Home Consumption, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Shillings for every Bushel of Grain contained in any Steeping so entered to be made for Exportation, which shall be found mixed with any Corn or Grain made or to be made into Malt for Home Consumption.

Malsters to enter all Malt intended for Exportation.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Baker or Bakers of Malt whatsoever shall begin to wet or steep any Corn or Grain to make into Malt for Exportation, above the Space of six Days before all the Corn he, she or they may have working on their respective Floors to make into Malt for Home Consumption, shall be dried off; nor shall the Persons aforesaid begin to wet or steep any Corn to make into Malt for Home Consumption, above the Space of six Days before all the Corn or Grain he, she or they may have working on their respective Floors to make into Malt for Exportation, be fully dried, and locked up in the Manner by this Act directed and expressed, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Shillings for every Bushel of Corn or Grain wetted or steeped contrary to the Manner herein prescribed and directed.

When Malt for Exportation shall begin to be wet.

LI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when the Malt so intended for Exportation as aforesaid shall be fully made and dried, and fit for Exportation, the same shall from Time to Time, in the Presence of the respective Officer or Officers for the said Duties in the said Division or Place where the same was made, be measured and carried, by the respective Bakers or Proprietors thereof, directly on Ship-board, if intended to be immediately exported, or else into one or more Room or Rooms, Storehouse or Storehouses, or other Place or Places to be provided by and at the Expence of the respective Bakers or Proprietors of the said Malt so made for Exportation, there to be kept separate and apart from all other Malt, under two Locks and two Keys to each Place into which the said Malt shall be carried; one of those Locks to be provided by the respective Bakers or Proprietors of the said Malt, and the other Lock to be provided by the Supervisor or Officer for the said Duties in the Division or Place where the said Malt shall be locked up, at the Expence of the Proprietor of the said Malt, whereof one Key of each Place to be kept by the respective Bakers or Proprietors of the said Malt, and the other Key by the Officer for the said Duties for the Time being of the Division or Place where the said Malt shall be kept, until the same shall be delivered out for Exportation.

Such Malt, when fully dried, to be carried directly on Ship-board, in Presence of an Officer, or to be locked up in a Store-house.

LII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Supervisors and Officers for the said Duties from Time to Time, during the wetting or steeping the said Corn or Grain so intended to be made into Malt for Exportation, and until the same shall be fully made and dried, and carried and locked up as aforesaid, to gage and take an Account thereof in all its Operations, in the same Manner as they ought to do, in case the Duties charged upon Malt made for Home Consumption were to be charged thereon, for the better discovering whether any of the Malt so intended for Exportation be not removed and carried away to be used for Home Consumption.

Officers may gage such Malt in all its Operations, till fully dried, &c.

LIII. Provided always, and to the Intent that it may be known whether all the Malt so entered, made and locked up for Exportation be accordingly exported, and not made use of for Home Consumption, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Baker or Proprietor of Malt so made for Exportation, and locked up and secured for that Purpose, shall be desirous to take any of the said Malt out of any of the said Places where the same shall be locked up as aforesaid, in order to remove the same to some Port or Place for the Exportation thereof, and shall thereof give Notice in Writing to the Officer for the said Duties of the Division or Place where such Malt shall be so locked up, by the Space of forty Hours before the Time he desires to take out the same as aforesaid, expressing in such Notice the Quantity of Malt he, she or they do then desire to take out, and the Port or Place to which the same is intended to be removed for Exportation as aforesaid, then and in such Case the respective Officers for the said Duties, to whom such Notice shall be given as aforesaid, shall and are by this Act required to attend, pursuant to such Notice, at the respective Places where the said Malt shall be locked up as aforesaid, and see the Malt so desired to be taken out of the same measured, and delivered out to the respective Bakers or Proprietors thereof, or to their respective Agents or Servants by them appointed to receive and carry the same to the Port or Place from whence the same is intended to be exported as aforesaid.

Officers on Notice to attend at the Storehouses at delivering out Malt for Exportation.

LIV. And

Officers to keep an Account of all Malt so delivered out, &c.

LIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said respective Officers do and shall, from Time to Time, keep a true Account of all the Malt which shall be so delivered as aforesaid, and of the Person or Persons to whom the same belongs; and shall and is hereby required to give to the Person to whom or for whom each Quantity of Malt shall be so delivered out, a Certificate in Writing, directed to the Officer for the said Duties in the Division or Place to which the same is intended to be removed, in order to be exported, expressing the Quantity of Malt so delivered out, and the Name or Names of the respective Bakers or Proprietors thereof, and the respective Divisions or Places from whence the same was so delivered out; which said Certificate or Certificates shall be signed by the respective Officers giving the same, and shall be delivered to the respective Officers for the said Duties for the Time being, of the Port or Place where the said Malt shall be so carried to be exported, who shall duly file and keep the same, and make an Entry thereof in a Book or Books to be respectively kept by him or them for that Purpose, to the Intent that upon Enquiry and Examination it may be discovered whether any Baker of Malt for Exportation shall duly export all such Malt, as shall be entered by him or them respectively for Exportation as aforesaid; and in case the Baker or Proprietor of such Malt, so removed from the Place of making thereof, shall neglect or refuse to deliver and procure to be delivered such Certificate or Certificates to such Officer for the said Duties of the Division or Place to which the said Malt shall be removed in order to be exported, to the Intent that the same may be filed and entered in the Manner in this Act before expressed, then and in such Case the Baker or Proprietor, so refusing or neglecting to deliver the same, shall, for every such Refusal, forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Officers at the Port to attend the measuring the Malt, and to continue on Board till the Ship be cleared.

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any the Officers for the said Duty on Malt, in such of the Ports of this Kingdom, where any Malt may, is or shall be shipped, in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, not only to see and attend the Measuring of all Malt which shall be shipped or laid on Board any Ship or Vessel for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, in such Port or Ports respectively, but also to continue on Board such Ships or Vessels on which such Malt shall be laden or shipped, until the same shall be respectively cleared their respective Ports.

The Hatches of the Ship to be locked down when the Ship is not loading, &c.

LVI. And it is also hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from Time to Time, during the shipping of Malt for Exportation on Board any Ship or Vessel, at all such Times as the respective Proprietors or Exporters shall not be actually putting Malt or other Merchandizes on Board, the Hatches of the said Ships or Vessels shall and may be kept locked down with two Locks and two Keys to each Hatch; one of those Locks to be provided, and the Key thereof kept by the respective Proprietors or Exporters, and the other Lock to be provided, and the Key thereof kept by the respective Officer or Officers appointed to attend the said Shipping; and that the said Hatches be kept locked down in the aforesaid Manner, from the Time the said Ships or Vessels shall be fully loaded, until the Time the same shall be ready to sail from their respective Ports to Foreign Parts, to the Intent that none of the Malt put on Board may be reloaded.

Notice to be given to the Officer of the Port when the putting on board of Malt is to be begun.

LVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons who shall intend to ship any Malt for Exportation, shall, by the Space of forty-eight Hours at least before the beginning to ship, or put on board any Ship or Vessel any Malt for Exportation, give or send to such Officer or Officers as aforesaid, of the Port or Place where such Malt shall be intended to be shipped or put on board, Notice in Writing of the particular Day, and of the precise Hour of such Day, when such Shipping or putting on board of such Malt is intended to be begun, and also the Name of the Ship or Vessel such Malt is to be put on board, on Pain to forfeit and lose the Sum of five Shillings for every Bushel of Malt, which shall be shipped or put on board for Exportation without such Notice so given or sent as aforesaid; and in case it shall appear, that any of the Malt so entered and made for Exportation as aforesaid, shall not within the Space of nine Months next after the making and drying thereof, and carrying the same into such Room or Rooms, Ware-houses, Store-houses or other Places, and there locked up and secured as aforesaid, be exported for Parts beyond the Seas, according to the Purport and Meaning of this Act, then and in such Case the Proprietor of the Malt not so exported shall, for every Bushel thereof forfeit and lose the Sum of five Shillings.

Malt not exported in Nine Months, Proprietor to forfeit 5s. per Bushel.
Malster not entering the Corn, nor providing Store-houses, &c. to forfeit 50l.

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Malster or Baker of Malt shall refuse or neglect to make such Entry as aforesaid, of their respective Quantities of Corn or Grain, so intended to be wetted or steeped for Exportation, before the Wetting or Steeping thereof as aforesaid, or shall refuse or neglect to provide and keep such Rooms, Ware-houses, Store-houses and other Places, with Locks and Keys for securing the said Malt so intended for Exportation as aforesaid, or refuse or neglect to cause all the said Malt so intended for Exportation, from Time to Time, within the Space of six Days next after the same shall be dried, in the Presence of the Officer for the said Duties, for the Division or Place where the said Malt shall be made (who is hereby required upon reasonable Notice to be given to him, to attend for that Purpose) to be measured, carried and locked up, in such Rooms, Warehouses, Store-houses or other Places as aforesaid; then, and in every such Case, the said Baker or Proprietor of such Malt, so neglecting or refusing, shall, for every such Neglect or Refusal, forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds: And in case any Person or Persons whatsoever shall oppose, molest, hinder or obstruct any of the said Officers in the due Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted to such Officer or Officers by this Act, or shall break open the Hatches of any Ship or Vessel, locked down in the Manner herein before-mentioned, without the Knowledge or Consent of the Officer or Officers appointed to attend the Shipping of Malt on such Ships or Vessels, every such Person shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Opposing Officers, &c. forfeits 50l.

Allowances to Malsters on Exportation of Malt.

LIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Consideration of the extraordinary Charges the Malsters or Bakers of Malt for Foreign Exportation will be at, for Ware-houses and Store-houses for locking up of Malt, and for the several Admeasurements thereof, from the Time of making such Malt, to the Time of Exportation portation thereof, there shall be allowed to the said Maltsters and Makers of Malt the Sum of Three-pence per Quarter, out of the Duties granted or continued by this Act, for every Quarter of Malt, which shall be so made and locked up for Foreign Exportation; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LX. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Drawback shall and may be allowed for all Malt made on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, that shall have paid the Duty imposed thereon by the Act of the eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, for laying a Duty upon all Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, and shall be exported for Foreign Parts on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; and the Person or Persons exporting the same shall be entitled to have Debentures made out for the same, in the same Manner as he or they would have been entitled to the same, in case this Act had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Drawback on Malt made before 24 June, and exported before 29 Sept. 1726.

LXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Debentures so to be made forth, for Malt exported on or before the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, shall (in case the respective Commissioners or Officers of Excise shall not have sufficient in their Hands of the Duties granted by the said Act of the eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, to satisfy the same) be paid and satisfied out of the Duties arising by this present Act; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Such Debentures how to be satisfied.

LXII. And whereas a Doubt may arise upon the Construction of the Seventh Article of the Treaty of Union (which provides that the Barrel of Ale sold in Scotland by the Brewer at Nine Shillings and Six-pence Sterling, excluding Duties, and retailed including Duties and the Retailers Profit, at Two-pence the Scots Pint, shall not after the Union be liable on Account of the Excise then in Being, to a higher Duty than two Shillings for each Barrel) whether the Brewer and Retailer may take a higher Price for the said Ale, in Proportion as the Duty now granted on Malt may raise the Price of the said Commodity, without being liable to a higher Excise than that limited by the said Seventh Article of the Treaty of Union: For obviating the said Doubt, It is hereby enacted and declared, That Ale brewed or to be brewed in Scotland, during the Continuance of the Duty of Three-pence a Bushel on Malt, of the same Goodness and Quality with that described in the said Article of the Treaty of Union, shall be chargeable with no higher Excise, in Consideration of the Duty of Excise that took Place at the Time of the Union, than two Shillings Sterling for each Barrel, though the said Ale shall, in Consideration of the Malt Duty, be sold by the Brewer at ten Shillings and Six-pence per Barrel, and by the Retailer at Two-pence and Two-penny Scots, or one-sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, the Scots Pint: And it shall be lawful for the Brewers and Retailers of such Ale to sell and retail the same at the said Prices, without being liable to any further or higher Duty as aforesaid.

5 Ann., c. 8.

The Price of Ale to be sold in Scotland, ascertained.

LXIII. And whereas several of the Certificates made forth for the fortunate Tickets, issued in Pursuance of an Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, to raise Money by way of a Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, still remain unpaid, and for Want of sufficient Money coming into the Exchequer, of the said Duties, to answer and pay the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Money arisen or to arise into the Exchequer, for or on Account of the Duties granted by the last mentioned Act, on or before the fifth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, shall not be sufficient to discharge the whole Principal and Interest due, or to grow due on the several Certificates made forth in Manner aforesaid; that then so much Money as shall on that Day appear to be wanting or deficient for answering and discharging the same, shall and may be supplied and made good out of any of the publick Supplies granted or to be granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; and the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby authorized and required to issue and apply the same for that Purpose accordingly; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Deficiency on the Lottery-Tickets 1724. how to be made good. 10 Geo. 1. c. 2.

LXIV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted, That all the Monies which from and after the said fifth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, shall or may happen to come and be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, for Arrears upon the said Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four as aforesaid, shall be issued and applied in Aid of the Supplies that shall be granted to his Majesty, for the said Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; any Thing in the Act, by which the said Duties were granted, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Arrears of the Malt Act 1724. to be applied to the Service of this Year.

9 Ann. c. 25.

XV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, it was enacted, That the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches for the Time being, or the major Part of them, should have Power, and are thereby required to license all such Hackney Chairs, which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eleven, during the Term of thirty-two Years, should be kept and used for Hire within the Cities of London and Westminster and the Suburbs thereof, and within all and every the Parishes and Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; and that the Number of all such Chairs, so to be licensed upon that Act, should not exceed two hundred, and that upon every one of the Licences, to be granted for keeping or using for Hire any Hackney Chair, there should be reserved and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the annual Sum of ten Shillings; to be paid Quarterly: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of her said Majesty's Reign, it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful to and for the Commissioners for licensing and regulating of Hackney Coaches for the Time being, or the major Part of them, to license any additional Number, not exceeding one hundred such Hackney Chairs, which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of thirty-one Years, should be kept and used for Hire within the Cities and Limits aforesaid, so that the Number of all the said Chairs, licensed or to be licensed upon the said Acts, should not at any one Time, within or during the Term last mentioned, exceed three hundred; and that upon every one of the said Licences, for any of the said Chairs, there should be reserved the like yearly Rent of ten Shillings, to be paid Quarterly: And whereas it is found convenient, that a greater Number of such Hackney Chairs should be Licensed to be employed within the Limits aforesaid, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for Licensing and Regulating Hackney Coaches now being, and the Commissioners for Licensing and Regulating Hackney Coaches for the Time being, or the major Part of them, shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby impowered and required, under their Hands and Seals or the Hands or Seals of the major Part of them (over and above the Number of Chairs authorized to be Licensed by the said former Acts) to License an Additional Number of Hackney Chairs, not exceeding one hundred, which from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, at any Time or Times within or during the Term of eighteen Years from thence next and immediately ensuing, shall be kept and used for Hire within the Cities and Limits aforesaid; so that the Number of all the said Chairs Licensed

One hundred additional Hackney Chairs to be added to those already Licensed. Continued by 16 Geo. 2. c. 26.

20 Ann. c. 19.

Licensed or to be Licensed upon this or the said former Acts, shall not at any one Time, within the Term last mentioned, exceed four hundred.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, upon every one of the Licences to be granted in Pursuance of this Act, for keeping and using for Hire any Hackney Chair, there shall be reserved and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the annual Sum of ten Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid Quarterly at the four most usual Feasts in the Year, by equal Portions, during the Continuance of every such Licence for a Chair, with such Covenants, Proviso's and Conditions, for the more effectual Payment thereof, as the said Commissioners in their Discretions shall think fit and reasonable; the first of the said Payments to begin and be made at such of the said Feast-Days, as shall next happen after the Granting of every such Licence for a Chair respectively; and that the same Chairs, and the Persons to be so Licensed for carrying and using the same, shall in respect thereof have the same Rates and Benefits, and be subject and liable to the same Rules, Penalties, Matters and Things, as are by the said former Acts prescribed, in relation to the Hackney Chairs or Chairmen, which were thereby authorized to be Licensed.

The Number not to exceed 400.

On every Licence there shall be reserved the annual Sum of 10s. payable Quarterly.

Appropriation of the Monies on these Chairs.

XVII. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies to arise by Rents of the said additional Number of Chairs to be Licensed in Pursuance of this Act (the necessary Charges of raising the same excepted) shall be added to the Funds settled by the said Act of the ninth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, and applied towards the Payment of the Principal and Interest-Money therein mentioned, in like Manner, and under the like Penalties, as other Rents upon Hackney Chairs are applicable and appropriated.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of seven thousand and forty-six Pounds, thirteen Shillings and eight Pence three Farthings, remaining in the Exchequer for Arrears of several Land-Taxes payable in and before the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, shall and may be issued and applied as Part of his Majesty's Supply granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; any Law, Statute or Provision heretofore made to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Arrears of former Land-Taxes to be applied for the Service of the Year 1726.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and they respectively are hereby authorized and impowered at any Time or Times before the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, at once or by such Proportions at a Time as they respectively shall find to be most for the Advantage of the Publick, to prepare and make or cause to be prepared and made at the Exchequer, in such Method and Form as they or he shall think most safe and convenient, any Number of new Exchequer Bills, containing one common Sum or different Sums in the Principal Monies, not to exceed in the whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds Sterling. An Act for repealing the Duty laid upon Snuff, by an Act made in the eighth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, and for ascertaining the Rates according to which the remaining Duties are to be paid, and for giving further Encouragement to the Greenland Fishery.

I. MOST gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty new Duties of Excise, and upon several imported Commodities, and for establishing a yearly Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, to raise nine hundred thousand Pounds, by Sale of Annuities, and (in Default thereof) by another Lottery, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ten, a new Duty of three Shillings for every Pound-Weight Acquidupois, over and above all other Duties, was laid upon all Snuff imported or to be imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain, at any Time or Times after the sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and nine, within or during the Term of thirty-two Years, such Snuff not being of the Product or Manufacture of her Majesty's Plantations; which Act has been since made perpetual: And whereas it is notorious, that since the laying of the said new Duty, great Quantities of Snuff have been clandestinely and fraudulently imported, and run into this Kingdom, to the Diminution of his Majesty's Revenues, and the Discouragement of the fair Traders; for Remedy whereof, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the

6 Geo. 1. c. 4.
i. 1.Act 8 Ann. c. 7.
relating to Snuff,
repealed.

the thirty-first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, the said new Duty of three Shillings per Pound Weight, imposed by the said recited Act of the eighth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, upon Snuff imported into this Kingdom as aforesaid, shall cease and determine, and be no longer due or payable for any Snuff to be imported into this Kingdom, after the said thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six.

II. And whereas other Duties upon Snuff imported into this Kingdom are now payable according to the Value sworn to or affirmed by the Importers; which, by Experience, has been found to be very unequal, some Persons greatly undervaluing the same, to the Detriment of the Revenue, and Discouragement of the fair Traders; for remedying the said Abuse, and for putting the said Trade on a more equal Foot, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Provisions and Clauses contained in any former Act or Acts of Parliament, so far as they relate to the Ascertaining the Value of Snuff imported, according to the Oaths or Affirmations of the Importers, shall, from and after the said thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, be and are hereby repealed and made void.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Lieu of the said former Rates and Duties ad Valorem, repealed by this Act, all Snuff which shall, at any Time or Times, after the said thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, be imported into any Port or Place within this Kingdom, shall, upon the Importation thereof, be rated to, and pay the old Subsidy granted by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, according to the several Rates and Values herein after mentioned, (and not according to the Values sworn to or affirmed by the Importers) that is to say, all Snuff imported in British Ships, from any of the British Plantations in America, or from any Part of the Spanish West-Indies, shall be rated at two Shillings and six Pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and in that Proportion for any greater or less Quantity; and all Snuff imported from Italy, Spain, Portugal and all other foreign Parts, except France, shall be rated at five Shillings for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and in that Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any of the said Sorts of Snuff are by Law subject or liable to the Payment of the further Subsidy, the one third Subsidy, the two thirds Subsidy, the additional Impost, or any of them, according to the respective Values set thereon for the said old Subsidy, or in Proportion thereto, the same shall, from and after the thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, be paid proportionably, according to the particular Value set thereon for the old Subsidy aforesaid, and not according to the Oath or Affirmation of the Importer; any Thing in the respective Acts, which granted the said Duties, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Exportation of any of the said Sorts of Snuff, within the Time allowed by Law, the Duties paid or secured for the same at Importation as aforesaid, shall be drawn back or allowed to the Exporter, on a proper Debenture to be made forth for that Purpose, except the old Subsidy.

VI. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Subsidies, Impositions and Duties upon the said several Sorts of Snuff shall be paid or secured, and shall be raised, levied and collected in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Discounts, Allowances and Drawbacks (except as herein is excepted) as are mentioned and expressed in the several Acts of Parliament, which granted or continued the same respectively; and all Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles and Clauses therein contained (except in such Cases where any Alteration is made by this Act) shall continue in full Force and Effect, during the Continuance of the said respective Subsidies, Impositions and other Duties, and shall be applied, practised and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, securing, answering paying and appropriating the said respective Subsidies, Impositions and other Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Clauses, Matters and Things had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act; any Law or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Greenland Fishery, it was enacted, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, it should and might be lawful for any of his Majesty's British Subjects, for and during the Space of seven Years, to import Whalefins, Oil and Blubber of Whales taken and caught in the Greenland Seas, in British Ships, navigated according to Law, without paying any Custom, Subsidy or other Duties for the same, the Captain, Master or other Commanding Officer of the Ship or Vessel importing the same first making Oath as therein is directed, That all the Whalefins, Oil and Blubber imported in such Ship or Vessel was really and bona fide the Fins, Oil or Blubber of Whales caught and taken in the said Greenland Seas by the Crew of such Ships and Vessels only, whereof the Captain or Master and one third Part at least of the Mariners were British Subjects: And whereas several of his Majesty's British Subjects do fish with British Ships and Vessels in the Streights, commonly called Davis's Streights, and the Seas thereto adjoining; Be it declared and enacted, &c. EXP.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act for vesting in his Majesty an Imposition of two Pennies Scots upon all Ale and Beer brewed and sold in the City of Glasgow and Privileges thereof, for satisfying the Damages and Losses which Daniel Campbell, Esq; lately suffered in a Riot there. P R.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and her late Majesty Queen ANNE, and the States of Parliament of Scotland, in the Years one thousand six hundred and ninety-three and one thousand seven hundred and five, did grant and continue to the City of Glasgow an Imposition of two Pennies Scots (over and above the Duties then payable to the Crown) upon each Pint of Ale and Beer to be brewed, in brought, vended, tapped and sold within the said City, and other Places in the said Act mentioned, for several Terms of Years since expired: And by an Act of the first Year of your Majesty's Reign it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That such and the like Rates, Duties

8 Annæ, c. 7.

Rates on Snuff ad valorem repealed.

Snuff to pay the old Subsidy.

from Italy, &c. 5s.

Further Subsidy, &c. to be paid according to the Value set for the old Subsidy.

Drawback of all the Duties, except old Subsidy.

Duty how to be levied.

Encouragement to the Greenland Fishery, by 10 Geo. 1. c. 16. extended to Davis's Streights for 7 Years.

1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 44.

Duties and Impositions, as by the Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland upon the fifteenth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, were granted, and which were continued by another Act of the Parliament held in Scotland upon the one and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and five, upon each Scots Pint of Ale and Beer, to be either brewed or brought in, vended, tapped and sold within the said City, Liberties and Suburbs thereof (excepting Ale and Beer that should be brewed and vended in the Gorbals, or any other Lands within the said Cities or Privileges, that are taxed to the Publick of the said City of Glasgow, and their Successors in Office, for their Use and Behoof, and that from and after the Expiration of the Term of Years, contained in the said Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland upon the one and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and five, until the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight: And whereas Daniel Campbell, Esq; a Member of the House of Commons of Great Britain, sustained great Losses and Damages in a late Riot at Glasgow, on Account of the Concern he had, or was supposed to have had, in promoting the Act for laying a Duty upon Malt for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; and it being just and reasonable that the said Damages and Losses should be made good and repaired to the said Daniel Campbell, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

After 24 June 1726, the Imposition of two Pennies Scots on Beer brewed in Glasgow no longer payable to that City: But vested in his Majesty. To be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise. On Payment of 6080 l. Glasgow discharged. Daniel Campbell to be paid out of the Revenues.

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act for the Improvement of his Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise and Inland Duties.

5 Geo. 1. c. 11.

After 24 June 1726, forfeited Goods to be proceeded against by the Laws in Force.

Tea, Coffee and foreign Brandy how to be sold.

Officers to have one third arising from the Sale.

Tea not worth 5 s. per lb. to be burnt.

Remainder of the Produce of Customs to be paid into the Exchequer.

Remainder of Excise, &c. to be paid as now practised.

No Custom-Officer entitled to such Reward without Notice to next Excise-Officer.

Nor Goods removed without Permit.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made and passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, several Penalties were inflicted on Officers of the Revenue, and others concerned in making collusive Seizures of foreign Goods, and for giving Rewards to Persons discovering the same; notwithstanding which such Practices are still carried on, to the Diminution of his Majesty's Revenues and the Detriment of the fair Traders: For the better preventing whereof, with respect to Tea, Coffee, foreign Brandy, Rum or other foreign exciseable Liquors, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Commissioners of the Customs, Excise and Inland Duties, to cause all such Goods which shall be seized by any Officers of the Customs or Excise, and Inland Duties or others, for unlawful Importation, or for Nonpayment of Duties, or for any other Cause of Forfeiture, to be proceeded against according to the several Laws now in Force concerning the same; and the said respective Commissioners may cause all such Tea and Coffee, which shall be seized within the Limits of the City of London or Edinburgh, and condemned, to be publickly sold there respectively; and for such Tea and Coffee as shall be seized in any other Ports or Places within this Kingdom, the said Commissioners may cause the same, after Condemnation, to be brought to and publickly sold in the said Cities of London or Edinburgh respectively; and for all such foreign Brandy, Rum or other foreign exciseable Liquors, which shall be seized for Nonpayment of Duty, or for being prohibited to be imported, the said respective Commissioners shall, after Condemnation, cause the same to be publickly sold to the best Bidder, at such Places as the said Commissioners shall think proper; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officer of the Customs or Excise, and Inland Duties, or other Person making such Seizure, shall, for his Encouragement, be allowed by the said respective Commissioners, one third Part of the full Sum arising from the publick Sale of all such Tea, Coffee, foreign Brandy, Rum or other exciseable Liquors, free from all Charges of Condemnation and Sale.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said respective Commissioners, if they shall think fit, may cause such Tea, as cannot be sold at a publick Sale for five Shillings the Pound Weight, to be burnt or otherwise destroyed, and the Officer or other Person making the Seizure, to be rewarded in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall think proper, such Reward not exceeding one Shilling and six Pence for each Pound Weight of such Tea.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the remaining Part of the Produce of such Sales, after paying the Reward to the Officer, and the Charges of Condemnation and Sale for such Seizures as are made by any Officer of the Customs, to be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, in Lieu of his Majesty's moiety, as now practised; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of Excise or Inland Duties, shall cause the remaining Part of the Produce of such Sales, after paying the Reward to the Officer, and the Charges of Condemnation, and other necessary Charges, for such Seizures as are made by any Officer of Excise, and Inland Duties, to be paid as now practised, in Lieu of the King's moiety; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And the better to prevent any Imbezilment of such Goods after Seizure, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Officer of the Customs, or other Person, shall be entitled to any Reward given on the Seizure of any such Goods by Virtue of this Act, unless Notice thereof be by him given to the next Officer of Excise, or to the Supervisor of the District where such Seizure shall be made, within forty-eight Hours after Seizure, who shall be obliged on such Notice to take a particular Account of the Species and Quantities of such Goods; nor shall such Goods be afterwards removed without a Permit or Certificate signed by such Officer of Excise and Inland Duties, or Supervisor of the Place or District from whence such Goods are to be removed, under the Penalties of such Goods being seized as as forfeited by any other Officers of the Customs, or by any Officer of Excise and inland Duties; and such Seizures shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered by Virtue of this Act, or any other Law now in Force relating to the Customs or Excise, and Inland Duties.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer of the Customs, Excise or Inland Duties, shall deal or trade in Tea, Coffee, or in Brandy, or other exciseable Liquors, such Officer shall not only lose his said Office or Employment, but also forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds to any Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and be likewise rendered incapable of having any Place or Employment in any Branch of his Majesty's Revenue for the future, which last Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh in Scotland respectively.

No Officer to deal in Tea, Coffee, Brandy, &c.

VIII. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any foreign Goods shall be seized for Nonpayment of Duties, or any other Cause of Forfeiture, and any Dispute shall arise, whether the Customs, Excise or Inland Duties have been paid for the same, or the same have been lawfully imported, or legally compounded for or condemned, or concerning the Place from whence such Goods were brought, then and in such Cases the Proof thereof shall lie on the Owner or Claimer of such Goods, and not on the Officer, who shall seize or stop such Goods; any Thing in an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office and House-Money, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Onus probandi for foreign Goods to lie on the Owner.

6 Geo. 1. c. 21.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to hinder the respective Officers, or other proper Persons, from suing for, prosecuting and recovering the several Penalties provided for by the several Laws as they now stand in Force, with respect to the Goods or Persons aforesaid.

Officers may sue as the Laws now stand in Force.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Tobacco seized for being prohibited, or for Non-payment of Duty, shall be after Condemnation publicly sold at such Places, as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland respectively shall think proper; and that the Officer, or other Person authorized, making such Seizure, shall for his Encouragement be allowed one third Part of the publick gross Sale of such Tobacco, free from all Charges of Condemnation and Sale.

Tobacco seized, to be sold, and Officer to have one third of the Sale.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Customs, if they shall think fit, may cause all such Tobacco, as will not sell publicly for the Duties, to be burnt or otherwise destroyed; and the Officer, or such other Person making such Seizure, to be rewarded in such Manner as they shall think proper, not to exceed one Penny per Pound Weight.

Tobacco that will not sell for the Duties, to be burnt, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the Produce of such Sales, after paying the Reward to the Seizor, and the Charges of Condemnation and Sales, to be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, in Lieu of his Majesty's Share; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Produce of the Sales after Charges, &c. to be paid into the Exchequer.

XIII. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Tobacco Stalks or Stems stripped from the Leaf, shall be prohibited to be imported; and on Seizure and Condemnation thereof the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs shall and may cause the same to be publicly burnt; and shall and may allow the Officer for his Encouragement, in making the Seizure, one Penny for every Pound Weight of such Stalks or Stems so seized and condemned, clear of all Charges of Condemnation.

Tobacco Stalks prohibited.

XIV. And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his present Majesty it is enacted, That every Ship, Vessel or Boat, of the Burthen of forty Tons or under, importing foreign Brandy, Arrack, Strong-Waters or Spirits, shall be forfeited, with all her Tackle, Furniture and Apparel; and after Condemnation thereof, the principal Officers of the Customs in the Port or Place, where the same shall be at the Time of Condemnation, are thereby directed to cause the Hull of such Ship, Vessel or Boat to be burnt and wholly destroyed: And whereas by the same Act it is likewise enacted, That if any Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley rowing, or made or built to row with more than four Oars, shall be found upon the Water, or in any Barge-house, Work-house, Shed, or other Place within any of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent or Essex, or in the River of Thames, either above or below London-Bridge, or within the Limits of the Ports of London, Sandwich or Ipswich, or the Members or Creeks to them or either of them respectively belonging (except as therein is excepted) such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, with all her Tackle and Furniture, shall be forfeited; and after Condemnation thereof, the principal Officers of the Customs in the Port or Place, where the same shall be at the Time of Condemnation, are thereby directed to cause such Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, to be burnt and wholly destroyed: And whereas it will be of Service to his Majesty in his Customs to have the Use of such Ships, Vessels, Boats, Wherries, Pinnaces, Barges or Galleys, to prevent the foul Traders carrying on their clandestine Designs, in importing prohibited Goods, and fraudulently landing Goods liable to the Payment of Duties, or relanding Goods after the same have been shipped for Exportation; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs to cause any such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley (except as before is excepted) which shall be seized for any of the Reasons aforesaid and condemned, to be used by the Officers of his Majesty's Customs, in case the same or any of them shall be found to be of Service, together with the Tackle, Furniture, Apparel and Materials belonging thereunto, the Officer or Officers who seized the same, being first paid his or their Share or Shares, according to the Direction of the before recited Act; any Law, Statute or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 Geo. 1. c. 18. Vessels of 40 Tons, or under, seized importing Brandy, &c. may be used by Customs Officers, &c.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs shall not think fit, for his Majesty's Service, to make use of any such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge or Galley, that then and in such Case the said Commissioners shall cause the principal Officers of the Customs, in the Port or Place where the same shall be at the Time of Condemnation, to see the Hull thereof burnt, as if this Act had never been made.

Except the Commissioners shall not think fit to use such Vessel.

Justices where Seizures are made to administer an Oath to Persons to view them, and return the Value, &c.

XVI. And whereas in Pursuance of several Acts of Parliament Informations are exhibited before the Justices of the Peace, on Seizures made by Officers of the Customs, Salt, Excise, or Inland Duties, of Goods clandestinely run, or being prohibited, and of Vessels, Boats, Carriages, Horses, and other Cattle, in order to their hearing and determining the same; and it being necessary in order thereunto, that a proper Valuation be put thereon before the same are condemned, agreeable to the Practice now used in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, of the County or Place where such Seizure shall be made, shall have Power to administer an Oath to such Person or Persons, as they think proper, who shall be skilled in the Nature and Value of the Goods, Vessels, Boats, Carriages, Horses, and other Cattle, mentioned to have been seized in the Information or Informations exhibited before any Justices of the Peace, to view the same, and to make a Return of the Species, Quantity, Quality, and Value thereof, to such Justices of the Peace, in a limited Time; and after the Goods, Vessels, Boats, Carriages, Horses, and other Cattle, shall be condemned by the Judgment of such Justices of the Peace, the same shall be publicly sold to the best Bidder, at such Places, and at such Times, as the said respective Commissioners shall think proper; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Searcher after Entry, to examine any Bale, whereon there is a Drawback, &c.

XVII. And for the better preventing Frauds in the entering for Exportation any Goods, whereon there is a Drawback, Bounty or Premium, or of Goods prohibited to be worn or used here, or Pepper, to the Prejudice of the Revenue; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Searcher, or other proper Officer of the Customs, after the Entry of any of the said Goods, and before or after the Shipping thereof, to open and strictly examine any Bale, Truss, Chest, or other Package, to see if the Goods are right entered; and if on such Examination the same shall be found to be right entered, the Searcher or other proper Officer shall, at his own Charge, cause the same to be re-packed (which Charge shall be allowed to the said Officer by the Commissioners of the Customs, if they think it reasonable) but in case the Officer shall on Examination find such Goods to be less in Quantity or Value than is expressed in the Exporter's Indorsement upon his Entry, or that shall be entered under a wrong Denomination, whereby his Majesty would have been defrauded, all such Goods may be seized, and the same shall be forfeited and lost, and the Owner or Merchant shall lose the Benefit of receiving the Drawback or Bounty for such Goods, and the Value thereof.

On Discovery of Fraud may seize.

Goods shipped for Exportation
without Warrant or Presence of Officer, forfeited.

XVIII. And whereas great Quantities of the Goods and Merchandizes, on which considerable Duties are due and payable to his Majesty, and divers other Sorts of Goods prohibited to be exported, are by evil-disposed Persons frequently shipped for Parts beyond the Seas, without the Presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue, and all fair Traders: For the preventing so great an Evil, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Goods or Merchandizes shall be shipped for Parts beyond the Seas without a Warrant, or without the Presence of an Officer of the Customs appointed for that Purpose, all such Goods and Merchandizes, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost; one Moiety whereof to the Use of his Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that will seize or sue for the same; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Goods brought into his Majesty's Warehouses remaining there six Months to be sold.

12 Ann. Stat. 2.
c. 3.

XIX. And whereas by an Act made and passed in the twelfth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, That the Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being shall in all Cases, where Goods are brought into his Majesty's Store-houses for Security of the Customs, or other Duties due thereon, and which shall have remained there for the Space of twelve Months, the Duties not paid, compounded for, or otherwise secured, cause them to be publicly sold, and the Produce to be applied as in the said Act is directed: And whereas it is found by Experience that the said Time is too long, several Goods being liable to Decay, and thereby lessened in their Value; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being, to cause all such Goods, which are or shall be brought into his Majesty's Warehouses, and shall have remained there for the Space of six Months, to be publicly sold, and the Produce to be applied as in the said Act is directed and appointed; any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Damaged Wines to be Warehoused and sold to be distilled into Brandy.

6 Geo. 1. c. 12.

XX. And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of his present Majesty, it is amongst other Things enacted, That any Merchant, or other Person, who shall find his Wine so damaged, corrupt or unmerchantable, and shall think fit to stave, spill, or otherwise destroy the same, shall, over and above the Duties, be allowed as a Compensation for the Freight, and other Charges, for every Ton of Wine of the Growth of Germany, or Wines which pay Duty as such, and of the Growth of France, the Sum of four Pounds; and Wines of the Growth of Spain, Portugal, or elsewhere, the Sum of eight Pounds per Ton; which Allowances have been by Experience found too great, several Persons having found it their Interest to import mean and corrupt Wines, for the Sake only of the said Allowances, to the lessening of his Majesty's Revenue: For the better preventing whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, to cause such Wines as any Merchant or other Person shall refuse to pay or secure the Duties for, as being damaged, corrupt or unmerchantable, to be received into the Custody of proper Officers of the Customs, together with the Casks or other Package containing the same, and put into proper Warehouses; and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to cause such Wines, instead of their being staved, spilled, or otherwise destroyed, by Virtue of the said Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, to be publicly sold, in order to be distilled into Brandy, or to be made into Vinegar, taking sufficient Security to his Majesty's Use, that such Wines be not made use of for any other Purpose whatsoever; such Security to be discharged on a proper Certificate, that such Wines have been so made use of within three Months after the same shall have been delivered out of such Warehouses; and the Commissioners of the Customs shall cause the Produce of such Sale, without Fee or Reward, to be paid to the Merchant, or other Person, as a Compensation for the Freight, and other Charges of such Wine, not exceeding the Allowances aforesaid; and in case there shall be any Overplus arising by such Sale, beyond the said Allowances for Freight, and other Charges, the said said Commissioners shall cause the same to be replaced to the Duties, out of which the Charges of Warehouse Rent, and other Charges attending the keeping and selling the said Wines, are or shall be paid; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. And whereas great Sums of Money are paid out of his Majesty's Duties of Customs on Account of Debentures for Tobacco, and other foreign Goods and Merchandizes shipt for Exportation to the Ile of Man; and it being found by Experience, that the greatest Part of such Tobacco, and other foreign Commodities, are shipt for the Ile of Man, with no other Intent than fraudulently to reland the same on the Coast of Great Britain or Ireland, by which evil Practices his Majesty's Revenues of Customs are very much lessened, and the fair Traders prejudiced and discouraged in their Trade: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Drawback shall be allowed for any Tobacco, or other foreign Goods or Commodities whatsoever, exported after the twenty-fourth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, from Great Britain or Ireland to the Ile of Man; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Drawback for Tobacco, or foreign Goods, to the Ile of Man, after 24 July 1726.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Tobacco, Wine, Brand, East-India, or other Goods or Commodities whatsoever, other than such as are of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of the Ile of Man, shall be brought from the said Island, after the said twenty-fourth Day of July, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or within the Limits of any Port thereto belonging, on any Pretence whatsoever; and in case any Ship, Vessel or Boat, having on Board any such Goods brought from the said Ile of Man (except as aforesaid) shall be found within the Limits of any Port of Great Britain or Ireland, or discovered to have been within the Limits of any Port of Great Britain or Ireland as aforesaid, whether Bulk has been broke or not, having such Goods on Board as aforesaid, such Ship, Vessel or Boat, together with the Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, and also all such Goods so found on Board, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost; and every Person who shall take any such Commodities (except as aforesaid) out of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, coming from the Ile of Man, within the Limits of any Port as aforesaid, or carry the same on Shore, or convey the same from the Shore when landed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or be aiding or assisting therein, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, or suffer six Months Imprisonment, at the Discretion of the Court, in which he shall be convicted of such Offence.

No Commodities, except of the Growth, &c. of the Ile of Man, to be brought into Great Britain or Ireland.

Penalty.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant or other Person shall, after the said four and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, enter any foreign Goods for Exportation, to Parts beyond the Seas, other than to the said Ile of Man, in order to obtain the Drawback for the same, and such Goods shall nevertheless be carried to the said Island and there landed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that then and in such Case, the Exporter of such Goods shall forfeit the Drawback, or the Amount thereof, paid or to be paid for the same, as also the treble Value of the said Goods; and the Master of the Ship or Vessel on Board which such Goods shall be shipt and landed as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall also suffer six Months Imprisonment, without Bail or Mainprize.

Entring foreign Goods for Exportation, to obtain a Drawback, and landing them in the Ile of Man.

the Penalty.

XXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, the Ile of Man shall be added to, and included in the Oath, upon all Debentures for foreign Goods exported, whereon the Exporter is to swear that such Goods are not landed, or intended to be landed in Great Britain, or Ireland respectively, without which the Officers of the Customs shall not suffer the Debentures to pass; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Ile of Man to be added to the Oath in all Debentures for foreign Goods exported.

XXV. And for the better enabling his Majesty to prevent the said Frauds and Abuses, in the exporting or importing Goods and Merchandizes to and from the Ile of Man, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being; or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, on the Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and also to and for the Right Honourable James Earl of Derby, his Tenants or Assigns, the Right Honourable John Lord Ashburnham, for and on Behalf of his Daughter Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham, an Infant, Bryan Fairfax, Esquire, Trustee for the said Infant, or the Survivor of them, and all or any other Person or Persons claiming or to claim by, from, or under the said Earl, or any of his Ancestors, to treat, contract and agree for the absolute Purchase or Sale, Release or Surrender, to or for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of all or any Estate, Right, Title or Interest, which be the said Earl, his Tenant, the said Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham, or such other Person or Persons now have or claim, or can or may have or claim in or to the said Island or Lordship of Man, or in or to all or any Regalities, Powers, Honours, Superiorities, Jurisdictions, Rights, Privileges, Duties, Customs, Revenues, Profits, or other Advantages whatsoever, in, over, or about the said Island of Man, or its Dependencies, for such Sum or Sums of Money, or upon such other Terms or Conditions as they shall think fitting; and that upon the executing of such Contracts or Agreements by or on the Behalf of the said Earl, his Tenants, the said Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham, or such other Person or Persons claiming or to claim under him, or any of his Ancestors as aforesaid, or upon executing such other Conveyances, Assignments, Releases or Surrenders, as in such Contract or Contracts shall be agreed on for that Purpose, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, and they are hereby impowered by and out of any Monies arisen or to arise to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of or for any Customs, Subsidies, Impositions, or other Duties upon the Importation or Exportation of any Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever already granted or payable, or hereafter to be granted or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Great Britain, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, to order and direct the Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money, from Time to Time, as shall be so contracted or agreed on for such Purchase or Purchases, to such Person or Persons as, according to the Terms of such Contracts or Agreements, shall be entitled to have and receive the same.

Treasury in Behalf of the Crown, may treat for the absolute Purchase of the Ile of Man.

Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham, notwithstanding her Minority, may convey her Estate therein.

XXVI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham, notwithstanding her Minority, city, by and with the Consent of the said John Lord Ashburnham her Father, and the said Bryan Fairfax, or the Survivor of them, to convey and assure all her Estate and Interest in the Isle of Man, and Premises aforesaid, or any Part thereof, pursuant to any Contract or Agreement, which shall be made by Virtue of the Powers in this Act given; and such Conveyance or Assurance shall be good and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham was of the full Age of one and twenty Years; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: And the Money to be paid as the Consideration of such Conveyance, shall be paid to such Person as the High Court of Chancery shall direct, and when paid, shall be laid out by the Direction of the said Court of Chancery for the Benefit of the said Henrietta Bridget Ashburnham, her Executors, Administrators and Assigns.

Persons in Prison on Information relating to the Customs, Excise or Salt, not pleading by the Space of one Term, Judgment to be entered by Default, and Execution awarded against Body and Estate.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-third Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, if any Person or Persons that now is or are, or shall be in Prison for want of sufficient Bail (such Person or Persons being taken by Capias or Capias's issued out of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, or any other his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Edinburgh) upon any Information or Informations exhibited in any of the said Courts against them or any of them, for having been aiding, assisting, or otherwise concerned in the unshipping out of any Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, Boat or Boats, with Intention to be laid on Land, any Sort of Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever, liable to the Payment of any Duties whatsoever, either Customs, Excise or Salt, or any Goods or Merchandizes prohibited to be imported into this Kingdom, or for having any such Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever knowingly come to his or their Hands; or upon any Information or Informations for Non-payment of Duties relating to the Customs, Excise or Salt-Duty; or upon any Information or Informations already exhibited, or to be exhibited in any of the said Courts, in Relation to any Fraud or Frauds about any Drawback or Certificate Goods or Merchandizes, or in Relation to any other Fraud or Frauds whatsoever, already committed or to be committed, in order to diminish or lessen the Revenue of the Customs, Excise or Salt-Duty, or upon any Penal Law or Statute whatsoever, relating to the said Revenues; and shall refuse or neglect to appear or plead to any such Information or Informations to be delivered to such Person or Persons, or to the Gaoler, Keeper or Turnkey of the Prison or Prisons, at the Prison or Prisons wherein such Person or Persons shall be confined or imprisoned for any of the said Offences, by the Space of one Term, Judgment shall be entered against him or them by Default; and in case Judgment shall be obtained against any such Person or Persons by Default, Verdict, or otherwise, and such Person or Persons shall not pay the Sum recovered against him or them for any of the said Offences, Execution shall be thereupon awarded and issued, not only against the Body or Bodies of such Person or Persons so in Prison as aforesaid, but also against all the Real and Personal Estate or Estates of such Person or Persons, though such Person or Persons continue in Prison for such Sum or Sums of Money so to be recovered against him or them; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Information to be filed for Recovery of any Penalty by the Laws of the Customs, &c. unless entered in the Attorney General's Name, or of some Officer.

XXVIII. And whereas great Quantities of prohibited Goods, and Goods liable to the Payment of Customs, Excise or Salt-Duty, are by evil-disposed Persons fraudulently landed in this Kingdom, and Goods pretended to be shipped outwards, entitled to a Drawback or Bounty, are frequently not shipped, or after the Shipping thereof relanded, whereby they become liable to several Penalties; but knowing themselves subject to be prosecuted for the said Offences, and that their fraudulent Practices may in Time be discovered, do frequently, before any Discovery can be made by the Officers of the Revenues, cause Informations to be entered and filed against themselves in some of the Courts at Westminster or Edinburgh, in the Name of some Person or Persons, on his, her or their Behalf; and if no Discovery be made of the said fraudulent Practices by the Officers of the Revenues, the said Informations are never prosecuted; but in case the said Frauds are discovered by any Officer or Officers of the Revenues, who thereupon enter and file real Informations against such Offender or Offenders, then either some secret Agreement or Agreements is or are made by such Offender or Offenders with such Person or Persons, who have filed or exhibited such Informations on the Behalf of such Offender or Offenders, or else a Plea or Pleas of Priority of Suit is or are pleaded in Bar of such Real Informations prosecuted by the Officers of the Revenues, whereby the said Offenders evade the several Penalties inflicted by Law, to the great Prejudice of the Crown, and also to the Discouragement of Real Prosecutions: For the Prevention of such fraudulent Practices, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-third Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, to enter, or cause or procure to be entered, filed or prosecuted, any Information or Informations in any of the said Courts against any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any Penalty or Penalties inflicted by any of the Laws of the Customs, Excise, and the Duty upon Salt, unless the same be entered, filed, and prosecuted in the Name of his Majesty's Attorney General, or in the Name or Names of some Officer or Officers of some or one of the aforesaid Revenues of Customs, Excise or Salt-Duty: And if any Information or Informations is or are entered in any other Person's Name or Names than as is before-mentioned, the same, and all Proceedings thereupon had, are hereby declared to be null and void; and the said Court or Courts where such Information or Informations is, are or shall be so entered, filed or prosecuted, shall not permit or suffer any Proceeding or Proceedings to be had thereupon, and shall cause such Information or Informations to be taken off the File; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Dealer in Cocoa-Nuts to dispose of less than 28 lb. at one Time,

XXIX. And for preventing the Frauds of such Chocolate Makers, who buying small Quantities of Cocoa-Nuts, do clandestinely make the same into Chocolate, and in like Manner sell and dispose of the Chocolate so made, without paying the inland Duty thereon, whereby his Majesty is defrauded of and in the said inland Duty on Chocolate; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, no Seller of, Trader or Dealer in Cocoa-Nuts, shall in any Parcel or Parcels sell, deliver out or dispose of less than the Quantity of twenty-eight Pounds Weight of Cocoa-Nuts at the least, at any one Time or Times; and further, that from Time to Time, and at all and every Time and Times, when such Seller of, Trader or Dealer in Cocoa-Nuts, shall either sell, deliver out or dispose of any Parcel or Parcels of Cocoa-Nuts, of twenty-eight Pounds Weight Weight or more, the Party or Parties so selling, delivering out or disposing of such Cocoa-Nuts, shall enter or cause to be entered down an Account in Writing, of the Christian and Surname and Names, and Place and Places of Abode of the Person and Persons to whom, or to or for whose Use, or for or upon whose Account such Cocoa-Nuts shall be so sold, delivered out or disposed of; and upon Demand or Request made by any Officer or Officers of and for the inland Duties on Chocolate, shall produce such Account or Accounts to such Officer or Officers, and shall permit him and them not only to inspect and peruse the same, but also thereout and therefrom to take an Account of the Name and Names, Place and Places of Abode of the Person and Persons to whom or for whose Use, or for or upon whose Account such Cocoa-Nuts shall be or shall have been sold, delivered out or disposed of, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of twenty Pounds for every Pound of Cocoa-Nuts, which shall either be sold, delivered out or disposed of in any Parcel or Parcels not containing or amounting in the Whole to twenty-eight Pounds of Cocoa-Nuts at the least, or which shall be, or shall have been so sold, delivered out or disposed of, without entering down, or causing to be entered down in such Account or Accounts in Writing as aforesaid, the Name and Names, and Place and Places of Abode, of the Person and Persons to whom or to or for whose Use, or for or upon whose Account such Cocoa-Nuts shall be or shall have been so sold, delivered out or disposed of; and on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of twenty Pounds every and each Time and Times, when such Seller of, Trader or Dealer in Cocoa-Nuts shall refuse to permit such Officer or Officers for the said inland Duties, to inspect and peruse such Account or Accounts as aforesaid, or thereout or therefrom to take such Account or Accounts as aforesaid.

and to enter in a Book, to whom all Cocoa-Nuts are sold, to be perused by the Officer.

Penalty.

No Officer of Excise subject to Penalty for not leaving a Copy of Charge, unless required in Writing.

No Action for such Offence, unless commenced before 27 April 1726.

Treasury may compound for Debts for the Customs of clandestinely imported Goods before 12 May 1723.

How Forfeitures to be recovered, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, no Gauger or Officer of his Majesty's Duties, either of Excise or of any other Duty, which at this Time are or hereafter shall be under the Management of his Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, either as Commissioners of Excise and Commissioners of other respective Duty or Duties, or as Commissioners of any such Duty or Duties, shall be liable or subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever, for omitting or neglecting to deliver or leave, or for not delivering or leaving a Copy or Copies of any Charge or Charges made by such Gauger or Gaugers, Officer or Officers, for or on Account of the said Duties or any of them respectively, unless such Copy or Copies shall by the respective Party or Parties entitled, or that shall be by Law entitled to have such Copy or Copies, or by his, her or their Order or Orders, be required and demanded in Writing, of and from such Gauger or Gaugers, Officer or Officers respectively; any Law or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Action, Bill, Information or Complaint, shall be brought or prosecuted against any such Gauger or Gaugers, Officer or Officers, for any such last mentioned Offence or Neglect, unless the same shall be commenced before the twenty-seventh Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six.

XXXII. And whereas Discoveries have been lately made of great Quantities of Foreign Goods, liable to the Payment of Customs, Excise or the Duties on Salt, which have been clandestinely imported without paying the same; but the Facts not being discovered within the Time prescribed by Law for Prosecutions to be commenced, for the Penalties by Law imposed for such Offences, his Majesty can only prosecute for the Duties in the Name of his Attorney General, by Informations in Nature of Actions of Debt, for Recovery thereof; and whereas several Persons against whom such Informations in Nature of Actions of Debt have been or may be brought, cannot pay the full Sum they are or may be sued for respectively, the same amounting in many Cases to very large Sums, but may be able to pay some Part thereof, in Case a Composition could be made with them for the same; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, to make such Compositions or Agreements, as to him or them shall seem reasonable, for any such Debts incurred by any Persons, for the Customs or other Duties of Goods so clandestinely imported as aforesaid before the twelfth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and upon Payment of the Composition-Money, to cause the Remainder of the Debt so compounded for, to be effectually discharged, and the Composition-Money so paid, to be applied or appropriated, in Proportion to the several Branches to which the same doth or may belong; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Forfeitures and Penalties by this Act imposed for any Offence which shall be committed, relating to any Part of his Majesty's Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, or inland Duties in Great Britain, shall be sued for, levied and recovered or mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty and Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated, by any Law or Laws relating to his Majesty's Revenues of Excise or any of them or by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively (except where it is otherwise provided for by this Act) and all Forfeitures and Penalties by this Act imposed for any Offence which shall be committed relating to any Part of his Majesty's Revenues under the Management of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively, except where it is otherwise provided for by this Act; and that all Forfeitures and Penalties hereby imposed for any Offence which shall be committed in the Kingdom of Ireland, contrary to this Act, shall be sued for, recovered and levied by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture is or may be sued for or recovered by Virtue of any Law or Laws in Force in Ireland, relating to his Majesty's Revenue there; and one Moiety of all such Forfeitures and Penalties imposed by this Act, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them who shall seize, inform or sue for the same, except in such Cases where it is otherwise directed by this Act.

General Issue.

XXXIV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be sued, molested or prosecuted for any Thing done by Virtue or in Pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence in his Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff shall discontinue his Action, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff.

I. FOR the more effectual preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Superior Court, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards; nor out of any Inferior Court, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings or upwards; and that in all Cases, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards in any such Superior Court, or to forty Shillings or upwards in any such Inferior Court (and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by the Way of Process against the Person) he, she or they shall not arrest or cause to be arrested, the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but shall serve him, her or them personally, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, with a Copy of the Process; and if such Defendant or Defendants shall not appear at the Return of the Process or within four Days after such Return, in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Affidavit being made, and filed in the proper Court, of the Personal Service of such Process as aforesaid (which said Affidavit shall be filed gratis) to enter a Common Appearance or file Common Bail for the Defendant or Defendants, and to proceed thereon, as if such Defendant or Defendants had entered his, her or their Appearance, or filed Common Bail; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, in all Cases, where the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs Cause of Action shall amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or forty Shillings or upwards as aforesaid, Affidavit shall be made and filed of such Cause of Action (which Affidavit may be made before any Judge or Commissioner of the Court, out of which such Process shall issue, authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, or else before the Officer who shall issue such Process or his Deputy, which Oath such Officer or his Deputy are hereby impowered to administer;) and for such Affidavit one Shilling over and above the Stamp-Duties shall be paid and no more; and the Sum or Sums specified in such Affidavit shall be indorsed on the Back of such Writ or Process, for which Sum or Sums so indorsed, the Sheriff or other Officer to whom such Writ or Process shall be directed, shall take Bail, and for no more: But if after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, any Writ or Process shall issue for the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards, and no Affidavit and Indorsement shall be made as aforesaid, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall not proceed to arrest the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but shall proceed in like Manner, as is by this Act directed in Cases where the Cause of Action does not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or forty Shillings or upwards as aforesaid.

III. Whereas the Statute made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the First, for the more effectual preventing the Delays and Expences occasioned by the Removal of small Causes out of inferior Courts, has been of late evaded and rendered ineffectual, by the Contrivance of vexatious Defendants, who by setting up a fictitious Action against themselves, for a pretended Demand of five Pounds or upwards, by such their Contrivance procure the smallest Actions to be removed by Writs of Habeas Corpus, out of the inferior into the superior Courts, whereby the Plaintiffs, in such small Actions, which will not bear the Expence of such superior Courts, are necessitated to submit to the Loss of their just Demands; Now for preventing such Abuses, and rendering the said Statute more effectual for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June the Judge or Judges of such inferior Courts, as are described in the said Statute, shall or may proceed in such Actions, Bills, Plaints, Suits or Causes as are therein specified, which appear or are laid, not to exceed the said Sum of five Pounds, although there may be other Actions against such Defendant or Defendants, wherein the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs Demands shall or may exceed the said Sum of five Pounds.

IV. And for avoiding the great Mischiefs and Abuses which arise from infamous and wicked Persons already convicted of wilful Perjury or Forgery, practising as Attornies or Solicitors, in Courts of Law and Equity; Be it enacted, That if any Person who hath been or who shall be convicted of Forgery, or of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or Subornation of Perjury, or common Barretry, shall, after the said four and twentieth Day of June, act or practise as an Attorney, or Solicitor or Agent, in any Suit or Action, brought or to be brought in any Court of Law or Equity, within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Judge or Judges of the Court, where such Suit or Action is or shall be brought, shall, upon Complaint or Information thereof, examine the Matter in a summary Way in open Court; and if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Judge or Judges, that the Person complained of, or against whom such Information shall be given, hath offended contrary to this Act, such Judge or Judges shall cause such Offender to be transported for Seven Years to some or one of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and in such Manner, and under such Pains and Penalties, as Felons in other Cases are by Law to be transported.

V. Provided always, That this Act or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

VI. Provided

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue Continuation. in Force for the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

For the Continuance of this Act see 5 Geo. 2. c. 27. Revised and made perpetual 21 Geo. 2. c. 3.

An Act for continuing an Act made in the ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil-disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice.

WHEREAS the Act herein after mentioned hath by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and is near expiring; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the ninth Year of his present Majesty's 9 Geo. 1. c. 23. Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil-disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice, which Act was to continue in Force for Act 9 Geo. 1. continued for 5 Years, &c. three Years from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and is hereby continued from the Expiration thereof, for and during the Space of five Years, and from thence to the 24 Geo. 2. c. 57. End of the then next Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for the better Regulating Trials by Nisi Prius in the County of Middlesex.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Queen 18 Eliz. c. 124 ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act for Trial of Nisi prius in the County of Middlesex, Power is respectively given to the Chief Justice of the King's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, and the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, and in the Absence or Default of any of them; to two other Judges or Barons of the same several Courts, where it shall happen either of the same Chief Justices, or Chief Baron for the Time being, to be absent, to try Issues as Justices of Nisi prius for the said County of Middlesex within the Term-Time, or within four Days next after the End of any Term; and whereas the restraining the Time for such Trials, after the Term; to four Days; hath frequently occasioned Delay of Justice, and the requiring the Presence of two Judges or Barons, in the Absence of any of them the said Chief Justices or Chief Baron, is found by Experience to be very inconvenient: For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of Easter Term in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Chief Justice of the King's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, and the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, and every of them respectively, and in the Absence or Default of any of them, to and for any other Judge or Baron of the said several Courts, where it shall happen either of the said Chief Justices, or the Chief Baron for the Time being, to be absent, as Justices of Nisi prius for the said County of Middlesex, within the Term or within the Space of eight Days after the End of any Term respectively, to try all such Issues, as by the said Act they or any of them are enabled to try, in such Place and Manner, and with and under such Powers, Authorities and Provisions, as in and by the said recited Act, or any other Act of Parliament or Law whatsoever concerning the Premises, are prescribed and contained; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The Chief Justices or Chief Baron, and in their Absence, any other Judge or Baron in Term, or within eight Days after, may try Issues of Nisi prius. See 24 Geo. 2. c. 18.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Sheriffs, Officers, Ministers, Parties, Witnesses, Jurors and other Persons whatsoever, who by the said recited Act were required to give Attendance upon the said Chief Justices and Chief Baron, or other Judges and Barons, or to make Return of Process, or do or execute any other Matters or Things whatsoever, relating to Trials to be had by Virtue of the said recited Act, shall be charged and obliged respectively to give their Attendance, make Return of Process, and do and execute all other Matters and Things whatsoever relating to any Trials to be had by Virtue of this Act, in the like Manner, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as in or by the said recited Act are expressed or provided, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same and every of them had been repeated and inserted in this present Act.

Sheriffs, &c. are to give Attendance, &c. as by 18 Eliz. provided.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act for better securing the Monies and Effects of the Suitors of the Court of Chancery; and to prevent the Counterfeiting of East-India Bonds, and Indorsements thereon; as likewise Indorsements on South-Sea Bonds.

WHEREAS the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain did, on the twenty-sixth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred twenty and five, make an Order for the Masters of the High Court of Chancery to deliver into the Bank of England the Money, Bonds, Tallies, Orders and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court under their respective Care and Direction, and for other Matters therein contained: And whereas the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain did, by an Order dated the fourth Day of November following, direct the said Order of the said twenty-sixth Day of May to be kept and observed, with the Explanations, Alterations and Additions in the said Order of the fourth of November contained, and did thereby extend the said Orders to the Usher of the said Court, and also to all the Effects of the Suitors under the Care of the said Court: And whereas the Ordering Part of the said Order of the twenty-sixth Day of May is verbatim recited and contained in the said Order of the fourth of November, and the said Order of the fourth of November is as follows:

Jovis quarto die Novembris one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five.

Ordo Curiae.

Whereas the Right Honourable the late Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, taking into their serious Consideration the ill Consequence and great Prejudice, which already had, and might hereafter ensue to the Suitors of this Court, by having their Monies left in the sole Power of the Masters of this Court; and likewise conceiving that the Bonds, Tallies, Orders and Effects of the Suitors under the Direction of the said several Masters, then locked up in the Vault of the Bank of England in several Chests, under the Care of the said Masters respectively, and of two of the six Clerks, might be as safely deposited with the Bank of England in the Manner herein after mentioned: And to the End that the Money of the Suitors might be secured for their Use and Benefit, with the least Charge and Inconvenience to them, and that they might receive further Satisfaction in relation thereto, and how the same should be applied and disposed of, their Lordships did on the twenty-sixth Day of May last order and direct in the Words following:

Masters, &c. to open their Chests in the Bank, and make a Schedule of all Bonds, &c. and deliver them over to the Bank.

" That every Master of this Court, together with the said six Clerks, do go to the Bank of England, and open their respective Chests, and that the said Masters, together with the said six Clerks and one of the Cashiers of the Bank, do make a true and perfect Schedule of all the Bonds, Tallies, Orders and Effects deposited in the said several Chests, specifying their respective Numbers, Dates and Sums, and likewise of the Cash deposited therein, and do by such Schedule deliver over the same to the Bank of England, and that at the Time of such Delivery each Master shall receive from the Bank a Certificate of the Receipt of the Bonds, Tallies, Orders and Effects, and likewise of the Cash so delivered by each Master respectively, under the Seal of the Bank of England, and that such Certificate be carried by each Master to the Report-Office, and there filed; and that such Bonds, Tallies, Orders and Effects, and Cash be entred causewise in Books to be kept by each Master in the Report-Office; and that such Masters as have been deficient in bringing in their Balance of Cash are hereby required to enter the same, but not causewise, till they shall have severally made good their whole Deficiencies, and that likewise there be entred in such Books causewise, the several Stocks of which the Masters have already declared Trusts in the said several Company's Books, and that an exact Duplicate of such Books be kept with the Bank by each respective Master.

Bank to receive the Interest on such Bonds, &c.

" And it is further ordered, That the Bank shall at all Times hereafter receive all Interest due upon such Bonds, Tallies and Orders, as likewise the Dividend of all such Stocks in the Company's Books, of which the Masters have declared Trusts for the Suitors of this Court; and that the Masters do for that Purpose, by a proper Authority, authorize and empower one of the Cashiers of the Bank to receive the same, and that from Time to Time such Interest of Money and Dividends of Stock be entred in the respective Master's Accounts, to be so kept with the Bank in the said Books, and that the Masters shall at the End of every Term draw out of their respective Books at the Bank, an Account in Writing of the Interest and Dividends so received and entred in their Accounts, and enter the same causewise in their respective Books at the Report-Office.

Masters to bring in their Balance of Cash.

" And it is further ordered, that the several Masters, instead of the Stock and Annuities, of which they have declared Trusts to answer their Balance of Cash, shall bring in their Balance of Cash, and deposit the same with the Bank.

When Money, &c. shall hereafter be taken into the Care of the Court, Master to direct it into the Bank.

" And it is further ordered, That when any Money or Tallies, Orders or Bonds, at or after the hearing of any Cause, shall hereafter be taken under the Care and Direction of this Court, the Master named by the Order shall direct the Payment of such Money, or the Delivery of such Tallies, Orders and Bonds into the Bank, and upon Payment or Delivery thereof accordingly, the Monies so paid, and the Orders, Tallies and Bonds so delivered, shall be entred in the Masters Accounts kept with the Bank; but the Masters shall have no Power to issue any Money entred in their said Accounts, or to direct any of the said Securities to be delivered out, but the same shall be ordered to be paid or delivered to the Suitors, in Manner herein after mentioned.

The Party paying, to take a Certificate from a Cashier, and deliver it to the Master.

" And it is further ordered, That when any Money shall be paid, or Tallies, Orders or Bonds delivered into the Bank, pursuant to the Directions aforesaid, the Party so paying such Money, or delivering in such Tallies, Orders or Bonds, shall take a Certificate from one of the Cashiers of the Bank, of his paying and delivering in of the same, and of their being placed to the proper Master's Account; and shall carry the said Certificate to such Master, who shall thereupon make his Report of the Payment of such Money, or Delivery of such Tallies, Orders and Bonds into the Bank, and file the same at the Report-Office; and that the Clerk of the said Office do enter the same in the Master's Book causewise, and place the same to the proper Account of the respective Master there.

Money directed to be laid out on Government Securities.

" And it is further ordered, That when any Money shall hereafter be directed to be laid out on Government Securities, the Species of the particular Securities, in which the same shall be directed to be invested, be for the Future mentioned in the Order: And in case any of them shall consist of East-India Bonds, South-Sea Bonds or Exchequer-Tallies and Orders, the same shall be delivered in at the Bank, of which Delivery such Certificate shall be given to such Master, by one of the Cashiers of the Bank as aforesaid, and proper Entries thereof shall be made in the Account of the Master mentioned in such Order; and if any such Securities shall consist of Stock in any of the said Companies, such Stock is to be transferred to such Master, who shall make a Declaration of Trust in the Companies Books, That the same is subject to the Orders of this Court, and shall take a Certificate thereof from the proper Officer of the respective Company, and likewise enter the same into his Book at the Bank, that the Bank may receive the Dividends thereupon, and shall also make a Report of all such Securities; which Certificate and Report shall be filed at the Report-Office, and therein mention and specify the same Dates and Numbers of such Bonds, Tallies and Orders, and Quantities of Stock, and of the Time of the Transfer of such Stock to him, and the Clerk of the Report-Office is to enter the Dates, Sums and Numbers of the Bonds, Tallies and Orders, and Quantities of Stock in such Report mentioned, in the proper Master's Books kept there.

When Securities are directed to be delivered out of the Bank, Register to certify.

" And it is further ordered, That when any Securities deposited or to be deposited at the Bank, shall be directed by Order of Court to be delivered out, the Register shall certify to the Master what Security is to be delivered out, together with the Numbers, Dates and Sums of such Securities, and the Name of the Cause wherein the same is to be delivered out; which Certificate the Clerk in Court, or Solicitor in the Cause, shall deliver to the Master, who shall countersign the same, and such Certificate so countersigned, shall be a proper Authority for the Bank to deliver over such Security, and enter the Delivery of such “ such Securities in the Master's Accounts causewise: And it is hereby declared to be the Duty of the Master to supervise such Entry, and to certify the same into the Report-Office, there to be filed.

“ And for ascertaining the Times for the delivering out and taking in of Bonds, Tallies and Orders, by the Bank, It is hereby ordered, That the same shall be so taken in and delivered out, on Wednesdays and Fridays in every Week, between the Hours of Ten in the Forenoon and One in the Afternoon, and the Master shall receive from the Suitor the usual Fees for making the Report and filing the same, and no more, and shall answer the Fee for filing the Report to the Report-Office.

Wednesdays and Fridays appointed for taking in and delivering out Bonds, &c.

“ And it is further ordered, That when any Stock in any of the Companies Books (of which any of the Masters have, or shall declare Trusts for any of the Suitors) shall be ordered to be transferred by any of the Masters to the Suitors, the Register shall certify under his Hand to the Master, what Stock he is by such Order to transfer, and to whom; which Certificate the Clerk in Court, or Solicitor in the Cause, shall carry to the Master, who shall, within one Week, or at the then next Opening of the respective Companies Books, attend in Person, and deliver such Certificate to the proper Officer of such Company, and transfer such Stock, or give sufficient Authority to some other Person so to do.

When Stock is to be transferred to Suitors, Register to certify:

“ And it is hereby declared, That such Certificate shall be an Authority to the respective Companies, to permit the said Master, or other Persons by them lawfully authorized, to transfer such Stocks, of which Transfer the Master is hereby ordered and directed to make his Report, and procure the same to be filed in the Report-Office, for the making and filing of which Report the Master shall receive from the Suitor the usual Fees, and answer the Fee for filing of the Report to the Report-Office; and the Transfer of such Stock shall be certified by the Master to the Bank, in order that such Stock may be discharged out of the Account of the Master in his Book there.

His Certificate sufficient for Masters to transfer.

“ And it is further ordered, That when any Money belonging to the Suitors of this Court, received by the Bank, pursuant to this or any other Order for that Purpose made, shall be directed to be paid by Order of this Court, the Clerk in Court, or Solicitor in the said Cause, do carry the said Order to the Master, who shall forthwith make a Certificate thereof, which Certificate such Clerk or Solicitor shall forthwith file in the Report-Office; and that the Master do by Note under his Hand draw on the Bank, for so much Money as shall be so directed to be paid, upon Cheque Paper fairly written, and signed by the Master, which Note of the Master shall be carried to the Report-Office, and an Entry made thereof in the Master's Book there, and Intratur shall be written thereon, and signed by the Register; which Note so entred and signed shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay such Money to the Person mentioned in such Note, or to such Person as he or she by Indorsement shall order to receive the same, as likewise to write off the same from such Master's Account there; but when any Sum of Money shall be directed to be paid to any Suitor out of such Money, so to be received by the Bank, for Interest or Maintenance, the Master shall by Note under his Hand upon Cheque Paper, without any Certificate, draw on the Bank for the same; and such Note being signed by the Master, and entred in the Report-Office, and countersigned by the Register, as is before directed, shall be a proper Authority for the Bank to pay the same.

How the Money is to be paid to the Suitors.

“ And it is further ordered, That Mr. John Bennett, Mr. Conway, Mr. Kinaston and Mr. Thomas Bennett do in their Books to be kept in the Report-Office, and at the Bank, enter their respective Deficiencies of their Balance of Cash, and do forthwith sell the several Estates and Effects that they have conveyed and assigned to Mr. Holford, and that the Money arising by the Sale thereof be by the Purchasers paid into the Bank, and that the said Masters do immediately pay and make good their said Deficiencies; and in Default thereof, upon Application to be made by the said Suitors by Petition (for which Petition no Fee or Reward shall be taken) the Court will make such further Order for their Relief as shall be just.

Mr. Bennett, &c. to enter their Deficiencies of Cash.

“ And it is hereby further ordered, That Mr. Edwards do forthwith make up the Account of what he has received of the Effects of Mr. Dormer, and how the same has been paid out, when, to whom, and by what Order: And that Mr. Thurston do make up the Account of what he hath received of the Effects of Mr. Borrett, and what he hath paid out to the Suitors of the Court, when, to whom and by what Order; and that such Accounts be entred in their respective Books at the Report-Office; and whatever shall be remaining in their Hands due to the Suitors of the Court, out of the Effects of Mr. Dormer or Mr. Borrett, or shall hereafter come to their Hands out of the said Effects, shall be by the said Mr. Edwards and Mr. Thurston respectively paid into the Bank, and entred in distinct Accounts, to be kept there, and upon Petition by the Suitors, to whom such Money shall belong (for which Petition no Fee or Reward shall be taken) the Court will make such further Order therein, as shall be just.

Mr. Edwards and Mr. Thurston to make up the Accounts of Mr. Dormer and Mr. Borrett's Effects.

“ And it is further ordered, That every Master do, on the first Day of every Term, give an Account in Writing to the Secretary of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the Time being, of all Monies and Securities, or Stocks that they have issued or transferred in the respective Causes before them since their last Account, together with the Dates of such Orders, and that the Masters do diligently, from Time to Time, compare such Account with their Books kept at the Report-Office, and at the Bank.

Masters, the first Day of Term, to give an Account to Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Monies transferred since last Account.

“ And it is further ordered, That all the present Masters of this Court, and every other Person who shall hereafter be admitted and sworn as a Master of this Court, and all other Persons whatsoever, do in all Things conform to and observe this Order, and all Matters and Things herein contained.

All Masters to conform to these Orders.

“ And it is further ordered, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall receive or take any Fee or Reward for doing or transacting any Business, Matter or Thing in Pursuance of this Order, other than the Masters of this Court, and the Clerk of the Report-Office respectively; and the Masters shall only take the same Fee for a Certificate as they have been intitled to for a Report, and no more; and the Clerk of the Report-Office shall only take the same Fee for filing the Certificate or Report, as the Clerk of the Report-Office has been intitled unto for filing the same; and that any Person presuming to take any new Fee or Reward, shall be looked upon as guilty of Extortion, and upon Complaint thereof made to the Court shall be punished with the utmost Severity.

No Fee, except to Master and Clerk of the Report-Office.

“ And it is further ordered, That this Order be forthwith published, and set up in all the Offices belonging to this Court concerned in this Order.

And whereas the said Order is for the Benefit and Security of the Suitors of this Court, and may be further improved to that End, by the several Alterations, Additions and Explanations herein after contained: Therefore it is now ordered by the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, That the said Order of the twenty-sixth Day of May last, wherein it is not herein after varied or altered, shall be firmly kept and observed, together with the Explanations, Alterations and Additions following.

This Order to be firmly kept, not hereby altered.

Masters to bring in Accounts of all Monies, &c.
for which they are answerable, not included in former Accounts, and deliver them over to the Bank,
&c.

And it is hereby ordered and directed, That all the Masters of this Court do forthwith bring in, and leave with the Register of this Court, compleat Accounts, home to the Time of bringing in such Accounts, of all Monies, Stocks, Bonds, Tallies, Mortgages, Securities and other Effects belonging to any of the Suitors of this Court, in their respective Hands, Custody or Power, or for which they are respectively answerable, and not included in any of their Accounts formerly delivered into the Register's Office; and that all the said Masters do forthwith, by Schedule, deliver over to the Bank of England, all Sums of Money, Bonds, Notes, Orders, Tallies, Deposits, Securities and other Effects in any wise belonging to the Suitors of this Court, in their respective Hands, Power or Custody, or for which they are answerable, Mortgages only excepted; and shall also specify in such Schedule, the several Annuities and Stocks which each of them respectively by himself, or jointly with others, hath in Trust for any of the Suitors of this Court; and that at the Time of the Delivery of such Money and other Effects, such Master shall receive from the Bank, a Certificate of the Receipt thereof, and also of the said Specification of the said Annuities and Stocks, under the Seal of the Bank of England; and that such Certificate be carried by each Master to the Report-Office, and there filed; and that such Sums of Money, Bonds, Notes, Annuities, Stocks and other Securities and Effects of the Suitors, shall be entred causewise in Books kept by each Master in the Report-Office, and in the Bank, except as to such Masters who are deficient in their Balance of Cash; which deficient Masters are hereby required to enter the same in their respective Books, left at the Bank and at the Report-Office, but not causewise, till they shall severally have made good their Deficiencies, except such Securities or Stocks as were specifically appropriated, or Trusts declared, to or for any of the Suitors of this Court; which said Stocks and Securities such deficient Masters, as well as the other Masters, are respectively to enter in their said respective Books causewise; and the Bank is to receive the Interest, Produce and Dividends of all the said Securities, Annuities and Stocks, as also the Interest, Produce and Dividends due or hereafter to be due on all Stocks, Bonds, Tallies, Orders, Annuities and other Securities, whereof any of the Masters of this Court are now possessed, or hereafter shall be possessed of, in Trust for the Suitors of this Court, or have already declared, or at any Time hereafter shall declare any Trust for any of the said Suitors; and that each Master of the Court do, from Time to Time, empower one of the Cashiers of the Bank to receive the same; and that from Time to Time such Interest, Produce and Dividends shall be entred in the respective Master's Accounts at the Bank; and that at least at the End of every Term, but oftner if there be Occasion, the Bank shall certify causewise to each Master the several Sums so received, respectively belonging to the Suitors of this Court, under such Master's respective Care and Inspection, to the End that each Master may make like Entries in the respective Books kept by themselves, and likewise deliver a Copy thereof to the Clerk of the Report-Office, who is forthwith to cause the same respectively to be entred causewise in the respective Master's Books at the Report-Office: And as to Mortgages, which any of the Masters of this Court have now singly by themselves, or jointly with others, in Trust for the Suitors of this Court, the particular Trust shall be indorsed on the Back of the Mortgage Deed, if it be not so already indorsed, or inserted in the Body of the Deed; and as to all such future Mortgages, the particular Trusts shall be inserted in the Body of the Mortgage-Deed; and all Interest and Principal to be hereafter paid in on all such Mortgages, shall, by the Party paying, be paid into the Bank, in Manner and Form as is herein after directed concerning the Payment of Money into the Bank.

When Money,
&c. is directed to be paid in, the Master to certify the Date of the Order,
&c.

And whereas in and by the said recited Order it is ordered, That when any Money, Tallies, Orders or Bonds, at or after the hearing of any Cause, should be thereafter taken under the Care and Direction of this Court, the Master named by the Order should direct the Payment of such Money, or the Delivery of such Tallies, Orders and Bonds into the Bank, with other Provisions therein contained: Now, for the explaining and enlarging the said Part of the said Order, It is hereby further ordered, That all Monies, Tallies, Orders, Bonds, Securities or other Effects of the Suitors of this Court, by any former Order directed to be brought in before, paid or delivered to, any Master of this Court, which have not yet been so paid in or delivered, and also all Monies, Tallies, Orders, Bonds, Securities and Effects, either before, at or after the Hearing of any Cause to be hereafter directed to be taken under the Care of, or to be brought before, or delivered in, or paid to any Master of this Court, shall not be brought before, delivered or paid to such Master; but when any Security, Sum of Money or other Effects are ready to be delivered or paid in, in Obedience to any such Order, the Master to whom the Cause stands referred, or to whom, or by whom the Delivery or Payment is directed to be made, shall, on Application by the Party interested, his Clerk in Court, or Solicitor in the Cause, certify the Date of such Order, and the Sum of Money, Tallies, Orders, Bonds, Deposits, Securities and other Effects then to be paid or delivered in upon such Order, and the Name of the Cause, to the Account of which the same is to be placed; and upon the said Party's, or his Clerk in Court, or Solicitor's delivering such Certificate, and Payment of such Money, or delivering of such Tallies, Orders, Bonds, Securities or other Effects into the Bank, the same shall be entred in the respective Master's Accounts in the Bank, and be under the same Regulations, as in the said recited Order, and herein after is prescribed.

Master's Note for paying Money out of the Bank, to be within a Month
after Date, &c.

And whereas, according to the Method prescribed by the said recited Order, for the Payment of any Money out of the Bank, belonging to the Suitors of this Court, the Master observing the Regulations in the said recited Order contained, is by Note under his Hand, to draw on the Bank, for such Money as shall be ordered by this Court to be paid, which Note is to be first carried to the Report-Office: Now it is hereby further ordered, That such Note shall be so limited to be paid within a Month after Date; and that if it be not paid within such Time, the Note shall be void; and that when such Note is carried to the Report-Office, there shall be also carried with it the Order whereby such Payment was directed to be made, and an Entry shall be made in the Master's Book at the said Office, not only of the said Note, but also a Memo-randum that it was drawn by Virtue of such Order, and thereupon an Intratur is to be made, and such other Proceedings had, as in the said recited Order are for that Purpose prescribed.

Clerk of the Report-Office to enter in Master's Books the delivering out of Securities at the Bank.

Mr. Godfrey subjected to the Orders relating to deficient
Masters.

And whereas by the said recited Order it is directed, That where Securities deposited or to be deposited with the Bank shall be delivered out, proper Entries shall be made thereof in the Master's Accounts at the Bank causewise, of which Entries Certificates shall be filed in the Report-Office; but no Provision is made in such Order for the like Entry in the Master's Books in the Report-Office: It is therefore ordered, That when the Masters do at any Time hereafter certify to the Report-Office such Entry, of the delivering out of such Securities as aforesaid, the Clerk of the Report-Office shall make Entries according to such Certificate in the respective Master's Books kept in that Office, of the delivering out such Securities as aforesaid.

And whereas since the making of the said Order of the twenty-sixth Day of May last, Richard Godfrey, Esq; one of the Masters of this Court, hath been deficient in bringing in his Balance of Cash, and is now a deficient Master: It is therefore hereby ordered, That the said Richard Godfrey, and his Estate, and the Monies, Securities and Effects of the Suitors in his Hands, Custody or Power, or under his Care, shall be subject subject to the same Methods, Rules, Orders and Regulations, as are in and by this and the said recited Order prescribed and appointed, in Relation to the deficient Masters.

And forasmuch as no Directions or Provisions are laid down in the said Order relating to the Stocks, Securities, Monies or Effects of or belonging to the Suitors of this Court, in the Name, Hands or Custody, or under the Care of the Usher of this Court, and to the Intent that due Caution may be taken touching such Stocks, Securities, Monies and Effects, and one uniform Method may be observed: It is therefore further ordered, That the Usher of this Court do, as to all Stocks and Annuities of the Suitors of this Court, standing in his Name, forthwith deliver into the respective Companies a Declaration in Writing, that such Stocks and Annuities are in Trust to answer the Orders of this Court; and the said respective Companies are to take Care that proper Entries be made thereof in their Books, so that such Stocks or Annuities be not transferred, but by Order or Leave of the Court; and that the said Usher do forthwith bring in and leave with the Register of this Court a compleat Account, home to the Time of bringing it in, of all Monies, Stocks, Bonds, Tallies, Mortgages, Securities and other Effects belonging to any of the Suitors of this Court, in his Hands, Custody or Power, or for which he is answerable; and that he do likewise forthwith, by Schedule, deliver over to the Bank of England causewise, all Sums of Money, Bonds, Notes, Orders, Tallies, Deposits, Securities and other Effects of the Suitors of this Court, in his Hands, Custody or Power, or for which he is answerable, Mortgages only excepted; and do also specify in such Schedule the several Annuities and Stocks which stand in his Name, or he hath either singly, or jointly with others, in Trust for any of the Suitors of this Court; and that he do receive from the Bank a Certificate of the Receipt of such Schedule, and carry the same to the Report-Office, and there file it; and that such Sums of Money, Bonds, Notes, Annuities, Stocks and other Securities and Effects of the Suitors, shall be entred causewise in Books kept by the Usher in the Report-Office, and in the Bank; and that the like Method and Manner be in these Particulars observed by the Usher, as in and by this Order, and the said recited Order is prescribed to the Masters of this Court; and the Bank is to receive the Interest, Produce and Dividends of all the said Securities, Annuities and Stocks, as also of all Stocks, Bonds, Tallies, Orders, Annuities and other Securities, whereof the Usher is or shall be possessed in Trust, for any of the Suitors of this Court, or hath, or shall declare any Trust for them, the Usher authorizing one of the Cashiers of the Bank to receive the same; and such Entries are to be made thereof, and such Rules to be observed, as herein, and in the said recited Order are set down, to and for the Masters of this Court; and as to Mortgages, which the Usher of this Court, either singly or jointly, now hath, or hereafter may have in Trust for the Suitors of this Court, the same Rules and Methods shall be observed by the Usher, as in the like Cases are herein before prescribed to the Masters.

Usher of the Court his Duty.

And it is hereby further ordered, That where any Money, Tallies, Orders, Bonds, Mortgages, Securities and other Effects of the Suitors of this Court, have by any former Order been directed to be brought into this Court, or to be brought before, paid or delivered to the said Usher, and have not been yet so brought before, paid or delivered, the same and also all Monies, Tallies, Orders, Bonds, Securities and other Effects, either before, at or after the Hearing of any Cause to be hereafter ordered or directed to be brought into this Court, or to be taken under the Care of the Usher, shall not be brought before, delivered in or paid to the Usher, but shall be paid or delivered into the Bank of England, under the Regulations, and in the Manner as the Masters are herein, and in the said recited Order required to do; and the Usher shall on his Part, in all Things relating hereunto, act in like Manner as the Masters are in such Cases obliged to do.

Where Money, &c. has been ordered to be paid to the Usher, it shall be paid into the Bank.

And it is likewise further ordered, That if any Money or Effects of the Suitors of this Court, shall by the Usher, or in his Name, be laid out or invested in any Bonds, Tallies, Orders, Stocks, Annuities or other Securities, the same Methods, Orders and Regulations shall be observed by the Usher and others, in Relation thereto, as hereby, and by the said recited Order, are in like Cases prescribed, by the Masters.

Usher to observe the like Orders as the Masters relating to Bonds, &c.

And it is also further ordered, That when any Stocks or Annuities in the Name of the Usher shall be hereafter transferred, or any Deposits, Money, Interest or Dividends, or other Thing contained in the said Usher's Account, shall be paid or delivered out of the Bank, the same Method shall be observed, and the said Usher and all others, shall act and do in all Things relating thereto, as the Masters of this Court are hereby appointed to do; and in general the same Rules, Methods, Orders and Regulations, which are hereby and by the said recited Order directed and prescribed to be observed, performed and done by and to the Masters of this Court, with Respect to the Monies, Stocks, Bonds, Mortgages, Tallies, Orders, Annuities, Securities and other Effects of the Suitors of this Court, in their Name, or under their Inspection and Care, shall be in like Cases, mutatis mutandis, observed, performed and done by and to the Usher of this Court, with Respect to the Monies, Stocks, Bonds, Mortgages, Tallies, Orders, Annuities, Securities and other Effects of the Suitors of this Court, in his Name, or under his Inspection or Care.

or in transferring Deposits in the Bank.

And forasmuch as the Usher of this Court hath usually had and received, upon the Payment of any Money or Effects into his Hands, pursuant to the Order of this Court, two Shillings for every Receipt or Certificate by him signed, testifying the Receipt of such Money or Effects, and hath also usually had and received two Pence in the Pound of all Monies or Effects paid or delivered out by him to the Suitors of this Court; therefore it is further ordered, When any Money or Effects belonging to the Suitors of this Court, paid into the Bank in the Name or on Account of the Usher, shall be directed to be paid out by the Order of this Court, and the Usher is to make a Certificate thereof, to be filed in the Report-Office, the said Usher shall have and receive two Shillings for signing such Certificate; and for every Draught that he shall make on the Bank, he shall at the Time of such Draught receive two Pence in the Pound of all Money contained in such Draught, Draughts for Interest or Maintenance excepted; and if the said Usher shall presume to take any other Fee or Reward, he shall be looked upon as guilty of Extortion, and upon Complaint thereof made to the Court, shall be punished with the utmost Severity.

Usher's Fee.

And to the End that the Directions herein before given may from henceforth be uniformly observed, It is hereby further ordered, That in all Orders to be hereafter made, relating to the Monies or Effects of the Suitors of this Court, the several Rules and Directions of this Order shall be observed and followed, although the same should not be particularly expressed in any such future Order.

In all Orders hereafter to be made, the Rules of this Order to be observed.

And it is further ordered, That this Order be forthwith published and set up in all the Offices belonging to this Court, concerned in this Order.

This Order to be published.

Intr. Edw. Goldesbrough Dep. Reg.

II. And whereas in Pursuance of the said Orders several of the Effects of the Suitors of the said Court have been delivered into the Bank of England, and the said Method is for the Benefit and Security of the Suitors, and fit to be observed, subject nevertheless to such Alterations and other Regulations, as may at any Time hereafter, from the Exigency or Circumstances of Affairs, be found reasonable or proper by the said High Court of Chancery; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said two Orders of the High Court of Chancery be confirmed, and that the same shall be henceforward observed and kept, unless in such Points as shall be varied in this present Act, or shall at any Time hereafter be varied or changed by the High Court of Chancery, according as the said Court shall, from the Exigency or Circumstances of Affairs, judge reasonable or proper.

The said two Orders confirmed.

An Accountant General of the Court of Chancery appointed.
12 Geo. 2. c. 24.

III. And to the End the Account between the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery and the Bank of England may be the more regularly and plainly kept, and the State of such Account may be at all Times seen and known, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be one Person appointed by the High Court of Chancery, to act, perform, and do all such Matters and Things relating to the Delivery of the Suitors Money and Effects into the Bank, and taking them out of the Bank, and the keeping the Accounts with the Bank, and all other Matters relating thereto, as in and by the said recited Orders, or either of them, are prescribed and directed to be done and performed by the Masters and Usher of the said High Court of Chancery, which said Officer so to be appointed shall be called the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, and shall hold such Office during the Pleasure of the said Court; and an Account shall be kept in his Name with the Bank of England for and on the Behalf of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, in such Manner as is directed by the said recited Orders, with respect to the Masters of the said Court and the Bank; and the same Rules, Methods and Directions, as are prescribed by the said Orders to the Suitors, the Masters, Usher and Bank, as to the delivering into, and taking out of the Bank the Monies and Effects of the Suitors, and other Matters therein contained, shall be observed by the Suitors, the Bank, and the said Accountant General, unless where the Court of Chancery shall, according to the Exigency and Circumstances of Affairs, otherwise determine and appoint.

Accountant to be in the Place of the Masters and Usher of the Court.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Accountant General shall, as to the several Regulations and Directions prescribed in the said Orders, stand and be in the Place and Room of the Masters and Usher of the said Court, and shall receive no other Fee or Reward from the Suitors for the Exercise of his said Office, than what is allowed to the Masters in and by the said Order of the twenty-sixth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; and the several Masters and Usher of the Court of Chancery, their Executors and Administrators, are hereby required with convenient Speed, to make up their several Accounts with the said Accountant General, or any other Person thereunto authorized by the Court of Chancery, of all the Monies, Securities and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court in their Custody, or under their Direction or Care; and to pay and deliver into the Bank all Monies, Deposits and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court yet remaining in their several Hands, there to be carried to the Account of the said Accountant General, and to be placed causewise or otherwise, as is already, or shall hereafter be directed by the said Court; and all Monies, Deposits and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court, already deposited with or delivered to the Bank by the said Masters or Usher, or on their Account, shall in like Manner be carried to the Account of the said Accountant General, and be placed causewise or otherwise, as is already or shall hereafter be directed by the said Court; and the said Masters and Usher, their Executors and Administrators, shall be indemnified and discharged of and from all Monies, Deposits and Effects of the said Suitors, so paid or delivered into the Bank as aforesaid.

Mortgages, &c. now in the Name of Masters, &c. assigned to the Accountant.

V. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Mortgages, Callies, Orders, Stocks, Annuities, and other transferrable Securities, now in the Name of any of the said Masters or Usher, either singly by themselves, or jointly with others, in Trust for the Suitors of the said Court, shall be assigned and transferred to the said Accountant General; and such Assignments and Transfers shall be freed and discharged from the Stamp-Duty, and from any other Duty imposed thereon by Act of Parliament; and that all Mortgages, Callies, Orders, Stocks, Annuities, and other transferrable Securities, to be hereafter taken by the Directions of the said Court for the Benefit of any of the Suitors shall, if appointed to be taken in the Name of any Officer of the said Court, be taken in the Name of the said Accountant General; and that in all such Assignments and Transfers to the said Accountant General, as also in all such other transferrable Securities, to be hereafter taken in his Name, the particular Trust shall be specified and inserted in the Assignment, Transfer or Security itself; and such other Rules and Methods of proceeding shall be had and observed with respect to such transferrable Securities, by the Accountant General and others, as by the said recited Orders are respectively appointed to be observed by the Masters, Usher, and others.

Chancery may alter any Part of these Orders.

VI. Provided nevertheless, That notwithstanding any Thing in this Act contained, the said Court of Chancery shall have full Power and Authority from Time to Time, according to the Exigency of Affairs, to vary, alter or change any Part of the Regulations in the said Orders, or herein before contained, and to make such further or other Regulations about the Premises, as to the same Court shall seem meet and reasonable.

After Death, &c. of Accountant, the Securities vested in his Successor.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, That from and after the Death or Removal of any Accountant General, all Mortgages, Callies, Orders, Stocks, Annuities, and other transferrable Securities, vested in him at the Time of such his Death or Removal, in Trust for the Suitors of the said Court, shall vest in the succeeding Accountant General, for the same Estates and Interests as he then had therein, and subject to the same Trusts, without any Assignment or Transfer whatsoever; and that upon such Death or Removal of any Accountant General, all Monies, Deposits and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court, for which he shall then have Credit in his Account with the Bank, shall be carried to the Account of the succeeding Accountant General.

VIII. And

VIII. And to the End that all Misapplications or Wastings of the Subjects Money by any Officer of the High Court of Chancery may be intirely prevented for the future, Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Accountant General shall not meddle with the actual Receipt of any of the Money or Effects of the Suitors, but shall only keep the Account with the Bank; and the said Accountant General observing the Rules hereby prescribed, or hereafter to be prescribed to him by the said Court, shall not be answerable for any Money or Effects which he shall not actually receive; and the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies and Effects of the Suitors which are or shall be actually received by them.

Accountant not to meddle with the Suitors Money, but only keep Account with the Bank.

IX. And be it likewise further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully aid or assist in the forging or counterfeiting the Name or Hand of the said Accountant General, the said Register, the said Clerk of the Report-Office, or any of the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to any Certificate, Report, Entry, Indorsement, Declaration of Trust, Note, Direction, Authority, Instrument or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any the Money or Effects of any of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or wilfully aid or assist in forging or counterfeiting any Certificate, Report, Entry, Indorsement, Declaration of Trust, Note, Direction, Authority, Instrument or Writing in Form of a Certificate, Report, Entry, Indorsement, Declaration of Trust, Note, Direction, Authority, Instrument or Writing, made by such Accountant General, Register, Clerk of the Report-Office, or any of the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Bond or Obligation under the Common Seal of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, or any Indorsement or Assignment thereon, or on any Bond or Obligation under the Common Seal of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery; or shall utter or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever; then every such Person and Persons so offending (being thereof lawfully convicted) shall be and is hereby declared and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in case of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Forging the Hand of the Accountant, to a Certificate to receive Suitors Effects in the Bank, or any East-India or South-Sea Bond, is Felony without Clergy.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act for Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery.

I. WHEREAS Fleetwood Dormer and John Borrett, Esquires, deceased, late two of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, and Richard Godfrey, Edward Conway and William Kinaston, Esquires, three of the present Masters of the said Court, have been deficient in answering the Money and Effects ordered by the Court into their Hands: And whereas in order to know the State and Particulars of the said Deficiency, the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, pursuant to his Majesty's Directions, did by several Orders direct several Masters of the Court of Chancery, to inquire into, examine and state the Claims and Demands of the Suitors of the said Court, upon those Offices wherein the Deficiencies happened, and the said Masters to whom such Inquiry was directed have made their Reports, whereby it appears that (besides the Deficiency of the said William Kinaston, which is supposed he will be able to make good himself; and after deducting what shall be made and produced by and out of the Estates and Effects of the said deficient Masters, and also the Sum of thirty-thousand Pounds given by his Majesty on the Address of the House of Commons towards the Relief of the said Suitors, and now vested in Land-Tax Tallies for their Benefit, with the Interest due thereon) there will be, according to the present Computation, a Deficiency of the Sum of fifty-one thousand eight hundred fifty-one Pounds nineteen Shillings and eleven Pence Farthing, besides several other Claims in the said Offices of the said Fleetwood Dormer and John Borrett, deceased, and of the said Richard Godfrey and Edward Conway, not determined by the said Masters, but submitted to the Determination of the said Court, and which if allowed, will greatly increase the said Deficiency: And whereas the Commons of Great Britain are desirous to relieve the distressed Suitors of the said Court; Therefore to the End that all the said Deficiencies may be ascertained, and a full and proper Relief may be had, and a sufficient Provision may be made for the Payment of all the just Debts and Demands of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the second Day of August which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, there shall be throughout England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, collected and paid, during the Term of sixteen Years, for the several and respective Things hereinafter mentioned, which shall be written or engrossed during the Term aforesaid, over and above the Rates, Duties and Sums of Money now due and payable in respect thereof, the further several and respective Rates, Duties, Charges and Sums of Money following; that is to say, Additional Stamp-Duties for 16 Years, Continued by 9 Geo. 2. c. 32. Made perpetual 23 Geo. 2. c. 25.

II. For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Piece of Paper, upon which any Original Writ (except such Original on which a Writ of Capias issues) Subpoena, Bill of Middlesex, Latitat, Writ of Capias, Quominus, Writ of Dedimus Potestatem, to take Answers, examine Witnesses, or appoint Guardians, or any other Writ whatsoever, or any other Process or Mandate that shall issue out of, or pass the Seals of any the Courts at Westminster, Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, Courts in Counties Palatine, or in any other Court whatsoever, holding Plea where the Debt or Damage doth amount to forty Shillings or above, or the Thing in Demand is of that Value, shall be ingrossed or written (Writs of Covenant for levying Fines, Writs of Entry for suffering Common Recoveries, and Writs of Habeas Corpus always excepted) the Sum of six Pence.

Original Writs, &c.

III. For every Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, upon which any Entry of any Action in the Mayor's and Sheriffs Courts of London, and in Courts in all Corporations, and other Courts whatsoever, out of which no Writs, Process or Mandates issue, holding Plea where the Debt or Damage doth amount to forty Shillings or above, shall be ingrossed or written, written, the Sum of six Pence; and for every Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, upon which shall be ingrossed or written any Citation or Position made in any Ecclesiastical Court, the Sum of six Pence.

Entry of Actions in Mayor's Court, &c.

To be under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better and more effectual levying, collecting and paying the said Duties hereby granted, the same shall be under the Direction, Government, Care and Management of the Commissioners for the Time being, appointed to manage the Duties payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and charged on Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, by former Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to use such Dies and Stamps to denote the Stamp-Duties hereby charged as they shall see proper, and to repair the same, from Time to Time, as there shall be Need or Occasion, and to do all other Acts, Matters and Things, necessary to be by them done for the putting this Act in Execution with Relation to the said Duties hereby granted.

Salaries, &c. to be paid out of the Duties.

V. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them for the Time being, out of the Duties arising by this Act, to cause such Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid, from Time to Time, for Salaries and other incident Charges, as shall be necessary in and for the recovering, receiving, collecting, levying, distributing and managing of the same Duties by this Act granted, during the Continuance of the said Term; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Allowance where the Duties amount to 10 l.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said second Day of August which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, every Person who shall at one Time bring to be stamped, or buy of the said Commissioners Paper or Parchment, the said Duties whereof shall amount to ten Pounds or upwards, shall be allowed after the Rate of six Pounds in the hundred Pounds per Annum for six Months, upon the present Payment of the said Duties at the Head Office in London or Westminster, and not otherwise, nor any other Allowance; And the said Commissioners are hereby impowered to trust and give credit to the several Distributors of Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, with these Duties, in the same Manner, and upon the like Condition and Terms, as they intrust such Distributors with the other Duties under their Care.

No Rates where Persons sue in Forma Pauperis.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That none of the Rates, Impositions or Sums of Money before in this Act expressed, shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, or payable by Virtue of this Act, by any Person or Persons that shall be admitted to sue or defend in forma Pauperis.

Paper, &c. stamped with former Stamps to be brought to the Office to be stamped with another Mark.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Vellum, Parchment and Paper, charged by this Act with any of the Stamp-Duties hereby granted, which hath been or shall (before the said second Day of August) be stamped or marked, in Pursuance of the former Acts of Parliament relating to his Majesty's Stamp-Duties, or any of them, shall before any of the Matters or Things (in respect whereof any Duty is hereby made payable) be written or ingrossed thereupon (such writing or ingrossing being at any Time after the said second Day of August, and within the Term of the Continuance of this Act) be brought to the Head Office for stamping or marking of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, to be stamped or marked with another Mark or Stamp, over and besides the Marks or Stamps put or to be put thereupon in Pursuance of the said former Acts, or any of them; and that all Vellum, Parchment and Paper, which hath not been or shall not before the said second Day of August be stamped or marked in Pursuance of the said former Acts, or any of them, shall (before any the Matters or Things, in respect whereof any Stamp-Duty is payable hereby, and by the said former Acts, or any of them, shall be thereupon written or ingrossed, such writing or ingrossing being after the said second Day of August, and within the said Term and the Continuance of this Act) be brought to the said Head Office, and there marked and stamped with the proper Marks or Stamps, provided, used or appointed, or to be provided or appointed in Pursuance of this Act, and of the said former Acts of Parliament, to denote the respective Duties hereby and thereby respectively charged thereupon; and if any of the said Matters and Things so to be ingrossed and written as aforesaid, shall during the Term last mentioned be ingrossed or written, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, upon Vellum, Parchment or Paper, not appearing to have been duly marked or stamped according to this Act, that then and in every such Case there shall be due, answered and paid (over and above the Stamp-Duties payable hereby, and by the said former Acts, or any of them) for every such Matter and Thing respectively the Sum of five Pounds, and that no such Matter or Thing shall be available in Law or Equity, or be given in Evidence, or admitted in any Court, unless as well the said Duty hereby charged in respect thereof, as the said Sum of five Pounds, shall be first paid to the Receiver General for the Time being of the Stamp-Duties, or his Deputy or Clerk, and until the Vellum, Parchment and Paper, upon which such Matter or Thing is so written or ingrossed, shall be marked or stamped, according to the Tenor and true Meaning hereof: And the said Receiver General, and his Deputy or Clerk, are hereby enjoined and required, upon Payment or Tender of the said Duties, and of the said Sum of five Pounds, and such other Sums as by the said former Acts are payable in that Behalf, to give a Receipt for such Monies; and the other proper Officers are thereupon required to mark or stamp such Matters or Things with the proper Marks and Stamps required in that Behalf, which said Sum of five Pounds is to be applied to the same Uses and Purposes as the Duties hereby granted are to be applied.

Penalty for Writing without the Stamps, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Commissioner and Officer who shall act in and about the managing or collecting the Stamp-Duties hereby granted, shall before he shall act in or about the same, take the Oath following, that is to say, Commissioners and Officers to be sworn.

Their Oath.

I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute the Trust reposed in me, pursuant to the Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King GEORGE, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery, whereby certain additional Duties are charged or made payable, in respect of the several Matters and Things engrossed or written, as therein is mentioned, without Fraud or Concealment; and shall from Time to Time true Account make of my doings therein, and deliver the same to such Person or Persons, as by the said Act are impowered to receive such Account; and shall take no Fee, Reward or Profit whatsoever, for the Execution or Performance of the said Trust, or the Business relating thereto, from any Person or Persons whatsoever, other than such as by the said Act is allowed of.

Which Oath shall or may be administered by any two or more of the Commissioners last mentioned, or any one or more Justices of the Peace.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officer and Officers who shall be concerned in the levying, collecting or receiving the Duties arising by this Act, shall and do keep separate and distinct Accounts thereof, and pay the same to the Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being, who is hereby required and impowered to receive the same, and whose Receipt or Receipts shall be, from Time to Time, to the said Receiver General, his Deputy or Deputies, a sufficient Discharge, which Payments are to be made weekly on Wednesday in every Week, unless it be an Holiday, and then the next Day after, which shall not be an Holiday.

The Money to be paid to the Bank.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept, in the Bank of England, a Book or Books, wherein all the Monies to be paid in Weekly as aforesaid, shall be entered, and the same shall be entered apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable upon Account of the Sutors of the said Court of Chancery; and when the said Monies shall be paid to the Cashier of the Bank as aforesaid, the same shall be, and be considered as Part of the General and Common Cash of the said Court of Chancery, and as such shall be issued and applied in and for the Payment of the respective Demands of the Sutors of the said Court, in such Manner as the said Court shall direct.

A Book to be kept on Account of the Sutors.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Receivers General, Comptrollers, Collectors and other Officers, who are or shall be concerned in the managing, raising, levying, receiving, collecting or paying the Duties arising by this Act, or in keeping the Accounts thereof, or accounting in respect of the same, shall perform their several and respective Duties therein, as to them respectively shall appertain, under such and the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offence or neglect therein, or for detaining or misapplying any Part of the said Monies, as are prescribed and to be inflicted by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two millions upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies, for the like Offence or Neglect, in relation to the Duties upon Salt, and other Duties upon Stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper thereby granted, or for detaining, diverting or misapplying any Part of the Monies which were granted by the Act last mentioned.

The Penalties, &c. of Act 9 W. 3. to be in Force.

9 W. 3. c. 44.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Pains of Death and other Penalties and Forfeitures, Distribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things prescribed, appointed or contained in or by an Act of Parliament made in the said ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, further Duties upon Stamp Vellom, Parchment and Paper, or in any other Act of Parliament relating to the like Duties, which are now in Force, and not hereby altered or otherwise provided for, shall in the same Manner and Form as they now stand in Force, with relation to the said Duties or any of them, be of full Force and Effect, with relation to the said Stamp Duties hereby charged, during all the said Term of sixteen Years, and shall be applied, practised, made and executed for the securing, raising, levying, collecting, executing, answering and paying the said Stamp Duties hereby charged, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses and Things, and every of them, had severally and respectively been particularly enacted in this Act, with relation to the Stamp Duties hereby charged, and as if the Stamp Duties hereby charged had been charged by the said last mentioned Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign or in any other such Act or Acts as aforesaid.

All the Powers in the Stamp Acts to be in Force.

9 W. 3. c. 25.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Receiver or Receivers General, Comptroller or other Person or Persons, who are or shall be respectively employed in the directing, receiving, collecting or paying the Duties by this Act granted, shall and are hereby required, between the second Day of August and the twenty-fifth Day of December in every Year, during the Continuance of this Act, to exhibit their respective yearly Accounts thereof to his Majesty's Auditors of the Imprest for the Time being, or one of them, who shall and are hereby from Time to Time respectively authorized to examine upon Oath the said Receiver or Receivers General, Comptroller or other Person or Persons, Accountant or Accountants, which shall be employed in raising, receiving or collecting the said Duties hereby granted, of and concerning what Sum or Sums of Money was or were by them or any of them respectively raised, collected or received within the Time of such their Accounts, and likewise what Part thereof was by them or any of them paid to the Cashier of the Bank of England aforesaid, and in making the said Accounts to and before the said Auditors or one of them they are to produce proper Vouchers for every Sum or Sums of Money so by them or any of them received or paid, and the said Auditor shall have and receive of the Person accounting, the Sum of twenty Shillings, and no more, for every thousand Pounds the said Accounts shall amount unto; the which Accounts so audited shall be signed by the said Auditor, and the same shall be at all times to the said Receiver General, his Deputy or Deputies, Comptroller and all other Officers therein concerned, a full and sufficient Warrant and Discharge to all Intents and Purposes.

Receivers, &c. to exhibit their yearly Accounts to the Auditor of the Imprest.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case the said Court of Chancery shall judge it necessary, for the Payment of the Demands of the Sutors of the said Court, to borrow Money upon the Duties or Fund hereby granted, that then it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to borrow any Sum of Money thereupon, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of sixty thousand Pounds, at such Times, and in such Proportions, and to make or grant such Order or Security on the said Fund for Repayment of the Chancery may borrow Money on this Fund.

the Money so borrowed, with Interest, not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum, at such Times and in such Manner as the said Court shall think fit to direct; which Money so borrowed shall be paid into the said Bank of England, and be made Part of the general and common Cash of the said Court, for the Benefit of the said Suitors, and shall be issued and issuable, from and by the said Bank, for the like Benefit of the said Suitors, as the said Court of Chancery shall likewise direct.

A Book to be kept in the Bank, of the Monies borrowed.

Monies to be paid in Course.

No undue Preference.

What shall be interpreted no undue Preference.

Assignable and transferrable.

The Cash in the Bank to be one common Cash.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Bank of England, one or more Book or Books, in which an Account of the Monies that shall be borrowed upon the Credit of this Act shall be fairly and orderly entered and registered, containing and expressing the several Sums so borrowed, and the Times when they were respectively advanced, together with the Names of the Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, lending or advancing the same; and that all and every Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall lend any Money upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the same into the Bank of England, shall, upon producing a Receipt of the same under the Hand of any Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank, have an Order of the Court of Chancery for Repayment of his, her or their Principal Money, with Interest for the same, to be accounted from the Time of the advancing such Principal Sum, and to be payable by half-yearly Payments, until the Repayment of his, her or their Principal Money; and that such Orders for Repayment shall be Registered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose with such Person or Persons as the Court of Chancery shall direct, in due Course of Time, according to the Date of the said Orders respectively; and that all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registered in the said Book or Books, so as that the Person, Bodies Politick or Corporate, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, who shall have his, her or their Order or Orders first entered in the said Book, shall be taken and accounted as the first to be paid out of the Monies to arise or come by Virtue this Act; and he, she or they who shall have his, her or their Order or Orders next entered, shall be taken and accounted to be the Second to be paid, and so successively and in Course; and that the Monies to arise or come in by this Act shall be in the same Order liable to the Satisfaction of the said respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns successively, without any undue Preference one before another, and not to be divertible or diverted to any other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any Person or Persons whatsoever, for providing or making any such Books, Registers or Entries, or for any View or Search of the same, or for the Payment of any Money lent upon the Credit of this Act, or the Interest thereof as aforesaid, by any Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Penalty of Payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take or demand any such Fee or Reward, then to lose his Place also: And if any undue Preference shall be made, either in Point of Registry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable, by Action of Debt or on the Case, to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages and Costs to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged from his Place or Office: And if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without the Direction or Privy of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such like Action, Debt, Damages and Costs as aforesaid, and shall be for ever after incapable of his Place or Office; all which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Costs, to be forfeited and incurred by any of the last mentioned Officers or any of their Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Restraint shall be in any ways granted or allowed.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That if it happen that several Orders for Payment as aforesaid, bear Date or be brought the same Day to the Officer to be Registered, then it shall be interpreted no undue Preference which of those he enters first, so as he enters them all the same Day.

XVIII. Provided also, that it shall not be interpreted to incur any Penalty, in Point of Payment, to pay subsequent Orders of the Persons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Order before other Persons that did not come and demand their Money, and bring their Order in their Course, so as there may be so much Money reserved, as will satisfy precedent Orders, which shall not be otherwise disposed, but kept for them; Interest upon Loan being to cease from the Time the Money is so reserved and kept in Bank for them.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to whom any Money shall be due by Virtue of this Act, after Order entered for Payment thereof as aforesaid, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, by Indorsement of his, her or their Order or Orders respectively, may assign and transfer his, her or their Right, Title, Interest and Benefit of such Order, or any Part thereof to any other, which being notified in the Office hereby appointed for entering the said Orders, and an Entry or Memorial thereof also made in the Book of Entry of such Orders (which the Officer shall upon Request, without Fee or Charge, accordingly make) shall entitle such Assignee or Assignees, his, her or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, to the Benefit thereof and Payment thereon, and such Assignee or Assignees may in like Manner assign again, and so toties quoties; and afterwards it shall not be in the Power of such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who have or hath made such Assignments, to make void, release or discharge the same, or any of the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

XX. And to the End that no Suitor or Suitors of the said Court of Chancery may be delayed in Payment of any Money due to him, her or them, but that every One may receive his or her full Demand, whensoever he or she shall apply for the same, in the most easy and expeditious Way; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Money and Cash now deposited in the Bank, or that shall at any Time hereafter be paid into or deposited in the Bank, on the Account of the the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, or any of them, or by Order of the said Court, and all the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties given by this Act, or borrowed thereon, and paid into the Bank, shall be and be accounted and taken to be one Common and General Cash, and shall be promiscuously issued and issuable when and as the Court of Chancery shall direct, for the answering, paying and clearing the Debts and Demands of any of the Suitors of the said Court.

XXI. And whereas it appears by the Reports of the several Masters directed by the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor, pursuant to his Majesty's Directions, to inquire into, examine and state the Claims and Demands of the Suitors of the said Court upon the said Offices, wherein the Deficiency happened, that there are several Claims both of Principal and Interest upon the Offices of the said Fleetwood Dormer and John Borrett, deceased, and of the said Richard Godfrey and Edward Conway, not determined by the said Masters, but submitted to the Determination of the Court; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the High Court of Chancery shall with all convenient Speed in the most compendious and summary Way determine such Claims, and cause to be done therein what is equitable and just.

Chancery to determine the Claims on the deficient Masters.

XXII. And to the End that the Accounts of the said Richard Godfrey, Edward Conway and William Kinaston, three of the present Masters of the said Court, who now appear to be deficient, may be closed, and that they may be the more effectually obliged to pay in their respective Deficiencies; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Richard Godfrey, Edward Conway and William Kinaston, shall, on or before the first Day of Hillary Term in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, make up their Account in such Manner, and before such Person or Persons as the Court of Chancery shall direct, of all the Monies and Effects of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, come to their respective Hands or under their respective Care and Direction, and reduce the same to a Balance; and the Balance of Cash then in their respective Hands shall, on or before the last Day of the same Term, be by them respectively paid into the Bank of England, for the Benefit of the Suitors; and the Balance of the other Effects of the Suitors shall, on or before the said last Day of the said Term, be by them respectively assigned, transferred, disposed or applied for the Benefit of the Suitors, as the Court of Chancery shall direct (for which Direction such Master shall apply to the said Court, within a convenient Time before the said last Day of the same Term) and if any of the said three Masters shall neglect or refuse to make up such Account, or pay in, or dispose of such Balance in such Manner as aforesaid, that then he or they so neglecting or refusing to comply with any of the said Particulars, shall forfeit and lose his or their Place of Master in Chancery, and such Place or Places shall be void, as if he or they were naturally dead; and the High Court of Chancery shall also in such Case state and ascertain, or cause to be stated and ascertained the respective Balance due from such Masters respectively, to the Suitors of the said Court, as well the Balance of Cash remaining in such Master's Hands, as also the Balance of the other Effects of the Suitors, not answered by such Master, and value or cause to be valued the said Balance of the said other Effects, and reduce both those Balances into one total Sum; and whatever Balance or total Sum shall be found due from, or unanswered by such Master, shall be a Charge and Debt on such Master respectively, to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court: And for the better and more effectual Recovery of the same, for the Benefit of the Suitors, the Register of the said Court of Chancery, or his Deputy or Deputies, shall, by the Direction of the said Court, certify such Balance or total Sum to the Barons of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, upon Parchment, without any Stamp thereon, to be filed or deposited in the Court of Exchequer, amongst the Records of the said Court, as the said Barons shall direct; and the Sum total or Balance contained in such Certificate, shall from thenceforth be deemed and taken to be a Debt from such Master to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the same Nature, Kind, Quality, Force and Effect, as Writings Obligatory, taken and acknowledged according to the Statute-Staple at Westminster; and there shall be the like Process and Execution thereon, as by the Statute made in the three and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth is provided for the Recovery of Debts due by Obligation to the King; and all and every Sum or Sums of Money that shall be recovered thereon, shall be paid into the Bank of England, without Fee or Reward, and be made Part of the said general and common Cash, and as such shall be from thence issued for the Use and Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery.

Godfrey, &c. to account before Hillary Term 1726.

on Default forfeit their Offices, &c.

XXIII. Provided also, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That when and so soon as the Deficiency of the Suitors Money intended to be answered and paid out of the Fund established by this Act, and also all Monies lent on the Credit of this Act, shall have been fully paid and satisfied, then and from thenceforth all the Surplus Monies which shall have been raised out of the said Duties upon Stampd Vellum, Parchment and Paper, hereby given and granted, over and beyond what shall be sufficient for answering such Deficiency and Monies lent, shall be reserved for the Benefit of the Publick, and shall not be applied to any other Use or Uses than such as shall be hereafter directed by Parliament; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

After the Deficiency of the Suitors paid, Overplus reserved for Publick Use.

XXIV. And in Order to a full Discovery of the Estates and Effects of the said three deficient Masters of the said Court of Chancery, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said three Masters, who on the said last Day of Hillary Term one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, shall be deficient in bringing into or before the Bank of England, the Balance of what is due from him or them to the Suitors of the said Court, shall, before the first Day of Easter Term one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, be examined upon Oath, upon such Interrogatories touching all and singular his and their Lands, Tenements, Goods, Chattels, Debts, and Personal Estate whatsoever, and such other Things as may tend to disclose his and their Estate, or any secret Grants, Conveyances or Disposition of his and their Lands, Tenements, Goods, Chattels, Debts and Personal Estate, as the Court of Chancery shall think meet; and in case any of the said three Masters who shall be deficient at the Time aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to attend and be examined upon Oath, in Order for such Discovery, or shall be guilty of any wilful Contumeliousness, Omission or Falsity in any Examination had, in Pursuance of this Act, then or in any of such Cases, every of them the said Masters so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy, and shall forfeit to the King, his Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, all and singular his Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods and Chattels whatsoever.

Masters not bringing into the Bank the Balance of their Accounts, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons, being known, supposed or suspected to have or detain any Part of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Goods, Chattels or Personal Estate of any of the said deficient Masters, or to be able to give any Information or Evidence concerning the same, or to be indebted to or for the Benefit of any of them, shall, after lawful Summons to appear before one or more of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, to be examined concerning any the Real or Personal Estate or Effects of the said deficient Masters, or any of them, or any Matter or Thing concerning the same, neglect or refuse to come before such Master or Masters at the Time appointed in such Summons, having no lawful Impediment, such as shall be allowed by the said Master or Masters, and which shall be then signified and made known to the said Master or Masters, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make Answer to such Interrogatories as shall be administered to him or them, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; which said Summons and Examination upon Oath, upon Interrogatories to be administered to every such Person or Persons, all and every the Masters of the Court of Chancery are and is hereby authorized and required to issue, take and administer, then and in the said respective Cases it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery to issue their Warrant or Warrants to apprehend any Person so neglecting or refusing to appear as aforesaid, and to commit to the Prison of the Fleet all and every such Person and Persons as shall so refuse to be sworn, or make Answer to such Interrogatories as shall be administered as aforesaid, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Time as the said Person so refusing to be sworn or examined shall submit him or herself to be examined, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

XXVI. And for the more effectual Discovery of the Estates and Effects of such deficient Masters of the said Court as aforesaid, and every of them, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who shall have accepted of any Trust or Trusts, or shall conceal or protect any Estate, Real or Personal, of or for any of such deficient Masters as aforesaid, and shall not before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven truly discover and disclose such Trust and Estate in Writing to the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the Time being, shall forfeit treble the Value of the Estate, Real or Personal, so concealed; one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall sue for the same; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escofn, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance; in which Cases Costs shall be allowed to the Plaintiff as in other Cases, and shall suffer Imprisonment for the Space of one whole Year without Bail or Mainprize.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall before the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven voluntarily come before one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery for the Time being, and make a true Discovery in Writing upon Oath of any Part of the Estate, Real or Personal, of any of such deficient Masters as aforesaid, which shall have been concealed, and not inserted and discovered in and by his Examination, shall be allowed after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, according to the Value of such Estate or Effects so discovered, being in any Part beyond the Seas; and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum, according to the Value of such Estate or Effects so discovered, remaining within this Kingdom; to be paid and allowed to such Person or Persons out of the said Estate and Effects, or otherwise to be recovered by Action of Debt to be brought upon this Act against the Person whose Estate and Effects shall be so discovered.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods, Chattels, Debts, Sums of Money and Personal Estate whatsoever of any of such deficient Masters as aforesaid, which shall be forfeited and recovered by Virtue of this Act, shall be paid into the Bank of England without Fee or Reward, and be made Part of the general and common Cash belonging to the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, and as such shall be from thence issued and issuable for the Use and Benefit of the said Suitors.

XXIX. And whereas it appears by the Report of Robert Holford, Esquire, one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, dated the sixth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, That Edward Conway, Esquire, is deficient in his Accounts of the Money and Effects of the Suitors in the Sum of twenty thousand five hundred fifty-three Pounds four Shillings and three Pence Half-penny; and whereas the said Edward Conway was seised of an Estate of five hundred Pounds per Annum, and upwards, as appears by the said Report, out of which Margaret, Wife of the said Edward Conway, was entitled to her Dower; but in order to make good the said Deficiency, the said Margaret joined in a Fine and Recovery for the Sale of the said Estate, which will raise near fourteen thousand Pounds, and thereby has deprived herself of any Subsistence, in case of Disability or Death of the said Edward Conway; To the End therefore that the said Margaret Conway, in Consideration of her giving up her Dower, may have a reasonable Competency to subsist herself and Family, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of two thousand Pounds, out of the Money arising by the Sale of the said Estate, shall be allowed and paid to Philip Gilbert and Henry Gilbert of London, Gentlemen, in Trust and for the sole and separate Use of the said Margaret Conway, notwithstanding her Coverture, and their Receipt for the same shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof, by such Person as is or shall be appointed by the High Court of Chancery to sell and dispose of the said Estate; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations of Workmen employed in the Woollen Manufactures, and for better Payment of their Wages.

WHEREAS great Numbers of Weavers, and others concerned in the Woollen Manufactures in several Towns and Parishes in this Kingdom, have lately formed themselves into unlawful Clubs and Societies, and have presumed, contrary to Law, to enter into Combinations, and to make By-Laws or Orders, by which they pretend to regulate the Trade and the Prices of their Goods, and to advance their Wages unreasonably, and many other Things to the like Purpose: And whereas the said Persons so unlawfully assembling and associating themselves have committed great Violences and Outrages upon many of his Majesty's good Subjects, and by Force protected themselves and their wicked Accomplices against Law and Justice; and it is absolutely necessary that more effectual Provision should be made against such unlawful Combinations, and for preventing such Violences and Outrages for the future, and for bringing all Offenders in the Premises to more speedy and exemplary Justice; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Contracts, Covenants or Agreements, and all By-Laws, Ordinances, Rules or Orders, in such unlawful Clubs and Societies, heretofore made or entered into, or hereafter to be made or entered into, by or between any Persons brought up in or professing, using or exercising the Art and Mystery of a Woolcomber or Weaver, or Journeyman Woolcomber or Journeyman Weaver, in any Parish or Place within this Kingdom, for regulating the said Trade or Mystery, or for regulating or settling the Prices of Goods, or for advancing their Wages, or for lessening their usual Hours of Work, shall be and are hereby declared to be illegal, null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and further, that if any Woolcomber or Weaver, or Journeyman Woolcomber or Journeyman Weaver, or other Person concerned in any of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom shall, at any Time or Times after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, keep up, continue, add in, make, enter into, sign, seal or be knowingly concerned in any Contract, Covenant or Agreement, By-Law, Ordinance, Rule or Order of any Club, Society or Combination by this Act declared to be illegal, null and void, or shall presume or attempt to put any such illegal Agreement, By-Law, Ordinance, Rule or Order in Execution, every Person so offending being thereof lawfully convicted upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, City, Town or Place where such Offence shall be committed, upon any Information exhibited or Prosecution within three Calendar Months after the Offence committed (which Oaths the said Justices are hereby empowered and required to administer) shall, by Order of such Justices, at their Discretion be committed either to the House of Correction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months, or to the Common Gaol of the County, City, Town or Place where such Offence shall be committed, as they shall see Cause, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding three Months.

All Combinations of Woolcombers and Weavers illegal.

Woolcombers, &c. convicted of keeping up such Combinations, may be committed for 3 Months.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person actually retained or employed as a Woolcomber or Weaver, or Servant in the Art or Mystery of a Woolcomber or Weaver shall, at any Time or Times after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, depart from his Service before the End of the Time or Term for which he is or shall be hired or retained, or shall quit or return his Work before the same shall be finished according to Agreement, unless it be for some reasonable or sufficient Cause, to be allowed by two or more Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions, then in every such Case every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted before two or more Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be committed to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months; and if any Woolcomber, Weaver, Servant or Person hired, retained or employed in the Art or Mystery of a Woolcomber or Weaver shall wilfully damnify, spoil or destroy (without the Consent of the Owner) any of the Goods, Wares or Work committed to his Care or Charge, or wherewith he shall be intrusted, every such Offender, being thereof lawfully convicted as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay to the Owner or Owners of such Goods or Wares so damnified, spoiled or destroyed, double the Value thereof, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of any two or more Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions, and for want of sufficient Distress, such Justices shall commit the Party or Parties offending to the House of Correction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months, or until Satisfaction be made to the Party or Parties aggrieved for the same.

Quitting Service before the Time for which hired, to be committed.

Spoiling the Work, to pay double the Value, &c.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Clothier, Sergemaster or Woollen or Worsted Stuffmaker, or Person concerned in making any Woollen Cloths, Serges or Stuffs, or any wife concerned in employing Woolcombers, Weavers or other Labourers in the Woollen Manufactory, shall, and they are hereby obliged and required to pay unto all Persons by them employed in the Woollen Manufactory, the full Wages or other Price agreed on in good and lawful Money of this Kingdom, and shall not pay the said Wages or other Price agreed on, or any Part thereof, in Goods or by way of Truck, or in any other Manner than in Money as aforesaid, or make any Deduction from such Wages or Price for or on Account of any Goods sold or delivered previous to such Agreement by any Person or Persons whatsoever; and for more easy recovering the said Wages or Price agreed on, it shall be lawful for any two or more Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions, and they are hereby authorized and required, upon Complaint made for that Purpose, to summon before them the Party or Parties offending, and for Non-payment of such Wages or Price agreed on in Money as aforesaid, or sufficient Satisfaction given for the same Clothiers, &c. to pay Wages in Money. Farther Provisions relating to such Wages, 13 Geo. 1. c. 23. sect. 5, 6, 9, 17.

Justices on Complaint to issue Warrants for levying Wages, &c.

same to the Good liking of the Party or Parties aggrieved, to issue their Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals for levying such Wages or Price agreed on, due as aforesaid, by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus to the Owner, and for want of sufficient Distress to commit the Party or Parties offending to the Common Gaol of the County, City, Town or Place where such Offence shall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of six Months, or until he, she or they shall pay such Wages or Price agreed on in Money as aforesaid, or give full Satisfaction for the same to the Good-liking of the Party aggrieved.

Clothiers paying Wages in Goods,
&c. forist 101.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Clothier, Sergemaster, Woollen or Worsted Stuffmaker, or Person concerned in making any Woollen Cloths, Serges or Stuffs, or any ways concerned in employing Woolcombers, Weavers or other Labourers in the Woollen Manufactory as aforesaid, shall pay any Person or Persons employed by them their Wages or other Price agreed on, or any Part thereof, either in Goods or by way of Truck, or in any other Manner than in Money as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every Person so offending shall also forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Party or Parties aggrieved, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods as aforesaid, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner.

Appeal to the Quarter-Sessions.

V. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person aggrieved by any Order or Orders to be made by any two or more Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, to appeal to the Justices of the Peace assembled at the next General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the County, City, Division, Parish or Place where such Order shall be made, giving reasonable Notice of such Appeal, the Reasonableness of which Notice shall be determined by the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions to which the Appeal is made, and if it shall appear to them, that reasonable Time of Notice was not given, then they shall adjourn the said Appeal to the next Quarter-Sessions, and then and there finally hear and determine the same; and the Justices who in the General Quarter-Sessions shall hear the Matter, shall have Power to award reasonable Costs to either Party, as to them shall seem just.

Affaulting or threatning Masters, &c. Felony.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, assault or abuse any Master Woolcomber or Master Weaver, or other Person concerned in any of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, whereby any such Master or other Person shall receive any bodily Hurt, for not complying with, or not conforming, or not submitting to any such illegal By-Laws, Ordinances, Rules or Orders aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons shall write or cause to be written, or knowingly send or cause to be sent, any Letter, or other Writing or Message, threatening any Hurt or Harm to any such Master Woolcomber or Master Weaver, or other Person concerned in the Woollen Manufacture, or threatening to burn, pull down or destroy any of their Houses or Outhouses, or to cut down or destroy any of their Trees, or to maim or kill any of their Cattle, for not complying with any Demands, Claims or Pretences of any of his or their Workmen, or others employed by them in the said Manufacture, or for not conforming or not submitting to any such illegal By-Laws, Ordinances, Rules or Orders as aforesaid; every Person so knowingly and wilfully offending in the Premises, being thereof lawfully convicted upon any Indictment, to be found within twelve Calendar Months next after any such Offence committed, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for seven Years to some or one of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, by such Ways, Means and Methods, and in such Manner and under such Pains and Penalties, as Felons in other Cases are by Law to be transported.

Breaking into a Shop to cut any Serges, &c. Felony.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, by Day or by Night, break into any House or Shop, or enter by Force into any House or Shop, with Intent to cut or destroy any Serge or other Woollen Goods in the Loom, or any Tools employed in the making thereof, or shall wilfully and maliciously cut or destroy any such Serges or Woollen Goods in the Loom or on the Rack, or shall burn, cut or destroy any Rack on which any such Serges or other Woollen Goods are hanged in order to dry, or shall wilfully and maliciously break or destroy any Tools used in the making any such Serges or other Woollen Goods, not having the Consent of the Owner so to do, every such Offender, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Case of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

This Act to extend to Combers and Frame-work Knitters.

VIII. And whereas the Mysteries of Combing of Jersey or Wool, and of Frame-work Knitting and Making of Stockings, are considerable Branches of the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and all the Clauses, Provisions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be construed and adjudged to extend, to Combers of Jersey and Wool, to Frame-work Knitters and Weavers or Makers of Stockings, and to all Persons whatsoever employed or concerned in any of the said Manufactures, in as full and ample Manner as any other Part of the Woollen Manufacture is provided for by this Act; and the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures which shall be incurred by Virtue hereof, shall be inflicted, levied and taken in the same Manner, as the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures before-mentioned in this Act are directed, ordered and appointed.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to prevent Abuses in making of Bricks and Tiles, and to ascertain the Dimensions thereof, and to prevent all unlawful Combinations amongst any Brickmakers or Tilemakers within fifteen Miles of the City of London in order to advance or enhance the Price of Bricks or Tiles.

27 Edw. 4. c. 4. I. WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King EDWARD the Fourth, intituled, The Preparation of Earth for making of Tile, divers good Provisions and Directions were made for the good and sufficient making of Plain-Tiles, Roof-Tiles and Gutter-Tiles: And whereas her late Majesty Queen ELIZABETH, by her Letters Patent or Charter under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the third Day of August which was in the tenth Year of her

Reign,

Reign, did for her self and her Successors grant unto the Persons therein named, and all other Freemen of the Myltery or Art of Tilers and Bricklayers of London, and the Suburbs thereof, to be one Body Corporate, by the Name of the Master and Keepers or Wardens of the Society of Freemen of the Myltery and Art of Tilers and Bricklayers, and by that Name to have perpetual Succession, and amongst other Matters and Things in the said Charter mentioned, gave to the said Company the Search, Correction and Government of Persons using the said Myltery or Art, and of all other Things and Matters whatsoever to the said Myltery or Art any Ways belonging or appertaining, as well within the said City of London and Liberties and Suburbs thereof, as within any Place or Places within fifteen Miles of the said City: And whereas several Orders and Ordinances have been made by the said Master and Wardens of the said Society, for searching, viewing and making good Bricks and Tiles, which have been confirmed, pursuant to an Act made in the nineteenth Year of his late Majesty King HENRY the Seventh, intituled, For making Statutes by Bodies incorporate, And whereas, notwithstanding the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, Orders and Ordinances, several Persons, especially within the Compass of fifteen Miles of the City of London, dig the Clay or Earth for making of Bricks at unseasonable Times in the Year, and continue to make Bricks of bad Stuff and unsizeable Dimensions, and do not well burn the same; and in making thereof mix great Quantities of Soil called Spanish, and in burning thereof use small Ashes and Cynders commonly called Breeze, instead of Coals, and burn the Bricks commonly called Grey-Stock Bricks in Clamps, and the Bricks commonly called Place-Bricks in the same Clamps, on the Outside of the said Grey-Stock Bricks, by Means whereof great Part of the Bricks now usually made are so hollow and unsound, that they will scarce bear their own Weight: And whereas there is at present no Provision made by any Law for the Dimensions of Bricks to be made and used in Buildings, or for the Lengths, Breadths or Thickneses of Pantiles, which are but a late Invention in England, May it please your most excellent Majesty, that for the common Good and Benefit of your Majesty's Subjects, and the Duration of Buildings, and the better ascertaining the Times of digging the Earth, and the Manner of making and burning Bricks and Pantiles hereafter to be made for Sale, and the Lengths, Breadths and Thickneses of such Bricks and Pantiles, That it may be enacted, &c. EXP.

All Earth for making Bricks for Sale, shall be dug and turned between the first of November and the first of February, and no Part shall be made into Bricks 'till after the first of March, and no Bricks shall be made for Sale but between the first of March and the twenty-ninth of September, and no Spanish shall be mixed with Brick Earth, nor any Breeze used in the burning; and all Bricks shall be burnt in Kilns, or in distinct Clamps, the Place-Bricks by themselves and the Stock-Bricks by themselves; and Place-Bricks shall be not less than nine Inches long and two Inches and an Half thick, and four Inches and a Quarter wide; and Stock-Bricks shall be of the same Dimensions as to the Lengths and Breadths, and one eighth of an Inch thicker; and Pantiles shall be not less than thirteen Inches and an Half long, and nine Inches and an Half wide, and Half an Inch thick. Master and Wardens of the Tilers and Bricklayers Company may search. Master and Wardens may summon the Makers before them, and fine Offenders. Justices may nominate Persons to search in other Places. Who are to make their Presentments twice in the Year. Master and Wardens, &c. to search twice in the Year the making of all Tiles, &c. and the Justices in all other Places. Contracts for ingrossing Bricks or Tiles, &c. illegal. Determined and EXP. 2 Geo. 2. c. 15. sec. 5.

Brick Earth or Breeze may be made use of 3 Geo. 2. c. 22. sect. 2, 3.

Searchers are to be appointed by the Justices, &c. 2 Geo. 2. c. 15. s. 1.

3 Geo. I. c. 7.

I. MOST gracious Sovereign, Whereas by or in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for redeeming the Duties and Revenues, which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on the four Lottery Acts passed in the ninth and tenth Years of her late Majesty's Reign, and for redeeming certain Annuities payable on Orders out of the hereditary Excise, according to a former Act in that Behalf, and for establishing a general yearly Fund, not only for the future Payment of Annuities at several Rates to be payable and transferrable at the Bank of England, and redeemable by Parliament, but also to raise Monies for such Proprietors of the said Orders, as shall chuse to be paid their Principal and Arrears of Interest in ready Money, and for making good such other Deficiencies and Payments as in this Act are mentioned, and for taking off the Duties on Linseed imported, and British Linen exported, several Annuities or yearly Sums after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, amounting to the Sum of one hundred and two thousand thirty-six Pounds thirteen Shillings and two Pence per Annum, or thereabouts, were made payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being, for several Principal Sums, amounting together to two millions five hundred and fifty thousand nine hundred and sixteen Pounds eight Shillings and eight Pence Half-penny, for Monies contributed by Tallies of Sol, and contained in Army-Debentures, certified on or before the one and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, and were by Virtue or in Pursuance of the same Act made payable out of a certain yearly Fund of seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence one fifth Part of a Penny per Annum, commonly called the General Fund, established by the same Act; and by or in Pursuance of another Act of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Edward Clent, Esq; Executor of Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Clent, for an Army-Debenture lost in the Pay-Office, one or more Annuity or Annuities amounting to twenty-three Pounds eight Shillings and three Pence Farthing per Annum, or thereabouts, after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, became payable by the said Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being, out of the said General Fund of seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one fifth Part of a Penny per Annum, for the principal Sum of five hundred eighty-five Pounds seven Shillings and one Penny, stated to be due on a lost Debenture, mentioned in the same Act; all which before-mentioned Annuities were made payable until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, upon such Notice or Notices, as by the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said several Annuities, are for that Purpose required; and by or in Pursuance of another Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for applying overplus Monies, and further Sums to be raised as well by way of a Lottery as by Loans, towards paying off and cancelling Exchequer-Bills, and for lessening the present great Charge in Relation to those Bills, and for circulating and exchanging for ready Money the Residue of the same Bills for the Future, several Annuities amounting in the whole to the yearly Sum of twenty thousand Pounds after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the principal Sums amounting to five hundred thousand Pounds contributed to a Lottery founded on that Act, are payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England, out of a yearly Fund of twenty thousand Pounds thereby charged (amongst other Things) upon the Duties and Revenues thereby denominated the Aggregate Fund, subject nevertheless to a Proviso of Redemption upon such Notice and Payments, as by the Act last mentioned are prescribed; and whereas by a subsequent Act of Parliament of the sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign, for enabling the South-Sea Company to increase their Capital Stock and Fund, It was provided amongst other Things, that the said several Annuities before-mentioned might be taken into the Capital Stock and Fund of the South-Sea Company, and in Pursuance thereof great Parts of the said several Annuities were accordingly subscribed into the said Capital Stock and Fund of the said South-Sea Company; and whereas there still remains of the said several Annuities unsubscribed into the Capital Stock of the said Company the several Annuities following, that is to say, the yearly Sum of seven thousand nine hundred fifty-eight Pounds six Shillings and eight Pence three Farthings, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in Respect of the unsubscribed Principal Sum of one hundred ninety-eight thousand nine hundred fifty-eight Pounds eight Shillings and three Pence, for the before-mentioned Tallies of Sol, the yearly Sum of fifteen thousand seven hundred twenty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings and nine Pence Farthing, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in Respect of the unsubscribed Principal Sum of three hundred ninety-three thousand one hundred ninety-four Pounds fourteen Shillings and five Pence Half-penny, for the before-mentioned Army-Debentures; and the yearly Sum of two thousand three hundred and thirty-two Pounds, being after the like Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in Respect of the Principal Sum of fifty-eight thousand three hundred Pounds, remaining unsubscribed of the said Lottery Fund of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign; all which unsubscribed Principal Sums amount together to the Sum of six hundred and fifty thousand four hundred and fifty-three Pounds two Shillings and eight Pence Half-penny; and the several Annuities attending thereon amount together to the yearly Sum of twenty-six thousand and eighteen Pounds two Shillings and six Pence, and are payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England: And whereas, by or in Pursuance of sundry subsequent Acts of Parliament, for taking and stating the Accounts and Debts of the Army, several standing Orders have been or may be made out for Payment at your Majesty's Exchequer, of sundry Annuities, amounting together to the yearly Sum of twenty-one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven Pounds eleven Shillings and eight Pence Farthing, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in Respect of several Principal Sums, amounting together to five hundred forty-eight thousand nine hundred thirty-nine Pounds twelve Shillings and six Pence Farthing, contained in Army-Debentures, for Debts certified since the twenty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen; which last mentioned Annuities are also charged on the said General Fund of seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one fifth Part of a Penny per Annum, and are made payable until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, upon such Notice or Notices, as in or by the several Acts of Parliament relating thereto are for that Purpose required; and whereas all the before-mentioned unsubscribed Principal Sums transferrable at the Bank of England, and the several Principal Sums contained in the said Exchequer-Orders, amount together to the Principal Sum of one million one hundred and ninety-nine thousand three hundred and ninety-two Pounds fifteen Shillings and two Pence three Farthings, and the several Annuities attending thereon amount together to the yearly Sum of forty-seven thousand nine hundred seventy-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and two Pence Farthing; and whereas your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being determined that the said several before-mentioned Annuities should be redeemed in order to lessen the Publick Debts and Incumbrances, and the necessary Charges relating thereto, as fast as may be consistent with Justice and Honour, did on the seventh Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, order their Speaker to signify in Writing their several Resolutions to redeem the said several Annuities; therefore we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such Orders and Significations as aforesaid, shall be and be deemed, adjudged and taken to be good and sufficient Notice or Notices within the true Intent and Meaning of the several Acts of Parliament for the Redemption of the said several Annuities, and the same shall be redeemable accordingly; any Thing in the same, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Principal Sums as are transferrable at the Bank of England, shall be paid in intire Payments, to the Cashier of the said Bank, for the Use of the several Proprietors thereof, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, to be by him paid over as soon after as conveniently may be, to the several Persons intitled to receive the same; and that such of the said Principal Sums as are contained in the said standing Orders, made or to be made out at the Exchequer, shall be paid off in such numerical Order, Course and Progression as the said several Orders do or shall stand upon the Register thereof, kept at the Exchequer, beginning with N^o 1. and so on progressively, until all of them shall be paid off and discharged, without any undue Preference of any one of them before the other of them, in the like Manner in all Respects as is directed in an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land-Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, for paying off and discharging the several Orders of Loan directed or authorized to be made forth by Virtue or in Pursuance of the same Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall judge it more convenient to redeem or pay off all or any of the before-mentioned Joint-Stocks of Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, preferably to the Discharging and Cancelling all or any Part of the Exchequer-Bills now standing out and charged on the said Sinking Fund, then it shall and may be lawful for them, or any three of them, from Time to Time, by and with the Consent of the Contractors for Circulating and Exchanging the same Exchequer-Bills, and not otherwise, to postpone or defer the Paying off, Cancelling or Discharging the same Exchequer-Bills, or any of them, until after the Redemption and Payment of all or any of the said Joint-Stocks of Annuities, but no further; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Annuities as shall grow or become due or payable, for or in respect of the several before-mentioned Annuities, until the Redemption thereof by Payment of the said Principal Monies, in Manner as aforesaid, and all Arrears thereof (if any such shall be) shall be paid, together with the said respective Principal Sums, out of the respective Funds, on which the same are at present charged or chargeable; and that when, and as any of the said several Principal Sums, shall from Time to Time be paid off, or Money sufficient for that Purpose shall be reserved in the Exchequer, or in the Hands of the said Cashier, payable on Demand, the Annuity attending the same shall from thenceforth be, and is hereby declared to be redeemed, and shall no longer be paid or payable, but shall cease and determine for the Benefit of the Sinking Fund.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which shall arise of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies (over and beyond what will satisfy and pay the several Monies before-mentioned, and such other Charges, as have been heretofore made thereon by Authority of Parliament) shall be appropriated, reserved and applied, to and for the further Discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances, as were incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and are declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Act or Acts of Parliament, in such Manner and Form as shall be directed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament to be discharged therewith, or out of the same, and to and for none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

VII. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (of Glorious Memory) it was (amongst other Things) provided and enacted, that in Lieu and Discharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof, granted by his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, by Letters Patent out of the Hereditary Revenue of Excise, in Satisfaction of certain Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, to be then due from his said late Majesty to the respective Patentees therein named, the said Hereditary Revenue of Excise should, from and after the twenty-sixth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, be and stand charged and chargeable for ever with the Payment of annual Sums, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, to be issued and paid out of the said Revenue by quarterly Payments out of the Receipt of the Exchequer, by the Officers of the same, unto the respective Owners and Proprietors of the said annual Sums, and to their Heirs and Assigns for ever, without any Fee or Charge, the said annual Payments after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be subject nevertheless to be redeemed upon Payment of a Moiety of the Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent; and whereas the Whole of all the Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, and which are commonly called the Bankers Debt, did amount to one million three hundred and twenty-eight thousand five hundred and twenty-six Pounds, and the Moiety thereof, for which the said annual Sums were redeemable, did amount to six hundred sixty-four thousand two hundred and sixty-three Pounds, and the said Moieties were by the said Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign (for Redeeming the Duties and Revenues which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on four Lottery-Acts) provided for to be subscribed into a Joint-Stock of Annuities at five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and transferrable at the Bank of England; and whereas several of the said Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, by Length of Time or other Accidents, have been forgot or neglected to be claimed by the Proprietors thereof, and probably no Title to them, or several of them, can or will be made out; and whereas there now remains in the Exchequer the Sum of ten thousand seven hundred and twenty-five Pounds five Shillings and three Pence Farthing, which has been reserved there for several Years, to answer the Annuities due on such unclaimed Debts, from the said twenty-sixth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, to the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, which in the mean Time, and until such Titles can be made out, might be employed towards the Discharging the national Debts incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, whereby there would be an annual Saving of the Interest thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of ten thousand seven hundred twenty-five Pounds five Shillings and three Pence Farthing, now remaining in the Exchequer, shall and may be issued and applied for, and as Part of the Fund commonly called the Sinking Fund, towards the Redemption and Payment of all or any of the Joint-Stocks of Annuities herein before directed to be discharged thereby; any Thing in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case at any Time or Times hereafter, any Person or Persons shall make out a good Title to any of the said unsatisfied principal Sums, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, then or in any such Case, and so often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, now or for the Time being, or any three of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to compute the Principal and Interest that would have been payable thereon, in case the same had been claimed in due Time, and to order and direct the same to be paid and discharged out of any of the Monies arisen or to arise at the Exchequer, or of or for the several Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies commonly called the Sinking Fund, so as the Sum or Sums of Money so to be ordered and directed, do not exceed in the whole the said Sum of ten thousand seven hundred twenty-five Pounds, five Shillings and three Pence Farthing, herein before directed to be issued and applied as Part of the Sinking Fund; any Thing in this or any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provision for future Claims on that Debt.

IX. And whereas, in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sum of one million, to be raised by Way of a Lottery, eleven thousand and ninety-three Lottery-Tickets were returned into the Exchequer, as and for the Sum of one hundred and ten thousand nine hundred and thirty Pounds, Part of the Supply granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; but afterwards upon the Drawing of the said Lottery, the said eleven thousand and ninety-three Tickets happened to be intituled in Blanks, and Benefits, computed altogether, only to the Principal Sum of one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, as their Share or Interest in the Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, created by the said Act, by Means whereof there was a Deficiency or Loss of Cash in the Exchequer, on that Head of Service, of seven thousand six hundred and fifty-seven Pounds ten Shillings, which hath since been provided for, as Part of the Sum of one hundred and sixty thousand three hundred and six Pounds seventeen Shillings and five Pence Farthing, granted in this present Sessions of Parliament, for the Deficiency of Grants for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Teller of the Exchequer, into whose Office the said eleven thousand and ninety-three Tickets were returned as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby discharged of and from the said Deficiency, or Sum of seven thousand six hundred and fifty-seven Pounds and ten Shillings, which did happen or arise as a Loss thereon, upon the Drawing of the said Lottery, and shall not be any further or longer charged therewith.

Lottery-Tickets 1726. returned in the Exchequer to be applied for discharging standing Orders for the Sufferers at Nevis and St. Christophers. 12 Geo. 1. c. 2.

X. And whereas the said Lottery-Tickets so intituled as aforesaid, being applicable to any Part of the Supplies granted in the last Sessions of Parliament, have been accordingly applied towards making good the Deficiencies of the General Fund for the Years ending at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, and Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and the same now remains in the Exchequer as Cash, on the Head of the Sinking Fund: And whereas, in Pursuance of several Acts of Parliament, several standing Orders at the Exchequer are or may be made out for certain Debentures, made out by Authority of Parliament, for the Sufferers at Nevis and Saint Christophers, for Payment of several Principal Sums of Money, amounting together to the Sum of one hundred and forty-one thousand and ninety-three Pounds fifteen Shillings and one Penny Farthing, attended with Annuities, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and charged on the said General Fund: And whereas all or many of the Proprietors of the said standing Orders are or may be desirous to exchange their said standing Orders, for an equal Share or Interest in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, in case they were enabled so to do, by Means whereof the said one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, Part of the same Annuities, may be disposed of without any further Loss or Discount; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury or any three or more of them now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall or may cause all the said Lottery-Tickets, so as aforesaid remaining in the Exchequer, to be entred for such Certificates as the said Lottery Act has for that Purpose directed, in the Name or Names of such one or more of the Teller or Tellers of his Majesty's Exchequer, as they shall think fit; and that from and after such Entry or making out such Certificates, the Share or Interest which the said Lottery Tickets are intituled to in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, shall be vested and remain in such Teller or Tellers as Cash in the Exchequer, and upon Trust in the first Place, to pay, apply or dispose of the Annuity due, or to grow due thereon, to and for Part of the Fund, commonly called the Aggregate Fund, when, and as the same shall become due and payable, and subject thereto, upon Trust to assign and transfer the Whole, or any Part of the Principal Sum, to which the said Lottery Tickets are entitled, in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, to such Person or Persons, as being Proprietors of the said last mentioned standing Orders, shall voluntarily deliver up to be cancelled the like or equal Principal Sum or Sums, in any of the said last mentioned Debenture-Orders, and subject thereto, upon Trust to assign and transfer the Residue of the said Principal Sum in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, which shall not be assigned or transferred to the Proprietors of the said Debenture-Orders, to such Uses, and for such Purposes, as shall be hereafter directed by the Authority of Parliament, of and concerning the same, and to and for none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

The Lottery-Tickets may be exchanged for Shares in the Joint-Stock of 3 l. per Cent. Annuities.

XI. And to the End and Intent that the said last mentioned standing Orders may be regularly discharged, according to the Course of the Exchequer, Be it further enacted by the Authority

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Principal Sums as are transferrable at the Bank of England, shall be paid in intire Payments, to the Cashier of the said Bank, for the Use of the several Proprietors thereof, by way of Imprest, and upon Account, to be by him paid over as soon after as conveniently may be, to the several Persons intitled to receive the same; and that such of the said Principal Sums as are contained in the said standing Orders, made or to be made out at the Exchequer, shall be paid off in such numerical Order, Course and Progression as the said several Orders do or shall stand upon the Register thereof, kept at the Exchequer, beginning with N^o 1. and so on progressively, until all of them shall be paid off and discharged, without any undue Preference of any one of them before the other of them, in the like Manner in all Respects as is directed in an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land-Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, for paying off and discharging the several Orders of Loan directed or authorized to be made forth by Virtue or in Pursuance of the same Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall judge it more convenient to redeem or pay off all or any of the before-mentioned Joint-Stocks of Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, preferably to the Discharging and Cancelling all or any Part of the Exchequer-Bills now standing out and charged on the said Sinking Fund, then it shall and may be lawful for them, or any three of them, from Time to Time, by and with the Consent of the Contractors for Circulating and Exchanging the same Exchequer-Bills, and not otherwise, to postpone or defer the Paying off, Cancelling or Discharging the same Exchequer-Bills, or any of them, until after the Redemption and Payment of all or any of the said Joint-Stocks of Annuities, but no further; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Annuities as shall grow or become due or payable, for or in respect of the several before-mentioned Annuities, until the Redemption thereof by Payment of the said Principal Monies, in Manner as aforesaid, and all Arrears thereof (if any such shall be) shall be paid, together with the said respective Principal Sums, out of the respective Funds, on which the same are at present charged or chargeable; and that when, and as any of the said several Principal Sums, shall from Time to Time be paid off, or Money sufficient for that Purpose shall be reserved in the Exchequer, or in the Hands of the said Cashier, payable on Demand, the Annuity attending the same shall from thenceforth be, and is hereby declared to be redeemed, and shall no longer be paid or payable, but shall cease and determine for the Benefit of the Sinking Fund.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which shall arise of or for the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies (over and beyond what will satisfy and pay the several Monies before-mentioned, and such other Charges, as have been heretofore made thereon by Authority of Parliament) shall be appropriated, reserved and applied, to and for the further Discharging the Principal and Interest of such National Debts and Incumbrances, as were incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and are declared to be National Debts, and were provided for by Act or Acts of Parliament, in such Manner and Form as shall be directed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament to be discharged therewith, or out of the same, and to and for none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

VII. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (of Glorious Memory) it was (amongst other Things) provided and enacted, that in Lieu and Discharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof, granted by his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, by Letters Patent out of the Hereditary Revenue of Excise, in Satisfaction of certain Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, to be then due from his said late Majesty to the respective Patentees therein named, the said Hereditary Revenue of Excise should, from and after the twenty-sixth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, be and stand charged and chargeable for ever with the Payment of annual Sums, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, to be issued and paid out of the said Revenue by quarterly Payments out of the Receipt of the Exchequer, by the Officers of the same, unto the respective Owners and Proprietors of the said annual Sums, and to their Heirs and Assigns for ever, without any Fee or Charge, the said annual Payments after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be subject nevertheless to be redeemed upon Payment of a Moiety of the Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent; and whereas the Whole of all the Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, and which are commonly called the Bankers Debt, did amount to one million three hundred and twenty-eight thousand five hundred and twenty-six Pounds, and the Moiety thereof, for which the said annual Sums were redeemable, did amount to six hundred sixty-four thousand two hundred and sixty-three Pounds, and the said Moieties were by the said Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign (for Redeeming the Duties and Revenues which were settled to pay off Principal and Interest on the Orders made forth on four Lottery-Acts) provided for to be subscribed into a Joint-Stock of Annuities at five Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and transferrable at the Bank of England; and whereas several of the said Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, by Length of Time or other Accidents, have been forgot or neglected to be claimed by the Proprietors thereof, and probably no Title to them, or several of them, can or will be made out; and whereas there now remains in the Exchequer the Sum of ten thousand seven hundred and twenty-five Pounds five Shillings and three Pence Farthing, which has been reserved there for several Years, to answer the Annuities due on such unclaimed Debts, from the said twenty-sixth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, to the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, which in the mean Time, and until such Titles can be made out, might be employed towards the Discharging the national Debts incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, whereby there would be an annual Saving of the Interest thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of ten thousand seven hundred twenty-five Pounds five Shillings and three Pence Farthing, now remaining in the Exchequer, shall and may be issued and applied for, and as Part of the Fund commonly called the Sinking Fund, towards the Redemption and Payment of all or any of the Joint-Stocks of Annuities herein before directed to be discharged thereby; any Thing in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case at any Time or Times hereafter, any Person or Persons shall make out a good Title to any of the said unsatisfied principal Sums, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, then or in any such Case, and so often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, now or for the Time being, or any three of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to compute the Principal and Interest that would have been payable thereon, in case the same had been claimed in due Time, and to order and direct the same to be paid and discharged out of any of the Monies arisen or to arise at the Exchequer, or of or for the several Surplusses, Excelses or Overplus Monies commonly called the Sinking Fund, so as the Sum or Sums of Money so to be ordered and directed, do not exceed in the whole the said Sum of ten thousand seven hundred twenty-five Pounds, five Shillings and three Pence Farthing, herein before directed to be issued and applied as Part of the Sinking Fund; any Thing in this or any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And whereas, in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sum of one million, to be raised by Way of a Lottery, eleven thousand and ninety-three Lottery-Tickets were returned into the Exchequer, as and for the Sum of one hundred and ten thousand nine hundred and thirty Pounds, Part of the Supply granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; but afterwards upon the Drawing of the said Lottery, the said eleven thousand and ninety-three Tickets happened to be intituled in Blanks, and Benefits, computed altogether, only to the Principal Sum of one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, as their Share or Interest in the Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, created by the said Act, by Means whereof there was a Deficiency or Loss of Cash in the Exchequer, on that Head of Service, of seven thousand six hundred and fifty-seven Pounds ten Shillings, which hath since been provided for, as Part of the Sum of one hundred and sixty thousand three hundred and six Pounds seventeen Shillings and five Pence Farthing, granted in this present Sessions of Parliament, for the Deficiency of Grants for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Teller of the Exchequer, into whose Office the said eleven thousand and ninety-three Tickets were returned as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby discharged of and from the said Deficiency, or Sum of seven thousand six hundred and fifty-seven Pounds and ten Shillings, which did happen or arise as a Loss thereon, upon the Drawing of the said Lottery, and shall not be any further or longer charged therewith.

X. And whereas the said Lottery-Tickets so intituled as aforesaid, being applicable to any Part of the Supplies granted in the last Sessions of Parliament, have been accordingly applied towards making good the Deficiencies of the General Fund for the Years ending at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, and Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and the same now remains in the Exchequer as Cash, on the Head of the Sinking Fund: And whereas, in Pursuance of several Acts of Parliament, several standing Orders at the Exchequer are or may be made out for certain Debentures, made out by Authority of Parliament, for the Sufferers at Nevis and Saint Christophers, for Payment of several Principal Sums of Money, amounting together to the Sum of one hundred and forty-one thousand and ninety-three Pounds fifteen Shillings and one Penny Farthing, attended with Annuities, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and charged on the said General Fund: And whereas all or many of the Proprietors of the said standing Orders are or may be desirous to exchange their said standing Orders, for an equal Share or Interest in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, in case they were enabled so to do, by Means whereof the said one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, Part of the same Annuities, may be disposed of without any further Loss or Discount; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury or any three or more of them now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall or may cause all the said Lottery-Tickets, so as aforesaid remaining in the Exchequer, to be entered for such Certificates as the said Lottery Act has for that Purpose directed, in the Name or Names of such one or more of the Teller or Tellers of his Majesty's Exchequer, as they shall think fit; and that from and after such Entry or making out such Certificates, the Share or Interest which the said Lottery Tickets are intituled to in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, shall be vested and remain in such Teller or Tellers as Cash in the Exchequer, and upon Trust in the first Place, to pay, apply or dispose of the Annuity due, or to grow due thereon, to and for Part of the Fund, commonly called the Aggregate Fund, when, and as the same shall become due and payable, and subject thereto, upon Trust to assign and transfer the Whole, or any Part of the Principal Sum, to which the said Lottery Tickets are entitled, in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, to such Person or Persons, as being Proprietors of the said last mentioned standing Orders, shall voluntarily deliver up to be cancelled the like or equal Principal Sum or Sums, in any of the said last mentioned Debenture-Orders, and subject thereto, upon Trust to assign and transfer the Residue of the said Principal Sum in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, which shall not be assigned or transferred to the Proprietors of the said Debenture-Orders, to such Uses, and for such Purposes, as shall be hereafter directed by the Authority of Parliament, of and concerning the same, and to and for none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

XI. And to the End and Intent that the said last mentioned standing Orders may be regularly discharged, according to the Course of the Exchequer, Be it further enacted by the Authority thority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall and are hereby impowered to direct the Auditor of his Majesty's Exchequer, at any Time before the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, to receive and take in from any of the Proprietors of the same Orders any Number of the said Orders, containing therein any Principal Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Principal Sum of one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds ten Shillings; and the said Auditor shall thereupon receive in all such Orders, as shall be brought to him for that Purpose, until the said Sum of one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds ten Shillings, shall be compleated, and shall enter in a Book or Books, to be kept by him for that Purpose, a particular Account of the Orders so brought to him, and of the Proprietors of the same, in the Order and Course of Time in which they shall be so brought, without giving any undue Preference to any one of them before the other of them, so as the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Orders, or some other Person or Persons duly authorized by them for that Purpose, do, by proper Words in Writing, to be written in such Book or Books respectively, signify their Desire and Request, that such standing Order or Orders be paid off, and discharged out of the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities as aforesaid; and the said Auditor shall thereupon direct the said Teller or Tellers to pay the same Principal Sums mentioned in such Orders, out of the said Share or Interest in the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, so vested in him or them as aforesaid; and the Clerk of the Pells shall afterward record such Directions, and afterwards such Teller or Tellers shall transfer or cause to be transferred in due Manner and Form so much of the said Joint-Stock of three Pounds per Centum Annuities, as shall be contained in such Directions, to the respective Person or Persons entitled to the same, upon his, her or their Signing or Giving, upon such Order or Orders respectively, proper Discharges or Acquittances for the same; and thereupon such Orders so paid off and discharged, shall be cancelled and preserved in the Exchequer, in the same Manner as other cancelled Orders are preserved there.

An Act for importing Salt from Europe into the Province of Pensylvania in America.

WHEREAS the River Dalawar, Bay and Coast of the Province of Pensylvania in America, and the Seas adjoining are very commodiously situated for carrying on the Fishing Trade, and they abound with great Quantities of Shad, Sturgeon, Bass and several other Kinds of Fish, which may be caught and cured, and made fit for Foreign Markets, whereby the Trade of Great Britain and the Inhabitants of the said Province would reap considerable Benefit, which would enable the said Inhabitants to purchase more of the British Manufactures for their Use, than at present they are able, by reason of the little Trade and Produce the said Province affords, were it permitted for his Majesty's Subjects to import Salt from Europe into the said Province for the Curing of their Fish withal, in the like Manner as is practised in New England and Newfoundland, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, for that Purpose: And whereas formerly the Northern Parts of America were were comprehended under the General Name of New England, but since have been divided into several Provinces and Colonies, and bear other distinct Names, which occasions a Doubt whether Salt can be imported into them, without the further Aid of Parliament, by which a very considerable and beneficial Fishery might be carried on there, to the great Benefit of your Majesty's Subjects in general; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled; and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, it shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesty's Subjects to carry and import Salt from any Part of Europe, into the Province of Pennsylvania in America, in British Ships and Vessels, manned and navigated according to the Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Increasing of Shipping and Navigation; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for making more effectual an Act passed in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Preservation and Improvement of the River Wear, and Port and Haven of Sunderland, in the County of Durham. P R.

I. WHEREAS by an Act passed in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for Preservation and Improvement of the River Wear, and Port and Haven of Sunderland, in the County of Durham, divers Persons in the said Act named were made, constituted and appointed Commissioners for putting the said Act into Execution, for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned; and whereas the said Commissioners in Execution of the Powers by the said Act given to them have at a very great Expence begun to erect a Pier at the Mouth of the said River, on the South Side thereof, and have carried the same two hundred and seventy-seven Yards or thereabouts, towards the Sea; and it is found necessary for the effectual defending the Mouth of the said River from the Sands and other Impediments, which stop and hinder the Entrance into the same, not only to carry on the Pier already begun on the South Side of the said River, much further towards the Sea than it is yet carried, but also to erect another Pier or Piers, Key or Keys, Wharf or Wharfs, and other Works for the better Preservation and Improvement of the said Port and Haven; and whereas for the Carrying on the said Undertaking so far as it hath been already carried on, the Commissioners in the said Act named have been obliged to borrow and take up at Interest, from several Persons, several considerable Sums of Money, amounting in the Whole to the Sum of three thousand five hundred Pounds or thereabouts, and it will be necessary for them to borrow and take up at Interest, further Sums of Money for the more effectual Carrying on, Compleating and Finishing the said Undertaking, which they are not by the said recited Act impowered to do; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty, That it may be enacted, &c.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the said Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before-mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies before directed to be satisfied out of the said Loans or Exchequer-Bills, by any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in this Act, or in any other Act of this present Session of Parliament.

And to no other Use.

XXXIV. And as to the said Sum of sixty thousand Pounds by this Act appropriated, on Account of Half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules herein after prescribed, shall be duly observed in the Application thereof; that is to say, That no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor, under the Age of sixteen Years, at the Time when the Regiment, Troop or Company in which he served was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same who hath resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by Virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons who would have been otherwise entitled to the same, as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the five Regiments of Dragoons, and eight Regiments of Foot, lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

Rules to be observed in the Application of the Half-pay.

XXXV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for granting an Aid to his Majesty by laying a Duty upon all Victuallers, and Retailers of Beer and Ale within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the weekly Bills of Mortality, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, and for other Purposes therein expressed, several Supplies which have been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, among which any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding seventy-three thousand Pounds, upon Account of Half-pay, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land-Forces and Marines, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf; Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Sum of seventy-three thousand Pounds, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers according to the said Rules, by the said Act prescribed to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall or may be disposed to such Officers who are maimed, or lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or to such others, as by Reason of their long Service or otherwise, his Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants, under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the Over-
plus of 73,000 l.
appropriated for Half-pay 1726.
shall be applied.

MOST Gracious Sovereign, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties upon Coals, for building fifty new Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof; and other Purposes therein mentioned, it was enacted, That for all Sorts of Coals and Culm, which from and after the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, should be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberty of the said City upon the same River, there should be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon (over and besides all other Impositions and Duties) according to the Rates herein after mentioned; that is to say, For all such Sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing thirty-six Bushels Winchester Measure, the Sum of three Shillings; and for such Sort of Coals as are sold by the Ton, for every Ton thereof, containing twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of three Shillings; all the Produce of which said Imposition on Coals and Culm was thereby appropriated for the building of fifty new Churches, in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof; and other Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, the said Impositions and Duties on Coals and Culm were further granted to your Majesty, from the twenty-seventh Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, to the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and the whole Produce thereof thereby applied for the making Provision for the Ministers of the said fifty new Churches, and other Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing certain Duties upon Coals and Culm, and for establishing certain Funds to raise Money, as well to proceed in the building of new Churches, as also to compleat the Supply granted to his Majesty, and to reserve the Overplus Monies of the said Duties for the Disposition of Parliament, and for more effectual suppressing private Lotteries, the same Impositions and Duties were granted to your Majesty, from the twenty-seventh Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, to the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, and were thereby charged with a particular Fund of twenty-one thousand Pounds per Annum for thirty-two Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, for the raising the Sum of three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, in Lieu of the Provisions by the former Acts, for the building of the said Churches, and other Purposes before mentioned, and were by the same Act further charged with another particular Fund of thirty thousand five hundred and fifty-nine Pounds fourteen Shillings per Annum, for the like Term of thirty-two Years, from the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, for the paying off and discharging the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, with Interest at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the fortunate Tickets in the Lottery established by the said last mentioned Act; and in and by the said last mentioned Act, it was enacted, That all the Surplus, Excess or Overplus Monies, which should quarterly arise by the said Duties on Coals and Culm (over and above so much as should be sufficient to discharge the several annual or other Sums thereby charged thereon) and all the Surplus, which should remain after the said Sum of three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, to be charged on the said particular Fund of twenty-one thousand Pounds per Annum, and the Principal and Interest, to be charged on the said particular Fund of thirty thousand five hundred and fifty-nine Pounds fourteen Shillings per Annum, should be entirely paid off, discharged and satisfied, should be kept apart, and reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and should not be disposed or applied to any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but by the Authority of Parliament, and according to such future Act or Acts of Parliament, as should be made and passed for the Disposition thereof: And whereas by a subsequent Act of Parliament, made in the sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign, for enabling the South-Sea Company to enlarge the Capital Stock and Fund of the said Company, the said Duties on Coals and Culm were continued for ever; and it was thereby enacted, That the said Governor and Company might before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one redeem all and every, or any the redeemable Debts and Incumbrances therein particularly set forth and enumerated, including therein the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds for the said Lottery, and the Securities for the

the same, by paying off the same, at the Rate of one hundred Pounds for every one hundred Pounds principal Money, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Sum; and it was thereby enacted, That upon such Payment of the respective Sum or Sums payable to the Proprietors for such Redemption the same should be adjudged to be redeemed, and the Interest and Annuity payable in respect thereof to the respective Proprietors of such Debts and Incumbrances should thenceforth cease and determine to be payable to them, and in lieu thereof an Annuity after such and the like Rate as the Interest-Money and Annuity, as was then payable for or in respect of such Debts or Incumbrances, should be from thenceforth payable to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, until Redemption by Parliament, and a proportional Addition in respect thereof should be made to their Capital Stock; and it was by the same Act provided, That if the Proprietors of the said redeemable Debts and Incumbrances should be willing to accept, in lieu of the said Rate of one hundred Pounds per Centum in Money, a Share or Shares in the Capital or Joint Stock of the said Company, at such Price as should be agreed on between the said Company and the said Proprietors, that then, in lieu of their respective Debts, they should be entitled to such Shares in the said Capital or Joint Stock; and that such Persons so accepting Stock in lieu of Money should deliver up to such Person or Persons, as for that Purpose should be appointed, the Orders whereby such Proprietors were entitled to such Debts or Incumbrances, and that the Person or Persons to be appointed for taking in the said Orders should deliver the said Orders into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, there to remain for ever; and that no Payments or Issues upon any of the said Orders so delivered up should afterwards be made at the Exchequer, unless for Arrears of the said Annuities or Interest Monies; and the particular Duties, Revenues, Funds and Provisions charged with the Payment of the Annuities and Debts, which were payable by the said Orders so delivered up, should be thenceforth discharged of and from the same; and by the same last mentioned Act it was enacted, That the said Company should have an additional Allowance for Charges of Management, in Proportion to the Annuities and Debts to be taken in or paid off, by them to be settled in Manner as therein is mentioned; and that the same, together with the Sum then allowed them for Charges of Management, should be charged upon and payable out of the particular Duties, Revenues and Incomes by the said Act charged or intended to be charged to and with their then present Annuity, and the several Additions to be made thereto: And whereas, in Pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, the South-Sea Company did redeem so much of the said Debt of five hundred thousand Pounds as amounted to the principal Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds, by taking the same into their Capital Stock at the Prices agreed between them and the said Proprietors, and the standing Orders for the same have been accordingly delivered up into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, and by Means thereof the said Company are become entitled to an Annuity or yearly Sum of seventeen thousand three hundred eighty-four Pounds four Shillings, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, in respect of the said principal Sum so redeemed and taken into their Capital Stock, and the Residue of the said principal Debt or Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds hath been since paid off and discharged, by Means whereof the said Annuity of thirty thousand five hundred fifty-nine Pounds fourteen Shillings is redeemed and determined, and the said Impositions or Duties stand now charged with the said particular Fund of twenty-one thousand Pounds per Annum for the Residue of the said Term of thirty-two Years, for the Purposes aforesaid, and with the said Annuity of seventeen thousand three hundred eighty-four Pounds four Shillings, payable to the South-Sea Company, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, and with a proportionable Part of the additional Allowance for Charges of Management, allowed or to be allowed the said Company, in respect of the said Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds so redeemed and taken into their Capital Stock as aforesaid: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, taking into our serious Consideration the great Expences and Charges your Majesty must necessarily be at for the Defence of this Realm, and maintaining the important Town and Fortress of Gibraltar, now actually besieged by the Forces of the King of Spain; for the preserving the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and maintaining and preserving a just Balance of Power and Peace in Europe; and being desirous to raise the necessary Supplies which we have cheerfully granted to your Majesty for these Purposes, in the easiest Manner we are able, for the Benefit of your Subjects, have freely and voluntarily given and granted, and by this Act do give and grant to your Majesty the Sum of three hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, to be raised in such Manner and Form as is herein after directed; and to that End do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer one Book or Register, in which all the Orders for Money payable upon this Act shall be entered and registered; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to lend to his Majesty, at the said Receipt, upon Credit of the said Surplus, Excels or Overplus Monies so as aforesaid reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of three hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, which Lenders shall have Interest for their Forbearance of their respective Loans, not exceeding the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, so as such Loans be allowed to be made by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or by the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, who are hereby authorized to issue their Warrants for that Purpose, as fast as such Loans shall be wanted for the publick Service; the said Interest to be paid every three Months from the making of such Loans, until the Satisfaction of the principal Sums respectively; and that no Monies so to be lent, shall be rated or assessed in any Tax or Assessment whatsoever; and that every such Lender shall immediately have a Copy of Loan struck for the Money by him, her or them lent, and an Order of the same Date for Repayment thereof, with such Interest as aforesaid; and that all such Orders shall be registered in Course according to their Dates, and all Persons thereupon shall be paid in Course, as their Orders shall stand registered, so as the Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, whose Orders shall be first registered, shall be accounted the Person or Persons to be first paid, and so successively in Course; and that the said Surplus, Excels or Overplus Monies shall XVII. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the paying off, cancelling and discharging all the said Loans, Exchequer-Bills, Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges, and subject thereto, all the Surplus, Excess or Overplus Monies to arise by, for or upon the said Impositions or Duties on Coals and Culm, to be computed quarterly, as by the said Act of the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign is directed, shall from Time to Time be kept apart, and reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be applied or disposed to any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but by the Authority of Parliament, and according to such future Act or Acts of Parliament as shall be made and passed for the Disposition thereof.

Not to alter the Provisions made by the Acts

5 Geo. 1. c. 9.

6 Geo. 1. c. 4.

XVIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, in any Manner to alter, defeat, weaken or impeach the Provisions made by the said several Acts of the fifth and sixth Years of his Majesty's Reign, or either of them, for the due Payment of the said particular Fund of twenty-one thousand Pounds per Annum, or any the Principal Sums to be raised thereby, or the Interest thereof, or of the said Annuity of seventeen thousand three hundred eighty-four Pounds four Shillings, so as aforesaid due and payable to the South-Sea Company for or in respect of the said Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds subscribed into their Capital Stock, or the additional Allowance for Charges of Management, or any other Right or Interest which the said South-Sea Company, or any other Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, claiming or to claim by, from or under them, have or ought to have out of the Monies arising by or for the said Impositions or Duties, by Virtue of the before recited Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, but the same shall for ever hereafter remain and continue in as full Force, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

When the Duties on Coals shall be understood to be redeemed.

XIX. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after Payment and Discharge, as well of all the Loans and Exchequer-Bills to be created by this Act, with all the Interest, Premium, Rate and Charges thereon, as of all former or other Sum or Sums of Money charged on the said Impositions and Duties on Coals and Culm, then and not till then the same Impositions and Duties shall be understood to be redeemed by Parliament, and shall not be issued, paid or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, but by Authority of Parliament; any Provision in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

The 370,000 l. appropriated for the Service of the Year 1727.

XX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of three hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, to be raised in Manner as aforesaid, shall be appropriated and applied, and is hereby appropriated for and towards the same Uses, Intents and Purposes, that the Sums of Money already granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Supply or Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, are appropriated or directed to be issued by an Act of this present Sessions of Parliament (for continuing the Duties on Halt, Hum, Cyder and Perry for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven) or by any other Act or Acts of this present Sessions of Parliament, and to and for none other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

C A P. XXII.

^{c. 28.} beyond the Seas, or out of Great Britain, should and might be made at any Time before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two: And by the said Act it is further enacted, That the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, should and might inquire and inform themselves, by or upon the Testimony of Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Examination of the Persons making such Claims upon Oath (all which Oaths they, or any one or more of them, had Power to administer) or by the Inspection of any Mortgages, Bonds, Bills, Notes or other Securities, or any Accounts relating to the said Debts, or any of them so claimed, or by Inspection of any Grants, Gifts, Settlements, Conveyances, Transfers or Assurances relating to the said Estates, Interests or Incumbrances so claimed, or any of them, or by all or any of the said Ways and Means, or otherwise, according to their Discretions, as soon as conveniently might be, touching all or any of the Debts, Estates, Interests, or Incumbrances so claimed, and should make a Report or Reports in Writing of their Proceedings therein, with their Opinions thereon, from Time to Time, to the Court of Directors of the said South-Sea Company for the Time being; and if the said Court of Directors for the Time being should be satisfied in the Justice of such Claim or Claims, or that any Debt or Sum of Money ought to be paid thereon, or that the Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance so claimed, or any Part thereof, ought to be allowed, and should declare their Satisfaction therein, by any Resolution or Resolutions of that Court; and if the Party or Parties, by or for whom such Claim should be made, should likewise, in a Book or Books to be kept in the said Trustees Publick Office for that Purpose, declare in Writing under his, her or their Hands, his, her or their Acquiescence in such Resolution or Resolutions of the said Court of Directors for the Time being, touching his, her or their Debt, Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance so claimed, at any Time or Times before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two; then in all and every such Case and Cases the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, should give Warrant for the Payment and Discharge of every such Debt or Sum of Money so liquidated or adjusted, out of such Monies as should come to the Hands of the Cashier of the said South-Sea Company for the Time being, for the Purposes in the said Act expressed: And it was by the said Act further enacted, That the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons*

Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of them, sitting at the same Time and Place, and not otherwise, should, and they were thereby authorized, from Time to Time, to hear and determine all Differences, Disputes and Controversies touching or concerning any Debts, Estates, Interests, or Incumbrances, which should be claimed within the respective Times therein before limited for making such Claims, and could not or should not be liquidated or adjusted between the said Court of Directors for the Time being, and the respective Claimants within the Time before limited in that Behalf, and all Incidents relating thereunto, in such Manner, as by the said Act is directed: And by the said Act it is further enacted, That the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, upon a Complaint to be made by or for any Claimant of any such Debt, Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance, whose Claims should not be liquidated or adjusted as aforesaid, (so as such Complaint be made on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two) should proceed in such Manner as by the said Act is directed; and the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, in all Cases where they should find that any Debt or Sum of Money ought to be paid to such Claimant upon such Claims, or that the Estate, Interest, or Incumbrance so claimed, or any Part thereof ought to be allowed, should and might, at any Time or Times before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, transmit a Certificate or Certificates thereof to the said Trustees in the said Act nominated: And by the said Act it is provided and enacted, That the Powers given by the said Act to the said Justices and Barons, for hearing and determining such Differences, Disputes and Controversies relating to such Claims as aforesaid, and issuing their Certificates concerning the same as aforesaid, should continue and be in Force until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and no longer. And whereas by an Act made in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for prolonging the Times for hearing and determining Claims before the Trustees, in whom the Estates of the late South-Sea Directors, and of John Aislabie, Esquire, and likewise of James Craggs, Esquire, deceased, are vested, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, several of the Times in the former Act limited were enlarged to further Times therein expressed: And whereas by an Act made in the ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for further enlarging the Times for entering, bearing and determining Claims on the Estates vested in the Trustees of the South-Sea Company, and obliging Persons to claim Stock by the Time therein mentioned, for Money Subscriptions, and for other the Purposes therein mentioned, the Times in the said last mentioned Act limited were further enlarged to other Times therein expressed: And whereas by an Act made in the tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Times for hearing and determining Claims by the Trustees, for raising Money upon the Estates of the late Directors of the South-Sea Company and others, and for reviving and continuing the Provision formerly made against requiring Special Bail in Actions or Suits upon Contracts for Stock or Subscriptions, between the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and nineteen and the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, the Times in the last mentioned Act of the ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign were enlarged to further Times therein expressed; and whereas the Time by the last mentioned Act limited for the said Court of Directors being satisfied of the Justice of such Claim or Claims, and for declaring their Satisfaction therein by any Resolution or Resolutions of the said Court, did expire on the twenty-fourth Day of December last, and the other Times limited by the said Act for other Purposes therein mentioned are near expiring; now forasmuch as the Claims made pursuant to the first recited Act, and also to the herein before recited Act of the ninth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, could not be adjusted and determined within the Times already limited for the same; May it please your most excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c. EXP.

Time for the Directors of the South-Sea Company being satisfied in any Claims, enlarged to 24 June 1728, and for the Judges determining Disputes, to 24 Decem. 1728. Robert Knight's Estate made liable to pay his Creditors, before any Demand of the South-Sea Company. Trustees to give their Warrants for discharging such Debts. Clause for Relief of Persons who have entred Claims for contingent Debts and Incumbrances. Trustees may compound with such Claimants. Time given to Ralph Gifford and other Creditors of Edward Gibbon, Esq; to enter their Claims before the Trustees. The Money to be paid to Creditors or Executors. Trustees may dismiss Claims not prosecuted within 60 Days after personal Notice or Publication in the Gazette. Trustees before 25 March 1728, to settle an Account of all South-Sea Stock and Annuities vested in them, &c. 1 Geo. 2. Stat. 2. c. 8. s. 21.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act for the better Regulation of the Woollen Manufacture, and for preventing Disputes among the Persons concerned therein; and for limiting a Time for prosecuting for the Forfeiture appointed by an Act of the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, in case of Payment of the Workmens Wages in any other Manner than in Money.

I. WHEREAS divers Controversies and Disputes have arisen between the Clothiers and Makers of Woollen Goods and the Manufacturers employed by them, concerning the Length of the Warping Bars, and the Uncertainty of Weights by which Wool, Yarn and other Materials used in the manufacturing or making up of Woollen Goods have been delivered out to the several Workmen employed therein: Now for the better Regulating of the said Manufacture, and the Quieting of more speedily Determining all Disputes which may happen for the future, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, it shall not be lawful for any Maker of mixed, medley or white Cloth to use or cause to be used, any Bars, called Warping Bars, but only such which shall be of the Measure and Length hereafter appointed; that is to say, Every long Warping Bar shall be in Length three Yards and three Inches, and no more; and every round Warping Bar shall be four Yards and four Inches round, and no more; the said three Inches on the long Bar, and the said four Inches on the round Bar, being in lieu of the over Measure usually allowed in Cloths; and also that the Thrums at the End of the Warping Bars shall not exceed eighteen Inches in Length; and if any Maker of such Cloth shall after the said first Day of June use or cause to be used any Warping Bar of other Length or Measure than what is hereby appointed, or with Thrums exceeding eighteen Inches in Length, every such Maker of such Cloth shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

The Length of Warping Bars and Thrums to be used in mixed, medley or white Cloth.

All Wool, &c. to be given out by-Weight at 16 oz. to the lb.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Maker of such Cloth or Goods mixed with Wool shall give out all Wool, Yarn or other Materials for such Manufacture by Weight, after the Rate of sixteen Ounces to the Pound, and shall receive back the same by the same Weight without Fraud or Deceit, upon Pain of forfeiting and paying the Sum of five Pounds for every Offence contrary to the true Meaning of this Act.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Clothier or Baker of Woollen Cloths, Druggets or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool, shall use or cause to be used any Ends of Yarn, Wastes or other Refuse of Cloths, Druggets or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool, Flocks and Pinions only excepted, by working the same up again into any Sorts of Goods whatsoever, upon Pain of forfeiting and paying for every such Offence, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, the Sum of five Pounds.

No Clothier to use any Ends of Yarn, &c. by working them up again.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Prosecutions for Offences contrary to the true Meaning of this Act shall be heard and determined by two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, Division or Place where such Offence shall be committed, upon Information given upon Oath within three Calendar Months after such Offence committed; and such Justices are hereby authorized and required to examine, hear and determine the same; and upon every Conviction for such Offence to issue their Warrant or Warrants to levy such Pains or Penalties by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels; one Moiety thereof to the Use of the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence or Offences shall be committed; and for want of a sufficient Distress to commit the Offender or Offenders to the County Gaol for any Time not exceeding the Space of three Months, or until Satisfaction be made by such Offender or Offenders.

Prosecutions, how to be heard.

V. And be it enacted, That all Disputes and Demands relating to Work, Wages or Damages between any Clothier or Baker of Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool, and any Weaver or other Person or Persons employed in such Manufactures, shall be heard and determined by two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, Division or Place where such Dispute or Demand shall arise, who are hereby required and authorized, upon Complaint to them made, to summon the Parties, and to hear and examine upon Oath, and adjudge such Satisfaction, and to give such Costs and Damages to the Party aggrieved, as in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, and to issue their Warrant or Warrants to levy such Costs and Damages by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons, who shall refuse, for the Space of ten Days, to pay such Costs and Damages by them so adjudged; and for want of a sufficient Distress, to commit the Party to the County Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding the Space of three Months, or until Satisfaction shall be made by the Party so offending.

How Disputes relating to Wages or Damages shall be heard.

VI. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person aggrieved by any Order of such Justices, to appeal to the Justices of Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the County, Division or Place where such Order shall be made, giving six Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal; and the Justices in their Quarter-Sessions are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and make such Order, and to award such Costs and Damages, as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, and to levy, by their Order or Warrants such Costs and Damages so awarded, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of any Person or Persons who shall refuse to obey the same; and for want of sufficient Distress to commit the Party to the County Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, or until Satisfaction shall be made by the Parties offending; and such Award or Order of the Justices at the Quarter-Sessions shall be final, nor shall the Proceedings of any Justice or Justices out of Sessions, or of the Justices in their Sessions, in Pursuance of this Act, be liable to be removed by Certiorari or other Form or Process of Law; any Thing in this present or any other Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Appeal to the Quarter-Sessions, &c.

VII. And to prevent the ill Practices aforesaid, and to detect the same, in case they shall be committed, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, upon Information to him or them given on Oath, that any Person or Persons are (or are suspected to be) guilty of any of the ill Practices aforesaid, to issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to any Constable, City-tingman or other Peace Officer or Officers, or to any Churchwarden or Overseer, directing him or them in the Day-time to enter into any House or Houses, Shop or Shops, Warehouse or Warehouses, or other suspected Place or Places, to search for and examine all such Bars and Weights as shall be made use of for the Purposes before-mentioned by any such Clothier or Baker of Woollen Goods as aforesaid; and if any Clothier or Baker of Woollen Cloth shall interrupt any such Officer or Officers in the Execution of his or their Office or Offices, that then such Clothier or Baker shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Justices on Information of ill Practices may issue Warrants to search.

VIII. And whereas several Abuses have been committed in the Woollen Manufacture by Persons, commonly called End-Gatherers, going about the Counties within this Kingdom, and collecting, buying and receiving from the Labourers employed in such Manufacture Ends of Yarn, Wastes, Thrums, short Yarn and other Refuse of Cloth, Drugget and other Woollen Goods, and Goods mixed with Wool, Flocks and Pinions only excepted; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven any such Person or Persons shall be found collecting, buying, receiving or any ways carrying or conveying such Ends of Yarn, Wastes, Thrums, short Yarn or other Refuse of Cloth, Drugget or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool, Flocks and Pinions only excepted, in any Bag or Bags or other Convenience for carrying such Ends of Yarn, Wastes, Thrums, short Yarn or other Refuse of Cloth, Drugget or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool, that it shall and may be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, to search and examine such Person or Persons, his, her or their Bag or Bags or other Convenience for carrying such Ends of Yarn, Wastes, Thrums, short Yarn or other Refuse of Cloth, Drugget or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool; and if on such Search such Constable or other Officer shall find on or with any such Person or Persons any such Ends of Yarn, Wastes, Thrums, short Yarn or other Refuse of Cloth, Drugget or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool, Flocks and Pinions only excepted, that then such Constable or other Officer shall carry such Person or Persons before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Division, City or Town Corporate where such Person shall be so found and discovered.

Constables may search End-Gatherers.

If on Search Ends of Yarn, &c. be found on them, they are to carry them before a Justice.

covered so offending; which Person or Persons, upon due Conviction of any of the said Offences on Oath of one or more Witnesses or Witnesses, or by Confession of the Party or Parties, him, her or themselves, every such Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be a dangerous and incorrigible Rogue, Uagrant or Person, and shall be liable to be deemed, taken and punished as a dangerous and incorrigible Rogue, Uagrant or Person, in the same Manner as is directed by the Statute of the twelfth Year of the late Queen ANNE.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven every Baker of mixed, medley or white Broad Cloth shall satisfy and pay to the Weaver or Weavers employed by such Baker in or about the Weaving the same, according to the Number of Yards that the said Chains are laid on the Warping Bars, and not otherwise, on Pain of forfeiting and paying for every Offence contrary to the true Meaning hereof the Sum of five Pounds.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for preventing of the ill Practices used in the excessive Straining of mixed or medley Woollen Broad Cloth, every Owner or Proprietor of Tentor or Tentors, Rack or Racks for such Cloth, within the Counties of Gloucester, Wilts and Somerset, shall, after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and he is hereby required to measure such Tentor or Tentors, Rack or Racks, as shall be made use of for tentoring or racking such Cloth, and to mark or number in Figures plain and fast to be seen, the true Length of Yards of each Tentor or Rack, beginning at Number 1. and so continuing to the End thereof, upon the Top Bar belonging to each Tentor or Rack, and on the Fore-side thereof; each Yard to contain six and thirty Inches, to which shall be added one Inch more, being in lieu of the over Measure usually allowed in Cloths, so that the same Length shall contain seven and thirty Inches, to prevent any Disputes in respect of measuring by the Yard; and if any such Tentor or Tentors, Rack or Racks shall, after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, be found not to be measured or truly marked and numbered as aforesaid, the Owner or Proprietor of such Tentor or Tentors, Rack or Racks, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for each Tentor or Rack that shall be found not so numbered and marked as aforesaid; and the Justices of the Peace for the Counties aforesaid, in their respective General Quarter-Sessions next after Midsummer-Day next, and afterwards at their General Quarter-Sessions next after Easter yearly and every Year, shall choose and appoint so many skilful Men of good Character and Repute within the said respective Counties, as they shall think reasonable, to be Inspectors for the Year ensuing, and may allow to each of them a Salary not exceeding thirty Pounds per Annum, to be paid out of such Money as shall be received by the Treasurers of the said Counties respectively, as is herein after directed; which said Inspectors shall, and they hereby have full Power at all seasonable Times in the Day-time (Sundays excepted) to enter and inspect all and every the Mill and Mills, Shop and Shops, Duthouse and Douthouses, and Tentor-Grounds of every Clothier, Millman and other Person concerned in the manufacturing and milling of mixed or medley Woollen Broad Cloth; and they are to measure the Length of every Tentor or Rack, and Length and Breadth of every such Cloth he shall there find, before it shall be carried from thence, and shall stamp his Name on a Lead Seal, to be furnished by the Baker of such Cloth or Cloths, and affix the same on the Head End of every such Cloth, and shall keep one or more Book or Books, wherein shall be registered or set down such Clothier's, Millman's or other Person's Name, and the Number and exact Length and Breadth of every such Cloth, which shall be made within their respective Divisions; and shall, at every General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the County, City or Town Corporate wherein they shall be so appointed respectively, give in a true Copy of such Register, with an Account of what Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures have been levied, recovered and received, by Virtue of this Act, within their respective Divisions; and no Inspector shall enter upon the Execution of such his Office before he hath taken the Oath following before one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, City or Town wherein he shall be appointed Inspector:

I A. B. do swear, that I will well and truly execute the Office of an Inspector of mixed or medley Woollen Broad Cloth within this County, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, and according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge.

So help me God.

Penalty for refusing Entrance to the Inspectors.

XI. And if from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, any Clothier or Baker of any such Cloth, or any Millman or other Person within the Counties aforesaid, shall refuse such Inspector or Inspectors to enter the said Places or any of them for the Purposes aforesaid, the Person so refusing or resisting shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Inspectors Salary,
how to be raised.

XII. Provided, and be it enacted, That if any such Inspector or Inspectors appointed as aforesaid, do or shall act therein against his or their said Oath or Oaths, he or they being convicted thereof shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XIII. And for the raising the aforesaid Salaries for the Inspectors aforesaid, Be it enacted, That from and after the said first Day of August every Baker or Bakers of mixed or medley Woollen Broad Cloth within the Counties aforesaid, shall pay to the said Inspector or Inspectors appointed as aforesaid, the Sum of two Pence per Cloth, for every such Cloth, he, she or they shall make, before the said Cloths are sent away from the said Mill or Mills; and the said Inspector or Inspectors shall, every three Months or oftner, pay the Money by him or them so received, into the Hands of the Treasurer of the County for the Time being, where such Inspector or Inspectors shall live or exercise his or their Office or Offices, to be applied by the Direction of the said Justices at their General Quarter-Sessions, towards the Salaries of such Inspectors to be appointed by Virtue of this Act.

Penalty on Mill-man sending home Cloth before inspected.

XIV. And if any Millman within the Counties aforesaid shall, after the said first Day of August, send home to any Clothier or Baker of Cloth, any such Cloth or Cloths as aforesaid, before they are inspected and measured as aforesaid, then such Millman shall, for every Piece of Cloth so sent home, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings.

XV. Provided

XV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or make void any Powers formerly given by Charter or Act of Parliament to the Corporation of Clothiers in the City of Worcester, for the better governing or regulating the Woollen Manufacture, but that the same shall and may be used and exercised, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Not to repeal a Charter to the Clothiers of Worcester.

XVI. And whereas, by an Act passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations of Workmen employed in the Woollen Manufactures, and for the better Payment of their Wages, It is enacted, That if any Clothier, Sergemaker, Woollen or Woaded Stuffmaker, or Person concerned in making any Woollen Cloths, Serges or Stuffs, or any ways concerned in employing Woolcombers, Weavers or other Labourers in the Woollen Manufactures as aforesaid, shall pay any Person or Persons employed by them, their Wages or other Price agreed on, or any Part thereof, either in Goods, or by way of Truck, or in any other Manner than in Money, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Prosecutions on the Act 12 Geo. to be commenced within 3 Months after Offence committed.

XVII. And whereas by the said Act no Time is limited for prosecuting for such Offence as aforesaid, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Prosecution for such Offence, by Virtue of the said recited Act, shall be commenced within the Space of three Months next after such Offence committed, and not otherwise.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person is sued or molested for any Matter done in Pursuance of this Act, such Person may plead the General Issue, and may give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, or if a Verdict is given for the Defendant or Defendants, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, for which he and they shall have the same Remedy, and all Advantages as in Cases wherein Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

General Issue.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be taken and allowed as a publick Act, of which all Courts and Justices are required to take Notice, without special pleading the same.

Publick Act.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Dying Trade.

I. WHEREAS divers Persons within this Realm, using the Mystery or Craft of Dyers, have of late used and exercised false and deceitful Ways in Dying Bays and other Woollen Goods black, without using Woad, Indigo or Mather, and for passing off such Goods as true mathered Blacks, (though falsely dyed as aforesaid) the Corner only thereof hath been dyed red, and a red Rose or other Mark, for a true dyed Mather Black, tied up at such Corner, when the rest of the said Bays and Woollen Goods, or great Part thereof, are falsely dyed without Woad, Indigo or Mather as aforesaid, and such or the like deceitful Practices have been and are used in dying of black Cloths, Bays and other Woollen Goods, to imitate and resemble true woaded Blacks, without using any Woad or Indigo in the dying thereof, and a blue Rose or other Mark for a true woaded Black hath been fixed to the Corner thereof, to deceive the Buyer; and whereas great Deceit hath been practised in the dying of Blues with Logwood instead of Woad and Indigo, or mixed therewith, which Frauds and Abuses tend to the great Deceit and Hurt of his Majesty's Subjects at home, and to the Discredit and Slander, as well of the Merchants as of the Dyers of this Realm, and the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom are thereby greatly disparaged in foreign Parts; for Redress in the Premises, May it please your most excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, that if after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and Berwick upon Tweed, dye or cause to be dyed black, or as or for black, any Bays or other Woollen Goods, as or for Mather Blacks, the same not being dyed throughout with Woad, Indigo and Mather only, without any other Ingredient or Dixture, giving Tincture or Colour, or shall dye or cause to be dyed black, or as or for black, any Cloths, Long Ells, Bays or other Woollen Goods, as or for woaded Blacks, the same not being woaded throughout, every Person offending in the Premises shall forfeit and pay for such deceitful and false mathered Blacks as followeth (that is to say)

After 24 June 1727, no Person to dye any black Bays or Woollen Goods, but with Woad, Indigo and Mather only.

Or any Cloths, &c. not being woaded throughout.

Penalty.

For every long Bocking Bays, containing seventy Pards or upwards, forty-four Shillings. For every Colchester Bays or short Bays, containing thirty-five Pards or upwards, the Sum of twenty-two Shillings, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity of any such Bays, or of any other Woollen Goods falsely or deceitfully mathered or pretended to be mathered as aforesaid.

For every Cloth falsely and deceitfully dyed black without being woaded throughout, containing forty-four Pards or more, the Sum of forty Shillings.

For every Piece of Bays falsely and deceitfully dyed as aforesaid, containing seventy Pards or upwards, thirty Shillings.

For every Colchester or short Bays, containing thirty-five Pards or upwards, twelve Shillings.

For every Perpetuana or Stuff, falsely and deceitfully dyed as aforesaid, the Sum of four Shillings, and so in Proportion for any other Woollen Goods falsely and deceitfully dyed, as and for woaded Blacks as aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Woollen Goods and Manufactures which shall be truly mathered Black, according to the Directions of this Act, shall be marked with a red Rose and a blue Rose, and all Woollen Goods and Manufactures which shall be truly woaded Black throughout, according to the Directions of this Act, shall be marked with a blue Rose only; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited or forged any of the said Marks, or shall dye, stain, imprint or affix any such Mark or Marks to any of the Woollen Woollen Goods truly mathered, to be marked with a red and blue Rose, and truly woaded Black, with a blue Rose.

Penalty for forging Marks.

Woollen Goods or Manufactures aforesaid, falsely and deceitfully dyed as or for Mather or Loaded Blacks as aforesaid, every such Offender shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay four Pounds for every Piece of Goods to which the said Mark or Marks shall be affixed as aforesaid.

Penalty for using Logwood in dying Blue.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after the said twenty-fourth Day of June any Person or Persons whatsoever shall use or cause to be used, any Logwood in dying of blue, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings for every Piece of Cloth so dyed, containing in Length forty-four Pards or more, and twenty-two Shillings for every long Piece of Bocking Wags, containing in Length twenty Pards or more, and twelve Shillings for every Colchester or Short Wags, containing in Length thirty-five Pards or more, and four Shillings for every Perpetuana or Stuff, containing in Length twenty-four Pards or more, and so in Proportion for all other Sorts of Woollen Goods dyed blue with Logwood, contrary to this Act.

and Quarter-Sessions in other Places.

Searchers may enter Dyers Houses to examine Cloths, &c.

IV. And for more effectual preventing the Frauds and Abuses aforesaid, and for better Discovery thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons occupying the Trade, Art or Mystery of Dying any Manner of Woollen Cloth, Stuffs or Woollen Manufactures whatsoever, within the City of London or the Suburbs thereof, or within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles Compass of the same City, shall be subject to the Examination and Inspection of the Incorporate Company of Dyers of London; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Master, Wardens and Court of Assistants of the said Company of Dyers, by Writing or Writings, or under their Common Seal, to appoint honest and skilful Persons to be Searchers within the Limits aforesaid; and out of the Limits aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for any County, City, Town or Place, to appoint such Searchers; and it shall or may be lawful for all or any such Searchers so to be appointed by the said Company of Dyers, or by the Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, taking to his or their Assistance a Constable or other Peace-Officer of the Place (who is and are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the Premises) at all reasonable and convenient Times in the Day-time, to enter into the Shop, Warehouse or Workhouse of any Person or Persons, or Company or Corporation whatsoever, using or exercising the Trade, Art or Mystery of Dying, or into the Shop, Warehouse or Workhouse of any other Person concerned in the dying of any such Woollen Goods as aforesaid, or in the making or fixing such Marks to the same as aforesaid, to search and examine all or any Cloths, Wags, Stuffs and other Woollen Goods dyed or to be dyed black or blue, and if any Person or Persons shall oppose, hinder or refuse such Search, every such Offender shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay ten Pounds.

Penalties how to
be recovered,

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Offences against this Act, where the Penalties or Forfeitures shall exceed the Sum of five Pounds, shall or may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoin, Privilege, Protection or Wager of Law shall be granted or allowed, nor any more than one Imparance; and in Cases where the Penalties and Forfeitures shall not exceed the Sum of five Pounds, the Matter of the Offence shall or may be examined, heard and determined by two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, City, Town or Place where the Offence shall be committed (such Justices not being concerned in the Matter of the said Complaint) which Examination shall be upon Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, which Oath such Justices are hereby impowered and required to administer; and all Penalties and Forfeitures which shall happen by Virtue of this Act, shall, within the City of London and Suburbs thereof, and within ten Miles Distance of the same, go and be, the one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the said Company of Dyers; and beyond such Compass, the whole of such Penalties and Forfeitures shall go and be to the Informer or Informers, and Prosecutor or Prosecutors; and in case any Offender shall neglect or refuse to pay any of the said Penalties or Forfeitures, where the same shall not exceed the Sum of five Pounds, by the Space of twenty Days after the Conviction of such Offender, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace, before whom such Conviction was had, and such Justices are hereby required to issue their Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals to the Constable or Constables of the Ward, Precinct, Parish, Town or Place where such Offenders shall inhabit, or can be found (within the Limits of his or their Jurisdiction) to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, returning the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner or Owners; and where no sufficient Distress can be found, to commit the Offender and Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for such Time as the Justices of the Peace, before whom such Conviction shall be had, shall think fit, not exceeding three Months.

and how to be distributed.

Distress for Non-payment.

Prosecutions to commence within 40 Days.

Appeal to Quarter-Sessions.

VI. Provided, That all Prosecutions for Offences against this Act shall be commenced within forty Days next after the Offence committed or discovered, and shall be prosecuted with Effect, and without wilful Delay; and if any Person or Persons shall find him or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment or Order of any of the said Justices of the Peace, such Person or Persons may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions to be held for the County, City, Town or Place where the Offence shall be committed, giving reasonable and sufficient Notice of such Appeal, and the Judgment and Determination of the Justices at such General Quarter-Sessions shall be final; and they have hereby Power, upon such Appeal, to allow such reasonable Costs and Charges to either Party as they shall think just, to be levied and paid in such Manner, as is usual in other Cases of Appeal from Orders of Justices of the Peace to the General Quarter-Sessions.

General Issue.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Thing he or they shall do in Pursuance of this Act, or in the Execution of any of the Powers thereby granted, all and every Person and Persons so sued may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiffs or Prosecutors shall become nonsuited, or forfeat Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or a Verdict shall be given against him or them, or Judgment Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his and their treble Costs, for which he and they shall have like Remedy as in Cases where Costs by Law are given to Defendants; and this Act shall be taken and allowed as a publick Act in all Courts and Places within this Kingdom, and all Judges, Justices and others, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such, without special Pleading of the same.

An Act for the Free Importation of Cochineal, during the Time therein limited.

WHEREAS Cochineal of the Growth of the Spanish West-Indies, is of principal Use in dying Cloth, and other the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, of Scarlet, Purple and other Colours, called Grain Colours, to the great Improvement thereof, by which great Numbers of his Majesty's Subjects are employed in finishing and perfecting such Woollen Manufactures; and whereas such Cochineal, by the Laws in Being, cannot be imported but from Spain, or the Places of its Growth, and British Ships are not at present admitted into the Ports of Spain, and the Territories thereunto belonging, so that this Kingdom is not likely to be furnished with a sufficient Quantity of Cochineal for the necessary Service thereof, unless some Provision be made for the free importing of the same, during the Interruption of the Commerce with Spain, whereby great Quantities of Cloths, and other Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, are like to remain white in the Makers and Merchants Hands, for want of Cochineal to dye the same into Grain Colours for Exportation; and whereas in several Parts of Europe Cochineal is now sold at much cheaper Rates than in this Kingdom, and it is now used abroad in dying foreign Manufactures, at lower Prices than his Majesty's Subjects can dye the Manufactures of this Kingdom therewith, to the great Encouragement of foreign Woollen Manufactures, the great Prejudice of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and Impoverishment of many of his Majesty's Subjects employed therein: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twentieth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, during the Space of six Months, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import and bring Cochineal into this Kingdom, in any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels belonging to Great Britain, or to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, from any Port or Place whatsoever; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act for better Regulation of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

WHEREAS the Advancement of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures in that Part of the united Kingdom called Scotland (which are now under great Discouragements) will not only employ great Numbers of Poor, but will be a general Good to the united Kingdom, by adding to the Wealth of the Realm; and whereas several Frauds and Abuses are daily committed in the said Manufactures, whereby the Growth of Flax and Hemp within that Part of the united Kingdom is discouraged, the Credit of the said Manufacture destroyed, and the Demand for the same lessened, for want of proper Laws and Regulations for that Purpose: To the End therefore that these Frauds and Abuses may for the future be prevented, and that the Manufactures may be encouraged, and the Credit thereof raised; Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of November which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, no Person or Persons shall import or cause to be imported into any Port or Place in that Part of the united Kingdom called Scotland, any bad, mixed or damaged Lintseed or Hempseed, but that from and after the said first Day of November all Lintseed and Hempseed, that shall be imported into any Part of Scotland, of the Growth of the Netherlands, Russia, Livonia, Poland, Germany or other Places, shall be fresh, good and clean, without Mixture.

After 1 Nov.
1727, no bad
Lintseed or Hempseed to be imported into Scotland.

No damaged Lintseed to be sold in Scotland, nor Parcels of different Countries.

Seller to give an Account of the Parcel.

Penalty for selling bad Lint-seed, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November no Person or Persons shall vend, sell or expose to Sale, within any Port or Place in Scotland, any mixed or damaged Lintseed or Hempseed, or any Lintseed commonly called or known by the Name of Short Lintseed; and that no Person or Persons do presume to mix or cause to be mixed different Parcels of Lintseed or Hempseed of different Countries or Growths together; and that from and after the said first Day of November every Person who shall sell or vend any Parcel or Parcels of Lintseed or Hempseed within any Port or Place of that Part of the united Kingdom called Scotland, shall, together with the said Parcel or Parcels, deliver to the Buyer, in Writing, a particular Account of the Parcel of Lintseed or Hempseed sold by him, expressing the Quantity thereof, the Place from whence the same was imported, and where it grew, and the Year of its Growth, to the End that if the Seller shall have been guilty of any Fraud, he may be the more easily convicted, and subjected to the Penalties herein after expressed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November, all and every Person and Persons, who shall sell or expose to Sale, bad, short or damaged Lintseed or Hempseed, or who shall mix what is left of the Lintseed or Hempseed of the former Year with what is imported in a subsequent Year, or shall mix different Parcels of Lintseed or Hempseed together, or who shall sell Lintseed or Hempseed of a different Growth or Age from what he, she or they have expressed at the Sale, in the Account to be given in Writing as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall, upon being duly convicted thereof in Manner hereafter mentioned, for every such Offence, forfeit the said Lintseed or Hempseed so sold or exposed to Sale, or the Price thereof, and likewise a Sum not exceeding five Pounds Sterling, nor less than fifty Shillings for every Hoghead of Lintseed or Hempseed so sold or exposed to Sale, and so proportionably for every greater or lesser Quantity; and all and every Person and Persons who shall sell or vend any Lintseed or Hempseed by any other Measure than the Linlithgow Measure streaked, and the Fractions thereof, shall forfeit for every such Offence, the Measure used by him, her or them, and a Sum not exceeding forty Shillings Sterling, to be levied and recovered in Manner herein after particularly described.

Penalty for bad steeping Hemp or Lint.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November no Hemp or Lint within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be steeped or watered in any Boghole, Peat, Hols or Turf-Pit; and that no Lint or Hemp shall be steeped or watered for two Years successively, in any standing Pool, or in any Hole or Pit with standing Water, unless such Hole or Pit is dug near to the Side of a running River or Rivulet, from whence the said Pool, Hole or Pit may be frequently supplied with fresh Water; and all and every Person and Persons, steeping Lint or Hemp contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, shall for every such Offence, being thereof duly convicted in Manner hereafter directed, forfeit such Lint or Hemp, to be levied and recovered in Manner herein after mentioned.

Penalty for selling Lint or Hemp Yarn irregularly made up.

V. And whereas great Frauds are frequently committed in the spinning and reeling of Linen Yarn, to the great Prejudice of the Linen Manufacture, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November no Person or Persons whatsoever shall sell or expose to Sale, or import into Scotland, or carry or transport from any one Part of Scotland to another, any Linen Yarn, other than such as is made up into Cuts, and Helsps or Banks, each Hesp or Bank consisting of twelve Cuts, and no more, and each Cut containing one hundred and twenty Threads, all exactly numbered, and no more; and that all the Yarn contained in the said Hesp or Bank be Lint-Yarn only, or Tow-Yarn only, and of the same Colour and Fineness; and that no Tow-Yarn and Lint-Yarn be mixed together in one and the same Hesp or Bank, and that the same be tied up with a Piece of Packthread, and not Yarn; and that the said Yarn be well reeled, and each Cut and Hesp or Bank be separated, as the same shall be reeled, and not afterwards; and that from and after the said first Day of November the uniform Standard Reel of Scotland shall be two Yards and Half, or ninety Inches in Circumference; and that all and every Person and Persons who after the said first Day of November shall sell or expose to Sale, or carry or transport from one Part in Scotland to another, any Lint or Hemp Yarn, made up in another Manner than as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall be thereof convicted as herein after is mentioned, shall forfeit the Hesp or Bank made up of fewer Cuts than twelve, or in which any Cut shall be falsly made up, to him, her or them, who shall inform and prosecute the same with Effect.

Magistrates may destroy Reels other than Yard and an Half in Circumference.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, within any Burrough, or to and for any Person or Persons lawfully authorized, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of Peace or Magistrate, to enter into any House or Houses, the Doors thereof being open, at all Times of the Day; and if any Reel or Reels be there found, other than two Yards and an Half, or ninety Inches in Circumference, the same shall and may be carried before such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate within any Burgh; and the said Justice of the Peace or Magistrate shall and may, and are hereby authorized and required, to break, burn and utterly destroy the same.

Officers may enter into Warehouses, &c. and seize Linen Yarn made up contrary to the Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Officers herein after named, or any of them, from Time to Time, and at all Times by Day, to enter into all and every Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults and other Places made use of for keeping or making any Linen Yarn, and seize and carry away all such Linen Yarn, as they shall then and there find made up contrary to the Direction herein before mentioned, and detain the same till it shall be tried whether such Yarn was made up according to the Directions of this Act; and the same is hereby directed to be tried in the same Way and Manner, and under the same Penalties as herein after directed concerning Linen Cloth seized as made up contrary to the Directions of this Act; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall let, obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers from entering such Places, or in seizing and carrying away such Linen Yarn, the Person or Persons offending herein shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, to be recovered as is herein after mentioned.

Penalty for obstructing Officer.

VIII. And for the better Encouragement and Advancement of the Trade, Art or Mystery of weaving and making of Linen Cloth, agreeable to the Directions of this Act; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November no Weaver shall set up for himself, as Master Weaver, until he give Security before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates, within any Burrough, under such Penalties as the said Justice or Magistrate shall think fit, that neither he, nor any Person or Persons to be employed by him, shall weave any Linen Cloth for Sale, otherwise than according to the Rules and Directions prescribed by this Act; and if any Person or Persons shall set up for him or themselves, as Master Weavers, without giving such Security as aforesaid, he or they being duly thereof convicted, in Manner herein after mentioned, shall forfeit for every Webb or Piece of Linen Cloth (so wrought or wove by him or them, or any employed by them) the said Webb, Piece or Pieces of Cloth, or the Value thereof, for the Benefit of the Informer, and shall further forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered in Manner herein after mentioned.

No Weaver to set up before Security given, not to weave contrary to this Act.

Penalty for setting up without Security.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November every Weaver of Linen Cloth of any Kind, shall make all the Warp of every Piece of Linen Cloth, of equal Fineness, and the Woof likewise all of one Fineness, and proportionable to the Warp; and that every Piece of Linen Cloth shall be of equal Fineness and Thickness throughout the whole Piece; and that no Part of the same Piece be coarser or thinner than the other, and that no Weaver shall put Lint-Yarn and Tow-Yarn in the same Piece; and if any Weaver shall, from and after the said first Day of November, weave or cause to be woven, any Piece or Webb of Linen Cloth contrary to the Directions aforesaid, every such Weaver being thereof lawfully convicted, in such Manner as is herein after after mentioned, shall forfeit the Security by him given as aforesaid, or so much thereof as the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, within any Burgh, before whom he shall be convicted, shall think fit to modify and direct, and shall be disabled to carry on his Trade as a Weaver, until he renew his Security in Manner before directed.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Weaver shall neglect to weave any Linen Varn, delivered to him by any Person or Persons, into such Cloth, and within such Time, and in such Manner as was contracted and agreed for, or shall waste, imbezil or damnisfy, or suffer to be wasted, imbeziled or damnisfied any Linen Varn, delivered to him, such Weaver being thereof convicted in such Manner as is here after mentioned, shall for every such Offence make good the Party's Damage, and shall further forfeit and pay to the Person aggrieved a Sum, not exceeding forty Shillings Sterling, nor less than five Shillings Sterling, to be recovered in such Manner as is herein after mentioned.

Penalty on Weavers not weaving as contracted, for or imbezilling.

XI. And whereas great Prejudice arises to the Linen Manufacture, by reason that the Persons who deal therein, make their Cloths of such Lengths and Breadths, for which there is no great Demand, either at home or abroad; For preventing thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November all Linen Cloth of any Kind, that shall be made in Scotland, shall and is hereby directed to be made and measured by the standard Yard-Mand, and of the several Lengths and Breadths following; viz. each Piece of plain Linen, intended to be whitened, shall be in Breadth, when whitened, full Half-yard, or full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, or full Yard and Eighth, or full Yard and Quarter, or full Yard and Half; and that all Brown or Green Linen, not intended to be whitened, made after the said first Day of November, shall be in Breadth full Half-yard, or full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, or full Yard and Quarter, or full Yard and Half; and that each Piece of plain Linen Cloth that is whitened, shall contain in Length, at least Twelve Yards and an Half; that all striped Linen Cloth shall be in Breadth full Three Quarters of a Yard, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, or full Yard and Eighth, or full Yard and Quarter; and all Sorts of Ticking shall be in Breadth full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard; and all Checks shall be in Breadth full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, or full Yard and Eighth; and all chequered Handkerchiefs made of Linen only, or of Linen and Cotton, or of Cotton only, shall be in Breadth full Half-yard, or full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, and shall be of the same Length with the Breadth, that they may be square; and that all striped, plain, dropped or spotted Muslin, when whitened, shall be in Breadth full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, or full Yard and Eighth, or full Yard and Quarter, or full Yard and an Half; and that all Cambricks, when whitened, shall be in Breadth full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, and shall not contain less in Length, in each Piece, than Seven Yards and an Half; and all Muslins made for Aprons, when whitened, shall be full Yard and Eighth in Breadth, and the same in Length; and all Muslin Handkerchiefs, when whitened, shall be full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths in Breadth, and the same in Length; and all Muslin for Neckcloths or Cravats shall, when whitened, be in Breadth full Half-yard, or full Five Eighths, and in Length full Three Quarters, or full Yard and Half of made Cloth; and all Sorts of Bengals made of Cotton and Linen shall be in Breadth full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard, or full Yard and Sixteenth, or full Yard and Eighth, or full Yard and Quarter; and that each Piece of broad, double or single Dornick or Diaper, made for Table-Cloths, shall be full Two Yards, or full Two Yards and Quarter in Breadth; and each Piece of double or single Dornick or Diaper, made for Table-Napkins or Towelling, shall be in Breadth full Half-yard, or full Five Eighths, or full Three Quarters, or full Seven Eighths, or full Yard; and that all dyed Varn, that shall be wrought into any chequered Linen or Handkerchiefs, Tickings or Bengals, shall be of a sufficient Dye that will hold in washing.

The Standard Lengths and Breadths of Linen Cloth.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Person or Persons shall offer any Cloth to be inspected and stamped in Manner herein after directed, the Stamp-master or Lapper that shall be appointed for that Purpose, in such Manner as hereafter is mentioned, shall, after inspecting the Cloth, measure the same, and mark upon each end thereof the just Length or Number of Yards each Piece contains, and shall likewise mark upon each end of the Piece the Breadth of such Piece he shall find upon measuring thereof; and if any Piece, which shall be offered to be stamped as of Five Eighths of a Yard broad, comes short of that Breadth in any Part of such Piece, that then the said Piece of Cloth shall be marked as of the next lower Denomination, videlicet, Half-yard, and so of all the other Breadths herein mentioned.

Stamp-master to mark the just Lengths and Breadths of Pieces.

XIII. And to the Intent that every Buyer of plain, brown or white Linen Cloth, may the rather discover and judge of the Goodness, Quality and Value thereof, and may know the exact Number of Threads in the Breadth or Warp thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November every Weaver shall at the End of every such Piece of Cloth, which he shall weave or cause to be weaved, run or cause to be run, a coarse coloured Thread through every two hundred Threads of the Warp, of the said Cloth, so as to distinguish the Number of Hundreds of Threads in the Breadth of the said Cloth, and also another coarse coloured Thread as aforesaid within a Quarter of an Inch of the former, in like Manner through every forty Threads of the Warp of the said Cloth, so as to distinguish the Number of Biers or Scores of Threads in the Breadth of the said Cloth; and in case any Weaver shall omit to weave or cause to be weaved, such Threads as aforesaid, or shall so mark his Cloth with a coloured Thread, as to make it appear to contain more Threads in the Breadth, than it really does, he shall for every such Offence, being thereof convicted in Manner after mentioned, forfeit a Sum not more than five Pounds, nor less than twenty Shillings, to the Use of the Informer, to be levied and recovered in such Manner as is herein after mentioned.

Weaver to run a coarse Thread through every 200 Threads of the Warp, and another through every 40 Threads of the Warp, at the Ends.

XIV. And whereas several Persons have of late Years made Use of Lime, Pigeons Dung, Sope-Dregs, or other improper Materials for whitening or bleaching of Linen Cloth, to the great Prejudice of such Cloth, Cloth, and to the Discredit of the Linen Manufacture; For preventing such Practices for the Future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November no Person or Persons shall make Use of any Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, for bleaching or whitening any Linen Cloth or Linen Varn, and that all and every Person and Persons using any Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, for bleaching or whitening any Linen Cloth or Linen Varn, shall, being thereof duly convicted in such Manner as herein is after mentioned, for every such Offence, forfeit to the Informer the said Linen Cloth or Linen Varn, so whitened or bleached with Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, and shall also forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling to the Use of the Informer; and in case the Linen Cloth or Linen Varn, so whitened contrary to the Directions of this Act, shall not be found, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justice of Peace or Magistrate within any Borough, before whom such Complaint shall be made, to set a further Fine upon the Offender at his Discretion, not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, to be raised and levied, together with the former Penalty of five Pounds, in such Manner as herein is after directed, and the Offender shall also be, and is hereby made incapable to bleach or whiten any Linen Cloth or Linen Varn, for the Space of two Years after such Conviction as aforesaid.

Magistrates may summon Servants of Bleachers, and examine them on Oath.

XV. And whereas the Improvement of the said Linen Manufacture depends very much upon putting an end to this pernicious Practice, and in preventing the mixing and selling of damaged Hempseed or Lintseed, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or any Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, within their respective Jurisdictions, by a Writing under his or their Hands, to summon the Servant of any Bleacher or Dealer in Hempseed or Lintseed, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, to appear before him or them, and upon his or their Appearance to examine him or them upon Oath (which Oath the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough as aforesaid, is and are hereby empowered to administer) what such Servants, Person or Persons, know of his or their Master, or of any other Person or Persons using of Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, in the Bleaching of Linen Cloth or Linen Varn, during three Months immediately preceding such Examination, or of their mixing different Parcels of Hempseed or Lintseed together, or of their Uttering, Vending or Selling, or Exposing or Offering to Sale, Hempseed or Lintseed as of a different Growth, or as imported from a different Country from what it really is or was; and in case such Servant, Person or Persons, being so summoned, shall neglect or refuse to appear pursuant to such Summons, such Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, may issue his or their Warrants to apprehend or bring before him or them such Servant, Person or Persons; and in case he, she or they, shall appear and refuse to be examined, or answer upon Oath to the Purpose aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice and Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the next adjacent Gaol or Tollsbooth, there to remain until he or they submit to be examined as aforesaid, the Person desiring or demanding such Oath to be tendered and administered to such Servant or other Person, first making Oath (if the same shall be required) that he or she believes the Person whom he or she desires may be examined upon Oath, knoweth and can discover some Breach of this present Act committed, in the Matters aforesaid, if such Servant or other Person be obliged to take such Oath: Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, that such Servant or Person shall not forfeit or be liable to any Punishment for any Matter or Thing relating to the Crime which he shall, upon such his Examination, discover.

Penalty on Servants not appearing on Summons.

Persons appointed may enter into Bleachyards,
&c. to search.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons, appointed by the Trustees for improving the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures herein after mentioned, or by any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace or Magistrates within any Borough, by writing under his or their Hands, to enter into any Bleachyard, Buckhouse or the Appurtenances or Places thereunto belonging, at any Hour of the Day, and view and search all Places, Rooms, Reesves and Boilers therein, and view the Lees, and Refuse, and Dregs thereof; and in case any Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, is or has been mixed with such Lees, that the Possessors of such Bleachyard, Bleach-house or Places thereunto belonging, and all and every Person and Persons working in the said Bleachyard, Buckhouse or Places thereunto belonging, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall incur the several Penalties by this Act inflicted on Persons that make Use of Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, in bleaching Linen Cloth or Varn, to be levied and recovered as those Penalties are severally to be levied and recovered.

Constables who shall seize Cloth bleached with Lime, &c. to have 2 s. per Pound.

Refusing to execute a Warrant shall forfeit 5 l.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Constable or Constables, who by Virtue of any Warrant from such Justice of the Peace, and Magistrate within any Borough, shall seize such Cloth or Varn, bleached with such Lime, Pigeons Dung or Sope-Dregs, or levy the Value thereof, or the Penalties in this Act mentioned, shall be allowed by the Prosecutor for his Pains, at and after the Rate of two Shillings in the Pound, for what he shall so seize or levy; and if any Constable or Constables neglect or refuse to execute any such Warrant of any Justice of Peace or Magistrate within any Borough, he or they for every such Offence, being thereof convicted as herein after mentioned, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling to the Prosecutor; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person aggrieved to complain thereof to the same Justice or Magistrate within any Borough, or to any other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate aforesaid, who is hereby empowered and required to summon the Person or Persons concerned before him, and summarily to hear and determine the said Complaint, and issue a Warrant to any Constable or Constables to levy the said Penalty of five Pounds Sterling, in such Manner as is herein after mentioned.

His Majesty may appoint Trustees for overseeing the Linen and Hem-pen Trade.

XVIII. And to the End the several Orders and Regulations, made pursuant to this Act, for the Improvement of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures may be effectual, and carried into a due and regular Execution, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept in Scotland in place of the Great Great Seal thereof, to nominate and appoint any Number of Persons resident in Scotland, not exceeding the Number of twenty-one, to be Trustees for overseeing, directing and better improving the said Linen and Hempen Manufactures, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, with Power to the said Trustees, or any Number of them by the said Letters Patents to be determined, to assemble at such Place or Places, and to make such Rules and Orders for the Improvement of the said Manufactures, and for preventing Abuses therein, as they shall think expedient, consistent with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and with the Laws and Statutes of the Realm.

XIX. And for the better Promoting the said Manufacture, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees to licence and appoint such fit and proper Persons, in such Places of Scotland, as they shall judge most convenient, to view, examine, lap up, mark and stamp all such Linen Cloth, as shall be exposed to Sale, as is herein after mentioned, and from Time to Time, to direct such Stamp or Stamps to be made Use of, as they shall think proper.

Trustees may appoint Persons to lap up Cloth for Sale.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Dealers in Linen Cloth, before he, she or they, shall sell or expose to Sale, any Linen Cloth (if the same be white Cloth, as soon as the same is fully whitened and dyed) carry the same in the Waterfold of a Yard or Half-yard in Length, to the Place where such Lapper or Stamp-master, so to be named and appointed, shall reside, there to be inspected, marked, lapped up and stamped by him, in such Manner as is herein after directed; and if the said Lapper or Stamp-master shall find such Piece or Pieces of Cloth, so offered to him to be marked, lapped up and stamped, to be of an equal Breadth from one End of the Piece to the other, and to be of equal Fineness and Thickness throughout the whole Piece, and to have two coarse coloured Threads wove in the End of the Piece, as is before directed, and that the Number of Threads in the Warp agrees with the Number marked by the said two coloured Threads, and to be wrought and whitened in all Respects pursuant to the Rules and Orders for regulating the Linen Manufacture, then, and not otherwise, such Person and Persons licensed to be Lappers and Stamp-masters as aforesaid, shall and may, upon both Ends of each Piece, affix a Seal or Stamp with the Name of the Lapper and County in which he resides, or such other Impression as the said Trustees shall from Time to Time think fit to appoint; and shall likewise upon each End of the Piece mark the Breadth of it, and the exact Number of Yards it contains, and thereafter shall lap up the same; for all which such Lapper or Stamp-master shall and may demand and take, for each forty Yards of Linen Cloth not exceeding ten Pence Sterling per Yard in Value, the Sum of one Penny Sterling and no more; and for each forty Yards of any Linen Cloth of any Kind, of a higher Value, the Sum of two Pence Sterling and no more, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; but if he be employed to beetle the same, then he may demand and take one Penny more for each forty Yards of Cloth so beetled by him, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and in case any Dispute shall arise betwixt the Stamp-master and the Proprietor of any Cloth, offered to be stamped, about the Value thereof, if the Proprietor insist that his Cloth is of no higher Value than ten Pence per Yard, and to have it stamped as of that Price, in that case it shall and may be lawful for such Stamp-master to buy and take the said Cloth himself, at the Rate of ten Pence per Yard, and to pay the Proprietor for the same at that Rate, otherwise, if the Stamp-master refuse to take and pay for the Cloth at the Rate of ten Pence per Yard, he shall be obliged to stamp the same as of that Value, provided the Cloth be made according to the Rules and Directions before prescribed by this Act.

Dealers in Cloth to carry it to the Lapper to be stamped.

Lapper to affix a Seal to the Cloth.

Lapper's Fee.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons shall sell or expose to Sale any Sort of Manufacture made of Linen Yarn, till the same shall be brought to the said Lapper or Stamp-master, and by him viewed and inspected; and if such Lapper or Stamp-master shall find that the same is made according to the several Rules and Directions in this Act before mentioned, he shall measure, mark, stamp and lap up the same as before directed, and that within twenty-four Hours at farthest after the same shall be offered to be inspected, marked and stamped as aforesaid; and if any Lapper or Stamp-master, to be licensed as aforesaid, shall mark, seal or stamp any Piece or Pieces of Cloth that is not made according to the several Rules and Directions before mentioned, or shall mark on the same a greater Number of Yards than each Piece containeth in Length, or shall mark the same as of a greater Breadth than it really is, or commit any other Offence in relation to the Premises, such Lapper or Stamp-master so offending, being thereof duly convicted in such Manner as is herein after mentioned, shall make good the Damages to the Party who bought the Cloth on the Credit of the Stamp, and shall likewise forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling for every insufficient Piece of Cloth so stamped or wrong marked as aforesaid, for the Use of the Informer and Prosecutor, to be levied in such Manner as is after mentioned, and shall be dismissed from his Office as Lapper or Stamp-master, and rendered incapable of serving in any such Office for the Future.

No Linen to be sold before it be brought to the Lapper.

Penalty on Lapper offending.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall sell, expose to Sale or pack up for Sale, or in order to be sent or carried by Land or Water, or enter for Exportation by Sea any Linen Cloth, not being stamped and marked as aforesaid, such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof duly convicted, as is herein after mentioned, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds for each Piece of Cloth so sold, exposed to Sale, or packed up for Sale, or in Order to be sent or carried by Land or Water, or entered for Exportation as aforesaid; which said Penalty of five Pounds shall be raised and levied in such Manner as is after mentioned.

Penalty for exposing to Sale Cloth not stamped.

XXIII. And be it also further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who shall from and after the said first Day of November buy any Linen Cloth of the Manufacture of Scotland, not being marked and stamped as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Piece of Cloth so bought, the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, to be paid to the Informer, and levied in the same Manner as the Penalties hereby directed to be levied, upon all and every Person and Persons selling and exposing to Sale any Linen Cloth not duly marked and stamped as aforesaid.

Penalty on the Buyer.

Persons authorized may search all Warehouses for Cloth not stamped.

XXIV. And for the more effectual Preventing the Selling or Exposing to Sale any Linen not duly marked and stamped, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons, duly authorized and impowered by the said Trustees or any five or more of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals for that Purpose, or by a Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or of any Magistrate within any Borough, to search in the Day-time all Warehouses, Shops, Cellars or other Places, where they have reason to suspect or apprehend there are any Piece or Pieces of Cloth not duly marked and stamped as aforesaid; and to open any Pack or Packs where they suspect or apprehend any Cloth to be packed up not duly marked and stamped as aforesaid; and if any Piece or Pieces of Linen Cloth shall be found not stamped and marked as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Person or Persons so searching to seize and bring the same before the next Justice of Peace, or Magistrate within any Borough, who are hereby impowered and required to declare the same to be forfeited to and for the Use of the Person or Persons making such Seizure, and to impose a Fine or Fines upon the Possessors or Owners of the Warehouse, Cellar or Shop, where such Linen shall be found, or upon the Person or Persons who packed or caused to be packed up such Linen, not exceeding five Pounds Sterling, for the Use of the Informer or Informers, to be levied in such Manner as is herein after mentioned.

Penalty for counterfeiting the Stamps.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit any Seal or Stamp made in Pursuance of this Act, he, she or they so counterfeiting the same, and being thereof lawfully convicted before the Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, or in the Circuits, shall suffer and incur the same Pains and Penalties as Persons by the Law of Scotland convicted of Forgery suffer.

Penalty for lapping up Cloth wet or with Chalk, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of November no Linen Cloth shall be made and lapped up for Sale when it is wet or damp, nor with any Chalk, Dust or Flour, and that all and every Person or Persons who shall make up or lap up Linen Cloth for Sale, when it is wet or damp, or shall make up any Linen Cloth with any Chalk, Dust or Flour, shall, being thereof convicted in such Manner as is herein after mentioned, forfeit every such Piece of Cloth for the Benefit of the Informer.

Lapper to detain Cloth not merchantable.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Piece of Linen Cloth or any Sort of Manufacture made of Linen Yarn, shall be brought to any Lapper or Stamp-master so licensed as aforesaid, in Order to be inspected and stamped as aforesaid, and if such Lapper or Stamp-master shall be of Opinion and think the same is not sufficient merchantable Cloth, and made according to the Rules before prescribed, in that case it shall and may be lawful to and for every such Lapper and Stamp-master to detain the same, till such time as it may be tried and determined how far the same is proper to be marked and stamped; and that every such Lapper and Stamp-master shall be obliged, and is hereby required and directed, upon Request made to him by the Owner or Owners of the said Cloth, within twenty-four Hours at farthest, after such Cloth shall be so seized and detained, to apply to one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or to any Magistrate within any Borough within their respective Jurisdictions; and that such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate shall, and he and they are hereby directed and impowered forthwith to direct two or more fit and proper Persons conversant and skilled in such Manufacture, to inspect and view the Cloth so seized and detained, and upon Oath, which Oath the said Justice or Justices of the Peace or Magistrates as aforesaid, is and are hereby impowered and required to administer, to report their Opinion of the said Cloth; and if such Persons so appointed shall, upon Oath to be administered as aforesaid, report to such Justice or Justices of the Peace or Magistrates as aforesaid, that the said Cloth is not sufficient merchantable Cloth, nor made according to the Laws for regulating the same, the said Cloth shall be adjudged forfeited, and cut into several Pieces, as is herein after mentioned, and delivered to the Stamp-master or Lapper for his own Use, and the Owner or Owners thereof shall forfeit and incur the Penalties in and by this Act before laid and imposed upon such Persons, as shall make Cloth contrary to the Rules herein before prescribed; but if the said Persons so to be named as aforesaid shall report that the Cloth is duly and regularly made as it ought to be, then and in such Case the said Lapper or Stamp-master shall be obliged and is hereby required forthwith to mark, stamp and lap up the same in such Manner as is herein before directed, and that without taking any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for so doing; any Thing in this or any former Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Magistrates condemning Cloth to be forfeited, to order it to be cut.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, shall condemn or adjudge any Linen Cloth, brought before him or them, to be forfeited, for not being made according to the Law in that Case made and provided, such Justice or Justices, Magistrate or Magistrates, before he or they shall deliver the same to the Informer, shall and may order and cause such Cloth to be cut and severed into several Parts and Pieces, and that none of the said Parts or Pieces do exceed six Yards in Length.

Trustees to give Names to Cloth of different Sorts.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees so to be appointed as aforesaid, or any five or more of them, to give such particular Names or Denominations as they shall think proper, to the several Pieces of Cloth of different Sorts, Breadths and Lengths, so as that they may by such Names be easily distinguished of what Sort, Length and Breadth they are; and it shall and may be lawful to all and every Person and Persons selling or exposing any Linen Cloth to Sale, to affix a Label of Parchment to each Piece of Cloth, containing the Name of the particular Species of the Cloth, with the Length and Breadth thereof.

Trader may weave his Name on the Cloth.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every Trader, Dealer and Weaver of Linen Manufacture, to weave his Name, or for some known Mark, in any Piece of Linen Manufacture by him made, if he shall so think fit; and if any other Person or Persons shall counterfeit such Mark or Name, being thereof lawfully convicted upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before any two or more Justices of the Peace, or Magistrates within any Borough, he shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, for the Use of the Person, whose Mark shall be so counterfeited, to be raised, levied and paid in such Manner as is herein after mentioned.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Offences against this Act (except the Counterfeiting the Stamps or the Marks of the private Dealers or Weavers) shall be heard and determined by any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, or any Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, within their respective Jurisdictions, who upon Complaint to him or them made shall, upon Examination of Witnesses upon Oath, which Oath they are respectively hereby impowered to administer, adjudge and determine the same, and issue his or their Warrant or Warrants to any one or more of the Constables or Officers of the said County, City, Borough or Town, requiring and impowering him or them to poynd and discontinue according to the Practice of the Law of Scotland in Cases of Poynding, so much of the Offender's Goods and Gear, as will satisfy the several Penalties incurred and forfeited, which Warrant for Poynding shall not be stopped or lifted by any Suspension, Stay or other Process whatsoever, except an Appeal entered in Manner after mentioned; which said Penalty and Penalties, when so levied as aforesaid, shall belong and be paid to the Informer, first deducting out of the said Penalties the Sum of two Shillings in the Pound, to be paid to the Constable or Officer for executing such Warrant; and in case no sufficient Distress can be found, that then and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice and Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, or next Gaol or Tollbooth, for so long Time as such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates shall think proper, not exceeding one Year in the whole.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall find him, her or themselves aggrieved by the Sentence or Determination of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person and Persons so aggrieved, immediately after Sentence is pronounced against him, her or them, to enter his, her or their Appeal in Presence of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates, from the said Sentence, to the Determination of the Justices of the Peace of the said County or Borough, at their next General Quarter-Sessions, that shall be held for the said County or Borough, of which Appeal the said Justice or Justices, Magistrate or Magistrates, are hereby appointed to make a Minute, and by Warrant under his or their Hands to stop Execution of the Sentence so appealed from, until the End of the next Quarter-Sessions as aforesaid; and the said Justices of the Peace at their Quarter-Sessions are hereby impowered and required to proceed upon, and to hear and finally to determine in the said Appeal, and if they give Judgment against the Appellant, to Decree him to pay the full Costs of the Appeal, and further to pay a Fine not exceeding double the Penalty for which the original Sentence was given.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates within any Borough, shall neglect or refuse to execute the Powers and Authorities of this Act, or shall not put the same in Execution, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof (to the Discouragement of the Linen Manufacture) such Neglect or Refusal, or Misderivation shall be, and be taken to be a Point of Dittay, and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons aggrieved thereby, with the Approbation of the Trustees to be appointed by his Majesty as aforesaid, or any five or more of them, to be signified in a Certificate under their Hands, to prosecute the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, Magistrate or Magistrates, before the Lords of the Judiciary at Edinburgh, or in their Circuits, for the District within which the Offence was committed; and if the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates shall be thereupon convicted of such Offence, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords of Judiciary at Edinburgh, or in their Circuits, to set a Fine on such offending Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates, not exceeding one hundred Pounds Sterling.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act for allowing further Time to Persons on board the Fleet, or beyond the Seas in his Majesty's Service, to qualify themselves for the legal Enjoyment of Offices and Employments, and for indemnifying such Persons as have omitted to qualify themselves within the Time limited for that Purpose, and for the better ascertaining such Time.

I. WHEREAS divers of his Majesty's faithful Subjects now are and may hereafter be on board the Fleet, and in several Countries and Places beyond the Seas in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, at such Times as it may please his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, out of his or their Royal Grace and Benevolence, to reward the Services of such his Subjects with Offices, Places and Preferments, in Consequence of which such Officers or Persons so preferred will, according to the Laws now in Being, be obliged to receive the Sacrament, and take and subscribe the Oaths, and make and subscribe the Declaration directed by the Laws now in Force to be received, taken, made and subscribed, within the respective Times limited for that Purpose; the receiving, taking, making and subscribing whereof, within such Times may, by reason of the great Distance of such Persons from the Kingdom of Great Britain, be impracticable: And whereas divers others of his Majesty's Subjects zealously affected to his Person and Government, and the Protestant Succession in his Royal House, have through Ignorance of the Law, or unavoidable Accidents, been prevented from receiving the Sacrament, and taking the said Oaths, and making and subscribing the said Declaration within the Times limited for that Purpose, and by Means thereof are in Danger of incurring divers Penalties and Disabilities; Now for the making due Provisions, that such of his Majesty's Subjects, as are or shall be on board the Fleet, or beyond the Seas in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, may not incur the Penalties aforesaid, by reason of their Continuance in such Service, and for quieting the Minds of others his Majesty's faithful Subjects, and preventing any Inconveniencies that might otherwise happen by Means of such Omissions, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing contained in one Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants, nor in one other Act made in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors, shall extend or be construed to extend to any Person or Persons, who upon the seventeenth Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, or at any Time after, was, were or shall be on board the Fleet of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or in his or their Service beyond the Seas at such Time or Times, as any Office or Offices, Place or Places, Preferment or Preferments, Employment or Employments, Pay, Salary, Fee or Wages, was, were or shall be granted, given or conferred to or upon him or them, and who by Virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, ought to receive the Sacrament, or take the said Oaths in the last mentioned Act contained, and make and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned, in respect of any such Office, Place, Preferment, Employment, Pay, Salary, Fee or Wages so granted, given or conferred, or to be granted, given or conferred as aforesaid, so as such Person or Persons do, within three Calendar Months next after his or their Return into Great Britain, receive the said Sacrament, take and subscribe the said Oaths, and make and subscribe the said Declaration respectively, as the case shall require, in such Manner and Form, and in such Place and Places, as in and by the before mentioned Acts respectively is directed and appointed.

Further Time allowed for Persons on board the Fleet, or beyond Sea. 25 Car. 2. c. 2. 1 Geo. 1. c. 13.

So as they qualify themselves in three Calendar Months after their Return.

All Persons heretofore on board the Fleet, or beyond Sea, indemnified. They are to receive the Sacrament before the last Day of Michaelmas Term 1727. E X P.

IV. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Space of three Months, in and by the said Acts herein before particularly mentioned, or either of them, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, limited for receiving the said Sacrament, taking and subscribing the said Oaths, or making and subscribing the said Declaration, was meant and intended, and shall be construed, deemed and taken to be three Calendar Months, and that the same ought at all Times to have been so construed, deemed and taken.

By three Months is to be understood three Calendar Months. Skin. 314.

V. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend, to restore or intitle any Person or Persons to any Office, Employment, Benefice, Matter or Thing whatsoever, already actually avoided by Judgment of any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, or already filled up or enjoyed by another Person, but that such Office, Employment, Benefice, Matter or Thing so avoided or filled up, or enjoyed as aforesaid, shall be and remain in and unto the Person or Persons who is or are now intitled by Law to the same, as if this Act had never been made.

Not to restore to an Office actually avoided.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case it shall happen that any such Officer or Person now or hereafter being on board the Fleet, or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, beyond the Seas as aforesaid, or in case any of his Majesty's Subjects, who have omitted to receive the Sacrament, and take and subscribe the Oaths, and make and subscribe the Declaration, as by the said Acts they ought to have done (except all such Persons who at any Time heretofore were on board the Fleet of his Majesty, or of any of his Predecessors, or in his or their Service beyond the Seas, at the Time any Office, Employment, Pay or Salary was granted to them, and who, within three Calendar Months after their Return into Great Britain, did receive the said Sacrament, take and subscribe the said Oaths, and make and subscribe the said Declaration respectively

fault liable to the Acts 25
Car. 2. c. 2. and
1 Geo. 1. c. 13.

VII. And in case of executing any such Office, Place or Employment after such Default, every such Person and Persons being thereof lawfully convicted in such Manner as by the said Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, or the said Act made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign is respectively directed, shall be liable unto, and incur all such Disabilities, Incapacities, Forfeitures and Penalties, as in and by the said respective Acts are in the like Case provided and inflicted.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for encouraging and promoting Fisheries, and other Manufactures and Improvements in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

5 Geo. 1. c. 20.

WHEREAS by the fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union it is provided, that two thousand Pounds per Annum, for the Space of seven Years, should be applied towards encouraging and promoting the Manufacture of coarse Wool within those Shires of Scotland, which produce the Wool, and that the first two thousand Pounds should be paid at Martinmas then next, and so yearly at Martinmas, during the Time aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for settling certain yearly Funds, payable out of the Revenue of Scotland, to satisfy publick Debts in Scotland, and other Uses mentioned in the Treaty of Union; and to discharge the Equivalent claimed in behalf of Scotland, in the Terms of the same Treaty, and for obviating all future Disputes, Charges and Expences, concerning those Equivalents, It is amongst other Things provided, That yearly and every Year, reckoning the first Year to begin from the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, the full Sum of two thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain should be one yearly Fund, payable at the four most usual Feasts of the Year, that is to say, the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, and the Feast of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, the first Payment thereof to be due and payable at the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel in the Year one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, to be charged upon and paid out of the Monies arisen and to arise, from Time to Time, of or for any of the Customs, Duties, Excises or Revenues that are or shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs, and Commissioners of the Excise in Scotland, after the Payments therein directed to be made, and subject to Redemption by Parliament, upon Payment of the full Sum of forty thousand Pounds, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity, if any such be, in such Manner as is more particularly mentioned in the said Act, to be wholly applied towards the encouraging and promoting the Fisheries, and such other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may most conduce to the general Good of the united Kingdom, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of the said fifteenth Article of the said Treaty of Union; and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; which said Annuity hath not hitherto been paid or applied to the Purposes for which the same was intended: And

12 Geo. 1. c. 4.

whereas by an Act passed in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, It is amongst other Things provided, That if the Rate of three Pence per Bushel, charged upon Malt to be made in Scotland, should produce a greater Sum than the Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, clear of all Charges of Management, the Surplusage so produced, over and above the said Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, should be wholly applied towards the encouraging and promoting the Fisheries, and such other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may most conduce to the general Good of the united Kingdom, and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, in such Manner as should thereafter be settled and directed by Parliament: To the End therefore that these several Funds and Sums of Money, and any other Fund or Sum of Money, that may arise, grow due, or be provided and become payable for the Advancement and Improvement of Fisheries and Manufactures in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, may be regularly applied for the said Purposes; Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept in Scotland in Place of the Great Seal thereof, to lay down, settle and establish a particular Plan or Method, and to fix and direct proper Rules and Regulations, whereby the several Funds and Sums of Money aforesaid, already provided and grown due, or which hereafter shall be provided and grown due, for the Improvement and Encouragement of Fishery and Manufactures in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be wholly applied, laid out and distributed, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of the said fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union, and for the Improvement of Fisheries, and such other Manufactures in Scotland as may most conduce to the general Good of the united Kingdom, and to no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever; which Plan and Method of Distribution shall continue and endure, and be a full Authority for applying the Monies in the Manner therein to be directed, till the same shall be altered or varied in the Manner herein after expressed.

Crown, by Letters Patents, to settle a Method, and direct Rules for the Funds provided for Improvement of Fishery in Scotland.

Crown to authorize Commissioners for managing the Application of these Funds.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patents under the Seal aforesaid, to appoint, name and authorize any Number of Persons resident in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, not exceeding the Number of twenty-one, to be Trustees and Commissioners for managing and directing the Application of the said Sums, according to the Plan or Method that shall be settled and established as aforesaid, and for executing the several Powers and Authorities which by the said Letters Patents shall to them be committed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

Receiver General of the Crown Rents to be Cashier.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to appoint the Receiver General of the Crown Rents

Rents and Casualties in Scotland to be the Cashier for the said Commissioners and Trustees, for receiving the several Sums of Money generally and particularly above mentioned, and for paying out the same to and by the Order of the said Commissioners and Trustees, for the purposes and according to the particular Regulations that shall be established by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the said Letters Patents.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, and the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, and the Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Time being, shall, and they are respectively hereby impowered and required to issue their Warrants and Orders to the proper Persons, for making Payment of all and every the Sums of Money particularly and generally above mentioned, due and payable, or that shall fall due and become payable hereafter, for encouraging and promoting Fisheries and Manufactures in Scotland, as the same shall severally become due, according to the Direction of the Acts above mentioned, to the said Receiver General of the Crown Rents and Casualties in Scotland, without Fee or Reward, to be by him answered and issued in like Manner, without Fee or Reward, to and by the Order of the said Commissioners and Trustees, pursuant to such Directions as shall be given in that Behalf by the said Letters Patents.

Treasury to order Payment of Money due for promoting the Fishery, to the Cashier without Fee.

5 Geo. 1. c. 22.
12 Geo. 1. c. 4.

V. Provided always, That the said Commissioners and Trustees shall, annually and each Year, at the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord Christ, make up a faithful and exact Account of the Monies received and issued by their Orders, together with a full and true Report of the State of the Funds committed to and under their Management, and of their Proceedings in the Execution of their Trust, which they shall, within the Space of thirty Days, lay before his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; and also shall, within the like Space of thirty Days, lay true Copies of the said Accounts and Report before the annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burroughs of Scotland, that they may peruse and examine the same, and lay before his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, such Observations as they shall make thereon.

Commissioners to audit yearly at Christmas, &c.

VI. And whereas Experience may discover divers Improvements fit to be made upon the Plan or Method to be settled and established by his Majesty as aforesaid; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners and Trustees, annually and each Year, at the said Feast of the Nativity of our Lord Christ, to propose and lay before his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, such Alterations and Additions as to them shall seem necessary or expedient, for improving or amending the Plan or Method for the Time being established for encouraging the said Fisheries and Manufactures; and if the said Alterations or Additions shall seem necessary or expedient to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patents under the Seal aforesaid, to alter the Plan or Method for the Time being, and to settle and establish a new one, upon the Representation of the Commissioners and Trustees as above mentioned, which shall continue and endure, and be in Force, until it shall be altered or varied by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Representation of the said Commissioners and Trustees, in Manner above mentioned.

Commissioners yearly at Christmas to lay before his Majesty Alterations for improving the Fishery.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act for improving the Navigation of the River Ouse in the County of York. P R.

WHEREAS the antient City of York hath been and is yet considerable for its Trade both at home and abroad, and as well the said City and County of the same City, as the Country adjoining upon or near unto the River Ouse in the County of York, hath been much relieved, maintained and supported by the said River, which of late Years in divers Places hath been filled, choaked and stopped up with Sands and other Obstructions, that Ships, Pinks, Keels, Boats, Lighters and other Vessels cannot, without great Hazard and Difficulty, come up to the said City as in Times past, which is not only detrimental to Trade and the publick Good, and prejudicial to the said City, but to all Traders thereto, and to the Owners and Occupiers near thereunto, and will be yet more injurious to them, if some speedy Remedy or Course be not taken and provided for repairing, amending and making the said River more navigable and passable: For Remedy whereof, and to the Intent that the said River, as well for the Good of the Publick in general, and of the Inhabitants of the said City, as also of such as shall trade and pass thither and from thence with Merchandizes, may be effectually repaired, amended, maintained and improved; Be it enacted, &c.

Trustees appointed for making navigable the River Ouse. Trustees to compound with Owners for Damages. Commissioners appointed for settling Differences between Trustees and others. Commissioners may mediate between Trustees and others. May cause a Jury to be impanelled, to assess Damages. On Payment of the Money assessed, Trustees may proceed to work. New Cuts to be supported for ever, by the Trustees. On Deaths, &c. of Commissioners, others shall be chosen. It shall be lawful for seven Commissioners, with the Concurrence of seven Trustees, to lay Tolls on Merchandizes carried on the River above Wharf Mouth, except Straw, Manure, Dung, Compost or Lime used in Tillage, and except Materials made use of in the Works, not exceeding 6d. for every Ton of Salt, Lead, Hams and Sides, Tow, old Glais, Timber, Coals, Corn, Seeds, Flour, Turfs, Cases, Chests of Glais, Dutch Tiles, Earthenware, Butter, Flax and Hemp, and not exceeding 1s. for every Ton of Iron, Steel and wrought Iron Ware, and not exceeding 2s. 6d. for every Ton of Wines and Groceries; and not exceeding 6d. for other Goods. Watermen may tow up their Vessels on the Banks, Trustees to set up Bridges and Conveniences, for Owners to come at their Lands. Master answerable for his Vessel and Crew. Land Owners near the River may keep Pleasure-Boats. Commissioners not to settle Damages otherwise than by Verdict of a Jury. Throwing Dirt into the River forfeits 5s. In case of Difference about the Weight of Goods, Master on Oath may ascertain it, or the Collectors may weigh the Goods. Trustees may engage the Profits of the Toll for Security for Money to be borrowed. As soon as sufficient Money shall be raised for the Uses of the Act, &c. Commissioners may moderate the Duties. Commissioners may annually settle the Carriage Carriage of Goods. Undertakers for the River Dun may cut a Channel into the River Ouze. They may take 3 d. per Ton for Goods, above the other Duties. Commissioners of Sewers for the Level of Hatfield Chase, their Powers saved.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act passed in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for making navigable the Rivers Wye and Lugg in the County of Hereford, and for making the same more effectual. P R.

I. WHEREAS in and by an Act passed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for making the Rivers Wye and Lugg, and the Rivers and Brooks running into the same, in the Counties of Hereford, Gloucester and Monmouth, navigable, Sir William Sandys, Knt. Windsor Sandys, Esquire, and Henry Sandys, their Heirs and Assigns, were impowered upon the Terms and under the Provisoos in the said Act mentioned, to make the said Rivers navigable; but the said Sir William Sandys, Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys, having not done any Thing to the River Lugg, and what Work was done on the River Wye, being performed very slightly, all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Benefits and Advantages whatsoever, given and granted to them the said Undertakers, by Virtue of the said recited Act, by an Act passed in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for making navigable the Rivers Wye and Lugg in the County of Hereford, were vested in the several Trustees therein named, with several other Powers and Authorities in the said last recited Act mentioned; and whereas most Part of the Trustees named in and by the said last recited Act are dead, and no Provision made by the said Act for filling up the Room or Place of any Trustee or Trustees dying, by taking in the Heir or Heirs of the deceased Trustees, or otherwise, whereby the Number of Trustees is reduced to a few, and the due Execution of the Powers of the said recited Acts have been very much hindred and obstructed, and will soon become impracticable, unless some timely Means be applied: For the Remedy of the said Inconveniencies and Defects, and for the better and more effectual accomplishing of the Ends and Designs intended for the Good and Service of the Publick by the said recited Acts, Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Trustees for putting this and the two former Acts in Execution. All the Powers in the former Acts vested in them. New Trustees on Deaths shall be elected. Trustees may summon Persons to account on Oath for Monies, &c. in their Hands. Trustees may summon Persons to give Evidence. All Papers, Vouchers, &c. to be delivered up to the Trustees. On Refusal Trustees have their Action at Law, and treble Costs. All the Money, &c. acquired by the Act 7 & 8 W. 3. and by this Act, shall be applied in such Proportions as prescribed by that Act, viz. so much as is unapplied, and allotted to the River Wye, to be paid over to Persons nominated by the Trustees for the River Wye, and the other Part unapplied and allotted to the River Lugg, shall be paid over to Persons nominated by the Trustees for the River Lugg. Trustees to repay to the Inhabitants of Hampton Bishop 70*l.* for their Expence in building Hampton Meadow Bridge. The Trustees may agree with Owners of Lands near the River, about Wears and Mills. Owners not agreeing, a jury to be impanelled, to assess Damages and Recompence. No Owners of Wears or Mills to lay Nets to destroy the Salmon in Wye, on Pain of 100*l.* The Profits of Mills or Wears shall be paid to the separate Receivers. Every Boat-master answerable for Damage done by his Boat or Crew.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act for establishing a certain Provision for maintaining the Curate of the Parish of Saint Katherine Cree-Church, alias Christ-Church, London, and for repairing and supporting the Chancel of the said Parish Church. P R.

WHEREAS the Master and Fellows of Magdalen College in the University of Cambridge, being seised in Fee to them and their Successors, of and in the Improprate Rectory and Tithes of the Parish of Saint Katherine Cree-Church, alias Christ-Church, in the City of London, did, by Indenture under their Common Seal, dated the seven and twentieth Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four (for the Considerations therein mentioned) demise the same to Jerome Knapp, Citizen and Haberdasher of London, for the Term of ten Years, to commence from the Feast-day of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary next ensuing the Date of the said Demise, at and under the Rent and Covenants therein mentioned; and whereas for the determining of Disputes and Differences which have arisen concerning the said Tithes, and for making certain Provisions for Maintenance of the Curate of the said Parish, from Time to Time, and for repairing and supporting the Chancel of the said Parish Church, the said Master and Fellows of Magdalen College aforesaid, the said Jerome Knapp, and the Parishioners of the said Parish, have come to an Agreement, which they are desirous may be rendred effectual by Authority of Parliament: At their humble Suit and Request; May it please your most excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c.

Parishioners of Katherine Cree-Church to pay to Jerome Knapp, during his Lease, and afterwards to the Master, &c. of Magdalen College in Cambridge, 150*l.* per Ann. clear of Taxes, in Lieu of Tithes, &c. STATUTES made at the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the ninth Day of October Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, in the ninth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord GEORGE the First, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And from thence continued by several Prorogations to the twenty-seventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, (a) being the sixth Session of this present Parliament.

(a) In the Record is added, In the first Year of King GEORGE the Second, and further continued by Adjournments till the seven-teenth Day of July,

C A P. I.

An Act for the better Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain.

May it please your most excellent Majesty:

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the First (of glorious Memory) intituled, An Act for the better Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, it was amongst other Things enacted, That the Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, which had been granted to his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, by an Act made in the twelfth Year of his Reign, intituled, A Grant of certain Impositions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for the Increase of his Majesty's Revenues during his Life, and which were granted to their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY (of blessed Memory) by an Act made in the second Year of their Reign, for their Lives and the Life of the Survivor of them (a certain Duty of six Pence for every Barrel of Vinegar Beer granted by the same Acts excepted) and also a Duty of six Pence, part of a Duty of eight Shillings, which was granted to his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, for and upon every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer or Liquor preparing for Vinegar, which should be brewed or made of any English Materials, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, for Sale, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, by an Act made in the tenth Year of his Reign, and likewise the further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, which had been granted to his said late Majesty King WILLIAM for his Life, by an Act made in the ninth Year of his Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, towards raising the yearly Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds for the Service of his Majesty's Household, and other Uses therein mentioned, during his Majesty's Life, should be levied, collected and paid to his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, for and during the Term of his natural Life; and in and by the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, it was enacted and declared, That the hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, which were granted to the Crown in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King CHARLES the Second, and the said Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, which had been granted to the late Queen ANNE, by an Act of the first Year of her Reign, for her Life (subject nevertheless to the Incumbrances in that Act mentioned) and the Monies arising by the said further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties thereby granted, and the Revenue arising in the General Letter-Office or Post-Office, or Office of Post-Master General, and the small Branches of his Majesty's Revenues therein particularly described or mentioned, should be for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as by the said Act of the first Year of his said late Majesty's Reign (relation being thereunto had) may more fully appear: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous that a competent Revenue for defraying the Expences of your Majesty's Civil Government, and better supporting the Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain during your Life (which God long preserve) may be settled on your Majesty, and that your Majesty may be enabled to make an honourable Provision for your Royal Family, as a Testimony of our unfeigned Affection to your Sacred Person, of whose great Goodness and princely Qualifications we have had very many Testimonies, and by whose happy Accession to the Throne, your Majesty's Subjects have a Prospect, that the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Realm will be continued, and that they your said Subjects and their Posterity, may, through the divine Goodness, enjoy a long Tranquillity under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, have therefore freely and unanimously resolved to give and grant, and do by this Act give and grant to you, our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Second, the several Rates, Duties, Impositions and Charges herein after mentioned, during your Majesty's Life; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, for and during the Term of the natural Life of his Majesty King GEORGE the Second (whom God long preserve) the said Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, granted to his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, by the said Act made in the twelfth Year of his Reign, intituled, A Grant of certain Impositions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for the Increase of his Majesty's Revenue during his Life, and which were granted to their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, by the said Act made in the second Year of their Reign, for their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them; and which were continued to her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, by the said Act of the first Year of her Reign, for her Life; and which were continued to his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, by the said Act of the first Year of his Reign, for his Life, (other than and except the said Duty of six Pence for every Barrel of Vinegar Beer before mentioned to have been formerly excepted) and also the said Duty of six Pence, Part of the said Duty of eight Shillings, for every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer or Liquor preparing for Vinegar, which shall be brewed or made of any English or foreign Materials, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, for Sale, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, imposed by the said Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, shall be raised, levied, collected and paid to our said Sovereign

1 Geo. 1. Stat. 1. c. 1.

2 W. & M. Stat. 1. c. 3.

10 W. 3. c. 21.

9 W. 3. c. 23.

1 Ann. Stat. 3. c. 7.

From 11 June 1727, the Duties of Excise, granted for his late Majesty's Life, continued during his present Majesty's Life.

Exception.

Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Second, in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, and with such Allowances as are mentioned and expressed in the before mentioned Acts, or any of them, or by any other Law now in Force, relating to the Revenue of Excise; and that all and every the said Laws relating to the Revenue of Excise shall be of full Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes for the levying, receiving, ascertaining and recovering the said Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors; and the said Duty of six Pence, Part of the said Duty of eight Shillings for every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer or Liquor preparing for Vinegar, hereby granted or continued, in the like Manner as if the same were repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act.

II. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, granted by the said Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, for his Life, and continued to her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, by the said Act of the first Year of her Reign, for her Life, and afterwards continued to his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, by the said Act of the first Year of his Reign, for his Life, shall, from and after the said eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, during the Life of our said Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Second, be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied unto his Majesty, by the same Ways, Means and Methods, and under the same Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, and by the same Rules and Directions, and with the same Allowances and Drawbacks as are prescribed in or by the said Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, in that Behalf; and that the said Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, and other Acts touching the said further Subsidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes last mentioned, and all and every the Articles, Rules and Clauses therein contained, or thereby referred unto, so far as the same relate to the raising, levying, collecting or making Allowances or Drawbacks out of the same Subsidies, and other Duties, shall be of full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes, during the Life of our said Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Second, as if the same were particularly and at large repeated and set down in the Body of this Act.

7 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 12.

III. And whereas by one other Act made in the first Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Fund of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, relating to Exchequer Bills; and for settling an additional Revenue of one hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum upon his Majesty, during his Life, for the Service of the Civil Government; and for establishing a certain Fund of fifty-four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, in order to raise a Sum not exceeding nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, for the Service of the Publick, by Sale of Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament; and for satisfying an Arrear for Works and Materials at Blenheim, incurred whilst that Building was carried on at the Expence of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of blessed Memory, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is amongst other Things enacted, That the yearly Sum of one hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, for the Service of his said late Majesty's Household and Family, and other his necessary Expences and Occasions, should be paid quarterly, from the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, at the four most usual Feasts in the Year, by equal Portions, during his said late Majesty's natural Life, out of the Monies of the Aggregate Fund, by the said Act established, as in and by the said Act it may also more fully appear; which Payments determined on the said eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there be granted and continued to our said Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Second, during his natural Life (which God long preserve) the said Revenue or yearly Sum of one hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum, which, from and after the said eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, shall be and is hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable, from Time to Time, to his Majesty, during his Life, out of the Duties and Revenues which compose the said Fund, commonly called The Aggregate Fund, and every or any of them, at such Times, and with such Preference, as the same, by the said Act last mentioned, or by any other Act of Parliament, was made payable to his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, and the High Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer for the Time being, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and required to cause the said yearly Sum of one hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, or any Arrears thereof, to be issued and applied weekly, or as soon as the same can be satisfied, for the Uses and Purposes by this Act appointed, out of the Monies arisen or to arise as aforesaid, so as by such weekly or other Payments, the Sum of thirty thousand Pounds, to be due thereupon at the End of each Quarter, be not exceeded; and so that upon every of the said quarterly Feast Days the whole then due thereupon be compleated, made up or satisfied, according to the true Meaning of this Act.

The yearly Sum of 120,000 l. continued upon the Aggregate Fund.

The Duties of Excise, the further Subsidy, the 120,000 l. per Ann. the Revenue of the Post Office, and all the small Branches of the Revenue, shall be for the Support of the Household, and the Honour of the Crown,

IV. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the said hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and the said Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, hereby granted to his Majesty for the Term of his Life, and the said further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, and the said yearly Sum of one hundred and twenty thousand Pounds hereby also granted to his Majesty for the Term of his Life, and the said Revenue of the General Letter-Office or Post-Office, or Office of Post-Master General, and the small Branches of his Majesty's Revenues herein after expressed, that is to say, the Monies arising by Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Post Fines, the Revenue of the Wine Licenses, Sheriffs Profers and Compositions in the Exchequer, Seizures of prohibited and uncustomed Goods, the Revenue arising to his Majesty by Rents of Lands, or for Fines of Leases of the same, or any of them, and all other Branches and Revenues which were settled or appointed for the Support of the Household of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, during his said late Majesty's Life as aforesaid, (except such Revenues, Rents and Hereditaments as have been granted or passed to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, by or in Pursuance Pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, and except all Charges of particular Annuities or Sums of Money on the said Revenues, or any of them, made or allowed of by any Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever, shall be for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and other the Purposes in this Act mentioned and declared: Nevertheless the said hereditary Duties of Excise, and the said Duties of Excise granted for his Majesty's Life as aforesaid, and the said Revenues of the General Letter-Office or Post-Office, or Office of Post-Master General, shall respectively be liable to and charged with the several particular annual, weekly or other Payments or Incumbrances charged on, or directed to be set apart out of the said hereditary Duties of Excise, and the said Duties of Excise granted for the Life of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, and the said Revenues of the General Letter-Office or Post-Office, or Office of Post-Master General, or any of them, by any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament, in the same Manner and for the same Uses, Intents and Purposes, and under and subject to the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, for any Offences in or about the same, as the said last mentioned Duties or Revenues, or any of them, were subject or liable unto at the Time of the Demise of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been by this Act particularly charged on or directed to be set apart out of the Duties or Revenues hereby granted or continued to his Majesty for his Life; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

but chargeable with the Incumbrances thereon by other Acts.

V. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Produce of the several Duties and Revenues hereby granted and appropriated for the Purposes aforesaid (over and above such annual, weekly and other Payments and Incumbrances as aforesaid, and over and above all Grants made by any of his Majesty's Royal Predecessors) shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient, that within any one Year, reckoning from the Feast of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, the same shall not be sufficient to answer and satisfy the yearly Sum of eight hundred thousand Pounds, then and in every such Case, and as often as any such Deficiency shall happen, the same shall be provided for, answered and made good by and out of the then next Aids to be granted in Parliament.

If the Produce of these Duties be not sufficient to answer 800,000l. per Ann. the Deficiency to be made good out of the next Aids.

VI. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Duties and Revenues which were payable to his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for and during his Life, shall be continued, raised, levied and paid from the Decease of his said late Majesty during the Life of his present Majesty King GEORGE the Second, in the same Manner only, and subject to the same or the like Charges thereon, as the same were liable or subject to during his said late Majesty's Life.

The Revenues payable to his late Majesty in Scotland, continued to his present Majesty.

VII. Saving always, to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, other than to our said Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, all such Rights, Titles, Estates, Customs, Interests, Claims and Demands whatsoever, of, in or to, or out of the Revenues, Hereditaments and other the Premises aforesaid, or any of them, as they or any of them had or ought to have had at the making of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Saving Clause.

C A P. II.

An Act to enable his Majesty to be Governor of the South-Sea Company.

WHEREAS the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, have made an humble Address to the King's most excellent Majesty, in a General Court of the said Company, that his Majesty would be graciously pleased to honour the said Company with being their Governor, whereunto his Majesty being willing to condescend, some Doubts and Difficulties have arisen, or may arise, touching the Qualifications and Duties prescribed by Law, or by the Charter granted to the said Company, in relation to the Governors or Government thereof: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted and declared by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That his Majesty shall be capable of being and continuing Governor of the said Company for such Time or Times as are prescribed by the said Charter for the Continuance of any Governor therein; and that such Address as aforesaid, or any other Address of the said Company to be hereafter made in their General Court for the same Purpose (in case his Majesty shall be pleased to accept of being their Governor) shall from Time to Time be deemed and adjudged to be an Election of his Majesty to be Governor of the said Company within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Charter, without the Forms of Ballotting or other Methods prescribed by such Charter for electing the Governor of the said Company; any Thing in the said Charter to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty capable of being Governor of the South-Sea Company. An Address from the Company shall be deemed an Election.

II. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Oaths prescribed by the said Charter, or any Law now in Force, and all other Acts, Matters or Things necessary or requisite to qualify a Subject of this Realm to be Governor of the said Company, shall not be deemed to be necessary or requisite for his Majesty's Qualification in respect of the said Government, nor shall the said Oaths be administered to his Majesty; and that his Majesty, in all Cases where any Vote is to be given or Act to be done by him, as Governor of the said Company, may (if his Majesty think fit) by any Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, appoint the Sub-Governor or Deputy-Governor of the said Company to vote or act for him or on his Behalf; any former Law, Statute, Charter or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty exempted from the Oaths.

and may appoint the Sub-Governor, &c. to act in his Behalf.

The Acts relating to qualifying Persons to continue in Offices, altered and explained.

II. And whereas by the general Words of the said recited Act, and of one other Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of England in the Protestant Line, all Officers thereby respectively continued are obliged to take the usual Oaths of their respective Offices in such Manner as if they had been newly appointed; from whence many Difficulties and Inconveniencies have arisen: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much only of the said Acts as requires any Person to take the usual Oath of his Office, Place or Employment, in respect of his being continued therein for the Space of six Months, by Virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that no Person or Persons who, at the Time of the Demise of his said late Majesty, was or were possessed of any Office, Place or Employment, and were continued therein by Force of the said Acts, or either of them, shall incur or suffer any Pains, Penalties or Disabilities whatsoever for or in respect of his or their having acted in such Office, Place or Employment without taking the usual Oath thereof since the Demise of his said late Majesty; and that all Acts done or to be done by such Person or Persons, or by Authority derived from him or them, are and shall be of the same Force and Effect, to all all Intents and Purposes, as they would have been, if such Person or Persons had taken the usual Oath of his or their Office, Place or Imployment since the Demise of his said late Majesty.

Persons having Offices at the Demise of his late Majesty to qualify themselves before 28 Nov. 1727. Proviso for Persons beyond Sea. Persons possessed of Offices in Ireland now residing here, and newly appointed to such Offices, to qualify themselves in England within three Calendar Months. Sheriffs of Cornwall and Chester, and several other Officers continued. His Majesty may appoint Sheriffs for Cornwall during the Prince's Minority. Bishop of Clogher continued Vice-Chancellor of Dublin. EXP.

X. And whereas there are divers Laws now in Force, which will expire at the End of this Session of Parliament, and probably there may not be sufficient Time for a particular Examination and due Consideration how far any of them may be fit to be further continued; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Laws now in Force, and which would expire at the End of this Session of Parliament, shall be and continue in full Force to all Intents and Purposes unto the End of the next Session of Parliament; any Thing contained in any of the said Laws to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Acts that would expire at the End of this Session, continued to the End of the next.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty several Duties upon Coals, for building fifty new Churches in and about the Cities of London and Westminster and Suburbs thereof; and other Purposes therein mentioned, it was enacted, That for all Sorts of Coals and Culm, which from and after the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and before the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, should be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberty of the said City upon the same River, there should be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by way of Imposition thereupon (over and besides all other Impositions and Duties) according to the Rates herein after mentioned; that is to say, For all such Sorts of Coals and Culm as are usually sold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing thirty-six Bushels Winchester Measure, the Sum of three Shillings; and for such Sorts of Coals as are sold by the Ton, for every Ton thereof, containing twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of three Shillings; all the Produce of which said Imposition on Coals and Culm was thereby appropriated for the building of fifty new Churches, in or near the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof;

Vol. IV.

and other Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first Year of the Reign of your Majesty's Royal Father, King GEORGE the First, of glorious Memory, the said Impositions and Duties upon Coals and Culm were further granted to his said late Majesty, from the twenty-seventh Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, to the twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and the whole Produce thereof applied for the making Provision for the Ministers of the said fifty new Churches, and other Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the fifth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing certain Duties upon Coals and Culm, and for establishing certain Funds to raise Money, as well to proceed in the building of new Churches, as also to compleat the Supply granted to his Majesty, and to reserve the Overplus Monies of the said Duties for the Disposition of Parliament, and for more effectual suppressing private Lotteries, the same Impositions and Duties were granted to his Majesty, from the twenty-seventh Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, to the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, and were thereby charged with a particular Fund of twenty-one thousand Pounds per Annum for thirty-two Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, for the raising from Time to Time, by Loans at the Exchequer, on the Credit of the said Fund, as the same should be wanted, the Sum of three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, in lieu of the Provisions by the former Acts for the building the said Churches, and other Purposes before-mentioned; and the same Impositions or Duties were by the same Act further charged with another particular Fund of thirty thousand five hundred and fifty-nine Pounds fourteen Shillings per Annum, for the like Term of thirty-two Years, from the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, for the paying off and discharging the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, with the Interest at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the fortunate Tickets in the Lottery established by the said last mentioned Act: And whereas by a subsequent Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, for enabling the South-Sea Company to enlarge the Capital Stock and Fund of the said Company, the said Duties on Coals and Culm were continued for ever; and thereby the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds for the said Lottery, or any Part thereof, was (amongst other publick Debts therein enumerated) impowered to be taken into the Capital Stock of the said Company, and the said Company was to be entitled to an Annuity after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, for so much thereof as should be so taken into the Capital Stock, in lieu of the former Annuity payable for the same, and to a proportionable Allowance for Charges of Management, and to be charged upon the said Impositions and Duties: And whereas in Pursuance of the said last mentioned Act the Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds Principal Money, Part of the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, was taken into the said Stock, and by Means thereof the said Company became entitled to an Annuity or yearly Sum of seventeen thousand three hundred eighty-four Pounds four Shillings, redeemable by Parliament, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, in respect of the said principal Sum so taken into their Stock; and the Residue of the said principal Debt or Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds hath been since paid off and discharged, by Means whereof the former particular Fund or Annuity of thirty thousand five hundred fifty-nine Pounds fourteen Shillings, for paying off the said five hundred thousand Pounds and Interest, was redeemed and discharged: And whereas by or in Pursuance of another Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sum of three hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, to be raised by Loans or Exchequer-Bills, to be charged on the Surplus Monies of the Duties on Coals and Culm, granted by an Act of the fifth Year of his Majesty's Reign for a Term of Years, and since made perpetual, certain Exchequer-Bills were made forth at the Exchequer, amounting together to the principal Sum of three hundred thirty-eight thousand eight hundred Pounds, and charged on the said Duties on Coals and Culm, and the same are still subsisting: And whereas by Virtue of the Powers granted by the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First several Sums of Money have been raised in Part of the said three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, by Loans, to be repaid with Interest at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, out of the said particular Fund of twenty-one thousand Pounds per Annum, and there now remains undischarged of the said Loans, on the Register thereof, the Sum of ninety thousand Pounds Principal Money, over and above any Monies reserved in the Exchequer for satisfying thereof; and there also remains to be raised for the building the said Churches, and other the Purposes aforesaid, the further Sum of one hundred and three thousand one hundred and forty Pounds, to compleat the said whole Sum of three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds by the said Act appointed to be raised as aforesaid, and subject thereto, and to the said Annuity of seventeen thousand three hundred eighty-four Pounds and four Shillings, or other Charges now payable to the South-Sea Company, and redeemable on Payment to the said South-Sea Company of the Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds, and also to the said Exchequer-Bills, amounting to three hundred thirty-eight thousand eight hundred Pounds as aforesaid, the Surplus of the said Impositions or Duties is reserved for the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have consented and agreed to advance and pay into the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer the Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, at the Times and in Manner herein after mentioned, for the Purchase of an Annuity of seventy thousand Pounds to be payable to them and their Successors for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament, to be charged on the said Duties and Impositions, so as the same Duties and Impositions be freed and discharged from all the former Charges or Incumbrances thereon: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being willing and desirous not only to discharge all the said Charges and Incumbrances, but also to raise the necessary Supplies which we have cheerfully granted to your Majesty, by Means the most easy to your People, have freely and voluntarily given and granted, and by this Act do give and grant to your Majesty the Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, to be raised in such Manner and Form as is herein after directed; and to that End do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That yearly and every Year, from and after the Feast-Day of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, a certain yearly Sum or Fund of seventy thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or upon the Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds to be raised by this Act, be settled and established and be payable in the Manner and After St. John Baptist's Day 1728, an Annuity of 70,000 l. at 4 per Cent. to be raised, redeemable by Parliament, Form herein after expressed and declared, for satisfying the Annuities to be purchased in pursuance of this Act from Time to Time, until Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso or Provisoes herein after for that Purpose contained.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said yearly Fund, or Sum of seventy thousand Pounds, is and shall by virtue of this Act be charged and chargeable upon, and payable out of the Monies, which from and after the said Feast-day of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight shall from Time to Time arise into the Exchequer, of or for the said Impositions or Duties on Coals and Culm so granted as aforesaid.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, and they are hereby required and enjoined to advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, the full and intire Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, in Manner following; that is to say, One Moiety thereof on or before the fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and the other Moiety thereof on or before the twenty-fourth Day of July which shall be in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight.

IV. And that in case the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall make Failure in Payment of the said Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Tenor of the Directions hereby given or enacted for Payment thereof, then the Money whereof such Failure in Payment shall be made, shall and may be recovered in his Majesty's Name, for the Uses and Purposes of this Act, by Action of Debt or upon the Case, Bill, Suit or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be granted or allowed; in which Action, Bill, Suit or Information, it shall be lawful to declare, that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England are indebted to his Majesty the Monies whereof they shall have made Default in Payment, according to the form of this Statute, and have not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and in or upon such Action, Suit, Bill or Information, there shall be further recovered to his Majesty's Use, against the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, Damages after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum for the Monies so unpaid contrary to this Act, besides full Costs of Suit, and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Capital Stocks and Funds, shall be and are hereby made subject and liable thereto.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on Payment by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of the said Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, at the Times and in Manner aforesaid, the said Governor and Company, and their Successors and Assigns, shall be intitled to have, receive and enjoy, at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer aforesaid, by and out of the said yearly Fund established as aforesaid, one Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to commence from the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and to be paid and payable to them, their Successors and Assigns, by even half-yearly Payments, at the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord Christ, and the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in every Year, by even and equal Portions for ever, until Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso or Provisoes herein after for that Purpose contained, and that the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds, and every Part thereof, shall be free from all Manner of Taxes, Impositions or Charges whatsoever.

VI. And for the better and more regular Payment of the said Annuity of seventy thousand Pounds to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, their Successors and Assigns for ever, subject to Redemption as aforesaid, an Order or Orders shall be signed by the Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, for the Payment thereof; and after the signing thereof, the same shall be good, valid and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them, or any of them, nor shall any Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Order or Orders so signed as aforesaid.

VII. And for the more speedy Payment of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds to the said Governor and Company as aforesaid, it is hereby declared and enacted, That weekly or otherwise, as the Money of the said Duties or Impositions shall, from Time to Time, be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, the same shall and may be issued upon the said Order or Orders, for or towards discharging the said Annuity, to grow due for and at the End of the Half-year in which such Payment shall be made, so as such weekly or other Payments, do not exceed the Sum of the half-yearly Payment, which should grow due for or at the End of every such half-year respectively.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, That the said Annuity of seventy thousand Pounds, and every Part thereof, shall be adjudged to be a Personal and not a Real Estate, and shall not be liable to any foreign Attachment; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, the Produce of the said Impositions on Coals and Culm shall be so low or deficient, as that the Monies arisen therefrom into the Exchequer, at the End of any the said half-yearly Feasts, shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge the Half-year's Annuity then due and payable, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, then and so often and in every such Case, the Deficiency of any such Half-year shall and may be supplied out of the Overplus Monies of the said Impositions or Duties arising in any subsequent Half-year; and in case at any Time or Times after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, such Produce shall be so low and deficient at the End of any one Year (computing the same to end end at Christmas yearly) as that the same shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge the whole Year's Annuity then grown due, then every such yearly Deficiency shall, from Time to Time, be answered and made good by and out of the first Supplies, which shall be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency shall appear; and in case no such Supplies shall be granted within six Months next after such Deficiency shall happen, then the same shall be made good out of any the Monies which at any Time or Times shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surpluses, Excises or Overplus Monies commonly called The Sinking Fund (except such Monies of the same Sinking Fund, as are appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf) and such Monies of the said Sinking Fund shall and may be, from Time to Time, issued and applied accordingly.

of the next Supplies.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatever Monies shall be so issued out of the said Sinking Fund, shall from Time to Time be replaced by and out of the first Supplies to be then after granted in Parliament.

Surplus to be reserved for Disposition of Parliament.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Duties, at the End of any one Year (computing the same to end at Christmas yearly) after the said Annuity of seventy thousand Pounds, and all Arrears thereof are satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall, from Time to Time be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be issued but by Authority of Parliament, and as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Repayment
by Parliament, Annuity redeemed.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors or Assigns, of the said Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, without any Deduction, Discount or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same, or any Part thereof, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds, then and not till then, the said Annuity or yearly Sum shall from thenceforth cease and be understood to be redeemed; and from and after such Redemption, the Monies arising from the said Impositions and Duties shall not be issued or applied to any Use or Purpose, but as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in this or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 25 Dec.
1729. if Payment be made to the Bank not less than 500,000l. so much of the Annuity to cease.

XIII. And in regard it is intended that the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds, may be redeemed by any Payments not less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time, and that as the said Principal Money shall be paid off, the said Annuity shall proportionably sink and be abated; Be it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, Payment be made to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time) in Part of the said Principal Sum at which the said Annuity is redeemable, and also if Payment be then also made of all Arrears of the said Annuity, then from and after every such Payment so made, so much of the said Annuity, as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in Part of the said whole Principal Sum, shall cease, determine, and be understood to be redeemed; any Thing in this or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank to continue
a Corporation till
the whole Sum
be redeemed.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall continue and be a Corporation, and shall enjoy all the Capacities, Powers, Privileges and Advantages to them as a Corporation belonging, until the compleat Redemption of the whole of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds, according to the before mentioned Provisoes for that Purpose; any former or other Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank may assign over their Annuities.

XV. And for the better enabling the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England at all Times hereafter to support their own and the publick Credit, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all former Powers or Authorities heretofore granted to them for assigning or otherwise disposing of any Annuities or Capital Stocks heretofore purchased by and now belonging to them, shall be and are hereby revived, continued and confirmed to them; and also that the said Governor and Company shall or may, and they are hereby empowered, at any Time or Times hereafter, to assign, transfer, or otherwise to dispose of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds by this Act established, every or any Part or Parcel, Parts or Parcels thereof, to any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, in such Manner and Form as the said Governor and Company shall think proper; subject nevertheless to such Redemption by Parliament as aforesaid, and without Power to enlarge their Capital Stock by or out of the same.

Treasury to discharge all Incumbrances on these Impositions
by 25 June 1728. out of the Monies advanced by the Bank.

XVI. And to the End, Intent and Purpose, that all the present Charges and Incumbrances on the said Impositions herein before particularly stated may be regularly discharged, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, or the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall on or before the twenty-fifth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, by and out of the Monies to be advanced by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England on the Credit of this Act, or by and out of any other Monies granted to his Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, provide and direct, that all the said Debts and Incumbrances be duly and regularly discharged, by paying to the respective Proprietors thereof the several Sums of Money, which after the Application of the Produce of the said Impositions and Duties to that Time, according to the Directions of former Acts of Parliament, shall appear to be due for Principal, Interest or Annuity, Premium or Rate, or other Purposes aforesaid, and by cancelling all the said Exchequer Bills; and that from and after such Payment, or reserving in the Exchequer Money sufficient for that Purpose, to be payable on Demand to the Proprietors of the said Debts and Incumbrances, all and every the said former Annuities or Funds, so charged on the said Duties and Impositions for the Purposes aforesaid, shall cease and determine, and the same Duties and Impositions shall for ever after be discharged therefrom; any Thing in any former Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVII. And whereas the before mentioned Sum of one hundred and three thousand one hundred and forty Pounds, remaining due and to be raised for compleating the Sum of three hundred and sixty thousand Pounds by the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, is by the said Act appointed to be raised only from Time to Time, as the Commissioners for building the said Churches should certify the same to be wanting, and the whole thereof need not be issued for some Time: Be it therefore enacted, That for the making the best Use thereof in the mean Time for the Benefit of the Publick, the said Sum of one hundred and three thousand one hundred and forty Pounds, or so much as at Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight shall remain unraised for the Purposes aforesaid, shall then be taken out of the said Purchase Money to be advanced by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or out of the other Monies granted for the Supply of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and shall be added to the Produce of the Fund commonly called The Aggregate Fund, for the Quarter ending at Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and shall be issued and applied as Part of the said Produce, in the same Manner as such Produce is or shall be made applicable by Act of Parliament, and that such Application thereof shall be deemed and taken as a regular Discharge thereof within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

The 103,140l. by 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. to be taken out of the Money advanced by the Bank, and added to the Aggregate Fund.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu thereof the Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall and they have hereby Power from Time to Time to issue out of the growing Produce of the said Aggregate Fund, such Sum and Sums of Money as shall from Time to Time be wanting for the Services to which the said Sum of one hundred and three thousand one hundred and forty Pounds was applicable, in the same Manner as they were impowered to raise the same by the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, so as the whole of the Monies so to be issued out of the said Aggregate Fund, do not exceed the Sum which shall have been placed to the said Aggregate Fund pursuant to the Directions aforesaid.

Treasury to issue out of the growing Interest of that Fund, so much as shall be wanting for that Service.

XIX. And whereas by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First (for reviving and adding two millions to the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company) the whole Capital Stock of the said Company being then computed at thirty-three millions eight hundred and two thousand four hundred and eighty-three Pounds fourteen Shillings and one Half-penny, was divided into two equal Parts, and one Moiety thereof, therein stated to amount to sixteen millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred and forty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and one Farthing, was to be and remain the Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company; and the other Moiety thereof, amounting to the like Sum of sixteen millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred and forty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and one Farthing, was converted into a Joint Stock, attended with Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and from thenceforth with Annuities at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and transferrable at the South-Sea Company; and by the same Act it was provided, That after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, the same Stocks might be redeemed by any Payments, not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time; and that such Payments should from Time to Time be applied either towards discharging the Principal Sums which should belong to the said South-Sea Company in their own Right, or towards discharging the Principal Sums of the said South-Sea Annuities, or towards discharging as well the said Principal Sums of the said Company, as of the said South-Sea Annuities, in such Proportions, Manner and Form, as should be prescribed by the respective Act or Acts of Parliament for furnishing such Sums; Therefore and to the Intent that the said Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds, herein before directed to be paid to the said South-Sea Company, may be made up to a Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, agreeable to the Intentions of the said Act of Parliament, and that the Application thereof may be regularly directed, Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at the same Time as the said four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds shall be issued and paid to the said South-Sea Company, pursuant to the Directions herein before given for that Purpose, there shall also be issued and paid to them, by and out of the Monies which shall then be in the Receipt of Exchequer of the said Sinking Fund, the further Sum of sixty-five thousand three hundred and ninety-five Pounds, which together with the said Sum of four hundred thirty-four thousand six hundred and five Pounds, will complete and make up a Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, for the Redemption of a proportionable Part of the Annuities attending their whole Principal Monies, whether in Capital Stock or Annuity Stock; and that two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, being one Moiety or Half-part of the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds so made up as aforesaid, shall go and be applied to and in discharge of so much of the Principal due to the said Company, in respect of that Part of their Debt which remains Capital Stock of the said Company; and the remaining two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds shall go and be applied to and in discharge of so much of the Principal due in respect of that Part of their whole Stock, as was so as aforesaid, converted into a Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities; and that from and after such Payment as aforesaid, a proportional Part of the Annuities payable to the South-Sea Company, whether in their own Right, or in Trust for the Proprietors of the said South-Sea Annuities, shall sink and be abated.

500,000 l. of South-Sea Stock to be discharged, &c.

XX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For enlarging the Times for bearing and determining Claims by the Trustees for raising Money upon the Estates of the late Directors of the South-Sea Company, and others, it was amongst other Things enacted, That the Court of Directors of the said Company should, after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, cause all and every Part of the South-Sea Stock and South-Sea Annuities, remaining any wise in the Right of, or in Trust for the said Company, to be divided out and distributed as near as might be, to and among the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, at such Time or Times, and in such Manner and Form, as the General Court of the said Company should from Time to Time judge to be most practicable and convenient: And whereas the said Company have, or are intitled in their own Right, as a Company, to greater Sums both of South-Sea Stock and South-Sea Annuities, undistributed among their other Proprietors, than the said Sum of five hundred thousand thousand Pounds so made up as aforesaid, will be sufficient to satisfy or redeem; and it would be more convenient for the said Company, and for the respective Proprietors of the said Stock or Annuities, that the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds should be applied, as far as the same will extend, to the Redemption and Discharge of the said Stock and Annuities undistributed as aforesaid, preferably to the Redemption of any other Parts of the said Stocks or Annuities already distributed to the respective Proprietors thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company, upon Receipt of the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds so made up as aforesaid, shall apply the same in equal Proportions as aforesaid, as far as the same will extend, to the Discharge or Redemption of such Parts of the said South-Sea Stock or South-Sea Annuities, as at the Time of such Receipt shall belong to the said Company, in their own Right as a Company, and undistributed amongst the other Proprietors of such Stocks or Annuities, and shall not be obliged to apply or divide out any Part thereof to or amongst any other the Proprietors of the said Stocks or Annuities, towards Redemption of any Part of their respective Shares or Interests in the same Stocks or Annuities; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXI. Provided always, That the Monies so to be paid to the said South-Sea Company, may be afterwards used or employed by the said Company, to the discharging or paying any Debts, Dividends, or other Services of the said Company, in the same Manner as any other Monies or Cash of the said Company may or ought to be employed; any Thing herein, or in the said last mentioned Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And whereas in Pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising a further Supply to her Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England did become intitled to a certain Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, being after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in respect of the Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand and twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, being the Amount of certain Exchequer-Bills by the said Act directed to be delivered up by the said Governor and Company to be cancelled, which Annuity was thereby charged on certain Duties on Houses therein mentioned, and was made redeemable by Parliament on Repayment to the said Governor and Company of the said Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand and twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny: And whereas by subsequent Acts of Parliament the said Annuity was, by and with the Consent of the said Bank of England reduced, and particularly by an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for continuing the several Annuities of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred and fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, and one hundred thousand Pounds, to the Bank of England until Midsummer one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and from thence for reducing the same to seventy-one thousand and one Pound two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings, and eighty thousand Pounds, redeemable by Parliament, and for preventing the uttering of forged, counterfeited or erased Bank Bills or Notes, it was amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the Feast-Day of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, the said Annuity should cease and determine, and the said Governor and Company should have and enjoy, in lieu thereof, one Annuity of seventy-one thousand and one Pound two Shillings and three Pence three Farthings for ever, subject nevertheless to Redemption by Parliament, on Payment to the said Governor and Company of the Principal Sum above-mentioned; and it was thereby provided and enacted, That if at any Time or Times Payment should be made of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time) in Part of the said Principal Sum, then from and after such Payment so made, so much of the said Annuity, as should bear Proportion to the Money so paid in Part of the said Principal, should cease, determine, and be abated, as by the said several Acts of Parliament (Relation being thereunto had) more fully and at large doth and may appear: Now to the Intent that the Sum of one million may be raised and applied towards redeeming a proportional Part of the said last mentioned Annuity, in the Manner herein after mentioned, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That by or out of such Monies as are or shall be in the Receipt of Exchequer, of the Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, commonly called the Sinking Fund, arisen or to arise at or from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight (after Payment of, or reserving sufficient to pay, such Monies as have been directed by this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the said Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies) there shall be issued, paid and applied to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, at the said Feast-Day, and afterwards quarterly, from Time to Time as the same shall arise, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall on such Quarter-Day be in the said Receipt of Exchequer, for or towards the redeeming the said last mentioned Annuity, until the same Payments shall in the whole amount to the Principal Sum of one million; and that as the said Payments of the Principal Money shall be from Time to Time made, a proportional Part of the said Annuity attending thereon shall also from Time to Time cease and determine, for the Benefit of the Publick.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies which shall arise for the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies commonly called the Sinking Fund (over and beyond what will satisfy and pay the several Sums before mentioned, and such other Charges as have been heretofore made thereon by Authority of Parliament) shall be appropriated, reserved and applied to and for the further discharging the Principal and Interest of such national Debts and Incumbrances, as were incurred before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and are declared to be national Debts, and were provided for by Act or Acts of Parliament, in such Manner and Form as shall be directed by any future Act or Acts of Parliament, to be discharged therewith or out of the same, and to and for no other Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

XXIV. And whereas in and by a certain Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For redeeming sundry Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, it was amongst other things enacted, That certain Lottery-Tickets therein mentioned, amounting to one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, then lying as Cash in the Exchequer, on the Head of the Sinking Fund, or the Annuity given for the same, or any Part thereof, thereof, might be assigned or transferred to such Person or Persons, as, being Proprietors of certain Standing Orders made out for certain Debentures for the Sufferers at Nevis and Saint Christophers, should voluntarily deliver up to be cancelled the like or equal Sum or Sums in any of the said Debenture Orders; and by the same Act the Time for taking in such Orders, in order to be cancelled, was limited to any Time before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, as by the said recited Act, relation thereto being had, more fully may appear: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act, several of the said Standing Orders were satisfied and discharged by and out of Part of the said Sum of one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, so lying as Cash in the Exchequer; but the Time thereby limited for exchanging the same being too short, several Persons who were and are willing and desirous to accept of the Remainder thereof in Satisfaction of the said Debenture Orders, are excluded from the Benefit thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities and Directions, given in and by the said Act of Parliament for or relating to the cancelling and discharging the said Standing Debentures, by or out of the said Lottery-Tickets, or the Annuity given for the same, shall be and are hereby renewed, ratified and confirmed, and shall remain, continue and be in full Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, until the whole of the said Sum of one hundred and three thousand two hundred and seventy-two Pounds and ten Shillings, shall be actually issued or applied to the cancelling and discharging of an equal or like principal Sum in the said Standing Debenture Orders.

Standing Orders for Sufferers at Nevis and St.
Christophers
may be delivered

Tickets.

XXV. Provided always, That the Person or Persons who shall accept or take the Annuity given for the said Lottery-Tickets in lieu and satisfaction of any principal Sum or Sums, contained in any Standing Order or Orders to be delivered up to be cancelled, shall not be intitled to any more of the Annuity attending thereon, than what shall be grown due from and after the half-yearly Feast Day, on which the same is payable, which shall be next preceding the Time of delivering up and cancelling of such Debenture Order or Orders; to which said Feast-Day the Interest then due on such Order or Orders shall be paid out of the Produce of the Fund, on which the same is now charged or chargeable.

Proviso.

XXVI. And whereas in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Fund of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England relating to Exchequer Bills, and for settling an additional Revenue of one hundred and twenty thousand Pounds per Annum upon his Majesty, during his Life, for the Service of the Civil Government; and for establishing a certain Fund of fifty-four thousand six hundred Pounds per Annum, in order to raise a Sum not exceeding nine hundred and ten thousand Pounds, for the Service of the Publick, by Sale of Annuities, after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament; and for satisfying an Arrear for Work and Materials at Blenheim, incurred whilst that Building was carried on at the Expence of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of Blessed Memory, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, his said late Majesty's Civil List Revenues were for some time stated at Michaelmas yearly only, and the Overplus, appearing by the said yearly Computations above seven hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, was once in every Year brought to the Account of, and made Part of the Fund called The Aggregate Fund: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for redeeming certain Annuities now payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England, at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, the Fund called The Sinking Fund (whereof the Surplus of the Aggregate Fund is Part) was from Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, directed to be computed and stated half-yearly, to wit, at Lady-Day and Michaelmas in every Year; and the Overplus of the said Civil List Revenues in the half-yearly States, which, since Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, have been made thereof, hath been brought to the Account of the said Aggregate Fund, to and for the half Year ended at Lady-Day one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven and no further; for that his said late Majesty dying on the eleventh Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, his Civil List Revenues from and after that Day ceased, and no half-yearly Surplus can or ought to be computed thereon: And whereas nevertheless, some Doubts and Questions have been made, whether the Monies remaining in the Receipt of his said late Majesty's Exchequer, at the Time of his Demise, or which have been since paid into the said Receipt, arisen of or for his said late Majesty's Civil List Revenues, become and grown due during the Life-time of his said late Majesty, could be applied to the Payment of the Debts due to his said late Majesty's Servants, Tradesmen and others; For the obviating and clearing which Doubts, Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury or any three or more of them now being, and the High Treasurer or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized and required, from time to time, to issue or cause to be issued, the Monies so arisen or to arise into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, or of for the Civil List Revenues of his said late Majesty, for and towards Discharging and Paying to his said late Majesty's Servants, Tradesmen and others, such Sums of Money as were due to them at the Time of his said late Majesty's Demise, at such Times and in such Manner as shall be found necessary and convenient.

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty of five hundred thousand Pounds, towards discharging Wages due to Seamen, and for the constant, regular and punctual Payment of Seamen's Wages for the future; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament; and for disposing of the Surplus of the Money granted for Half-pay, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS several just and necessary Measures were, upon Account of the late perplexed and disturbed Situation of Affairs in Europe, entred into and concerted between your Majesty's late Royal Father, of Glorious Memory, and your good Allies; and in order to preserve and restore the Peace of Europe, and to secure the Trade, Navigation and other valuable Rights and Possessions of these Kingdoms, great Fleets were employed abroad in divers remote Parts, whereby a great Arrear or Debt has been contracted for the Service of the Navy, and particularly on the Head of Seamen's Wages; and your Majesty having now, by the Blessing of God on your Care and Concern for the general Good, so far obtained a Settlement

Loans or Exchequer Bills to the Sum of 500,000l. to be made before 25 Dec. 1728.

a Settlement of Affairs abroad, as that there is no present Occasion for imploying so great a Number of Seamen in your Majesty's Service; and the immediate Payment of the said Arrears of Wages is judged advisable, not only as it will save and prevent a further great Expence, but also as it will render a regular, constant and punctual Payment of Seamen's Wages more practicable and easy for the future; which will be an Encouragement to able and experienced Seamen, at all times hereafter, to enter themselves voluntarily into your Majesty's Service, when Occasions shall require the same; and your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, having taken your Majesty's most gracious Recommendation from the Throne into their most serious Consideration, have for these Purposes freely and unanimously given and granted to your Majesty the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, to be raised in manner herein after mentioned; we do thereby most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the King's most excellent Majesty, by Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, to authorize and empower the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, at any Time or Times before the twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, to cause or direct any Loans to be taken or received at his Majesty's Exchequer, from any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, or any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out there for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in Loans and Exchequer Bills together in the whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, in the same or like Manner, Form, and Order, and according to the same or like Rules and Directions, as in and by a certain Act of this present Session of Parliament (for continuing the Duties on Malt, Hum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight) are enacted and prescribed, concerning the Loans or Exchequer Bills to be made in pursuance of the same Act.

All Clauses in the Malt Act to be extended to the Loans and Exchequer Bills to be made by this Act. Loans to bear Interest at 4 l. per Cent. These Loans and Bills chargeable on the first Aids granted after 29 September 1728. or on the Sinking Fund. The Monies out of the Sinking Fund to be replaced. EXP.

All Monies granted on the Head of Seamen's Wages shall be applied for those Services.

The Method of paying the Seamen.

VI. And to the End, Intent and Purpose, that as well all Arrears of Seamen's Wages, as their growing Wages, may be constantly, regularly and punctually paid, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That not only as to such Monies, as have been granted in this Session of Parliament for the Service of the Navy, but also as to such Supplies, as shall be hereafter granted in Parliament for those Services, such Parts or Proportions thereof, as shall be on the Head of Seamen's Wages, shall from time to time be issued and applied for those Services constantly, regularly and punctually, in manner following; that is to say, when and so often as any of the Ships of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall have been in Sea Pay six whole Months, to commence or be computed from the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, or any time after, in case such Ships shall then be in any Port of Great Britain, not in order to be discharged, or on the Coast of the same, the Captain or Commander thereof shall, immediately after the end of the said six Months, make or cause to be made out, pay Lists containing the Names of the inferior Officers, and able and ordinary Seamen, belonging to the Ship under his Command, and shall send the said Lists, so made out, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, who are hereby directed and required to cause immediate Payment to be made of two Months Wages to such inferior Officers and able and ordinary Seamen or to their respective Attorney or Attorneys duly authorized to receive the same, deducting thereout whatever Money shall have been paid on account of the said Wages by way of Advance: And in case any of the said Ships, that shall have been six Months in Sea Pay as aforesaid, shall be then in any Port of Ireland, or abroad in Foreign Parts, the Captain or Commander of such Ship shall, immediately after the end of the said six Months, muster his Crew or Company, and enter the Names of such inferior Officers and able and ordinary Seamen who shall desire to have their Wages paid at home in Great Britain, into Pay Lists as aforesaid, and shall send and transmit the said Pay Lists to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, who are hereby directed and required, within one Month after they shall have received the said Pay Lists, to cause Payment to be made of two Months Wages, with such Deduction as aforesaid, to the Attorney or Attorneys of such Person or Persons duly authorized to receive the same: And the said Commissioners are hereby directed and required to give timely Notice in the Gazette of the Time appointed by them for such Payment: And when and so often as any of the said Ships shall have been twelve Months in Sea Pay, then other Pay Lists shall be made out, sent and transmitted, and two Months Wages paid thereon in the Manner aforesaid; and so from time to time, at the end of every ensuing six Months, such Pay Lists shall be made out and transmitted, and two Months Wages paid thereon as aforesaid, until the said Ships shall be finally paid off: And for the Residue of their Wages, the same shall be paid in manner following; that is to say, as to all such of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, as shall return home in order to be laid up, the Wages due to the Officers and Seamen serving on Board of any such Ship or Vessel shall be entirely paid off within two Months after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel in the Port where the same is designed to be laid up: And as to all other Ships or Vessels in his Majesty's Service, the Wages due to the Officers and Seamen shall be paid as follows; that is to say, when such Ships or Vessels have been eighteen Months in Sea Pay, then the Wages due for the first twelve Months thereof, deducting thereout whatever Moneys shall have been before paid by way of Advance or otherwise, in part or on account of the said twelve Months Wages, shall be paid within two Months after or so soon after as any such Ship or Vessel shall put into any Port of this Realm, where his Majesty's Ships are usually paid; and so toties quoties, as often as they shall have been eighteen Months in Sea Pay, beyond the time to which their Wages shall have been cleared, twelve Months Wages more shall be paid in like manner.

VII. And it is hereby declared, That the Computation of the said Months Wages shall be by reckoning twenty-eight Days to the Month, according to the usual Course or Practice of the Navy. 28 Days to be reckoned to the Month.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies coming into the Exchequer either by Loans or Exchequer-Bills, upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and for making good the Deficiency of a late Malt Act; and so much Money, if any such be, of the Duties thereby granted or continued, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans or Exchequer-Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium, or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer either by Loans or Exchequer-Bills, upon one other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land-Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain, after all the Loans or Exchequer-Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Land-Tax shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same; and the Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand Pounds to be advanced by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for the Purchase of an Annuity of seventy thousand Pounds redeemable by Parliament, and charged on certain Impositions or Duties on Coals and Culm by virtue of another Act of this present Session of Parliament; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer-Bills upon this Act, and the Sum of fifteen thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven Pounds fifteen Shillings, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer on Arrears of former Land-Taxes, shall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are herein after prescribed; that is to say, It is hereby enacted and declared, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding one million four hundred eighty-five thousand five hundred sixty-one Pounds fourteen Shillings and nine Pence, for or towards the Naval Services herein after more particularly expressed; that is to say, five hundred thousand Pounds, part thereof, for or towards paying off and discharging Seamen's Wages, and the Residue thereof for or towards defraying the Charge of the Ordinary of his Majesty's Navy, and for Half-pay to Sea-Officers, and for and towards Victual, Wages, Wear and Tear of the Navy, and the Victualling thereof, performed and to be performed, and for or towards Sea-Services in the Office of Ordnance performed and to be performed, and for or towards other Services of the Navy performed and to be performed. served in the ditribution of Half-pay.

XIII. And be it enacted, That out of the said Aids or Supplies, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of sixty thousand Pounds, to perfect and fulfil the Obligations his Majesty is under on account of Engagements entered into and concerted for securing the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and for restoring and preserving the Peace of Europe.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the said Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before-mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies directed to be satisfied thereout, by any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in any other Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament.

XV. And as to the said Sum of fifty-eight thousand Pounds by this Act appropriated, on Account of Half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules herein after prescribed, shall be duly observed in the Application thereof; that is to say, That no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor, under the Age of sixteen Years, at the Time when the Regiment, Troop or Company in which he served was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same who hath resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by Virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons who would have been otherwise entitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the five Regiments of Dragoons, and eight Regiments of Foot, lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

13 Geo. 1. c. 7.

XVI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, to raise Money for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and for other Purposes therein expressed, several Supplies which had been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, among which any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding sixty thousand thousand Pounds, upon Account of Half-pay, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land-Forces and Marines, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf; Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Sum of sixty thousand Pounds, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers according to the said Rules, by the said Act prescribed to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall or may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed, or lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or to such others, as by Reason of their long Service or otherwise, his Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants, under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty by Proclamation to be issued before 24 June 1729, may prohibit Commerce between his Subjects and Places infected. And may prohibit any Person to come from Places infected into these Dominions. Going to a Place infected forfeits 500 l. In all Proclamations for prohibiting Commerce, a reasonable time to be allowed before the Prohibition. Attainder on this Act not to corrupt Blood, &c. Act to commence from 1 June 1728, and be in force two Years, and to the end of the next Session of Parliament. See 26 Geo. 2. c. 6.

C A P. XIV.

An Act for encouraging Seamen to enter into his Majesty's Service.

WHEREAS nothing will more effectually contribute to the promoting and advancing the Naval Strength of this Kingdom, than the endeavouring by due and fitting Encouragements to invite Mariners and Seamen to enter willingly into the Service of their Country, as often as Occasion shall require; and whereas his Majesty, out of his Princely Concern for the Increase and Encouragement of his Seamen, hath been most graciously pleased to recommend the same from the Throne, as a Consideration of the greatest Importance: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of July which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, if any Seaman or able bodied Landman shall freely and voluntarily come before and enter his Name with any Commission Officer or Officers of the Fleet to be appointed for entering such Volunteers, in order to serve in or on Board any of the Ships or Vessels of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, then sitting out for Sea, or that shall be in want of Men, and shall receive a Certificate of his so doing from such Commission Officer or Officers (who are hereby directed and required to make out and give such Certificate gratis, and without Fee or Reward, and duly to date the same) and if such Person shall forthwith proceed towards such Ship, and shall make his personal Appearance on Board the same within the Space of fourteen Days from the Day of the Date of such Certificate, inclusive of the Day of the Date thereof, if the Place where he so enters his Name be not above one hundred Miles distant from the Port where such Ship lies, or within the Space of twenty Days if it be at a greater Distance, or within the Space of thirty Days, if the Place where he so enters his Name be above two hundred Miles distant; then and in such case every such Person shall be and is hereby declared to be intitled to Wages from the Day of the Date of such Certificate, inclusive of the Day of the Date thereof, and shall also be allowed the usual conduct Money, and be paid an Advance of two Months Wages, before the Ship, in which he shall be rated and serve, goes to Sea.

After 1 July 1728. Volunteer entering his Name with an Officer of the Fleet, to serve on Board any Ship, and making his personal Appearance on Board, &c.

shall be intitled to Wages from the Date of his Certificate, and be allowed Conduct Money, and Two Months Wages.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any inferior Officer or able and ordinary Seaman, shall die in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, the Captain or Commander of the Ship, in which he served at the Time of his Death, shall immediately, or as soon as conveniently may be after his Death, make out a Ticket for the Pay due to the Person so dying, at the time of his Death, and shall send or transmit the said Ticket so made out, by the first and safest Opportunity, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, for the Use of the Executors or Administrators of such Person so dying; and the said Commissioners are hereby to be forthwith paid.

hereby directed and required to cause the Money due upon such Ticket to be forthwith paid to the said Executors or Administrators, or to their respective Attorney or Attornies, duly authorized, in such Manner as is herein after appointed, to receive the same, without carrying for the Return of the Ship to which the Person so dying did belong, or the general Pay thereof.

Voluntier turned over, not to serve in a worse Quality than in the former Ship; and have two Months Pay advanced.

The Removal of the whole Crew not to be construed a turning over.

No Person deserting to forfeit more than was due to him in that Ship.

Not to alter the Punishment 13 Car. 2. Stat. 2. c. 9. appointed for Deserters.

Bargains for Seamen's Pay, after 1 Sept. 1728, void.

Not to discharge any Seamen's Debts, or to make void the Sale of any Ticket, or to make void any Indenture, whereby any Master is intitled to his Apprentice's Wages.

Exception.

No Letters of Attorney good, unless made revocable, and be signed by the Captain, &c.

When the Pay Books are closed, Seamen who have not received their Pay,

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any inferior Officer or Voluntier, shall be turned over from one Ship into another, then and in such Case, such Person so turned over shall not serve or be rated in a worse Quality, or lower Degree or Station than he served in or was rated for in the Ship from which he was turned over; and shall receive, over and above such Wages as are then due to him, an Advance of two Months Wages before the Ship, into which he is turned over, proceeds to Sea.

IV. Provided always, That if any Ship be hindered by any Accident from going to Sea, the Removal of the whole Crew or Company of such Ship, together with their Officers, into another Ship, shall not be construed or taken to be a turning over within the Meaning of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person in Sea Pay, that shall withdraw himself from or desert the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall forfeit any more of the Pay or Wages due to him, than so much thereof as was due to him for his Service in the Ship from whence he withdrew himself or deserted; and that no Ticket or Tickets made out or that shall be made out for the Pay or Wages of any Seaman, shall be forfeited or stop by his withdrawing himself or deserting, after the making out of such Ticket, but the same shall be duly paid.

VI. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to take away or alter the Punishment appointed by an Act made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, for such Captains, Officers and Mariners as shall desert the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in his Ships, or entice any others so to do.

VII. And whereas many Persons encouraging the Extravagance and taking Advantage of the Necessities of Seamen, have made great and unreasonable Profit to themselves by anticipating, bargaining for or purchasing the Pay or Wages due or to grow due to Seamen, to the Impoverishment and utter Ruin of such Seamen and their Families: Be it enacted, That all and every Bargain, Sale, Bill of Sale, Contract, Agreement and Assignment whatsoever, of, for or concerning any Pay, Wages or Allowances of Money of any Kind, due or to grow due to any Seaman or Seamen in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for such Service, which shall be made or entered into, from and after the first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, shall be and is, and are hereby declared to be void and of none Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; and the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being is hereby authorized, directed and required to pay, or cause to be paid to all such Seamen as shall appear in Person at the Pay Table, or, in their Absence, to the lawful Attornies impowered by them, in the Manner as is herein after directed, or to the Executors or Administrators of such Seamen, or to their respective Attorney or Attornies duly authorized, in such Manner as is herein after directed, the respective Pay, Wages or Allowances of Money of any Kind due to them, without Regard to any Bargain, Sale, Bill of Sale, Contract, Agreement or Assignment whatsoever, made or to be made, of, for or concerning any such Pay, Wages or Allowances of Money of any Kind, from and after the said first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to discharge any Seaman of or from any Debt or Debts which he has already contracted or may hereafter contract, or to invalidate or make void the Sale or Sales of any Ticket or Tickets that is, are or shall be made out for Pay, Wages or other Allowances of Money of any Kind, to such Person or Persons as shall be in Possession of such Ticket or Tickets; but such Sale and Sales shall be as good, valid and effectual as they were before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. Provided also, That this Act or any Thing herein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to invalidate or make void any Indenture or Indentures, whereby any Master is or shall be intitled to have or receive the Pay, Wages or other Allowances of Money earned by his Apprentice; but such Pay, Wages or other Allowances shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being, or by his Direction, according to such Indenture or Indentures, as has been usual in such Cases, so as such Apprentice or Apprentices were not above the Age of eighteen Years, at the Time such Indenture or Indentures were made and executed, in which Case no Pay, Wages or Allowances shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy or by his Directions, according to such Indenture or Indentures; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, no Letter of Attorney made by any Seaman or Seamen, in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by the Executors or Administrators of any such Seaman or Seamen, in order to impower and intitle any Person or Persons to receive any Pay, Wages or Allowances of Money of any Kind, due or to grow due for such Service, shall be good and valid, or sufficient for that Purpose, unless such Letter of Attorney be made revocable, and be signed before, and attested by the Captain or Commander, and one other of the signing Officers of the Ship to which such Seaman or Seamen, who make the same, belong, or the Clerk of the Cheque of some of the Dock Yards, or the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of some Corporation.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and as often as any of the Pay Books of the Ships belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be closed, such Seamen as shall not then receive or have received the Pay, Wages or other Allowances of Money due to them, shall, upon Application made by them to the Commissioners of of the Navy for the Time being, have and receive Bills or Tickets made out to them to the Value of the said Pay, Wages or other Allowances due to them respectively; and the said Commissioners are hereby directed and required to make out the said Bills or Tickets accordingly, and to cause the same to be dated, numbered, registered and paid in a Course not exceeding one Month after the Date thereof.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Governors, Ministers and Consuls appointed or that shall be appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in foreign Parts, and residing there, or, where none such are resident, any two or more British Merchants then and there residing, shall be and are hereby authorized, directed and required to send and provide for all seafaring Men and Boys, Subjects of Great Britain, that shall by Shipwreck, Capture or other unavoidable Accident be driven or cast away to such foreign Parts or Places where such Governors, Ministers, Consuls or Merchants reside; and the said Governors, Ministers, Consuls and Merchants are hereby required to provide for and subsist such seafaring Men and Boys, at or after the Rate of six Pence per Diem each, and to send Bills of their several Disbursements upon such Occasions, together with proper Vouchers for the same, to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, who are hereby directed and required to cause immediate Payment to be made of such Bills and Disbursements, after due Examination of the said Vouchers; and the said Governors, Ministers, Consuls and Merchants shall put or send the said Men or Boys on board the first Ship belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, that shall arrive at the Parts or Places where they reside, or any other Parts or Places being near or within a convenient Distance for that Purpose; or in case no Ship of War shall be then in such Parts or Places, or within a convenient Distance, they shall send their said Men or Boys on board such Merchant Ships or Vessels as are bound for any Port in Great Britain, and are in want of Men to make up their Complement; but if neither Case happens within a convenient Time, then they shall provide and order a Passage homeward for such Men and Boys in the first Merchant Ship or Vessel bound for Great Britain; and every Master or Person having Charge of a Merchant Ship or Vessel that shall arrive in such foreign Parts, and be homeward bound from thence to any Port in Great Britain, shall be and is hereby required to take on board such and so many of such seafaring Men or Boys as the said Governors, Ministers, Consuls or Merchants shall direct, not exceeding four for each one hundred Tuns of which his Ship consists.

to have Tickets made out to them to the Value of their Pay.

Consuls, &c. in foreign Parts to provide for seafaring Men driven to their Coasts.

Commissioners of the Navy to pay the Charges.

Consuls, &c. to send home such Seamen by the first Ships.

XIII. And for an Encouragement for such Masters of Ships or Vessels to take such Seamen or Boys aboard, and bring them to Great Britain: Be it enacted, That every such Master or Person having Charge of a Ship or Vessel, who shall produce a Certificate under the Hands of the said Governors, Ministers, Consuls or Merchants, or any of them, certifying the Number and Names of the Men or Boys taken on board by their Direction, and the Time of taking them on board, and shall make an Affidavit at his Return, setting forth the Time during which he subsisted such Men or Boys, and that he did not, during that Time, want of his own Complement of Men, or how many he did want of such Complement, and for what Time, shall receive from the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being (who are hereby required to cause the same to be paid) six Pence per Diem for the Passage and Provisions of each Man and Boy, from the Day of their Imbarkation homewards, to the Day of their Arrival in Great Britain, or being put into some Ship of War; six Pence per Diem only being deducted for such Time, and so many Persons as he wanted of his Complement during his Voyage.

Masters of Ships to have 6d. per Diem for the Passage of such Seamen.

XIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to lessen or take away the Allowances or other Advantages made or appointed to or for any Seaman that is or shall be in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any Law or Statute now in Force, or by the Custom or Usage of the Navy.

Not to take away other Advantages to Seamen.

XV. And to prevent for the future, as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrests upon Seamen actually belonging to any of his Majesty's Ships, whereby his Majesty and the Publick may be deprived of their Service: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person whatsoever who shall list and enter himself to serve his Majesty, as a Seaman on board any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, shall be liable to be taken out of his Majesty's Service by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless for a real Debt, or other just Cause of Action, and unless, before the taking out such Process or Execution, not being for a Criminal Matter, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before one or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record, or other Court, out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, That to his or their Knowledge, the Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, from the Defendant or Defendants in the Action, or Cause of Action, on which such Process shall issue, or the Debt or Damage and Costs, for which such Execution shall be issued out, amounts to the Value of twenty Pounds at the least, a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken. And if any Person shall be nevertheless arrested, contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for one or more Judge or Judges of such Court, upon Complaint made thereof by the Party himself, or by any his superior Officer, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties, or otherwise, and by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals to discharge such Seaman so arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Fees, upon due Proof made before him or them, that such Seaman so arrested was actually belonging to one of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and also to award to the Party so complaining, such Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable, for the Recovery whereof he shall have the like Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the said Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendant in the said Action.

No Seaman shall be liable to be taken out of his Majesty's Service, otherwise than for some Criminal Matter, unless the Debt amounts to 20 l.

XVI. And to the End that honest Creditors who aim only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from such Seamen as are actually belonging to some of his Majesty's Ships, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be assisted and forwarded in their Suits, and instead of an Arrest, which may hurt the Service, and occasion a great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed

Plaintiff may enter a common Appearance, and proceed to Judgment, &c.

ceed in a more speedy and easy Method: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff and Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Seaman or Seamen in his Majesty's Service, or left at his or their last Place of Residence, before his entering into his Majesty's Service, to file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon Account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to intitle such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon, other than against the Body or Bodies of him or them so actually belonging to one of his Majesty's Ships as aforesaid; this Act or any Thing herein, or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for removing Doubts concerning the additional Duty of two Pence per Gallon upon low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, from foreign Materials; and for obviating Questions relating to Appeals in Matters of Excise; and for appointing the Number of Commissioners of Excise, who may hear Causes depending before them.

11 W. 3. c. 11.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Duties upon low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction; and continuing several additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices and Pictures, and certain Impositions upon Hawkers, Pedlars and petty Chapmen, and the Duty of fifteen per Centum upon Muslins, and for improving the Duties upon japaned and laquered Goods, and for continuing the Coinage Duty, for the several Terms and Purposes therein mentioned, it was enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred, and until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, there should be paid, by way of Excise, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, made or drawn by any Distiller or other Person making or drawing Spirits or strong Waters for Sale or Exportation, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Rates and Duties therein mentioned, over and above the Duties payable for Spirits perfectly made, and particularly for every Gallon of low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith, four Pence: And whereas by one other Act of Parliament made and passed in the third

3 Ann. c. 4.

Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon low Wines and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars and petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins, and for granting new Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Callicoes, China Ware and Drugs, the aforesaid Duties on low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, were continued from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten: And whereas by one other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fourth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for laying further Duties on low Wines, and for preventing the Damage to her Majesty's Revenue by Importation of foreign cut Whalebone, and for making some Provisions as to the Stamp Duties, and the Duties on Births, Burials and Marriages, and the Salt Duties, and touching Million Lottery Tickets; and for enabling her Majesty to dispose of the Effects of William Kidd, a notorious Pirate, to the Use of Greenwich Hospital; and for appropriating the publick Monies granted in this Session of Parliament, it was amongst other Things enacted, That for every Gallon of low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, which at any Time or Times, during the Term of five Years, to commence from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and five, should be made or drawn from any foreign Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, there should be paid and payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, over and above all other Duties charged or chargeable thereupon by the said last mentioned or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, the Sum of two Pence, to be paid by the Distillers or Makers thereof: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifth

4 Ann. c. 12.

5 Ann. c. 19.

Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties on low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction; and the Duties payable by Hawkers, Pedlars and petty Chapmen; and Part of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and the late Duties on Sweets; and the One Third Subsidy, of Tunnage and Poundage; and for settling and establishing a Fund thereby, and by the Application of certain Overplus Monies, and otherwise, for Payment of Annuities, to be sold for raising a further Supply to her Majesty, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seven, and other Uses therein expressed, it is enacted, That all and every such or the like Duties for and upon all low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, as by the aforesaid Act of Parliament made and passed in the third Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, were continued or granted until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, should, by Virtue of the said Act of Parliament made and passed in the said fifth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, be further continued, and be paid and payable to her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for and upon all low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, to be made or drawn by any Distiller or other Persons making or drawing Spirits or strong Waters for Sale or Exportation within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from the twenty-third Day of June which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, for the Term of ninety-six Years, from thence next and immediately ensuing, for the Uses and Purposes expressed in the said Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty: And whereas it was the

the true Intent and Meaning of the said last mentioned Act, to continue all the said Duties on low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, granted by any of the said recited Acts, from the respective Times of the Expiration of them, until the End of the Term of ninety and six Years, therein limited and expressed: And whereas some Doubts and Questions have nevertheless been made, whether the additional Duty of two Pence per Gallon on low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, given and granted by the said Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, be continued by the said Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, and is to continue for the Term therein mentioned; for the obviating and clearing which Doubts, with Regard as well to the Time past as to come; and for the acquitting, discharging and indemnifying all Persons whatsoever, who have any way acted or been concerned in the charging, collecting, paying or receiving the said Duty of two Pence per Gallon, on such Low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, or who shall be concerned, or act in the charging, collecting, paying or receiving the same for the future, and for the supporting and establishing the Fund, by the said last mentioned Act of Parliament intended to be created for the securing such Annuities, as should be purchased pursuant to the said last mentioned Act of Parliament; and for the Explanation of the said Act: Be it enacted and declared by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said additional Duty of two Pence per Gallon, for and upon all Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, given and granted by the said recited Act of Parliament made and passed in the fourth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and five, for the Term of five Years, was by the said recited Act, made and passed in the fifth Year of her late Majesty's Reign, intended to be continued, and shall and ought to be and continue from the twenty-third Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, for the Term of ninety-six Years, from thence next and immediately ensuing; and shall and ought to be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors during the said Term, for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act made in the fifth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign express; and shall be levied and collected during the said Term, by the like Powers and Authorities, and under the like Rules, Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as in and by the said Act made in the fifth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, are expressed and provided, in respect of the several Duties of Excise thereby continued; and that all Persons whatsoever, who have been concerned, or who have acted in the charging, collecting, paying or receiving the said Duty of two Pence per Gallon for such Low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction as aforesaid, are and shall respectively by Virtue of this Act be acquitted and discharged and indemnified in respect thereof.

The additional Duty of 2 d. per Gallon on Low Wines drawn from foreign Materials to continue from 23 June 1710. for 96 Years. 1 Geo. I. c. 12. sect. 8.

To be levied as by the Act 5 Ann. c. 19.

II. Provided always, That no Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits of Strong Waters for Sale or Exportation shall, for or by Reason of this present Act of Parliament, or of any Thing herein declared or contained, be subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture, for or on Account of his, her or their having omitted or neglected to pay the said Duty of two Pence per Gallon on Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture therewith, at any Time before the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight; but that all and every of them respectively shall be and are hereby acquitted and discharged from all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall be liable to be sued or prosecuted only for the single Duties so omitted or neglected to be paid, at any Time before the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight.

Distillers not liable to Penalties for not paying the said Duty, before 1 June 1728.

III. And whereas in an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp-Duties, Post-Office, and House-Money, a Clause is contained concerning the Forfeiture and Seizure of Sweets, which from and after the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty, should be sent or removed from one Place to another without Certificates from the proper Officers of Excise, in which Clause some general Words are mentioned concerning other Forfeitures to be made from and after the said Day, by Virtue or in Pursuance of any Act or Acts whatsoever relating to the Duties of Excise, or any other Duty or Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, upon which Words a Doubt hath arisen, whether by the Generality thereof the Right and Liberty of appealing to the Commissioners of Appeals, from Judgments given by the Commissioners of Excise, in Causes and Prosecutions on account of Forfeitures and Offences relating to the Duties of Excise, and the Jurisdiction and Power of the Commissioners of Appeals to hear and determine such Appeals, and also the Right and Liberty of appealing to the Justices assembled at the respective Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, in Cases where Judgment or Judgments happen to be given by two or more Justices of the Peace in Causes and Prosecutions before them, for or on account of Forfeitures and Offences respectively relating either to the Duties on Malt, or to the Duties on Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed or dressed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, be not taken away and repealed: Now for preventing and avoiding all such Doubts and Questions, and declaring and re-establishing the Right and Liberty of appealing in the respective Cases before mentioned, Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That neither the said Act of the sixth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, nor any Clause, Matter or Thing therein contained, did or doth extend, or shall be construed to extend, or to have extended to take away, repeal or alter the Right and Liberty of appealing in the respective Cases before mentioned, or in any of them; and the Right and Liberty of appealing in the respective Cases before mentioned, and the several Jurisdictions and Powers, as well of the Commissioners of Appeals, as of the Justices of the Peace assembled in their respective Quarter-Sessions, now is and are, and ought to continue and be in the same Manner and Condition, as the said Right, Liberty, Jurisdictions and Powers respectively was and were before the making the said Act of the sixth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign; and that Appeals already brought, or hereafter to be brought in the respective Cases before mentioned, which have happened since the passing the same Act, are and stand in the same Manner and Condition, as they respectively would have done in case the said Act had never been made; the aforesaid Act, or any other Law, Statute, Provision or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Right of appealing confirmed.

After 24 June 1728. Complaints may be determined by three Commissioners of Excise.

All Adjudications may be executed by Warrant of three Commissioners.

IV. And whereas Complaints and Informations, which at the chief Office in London for the Duties of Excise, and other Duties there managed, are exhibited and commenced, either by Traders and Dealers in the Commodities respectively liable to such Duties, who apprehend themselves to have been overcharged, or by Prosecutors and Informers against such Traders and Dealers, for Offences or Facts by them committed or incurred, either by their having omitted to do Things, which by the Laws relating to the said respective Duties they are required to do, or by their having done other Things contrary to the said respective Laws, cannot be heard, adjudged and determined with the like Dispatch, Ease and Convenience to the Parties concerned therein, as might be done in case the same were to be heard, adjudged and determined by a less Number of the Commissioners for the said Duties for the Time being, than a Majority of them: And whereas such Complaints and Informations happening by the Means aforesaid to remain and continue in suspense and undetermined, is discouraging and disadvantageous to the Parties concerned therein: For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, all such Complaints and Informations as aforesaid, either of the one or the other Sort, which before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight shall not be heard, adjudged and determined, but shall then, or at any Time after, be depending at the said chief Office, shall and may be heard, adjudged and determined by any three or more of such Commissioners for the Time being, and that it shall be sufficient in the written Account or Record of such Proceedings to mention, that such Complaint or Complaints, Information or Informations, are made and exhibited to and before three of such Commissioners, without particularly mentioning or expressing the Christian and Surnames of such three Commissioners for the Time being; and that every such Adjudication and Determination of such three or more of such Commissioners for the Time being, shall and hereby is declared to be as good and valid in the Law, and of the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if such Adjudication and Determination had been by all, or the Majority of such Commissioners for the Time being; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Adjudication and Adjudications, Determination and Determinations, shall and may, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, be executed by Virtue of a Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of any three Commissioners for the Time being, whether such Commissioners setting their Hands and Seals to such Warrant or Warrants shall or shall not happen to be the particular Commissioners, by whom such Adjudication or Determination shall be made, or whether such three Commissioners, so setting their Hands and Seals to such Warrant or Warrants, were Commissioners at the particular Time or Times when such Adjudication or Adjudications, Determination or Determinations as aforesaid shall happen to be made; provided that the Persons so setting their Hands and Seals to such Warrant or Warrants, at the Time and Times of such their setting their Hands and Seals thereto, actually are such Commissioners; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Duties on Wine
Lees shall cease.

WHEREAS in the Book of Rates annex to the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, a particular Rate of four Pounds per Ton was fixt upon Wine Lees imported; according to which Rate a Subsidy of twelve Pence in the Pound was thereby payable to his Majesty; and whereas according to the said Rate a further Subsidy of Poundage of twelve Pence in the Pound on Wine Lees imported, was granted to his present Majesty for his Life (which God long preserve) by an Act made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign: And whereas by an Act made in the second Year of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, another Subsidy was granted on the Importation of Wine Lees, in Proportion to the said Rate, commonly called the One Third Subsidy; and by an Act passed in the third Year of her said late Majesty, another Subsidy of Poundage was granted on the Importation of Wine Lees, in Proportion to the said Rate, commonly called the Two Third Subsidy; and whereas by an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, an additional Impost of twenty-five Pounds for every Hundred Pound Value, was laid upon French Wine Lees imported, according to the said Rate; and whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, an additional Duty of twenty-five Pounds per Centum was laid upon French Wine Lees imported; all which Acts which granted the said several Subsidies, and other Duties commonly called the Old Subsidy, the One Third Subsidy, and the Two Third Subsidy (except the said further Subsidy which is granted to his Majesty during his Life) as also the said additional Impost and additional Duty, are by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament: And whereas great Quantities of Wines have of late been imported, mixed with, and under Pretence of Lees, which were afterwards drawn off, and sold as Wine, to the manifest Abuse of the Law, and Prejudice of the Revenue; For Remedy whereof, We your faithful Commons in Parliament assembled, do beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, the said several Subsidies, additional Impost, additional Duty, and other Duties whatsoever, payable to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, by any Law now in Force, upon the Importation of Wine Lees, shall cease and determine, and be no longer due and payable for Wine Lees imported after that Time.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the said former Subsidies, and other Duties repealed by this Act, all Wine Lees imported into Great Britain, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of August, shall be subject and liable to; and shall pay the same Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties, as are now payable to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, on the Importation of Wines into this Kingdom, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, according to the several and respective Growths thereof.

Wine Lees imported to pay the same Duties as Wine.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties granted by this Act, shall be paid or secured, and shall be raised, levied and collected in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Discounts and Allowances, as are mentioned and expressed in the several Acts of Parliament, which granted or continued the several Subsidies, Impositions, or other Duties upon Wines imported respectively; and all Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles and Clauses therein contained, shall continue in full Force and Effect during the Continuance of the said respective Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties upon Wines, and shall be applied, practised and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, securing, answering, paying and appropriating the said respective Subsidies, Impositions, and other Duties on Wine Lees imported, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Clauses, Matters and Things, had been again repeated in the Body of this present Act; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

How these Duties shall be secured.

IV. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Drawback shall be allowed for any Lees of Wine exported; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Drawback for Wine Lees.

V. And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, Liberty is given for any Person or Persons to import into Great Britain, within the Term of one and twenty Years, to be reckoned from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, directly from any of his Majesty's Plantations or Colonies in America, in any Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, which may lawfully trade to and from the said Plantations or Colonies, and which shall be navigated according to Law, any Sort of Wood, Plank or Timber whatsoever, wrought or unwrought, or any of the Goods called Lumber, in the said Act enumerated, being of the Growth and Product of the said Plantations or Colonies, or some of them (except Masts, Yards and Bowsprits) free from all Customs and Impositions whatsoever granted to his said Majesty, his Heirs or Successors: And whereas Lignum Vitæ being of the Growth or Product of the British Plantations in America, is for the most part made use of by Turners, in making Bowls, Cups, and other necessaries, and particularly in making Blocks, Pullies, and Sheaves for Ships, and Shuttles for Weavers; and forasmuch as some Doubt has arisen, whether Lignum Vitæ, which is rated in the Book of Rates to pay Duty as a Drug, is within the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, though very small Quantities thereof are made use of physically: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Lignum Vitæ imported, or to be imported on the Conditions mentioned in the said Act, after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, shall during the remaining Term of the said one and twenty Years, be free from all Customs and Impositions whatsoever, granted to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, as if the same had been mentioned and expressed in the Body of the said Act; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 Geo. 1. c. 12.

Lignum Vitæ after 24 June 1728. free of Duty. 24 Geo. 2. c. 57.

VI. And whereas upon the aforesaid Doubt, whether Lignum Vitæ, of the Growth and Product of the British Plantations in America, might be imported into this Kingdom free of Duty, several Bonds and Deposits have been taken for answering the Duties demanded for the same, the said Bonds are hereby declared null and void, and discharged from all Prosecutions for the same, and the Deposits shall be delivered up.

Bonds for answering the Duties discharged.

VII. And whereas great Quantities of French Wines and other Wines, are imported in Flasks and Bottles and in small Casks, which are frequently conveyed on Shore without Payment of Duty, to the manifest Loss of the Revenue, and the Detriment of the fair Traders: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, no Wines (other than such as hereafter are mentioned) shall be imported into this Kingdom in Flasks or in Bottles, or in any Vessel or Cask which shall contain less than twenty-five Gallons, upon Pain of forfeiting the same, or the Value thereof; one Moiety of which Forfeiture to be for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them, who will seize, inform or sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Enjoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparance; or by Virtue of any Law or Laws of Excise, for such Forfeiture as shall be incurred in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed; or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for such Forfeiture as shall be incurred in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 29 Nov. 1728. no Wines to be imported in Flasks, Bottles, or Vessels less than 25 Gallons.

VIII. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to prohibit the Importation of Wines of the Growth of the Dominions of the Great Duke of Tuscany in open Flasks, or Wines of the Growth of Turkey, or any other Parts of the Levant Seas, in the same Manner as they have heretofore usually been imported.

Exception.

IX. And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For encouraging of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, several Allowances are to be made to the Exporters of sundry Manufactures of Silk, and Silk mixed with Gold or Silver, and with Grogram, Yarn, Incle or Worsted, to Parts beyond the Seas, upon a Debenture verified by the Searcher, and Oath being made and Security given by the Exporter, not to reland the same in Great Britain; and such Securities are to be discharged (except in Cases otherwise provided for) upon proper Certificates, testifying the landing the said Goods in Parts beyond the Seas; which Certificates in case of any Entry for, or landing the said Goods in Ireland, or in any other Foreign Port or Place, where any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs shall be resident, are to be signed by the proper Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs there; and in case of Entry for any other foreign Ports or Places, such

X. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in the eighth Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for other Purposes there- in mentioned, certain Allowances or Sums of Money are to be paid to the Exporters of Silk Stuffs made in Great Britain, or Silk mixed with Gold or Silver, Groom, Yarn, Ince, Cotton or Worsted, as in the said Act is expressed; and Provision was made in the said Act, that no Allowance should be demanded or made for such of the said Manufactures, when they are only mixed with Silk at the Edge or Ends of the Piece, which not being sufficient to prevent Frauds and Abuses in making those Manufactures, a further Provision was made for that Purpose by another Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, which by Experience has still been found ineffectual, several ill disposed Persons having only put a small Thread of Silk scarce discoverable in the Warp (by which is meant the Length of the Piece) not with Intent to benefit the Sale of the Goods, but with a Design to obtain the Bounty or Allowance on the Exportation, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Acts: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Acts, or either of them, shall not extend or be construed to extend to the making any Allowance on the Exportation of any of the Manufactures of Stuffs aforesaid, mixt with Silk, except the Silk that shall be mixt in the Warp, shall be obvious and apparent to the View of the proper Officers of the Cu- stoms, and that the Silk therein used shall be double the Value of the Bounty intended to be paid on the Exportation of the said Manufactures respectively; any Law or Custom to the con- trary notwithstanding.

An Act for punishing such Persons as shall wilfully and maliciously pull down or destroy Turnpikes for repairing Highways, or Locks or other Works, erected by Authority of Parliament, for making Rivers navigable.

WHEREAS several ill designing and disorderly Persons have in several Parts of this Kingdom associated themselves together both by Day and Night, and cut down, pulled down, burnt, and otherwise destroyed several Turnpike Gates and Houses, which have been erected by the Authority of several Acts of Parliament, made for repairing divers Roads within this Kingdom, by Tolls taken or to be taken at such Turnpikes, and thereby prevented the Toll from being received, which has lessened the Security

Security of divers of his Majesty's good Subjects, for considerable Sums of Money, which they have advanced or lent on the Credit of the said Acts, and deterred others from lending any Money on the same, and thereby the said Acts are become ineffectual, the Laws now in Force not inflicting any Punishment on such Offenders suitable to their Offences; and whereas other evil disposed Persons have threatened the pulling down and destroying of Locks, Sluices and Floodgates, erected to preserve and secure the Navigation of Rivers made navigable pursuant to Acts of Parliament for that Purpose; For preventing such wicked and unlawful Practices for the future, and for rendering the said Acts more effectual: Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, shall either by Day or Night wilfully and maliciously break down, cut down, pluck up, throw down, level, or otherwise destroy any Turnpike Gate or Turnpike Gates, or any Post or Posts, Rail or Rails, Wall or Walls, or other Fence or Fences, belonging to any such Turnpike Gate or Turnpike Gates, erected or to be erected, to prevent Passengers from passing by without paying the Toll directed to be paid by any Act or Acts of Parliament made or to be made for that Purpose, every and all such Person or Persons so offending, being lawfully convicted thereof, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Borough or Corporation, wherein any such Offence or Offences shall be committed, or before the Justices of the Peace in open Sessions (who are hereby authorized and empowered summarily and finally to hear and determine the same) shall be sent to the common Gaol, or else to the House of Correction, there to continue and be kept to hard Labour for the Space of three Months, without Bail or Mainprize; and the said Justices shall also order and adjudge, that such Offender and Offenders shall be, by the Master or Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction as aforesaid, on the first convenient Market Day, once publickly and openly whipt in such City, Town, Borough or Corporation, wherein or near which such Offence shall be committed, at the Market Cross or Market Place there, between the Hours of Eleven and Two of the Clock.

If any Person shall break down any Turnpike, he shall be sent to the common Gaol or House of Correction, for 3 Months. Breaking down Turnpikes made Felony by 5 Geo. 2. c. 33.

and be whipt at the Market Cross.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Person or Persons so convicted shall, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, commit any of the Offences aforesaid a second Time, or if any Person or Persons shall, either by Day or Night, wilfully and maliciously pull down or demolish any House or Houses, erected or to be erected for the Use and Service of any Turnpike Gate or Turnpike Gates, or shall wilfully and maliciously break down or demolish any Lock, Sluice or Floodgate, erected or to be erected by Authority of Parliament upon any navigable River, for preserving or securing the Navigation thereof, and shall be lawfully convicted of the same respectively, upon Indictment before any of his Majesty's Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, or general Gaol Delivery for the County, City, Town, Borough or Corporation, where such Offence or Offences respectively shall be committed, every such Person and Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and every such Felon and Felons shall be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties, as in Cases of Felony; and the Courts by and before whom such Person or Persons shall be tried, shall and hereby have Power and Authority to transport such Felons for the Space of seven Years, in like Manner as other Felons are directed to be transported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Convicted a second Time, or demolishing Locks, to be transported for 7 Years.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in Pursuance of this present Act, that in every such Case the Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and brought in such County or Counties, Place or Places, where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant and Defendants in such Action or Suit to be brought, shall and may plead the General Issue Not Guilty, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by the Authority of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to be done, or that such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other County or Counties, Place or Places, that then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his, her or their Action or Actions after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

General Issue.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be publickly read at every Quarter-Sessions, and at every Leet or Law Day, during the Continuance thereof, and that this Act, and every Part thereof, shall continue in Force for the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

To be read, &c. The Act 5 Geo. 2. c. 33. for making this Act more effectual, is continued by 20 Geo. 2. c. 47.

An Act to explain the Acts of the third and ninth Years of his late Majesty's Reign for continuing the Duty of two Penny Scots on every Pint of Ale and Beer sold in the City of Edinburgh, in relation to the Payment of Petty Port Customs; and for the more effectual securing the Payment of such Money as hath been or shall be contributed towards a charitable Fund for Relief of such as shall suffer by Fire in the said City, and the Suburbs and Liberties thereof.

3 Geo. 2. c. 6. WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duty of two Penny Scots, or one sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, on every Pint of Ale and Beer that shall be vended or sold within the City of Edinburgh, and Privileges thereof, for the Benefit of the said City, and for discontinuing the Payment of the Dues, commonly called The Petty Port Customs, at Edinburgh, during the Continuance of this Act; and by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Term granted by an Act made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign for continuing the Duty of two Penny Scots upon every Pint of Ale and Beer sold in the City of Edinburgh, for the Purposes therein mentioned; and for discontinuing the Payment of the Petty Port Customs there; and for making the said Act more effectual, it is provided and enacted, for the Ease of all such Persons as live in the Neighbourhood of and have Commerce with Edinburgh, That during the Continuance of both the aforesaid Acts of Parliament certain Dues, paid and commonly known by the Name of Petty Port Customs, payable at the Ports of the City of Edinburgh, should be discontinued and cease: And whereas several Doubts and Difficulties and Disputes have arisen, and may yet arise, touching the Import and Meaning of the said Clause or Proviso in the said Acts, by reason that the aforesaid Dues or Petty Port Customs, intended thereby to be discontinued, are not therein particularly specified and described, so as the same may be distinguished from such other Parts of the Petty Customs belonging to the said City, as were not intended by the said Clause or Clauses in the Acts aforesaid, or either of them, to be discontinued: Therefore for explaining thereof, and for preventing any Doubts or Disputes for the future, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such Parts of the aforesaid Petty Port Customs, to be discontinued as aforesaid, shall be and they are hereby limited and restrained to the Customs usually levied and collected at any Gate or Gates, Avenue or Avenues of the said City of Edinburgh, for such Ale, Beer, Wines, Spirits and foreign Liquors as shall be brought in there for private Use, and not for Sale, and for all Manner of Wares, all Grain, great or small, of any Kind, and for all Hay, Grass, Straw, Lint, Lint-seed and Rape-seed of the Growth of Great Britain, and Wool and Wool manufactured, Skins and Hides dressed and undressed, and for Linen Cloth of all Sorts, being the Produce of Great Britain, and for Meal, Malt and Cheese, and for all Stones, Lime, Timber and all other Materials for building, all Coals, Peats, Turfs, Tallow and all Manner of Household Furniture which shall be brought into the said City of Edinburgh or Liberties thereof, by Horses, Carts, Carriages, Sledges, Slyphes or any other Manner of way.

Petty Port Customs described.

Demanding any Duty for Goods described forfeits 20s. Sterling.

Not to prevent the Payment of Duties here enumerated.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall presume to demand or take any Duty for any of the Goods herein before specified and described (except as herein is after excepted) every such Person and Persons, being thereof lawfully convicted before any Judge competent, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling to the Owner or Owners of such Goods, for which any Duty shall be demanded and taken.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing herein contained shall extend to, or prevent, or prejudice the Payment of the Duty, called The Cawsey Mail, or Duty on Shod Carts, payable to the said City; and also all Duties chargeable on all Ale, Beer, Wine, Spirits and foreign Liquors which are for Sale; and all Duties chargeable upon all Coals, Peats, Turfs and Timber to be imported or brought in from Leith into the said City or Liberties thereof by Carts, Sledges or Slyphes; and also all Duties chargeable upon Horses and Hackney Coaches, and all Duties upon all Sugars, Tobaccos and Soap; and the Duties chargeable upon all Timbers, Lint, Lint-seed and Rape-seed not of the Produce of Great Britain; and on all Hemp, Iron, Tar and other foreign Commodities which shall be brought in on Carts, Sledges or Slyphes, Horses Burthens or any other Manner of way whatsoever, into the said City or Privileges thereof, from every Place; and the Duties on all Goods whatsoever, other than those particularly exempted from the same as before mentioned, which shall be brought in on Carts, Sledges or Slyphes into the said City or Liberties thereof, by any Person who is a common Carter; and that the said City shall continue to enjoy, levy and receive the other Customs and Duties to them belonging, as particularly after specified, videlicet, the Meal and Corn Market Customs, the Fish Market Customs, and Board Mails, the Fruit Market Customs, the Poultry and Bread Market Customs, Stand and Board Mails, the Land Cloth Market, the Land Flesh Market Customs, the Dues and Customs of the Tallow, Iron, Weighage, the Customs chargeable on all Sorts of Cattle at the House of the Muir, and Sheep Flashes, the Custom of one Mark upon each Pack of all foreign Goods, the Custom of Bush Mail for all Timber and other Goods brought into the Timber Hoff or Bush at Leith, the Shore Dues, one Mark per Tun of Goods and other Duties payable for all Goods imported to or exported from the Harbour of Leith, the Duties and and Customs payable for Weighage and Lpage, and of all Goods whatever weighed or lodged in the Weigh-houses of Edinburgh or Leith, the Market Custom for Leather, and the Import or Duty on Wines, Spirits or foreign Liquors, with all other Duties and Customs belonging to the said City not hereby expressly discontinued as aforesaid; and that the said several Dues, Duties and Customs last mentioned shall be, remain and be paid in such Manner, and by such Means and Methods, as they were made payable before the passing of this or the above in Part recited Acts; any Thing herein, or in the above in Part recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas the Houses and Buildings in the said City of Edinburgh, and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, are much exposed to Fire by reason of the Nearness to each other and the Height thereof, many Families inhabiting under one and the same Roof; and whereas for the Relief of such Persons as shall suffer by Fire, many of the Owners and Proprietors of Houses and Buildings within the said City, Suburbs and Liberties, have (with the Consent and Approbation of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the said City) entered into mutual Covenants and Agreements to subject themselves to the Payment of certain small Sums (in Proportion to the Value and Extent of their Property) to create and establish a General charitable Fund or Stock for their mutual Relief in case of Accidents by Fire, to be put under the Directions and Management of Persons chosen by the Contributors to such General charitable Fund, which by Experience has been found to be much for the Benefit and Advantage of the said City, Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and will be much more useful and beneficial, if the Bonds given or entered into by the Contributors as aforesaid, could be made a real Charge upon such Houses or Buildings for which such Contribution was made, without taking Infeoffment, the Expence whereof will in many Cases exceed the Sum mentioned in such Bond: Now for promoting and encouraging so good and charitable a Design, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the fifth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight it shall and may be lawful to and for the Managers or Directors of the said General charitable Fund or Stock for the Time being, and their Successors in Office, to take and receive from such Person and Persons as hath or have signed, or entered into the Articles or Covenants for contributing, or shall hereafter sign or enter into Articles or Covenants to contribute to the said General Fund or Stock, a Bond or Bonds, carrying Interest payable to such Person as is or shall be appointed Cashier to the said Contributors for the Time being, and his Successors in the said Office, for such Sum or Sums of Money as hath, have or shall be contributed by such Person or Persons as hath, have or shall sign such Articles or Covenants for the said General charitable Fund for the Purposes aforesaid; and the said Cashier for the Time being, and his Successors in Office shall, and he is hereby required with all convenient Speed to carry, deliver or tender, or cause to be carried, tended or delivered such Bond and Bonds so given as aforesaid, to the Office kept by the Clerk, or Keeper of the Register for Seizins within and for the said City of Edinburgh; and the said Clerk and Keeper of the said Register is hereby directed and required to register such Bond and Bonds, and to deliver back the same duly registered within twenty-four Hours after such Bond or Bonds is and are offered at such Register-Office, with a Certificate upon the Back of each Bond so tended or delivered, duly signed by the Clerk or Keeper of such Register, mentioning the Day and Time of the Day such Bond shall be registered, and also the Book and Page or Pages of such Book wherein such Bond or Bonds is or are registered or recorded; and such Clerk or Keeper shall and may demand for registering of each Bond, and writing and signing the Certificate thereof, the Sum of one Shilling Sterling, and no more; and that such Sum and Sums of Money due or to grow due upon such Bond or Bonds shall, from and after the Day and Time the same shall be so registered and certified, be and the same is and are hereby declared and enacted to be a real Charge and Incumbrance upon such House, Tenement, Houses or Tenements, Building or Buildings, for or in Consideration whereof such Bond or Bonds was or were given or entered into; and that in all Cases where there shall happen to be any Dispute between Creditors or other Claimants, such Bond and Bonds shall be classed, ranked and preferred according to the Day and Time of the Day the same was or were registered and shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be of the same Validity, Force and Effect, as if formal Infeoffments had been taken on such Bond and Bonds of the Date of which the same shall respectively be registered; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Penalty on mixing Malt of different Wettings.

XI. AND whereas many Malsters or Makers of Malt, in order to the defrauding his Majesty of the Duty and preventing the Officers from taking and keeping a true Account of the Corn or Grain by them steeping or steeped, and making into Malt, do in the Absence of the Officers remove Part of their Corn or Grain out of the Cistern or Wetting Vat, and mix the same with Corn or Grain of a former Wetting, and supply the Place of the Corn or Grain so removed with fresh Corn or Grain, and do also mix their several Couches and Floors in such Manner, that the Officers for the said Duties cannot distinguish one Wetting from another: For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That during the Continuance of the Duties upon Malt no Malster or Maker of Malt, other than Compounders for the said Duties, shall, during the Continuance of the said Duties, mix or cause to be mixed his, her or their Corn or Grain making into Malt of one Wetting or Steeping, or any Part thereof, with his, her or their Corn or Grain making into Malt of a former Wetting or Steeping, or any Part thereof, or shall mix or cause to be mixed any of his, her or their Couches or Floors, with any Corn or Grain of a former Wetting or Steeping, before the same is put on the Kiln for drying, on Pain of Forfeiture of the Sum of five Shillings for every Bushel of Corn so mixed contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

Penalty how to be levied.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Forfeiture of five Shillings for every Bushel shall be sued for, recovered, levied and mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and that one Moiety of such Forfeiture shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform or sue for the same.

An Act for raising the Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds by Sale of Annuities to the Bank of England, after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and for applying the Produce of the Sinking Fund.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

22 Ann. c. 9.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for laying additional Duties on Soap and Paper, and upon certain Linens, Silks, Callicoes and Stuffs, and upon Starch and exported Coals, and upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, for raising one million four hundred thousand Pounds by way of a Lottery, for her Majesty's Supply, and for Allowances on exporting made Wares of Leather, Sheep Skins and Lamb Skins, and for Distribution of four thousand Pounds due to the Officers and Seamen for Gun-Money, and to adjust the Property of Tickets in former Lotteries; and touching certain Shares of Stock in the Capital of the South-Sea Company; and for appropriating the Monies granted to her Majesty, certain Duties, Rates, or Impositions or additional Duties, Rates or Impositions on Soap, Paper, and upon certain Linens, Silks, Callicoes and Stuffs, and upon Starch and exported Coals, and upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, were thereby granted to her Majesty for a Term or Terms of thirty-two Years, to be reckoned from the second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and the yearly Sum of one hundred and five thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, in case the same should extend thereto, should be computed and reckoned a yearly Fund, and in case the Monies arising into the Exchequer for the said Duties should not amount to the Sum of one hundred and five thousand Pounds per Annum, then the Monies so arising should be Part of the yearly Fund, towards answering and paying certain principal Sums therein after appointed to be paid, for the fortunate and blank Tickets in the Lottery thereby established, amounting together to one million eight hundred seventy seventy-six thousand four hundred Pounds, with Interest after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, with certain Provisions for supplying the Deficiency of the said Fund of one hundred and five thousand Pounds per Annum from Time to Time, in case the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions should not be sufficient for that Purpose; and by the same Act all the Monies arising by the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, not exceeding one hundred and five thousand Pounds per Annum, were appropriated to pay off the said several principal Sums with Interest in the Order and Course thereby directed; and by the same Act the annual Surplus of the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, beyond one hundred and five thousand Pounds per Annum, was reserved for the Disposition of Parliament; and it was also provided by the said Act, That if before the End of the said Term of thirty-two Years all the said Principal and Interest Monies, and all other Payments and Charges by Virtue of the said Act, should be fully paid and discharged, then and from thenceforth the said Duties, Rates and Sums of Money thereby charged, and the Monies arising thereby, should be reserved for the Use of the Publick, and should be disposed of by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwise: And whereas by another Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of the Commissioners for the Land-Tax for the Year one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, and for raising so much as is wanting to make up the Sum of fourteen hundred thousand Pounds intended to be raised by a Lottery for the publick Service in the said Year, amongst other Things it is enacted, That yearly and every Year, during the said thirty-two Years, the Sum of one hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred and seventy-three Pounds twelve Shillings (in lieu of the aforesaid yearly Sum of one hundred and five thousand Pounds) to arise by or out of the Monies arising by the said additional or new Duties by the before recited Act granted, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, in case the same should extend thereto, should be computed and reckoned the yearly Fund, and in case the Monies arising into the Exchequer shall not amount to one hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred seventy-three Pounds twelve Shillings per Annum, then Part of the yearly Fund, towards the answering and paying off all and every the said principal Sums, amounting to one million eight hundred seventy-six thousand four hundred Pounds, with Interest for the same after the respective Rates therein after mentioned, that is to say, after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum for so much thereof as should be contained in the fortunate Tickets to be drawn in Pursuance of the said Acts, and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum for so much of the said principal Sums as should be contained in the other Tickets, commonly called Blank Tickets, to be drawn pursuant to the same Acts, with proper Provisions for making good the Deficiencies of the said new Fund of one hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred seventy-three Pounds twelve Shillings per Annum, as by the said recited Acts, Relation thereunto respectively being had, more fully may appear: And whereas so much of the said principal Sum as was contained in the said fortunate Tickets, carrying an Interest after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, did amount to the Sum of seven hundred and nineteen thousand and forty Pounds, and so much thereof as was contained in the said blank Tickets carrying an Interest after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, did amount to the Sum of one million one hundred and fifty-seven thousand three hundred and sixty Pounds, both which Sums together make the said Sum of one million eight hundred seventy-six thousand four hundred Pounds: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For enabling the South-Sea Company to enlarge the Capital Stock and Fund of the said Company, the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions were continued for ever, and thereby the then remaining principal Sums charged thereon, were impowered to be taken into the Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company, and the said Company was to be intitled to an Annuity after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, for so much of the said principal Sums carrying Interest at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, as should be so taken into their Capital Stock; and as to so much of the said principal Sums carrying an Interest after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, as should be taken into the said Capital Stock, the said Company were to be intitled to an Annuity after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the Feast-Day of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and from and after the said Feast-Day then to an Annuity after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, in lieu of the former Interest or Annuity payable for the same, and to be charged on the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions; and also by Virtue of the said Act the said South-Sea Company were to be intitled to an additional Allowance for Charges of Management, to be afterwards settled and adjusted in respect of the whole Increase of their Capital by Virtue of that Act, to be charged proportionally on the respective Duties and Revenues on which the respective Debts that should be taken into their Capital were then charged: And whereas in Pursuance of the last recited Act the several following principal Sums were subscribed or taken into the Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company, videlicet, So many of the said principal Sums, carrying an Interest after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, as amounted together to the principal Sum of five hundred thirty-eight thousand seven hundred and twenty Pounds; and so many of the said principal Sums, carrying an Interest after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, as amounted together to the principal Sum of eight hundred sixty-five thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, both which principal Sums make together the principal Sum of one million four hundred and three thousand nine hundred and seventy Pounds, in respect whereof the said Company are now intitled to an Annuity of fifty-six thousand one hundred and fifty-eight Pounds sixteen Shillings, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum for the said principal Sum of one million four hundred and three thousand nine hundred and seventy Pounds, redeemable by Parliament, charged on the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions: And whereas the additional Allowance to the said Company, by Virtue of the last recited Act, for Charges of Management, hath been settled and adjusted at twelve thousand Pounds per Annum, and the proportional Part thereof, in respect of the said Sum of one million four hundred and three thousand nine hundred and seventy Pounds, which by Virtue of the said last recited Act is charged or chargeable upon the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, amounts by Computation to the yearly Sum of six hundred forty-six Pounds twelve Shillings and two Pence Half-penny: And whereas all the Rest and Residue of the several principal Sums so as aforesaid charged on the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixteen thousand five hundred seventy-three Pounds and twelve Shillings, to arise out of the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions (over and beyond the Sums so as aforesaid taken into the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company) have been paid off and discharged, by Means whereof and of the Provisions in the said last recited Act, the said former Fund is ceased and determined, and the said additional Rates, Duties or Impositions stand now charged only with the said Annuity of fifty-six thousand one hundred and fifty-eight Pounds sixteen Shillings, payable to the South-Sea Company, redeemable by Parliament, and the said proportional annual Sum of six hundred forty-six Pounds twelve Shillings and two Pence Half-penny, penny, payable to the said Company for Charges of Management as aforesaid, and subject thereto, the Surplus of the Monies arising from the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions is liable to the Disposition of Parliament: And whereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have consented and agreed to advance and pay into the Receipt of your Majesty's Exchequer the Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, at the Times and in Manner herein after mentioned, for the Purchase of an Annuity of fifty thousand Pounds to be paid to them and their Successors for ever, subject to Redemption by Parliament, to be charged on the said Surplus Monies to arise for the additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, so subject as aforesaid: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous effectually to enable your Majesty to secure and preserve the Commerce, Privileges and Possessions of your Majesty and your Subjects, and the Balance of Power in Europe, by a just, safe and honourable Peace, and at the same Time to raise the Supplies which we have cheerfully granted to your Majesty, for these Purposes in the easiest Manner we are able, for the Benefit of your Majesty, have freely and voluntarily given and granted, and by this Act do give and grant to your Majesty the Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, to be raised in such Manner and Form as is herein after directed; and to that End do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That yearly and every Year, from and after the Feast-Day of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, a certain yearly Sum or Fund of fifty thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or upon the Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds to be raised by this Act, be settled and established and be payable in the Manner and Form herein after expressed and declared, for satisfying the Annuities to be purchased in Pursuance of this Act from Time to Time, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso or Provisoes herein after for that Purpose contained.

II. And for the better securing and establishing the said Fund, it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said yearly Fund or Sum of fifty thousand Pounds shall be and is hereby charged upon, and payable out of all the Overplus or Surplus Monies of the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, so granted as aforesaid, which shall from time to time remain in the Exchequer, after satisfying or reserving there sufficient to satisfy so much as shall be incurred or grown due to the said South Sea Company upon their said Annuity, and additional Allowance for Charges of Management; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall, and they are hereby required quarterly in every Year, after the said Feast-Day of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, viz. on the respective Feast-Days of Saint Michael the Archangel, of the Nativity of our Lord Christ, of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, in each Year, or within six Days after such Feast-Days respectively, to cause the Overplus or Surplus Monies of the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, to be computed accordingly, and to cause such Surplus or Overplus Monies as shall appear upon such respective Computations, from time to time, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, to be set apart, reserved and applied for and towards the making good the said yearly Fund or Sum of fifty thousand Pounds, or the quarterly Proportions thereof, without diverting or misapplying any of the Monies, which, by the said Act of the sixth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, ought to be reserved or applied for or towards satisfying the said Annuity or additional Allowance to the said South Sea Company.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, and they are hereby required and enjoined to advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, the full and intire Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, in Manner following; that is to say, One Moiety thereof on or before the second Day of April which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and the other Moiety on or before the sixth Day of October which shall be in the said Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; and that in case the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall make Failure in Payment of the said Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Tenor of the Directions hereby given or enacted for Payment thereof, then the Money whereof such Failure in Payment shall be made, shall and may be recovered in his Majesty's Name, for the Uses and Purposes of this Act, by Action of Debt or upon the Case, Bill, Suit or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Escoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be granted or allowed; in which Action, Bill, Suit or Information, it shall be lawful to declare, that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England are indebted to his Majesty the Monies whereof they shall have made Default in Payment, according to the Form of this Statute, and have not paid the same, which shall be sufficient; and in or upon such Action, Suit, Bill or Information, there shall be further recovered to his Majesty's Use, against the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, Damages after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum for the Monies so unpaid contrary to this Act, besides full Costs of Suit, and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Capital Stocks and Funds, shall be and are hereby made subject and liable thereto.

IV. Provided always, That in case the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, shall judge it convenient for his Majesty's Service, that any Part or Parts of the said Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds so as aforesaid appointed to be paid by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, should be paid in Advance by them on any Day or Days before or sooner than any of the respective Days before appointed for Payment of the same in Moieties, and the same Governor and Company shall voluntarily voluntarily consent to pay the same in Advance accordingly; that then and in every such case the said Commissioners of the Treasury or Lord High Treasurer may, and have hereby Power to allow to the same Governor and Company, out of every such Payment in Advance, a Rebate or Discount, after a Rate not exceeding four Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Monies so paid in Advance, from the respective Day or Days of such Payment, to the Day on which the same is herein before appointed to be paid as aforesaid.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on Payment by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of the said Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, at the Times and in Manner aforesaid, the said Governor and Company, and their Successors and Assigns, shall be intitled to have, receive and enjoy, at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer aforesaid, by and out of the said yearly Fund by this Act established as aforesaid, one Annuity or yearly Sum of fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to commence from the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and to be paid and payable to them, their Successors and Assigns, by quarterly Payments, at the Feasts of Saint Michael the Archangel, of the Birth of our Lord Christ, of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist in every Year, by even and equal Portions for ever, until Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the proviso or provisos herein after for that Purpose contained, and that the said Annuity or yearly Sum of fifty thousand Pounds, and every Part thereof, shall be free from all Manner of Taxes, Impositions or Charges whatsoever.

On Payment of the Money, Bank intitled to the Annuity.

VI. And for the better and more regular Payment of the said Annuity of fifty thousand Pounds to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, their Successors and Assigns for ever, subject to Redemption as aforesaid, an Order or Orders shall be signed by the Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, for the Payment thereof; and after the signing thereof, the same shall be good, valid and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them or any of them, nor shall any Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Order or Orders so signed as aforesaid.

Treasury to sign Orders for Payment of the Annuity.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, That the said Annuity of fifty thousand Pounds, and every Part thereof, shall be adjudged to be a Personal and not a Real Estate, and shall not be liable to any foreign Attachment; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Annuity a Personal Estate, &c.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, the Overplus or Surplus Monies of the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, shall be so low or deficient, as that the Monies arisen therefrom into the Exchequer, at the End of any the said quarterly Feasts, shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge the Quarter's Annuity then due and payable, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, then and so often and in every such Case, the Deficiency of any such Quarter shall and may be supplied out of the Overplus Monies of the said additional Rates, Duties and Impositions, arising in any subsequent Quarter; and in case at any Time or Times after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, such Produce shall be so low or deficient at the End of any one Year (computing the same to end at Christmas Day yearly) as that the same shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge the whole Year's Annuity then grown due, then every such yearly Deficiency shall, from Time to Time, be answered and made good by and out of the first Supplies, which shall be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiency shall appear; and in case no such Supplies shall be granted within six Months next after such Deficiency shall happen, then the same shall be made good out of any of the Monies which at any Time or Times shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies commonly called The Sinking Fund (except such Monies of the same Sinking Fund, as are appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf) and such Monies of the said Sinking Fund shall and may be, from Time to Time, issued and applied accordingly.

How Deficiency shall be made good.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatever Monies shall be so issued out of the said Sinking Fund, shall from Time to Time be replaced thereto by and out of the first Supplies to be then after granted in Parliament.

Monies issued out of the Sinking Fund, to be replaced.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said additional Duties or Impositions, at the End of any one Year (computing the same to end at Christmas Day yearly) after the said Annuity of fifty thousand Pounds and all Arrears thereof are satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall from Time to Time be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be issued but by Authority of Parliament, and as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Surplus to be disposed of by Parliament.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors or Assigns, of the said Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, without any Deduction, Discount or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the same or any Part thereof, and of all Arrears of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of fifty thousand Pounds, then and not till then, the said Annuity or yearly Sum shall from thenceforth cease and be understood to be redeemed; and from and after such Redemption, the Monies arising by the said Surplus or Overplus Monies of the said additional Duties, Rates or Impositions, shall not be issued or applied to any Use or Purpose, but as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in this or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Repayment of the Money to the Bank, Annuity to cease.

After 24 June 1730. on Payment of a Sum not less than 500,000l. a proportional Part of the Annuity to cease.

XII. And in regard it is intended that the said Annuity or yearly Sum of seventy thousand Pounds, may be redeemed by any Payments not less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time, and that as the said Principal Money shall be paid off, the said Annuity shall proportionably sink and be abated; Be it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times after the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, Payment be made to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England of any Sum or Sums of Money (not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time) in Part of the said Principal Sum at which the said Annuity is redeemable, and also if Payment be then also made of all Arrears of the said Annuity, then from and after every such Payment so made, so much of the said Annuity, as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in Part of the said whole Principal Sum, shall cease, determine, and be understood to be redeemed; any Thing in this or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank to continue
a Corporation till Redemption of the whole Sum.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors, shall continue and be a Corporation, and shall enjoy all the Capacities, Powers, Privileges and Advantages to them as a Corporation belonging, until the compleat Redemption of the whole of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of fifty thousand Pounds, according to the before mentioned Provisions for that Purpose; any former or other Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bank may transfer the Annuity.

XIV. And for the better enabling the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England at all Times hereafter to support their own and the publick Credit, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company shall or may, and they are hereby impowered, at any Time or Times hereafter, to assign, transfer, or otherwise to dispose of the said Annuity or yearly Sum of fifty thousand Pounds by this Act established, every or any Part or Parcel, Parts or Parcels thereof, to any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, in such Manner and Form as the said Governor and Company shall think proper; subject nevertheless to such Redemption by Parliament as aforesaid, and without Power to enlarge their Capital Stock by or out of the same.

7 Ann. c. 7.

XV. And whereas in Pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising a further Supply to her Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England did become intituled to a certain Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, being after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in respect of the Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand and twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, being the Amount of certain Exchequer-Bills by the said Act directed to be delivered up by the said Governor and Company to be cancelled, which Annuity was thereby charged on certain Duties on Houses therein mentioned, and was made redeemable by Parliament on Repayment to the same Governor and Company of the said Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand and twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for redeeming several Funds of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, pursuant to former Provisions of Redemption, and for securing to them several new Funds and Allowances redeemable by Parliament, and for obliging them to advance further Sums not exceeding two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, at five Pounds per Centum, as shall be found necessary to be employed in lessening the national Debts and Incumbrances, and for continuing certain Provisions made for the Expence of his Majesty's Civil Government, and for Payment of Annuities formerly purchased at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum, and for other Purposes in this Act mentioned, the said Duty on Houses, on which the said last mentioned Annuity was charged, was added to and made Part of the Aggregate Fund established by the said Act; and the said Annuity of one hundred and six thousand five hundred and one Pounds thirteen Shillings and five Pence, was thereby reduced to an Annuity of eighty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny, redeemable by Parliament, being after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in respect of the said Sum of one million seven hundred seventy-five thousand and twenty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and ten Pence Half-penny; and by or in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England became intituled to one other Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for or in respect of the Sum of two millions, being the Amount of certain other Exchequer Bills by the same Act directed to be delivered up by the same Governor and Company to be cancelled, which last mentioned Annuity was thereby charged on the said Aggregate Fund, and was made redeemable by Parliament on Repayment, to the same Governor and Company, of the said Sum of two millions: And whereas by a subsequent Act of Parliament, Receiver of the Duties to appoint Collectors in the Ports of the said Islands, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Increase and Encouragement of Seamen, and an Act made in the eighth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enforce the Act for the Increase and Encouragement of Seamen, and also another Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better collecting and recovering the Duties granted for the Support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, and for the further Benefit thereof, and for the Preserving her Majesty's Harbour Moorings, there was given and established, for the Support of the said Hospital, a Duty of six Pence per Menssem, payable by all Seamen; and particularly by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, it was (amongst other things) enacted, That the said Duty should be paid by every Seaman, and other Person whatsoever, that should serve or be employed by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, in any of her Majesty's Ships, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of the Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, or Dominions thereunto belonging, and by every Master or Owner navigating his own Ship or Vessel, whether employed upon the High Sea or Coasts of the same, or in any Port, Bay or Creek, other than and except such Persons, as by the said last mentioned Act are excepted and exempted from Payment of the said Duty; and it was, by the said last mentioned Act, further enacted, That for the better levying and collecting the said Duty it should be lawful for the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, to appoint such Person or Persons, as he or they should think fit, to be Receiver or Receivers of the said Duty, and also to authorize such Receiver or Receivers to depute and appoint the Collectors, or other Officers of the Customs of the several Out Ports of this Kingdom, and of the Ports of the Kingdom of Ireland, or such others, as he or they should think fit, to collect and receive the same, which Power not extending to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, nor to his Majesty's Colonies, Islands and Dominions in America, the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem has not hitherto been collected in any of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions, notwithstanding the general Direction in the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, that the same should be paid by all Masters, Owners, Seamen, and others employed in any Ships or Vessels belonging to any of his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, to the great Loss and Prejudice of the said Hospital: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several Acts heretofore made concerning the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, and every Clause, Penalty, Power and Thing therein contained, and not altered by this present Act, shall extend, and from henceforth be construed, adjudged, deemed, and taken to extend, to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, within the said Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and every of them respectively, and within all and every his Majesty's Colonies, Islands and Dominions in America, as well as to those within Great Britain and Ireland; and that from henceforth every Seaman, and other Person whatsoever, that shall serve or be employed in any Ships or Vessels belonging, or that shall belong, to any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, within the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or any of them respectively, or within any of his Majesty's Colonies, Islands or Dominions in America, and every Master or Owner working his own Ship or Vessel, whether the same be employed upon the High Sea or in any Port, Harbour, Bay or Creek; other than such Apprentices under the Age of eighteen Years, as are exempted from Payment of six Pence per Menssem, by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, and such Person or Persons as shall be employed in any Boat upon any the Coasts of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions respectively, in taking Fish, which are brought fresh on Shore, to be consumed in the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions respectively, and every Person and Persons employed in Boats or Vessels, that trade only from Place to Place within any River of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions respectively, or in any open Boats upon the Coasts of the same; shall pay, and there shall be allowed and paid by every such Master, Owner, Seaman or other Person employed, or that shall be employed as aforesaid (except such Persons as are herein before excepted) the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, of lawful Money of Great Britain, or the Value thereof in the Money of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions respectively, and proportionably for a shorter Time than a Month, during the Time he or they shall be employed in, or belong to any such Ship or Vessel, for the better Support of the said Hospital, and to augment the Revenues thereof, for the Purposes in the said several recited Acts mentioned; which said Duty shall be paid by the Masters, Commanders and Owners of all and every such Ships and Vessels respectively, who are hereby authorized, impowered and required to deduct and detain the same out of the Wages, Shares or other Profits payable or accruing to every Seaman or other Person employed in any such Ship or Vessel, and liable to the Payment of the said Duty, if such Seaman or other Person shall have or be intitled to any such Wages, Shares or Profits.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better and more easy collecting and levying the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem in the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and in his Majesty's Colonies, Islands and Dominions in America, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons, who is, are or shall be appointed Receiver or Receivers of the said Duty, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, to depute and appoint any Officer or Officers of the Customs of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in the several Ports of the said Islands, Colonies and Dominions respectively, or such other Person or Persons, as he or they shall think fit, to collect the same; which said Collectors, so to be appointed, are hereby authorized and required to collect the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem in the several Ports of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and of every of them respectively, and also in the Ports of all and every his Majesty's Colonies, Islands and Dominions in America, according to such Instructions as shall from Time to Time be sent to them in Writing by such Receiver or Receivers

Receivers; and for the said Collector's Care and Pains therein, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, to make such Allowances to them out of the said Duty, as he or they shall judge reasonable.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Collectors of the said Duty in the Ports of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and in the Ports of the said Colonies, Islands and Dominions in America, so to be appointed as aforesaid, and every of them respectively for the Time being, shall be, and is, and are hereby fully authorized and required to summon and examine upon Oath all and every the Masters, Commanders and Owners of all Ships or Vessels belonging to any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, within the said Islands, Colonies and Dominions, or any of them respectively, in such and the same Manner as the Receiver or Receivers of the said Duty, and his or their Deputy or Deputies are authorized and impowered by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, to summon and examine the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland; and if any such Master, Commander or Owner of any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, within the said Islands, Colonies and Dominions, or any of them respectively, shall refuse or neglect, when summoned, to appear or to make such Discovery upon Oath, as by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE is required (which Oath such Collectors for the Time being, and every of them respectively, is and are hereby impowered and required to administer) then and in every such case, every such Master, Commander and Owner, shall for every such Refusal or Neglect forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, or the Value thereof in the Money of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions where the same shall be incurred, to be recovered and applied in such Manner and to such Uses as in that Behalf is herein after mentioned and directed.

Collectors may examine Masters, &c. on Oath.

Masters, &c. refusing, forfeit 20l.

Traders from the Islands to Great Britain, &c. to pay such Part of the Duty as shall be due at their Arrival in Great Britain, &c.

and the other Part at their Return.

Traders from Great Britain, &c. to pay only here.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Ships or Vessels belonging to any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, within the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, or any of them, or within any of his Majesty's Colonies, Islands or Dominions in America, who shall trade or sail from the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions, or any of them, to Great Britain or Ireland and back again to the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions, shall pay such Part and Proportion of the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, as shall be due from such Masters, Commanders and Owners respectively at the Time of their Arrival, and during their Continuance in Great Britain or Ireland, within the said Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and such Part and Proportion thereof as shall be due from them respectively, at the Time of their Return to, and during their Continuance in the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions, within the said Islands, Colonies and Dominions respectively; and that all and every the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Ships or Vessels belonging to any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, within the said Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or either of them, who shall trade or sail from Great Britain or Ireland, to any of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions, and back again to Great Britain or Ireland, shall pay the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem only in the said Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and no Part thereof in any of the said Islands, Colonies or Dominions.

V. And whereas by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Ships in his Majesty's Service, are exempted from being summoned and examined by the Receivers of the said Duty, and their Deputies, in such Manner as the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Merchant Ships and other private Vessels are thereby made liable to, and also from the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby imposed and inflicted for refusing to obey such Summons and make such Discovery as by the said last mentioned Act is required, and for neglecting to pay the said Duty within the Time thereby limited for Payment thereof, which Exemption has been claimed by and allowed to the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Merchant Ships and other private Vessels hired and employed by the Commissioners or other Officers of the Navy, Victualling, Ordnance, Customs, Post-Office and other publick Offices of the Crown, whereby the Masters, Commanders, Owners and Sailors belonging to such Ships and Vessels have often avoided the Payment of the said Duty, contrary to the true Meaning of the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, which only intended to exempt the Commanders and other Officers of his Majesty's Ships of War from such Summons, Examinations and Penalties: For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Receiver and Receivers of the said Duty so appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, and his or their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to summon and examine upon Oath all and every the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Merchant Ships and other Vessels hired or employed, or that at any Time hereafter shall be hired or employed by the Commissioners, or other Officers of the Navy, Victualling, Ordnance, Customs, Post-Office or any other publick Office or Offices of the Crown, for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in such and the same Manner as such Receiver or Receivers, and his or their Deputy or Deputies, are by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, and by this present Act, directed and impowered to summon and examine the Masters, Commanders and Owners of other Merchant Ships and private Vessels; and if any such Master, Commander or Owner of any Ship or Vessel hired or employed, or to be hired or employed by the Commissioners, or other Officers of any such publick Office or Offices, for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors as aforesaid, shall refuse to appear, or to make such Discovery upon Oath, as by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE is required to be made by the Masters, Commanders and Owners of other Merchant Ships and private Vessels (which Oath such Receiver or Receivers, and his or their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, and every of them respectively, is and are hereby impowered and required to administer) or shall neglect to pay such Monies as shall from Time to Time be due to the said Hospital, from such Master, Commander or Owner respectively, for or on Account of the said Duty, within the Time herein after limited and appointed for Payment thereof, then and in every such Case every such Master, Commander and Owner of any Ship or Vessel so hired or employed, or to be hired or employed by the Commissioners, or other

Masters of Merchant Ships hired by Commissioners of Navy, &c. may be examined by the Receivers, on Refusal to be examined, forfeit 20l.

other Officers of any such publick Office or Offices, for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors as aforesaid, so refusing or neglecting, shall for every such Refusal or Neglect forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be recovered and applied in such Manner and for such Uses as in that Behalf is herein after mentioned and directed.

Secretaries of the publick Offices to give in a List of Ships employed in their Service.

VI. And for the easier and more effectual collecting the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem of and from the Masters, Commanders and Owners of Merchant Ships, and other private Vessels hired or employed, or that shall be hereafter hired or employed by the Commissioners, or other Officers of such publick Offices as aforesaid, for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Secretaries or Chief Clerks of the Navy Office, Admiralty Office, Office of Ordnance, Custom-House, Post-Office, and all other publick Offices of the Crown, usually hiring or employing Ships or Vessels for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall once in every Year yearly, upon the first Day of January in each Year, or within twenty Days next following at the farthest, give and deliver to or into the Office of the Receiver or Receivers of the said Duty in the Port of London, a true and exact List or Account of the Number and Names of all and every the Ships or Vessels that in the Year preceding every such Account shall have been hired or employed by the Commissioners, or other Officers of every such Office respectively, for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and of all and every the Ships and Vessels which, at the Time of delivering in such Account, remain in the Service of every such Office respectively, and of all such as between every such Account shall be discharged from such Service, and of the Names of the Masters, Commanders and Owners of all and every such Ships and Vessels respectively, and also of the Numbers of Seamen, or other Persons that shall from Time to Time be employed in every such Ship or Vessel; and that no Treasurer, Paymaster or other Officer of or belonging to any such publick Office or Offices, shall make out or pay any Bill for the Freight of any Ship or Vessel so hired or employed, or to be hired or employed for or in the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors as aforesaid, or pay any Wages to any Master, Commander, Seaman or other Person employed or that shall be employed in any such Ship or Vessel, until every such Master, Commander or Owner respectively shall and do produce and shew unto such Treasurer, Paymaster or other Officer respectively, an Acquittance or Certificate signed by the said Receiver or Receivers, or his or their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, whereby it shall appear that such Master, Commander or Owner hath duly and fully paid and discharged the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, and that he is not more than thirty Days in Arrear to the said Hospital; and in case any Default, Neglect or Omission shall be made by any such Secretary, Chief Clerk, Treasurer, Paymaster or other Officer of or belonging to any of the said publick Offices respectively, in any of the Acts, Matters or Things hereby directed to be by them respectively done and performed as aforesaid, or shall in any wise act contrary to the before mentioned Directions, then and in every of the said Cases every such Secretary, Chief Clerk, Treasurer, Paymaster and other Officer, so making Default, Neglect or Omission, or acting contrary to such Directions as aforesaid, shall for every such Act, Default, Neglect or Omission, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be recovered and applied in such Manner and for such Uses as in that Behalf is herein after mentioned and directed.

Treasurer of the said Offices to pay no Wages to any Master, till he produce an Acquittance from the Receiver, on Penalty of 50l.

Masters to pay the Duty before they are cleared inwards by the Custom House.

VII. And whereas by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE, the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem is directed to be paid by the Masters, Commanders or Owners of Ships or Vessels thereby made liable to pay the same, within fourteen Days after they should be cleared inward by the Officers of the Customs, which hath been found ineffectual, in as much as many Masters and Commanders of Ships and Vessels, after they have been cleared at the Custom-House, have wholly neglected to pay the said Duty, whereby great Detriment and Loss hath happened to the said Hospital: For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth all and every the Masters, Commanders and Owners of all Merchant Ships and other private Ships and Vessels whatsoever, by this Act or any of the said former Acts made liable to the Payment of the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, shall pay all such Monies as shall from Time to Time be due from them and every of them respectively unto the said Hospital, for or on Account of the said Duty, before any such Ships or Vessels shall be cleared inwards by the Officers of the Customs of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any of the Ports of this Kingdom of Great Britain, or of the said Kingdom of Ireland, or of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, or of any of them, or of any of his Majesty's Colonies, Islands or Dominions in America; and that no Customer, Collector, Comptroller, Receiver, Surveyor, Searcher, Waite or other Officer whatsoever, of or belonging to the Customs of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, at any Time hereafter, clear inwards any Merchant Ship or private Vessel whatsoever, by this or any of the said former Acts made or declared liable to the Payment of the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, or grant any Warrant, or give or make out any Cocquet, Transires, Returns or Discharges unto or for any such Ship or Vessel whatsoever, or shall permit or suffer any such Ship or Vessel to go out of any the Ports before mentioned, until the said Master, Commander or Owner or Owners of every such Ship or Vessel respectively shall and do produce and shew forth unto such Officer or Officers, an Acquittance or Certificate, signed by the said Receiver or Receivers, or his or their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, whereby it shall appear, that such Master, Commander or Owner or Owners have duly and fully paid and discharged the said Duty, and that he or they is not or are more than thirty Days in Arrear to the said Hospital, or that they are exempted from the Payment of the said Duties by Virtue of the Exceptions herein, and in the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE contained; and every Master, Commander and Owner of any such Ship or Vessel who shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Duty of six Pence per Menssem, in the Manner and within the Time herein before mentioned, limited and appointed for Payment thereof, and also every Customer, Collector, Comptroller, Receiver, Surveyor, Searcher, Waite and other Officer of the Customs, who shall make Default in any of the Premises enjoined them respectively by this Act, or shall in any wise act contrary to the Directions herein before mentioned, shall for every such Refusal, Neglect, Default or Act, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds

Masters, Customers, &c. making Default, forfeit 20l.

Pounds of lawful Money of this Kingdom, if such Forfeitures shall be incurred within Great Britain or Ireland, or to the Amount thereof in the Money of such Islands, Colonies or Dominions where the same shall be incurred, to be recovered and applied in such Manner as in that Behalf is herein after mentioned and directed.

VIII. Provided, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases, wherein by this Act an Oath is required or appointed to be taken, the solemn Affirmation and Declaration of the People called Quakers shall be accepted instead of such Oath, in such Manner and Form as by the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom is directed and appointed; and if any such Quaker shall refuse to make such solemn Affirmation and Declaration in any Case, wherein any other Person is hereby required to take an Oath, every such Quaker so refusing shall, for every such Offence, be subject to the like Forfeitures and Penalties as any other Person refusing to take an Oath is made liable to by this Act; and in case any such Quaker shall, upon his solemn Affirmation or Declaration, affirm or declare any Matter, which shall be false, or if any other Person, before any such Receiver or other Person hereby authorized to administer Oaths, shall wilfully make a false Oath, every such Quaker or other Person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall, for every such Offence, suffer and be liable to the like Fines, Pains, Penalties and Punishments as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject or liable to by the Laws of the respective Places where such Offence shall be committed.

Quakers solemn Declaration to be accepted instead of an Oath.

Quakers or others guilty of a false Oath, liable to like Punishment as wilful Perjury.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Forfeitures and Penalties which shall at any Time hereafter be incurred by Virtue of this Act, or any Clause therein contained, within the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, shall be sued for and recovered in such Manner, and with such Costs of Suit as by the said Act of the tenth of Queen ANNE is prescribed and directed for the Recovery of the Penalty or Forfeiture of twenty Pounds, hereby laid or inflicted upon the said Masters, Commanders and Owners of Ships or Vessels neglecting or refusing to appear, or make Discovery, or to pay the said Duty, in such Manner as by the said last mentioned Act is required and directed; and that all and every the Forfeitures and Penalties, which shall at any Time hereafter be incurred by Virtue of this Act, or any Clause therein contained, within the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, or the said Colonies, Islands or Dominions in America, or within any of them respectively, shall be sued for and recovered within the said Islands, Colonies, and Dominions respectively, in such and the same Manner as is usual in suing for and recovering other Forfeitures or Penalties incurred by Virtue of Penal Laws within the said Islands, Colonies and Dominions respectively, together with double Costs of Suit; and that one Moiety of all and every the said Forfeitures and Penalties, when recovered, shall go and be to the Use of the said Hospital, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same in Manner as aforesaid.

Forfeitures and Penalties how to be sued for.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times hereafter, any Person or Persons shall be sued for any Matter or Thing which shall be done by Virtue or in Execution hereof, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if upon any Trial the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, such Defendant shall recover and be allowed treble Costs of Suit.

General Issue.

thousand seven hundred and twenty, or at any Time or Times afterwards, or which James Craggs the elder, deceased, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him at the Time of his Death, was or were seized or possessed of, interested in, or entitled unto, in Law or Equity in their or any of their own Rights, or to his or their own Use or Uses, or in Partnership with any others (except as in the said Act is excepted) were, by Force and Virtue of the said Act, vested and settled in Sir John Eyles, Baronet, Sir Thomas Cross, Baronet, John Rudge, Esquire, Matthew Lant, Esquire, Roger Hudson, Esquire, now Sir Roger Hudson, Knight, Edmund Halsey, Esquire, John Lade, Esquire, Gabriel Roberts, Esquire, and Richard Hopkins, Esquire, now Sir Richard Hopkins, Knight, thereby nominated and appointed Trustees for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act expressed of and concerning the same, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns of the same Trustees, from the respective Times in the said Act mentioned, to the Intent the same might be sold and disposed of, or otherwise applied to and for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act expressed concerning the same, and that the clear Monies arising thereby should be appropriated to and for the Use of the South-Sea Company, in such Manner as therein is expressed (except as in the said recited Act is excepted) subject to the paying and satisfying such Claims as should be duly made and allowed in Pursuance of the said Act, and also to the Payment of the several Allowances made by the said Act, to the said late Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor, Directors, Cashier, Deputy-Cashier and Accountant of the said South-Sea Company, in and by which said Act, as also by several subsequent Acts of Parliament, relating to the said Estates vested in the said Trustees, divers Directions, Powers and Authorities are given to the said Trustees for the due Execution of the said Trust; in Pursuance of which said recited Act, and also of several subsequent Acts of Parliament, made for enlarging the Times limited for entering, hearing and determining Claims on the said Estates, divers Claims were entered before the said Trustees, and all such Claims and all Questions and Differences which arose thereupon, are now finally ended and determined, in Pursuance of the first mentioned Act; but some few of the said Claims yet remain to be satisfied, the Claimants or their Representatives not calling for the Allowances thereupon made: And whereas the several Purposes, for which the Estates of the said John Aislaby and James Craggs, deceased, were so as aforesaid vested in the said Trustees, have been obtained and satisfied, by Means whereof, and of several Provisions in the said recited Act, their several and respective Estates, so vested as aforesaid, have been re-vested in the said John Aislaby, and in the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of the said James Craggs, respectively; and as to the rest of the said Estates and Effects, very great Parts or Parcels of them have been sold or disposed of, but there are some few of the Lands and Hereditaments, and other Effects and Interests which remain yet unsold, and several of the Estates which have been sold, are not yet fully paid for or conveyed; and there are several Parts of the said personal Estates and Sums of Money vested in the said Trustees, which yet remain to be got in and disposed of; and some Suits in Law or Equity relating to the said Trusts, are now depending: And whereas the said Trustees have made several Reports to his said late Majesty, and his present Majesty, and both Houses of Parliament, in Pursuance of the said first mentioned Act, and in their last Report, bearing Date on or about the one and twentieth Day of January Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, taking Notice that they had almost executed the Trust reposed in them as aforesaid, did humbly submit, whether the said Trust should continue in them for compleating what remained undone therein: And whereas, upon due Consideration of the said Report, it is judged that the several Matters and Things remaining unperformed or unexecuted, may require a considerable Time intirely to compleat and execute the same, and may for the future be as well performed and executed by the said South-Sea Company, for whose Benefit the said Trustees were first appointed, as by the said Trustees, and the further Continuance of the said Trustees, and their Officers, would be an unnecessary Charge on the said Company: May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, &c. E X P.

All the Estates of the late Directors vested in Trustees on 24 December 1729, and unsold, vested in the South-Sea Company, &c. Trustees to deliver over to the Company all Things touching those Estates. Accountants to the Trustees to refund to the Company's Cashier all Monies not expended. Company to indemnify the Trustees. All the clear Money arisen from the Estates of the late Directors to be applied according to the Direction of 13 Geo. 1. c. 22. The said Estates not to be deemed as Part of the Lands the Company by Charter are capable to purchase.

C A P. IX.

An Act to repeal a Clause in an Act made in the ninth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, which prohibits the Importation of Tobacco stript from the Stalk or Stem.

9 Geo. 1. c. 21.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, for enabling his Majesty to put the Customs of Great Britain under the Management of one or more Commissioners, and for better securing and ascertaining the Duties on Tobacco, and to prevent Frauds in exporting Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes, or carrying the same coastwise, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That from and after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, no Tobacco should be imported into Great Britain, stript from the Stalk or Stem; and in case any Tobacco stript from the Stalk or Stem should be so imported, after the said first Day of June, the same should be seized, and should be liable to be searched for, and forfeited, by any Officer of the Customs, in the same Manner as any other prohibited Goods might by Law be searched for or seized; which Clause hath been found very prejudicial to the Planters of Tobacco in America, and to the Tobacco Trade of this Kingdom: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Clause in the said recited Act, prohibiting the Importation of Tobacco stript from the Stalk or Stem as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby repealed.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to ascertain the Custom payable for Corn and Grain imported; for better ascertaining the Price and Quantity of Corn and Grain, for which a Bounty is payable upon Exportation; for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for giving further Time to Clerks and Apprentices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures and Contracts.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for Improvement of Tillage, and the Breed of Cattle, it is enacted, That when the Prices of Corn and Grain, at the Times, Havens and Places, when and where the said Corn or Grain shall be imported into this Kingdom, exceed not the Rates hereafter following, there shall be answered and paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof these Rates; that is to say, For every Quarter of Wheat, when the same shall not exceed the Price of three and fifty Shillings and four Pence the Quarter, there shall be paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof the Sum of sixteen Shillings; and when the same shall exceed the Sum of three and fifty Shillings and four Pence the Quarter, and yet not above four Pounds the Quarter, that then there shall be answered and paid, for the Custom and Poundage of every Quarter of Wheat, the Sum of eight Shillings; for every Quarter of Rye, when the same doth not exceed the Price of forty Shillings the Quarter, there shall be answered and paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof the Sum of sixteen Shillings the Quarter; for every Quarter of Barley or Malt, when the same doth not exceed the Price of two and thirty Shillings the Quarter, there shall be answered and paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof the Sum of sixteen Shillings the Quarter; for every Quarter of Buck Wheat, when the same doth not exceed the Price of two and thirty Shillings the Quarter, there shall be answered and paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof the Sum of sixteen Shillings the Quarter; for every Quarter of Oats, when the same doth not exceed the Sum of sixteen Shillings the Quarter, there shall be answered and paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof the Sum of five Shillings and four Pence the Quarter; for every Quarter of Pease and Beans, when the same doth not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings the Quarter, there shall be answered and paid for the Custom and Poundage thereof the Sum of sixteen Shillings the Quarter, each Quarter to contain eight Bushels, and each Bushel to contain eight Gallons, and no more; but when the Prices of the several Sorts of Corn or Grain above mentioned shall exceed the respective Rates aforesaid, at the Times and Places of Importation, that then and in every such Case, there be answered and paid for the same the Duties payable in such Case before the making of the said Act: And whereas by another Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of King James the Second, intituled, An additional Act for the Improvement of Tillage, it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Justices of the Peace for the several and respective Counties within his Majesty's Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, wherein foreign Corn or Grain shall or may be hereafter imported, and they and every of them are thereby enjoined and required, at their next respective Quarter-Sessions after Michaelmas and Easter Day yearly, by the Oaths of two or more honest and substantial Persons sons of the respective Counties, being neither Merchants or Factors for the importing of Corn, nor any Ways concerned nor interested in the Corn so imported, and each of them having a Freehold Estate of twenty Pounds per Annum, or a Leasehold Estate of fifty Pounds per Annum, above all Charges and Reprizes, and being skilful in the Prices of Corn (which Oaths all and every the said Justices are thereby empowered to administer) and by such other Ways and Means as to them shall seem fit, to examine and determine the common Market Prices of midling English Corn and Grain, of the respective Sorts in the said Act mentioned, as the same shall be commonly bought and sold in the said respective Counties, into which any foreign Corn and Grain shall be imported; and to certify the same with two such Oaths made as aforesaid in Writing annexed, unto his Majesty's chief Officer and Collector of the Customs for the Time being, residing in the said respective Ports or Havens, where the said Corn or Grain shall be imported, to be hung up in some publick Place in the Custom-house, to which all Persons may resort for their Information: And it is thereby further enacted, That the Custom and Duty of foreign Corn and Grain imported into any of his Majesty's said Dominions of England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, appointed by the first mentioned Act to be paid, shall be collected and paid according to the Prices contained in such respective Certificates as aforesaid, and not otherwise; any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Law or Statute contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And it is further provided by the said Act, That all that by Virtue thereof is to be done by the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter-Sessions in their several Counties, shall be done and performed in like Manner in the City of London, in the Months of October and April yearly, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Justices of the Peace there, and that the Persons making such Oaths shall be no Corn-chandler, Mealman, Factor, Merchant, or other Person interested in such Corn so to be imported, but shall be some substantial House-keepers living in Middlesex or Surrey, qualified as aforesaid: And whereas the Justices of the Peace for some of the Counties of this Kingdom have, notwithstanding the last mentioned Act, omitted or neglected to settle the Price of Corn at their Quarter-Sessions after Michaelmas last, and to return Certificates thereof to the chief Officer and Collector of the Customs, residing in the respective Ports where the said Corn or Grain has been or may be imported; by Means whereof the said Officers were at a Loss how to charge the Custom and Duty due for such Corn, which has been, and may be a great Loss to the Revenue, and a Detriment to the Farmers and fair Traders: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Justices of the Peace for such of the several and respective Counties of this Kingdom, who have omitted or neglected to settle the Prices of Corn at the Quarter-Sessions after Michaelmas last, and they are hereby enjoined and required, at the next respective Quarter-Sessions, or at any Adjournment thereof which shall happen after the passing this Act, to examine and determine what the common Market-Prices of midling British Corn and Grain, of the respective Sorts in the said Acts mentioned, were at or about Michaelmas last, in the respective Counties, upon such Oaths, and by such other Ways and Means, as are directed and prescribed by the said Act passed in the first Year of King JAMES the Second, and to grant Certificates thereof as directed by the said Act; and the Officers of the Customs, and all other Persons concerned, are to govern themselves according to the Prices of Corn or Grain contained in such Certificates, as if the same had been regularly examined, determined and certified at last Michaelmas Quarter-Sessions as aforesaid; any Thing in the said Act, or any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justices who have omitted to settle the Prices of Corn at the Quarter-Sessions after Michaelmas last, are to settle it at the next Quarter-Sessions.

Corn imported since the 1st Day of Michaelmas Quarter-Sessions, and Duty not paid, forfeited.

Justices not determining the Price of Corn, Collector to settle it.

W. & M. sess. 4. c. 12.

Officers to measure Corn imported.

II. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any of the Sorts of Corn or Grain aforesaid have been imported from beyond the Seas, since the first Day of Michaelmas Quarter-Sessions now last past, and the Importers or Proprietors thereof have omitted or neglected, or shall omit or neglect to pay the respective Duties due or payable for the same, when demanded, according to the Prices mentioned and expressed in the Certificates of the Justices of the Peace, made or to be made by Virtue of the former and this present Act, such Importers or Proprietors shall forfeit and lose all such Corn and Grain, or the Value thereof, and the same shall and may be seized, prosecuted and sued for, by Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, one moiety whereof shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other moiety to the Seizor or Prosecutor.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties of this Kingdom shall for the future omit or neglect to examine and determine the Prices of Corn or Grain, at their respective Quarter-Sessions after Michaelmas and Easter yearly, and to certify the same unto his Majesty's chief Officer and Collector of the Customs for the Time being, residing in the respective Ports or Havens, where foreign Corn or Grain shall or may be imported, in order to be hung up in some publick Place in the Custom-house, as directed by the said Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the Second, then and in such Case, the Collector of his Majesty's Customs, at the respective Port of Importation, is hereby empowered to receive the several Duties of the Corn so imported, according to the lowest Price of the several Sorts of Corn or Grain, mentioned and expressed in the said Act passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And for the better ascertaining the Quantity of Corn or Grain to be shipped for Exportation, which by an Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for the encouraging the Exportation of Corn, is no otherwise ascertained, than by the Certificate of the Exporter, attested upon Oath; Be it enacted, That the proper Officers of the Customs shall be empowered to admeasure all Corn and Grain, whereon there is an Allowance payable for the Exportation thereof; and for greater Expedition therein, such Admeasurement shall and may be by a Tub or Measure containing four Winchester Bushels; and if such Corn or Grain intended to be exported, shall be brought to be shipped off in Sacks, that then and in such Case the said Officers are hereby empowered and required to make choice of two of those Sacks, out of any Number not exceeding twenty Sacks, and so in Proportion for any greater Quantity, before the same shall be put on board for Exportation, and thereby compute the Quantity of Corn so intended to be shipped for Exportation; and according to such Computation, the Allowance or Bounty Money shall be paid to the Exporter for the whole Quantity proportionably, upon his producing a Certificate from the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, attesting the Quantity and Quality of the Corn or Grain so shipped for Exportation.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the like Powers, Certificates and Regulations, and other Matters and Things above mentioned, shall be extended to the ascertaining the Prices and Quantity of Bear alias Bigg, Oatmeal and Malt made of Wheat, or Wheat Malt, intended for Exportation: Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act shall extend to alter the present Practice, with respect to the Manner of shipping Corn from the Port of London, but that the same may be measured by sworn Meters appointed for that Purpose, by whose Certificate the Searchers, or other proper Officers of his Majesty's Customs, are hereby impowered and required to certify the Quantity of Corn shipped for Exportation, on a Certificate of such Meters, as hath been constantly practised; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

provided for by Parliament; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding fifty-seven thousand Pounds upon Account of Half-pay to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land-Foxces and Marines for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as are herein after prescribed concerning the same; and the Sum of two hundred forty-one thousand two hundred fifty-nine Pounds one Shilling and three Pence, for defraying the Expence of twelve thousand Hessians, taken into his Majesty's Pay, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding fifty thousand Pounds for one Year's Subsidy to the King of Sweden, pursuant to a Treaty dated the fourteenth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding twenty-five thousand Pounds for one Year's Subsidy to the Duke of Brunswick Lunenburg Wolfenbuttel, pursuant to a Treaty dated the twenty-fifth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven.

X. And it is hereby likewise enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid there shall and may be issued and applied the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, towards cancelling and discharging the like Sum in Exchequer-Bills, made forth in Pursuance of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for granting an Aid to his Majesty of five hundred thousand Pounds, towards discharging Wages due to Seamen.

XI. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding one hundred and three thousand one hundred eighty-nine Pounds eleven Shillings and seven Pence Farthing, towards making good the Deficiency of the Grants for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight; and any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding sixty-three thousand nine hundred and two Pounds fifteen Shillings and two Pence Half-penny, to make good the Deficiency of the Fund commonly called the General Fund, for raising seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-four Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one-fifth Part of a Penny, for the Year ended at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight.

XII. And it is also hereby further enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied, for and upon Account of the Arrears of the several Duties and Revenues granted to his Majesty, by an Act made and passed in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of one hundred and fifteen thousand Pounds, in such Manner, and for such Uses and Purposes, as his Majesty shall from Time to Time be pleased to direct and appoint.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be standing out, or in Arrear, at the Demise of his Majesty (whom God long preserve) any Sum or Sums of Money for or on Account of the said Duties and Revenues, which together with what hath been or shall be received out of the same during his Majesty's Life, and together with the said Sum of one hundred and fifteen thousand Pounds, shall be more than sufficient to compleat and satisfy to his Majesty, during his Life, the yearly Sum of eight hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, in clear Money, to be computed from the twenty-fifth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, then and in such Case the said Sum of one hundred and fifteen thousand Pounds shall be replaced and refunded by or out of such Sum or Sums of Money so standing out or in Arrear as aforesaid, as shall be more than sufficient to compleat the said yearly Sum of eight hundred thousand Pounds in clear Money to be computed as aforesaid, or so much thereof as the Monies arising thereby shall extend to satisfy the same; and that the Monies so to be replaced or refunded, shall be separated and kept apart in his Majesty's Exchequer, for the Use and Benefit of the Publick, and shall not be issued or applied to any other Use or Uses, than such as shall be directed by Authority of Parliament.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the said Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies or other Payments directed to be satisfied thereout, by any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in any other Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament.

XV. And as to the said Sum of fifty-seven thousand Pounds by this Act appropriated on Account of Half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules herein after prescribed, shall be duly observed in the Application thereof; that is to say, That no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor, and under the Age of sixteen Years, at the Time when the Regiment, Troop or Company in which he served was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same who hath resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by Virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons who would have been otherwise entitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the five Regiments of Dragoons, and eight Regiments of Foot, lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

XVI. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty of five hundred thousand Pounds, towards discharging Wages due to Seamen, and for the constant, regular, and punctual Payment of Seamen's Wages for the future; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament, and for disposing of the Surplus of the Money granted for Half-pay for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, several Supplies which had been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes there- in in expressed; amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding fifty-eight thousand Pounds, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay; as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf; Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Sum of fifty-eight thousand Pounds, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers according to the said Rules; by the said Act prescribed to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall or may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed, or lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or to such others, as by Reason of their long Service or otherwise, his Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants, under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Overplus of Half-pay, for the Compassionate List.

XVII. And for the Relief of any Person or Persons, who through Neglect or Inadvertency have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given, paid, contracted or agreed for, with or in Relation to any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, which hath been put or placed to or with any Master or Mistress, to learn any Profession, Trade or Employment, and to have such Indentures, or other Writings, which shall contain the Covenants, Articles, Contracts or Agreements relating to the Service of such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, stamped within the Times by the several Acts of Parliament for those Purposes respectively limited, or who have also in like Manner omitted to insert, and write in Words at Length, in such Indentures or other Writings as aforesaid, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof received, or in any wise directly or indirectly given, paid, agreed or contracted for, with or in Relation to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant as aforesaid: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Payment of the Rates and Duties upon Monies, or such Part of such Monies so neglected or omitted to be paid as aforesaid, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, to such Person or Persons to whom the same ought to be paid, and tending the said Indentures or other Writings, to be stamped at the same Time, or at any Time on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine (of which timely Notice is to be given in the London Gazette) the same Indentures or other Writings, shall be good and available in Law and Equity, and may be given in Evidence in any Court whatsoever, and the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant therein named, shall be capable of following and exercising their respective intended Trades or Employments, as fully as if the Rates and Duties so omitted had been duly paid, and the full Sum or Sums received or agreed for as aforesaid, had been inserted; and the Persons who have incurred any Penalties by the Omissions aforesaid, shall be acquitted and discharged of and from the said Penalties; any Thing in any of the said former Acts to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for regulating, well ordering, governing and improving the Oyster Fishery in the River Medway, and Waters thereof, under the Authority of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Rocheſter in the County of Kent. P R.

WHEREAS Time out of Mind there has been an Oyster Fishery in the River Medway in the County of Kent, and in many of the Creeks and Branches thereof within the Jurisdiction of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Rocheſter, which Oyster Fishery hath Time out of Mind been free and common to all Oyster Fishermen and Dredgers, after having served seven Years Apprenticeship to any Fisherman or Dredger before free of the said Oyster Fishery; and the Mayor and Citizens of the said City, and their Predecessors, have Time out of Mind, yearly and oftner, upon the Application of the said Oyster Dredgers, as Occasion hath required, held a Court commonly called An Admiralty Court, amongst other Things, for the ordering and regulating the said Oyster Fishery; and at such Courts the said Fishermen and Dredgers constantly attend, pursuant to a Summons for that Purpose served on them by the principal Water-Bailiff of the said Mayor and Citizens; and upon the Return of a Panel by the said Water-Bailiff of the most sufficient Men amongst the said Dredgers, to the said Court, the Persons so returned are sworn to be of the Jury of the said Court; and the Jury so sworn at such Court have Time out of Mind used to make Orders for regulating the said Oyster Fishery, with Fines and Penalties for the Breach of such Orders, and have appointed the Times when Oysters should be dredged and taken, and what Part of the said Fishery it was proper to dredge and catch Oysters in, and also the Times when no Oysters should be dredged or taken, which is commonly called Opening and shutting the Grounds; and have also by such Orders appointed the Quantity of Oysters each Dredgerman should take in a Day, which is commonly called Setting the Stint; and have also made Orders for the Preservation of the Brood and Spat of Oysters, and have presented the Persons guilty of the Breach of such Orders, and have likewise presented and fined such Oyster Dredgers as have been summoned, and who have not attended at such Courts; and such Fines and Penalties belong to and have been collected and received to the Use of the said Mayor and Citizens by their proper Officers; and the Water-Bailiffs and Officers of the said Mayor and Citizens have Time out of Mind used and exercised a Power and Authority of entring and going on board of the Boats and Vessels of the said Fishermen and Dredgermen, and of viewing and measuring the Oysters they have had on board such Vessels and Boats, in order to discover if there hath been any Breach of the Orders of the said Court; and when they have found any Quantity of Oysters caught more than the Stint, or any Brood of Oysters or Spat, have seized and thrown such Brood, and other Oysters which have been caught more than the Stint, back again into the said River and Creeks: And whereas by antient Usage and Custom no Persons ought to use the Trade of dredging for Oysters within the said Oyster Fishery, but such as have served seven Years Apprenticeship to some Dredgerman free of the said Oyster Fishery; and that such Apprentices might the better be known, at the Beginning of their Apprenticeship such Apprentices have used to be enrolled before the Mayor of the said City, and at the End of such Apprenticeship the Names of such Apprentices who so served their Times used to be entred in a Book kept by the said Mayor and Citizens for that Purpose, and at the Time of such Entry they paid to the said Mayor and Citizens an ancient Fee of six Shillings and eight Pence; and all Persons not having served such Apprenticeship, who were at any Time found dredging in the said Fishery, were called Cable Hangers, and as such were presented and punished at the said Courts: And for the better Support of the Authority of the said Mayor and Citizens and their Jurisdiction upon the said

River and Creeks, and defraying the Expence of keeping the said Courts, every Dredger for Oysters in the said River and Creeks did anciently pay to the said Mayor and Citizens the ancient Fee of six Shillings and eight Pence yearly: And whereas notwithstanding there have been from Time to Time many good Rules and Orders made and established by the said Juries at the said Courts, for the regular using, carrying on and enjoying the said Oyster Fishery, for the common Benefit of all the Dredgers free of the said Oyster Fishery; yet many disorderly Persons amongst them neglecting the common Interest, and regarding only their own present private Lucre, and in Contempt of all Authority over them, have dredged for Oysters before the Times appointed for opening of the Grounds, and after they have been ordered to be shut, and without any Regard to the Stint set, have caught great Quantities of Oysters more than the Stint, and more than they could dispose of, and have caught the Brood and unfizable Oysters at a Time when they should be preserved; and when the Water-Bailiffs of the said Mayor and Citizens have come to do the Duty of their Office in discovering the said Abuses and Breach of Orders, they have been frequently opposed and hindered, threatened and abused, and have sometimes with Difficulty escaped with their Lives; and notwithstanding Distresses have been made for the Fines and Penalties set by the said Juries for Punishment of the Offenders, yet it having been doubted, whether such Distresses could be maintained, the said Mayor and Citizens have been discouraged in their Proceedings, and such Offenders have escaped Punishment; and if such Disorders should be continued, and go unpunished for the future, the said Oyster Fishery will be in Danger of being utterly lost and destroyed, and thereby many numerous Families depending upon the said Oyster Fishery will be ruined and undone, and a good Nursery for Seamen be lost to the Publick: For the preventing therefore such Disorders for the future, and for the regulating, well ordering and governing the said Oyster Fishery for the common Good and Benefit of all the said free Dredgers of the said Oyster Fishery, and making them secure under the Protection of the said Mayor and Citizens, and for the confirming and settling the Power and Jurisdiction of the said Mayor and Citizens over the said Oyster Fishery and the free Dredgers thereof, May it please your Majesty, at the humble Suit as well of the Mayor and Citizens of the said City of Rochester, as of the Oyster Dredgers free of the said Oyster Fishery, that it may be enacted, &c.

After 24 June 1729, Mayor, &c. of Rochester once or oftner in every Year to hold their Admiralty Court: May impanel a Jury. Jury to make Rules and Orders for well governing the Oyster Fishery, to be approved by the Mayor, &c. Jury to appoint four Water Bailiffs. Water-Bailiffs to go on board the Boats to examine the Oysters: Oyster Dredgers resisting them, forfeit 40 s. Their Apprentices to be inrolled, on Forfeiture of 5 l. Apprentice, after his Time expired, to pay 6 s. 8 d. and to be registred. Free Dredgermen to pay on 15 October 6 s. 8 d. yearly. Refusing to pay, Mayor, &c. may distrain, &c. Jury to present when necessary to lay Oysters, &c. in the River, and what Sums are necessary for that Purpose, and may borrow Money, to be levied by equal Contributions: Refusing to pay forfeits 10 s. The Charges of this Act to be paid by the Dredgermen. These Rules to extend to the laid Oysters.

On mutual Credit Assignees to allow the Balance.

C A P. XXI.

An Act for the Trial of Murders, in Cases where either the Stroke or Death only happens within that Part of Great Britain called England.

Persons feloniously stricken or poisoned on the Sea, &c. and dying in England, or stricken or poisoned in England, and dying on the Sea, an Indictment found by Jurors shall be good against Principal and Accessories.

FOR preventing any Failure of Justice and taking away all Doubts touching the Trial of Murders in the Cases herein after mentioned, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Person, at any Time after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, shall be feloniously stricken or poisoned upon the Sea, or at any Place out of that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England, and shall die of the same Stroke or Poisoning within that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England; or where any Person, at any Time after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, shall be feloniously stricken or poisoned at any Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, and shall die of the same Stroke or Poisoning upon the Sea, or at any Place out of that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England; in either of the said Cases an Indictment thereof found by the Jurors of the County in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England, in which such Death, Stroke or Poisoning shall happen respectively as aforesaid, whether it shall be found before the Coroner upon the View of such dead Body, or before the Justices of the Peace, or other Justices or Commissioners, who shall have Authority to inquire of Murders, shall be as good and effectual in the Law, as well against the Principals in any such Murder, as the Accessories thereunto, as if such felonious Stroke and Death thereby ensuing, or Poisoning and Death thereby ensuing, and the Offence of such Accessories, had happened in the same County where such Indictment shall be found; and that the Justices of Gaol Delivery and and Oyer and Terminer in the same County where such Indictment shall be found, and also any superior Court, in case such Indictment shall be removed into such superior Court, shall and may proceed upon the same in all Points, as well against the Principals in any such Murder, as the Accessories thereto, as they might or ought to do, in case such felonious Stroke and Death thereby ensuing, or Poisoning and Death thereby ensuing, and the Offence of such Accessories, had happened in the same County where such Indictment shall be found; and that every such Offender, as well Principal as Accessary, shall answer upon their Arraignments, and have the like Defences, Advantages and Exceptions (except Challenges for the Hundred) and shall receive the like Trial, Judgment, Order and Execution, and suffer such Forfeitures, Pains and Penalties, as they ought to do, if such felonious Stroke and Death thereby ensuing, or Poisoning and Death thereby ensuing, and the Offence of such Accessories, had happened in the same County where such Indictment shall be found.

Justices of Gaol Delivery shall proceed thereon, and Offender shall answer and receive the like Trial, &c. as if the Murder had happened in the County.

C A P. XXII.

An Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons.

WHEREAS many Persons suffer by the Oppression of inferior Officers in the Execution of Process for Debt, and the Exactions of Gaolers to whom such Debtors are committed; for Remedy whereof it may be reasonable, not only to enforce the Execution of the Laws now in Being against such Oppressions and Exactions, more especially several Clauses in a Statute made at a Parliament held in the twenty-second and twenty-third Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Relief and Release of poor distressed Prisoners for Debt, but likewise to make some further Provisions for the Ease and Relief of Debtors, who shall be willing to satisfy their Creditors to the utmost of their Power: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, Serjeant at Mace or other Officer or Minister whatsoever, shall at any Time or Times hereafter convey or carry, or cause to be conveyed or carried, any Person or Persons by him or them arrested, or being in his or their Custody by Virtue or Colour of any Writ, Process or Warrant, to any Tavern, Alehouse or other publick Ushalling or Drinking House, or to the private House of any such Officer or Minister, or of any Tenant or Relation of his, without the free and voluntary Consent of the Person or Persons so arrested or in Custody; nor charge any such Person or Persons with any Sum of Money for any Wine, Beer, Ale, Ushalls, Tobacco, or any other Liquor or Things whatsoever, save what he, she or they shall call for of his, her or their own free Accord; nor shall cause or procure him, her or them to call or pay for any such Liquor or Things, except what he, she or they shall particularly and freely ask for; nor shall demand, take or receive, or cause to be demanded, taken or received, directly or indirectly, any other or greater Sum or Sums of Money than is or shall be by Law allowed to be taken or demanded for such Arrest, Taking, Detaining or Waiting, till the Person or Persons so arrested or in Custody shall have given an Appearance or Bail, as the Case shall require, or agreed with the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Prosecution he, she or they shall be taken or arrested, or until he, she or they shall be sent to the proper Gaol belonging to the County, City, Town or Place where such Arrest or Taking shall be; nor shall exact or take any Reward, Gratuity or Money for keeping the Person or Persons so arrested or in Custody, out of Gaol or Prison; nor shall carry any such Person to any Gaol or Prison within four and twenty Hours from the Time of such Arrest; nor shall take or receive any other or greater Sum or Sums for one or more Nights Lodging, or for a Day's Diet, or other Expences, than what shall be allowed as reasonable in such Cases by some Order or Orders to be made by the Justices of the Peace at some Quarter-Sessions to be held for such County, City, Town or Place where such Arrest or Taking shall be, who are hereby authorized and required with all convenient Expedition to make some standing Order or Orders for ascertaining such Expences, within their respective Counties or Precincts.

No Sheriff or Bailiff shall carry any Person arrested to any Tavern, &c. without his Consent, nor charge him for Wine, &c.

nor take a greater Sum than the Law allows, nor exact a Gratuity for keeping him out of Gaol, or for Lodging or Diet.

II. And that no Person may suffer by reason of his Ignorance of the afore-mentioned Provisions made by this Act; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, and other Persons intrusted with the Execution of Process, shall deliver a printed Copy of the said Clause to every Bailiff, Serjeant or other Officer by them respectively employed to execute Warrants within their respective Bailiwicks; and when any such Bailiff or other Officer shall give Security upon his entering into Office, shall require him to make it Part of the Condition of such Security, that he will shew and deliver a Copy of the said Clause to every Person whom he shall arrest by Virtue of any Warrant, and carry or cause to be carried to any publick or other House, and permit him or any Friend of his to read the same, before any Liquor or Meat shall be there called for; and in case any Bailiff or other Officer shall carry or cause to be carried to any publick or other House, any Person under his Arrest or in his Custody, and there permit any Liquor or Ushalls to be called for, before such Clause or Copy of it shall be shewn and read by or to the Prisoner, such Neglect or Default, besides the Breach of the Condition of such Security, shall be accounted a Misdeemeanor in the Execution of the Process whereupon such Person is arrested, and be punished as such.

Sheriffs to give printed Copies of this Clause to Bailiffs.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper of any Prison or Gaol, or other Person or Persons whatsoever to whose Custody or Keeping any one so arrested or taken shall be committed, on any Pretence, shall permit and suffer him, her or them so arrested or taken, at his, her or their Will and Pleasure, to send for and have any Beer, Ale, Ushalls or other necessary Food, from what Place they please, and also to have and use such Bedding, Linnen and other Things, as he, she or they shall think fit, without purloining or detaining the same, or any Part thereof, or in forcing or requiring him, her or them to pay for the having or using thereof, or putting any Manner of Restraint or Difficulty upon him, her or them in using thereof or relating thereto.

Gaolers to permit Prisoners to send for Victuals from what Place they please, and to have such Bedding, &c. as they shall think fit.

None but lawful Fees to be taken of Prisoners, till further Settlement.

Tables to be

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fees shall be taken by any Gaoler or Keeper of any Gaol or Prison within that Part of Great Britain called England, for any Prisoner or Prisoners Commitment or coming into Gaol, or Chamber Rent there, or Discharge from thence, except what are now allowed by Law, until such Fees shall be settled and established by the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any two of them, together with the Lord Mayor and two of the Aldermen, or with three of the Aldermen of the City of London, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within the City of London, and for the said Lords Chief Justices and Lord Chief Baron, or any two of them, with three Justices of the Peace of the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey; and the Justices of the Peace of every other County, Riding and Division for the Gaols and Prisons in each respective County, Riding and Division, at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for such County, Riding or Division respectively, who are hereby empowered, directed and required to settle and establish the same as soon as conveniently may be, and Tables shall be made of the respective Rates and Fees so settled and established, and the Tables of the said Fees, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within the City of London and Counties of Middlesex and Surrey aforesaid, shall be signed by the said Lords Chief Justices and Lord Chief Baron, and the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, and Justices of the Peace of the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, by whom the same shall be made; and the Tables of the said Fees, for and in respect of the rest of the said Gaols and Prisons, shall be signed by three or more of the Justices of the Peace attending at the settling the said Fees in such Quarter-Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid; and shall be reviewed and confirmed, or moderated, and then signed by the Judges of Assize, or one of them, in the respective Counties within their several Circuits, together with three or more Justices of the Peace of each respective County, Riding and Division, and also Rules and Orders for the better Government of Prisons shall be forthwith made, and from Time to Time enlarged and enforced, or altered and amended, as Occasion shall require, by the several Courts in Westminster-Hall, by Rules and Orders of the said Courts, to be signed by the Judges of each respective Court where such Rules and Orders shall from Time to Time be made, for or in respect of the Prisons belonging to the said Courts respectively, as by the said Lords Chief Justices and Lord Chief Baron, or any two of them, together with the Lord Mayor and two or more Aldermen, or of three or more Aldermen of the City of London, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within the City of London, and by the said Lords Chief Justices and Lord Chief Baron, or any two of them, together with three or more Justices of the Peace, under their Hands, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey aforesaid, and by the respective Judges of Assize, or one of them, and three or more Justices of the Peace of each County, Riding or Division, under their Hands, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within their respective Circuits, Counties, Ridings and Divisions; and Duplicates of such Tables of Fees and Rules shall be made and signed, and the same shall be transmitted to the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer, there to be entered and inrolled of Record, without any Fee to be taken for the Inrolling thereof; and likewise such of them as relate to Gaols in each particular County, Riding or Division, shall be registered by the Clerks of the Peace in their respective Precincts in the Rolls of their respective Sessions, without Fee, and hung up in some open and publick Room or Place in every Gaol and Prison, there to remain, and be resorted to by every Prisoner, as Occasion shall require; and that from and after such Tables of Fees settled and confirmed as aforesaid, no Gaoler or Keeper of any Gaol or Prison shall demand, take or receive, directly or indirectly, of any Prisoner or Prisoners for Debt, any other or greater Fee or Fees whatsoever for his, her or their Commitment, Chamber Rent, Release or Discharge, than what shall be mentioned and allowed in such List or Table of Fees so to be inrolled, registered and hung up as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Courts of Record in Westminster-Hall aforesaid shall, every Michaelmas Term, appoint some Day to inquire whether such Tables of Fees and such Rules as aforesaid be hung up, and remain publick and easy to be resorted to, in the several Prisons to the said Courts respectively belonging, and whether the same be duly complied with and observed, and cause eight Days Notice to be given to the Prisoners in the said Prison of the Time appointed for such Inquiry, and shall inform themselves touching the same in the best Manner they can, and supply and redress whatever they find neglected or transgressed; and that the Judges and Justices of Assize and Gaol Delivery shall make Inquiry of the Matters aforesaid at all Assizes and Sessions of Gaol Delivery, for and in respect of the Gaols and Prisons within their respective Jurisdictions, and shall expressly give it in Charge to the Grand Jury to inquire concerning the same.

VI. And for the more speedy punishing Gaolers, Bailiffs, and others employed in the Execution of Process, for Extortions or other Abuses in their respective Offices and Places: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Petition of any Prisoner or Person being or having been under Arrest, or in Custody, complaining of any Exaction or Extortion by any Gaoler, Bailiff or other Officer or Person employed in the keeping or taking care of any Gaol or Prison, or the arresting or apprehending any Person or Persons by virtue of any Process or Warrant, or any other Abuse whatsoever, committed or done in their respective Offices or Places, unto any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in Westminster Hall, from whence such Process issued, or under whose Power such Gaol or Prison is, in Term Time, or to any of the Justices or Barons of such Court in the Time of Vacation, or to the Judges of Assize, or either of them, in their respective Circuits, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, Justices or Barons, or Judges of Assize, to hear and determine the same in a summary way, and to make such Order thereupon for redressing such Abuse, and punishing of such Officer or Person complained of, and making Reparation to the Party or Parties injured, as they shall think just, together with the full Costs of such Complaint; and all De-ders and Determinations which shall be made by the said Courts, or any of the said Justices, Barons or Judges of Assize respectively, in such summary Way as herein prescribed, shall have the same Effect, Force and Virtue, to all Intents and Purposes, as any other Orders of the said respective Courts, and Obedience thereunto may be enforced, either by Attachments ordered by the said respective Courts, or by Attachments to be issued under the Seal of the said Courts by Direction of the Justice, Baron or Judge, making such Order.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Lords Chief Justices, Lord Chief Baron, Judges of Assize, and Justices of the Peace, in their respective Jurisdictions, and all Commissioners for charitable Uses, do their best Endeavours and Diligence to examine and discover the several Gifts, Legacies, and Bequests bestowed and given for the Benefit and Advantage of the poor Prisoners in the said several Gaols and Prisons, and to send for any Deeds, Wills, Writings and Books of Account whatsoever, and any Person or Persons concerned therein, and to examine them upon Oath to make true Discovery thereof (which they have hereby full Power and Authority to do) and to order and settle the Payment, Recovery and Receipt of the same, when so discovered and ascertained, in such easy and expeditious manner and way, that the Prisoners for the future may not be defrauded, but receive the full Benefit thereof, according to the true Intent of the Donors; and that Lists or Tables of such Gifts, Legacies and Bequests for the Benefit of the Prisoners in every Gaol or Prison respectively, fairly written, shall be likewise hung up in such Gaols and Prisons respectively, in some open Room or Place, to which the Prisoners may have Resort as Occasion shall require, without Fee, and shall be registered by the Clerks of the Peace of the respective Counties and Places in manner aforesaid.

VIII. And for the Ease and Relief of Prisoners, who shall be willing to satisfy their Creditors as far as they are able: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons charged in Execution for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of one hundred Pounds, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, with respect to Prisoners charged or to be charged in Execution as aforesaid, in the Prison of the Marshalsea or County Gaol of Surrey, and from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, with respect to Prisoners charged or to be charged in Execution as aforesaid, in any other Gaol or Prison, shall be minded to deliver up to his, her or their Creditors all his, her or their Effects, towards the Satisfaction of the Debts wherewith he, she or they stand charged, it shall and may be lawful for such Prisoner to exhibit a Petition to any of the Courts of Law, from whence the Process issued, upon which he, she or they was or were taken and charged in Execution, certifying the Cause or Causes of his, her or their Imprisonment, and an Account of his, her or their whole real and personal Estate, with the Dates of the Securities wherein any Part of it consists, and the Deeds or Notes relating thereto, and the Names of the Witnesses to the same, as far as his, her or their knowledge extends thereto; and upon such Petition the Court may and is hereby required, by Order or Rule of Court, to cause the Prisoner to be brought up, and the several Creditors at whose Suit he, she or they are charged as aforesaid, to be summoned to appear personally, or by their Attorney in Court, at a Day to be appointed for that Purpose; and upon the Day of such Appearance, if any of the Creditors summoned refuse or neglect to appear, upon Affidavit of the due Service of such Rule or Order, the Court shall in a summary Way examine into the Matter of such Petition, and hear what can or shall be alledged on either side for or against the Discharge of such Prisoner, and upon such Examination, the Court may and are hereby required to administer, or tender to the Prisoner, an Oath to the Effect following, which Oath the said Court is hereby empowered to administer:

I A. B. do solemnly swear, in the Presence of Almighty God, That the Account by me delivered into this honourable Court, in my Petition to this Court, doth contain a true and full Account of all my real and personal Estate, Debts, Credits and Effects whatsoever, which I, or any in Trust for me, have, or at the Time of my said Petition had, or am or was in any respect intitled to, in Possession, Remainder or Reversion (except the wearing Apparel and Bedding for me or my Family, and the Tools or Instruments of my Trade or Calling, not exceeding ten Pounds in Value in the whole) and that I have not, at any Time since my Imprisonment or before, directly or indirectly, sold, leased, assigned or otherwise disposed of, or made over in Trust for my self, or otherwise, other than as mentioned in such Account, any Part of my Lands, Estate, Goods, Stock, Money, Debts or other real or personal Estate, whereby to have or expect any Benefit or Profit to my self, or to defraud any of my Creditors to whom I am indebted.

So help me God.

IX. And in case the Prisoner shall in open Court take the said Oath, and upon such Examination, and his or her taking the said Oath, the Creditors shall be satisfied with the Truth thereof, the Court may immediately order the Lands, Goods and Effects, contained in such Account, or so much of them, as may be sufficient to satisfy the Debts wherewith he or she is or shall be charged, and the Fees due to the Warden, Marshal or Keeper, of the Gaol or Prison, from which the Prisoner was brought, to be, by a short Indorsement on the Back of such Petition, signed by the Prisoner, assigned to the said Creditors, or one or more of them, in Trust for the rest of them, and by such Assignment the Estate, Interest and Property of the Lands, Goods, Debts and Effects so assigned, shall be vested in the Person or Persons to whom such Assignment is or shall be made, who may take Possession of, or sue for the same, in his or their own Name or Names, in like Manner as Assignees of Commissioners of Bankrupts, to which Suit no Release of the Prisoner, his or her Executors or Administrators, or any Trustee for him or her, subsequent to such Assignment, shall be any Bar; and immediately upon such Assignment executed, the said Prisoner shall be discharged out of Custody by Order of Court, and such Order shall be a sufficient Warrant to the Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison, to discharge the said Prisoner, if detained for the Causes mentioned in such Petition, and no other; and he is hereby required to discharge, and set him or her at Liberty forthwith, without Fee, nor shall such Sheriff or Gaoler be liable to any Action of

of Escape, or other Suit or Information upon that Account; and the Person or Persons to whom the said Effects shall be assigned, paying the Fees to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison, in whose Custody the Party discharged was, shall, and are hereby required to divide the Effects so assigned among themselves and all the Persons for whom they shall be intrusted, in Proportion to their respective Debts; but in case the Person or Persons at whose Suit such Prisoner was charged in Execution or any of them, shall not be satisfied with the Truth of such Oath, but shall desire further Time to inform himself of the Matters contained therein; the said Court may and shall remand the said Prisoner, and direct the said Prisoner and the Person or Persons dissatisfied with such Oath, to appear at another Day to be appointed by the said Court, sometime within the first Week of the Term next following the Time of such Examination; and if at such second Day, so to be appointed, the Creditor or Creditors dissatisfied with such Oath shall make Default in appearing, or in case he or they shall appear, but shall be unable to discover any Estate or Effects of the Prisoner omitted in such his or her Petition, or to shew any Probability of his or her having been forsworn in the said Oath; then the said Court shall immediately cause the said Prisoner to be discharged upon such Assignment of his or her Effects in Manner as aforesaid, unless such Creditor or Creditors do insist upon his or her being detained in Prison, and do agree by Writing under his Hand, to pay and allow weekly a Sum not exceeding two Shillings and four Pence per Week unto the said Prisoner, to be paid the first Day of every Week, so long as he or she shall continue in Prison, at his, her or their Suit, on Failure of the Payment of which weekly Sum at any Time, the said Prisoner shall forthwith upon Application to the Court be discharged by such Order as aforesaid; but in case the said Prisoner shall refuse to take the said Oath, or having taken the same shall be detected of Falshity therein, he or she shall be presently remanded.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Persons of the Debtor or Debtors so discharged shall never after be arrested for the same Debt or Debts; but yet notwithstanding such Discharge, the Judgment against him shall stand and remain in Force, and Execution may be taken out thereon against his Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Goods and Chattels (his wearing Apparel, Bedding for himself and Family, and necessary Tools for the Use of his Trade or Occupation, excepted) in the same Manner as if he had never been taken in Execution for the said Debt.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Person, who shall take such Oath as aforesaid, shall, upon any Indictment for Perjury in any Matter or Particular contained in the said Oath, be convicted by his or her own Confession, or by Verdict of twelve Men, as he or she may be by Force of this Act; the Person so convicted shall suffer all the Pains and Forfeitures which may by Law be inflicted on any Person convicted of wilful Perjury, and shall likewise be liable to be taken upon any Process de novo, and charged in Execution for the said Debt, in the same Manner as if he or she had never been discharged or taken in Execution before, and shall never after have the Benefit of this Act.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Effects so assigned shall not extend to satisfy the whole Debts due to the Persons at whose Suit he or she was so charged, and the Fees due to the Gaoler, there shall be an Abatement in Proportion; and such Gaoler shall come in as a Creditor for what shall be then due to him for his Fees, in Proportion with the Creditors at whose Suit he or she was charged in Execution.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where there are mutual Debts between the Plaintiff and Defendant, or if either Party sue or be sued as Executor or Administrator, where there are mutual Debts between the Testator or Intestate and either Party, one Debt may be set against the other, and such Matter may be given in Evidence upon the General Issue, or pleaded in Bar, as the Nature of the Case shall require, so as at the Time of his pleading the General Issue, where any such Debt of the Plaintiff, his Testator or Intestate, is intended to be insisted on in Evidence, Notice shall be given of the particular Sum or Debt so intended to be insisted on, and upon what Account it became due, or otherwise such Matter shall not be allowed in Evidence upon such General Issue.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in force for five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

XV. Provided always, That this Act or any thing therein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, Serjeant at Mace, or other Officer or Minister aforesaid, offending against this Act, shall (over and above such Penalties or Punishments as he shall be liable unto by the Laws now in Force) for every Offence against this present Act, forfeit and pay to the Party thereby aggrieved the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered, with treble Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance, shall be allowed.

of his Majesty's Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, or in any of the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or in any other Court of Record in that Part of Great Britain called England, wherein Attornies have been accustomedly admitted and sworn, unless such Person shall take the Oath herein after directed and appointed to be taken by Attornies, and shall also be admitted and inrolled on or before the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, in such of the said Courts where he shall act as an Attorney, or shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled in the said respective Courts after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, in such Manner as is herein after directed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judges of the said Courts respectively, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, before they shall admit such Person to take the said Oath, to examine and inquire, by such Ways and Means as they shall think proper, touching his Fitness and Capacity to act as an Attorney; and if such Judge or Judges respectively shall be thereby satisfied, that such Person is duly qualified to be admitted to act as an Attorney, then, and not otherwise, the said Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively shall, and they are hereby authorized to administer to such Person the Oath herein after directed to be taken by Attornies, and, after such Oath taken, to cause him to be admitted an Attorney of such Court respectively, and his Name to be inrolled as an Attorney of such Court respectively, without any Fee or Reward, other than one Shilling for administering such Oath; which Admission shall be written on Parchment in the English Tongue, in a common legible Hand, and signed by such Judge or Judges respectively, whereon the lawful Stamp shall be first impressed, and shall be delivered to such Person so admitted.

Judges to examine into his Capacity, before Admission.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person from and after the first Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty shall be permitted to act as a Solicitor, or to sue out any Writ or Process, or to commence, carry on, solicit or defend any Suit, or any Proceedings, in the Name of any other Person, in any Court of Equity, either in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, Court of Equity in the Exchequer Chamber, Court of the Dutchy Chamber of Lancaster at Westminster, or Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster or Durham, or of the Great Sessions in Wales, or in any other inferior Court of Equity in that Part of Great Britain called England, unless such Person shall take the Oath herein after directed and appointed to be taken by Solicitors in Courts of Equity, and shall also be admitted and inrolled on or before the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, in such of the said Courts of Equity, where he shall act as a Solicitor, or shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled after the said first Day of December, in such Manner as is herein after directed.

None to be permitted to act as a Solicitor, unless he take the Oath, and be inrolled.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of the Rolls, or two of the Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being respectively, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, before he or they shall admit any Person to take the said Oath, to examine and inquire, by such Ways and Means as he or they shall think proper, touching his Fitness and Capacity to act as a Solicitor in such Courts of Equity respectively; and if the said Master of the Rolls, or two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, or the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being, or any one or more of them respectively, shall be thereby satisfied, that such Person is duly qualified to be admitted to act as a Solicitor in such Court of Equity, then, and not otherwise, the said Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being respectively, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized to administer to such Person the Oath herein after directed to be taken by Solicitors, and, after such Oath taken, to cause him to be admitted a Solicitor in such Court of Equity, and his Name to be inrolled as a Solicitor in such Court, without any Fee or Reward, other than one Shilling for administering such Oath, which Admission shall be written on Parchment in English, and in a common legible Hand, and signed by the Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity respectively, or such of them who shall admit such Person to be a Solicitor, whereon a treble forty Shillings Stamp shall be first impressed, and shall be delivered to the Person so admitted.

Court of Equity to examine Solicitors.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, no Person, who shall not before the said first Day of December have been sworn, admitted and inrolled, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall be permitted to act as an Attorney, or to sue out any Writ or Process, or to commence, carry on or defend any Action or Actions, or any Proceedings, either before or after Judgment obtained, in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons, in any of the Courts of Law aforesaid, unless such Person shall have been bound, by Contract in Writing, to serve as a Clerk for and during the Space of five Years, to an Attorney duly and legally sworn and admitted, as herein before is directed, in some or one of the Courts herein before mentioned; and that such Person, for and during the said Term of five Years, shall have continued in such Service; and also unless such Person, after the Expiration of the said Term of five Years, shall be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled, in the same Manner as the Persons, who shall be admitted Attornies of the said Courts, are herein before required to be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled.

After 1 Decem. 1730. none to act as an Attorney unless he has served a Clerkship, and been admitted.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judges of the said Courts respectively, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, before they shall admit such Person to take the said Oath, to examine and inquire, by such Ways and Means as they shall think proper, touching his Fitness and Capacity to act as an Attorney; and if such Judge or Judges respectively shall be thereby satisfied, that such Person is duly qualified to be admitted to act as an Attorney, then, and not otherwise, Judges before they admit them to take the Oath, to examine their Fitness.

otherwise, the said Judge or Judges of the said Courts respectively shall, and they are hereby authorized to administer in open Court, to such Person, the Oath herein after directed to be taken by Attornies, and, after such Oath taken, to cause him to be admitted an Attorney in such Court, and his Name to be inrolled as an Attorney in such Court, without any Fee or Reward, other than one Shilling for administering such Oath, which Admission shall be written on Parchment in the English Tongue, in a common legible Hand, and signed by such Judge or Judges respectively, whereon the lawful Stamps shall be first impressed, and shall be delivered to the Person so admitted.

After 1 Decem.
1730. none to act as a Solicitor before he has served a Clerkship, and been duly admitted.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, no Person, who shall not, before the said first Day of December, have been sworn, admitted and inrolled, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall be permitted to act as a Solicitor, to sue out any Writ or Process, or to commence, carry on, solicit or defend, any Suit or Proceedings in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons, in any of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, unless such Person shall have been bound, by Contract in Writing, to serve as a Clerk for and during the Space of five Years, to a Solicitor duly and legally sworn and admitted, as herein before is directed, in some or one of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, and for and during the said Term of five Years shall have continued in such Service; and also unless such Person, after the Expiration of the said Term of five Years, shall be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled, in the same Manner, as Persons who shall be admitted Solicitors in the Courts of Equity aforesaid, are herein before required to be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled.

Judges of the Courts of Equity to examine Solicitors.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being respectively, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, before he or they shall admit such Person to take the said Oath, to examine and inquire by such Ways and Means as he or they shall think proper touching his Fitness and Capacity to act as a Solicitor in Courts of Equity; and if the Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and such Judge or Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being respectively, shall be thereby satisfied, that such Person is duly qualified to be admitted to act as a Solicitor in such Court of Equity, then, and not otherwise, the said Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and the said Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being respectively, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized to administer in open Court, to such Person, the Oath herein after directed to be taken by Solicitors, and, after such Oath taken, to cause him to be admitted a Solicitor in such Court of Equity, and his Name to be inrolled as a Solicitor in such Court, without any Fee or Reward, other than one Shilling for administering such Oath; which Admission shall be written on Parchment in the English Tongue, and in a common legible Hand, and signed by the Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity respectively, or such of them who shall admit such Person to be a Solicitor, whereon a treble forty Shillings Stamp shall be first impressed, and shall be delivered to the Person so admitted.

Not to exclude Persons from being admitted,
who have before 25 March 1729,
been bound for four Years.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act, or any thing herein before expressed and contained, shall not be taken or construed to exclude any Person from being sworn, admitted and inrolled to be an Attorney in any of the Courts of Law aforesaid, who hath on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, been bound by Contract in Writing to serve as a Clerk to any Attorney, or Person practising as such, in some or one of the Courts of Law aforesaid, for any Term not less than four Years; or from being sworn, admitted and inrolled, to be a Solicitor in any of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, who hath, on or before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, been bound, by Contract in Writing, to serve as a Clerk to any Person practising as a Solicitor in any of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, for any Term not less than four Years, so as such Writing, in case any Sum of Money hath been paid or given for or in respect of such Clerkship, hath the legal Stamp thereon impressed, and shall be registered in the Stamp-Office on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty; but that any Person having been bound to serve as a Clerk to any Attorney, or Person practising as such, and having served as aforesaid, may, after the Expiration of the said Term of four Years, be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled, to be an Attorney of any of the Courts of Law aforesaid, and any Person, having been bound to serve as a Clerk to any Person practising as a Solicitor, and having served as aforesaid, may, after the Expiration of the said Term of four Years, be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled, to be a Solicitor in any of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, for the same Fee, and in the same Manner, as the Persons who shall be admitted Attornies or Solicitors, are herein before required to be examined, sworn, admitted and inrolled respectively; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Attornies or So-licitors, with Consent of an Attorney of another Court, may sue out Writs, &c. in such Court.

X. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That it may be lawful, from and after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, for any Person, who shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled, to be an Attorney in any of the said Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, Exchequer, Courts of Great Sessions, Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or who shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled, to be a Solicitor in the said Court of Chancery, Court of Equity in the Exchequer Chamber, Court of the Duchy Chamber of Lancaster at Westminster, Courts of Equity of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, and of the Great Sessions in Wales, or any of them, as herein before is directed, by and with the Consent and Permission of any Attorney in any of the said other Courts of Record at Westminster, Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, Courts of Exchequer at Chester, and Courts of the Great Sessions in Wales, such

Consent being in Writing signed by such Attorney, and in the Name of such Attorney to sue out any Writ or Process, or to commence, carry on, prosecute or defend any Action or Actions, or any other Proceedings in such Court, notwithstanding such Person is not sworn, or admitted to be an Attorney of such Court; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. Provided likewise, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend either to require or authorize any Judge or Judges of any Court of Record to swear, admit or enroll, any more or greater Number of Persons to be Attornies of such Court, than by the antient Usage and Custom of such Court hath been heretofore allowed.

Judges not to swear a greater Number of Attornies than formerly allowed.

XII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Attorney or Solicitor, with and to whom any Person hath been or shall be bound by Contract in Writing as aforesaid, to serve as a Clerk for the Term of five Years, or four Years, respectively, shall happen to die before the Expiration of the said five Years, or four Years, or if such Contract shall, by mutual Consent of the Parties, be vacated, or in case such Clerk be legally discharged by any Rule or Order of the Court, wherein such Attorney or Solicitor shall practise, before the Expiration of the said five Years, or four Years, then, and in any of the said Cases, if such Clerk shall by Contract in Writing be obliged to serve, and shall accordingly serve as a Clerk to any other Attorney or Solicitor respectively, who shall be sworn, admitted and enrolled, as before directed, during the Residue of the said Term of five Years, or four Years, respectively, then such Service shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual, as if such Clerk had continued to serve as a Clerk for the Term of five Years, or four Years, to the same Person, to whom he was originally bound by Contract in Writing as aforesaid.

Clerks on Deaths of their Masters, &c. may be turned over.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall, pursuant to this Act, be admitted and enrolled to be an Attorney in the said Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, Exchequer, Great Sessions in Wales, Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or any Inferior Courts of Record, wherein Attornies have been accustomedly admitted and sworn, shall, before he is admitted and enrolled as aforesaid, take and subscribe the Oath following, instead of the Oath heretofore usually taken by the Attornies of such Courts respectively.

Attornies before Admission to take the following Oath.

I A. B. do swear, That I will truly and honestly demean my self in the Practice of an Attorney, according to the best of my Knowledge and Ability.

So help me God.

XIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall, pursuant to this Act, be admitted and enrolled to be a Solicitor in the said High Court of Chancery, or in any of the other Courts of Equity aforesaid, shall, before he shall be so admitted and enrolled, take and subscribe the Oath following; viz.

Solicitors to take the Oath following.

I A. B. do swear, That I will truly and honestly demean my self in the Practice of a Solicitor, according to the best of my Knowledge and Ability.

So help me God.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, no Attorney or Solicitor shall have more than two Clerks at one and the same Time, who shall become bound by Contract in Writing as aforesaid, after the said first Day of July, to serve him as Clerks.

No Attorney to have more than two Clerks at one time.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the several Prothonotaries of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, and the Secondary of the Court of King's Bench, and the several Prothonotaries of the respective Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, and the respective Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, to have three Clerks at one and the same Time, and no more; and that such respective Clerks, having served a Clerkship to any of the said Prothonotaries, or Secondary, for any Term not less than five Years, may, after the Expiration of such Term of five Years, be examined, admitted and enrolled, to be an Attorney of any of the Courts of Law aforesaid, and for the same Fee, and in the same Manner, as any other Person may be admitted and enrolled, who shall serve a Clerkship to any sworn Attorney for the Space of five Years, in case the Judge or Judges of the Court, before whom such Clerk shall be examined, be upon such Examination satisfied, that he is duly qualified to be admitted an Attorney of such Court; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prothonotaries of Com. Pleas, &c. to have three Clerks.

XVII. And it is hereby also further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, if any Person, who shall be a sworn Attorney of any of the Courts of Law aforesaid, shall knowingly and willingly permit or suffer any other Person or Persons to sue out any Writ or Process, or to commence, prosecute, follow or defend any Action or Actions or other Proceedings in his Name, not being a sworn Attorney of one of the said other Courts of Law, or a sworn Solicitor of the said Court of Chancery, or of some or one of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted, every Person so convicted shall, from the Time of such Conviction, be disabled and made incapable to act as an Attorney in any of the Courts of Law aforesaid, and the Admittance of such Person to be an Attorney of any of the said Courts of Law shall from thenceforth cease and be void.

After 1 Decem. 1730. sworn Attornies permitting others to issue out Writs, &c. disabled from practice.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine the Chief Clerk of the Court of King's Bench or his Deputy, the Clerk of the Warrants in the Court of Common Pleas or his Deputy, the Prothonotaries of the said respective Counties Palatine of Lancaster, Chester and Durham, and of the great Sessions in Wales, or their respective Deputies, and such Officers of the said inferior Courts of Law, as the Judge or Judges of the said inferior Courts respectively shall for that Purpose appoint, shall and they are hereby respectively required from Time to Time, without Fee or Reward, to inroll the Name of every Person who shall be admitted an Attorney in the said respective Courts of Law, pursuant to the Directions in this Act, and the Time when admitted, in an Alphabetical Order, in Rolls or Books to be provided and kept for that Purpose in the said several and respective Offices; and also that the senior Clerk of the Petty-Bag Office in the Court of Chancery or his Deputy, the King's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer or his Deputy, the Chief Clerk of the Court of the Dutchy Chamber of Lancaster or his Deputy, the Registers of the respective Courts of Equity in the said Counties Palatine, and of the great Sessions of Wales, or their respective Deputies, and such Officers of the inferior Courts of Equity, as the Judge or Judges of such inferior Courts respectively shall for that Purpose appoint, shall and they are hereby respectively required from Time to Time, without Fee or Reward, to inroll the Name of every Person who shall be admitted a Solicitor in the said respective Courts of Equity, pursuant to the Directions in this Act, and the Time when admitted, in an Alphabetical Order, in Rolls or Books to be kept for that Purpose in the said respective Offices in the said Courts of Equity; to which Rolls or Books in the said Courts of Law and Equity respectively all Persons shall and may have free Access without Fee or Reward.

After 1 June 1729. Attornies and Solicitors to be enrolled in the proper Courts.

Attornies to be admitted without Stamp, if sworn before 1 June 1729.

XIX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That the Admission of any Attorney in any of the Courts aforesaid, pursuant to the Directions in this Act, shall and may be written on Parchment without any Stamp impressed thereupon, in case he hath at any Time, on or before the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, been sworn and admitted an Attorney of any of the said Courts.

A sworn Attorney may be admitted a Solicitor. 23 Geo. 2. c. 26. Act. 15.

XX. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That from and after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, any Person who shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled to be an Attorney in any of the said Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, Exchequer, Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, and Great Sessions in Wales, as herein before directed, may be sworn, admitted and inrolled to be a Solicitor in all or any of the Courts of Equity aforesaid, without any Fee for the Oath, or any Stamp to be impressed on the Parchment whereon such Admission shall be written, if the Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being, or any of them respectively, shall, upon examining such Attorney touching his Fitness and Capacity to act as a Solicitor in Courts of Equity, be satisfied that such Attorney is duly qualified to be so admitted.

A sworn Solicitor in one Court of Equity, may be admitted into any other Court.

XXI. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That from and after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, any Person who shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled to be a Solicitor in any of the said Courts of Chancery, Exchequer, Dutchy of Lancaster, Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, and Great Sessions in Wales, as herein before directed shall and may be sworn, admitted and inrolled to be a Solicitor in all or any of the said other Courts of Equity, or in any inferior Court of Equity, without any Fee for the Oath, or any Stamps to be impressed on the Parchment whereon such Admission shall be written, in case the Master of the Rolls, two Masters of the Chancery, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, the Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and the Judges of the said other Courts of Equity for the Time being, or any of them respectively, shall, upon examining such Person touching his Fitness and Capacity to act as a Solicitor in Courts of Equity, be satisfied that such Person is duly qualified to be so admitted.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, every Writ and Process for arresting the Body, and every Writ of Execution, or some Label annexed to such Writ or Process, and every Warrant that shall be made out upon any such Writ, Process or Execution, shall, before the Service or Execution thereof, be subscribed or indorsed with the Name of the Attorney, Clerk in Court or Solicitor, written in a common legible Hand, by whom such Writ, Process, Execution or Warrant respectively shall be sued forth; and where such Attorney, Clerk in Court or Solicitor shall not be the Person immediately retained or employed by the Plaintiff in the Action or Suit, then also with the Name of the Attorney or Solicitor so immediately retained or employed, to be subscribed or indorsed and written in like Manner; and that every Copy of any Writ or Process that shall be served upon any Defendant, shall, before the Service thereof, be in like Manner subscribed or indorsed, with the Name of the Attorney or Solicitor, who shall be immediately retained or employed by the Plaintiff in such Writ or Process.

Attornies, &c. not to commence an Action for Fees till one Month after Delivery of their Bills.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, no Attorney or Solicitor of any of the Courts aforesaid, shall commence or maintain any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any Fees, Charges or Disbursements at Law or in Equity, until the Expiration of one Month or more, after such Attorney or Solicitor respectively shall have delivered unto the Party or Parties to be charged therewith, or left for him, her or them, at his, her or their Dwelling-house or last Place of Abode, a Bill of such Fees, Charges and Disbursements, written in a common legible Hand, and in the English Tongue (except Law Terms and Names of Writs) and in Words at length (except Times and Sums) which Bill shall be subscribed with the proper Hand of such Attorney or Solicitor respectively; and upon Application of the Party or Parties chargeable by such Bill, or of any other Person in that Behalf authorized, unto the said Lord High Chancellor, or the Master of the Rolls, or unto any of the Courts aforesaid, or unto a Judge or Baron of any of the said Courts respectively, in which the Business contained in such Bill, or the greatest Part thereof in Amount or Value, shall have been transacted; and upon the Submission of the said Party or Parties, or such other Person authorized as aforesaid to pay the whole Sum, that upon Taxation of the said Bill shall appear to be due to the said Attorney or Solicitor respectively, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Chancellor, the said Master of the Rolls, or for any of the Courts aforesaid, or for any Judge or Baron of any of the said Courts respectively, and they are hereby required to refer the said Bill, and the said Attorney's or Solicitor's Demand thereupon (although no Action or Suit shall be then depending in such Court touching the same) to be taxed and settled Judges, &c. to refer Bills to be taxed, without Money being brought into Court, &c.

bled by the proper Officer of such Court, without any Money being brought into the said Court for that Purpose; and if the said Attorney or Solicitor, or the Party or Parties chargeable by such Bill respectively, having due Notice, shall refuse or neglect to attend such Taxation, the said Officer may proceed to tax the said Bill ex parte (pending which Reference and Taxation no Action shall be commenced or prosecuted touching the said Demand) and, upon the Taxation and Settlement of such Bill and Demand, the said Party or Parties shall forthwith pay to the said Attorney or Solicitor respectively, or to any Person by him authorized to receive the same, that shall be present at the said Taxation, or otherwise unto such other Person or Persons, or in such Manner as the respective Court aforesaid shall direct, the whole Sum that shall be found to be or remain due thereon, which Payment shall be a full Discharge of the said Bill and Demand; and in Default thereof the said Party or Parties shall be liable to an Attachment or Process of Contempt, or to such other Proceedings, at the Election of the said Attorney or Solicitor, as such Party or Parties was or were before liable unto; and if, upon the said Taxation and Settlement, it shall be found that such Attorney or Solicitor shall happen to have been overpaid, then in such Case the said Attorney or Solicitor respectively shall forthwith refund and pay unto the Party or Parties intitled thereunto, or to any Person by him, her or them authorized to receive the same, if present at the settling thereof, or otherwise unto such other Person or Persons, or in such Manner as the respective Court aforesaid shall direct, all such Money as the said Officer shall certify to have been so overpaid; and in Default thereof the said Attorney or Solicitor respectively shall in like Manner be liable to an Attachment or Process of Contempt, or to such other Proceedings, at the Election of the said Party or Parties, as he would have been subject unto, if this Act had not been made; and the said respective Courts are hereby authorized to award the Costs of such Taxations to be paid by the Parties, according to the Event of the Taxation of the Bill (that is to say) if the Bill taxed be less by a sixth Part than the Bill delivered, then the Attorney or Solicitor is to pay the Costs of the Taxation; but if it shall not be less, the Court in their Discretion shall charge the Attorney or Client, in regard to the Reasonableness or Unreasonableness of such Bills.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, in case any Person shall, in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person, sue out any Writ or Process, or commence, prosecute or defend any Action or Suit, or any Proceedings, in any of the Courts of Law or Equity aforesaid, as an Attorney or Solicitor, for or in Expectation of any Gain, Fee or Reward, without being admitted and inrolled as aforesaid, every such Person, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay fifty Pounds to the Use of such Person who shall prosecute him for the said Offence, and is hereby made incapable to maintain or prosecute any Action or Suit in any Court of Law or Equity, for any Fee, Reward or Disbursements on Account of prosecuting, carrying on or defending any such Action, Suit or Proceeding.

Attorney, &c.
in their own Name suing out any Writ, &c.
not inrolled,
forfeit 50l.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by any Person offending against this Act, may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in any of the Courts of Record of and for the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or in any of the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, for Offences committed within the Jurisdictions of such Courts respectively, or at the Assizes or General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace of the County, Riding or Division where such Offence shall be committed, by any Person who shall sue for the same within twelve Months after such Offence committed, together with treble Costs of Suit, wherein no Escoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparance; and that no such Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, nor any Proceedings thereupon shall be removed before Judgment, or stayed by any Writ of Certiorari, Habeas Corpus or other Writ whatsoever.

Forfeitures how to be recovered.

XXVI. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Examination, Swearing, Admission or Inrollment of the six Clerks of the Court of Chancery, or the sworn Clerks in their Office, or the waiting Clerks belonging to the said six Clerks, or the Curators of the said Court, or of the Clerks of the Petty-Bag Office, or of the Clerks of the King's Coroner and Attorney in the Court of King's Bench, or of the Filazers of the same Court, or of the Filazers of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, or of the Attornies of the Court of the Dutchy Chamber of Lancaster, or of the Attornies of the Court of Exchequer at Chester, or of the Attornies of the Courts of the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of London respectively for the Time being; but that the said Clerks, Filazers and Attornies respectively, shall and may be examined, sworn, admitted, inrolled and practise in their respective Courts and Offices aforesaid, in like Manner as they might have been or done before the making of this Act.

To what Clerks,
&c. the Act doth not extend.

XXVII. Provided also, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Examination, Swearing, Admission or Inrollment of the Attornies or Clerks of the Offices of the King's Remembrancer, Treasurer's Remembrancer, Pipe, or Office of Pleas in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster for the Time being; but that the said Attornies and Clerks of the said respective Offices shall and may be approved, sworn, admitted and practise in the said Court of Exchequer, or may practise in any other of the Courts of Record before mentioned, in the Name and with the Consent of some sworn Attorney of such Court, such Consent to be in Writing; and signed by such Attorney as aforesaid, in like Manner as they have usually been, and might have done, before the making of this Act, any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and that it shall and may be lawful from and after the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, for any Person who shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled an Attorney or Solicitor in any of the several Courts before mentioned, according to the Direction of this Act, to practise and solicit in the said respective Offices, in the same Manner as heretofore has been done; any Thing herein before contained, or any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Attornies and Clerks in the Exchequer, herein mentioned,
may act as heretofore,

XXVIII. Provided

as also the Solicitors of the Treasury, &c.

Continuation of the Act.

XXVIII. Provided also, That this Act or any Thing herein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to the Examination, Swearing, Admission or Inrollment of Persons to be Solicitors of the Treasury, Customs, Excise, Post-Office, Salt or Stamp Duties, or of any other Branches of his Majesty's Revenue for the Time being, or of the Solicitor of the City of London for the Time being, or of the Assistant to the Council for the Affairs of the Admiralty and Navy; but that such Solicitors and Assistant may be examined, sworn, admitted and practise, in their respective Offices only, as they might have done before the making this Act.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in Force from the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine for the Term of nine Years, and from thence unto the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer. Continued by 12 Geo. 2. c. 13. and amended and continued by 22 Geo. 2. c. 46. until 1 June 1757, and to the End of the next Session.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act for the more effectual preventing Bribery and Corruption in the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament.

Extended to Elections of Delegates in Scotland by
16 Geo. 2. c. 11.

Electioners of Parliament Men to take the following Oath, if demanded.

WHEREAS it is found by Experience, that the Laws already in Being have not been sufficient to prevent corrupt and illegal Practices in the Election of Members to serve in Parliament; for Remedy therefore of so great an Evil, and to the End that all Elections of Members to Parliament may hereafter be freely and indifferently made, without Charge or Expence, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, upon every Election of any Member or Members to serve for the Commons in Parliament, every Freeholder, Citizen, Freeman, Burgess or Person having or claiming to have a Right to vote or be polled at such Election, shall, before he is admitted to poll at the same Election, take the following Oath (or, being one of the People called Quakers, shall make the solemn Affirmation appointed for Quakers) in case the same shall be demanded by either of the Candidates, or any two of the Electioners; that is to say, Electioners Oath.

I A. B. do swear (or, being one of the People called Quakers, I A. B. do solemnly affirm) I have not received, or had by my Self, or any Person whatsoever in Trust for me, or for my Use and Benefit, directly or indirectly, any Sum or Sums of Money, Office, Place or Employment, Gift or Reward, or any Promise or Security for any Money, Office, Employment or Gift, in order to give my Vote at this Election, and that I have not before been polled at this Election.

Presiding Officer to administer it, on Forfeiture of 50 l.

Which Oath or Affirmation the Officer or Officers presiding or taking the Poll at such Election, is and are hereby impowered and required to administer gratis, if demanded, as aforesaid, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to any Person that shall sue for the same, to be recovered, together with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance, shall be admitted or allowed; and if the said Offence shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, then to be recovered, together with full Costs of Suit, by summary Action or Complaint before the Court of Session, or by Prosecution before the Court of Justiciary there, for every Neglect or Refusal so to do; and no Person shall be admitted to poll, till he has taken and repeated the said Oath in a publick Manner, in case the same shall be demanded as aforesaid, before the returning Officer, or such others as shall be legally deputed by him.

Sheriff or other returning Officer admitting any to be polled, before sworn, to forfeit
100 l.

Voters to incur
the like Penalty.

Returning Officer, after reading the Writ, to take the following Oath.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff or other returning Officer, shall admit any Person to be polled without taking such Oath or Affirmation, if demanded as aforesaid, such returning Officer shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered in Manner aforesaid, together with full Costs of Suit; and that if any Person shall vote or poll at such Election without having first taken the Oath, or, if a Quaker, having made his Affirmation as aforesaid, if demanded, such Person shall incur the same Penalty, which the Officer is subject to for the Offence above mentioned.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Headborough or other Person, being the returning Officer of any Member to serve in Parliament, shall, immediately after the reading the Writ or Precept for the Election of such Member, take and subscribe the following Oath, videlicet,

I A. B. do solemnly swear, That I have not, directly nor indirectly, received any Sum or Sums of Money, Office, Place or Employment, Gratuity or Reward, or any Bond, Bill or Note, or any Promise or Gratuity whatsoever, either by my Self, or any other Person to my Use, or Benefit or Advantage, for making any Return at the present Election of Members to serve in Parliament; and that I will return such Person or Persons as shall, to the best of my Judgment, appear to me to have the Majority of legal Votes.

Which Oath any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the said County, City, Corporation or Borough where such Election shall be made, or, in his or their Absence, any three of the Electioners are hereby required and authorized to administer; and such Oath, so taken, shall be entered among the Records of the Sessions of such County, City, Corporation and Borough as aforesaid.

What Votes shall be deemed legal.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Votes shall be deemed to be legal, which have been so declared by the last Determination in the House of Commons; which last Determination concerning any County, Shire, City, Borough, Cinque Port or Place

Place shall be final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any returning Officer, Elector or Person taking the Oath or Affirmation herein before mentioned, shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or of false affirming, and be thereof convicted by due Course of Law, shall incur and suffer the Pains and Penalties, which by Law are enacted or insisted in Cases of wilful and corrupt Perjury. Penalty of wilful Perjury.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or Subornation of Perjury, shall, after such Conviction, be capable of voting in any Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament. Persons convicted never capable to vote.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person who hath, or claimeth to have, or hereafter shall have, or claim to have any Right to vote in any such Election, shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, ask, receive or take any Money or other Reward, by way of Gift, Loan or other Device, or agree or contract for any Money, Gift, Office, Employment or other Reward whatsoever, to give his Vote, or to refuse or forbear to give his Vote in any such Election, or if any Person by himself, or any Person employed by him, doth or shall, by any Gift or Reward, or by any Promise, Agreement or Security for any Gift or Reward, corrupt or procure any Person or Persons to give his or their Vote or Votes, or to forbear to give his or their Vote or Votes in any such Election, such Person so offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be recovered as before directed, together with full Costs of Suit; and every Person offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, from and after Judgment obtained against him in any such Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, or summary Action or Prosecution, or being any otherwise lawfully convicted thereof, shall for ever be disabled to vote in any Election of any Member or Members to Parliament, and also shall for ever be disabled to hold, exercise or enjoy any Office or Franchise to which he and they then shall or at any Time afterwards may be entitled, as a Member of any City, Borough, Town Corporate or Cinque Port, as if such Person was naturally dead. Persons taking Money or Reward for their Vote, &c. forfeit 500 l. and disabled to vote, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person offending against this Act shall, within the Space of twelve Months next after such Election as aforesaid, discover any other Person or Persons offending against this Act, so that such Person or Persons so discovered be thereupon convicted, such Person so discovering, and not having been before that Time convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall be indemnified, and discharged from all Penalties and Disabilities which he shall then have incurred by any Offence against this Act. Offenders in 12 Months after the Election discovering others, indemnified.

IX. And for the more effectual Observance of this Act, be it enacted, That all and every the Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs and other Officers, to whom the Execution of any Writ or Precept for electing any Member or Members to serve in Parliament shall belong or appertain, shall and are hereby required, at the Time of such Election, immediately after the reading of such Writ or Precept, read or cause to be read openly before the Electors there assembled, this present Act, and every Clause therein contained; and the same shall also openly be read once in every Year at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden next after Easter, for any County or City, and at every Election of the Chief Magistrate in any Borough, Town Corporate or Cinque Port, and at the annual Election of Magistrates and Town Counsellors for every Borough within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. The Act to be read by the Sheriff, &c. after reading the Writ, and at the Quarter-Sessions after Easter.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff and other Officer, to whom the Execution of any Writ or Precept for the electing of Members to serve in Parliament doth belong, for every wilful Offence, contrary to this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered, together with full Costs of Suit, in the Manner before directed. Wilful Offence forfeits 50 l.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall be made liable to any Incapacity, Disability, Forfeiture or Penalty by this Act laid or imposed, unless Prosecution be commenced within two Years after such Incapacity, Disability, Forfeiture or Penalty shall be incurred, or in case of a Prosecution the same be carried on without wilful Delay; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Prosecution to commence within two Years.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for the more effectual preventing and further Punishment of Forgery, Perjury and Subornation of Perjury; and to make it Felony to steal Bonds, Notes or other Securities for Payment of Money.

WHEREAS the wicked, pernicious and abominable Crimes of Forgery, Perjury and Subornation of Perjury, have of late Time been so much practised, to the Subversion of common Truth and Justice, and Prejudice of Trade and Credit, that it is necessary, for the more effectual preventing of such enormous Offences, to inflict a more exemplary Punishment on such Offenders, than by the Laws of this Realm can now be done; be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person from and after the twenty-ninth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine shall falsly make, forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsly made, forged or counterfeited, or willingly aid or assist in the falsly making, forging or counterfeiting any Deed, Will, Testament, Bond, Writing obligatory, Bill of Exchange, promissory Note for Payment of Money, Indorsement or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange, or promissory Note for Payment of Money, or any Acquittance or Receipt, either for Money or Goods, with Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever, or shall utter or publish as true, any false, forged or counterfeited Deed, Will, Testament, Bond, Writing obligatory, Bill of Exchange, promissory Note for Payment of Money, Indorsement or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange or promissory Note for Payment of Money, Acquittance or Receipt, either for for Money or Goods, with Intention to defraud any Person, knowing the same to be false, forged or counterfeited, then every such Person, being thereof lawfully convicted according to the due Course of Law, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

To forge any Deed, &c. Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Penalty for Perjury and Subornation.

II. And the more effectually to deter Persons from committing wilful and corrupt Perjury, or Subornation of Perjury, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That besides the Punishment already to be inflicted by Law for so great Crimes, it shall and may be lawful for the Court or Judge, before whom any Person shall be convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or Subornation of Perjury, according to the Laws now in Being, to order such Person to be sent to some House of Correction within the same County, for a Time not exceeding seven Years, there to be kept to hard Labour during all the said Time, or otherwise to be transported to some of his Majesty's Plantations beyond the Seas, for a Term not exceeding seven Years, as the Court shall think most proper; and thereupon Judgment shall be given, that the Person convicted shall be committed or transported accordingly, over and beside such Punishment as shall be adjudged to be inflicted on such Person, agreeable to the Laws now in Being; and if Transportation be directed, the same shall be executed in such Manner as is or shall be provided by Law for the Transportation of Felons; and if any Person so committed or transported shall voluntarily escape or break Prison, or return from Transportation before the Expiration of the Time for which he shall be ordered to be transported as aforesaid, such Person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy, and shall be tried for such Felony in the County where he so escaped, or where he shall be apprehended.

To steal Orders,
Tallies, &c.
Felony.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, after the said twenty-ninth Day of June shall steal or take by Robbery any Exchequer Orders or Tallies, or other Orders, intitling any other Person or Persons to any Annuity or Share in any parliamentary Fund, or any Exchequer Bills, Bank Notes, South-Sea Bonds, East-India Bonds, Dividend Warrants of the Bank, South-Sea Company, East-India Company or any other Company, Society or Corporation, Bills of Exchange, Navy Bills or Debentures, Goldsmiths Notes for Payment of Money, or other Bonds or Warrants, Bills or Promissory Notes for the Payment of any Money, being the Property of any other Person or Persons, or of any Corporation, notwithstanding any of the said Particulars are termed in Law a Chose in Action, it shall be deemed and construed to be Felony, of the same Nature and in the same Degree, and with or without the Benefit of Clergy, in the same Manner as it would have been, if the Offender had stolen or taken by Robbery, any other Goods of like Value with the Money due on such Orders, Tallies, Bills, Bonds, Warrants, Debentures or Notes, or secured thereby, and remaining unsatisfied, and such Offender shall suffer such Punishment as he or she should or might have done, if he or she had stolen other Goods of the like Value with the Monies due on such Orders, Tallies, Bonds, Bills, Warrants, Debentures or Notes respectively, or secured thereby, and remaining unsatisfied; any Law to the contrary thereof in any wise used notwithstanding.

Not to extend to Scotland.

IV. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Attainder not to corrupt Blood.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Attainder for any Offence hereby made Felony, shall make or work any Corruption of Blood, Loss of Dower, or Disinheritance of Heirs.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be of Force for the Space of five Years, to be reckoned from the said twenty-ninth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act for making more effectual several Acts passed relating to Watermen, Wherry-men and Lightermen, rowing on the River Thames, and for better ordering and governing such Watermen, Wherry-men and Lightermen.

No Waterman on the River Thames may take an Apprentice, unless he be an Housekeeper, or have some known
Place of Abode,

WHEREAS several Laws and Statutes have been heretofore made for the better regulating and governing all Persons free of the Watermens Company, owning, rowing or working Boats or other Craft upon the River Thames, between Gravesend in the County of Kent, and Windsor in the County of Berks; but the said Laws have by Experience been found to be ineffectual to answer the good Ends and Purposes thereof; and it is necessary to make further Provision in the Premises, and to provide against the Mischiefs which happen by intrusting Apprentices too weak, unable, and unskilful in the Work, with the Care of Goods, and the Lives of Passengers on the said River; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, it shall not be lawful for any Person whatsoever, who now or hereafter shall keep, use, hire or work any Wherry Boat, Tilt Boat, Barge or other Vessel for carrying Passengers or Goods for Hire, upon the River Thames, between Gravesend and Windsor aforesaid, to bind, receive, take or employ any Apprentice or Apprentices, Servant or Servants, unless he shall be a House-keeper, or have some known Habitation, Lodging or Place of Abode, where he may receive and entertain such Apprentice or Apprentices, Servant or Servants, and shall from Time to Time register with the Clerk of the said Company for the Time being, the Habitation, Lodging or Place of Abode, where he shall then reside, or whereto he shall afterwards remove, upon Pain that every Master or Person binding, receiving, taking, retaining or employing any Apprentice or Servant contrary to this Act, and being thereof convicted before the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, or before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the Time being, for the said City, or for the County or Place where the Offenders shall be found, by the Oaths of two or more credible Witnesses, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be levied by Distress and

and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of Hands and Seals of such Lord Mayor, Justice or Justices of the Peace as aforesaid; and for want of sufficient Distress such Offender shall, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of Hands and Seals of such Lord Mayor, Justice or Justices of the Peace, be committed to the next common or publick Workhouse or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, and to be kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding one Month, nor less than fourteen Days; and the Clerk of the said Company for the Time being is hereby required, upon any Application made to him, to register the Habitation, Lodging and Place of Abode of every such Waterman, Wherryman or Lighterman, and every such Removal as aforesaid, of any or either of them, in some Book of the said Company, to be kept for that Purpose, without Fee or Reward; and, in case such Clerk shall neglect or refuse so to do, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be levied, recovered and applied as any other Penalty is to be levied, recovered and applied by this Act; and if any such Waterman, Wherryman or Lighterman shall neglect or refuse to register his Habitation, Lodging or Place of Abode, and every such Removal thereof as aforesaid, every such Apprentice or Apprentices bound to any such Waterman, Wherryman or Lighterman, shall and may, upon Application made to the Rulers and Overseers of the said Company, or the major Part of them, at any of their publick Courts or Assemblies, be by them turned over to any other Master or Mistress; any Indenture, Covenant, Contract or Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding.

or Imprisonment.
Clerk of the Company to register the Watermen's Habitations, on Penalty of 10 l.

Apprentices may be turned over to other Masters, on Neglect of registering.

II. And for the Security of the Lives of Passengers, and Safety of Goods passing on the said River, between the Limits aforesaid, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, it shall not be lawful for any Apprentice to have or take upon him the sole Care and Management of any Boat or other Vessel upon the said River, within the Limits aforesaid, until such Apprentice shall have attained the full Age of sixteen Years, if he be the Son of a Waterman, and the Age of seventeen Years, being the Son of a Landman, and unless such Apprentice shall have worked and rowed upon the said River with some able and skilful Waterman, Wherryman or Lighterman for the Space of two Years at the least, before his attaining of the said respective Ages; and in case any such Apprentice, under the Years aforesaid, shall offend or act contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall be convicted thereof in Manner as aforesaid, then and in such Case the Master or Mistress of such Apprentice offending as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of ten Shillings, to be levied, recovered, paid and applied to and for such Uses and Purposes, and in such Manner as any other Penalty or Forfeiture in and by this Act is to be levied, recovered and applied.

Apprentice not to be entrusted with the sole Care of a Boat till 16 Years of Age, if a Waterman's Son, and 17 if the Son of a Landman.

Penalty 10s. on the Master.

III. And whereas, pursuant to the Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, the Rulers, Auditors and Assistants of the Society and Company of Watermen, Wherryman and Lightermen, upon the said River, between Gravesend and Windsor aforesaid, have, for the better and more effectual keeping and maintaining good Order and Obedience amongst the said Society and Company, made and ordained several good Rules, Orders and Constitutions, with reasonable Penalties for Breach thereof, which being approved by the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the Time being, and afterwards confirmed by the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench for the Time being, are and ought to be observed and put in Execution, but the same are in a great Measure ineffectual for want of sufficient Distress to answer the said Penalties, by Means whereof the most notorious Offenders often escape unpunished, and the Offences are repeated to the great Injury of his Majesty's Subjects: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where sufficient Distress cannot be found to pay and satisfy the Penalties inflicted, or to be inflicted, by any such Rules, Orders or Constitutions, so made or to be made, approved and confirmed as aforesaid, Oath being made of such want of Distress before the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or before any Justice of the Peace for the County, City or Place where the Offender shall be found, it shall be lawful to and for such Lord Mayor or Justice of the Peace, and they are hereby required to commit such Offender to the publick Workhouse or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding one Month, nor less than fourteen Days, such Offender being convicted according to this Act or the Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made touching Watermen and Wherryman rowing on the River of Thames, and for the better ordering and governing the said Watermen, Wherryman and Lightermen upon the said River, between Gravesend and Windsor.

Where no Distress can be found, Offender to be sent to the House of Correction.

11 & 12 W. 3. c. 21.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, not having served for the Space of seven Years to any Waterman, Wherryman or Lighterman (except Crinymen, Fishermen, Ballastmen and Persons employed in rowing or any ways navigating western Barges, Mill Boats, Chalk Boats, Faggot and Wood Lighters, Dung Boats and Gardeners Boats, in such Manner as has been accustomed, and is allowed and referred by the said Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of King WILLIAM the Third) shall row or cause to be rowed or worked any Boat, Wherry, Lighter or other Vessel or Craft upon the said River, for Hire or Gain, between the Limits aforesaid, at any Time or Times hereafter, that then and in such Case, every such Offender, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, being thereof convicted in such Manner as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be levied and recovered in Manner aforesaid; and for want of sufficient Distress it shall be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, City or Place where the Offence shall be committed, and he and they are hereby required by Warrant or Warrants, under his or their Hand and Seal of Hands and Seals, to commit such Offender to the next common or publick Workhouse or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding one Month, nor less than fourteen Days.

None but Freemen to work any Boat, &c. on Penalty of 10 l. (Exception. Explained and amended by 4 Geo. 2. c. 24.)

or Imprisonment.

V. And whereas by Experience the present Number of Assistants of the said Company are so numerous, as at their Meetings, instead of doing Business, to occasion Confusion and Disturbance, Be it declared and and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Number of Assistants of the said Company, at their future Elections shall be reduced to thirty, but each of them the said Assistants to be elected, named and appointed, as heretofore they have been used severally to be.

VI. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend to the lessening, taking away, abridging, hindring, prejudicing, or otherwise impeaching of any Right belonging to or lawfully claimed by, the late Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox, Lord of the Manor of Gravesend, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, for the holding a certain Court within the said Manor, called Curia Curfus Aquæ, or the Court of the Watercourse, for the better Government of Barges, Boats and Vessels, using the Ferry or Passage from the Town of Gravesend to London, and of the Persons owning or working the same, or of any other Rights, Liberties, Powers and Privileges whatsoever belonging to the said late Duke, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, relating to the said Ferry or Passage, or to the Barges, Tiltboats or other Boats and Vessels using the said Ferry or Passage, or plying at the Bridge of the said Town of Gravesend, or the Persons owning or working the same, or otherwise howsoever.

VII. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend, to the lessening, taking away, hindring, prejudicing or impeaching of any Grants, Liberties, Franchises, Customs, Privileges or Usages, now or heretofore lawfully used, held or enjoyed by the Mayor, Jurats and Capital Inhabitants of the Villages and Parishes of Gravesend and Milton in the County of Kent, touching, concerning or relating to the Passage and Ferry upon the said River of Thames, from the said Villages and Parishes of Gravesend and Milton to the said City of London, or touching or concerning the Government or Subordination of the said Passage and Ferry, but that the said Mayor, Jurats and Inhabitants, and their Successors, shall and may do and execute all and every such lawful Act and Acts, Powers and Authorities touching the said Passage and Ferry, and the Government thereof, as they might or could have done, if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lessees, Owners or Occupiers of any Key or Keys betwixt the Hermitage Bridge and London Bridge, or any or either of them, to use their and every of their Lighters, or large Crafts, as hath been heretofore lawfully accustomed, for the carrying of Goods and Merchandizes to and from their respective Keys and Wharfs, and to and from Ships loading or unloading, and to employ any Person or Persons, being Watermen or Lightermen duly qualified, as in and by the said Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made touching Watermen and Wherryemen rowing on the River of Thames, and for the better ordering and governing the said Watermen, Wherryemen and Lightermen upon the said River, between Gravesend and Windsor, is directed or appointed, to row and work in their respective Lighters, or large Craft, and to do and act any Thing, as heretofore they might lawfully do, from such their respective Keys and Wharfs to any Ships or Vessels as aforesaid; any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures, which shall be incurred or forfeited by Virtue of this Act, shall and may be sued and prosecuted for by the Rulers and Overseers of the said Company, or any two of them for the Time being, in such Manner as is provided for and directed by the said Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made touching Watermen and Wherryemen rowing on the River of Thames, and for the better ordering and governing the said Watermen, Wherryemen and Lightermen upon the said River between Gravesend and Windsor, and when the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be recovered or levied, the same shall be paid to the said Rulers and Overseers of the said Company, or the major Part of them for the Time being, and shall be by them paid and distributed to and for the Use of the Poor of the said Company, in such Manner as the said Rulers and Overseers, or the major Part of them for the Time being, shall think fit; and all Prosecutions for the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be commenced within one Month next after the Offence shall be committed.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Constables and Headboroughs shall be aiding and assisting in the due Execution of this Act; and that in case any Suit or Prosecution shall be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Matter, Cause or Thing done in Pursuance of this Act, or any former Act relating to the Water-Service on the said River, or to the regulating and governing the Company and Persons aforesaid, that in every such Case the Action, Suit or Prosecution shall be brought and commenced within thirty Days next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and such Person or Persons so sued, prosecuted or molested, shall and may from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, plead the General Issue, and give this and any such former Act, and the special Matter, in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by the Authority of the said former Acts, or this present Act; and if the same shall appear so to be done, or that such Action, Suit or Prosecution shall be brought or commenced after the Time before limited for bringing or commencing the same, that then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have and recover treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other Cases by Law; and that this Act shall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be a publick Act, and be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whatsoever, without specially pleading the same.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act to enable her Majesty to be Regent of this Kingdom, during his Majesty's Absence, without taking the Oaths. E X P.

C A P.

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act to revive the Laws therein mentioned, relating to the Importation of foreign Brandy, and other Waters and Spirits; for Importation of Cochineal; to continue several Acts for preventing Frauds in the Customs; for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom; for making Copper Ore of the British Plantations an enumerated Commodity; for making perpetual an Act therein mentioned, for suppressing of Piracy; for enabling Persons prosecuted upon the Capias, in Relation to the running of Goods, to defend in Forma Pauperis; for more effectual debarring of unlawful Games; for licensing Retailers of Brandy, and other distilled Liquors, and for better Regulation of Licenses for common Inns and Alehouses.

WHEREAS the Laws herein after mentioned (which have by Experience been found useful and beneficial) are expired or near expiring; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Clause in an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act against clandestine running of uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing Frauds relating to the Customs, which relates to the Importation of foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Strong Waters or Spirits, in any Ship, Vessel or Boat, under the Burthen of fifteen Tuns, which is expired, shall be and is hereby revived, and shall be in Force for the Purposes therein mentioned, from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Act 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. relating to foreign Brandy, &c. revived from 1 May 1729. to 29 Sept. 1734, &c. Farther continued by 20 Geo. 2. c. 47.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the thirteenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the free Importation of Cochineal, during the Time therein limited, which is expired, shall be and is hereby revived, and shall be in Force for the Purposes therein mentioned, from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, until the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

13 Geo. 1. c. 25. relating to Cochineal revived from 1 May 1729. to 1 May 1730, &c. 20 Geo. 2. c. 47.

III. And whereas several Clauses in an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act against clandestine running of uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing Frauds relating to the Customs, relating to such foreign Goods, Wares and Merchandizes as shall be taken in at Sea, out of any Ship or Vessel, in order to be landed, or put into any other Ship, Vessel or Boat, and also relating to Goods not reported, and found after clearing Ships, and whereby further Remedies are provided against relanding Goods prohibited to be worn in this Kingdom, and foreign Goods shipped out for Parts beyond the Seas; and also relating to the opening or altering the Package of Goods on Board Ships outward bound; and also relating to hovering Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of fifty Tuns or under; and also concerning the Bales or Package in which Coffee shall be exported; and also relating to Rum imported in Casks or Vessels not containing twenty Gallons at the least; and also relating to Certificate Goods entred in order to be exported to Ireland; which said several Clauses were to have Continuance for the Term of three Years, from the several Times of the Commencement thereof, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament respectively (which said several Clauses last mentioned were, by another Act passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, for continuing of some Laws and reviving others therein mentioned, and against clandestine running of uncustomed Goods, and for more effectual preventing Frauds relating to the Customs, and Frauds in mixing Silk with Stuffs to be exported, further continued from the Expiration of the several and respective Terms therein mentioned, for the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament): And whereas the said Clauses are near expiring, but in regard it is necessary that the said Clauses should be further continued, for preventing Frauds in the Revenue, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said last mentioned Clauses in the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, and so continued by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty, shall be in Force and put in Practice, for the Purposes in the said Acts mentioned, from and after the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

5 Geo. 1. c. 11. for preventing Frauds in the Customs, continued till 29 Sept. 1734, &c. 20 Geo. 2. c. 47.

9 Geo. 1. c. 8.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Clauses contained in an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported, and for reducing the Duties on Beaver Skins, Pepper, Mace, Cloves and Nutmegs imported, and for Importation of all Furs of the Product of the British Plantations, into this Kingdom only, and that the two Corporations of Assurance on any Suits brought on their Policies shall be liable only to single Damages, relating to the Encouragement of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for taking off several Duties on Merchandizes exported, which were to continue in Force for three Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and which were by an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, to continue several Acts therein mentioned, for encouraging of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, further continued from the Expiration thereof for three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be and are hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

8 Geo. 1. c. 15. for encouraging Silk Manufactures, continued till 29 Sept. 1734, &c. 26 Geo. 2. c. 32.

11 Geo. 1. c. 29.

V. And be it further enacted, That the two last Clauses, for the more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuses in the said last mentioned Manufactures, contained in an Act made in the ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for continuing some Laws and reviving others, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, shall be of full Force, and shall be put in Execution accordingly, until the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Two last Clauses in 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. continued till 29 Sept. 1734. &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Act made in the eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent the clandestine running of Goods, 8 Geo. 1. c. 1. relating to Copper Ore, continued for three Years, &c.

Farther continued
by 20 Geo. 2.
c. 47.

and the Danger of Infection thereby, and to prevent Ships breaking their Quarentine, and to subject Copper Ore, of the Production of the British Plantations, to such Regulations as other enumerated Commodities of the like Production are subject, which was to be in Force for two Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, which Act (except the Clause obliging all Ships or Vessels to perform Quarentine) was by an Act made in the eleventh Year of his late Majesty's Reign, to continue several Acts therein mentioned, for encouraging of the Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, for the preventing the clandestine running of Goods, for making Copper Ore of the British Plantations an enumerated Commodity, and for explaining and amending a late Act for more effectual Punishment of such who shall wilfully burn and destroy Ships, further continued from the Expiration thereof for the Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be (except so much of the same Act as relates to Ships or Vessels performing Quarentine) and the same is hereby continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

3 Geo. 1. c. 24.
for suppressing Piracy, made perpetual.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Act made in the eighth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual suppressing of Piracy, which was to continue in Force for seven Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and is near expiring, shall be and is hereby made perpetual.

What Persons,
prosecuted by Capias, may defend in Forma Pauperis.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person arrested and imprisoned by Virtue of any Writ of Capias, or Information relating to the Customs, shall make Affidavit before the Judge or Judges of such Court, where such Action or Information shall be brought, or before any other Person commissioned by such Court to take Affidavits, that he is not worth, over and above his wearing Apparel, the Sum of five Pounds (which Affidavit the said Judge or Judges of such Court, and such Person so commissioned, is and are hereby authorized and required to take) and such Person shall thereupon Petition such Court to be admitted to defend himself against such Action or Information in Forma Pauperis, that then the Judges of such Court shall according to their Discretions admit such Person to defend himself against such Action or Information, in the same Manner, and with the same Privileges, as the Judges of such Court are by Law directed and authorized to admit poor Subjects to commence Actions for the Recovery of their Rights; and for that End and Purpose it shall be lawful for the Judges of such Courts to assign Counsel learned in the Law, and to appoint an Attorney and Clerk of such Court to advise and carry on any legal Defence that such Person can make against such Action or Information, which said Counsel, Attorney and Clerk so assigned and appointed, is and are hereby required to give his and their Advice and Assistance to such Person, and to do their Duties without Fee or Reward.

Act 23 Hen. 8.
c. 9. against unlawful Games,
made more effectual.

IX. And whereas a good and profitable Statute was made in the three and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth (among other Things) for the debarring of unlawful Games: And whereas by the said Statute no Power is given unto the Justices of the Peace, to demand and take from Persons found playing contrary to Law, any other Security than their own Recognizances, that they or any of them shall not from thenceforth use such unlawful Games, unless such Persons are so found playing contrary to Law upon the View of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace: For Remedy thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where it shall be proved upon the Oath of two or more credible Witnesses, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, as well as where such Justice or Justices shall find, upon his or their own View, that any Person or Persons have or hath used or exercised any unlawful Game contrary to the said Statute, the said Justice or Justices shall have full Power and Authority to commit all and every such Offender and Offenders to Prison, without Bail or Mainprize, unless and until such Offender and Offenders shall enter into one or more Recognizance or Recognizances, with Sureties or without, at the Discretion of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, that he or they respectively shall not from thenceforth play at or use such unlawful Game.

Retailers of Brandy, &c. to
be licensed.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, sell Brandy or other distilled Liquors, by Retail, to be drank in his, her or their House or Houses, but such Persons only as shall be thereunto licensed and allowed, in the same Manner as common Alehouse Keepers, and every Person or Persons so selling Brandy, or other distilled Liquors by Retail as aforesaid, shall be subject to such Rules, Penalties and Forfeitures, as common Alehouse Keepers now are for selling Drink without Licence; and the several Justices of the Peace of this Kingdom, and other Officers, are hereby impowered and authorized to have and exercise the same Jurisdiction, Powers and Authorities over such Retailers of Brandy and other distilled Liquors, which they now have or exercise over common Alehouse Keepers, by any Law or Statute whatsoever.

No Licence to keep Inns or Alehouses to be granted but at a General Meeting
of the Justices.

XI. And whereas many Inconveniences have arisen from Persons being licensed to keep Inns, and common Alehouses, by Justices of the Peace, who living remote from the Places of Abode of such Persons, may not be truly informed as to the Occasion or Want of such Inns or common Alehouses, or the Characters of the Persons applying for Licences to keep the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, no Licence shall be granted to any Person to keep a common Inn or Alehouse, or to retail any Brandy or Strong Waters, but at a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace, sitting in the Division where the said Person dwells, to be holden for that Purpose, on the first Day of September yearly, or within twenty Days after, or at any other General Meeting of the said Justices, to be holden for the Division wherein the said Person resides; and all Licences which shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, be granted to the contrary hereof, shall be null and void.

Licences already granted to subsist
till 1 Sept. 1730.

XII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to oblige Persons already licensed, to take out new Licences on the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, or within twenty Days after, but that the Licences already granted shall subsist and be valid, until the first of September one thousand and seven hundred and thirty; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; nor shall any Thing herein contained extend to alter the Method or Power of granting Licences for keeping of common Inns, Alehouses or Brandy-shops, in any City or Town Corporate.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act to empower his Majesty to visit the Collegiate Church of Manchester, during such Time as the Wardenship of the said Church is or shall be held in Commendam with the Bishoprick of Chester.

WHEREAS the Collegiate Church of Manchester, by Virtue of a Charter granted by King CHARLES the First, in the eleventh Year of his Reign, was founded and made a Body Corporate, and the Bishop of Chester for the Time being was thereby appointed to be Visitor of the said Collegiate Church: And whereas his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, of Blessed Memory, was graciously pleased to allow the present Bishop of Chester to hold the Wardenship of Manchester in Commendam with that Bishoprick: And whereas the present Bishop of Chester, being Warden of the said Collegiate Church, cannot therefore exercise the Power of a Visitor, and some Doubt having lately arisen, whether the King can visit the said Church, during the Suspension of the present Bishop of Chester's Power: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That during such Time as the Wardenship of Manchester is or shall be held in Commendam with the Bishoprick of Chester, the Power of visiting of the said Collegiate Church of Manchester is and shall be vested in the Crown; and that his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, Kings of Great Britain, have and shall hereby have full Power and Authority to visit the said Collegiate Church, according to the Tenor of the Charter of Foundation of the said Church.

When the Wardenship of Manchester shall be held in Commendam with the Bishoprick of Chester, the King may visit.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this present Act contained shall extend, or in any wise be construed to extend, to destroy any of the Rights or Powers of the Metropolitick See of York, or of the Archbishop of the same for the Time being, in and over the said Collegiate Church of Manchester, and every Member and Officer within the same, but that the said Rights and Powers of the said Metropolitick See of York, and of the Archbishop for the Time being, shall be and remain, in all Times coming, in as full Force and Virtue, as if this present Act had never been made, and that this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Not to destroy the Rights of the See of York.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Dispute or Question shall arise concerning the Election or Admission of any of the present Members or Officers of the said College, by reason of his or their not being elected or admitted within the Time limited by the Charter, the same shall be determinable by the Course of the Common Law, and not otherwise, in such Manner as if no visitatorial Power were in Being.

Disputes concerning Elections determinable by Common Law.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person arrested and imprisoned by Virtue of any Writ of Capias, or Information relating to the Customs, shall make Affidavit before the Judge or Judges of such Court, where such Action or Information shall be brought, or before any other Person commissioned by such Court to take Affidavits, that he is not worth, over and above his wearing Apparel, the Sum of five Pounds (which Affidavit the said Judge or Judges of such Court, and such Person so commissioned, is and are hereby authorized and required to take) and such Person shall thereupon Petition such Court to be admitted to defend himself against such Action or Information in Forma Pauperis, that then the Judges of such Court shall according to their Discretions admit such Person to defend himself against such Action or Information, in the same Manner, and with the same Privileges, as the Judges of such Court are by Law directed and authorized to admit poor Subjects to commence Actions for the Recovery of their Rights; and for that End and Purpose it shall be lawful for the Judges of such Courts to assign Counsel learned in the Law, and to appoint an Attorney and Clerk of such Court to advise and carry on any legal Defence that such Person can make against such Action or Information, which said Counsel, Attorney and Clerk so assigned and appointed, is and are hereby required to give his and their Advice and Assistance to such Person, and to do their Duties without Fee or Reward.

Act 23 Hen. 8.
c. 9. against
unlawful Games,
made more effect-
tual.

IX. And whereas a good and profitable Statute was made in the three and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth (among other Things) for the debarring of unlawful Games: And whereas by the said Statute no Power is given unto the Justices of the Peace, to demand and take from Persons found playing contrary to Law, any other Security than their own Recognizances, that they or any of them shall not from thenceforth use such unlawful Games, unless such Persons are so found playing contrary to Law upon the View of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace: For Remedy thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where it shall be proved upon the Oath of two or more credible Witnesses, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, as well as where such Justice or Justices shall find, upon his or their own View, that any Person or Persons have or hath used or exercised any unlawful Game contrary to the said Statute, the said Justice or Justices shall have full Power and Authority to commit all and every such Offender and Offenders to Prison, without Bail or Mainprize, unless and until such Offender and Offenders shall enter into one or more Recognizance or Recognizances, with Sureties or without, at the Discretion of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, that he or they respectively shall not from thenceforth play at or use such unlawful Game.

Retailers of
be licensed.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, sell Brandy or other distilled Liquors, by Retail, to be drank in his, her or their House or Houses, but such Persons only as shall be thereunto licensed and allowed, in the same Manner as common Alehouse Keepers, and every Person or Persons so selling Brandy, or other distilled Liquors by Retail as aforesaid, shall be subject to such Rules, Penalties and Forfeitures, as common Alehouse Keepers now are for selling Drink without Licence; and the several Justices of the Peace of this Kingdom, and other Officers, are hereby empowered and authorized to have and exercise the same Jurisdiction, Powers and Authorities over such Retailers of Brandy and other distilled Liquors, which they now have or exercise over common Alehouse Keepers, by any Law or Statute whatsoever.

No Licence to keep Inns or Alehouses to be granted but at a General Meeting
of the Justices.

XI. And whereas many Inconveniences have arisen from Persons being licensed to keep Inns, and common Alehouses, by Justices of the Peace, who living remote from the Places of Abode of such Persons, may not be truly informed as to the Occasion or Want of such Inns or common Alehouses, or the Characters of the Persons applying for Licences to keep the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, no Licence shall be granted to any Person to keep a common Inn or Alehouse, or to retail any Brandy or Strong Waters, but at a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace, acting in the Division where the said Person dwells, to be holden for that Purpose, on the first Day of September yearly, or within twenty Days after, or at any other General Meeting of the said Justices, to be holden for the Division wherein the said Person resides; and all Licences which shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, be granted to the contrary hereof, shall be null and void.

Licences already
will 1 Sept. 1730.

XII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to oblige Persons already licensed, to take out new Licences on the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, or within twenty Days after, but that the Licences already granted shall subsist and be valid, until the first of September one thousand land seven hundred and thirty; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; nor shall any Thing herein contained extend to alter the Method or Power of granting Licences for keeping of common Inns, Alehouses or Brandy-shops, in any City or Town Corporate.

An Act to impower his Majesty to visit the Collegiate Church of Manchester, during such Time as the Wardenship of the said Church is or shall be held in Commendam with the Bishoprick of Chester.

WHEREAS the Collegiate Church of Manchester, by Virtue of a Charter granted by King CHARLES the First, in the eleventh Year of his Reign, was founded and made a Body Corporate, and the Bishop of Chester for the Time being was thereby appointed to be Visitor of the said Collegiate Church: And whereas his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, of Blessed Memory, was graciously pleased to allow the present Bishop of Chester to hold the Wardenship of Manchester in Commendam with that Bishoprick: And whereas the present Bishop of Chester, being Warden of the said Collegiate Church, cannot therefore exercise the Power of a Visitor, and some Doubt having lately arisen, whether the King can visit the said Church, during the Suspension of the present Bishop of Chester's Power: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That during such Time as the Wardenship of Manchester is or shall be held in Commendam with the Bishoprick of Chester, the Power of visiting of the said Collegiate Church of Manchester is and shall be vested in the Crown; and that his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, Kings of Great Britain, have and shall hereby have full Power and Authority to visit the said Collegiate Church, according to the Tenor of the Charter of Foundation of the said Church.

When the Wardenship of Manchester shall be held in Commendam with the Bishoprick of Chester, the King may visit.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this present Act contained shall extend, or in any wise be construed to extend, to destroy any of the Rights or Powers of the Metropolitick See of York, or of the Archbishop of the same for the Time being, in and over the said Collegiate Church of Manchester, and every Member and Officer within the same, but that the said Rights and Powers of the said Metropolitick See of York, and of the Archbishop for the Time being, shall be and remain, in all Times coming, in as full Force and Virtue, as if this present Act had never been made, and that this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Not to destroy the Rights of the See of York.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Dispute or Question shall arise concerning the Election or Admission of any of the present Members or Officers of the said College, by reason of his or their not being elected or admitted within the Time limited by the Charter, the same shall be determinable by the Course of the Common Law, and not otherwise, in such Manner as if no visitatorial Power were in Being.

Disputes concerning Elections determinable by Common Law.

sions.

Oaths ought to have been taken and subscribed, in such Manner and Form, and at such Place and Places, as are in and by the said Act directed, and also receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Usage of the Church of England, and make and subscribe the said Declaration against Transubstantiation, in such Cases wherein the said Sacrament ought to have been received, and the said Declaration ought to have been made and subscribed, shall be and hereby are indemnified, freed and discharged of, from and against all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities and Disabilities, incurred for or by reason of any former Neglect or Omission of taking or subscribing the said Oaths, or receiving the said Sacrament, or making and subscribing the said Declaration respectively, according to the above mentioned Acts, or either of them, or any other Act or Acts concerning Persons in Offices or Places of Trust, and is, are and shall be fully and actually recapacitated and restored to the same State and Condition, as such Person and Persons were in before such Neglect or Omission, and shall be hereby deemed and adjudged to have duly qualified him, her or themselves according to the above mentioned Acts, and every of them, and that all Acts done or to be done, by any such Person or Persons, or by Authority derived from him or them, are and shall be of the same Force and Validity, as the same, or any of them, would have been, if such Person or Persons had taken and subscribed the said Oaths, and received the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and made and subscribed the said Declaration, according to the Direction of the said Acts, and every of them; and that such Persons qualifying themselves in the Manner, and within the Time appointed by this Act, shall be to all Intents and Purposes as effectual, as if such Person or Persons had taken and subscribed the said Oaths, and received the said Sacrament, and made and subscribed the said Declaration, within the Time and in the Manner appointed by the several Acts before mentioned; any Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Offices already avoided not to be restored.

II. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend, to restore or intitle any Person or Persons to any Office or Employment, Benefice, Matter or Thing whatsoever, already actually avoided by Judgment of any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, or already filled up, and enjoyed by another Person; but such Office, Employment, Benefice, Matter or Thing so avoided, or filled up and enjoyed as aforesaid, shall be and remain in and to the Person or Persons, who is or are now intitled to the same, as if this Act had never been made.

Part of the Act
1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2.
c. 13. requiring
the Oaths, &c. to be taken in three Months,
repealed.

III. And whereas the Obligation to take and subscribe the Oaths appointed to be taken and subscribed by Persons on account of their Offices, Places, Employments or Professions, or any other Cause in and by the said Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, is found inconvenient, by reason the Time for taking and subscribing the said Oaths is limited to three Months after any Person's Admittance to, or Entry upon, any Preferment, Benefice, Office, Place, Employment or Profession, in the said Act mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Act, as requires any Person or Persons to take and subscribe the said Oaths therein mentioned, within three Months after he or they shall be admitted into, or enter upon such Preferment, Benefice, Office or Place, or come into such Capacity, or take upon him or them such Practice, Employment or Business, as therein is mentioned, shall be and is by this Act absolutely repealed.

The Time limited for such Qualifications.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons that shall be admitted, entered, placed or taken into any Office or Offices, Civil or Military, or shall receive any Pay, Salary, Fee or Wages, by Reason of any Patent or Grant from his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or shall have Command or Place of Trust, from or under his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by his Authority, or by Authority derived from him or them, within that Part of Great Britain called England, or in his Majesty's Navy, or in the several Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, or that shall be admitted into any Service, Office or Employment, in the Household or Family of his Majesty, or her Majesty, or of his Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, or any other of his Majesty's Issue, and all Ecclesiastical Persons, Heads or Governors, of what Denomination soever, and all other Members of Colleges and Halls within either of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, that are or shall be of the Foundation, or that do or shall enjoy any Exhibition, being of, or as soon as they shall attain the Age of eighteen Years, and all Persons teaching or reading to Pupils, in either of the aforesaid Universities or elsewhere, and all Schoolmasters and Masters, and all Preachers and Teachers of separate Congregations, High or Chief Constables, and every Person who shall act as Serjeant at Law, Counsellor at Law, Barrister, Advocate, Attorney, Solicitor, Proctor, Clerk or Notary, by practising in any Manner as such in any Court or Courts whatsoever, within that Part of Great Britain called England, who shall at any Time after the twenty-first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight be admitted into, or enter upon, any of the above mentioned Preferments, Benefices, Offices or Places, or shall come into any such Capacity, or shall take upon him or them any such Practice, Employment or Business as aforesaid, shall take and subscribe the Oaths appointed by the Statute made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, at such Places, and in such Form, as by that Statute is directed, in his Majesty's Court of Chancery, King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, at any Time before the End of the next Term, after he or they shall be admitted into, or enter upon any such Preferment, Benefice, Office or Place, or come into such Capacity, or take upon him or them such Practice, Employment or Business as aforesaid, or shall take and subscribe the said Oaths as aforesaid at any Time before the End of the next Quarter-Sessions of the County, City or Place where such Person shall be or reside, after he or they shall be admitted into, or enter upon any such Preferment, Benefice, Office or Place, or come into any such Capacity, or take upon him or them such Practice, Employment or Business as aforesaid.

9 Geo. 2. c. 26.

Persons beyond the Seas may qualify themselves within four Months after their Arrival.

V. Provided also, That nothing in this Act shall extend to any Person beyond the Seas, who by Virtue of this Act ought to take and subscribe the said Oaths, so as such Person do, within four Months after his Return to, and Arrival in, that Part of Great Britain called England, take and subscribe the said Oaths, in such Manner and Form, and at such Place and Places as are appointed in and by the said Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, and also receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, according according to the Usage of the Church of England, and make and subscribe the said Declaration against Transubstantiation, in such Cases wherein the said Sacrament ought to have been received, and the said Declaration ought to have been made and subscribed.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons aforesaid, that shall neglect or refuse to take the said Oaths, or either of them, within the Time and at the Places aforesaid, according to the Directions of this Act, shall be liable unto and incur all such Disabilities, Incapacities, Forfeitures and Penalties, as in and by the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First are provided and inflicted for not taking and subscribing the said Oaths; and in case of executing of any such Office, Place or Employment, after such Neglect or Refusal, every such Person and Persons being thereof lawfully convicted in such Manner as by the said Act is directed, shall be liable unto and incur all such Disabilities, Incapacities, Forfeitures and Penalties, as in and by the said Act are in the like Case provided and inflicted, to be prosecuted, sued for and recovered in such Manner as therein is prescribed.

Persons within the Times hereby limited neglecting to qualify themselves, liable to the Disabilities in 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 13.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Conditions, Directions and Provisions, in and by the said Act of the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First enacted or provided, touching or relating to the taking or subscribing of the said Oaths, or the Neglect or Refusal thereof, or in consequence of such taking or subscribing the said Oaths, or Neglect or Refusal thereof, shall be adjudged, deemed and taken to be in full Force, as if the same were herein particularly inserted and re-enacted; saving as to the Alteration hereby made in respect of the Times limited for taking and subscribing the said Oaths; and saving also as to the Indemnity hereby granted to such, who on or before the twenty-eighth Day of November next shall take and subscribe the said Oaths; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

All the Powers in 1 Geo. 1. to be in Force.

Exceptions.

VIII. And whereas by a Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for Uniformity of Prayers and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies, and for establishing the Form of making, ordaining and consecrating Bishops, Priests and Deacons in the Church of England; it is amongst other Things enacted, That all Masters, Fellows, Chaplains and Tutors, of or in any College, Hall, House of Learning or Hospital, and every publick Professor and Reader in any of the Universities, should take and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned and directed to be subscribed, before the Vicechancellor for the Time being, or his Deputy, upon Pain of forfeiting their respective Masterships, Headships, Fellowships, Professors Places and Readers Places in the said Universities; notwithstanding which several Persons have through Inadvertency omitted to subscribe the said Declaration, and have thereby incurred the Penalties inflicted by the said Act: Now for the Relief of such Masters, Fellows, Professors and Readers in any of the said Universities, as have neglected to subscribe the said Declaration, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Masters, Fellows, Chaplains and Tutors, of or in any College, Hall, House of Learning or Hospital, and every publick Professor and Reader in any of the Universities, who have neglected or omitted to subscribe the said Declaration, and shall before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine take and subscribe the said Declaration before such Person, and in such Manner as required by the said Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament requiring the taking and subscribing the same, shall be and are hereby indemnified from all Forfeitures, Disabilities and Incapacities inflicted by the said Act, and shall be restored to their respective Headships, Fellowships, Professors Places and Readers Places: Provided, That this Act shall not extend to restore any such Person or Persons to any Headship, Fellowship, Professor's Place or Reader's Place, who through such Neglect or Omission as aforesaid hath or have forfeited the same, and which are already filled up or enjoyed by any other Person or Persons.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4.

Times limited for Masters, Fellows, &c. in the Universities, to qualify themselves.

IX. Whereas all Persons having Command or Place of Trust from or under his Majesty, or who are of the Household or in the Service of his Majesty, are bound by an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants, to make and subscribe a Declaration against Transubstantiation in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; and the sworn Servants of the King's or Queen's Majesty are bound, by an Act made in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of the said King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preserving the King's Person and Government, by disabling Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament, to repeat and subscribe a like Declaration against Transubstantiation, together with some Additions, and the Declaration only against Transubstantiation being, as to these Persons, sufficient; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said last mentioned Act as relates to the sworn Servants of the King's or Queen's Majesty shall be repealed; and if any such Person hath offended contrary to such Part of the said Act intended to be hereby repealed, he shall be freed from all Penalties and Incapacities incurred thereby.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act to empower his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, during the Life of Thomas Bambridge, Esquire, to grant the Office of Warden of the Prison of the Fleet to such Person or Persons as his Majesty shall think fit; and to incapacitate the said Thomas Bambridge to enjoy the said Office, or any other whatsoever. E X P.

WHEREAS Thomas Bambridge, Esquire, is by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the thirtieth Day of September in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, appointed Warden or Keeper of the Fleet, and of the Custody of the Prison and Gaol of the Fleet, and of the Prisoners committed or to be committed to the said Prison and Gaol of the Fleet, and Keeper of his Majesty's old and new Palaces of Westminster, during the Term of his natural Life, unless he surrenders or forfeits, and the Reversion thereof to Dowgall Cutbber, Esquire, for the Term of his Majesty's Life, upon the same Conditions; and whereas his Majesty has been pleased to order his Attorney General to prosecute at Law the said Thomas Bambridge for wilfully permitting several Debtors, as well to his Majesty as to diverse of his Subjects, to escape, and for being guilty of the most notorious Breaches of his Trust and the highest Crimes and Misdemeanors in the Execution of his said Office, and having arbitrarily and unlawfully loaded with Irons, put into Dungeons and destroyed Prisoners for Debt put under his Charge, in Violation lation and Contempt of the Laws of this Kingdom; as also to prosecute James Barnes, William Pindar, John Everett and Thomas King, for being Agents and Accomplices with the said Thomas Bambridge in the Commission of his said Crimes: And whereas there is great Danger of Escapes and of the Continuance of the Cruelties and Barbarities before-mentioned, in case the said Thomas Bambridge, or any of his Agents, should continue to execute the said Offices, which may tend as well to the Prejudice of his Majesty, as his Subjects; for the preventing of which it is necessary to disable the said Thomas Bambridge to hold or execute the said Office of Warden of the Prison of the Fleet, or to have or exercise any Authority relating thereto: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

After 14 June 1729, T. B. disabled to hold the Wardenship of the Fleet: His Majesty to appoint another Warden. T. B. to deliver to the Judges of the Common Pleas a List of his Prisoners on Oath, and also all Securities; which are vested in the new Warden, to whom he is to transfer all Prisoners in his Custody. T. B. not delivering such List, &c. guilty of Felony. New Warden not to sell or farm out any Office. James Barnes, &c. disabled from any Office in the Fleet. T. B. made incapable of exercising any Office. This Act not to prevent any Prosecution against T. B. &c.

C A P. XXXIII.

and furthermore the Patronages and Advowsons of all Churches and Chapels, which, as Christian Religion should increase within the Province, Territory, Isles and Limits aforesaid, should happen then after to be erected, together with Licence and Power to build and found Churches, Chapels and Oratories in convenient and fit Places within the said Bounds and Limits, and to cause them to be dedicated and consecrated according to the Ecclesiastical Laws of the Kingdom of England, together with all and singular the like and as ample Rights, Jurisdictions, Privileges, Prerogatives, Royalties, Liberties, Immunities and Franchises of what Kind soever within the Territories, ries, Isles, Islets and Limits aforesaid, to have, hold, use, exercise and enjoy the same as amply and fully and in as ample Manner as any Bishop of Durham in the Kingdom of England thentofore had, held, used or enjoyed, or of Right ought or could have, use or enjoy; and his said late Majesty did thereby for himself, his Heirs and Successors, make, create, constitute and appoint them, the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albermarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkley, their Heirs and Assigns, the true and absolute Lords and Proprietors of the said Province or Territory, and of all other the Premises (saving as therein is mentioned) to have, hold, possess and enjoy the said Province, Territory, Islets and all and singular other the Premises, to them the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albermarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, and Sir William Berkley, their Heirs and Assigns for ever, to be holden of his said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as of his Manor of East Greenwich aforesaid, in free and common Socage, and not in Capite, or by Knights Service, as in and by the said several recited Letters Patents, Relation being thereunto had, may appear: And whereas the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said Edward late Earl of Clarendon, of and in the Provinces, Territories, Islets, Hereditaments and Premises in and by the said several recited Letters Patents granted and comprised, is now come unto and vested in the Honourable James Bertie, of the Parish of Saint John the Evangelist in the Liberty of Westminster in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, in his own Right; and the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said George late Duke of Albermarle, of and in the same Premises, is come unto and vested in the most Noble Henry now Duke of Beaufort, and in the said James Bertie, and the Honourable Dodington Greville of Bulford in the County of Wilts, Esquire, the two surviving Devisees named in the Will of the most Noble Henry late Duke of Beaufort deceased, in Trust for the present Duke of Beaufort, and for the Right Honourable Charles Noell Somerset, his Brother, an Infant; and the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said William late Earl of Craven, of and in the same Premises, is come unto and vested in the Right Honourable William now Lord Craven; and the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said John late Lord Berkley, of and in the same Premises, is now come unto and vested in Joseph Blake of the Province of South Carolina in America, Esquire; and the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said Anthony late Lord Ashley, of and in the same Premises, is now come unto and vested in Archibald Hutcheson of the Middle Temple, London, Esquire (in Trust for John Cotton of the Middle Temple, London, Esquire) and the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said late Sir John Colleton, of and in the said Premises, is now come unto and vested in Sir John Colleton of Exmouth in the County of Devon, Baronet; and the Part, Share, Interest and Estate of the said late Sir William Berkley, of and in the same Premises, is now come unto and vested in the Honourable Henry Bertie of Dorton in the County of Bucks, Esquire, or in Mary Danson of the Parish of Saint Andrews Holborn in the County of Middlesex, Widow, or in Elisabeth Moore of London, Widow, some or one of them; and the said Henry now Duke of Beaufort, and the said James Bertie and Dodington Greville, as Trustees in Manner aforesaid, some or one of them, is or are seised in Fee of and in one full undivided eighth Part (the whole into eight equal Parts to be divided) of the Premises in and by the said recited Letters Patents granted and comprised; and the same James Bertie, in his own Right, is now seised in Fee, or of some other Estate of Inheritance, of and in one other full undivided eighth Part; and each of them the said William Lord Craven, Joseph Blake, Archibald Hutcheson, as Trustees for the said John Cotton, Sir John Colleton, and the said Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, and Elisabeth Moore, some or one of them, is or are respectively seised in Fee, or of some other Estate of Inheritance, of and in one other full undivided eighth Part of and in the said Provinces, Territories, Islands, Hereditaments and Premises; the remaining eighth Part or Share of and in the said Provinces, Territories and Premises, which formerly belonged to the said Sir George Carteret, being now vested in the Right Honourable John Lord Carteret, Baron of Hawnes, his Majesty's Lieutenant General and General Governor of the Kingdom of Ireland: And whereas by a Judgment or Order of the House of Lords, made the twenty-seventh Day of March last past, upon the Appeal of the said Mary Danson, Widow of John Danson, Esquire, deceased, from a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made the seventh Day of November one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, and from a subsequent Order of the fifteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, it was ordered and adjudged, That the said Decree and subsequent Order, complained of in the said Appeal, should be reversed; and it being offered on the Part of the Appellant to pay the Respondent, the said Henry Bertie, the Money that he paid for the Purchase of the Proprietorship in question in the said Cause, together with Interest for the same, it was thereby further ordered, That the Court of Chancery should direct and cause an Inquiry to be made, what was the Principal Sum of such Purchase Money, and from the Time of Payment thereof to compute Interest for the same; and on the Appellant's Payment of what should be found due for such Principal Money and Interest to the said Henry Bertie, it was further ordered and adjudged, That he should convey the said Proprietorship to her and her Heirs, and also that the Respondent, Elisabeth Moore, should likewise by proper Conveyances, at the Charges of the Appellant, convey all her Right to the said Proprietorship to the Appellant and her Heirs: And whereas since the making the said several recited Letters Patents the Lords Proprietors of the Provinces and Territories aforesaid, for the Time being, have made diverse Grants and Conveyances under their Common Seal of several Offices, and also of diverse Parcels of Land situate within the said Provinces and Territories, to several Persons, under certain Quit Rents or other Rents thereby respectively reserved, and subject to several Conditions, Limitations or Agreements for avoiding or determining the Estates of the Grantees therein mentioned, some of which may have become forfeited; and have also made diverse Grants of several Baronies and large Tracts of Land lying within the said Provinces or Territories, unto and for the Use and Benefit of several of the said Lords Proprietors, or those under whom they claim, to be held and enjoyed by them and their Heirs in Severalty; eight of which Baronies so granted as aforesaid do now remain vested in the said Henry now Duke of Beaufort, or in the said James Bertie and Dodington Greville, as Trustees for the Purposes aforesaid, or in some or one of them, eight other of the said Baronies in the said William Lord Craven, six other Baronies in the present Sir John Colleton, six other Baronies in the said Archibald Hutcheson (as Trustee for the said John Cotton) and six other Baronies in the said Joseph Blake, each of the said Baronies containing, or being mentioned or intended to contain, twelve thousand Acres of Land, or thereabouts, except one of the said Baronies, now vested in the said William Lord Craven, which contains, or is mentioned to contain, eleven thousand Acres of Land, or thereabouts: And whereas the said Henry now Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Henry Bertie, Sir John Colleton, and Archibald Hutcheson (who is a Trustee for the said John Cotton as aforesaid) being six of the present Lords Proprietors of the Provinces and Territories aforesaid, have by their humble Petition to his Majesty in Council offered and proposed to surrender to his Majesty their said respective Shares and Interests, not only of and in the said Government, Royalties and Franchises in and by the said recited Letters Patents granted

granted, but also all the Right and Property they have in and to the Soil in the aforesaid Provinces or Territories under the said several recited Letters Patents, or either of them; and also did further propose to make an intire Surrender to his Majesty of their Right to all the Lands, which they hold under the said Grants made by the said Lords Proprietors as aforesaid (except only one Barony belonging to the present Sir John Colleton, which hath been settled and improved by his Son) and also all their Right and Interest in all Lands granted and conveyed to other Persons as aforesaid, which, by not being improved within the Time limited in the said Grants or Conveyances, or for any other Reason, would revert to them, praying, That in Consideration of such Surrender his Majesty would be pleased to direct and cause to be paid to each of them the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Henry Bertie, Sir John Colleton, and Archibald Hutcheson, the Sum of two thousand five hundred Pounds apiece, without any Deduction: And whereas Samuel Wragg of London, Merchant, being duly authorized by Letter of Attorney under the Hand and Seal of the said Joseph Blake, bearing Date the eleventh Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, hath proposed, for and on the Behalf of the said Joseph Blake, to surrender and convey unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all the Estate, Right and Interest of the said Joseph Blake in and to the Premises, upon Payment of the like Sum of two thousand five hundred Pounds to the said Joseph Blake, without any Deduction: And whereas they the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Henry Bertie, Sir John Colleton, and Archibald Hutcheson, who is a Trustee for the said John Cotton as aforesaid, have laid before a Committee of the Lords of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council an Estimate of all the Arrears of Quit Rents and other Rents, and Sum and Sums of Money now due and owing to them and the said Joseph Blake, and to the said John Lord Carteret, which Estimate, as computed, amounts to the Sum of nine thousand five hundred Pounds; and they the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Henry Bertie, Sir John Colleton, and Archibald Hutcheson, have likewise humbly proposed, That, if his Majesty would please to allow the Sum of five thousand Pounds for the said Arrears (over and above the said several Sums of two thousand five hundred Pounds, to be paid them respectively) they were willing to assign and make over to his Majesty their Right and Title to the said Arrears and all other Demands whatsoever, which they have or can have upon the Farmers, Tenants or Inhabitants of the Provinces or Territories aforesaid, or any of them: And whereas the said Samuel Wragg, for and on the Behalf of the said Joseph Blake, hath proposed to assign to his Majesty all the Right and Interest of the said Joseph Blake in and to the said Arrears and Demands upon the Terms aforesaid: And whereas his Majesty taking into his Royal Consideration the great Importance of the said Provinces and Territories to the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and being desirous to promote the same, as well as the Welfare and Security of the said Provinces and Territories, by taking them under the more immediate Government of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, hath been graciously pleased to accept of the said several Proposals, and to agree to the same, with such Variations as are herein after mentioned: And whereas from the Nature of the respective Estates and Interests proposed and agreed to be surrendered to his Majesty as aforesaid, great Difficulties may arise in the Manner of conveying the same; and it is just and necessary, that the Parts and Shares of the said Provinces and Territories so proposed and agreed to be surrendered, should be secured to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, which cannot effectually be attained without the Authority of Parliament: Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all those seven undivided eighth Parts (the Whole into eight equal Parts or Shares to be divided) and all other the Part or Share, Parts or Shares, Interest and Estates of them the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, and Elisabeth Moor, Sir John Colleton, Archibald Hutcheson, as Trustee for the said John Cotton, and Joseph Blake, and each of them, of and in the aforesaid Provinces or Territories called Carolina, and all and singular the Royalties, Franchises, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises in and by the said several recited Letters Patents, or either of them, granted or mentioned or intended to be granted by his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, to the said Edward Earl of Clarendon, George Duke of Albermarle, William Earl of Craven, John Lord Berkley, Anthony Lord Ashley, Sir George Carteret, Sir John Colleton, deceased, and Sir William Berkley, their Heirs and Assigns as aforesaid, with their and every of their Rights, Members and Appurtenances, and also all such Powers, Liberties, Authorities, Jurisdictions, Pre-eminences, Licences and Privileges, as they the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, and Elisabeth Moor, the present Sir John Colleton, the said Archibald Hutcheson, as Trustee for the said John Cotton, and Joseph Blake, every or any of them can or may have, hold, use, exercise or enjoy, by Virtue of or under the said recited Letters Patent, or either of them, and also all and singular Baronies, Tracts and Parcels of Land, Tenements and Hereditaments, which they the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, and Elisabeth Moor, the present Sir John Colleton, the said Archibald Hutcheson, as Trustee for the said John Cotton, and Joseph Blake, any or either of them, are or is seised or possessed of or intitled unto within the said Provinces or Territories, except all such Tracts of Land, Tenements and Hereditaments, as have been at any Time before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven granted or conveyed by, or comprised in, any Grants, Deeds, Instruments or Conveyances under the common Seal of the said Lords Proprietors, either in England or in the Provinces aforesaid; and also except all such Plantations and Lands as are now in the Possession of the said Joseph Blake, his Undertenants or Assigns, by Virtue of Grants formerly made by the said Lords Proprietors of the said Provinces for the Time being to other Persons, and since conveyed to or vested in the said Joseph Blake; and also except all that Barony and Tract of Land containing twelve thousand Acres, or thereabouts, the Possession whereof hath some Time since been delivered by the present Sir John Colleton unto Peter Colleton, Esquire, his second Son, and all that other Barony or Tract of Land containing twelve thousand Acres, or thereabouts, some Time since conveyed by Sir John Tyrrell, Baronet (formerly Owner of the said eighth Part or Share now belonging to the said Archibald Hutcheson, as Trustee for the said John Cotton) to William Wight, Esquire, and his Heirs; Provided that the before-mentioned Exceptions, or any of them, shall not include or extend to any Lands comprised in any Grant or Grants made either in England or Carolina, under the common Seal of the Lords Proprietors for the Time being, which since the making of such Grant or Grants have become forfeited by Virtue of any Clauses contained therein, or to any of the Baronies herein before recited or mentioned to be still remaining and vested in the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, and the said James Bertie and Dodington Greville, as Trustees, some or one of them, and in the said William Lord Craven, the present Sir John Colleton, and the said Archibald Hutcheson, as Trustee for the said John Cotton respectively, nor to any Rents, Services, Seigniories or Rights of Escheat, reserved upon or incident to any such Grant or Grants, or any Lands or Estates thereby granted, all such forfeited Lands, and all such Rents, Seigniories or Rights of Escheat, reserved upon, or incident to, any such Grant or Grants, or any Lands and Estates thereby granted, and also the Baronies last before mentioned, being hereby intended to be vested in the Persons, and for the Purposes herein after mentioned; and the Reversion and Reversions, Remainder and Remainders, yearly and other Rents, Issues and Profits, of the same Parts or Shares, Baronies, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises, so as aforesaid proposed and agreed to be surrendered to his Majesty, and of every Part and Parcel thereof; and also all the Estate, Title, Interest, Trust, Property, Right of Action, Right of Entry, Claim and Demand whatsoever, of them the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson and Elisabeth Moor, the present Sir John Colleton, the said Archibald Hutcheson, John Cotton and Joseph Blake, and each of them, of, in, unto or out of the same, every or any Part or Parcel thereof, by virtue of the said several recited Letters Patent or either of them, or of any Grant, Assignment, Conveyance or Assurance, made under or by Force of the same recited Letters Patents, or either of them, or otherwise howsoever, shall, from and after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, be vested and settled, and the same are hereby vested and settled in and upon Edward Bertie of Grays Inn in the County of Middlesex, Samuel Horsey of the Parish of Saint Martin's in the Fields in the County of Middlesex, Henry Smith of Caversham in the County of Oxon, and Alexius Clayton of the Middle Temple, London, Esquires, to the only Use of them the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, their Heirs and Assigns, freed and discharged, and absolutely acquitted, exempted and indemnified of and from all Estates, Uses, Trusts, Intails, Reversions, Remainders, Limitations, Charges and Incumbrances, Titles, Claims and Demands whatsoever; but nevertheless upon Trust, and to the Intent that they the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, upon Payment by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, or to the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors or Administrators of such Survivor, of the Sum of seventeen thousand five hundred Pounds, free and clear of all Deductions, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, shall and do, by Deed indented, and to be intolled in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, surrender, convey and assure unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all and singular the said seven eighth Parts or Shares (the whole into eight equal Parts to be divided) and all other the Parts or Shares, Interests and Estates, of and in the aforesaid Provinces or Territories, and all and singular the Premises hereby vested in them the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, and their Heirs as aforesaid; which said Sum of seventeen thousand five hundred Pounds they the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors or Administrators of such Survivor, shall immediately after the Receipt thereof pay, apply and dispose of in manner herein after mentioned; that is to say, the Sum of two thousand five hundred Pounds, Part thereof, to the said James Bertie and Dodington Greville, Trustees as aforesaid, or to the Survivor of them, or to the Executors or Administrators of such Survivor; two thousand five hundred Pounds, other Part thereof, to the said William Lord Craven, his Executors or Administrators; two thousand five hundred Pounds, other Part thereof, to the said James Bertie, in his own Right, his Executors or Administrators; two thousand five hundred Pounds, other Part thereof, unto such Person or Persons, and in such Shares and Proportions, as the same, according to the Tenor, Purport and true Meaning of the said Order or Judgment of the House of Lords, ought to be paid and applied; two thousand five hundred Pounds, other Part thereof, to the said Sir John Colleton, his Executors or Administrators; two thousand five hundred Pounds, other Part thereof, to the said John Cotton, his Executors or Administrators; and two thousand five hundred Pounds, Residue thereof, to the said Samuel Wragg, for the Use of the said Joseph Blake, or to the said Joseph Blake, his Executors or Administrators.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Receipt or Receipts of the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, the Survivors or Survivor of them, or of the Executors or Administrators of such Survivor, under their or his Hand or Hands respectively, shall be a sufficient Discharge to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of and for the said several Sums of seventeen thousand five hundred Pounds, and five thousand Pounds, or so much thereof, or of either of them, as such Receipt or Receipts shall be given for; and that his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon and after such Receipt or Receipts given as aforesaid, shall be absolutely acquitted and discharged of and from the same Monies, and shall not be answerable or accountable for any Loss, Nonapplication or Misapplication of the said Money, or any Part thereof.

and of the Duke of Beaufort's Trustees.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Receipt or Receipts of the said James Bertie or Dodington Greville, or the Survivor of them, his Executors or Administrators, under his or their Hand or Hands respectively, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, their Executors or Administrators, for the said Sum of two thousand five hundred Pounds, payable to them for the said eighth Part or Share of the said Provinces, Territories, Royalties, Lands and Hereditaments, which was vested in them by the said Henry late Duke of Beaufort; and the said Sum of two thousand five hundred Pounds shall be and remain subject to the Trusts reposed in them by the Will of the same late Duke or otherwise, concerning the same eighth Part or Share; but the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, shall not be answerable or accountable for any Loss or Misapplication thereof, or of any Part thereof.

One Trustee not accountable for another's Receipts.

VIII. Provided also, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, shall not, nor shall any of them, or the Executors or Administrators of any of them, be answerable or accountable for any Money to be received by virtue of or under the Trusts hereby reposed in them, any otherwise than each Person, his Executors or Administrators, for such Sum or Sums of Money, as he or they shall respectively actually receive, and none of them shall be answerable or accountable for the Ads, Receipts, Neglects or Defaults, of the other of them; and also that they the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, their Executors or Administrators, shall and may, out of the Money hereby directed to be paid to them as aforesaid, retain and reimburse themselves for all Costs, Charges, Damages and Expences, that they respectively shall sustain or be put unto, in and about the Execution of the Trusts hereby in them reposed.

IX. And

IX. And whereas there is due and owing to the King's most excellent Majesty, for Arrears of Rent reserved by the said several recited Letters Patent, or one of them, several Sums of Money, computed to amount to three hundred Pounds and upwards; Now it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, Elisabeth Moor, the present Sir John Colleton, Archibald Hutcheson, John Cotton and Joseph Blake, and every of them, their and every of their Heirs, Executors and Administrators respectively, from and immediately after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine (in case the said Sums of seventeen thousand five hundred Pounds, and five thousand Pounds, shall then be paid and satisfied, and the Sale hereby intended shall be then completed) shall be, and are hereby fully and absolutely acquitted and discharged of and from all Arrears of Rent whatsoever due or owing upon or by virtue of the said recited Letters Patent or either of them.

Former Proprietors, on Payment of the Sums agreed on, acquitted from all Arrears.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, do not or shall not, on or before the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, both the said several Sums of seventeen thousand five hundred Pounds, and five thousand Pounds, in Manner aforesaid, and according to the true Meaning of this Act, that then they the said Edward Bertie, Samuel Horsey, Henry Smith and Alexius Clayton, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of such Survivor, shall not make such Surrender, Assignment or Conveyance of the said seven eighth Parts or Shares of the said Provinces or Territories, and of the said Arrears or either of them, to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, as hereby is directed; but shall, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, stand, and be seized and possessed of all and singular the Premises hereby in them vested, to the only proper Use and behoof of them the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, Elisabeth Moor, the present Sir John Colleton, John Cotton and Joseph Blake, and every of them, and of their and every of their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in such Shares and Proportions, and according to such respective Rights and Interests as they severally had or could have been intitled to, in and unto the same Premises, in case this Act had never been made, and to and for no other Use, Trust, Intent or Purpose whatsoever.

Time limited for the Surrender.

XI. Saving and reserving to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs, Successors, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, (other than and except the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, Elisabeth Moor, Sir John Colleton, Archibald Hutcheson, John Cotton and Joseph Blake, their respective Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and the Heirs of their respective Bodies, and all and every Person and Persons claiming or to claim any Estate or Interest in the Premises or any Part thereof, in Remainder or Reversion, expectant upon, or after the Determination of any Estate-tail vested in them the said Henry Duke of Beaufort, William Lord Craven, James Bertie, Dodington Greville, Henry Bertie, Mary Danson, Elisabeth Moor, Sir John Colleton, Archibald Hutcheson, John Cotton and Joseph Blake, or any of them, and all and every Person and Persons claiming or to claim any Estate or Interest in the Premises or any Part thereof, by or under the Title of the said Henry late Duke of Beaufort, deceased) such Satisfaction and Recompence as is herein after mentioned, for all such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Property, Claim and Demand whatsoever in, to or out of the Premises or any Part thereof, as they or any of them now have or might have had or been intitled unto, in case this Act had never been made.

Saving Clause.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons (other than, and except the Persons herein before excepted) who now have or shall have any Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim or Demand, either in Law or Equity, of, in, to or out of the Premises hereby vested as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, shall, within the Space of seven Years after the same shall be conveyed unto, and vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors as aforesaid, commence and prosecute any Action or Suit, either in Law or Equity, by Petition of Right, English Bill or otherwise, against his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the proper Officer or Officers on his or their behalf, wherein such Persons might or ought to have recovered the Premises hereby vested as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, or any Estate, Interest or Demand, in or out of the same, the Court wherein such Suit or Action shall be commenced or depending, shall and may adjudge or decree, that such Person or Persons shall recover against his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, such Sum or Sums of Money, as his or their Estate, Interest or Demand, in or out of the Premises hereby vested as aforesaid, shall by the same Court be valued at and determined to amount unto, in full Satisfaction for such Estate, Interest and Demand; in making which Valuation the said Court shall estimate one full eighth Part of the Premises hereby vested as aforesaid, to be of the Value of two thousand five hundred Pounds and no more, and shall rate and ascertain the Value of such Estate, Interest or Demand, in Proportion thereunto.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act for the better Preservation of his Majesty's Woods in America, and for the Encouragement of the Importation of naval Stores from thence; and to encourage the Importation of Masts, Yards and Bow-sprights, from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

8 Geo. 1. c. 12.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, within any of his Majesty's Colonies of Nova Scotia, New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay, the Province of Main, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or King's Province, and Connecticut, in New England, and New York, and New Jersey in America, or within any of them, do or shall presume to cut, fell or destroy any white Pine Trees, not growing within any Township, or the Bounds, Lines or Limits thereof, in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, without his Majesty's Royal Licence for so doing first had and obtained: And whereas since the passing of the said Act, great Tracts of Land, where Trees fit for Masting grow, have been, in order to evade the Provisions of the said Act, erected into Townships: Now for the better Preservation of white Pine Trees in his Majesty's said Colonies, for Masting his Royal Navy, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September next, no Person or Persons within the said Colonies of Nova Scotia, New Hampshire, the Province of Main, the Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantation, the Narraganset Country, or King's Province, and Connecticut, in New England, and New York, and New Jersey in America, or within any of them, or in any other Province or Country in America, that now belongs or hereafter shall belong to the Crown of Great Britain, do or shall presume to cut, fell or destroy any white Pine Trees, except only such as are the Property of private Persons, notwithstanding the said Trees do grow within the Limits of any Township laid out, or to be laid out hereafter, in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, without his Majesty's Royal Licence for so doing first had and obtained.

After 29 Sept. 1729, no Person in the Plantations to cut any white Pine Trees, except those of private Property.

No white Pine Trees of the Diameter of 24 Inches, at 12 Inches from the Ground, to be cut without Licence, on Penalty of the Forfeiture in the Act 8 Geo. 1. c. 12.

3 & 4 Ann. c. 10. 12 Ann. Stat. 1. c. 9.

Premium for importing naval Stores, viz.

For Masts, &c.

Tar,

II. And whereas their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, for the better providing and furnishing Masts for the Royal Navy, in and by their Charter, dated at Westminster the seventh Day of October in the third Year of their Reign, granted to the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England in America, did reserve to themselves, their Heirs and Successors, all Trees of the Diameter of twenty-four Inches and upwards, at twelve Inches from the Ground, growing upon any Soil or Tract of Land within the said Province or Territory, not thencefore granted to any private Person: In order therefore to make the said Reservation more effectual, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever within the said Province of the Massachusetts Bay, or New England, do or shall presume to cut or destroy any white Pine Trees of the Diameter of twenty-four Inches or upwards, at twelve Inches from the Ground, not growing within some Soil or Tract of Land, within the said Province, granted to some private Person or Persons before the seventh Day of October which was in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety, without his Majesty's Licence first had and obtained; and every Person so cutting, felling or destroying such white Pine Trees, not being the Property of private Persons, in any of the Colonies above-mentioned, and likewise every Person cutting or destroying any white Pine Trees of the Diameter of twenty-four Inches or upwards, at twelve Inches from the Ground, growing in any Tract of Land in the Province of New England or Massachusetts Bay, not granted to some private Person or Persons before the seventh Day of October one thousand six hundred and ninety, or who shall be aiding or assisting therein, or in drawing away the said Pine Trees, after the same shall have been so cut and felled, shall be subject to such and the like Forfeitures and Penalties respectively, as are provided in the aforesaid Act of the eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, for and against such Persons as fell, cut or destroy any Pine Trees, not being or growing in any Township within any of the said Plantations; the said Forfeitures to be recovered and applied in the same Manner, as in the said Act is particularly set forth and enacted.

III. And whereas by several Acts of Parliament passed in the third and fourth and in the twelfth Years of her late Majesty's Reign, great Encouragement was given, and large Premiums allowed, for the Importation of naval Stores from the British Plantations in America; and it hath been found by Experience, that the said Plantations are capable of furnishing sufficient Quantities of naval Stores, but many Frauds and Abuses have been committed therein, and greater Premiums paid, than were necessary for the same: And whereas the said Acts, excepting only such Parts of them as relate to the Premiums on Hemp imported, are expired; Now for the future Encouragement of the Planters to send such Quantities of good merchantable naval Stores to Great Britain, as may be necessary for the Service of the Royal Navy, and for the Navigation of this Kingdom, and in order to reduce the Expence of such Premiums for the future, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September next, all and every Person or Persons that shall import or cause to be imported into this Kingdom, directly from any of his Majesty's British Colonies or Plantations in America, in any Ship or Ships that may lawfully trade to his Majesty's Plantations, manned as by Law is required, any of the naval Stores hereafter mentioned, shall have and enjoy, as a Reward or Premium for such Importation, after and according to the several Rates of such naval Stores, as follows, viz.

For all Masts, Yards and Bow-sprights, per Tun, allowing forty Foot to each Tun, girt Measure, according to the customary Way of measuring round Bodies, one Pound.

For clean, good, merchantable, well conditioned Tar, clear of Dross or Water, and fit in every respect for making Cordage, per Tun, containing eight Barrels, and each Barrel to gauge thirty-one Gallons and one Half, to be well hooped, and filled up, two Pounds four Shillings.

For clean, good, merchantable and well conditioned Pitch, not mixt with Dirt or Dross, ^{Pitch,} per Tun, containing twenty gross hundreds, net Pitch, to be brought in eight Barrels of equal Size, one Pound.

For clean, good and merchantable Turpentine, clear of Dross and Water, per Tun, each ^{Turpentine,} Tun containing twenty gross hundreds, net Turpentine, to be brought in eight Barrels of equal Size, one Pound ten Shillings.

Which said several Premiums for each Species afore-mentioned, shall be paid and answered by the Commissioners or principal Officers of his Majesty's Navy, who are hereby impowered and required to make out a Bill or Bills, to be paid in course, for the same, upon Certificate of the respective chief Officer or Officers of the Customs, in any Port of this Kingdom, where such naval Stores shall be imported as afore-said; such Bill or Bills to be made out and given to the Person or Persons importing the same as afore-said, within twenty Days after the Discharge or Unlading of the Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, in which such Stores shall be imported, upon a Certificate or Certificates to be produced to the chief Officer or Officers of the Customs, which Certificate or Certificates shall be under the Hand and Seal of the Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, or Collector of his Majesty's Customs, and naval Officer, or any two of them, residing and being within any of his Majesty's said Colonies or Plantations, that before the Departure of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, the Person or Persons, Merchant, Trader or Factor, loading the same, had made Oath before them, that the said naval Stores so shipped on Board were truly and bona fide of the Growth and Produce of his Majesty's said Colonies and Plantations (which Oath the said Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Collector of his Majesty's Customs, and naval Officer, or any two of them, are hereby authorized to administer) as likewise upon Oath to be made within any Port of Great Britain, by the Master or Masters of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, importing such naval Stores, that the same were shipped on Board such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, within some of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, and that he or they know or believe, that the said naval Stores were the Produce of the said Colonies or Plantations.

To be paid by the Commissioners of the Navy, 24 Geo. 2. c. 52.

on Certificate of the Governor of the Place, and on Oath of the Master of the Ship.

IV. And whereas it is necessary for the better making cool and good Tar, fit for Cordage, in all the British Plantations, that the last half Part of every Kiln of Tar, when drawn, shall be made into Pitch free of Dross, be it enacted by the Authority afore-said, That the whole Kiln of such Tar or the Value thereof, unless the said half Part shall be so made into Pitch as afore-said, shall, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, be forfeited for the Benefit of any Person or Persons, who shall sue for the same, to be levied and recovered in the same Manner as other Penalties and Forfeitures are directed by this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The whole Kiln of Tar, unless the last half Part be made into Pitch, forfeited.

V. And to the end a particular Benefit may accrue hereby to his Majesty's Royal Navy, and for the better Supply of the same with naval Stores, be it further enacted, That upon the importing of any naval Stores from his Majesty's said Colonies and Plantations, for which a Reward or Premium is hereby granted, the Pre-emption or Refusal of such naval Stores shall be offered and tendered to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, upon landing the same; and if, within the Term of twenty Days after such Tender, the said Commissioners shall not contract or bargain for the same, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Importer or Importers, Owner or Owners, of the said naval Stores, otherwise to dispose of the same, for his or their best Profit and Advantage.

The Commissioners of the Navy to have the Pre-emption.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority afore-said, That if any Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Masts, Mards or Bowspights, shall, after the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, be exported, that then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons so exporting the same shall, before the Entry thereof, produce to the Collector of the Customs, at the Port of Exportation, or to the chief Officer of the Customs there, a Receipt from the Treasurer of the Navy, or his Cashier, which he is hereby directed to give without Fee or Reward, signifying that such Exporter or his Agent has paid to him the full Amount of the Premiums that are allowed by this Act, for the like Quantity of such naval Stores respectively, either in lawful Money of Great Britain, or by Bill or Bills made out for Premiums, by virtue of this Act; which Receipt shall likewise be subscribed by the Comptroller of such Treasurer's Accounts, or his chief Clerk, without Fee or Reward, so that proper Notice may be taken thereof in his Office; and on Failure thereof such naval Stores shall not be exported; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Exportation, the Exporter to produce a Receipt that he hath repaid the Premiums.

VII. Provided always, That the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy shall, on the receiving of such Premium or the Value thereof, from the Exporter of such naval Stores as afore-said, charge himself with the Money so received, or with the said Premium, Bill or Bills; and the Commissioners, and principal Officers of his Majesty's Navy, are to take particular Care that the same be duly brought to the Account of his Majesty by such Treasurer accordingly.

Treasurer of the Navy to charge himself with the Money received.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority afore-said, That if any Person or Persons, their Agents or Assigns, shall be found fraudulently to export such naval Stores, without paying such Premium to the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy or his Cashier, in manner afore-said, such Person or Persons shall forfeit and lose all such naval Stores, and double the Value thereof, one Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Informer, or Prosecutor, to be prosecuted in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, where, in no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlanee, shall be allowed.

Naval Stores exported before Premium is repaid, are forfeited, and double their Value.

IX. Provided always, That if any Doubt or Dispute shall arise, whether any of the naval Stores, or any Part thereof, so to be exported, are of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of his Majesty's Plantations in America, or of foreign Growth, Produce or Manufacture, the Onus probandi shall lie on the Owner or Claimer thereof, and not on the Informer or Prosecutor; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Onus probandi to lie on the Owner.

X. And whereas by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First's Reign, 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. intitled, An Act against clandestine running of uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating

during this Act.

relating to the Customs, several Provisions are made, relating to the Manner of examining and viewing Pitch and Tar, and making Certificates for the same, in order to obtain the Premium granted for such Pitch and Tar, and for inflicting Penalties and Forfeitures on any Officer of the Customs, who shall demand or take any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for the examining, viewing or delivering such Pitch, Tar or other naval Stores, with Respect to the Premium or Reward allowed by Law, or for the making or signing a Certificate in order to the receiving such Premium or Reward; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said Act of the fifth Year of his said late Majesty, so far as the same relate to the examining and viewing such Pitch and Tar of the Produce of his Majesty's Plantations, and for inflicting Penalties and Forfeitures upon any Officer of the Customs, demanding or taking any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for examining, viewing or delivering such Pitch, Tar or other naval Stores, with Respect to the Premium, and for the making or signing a Certificate, in order to the receiving such Premium or Reward, shall be continued and put in Practice during the Continuance of this Act, as if the several Matters, Things and Penalties were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 Geo. 2. c. 12.

XI. And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act giving further Encouragement for the Importation of naval Stores, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, a particular Method is prescribed for the making of Tar from green Trees prepared for that Purpose; and, before the Importers were intitled to any Premium, Oath was to be made, that the Trees were prepared after the following Manner; that is to say, when such Trees were fit to bark, the Bark thereof was stripped eight Foot, or thereabouts, up from the Root of each Tree, a Slip of the Bark of about four Inches in Breadth having been left on one Side of each Tree; that each Tree, after having been so barked, had stood during one Year at least, and was not before cut down for the making Tar; which Method, if the same was followed, there is great Reason to apprehend would make the Tar of the Plantations much cooler, and more fit for the Uses of Navigation; but the Inhabitants of the Plantations, not being experienced in that Method of making Tar, cannot as yet furnish any Quantities of Tar made according to those Directions: As a further Encouragement therefore for the making of Tar according to the Directions of the said Act, be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons that shall import or cause to be imported into this Kingdom any clean, good, merchantable, well conditioned Tar, clear of Dross or Water, and fit in every Respect for making Cordage, made from Trees prepared as aforesaid, according to the Directions of the said Act of the eighth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, shall receive, as a Premium for the same, four Pounds per Tun, containing eight Barrels, and each Barrel to gauge thirty-one Gallons and one Half, to be well hooped and filled up, on the Importation thereof: Provided always, That the Importer of such Tar, before he be intitled to any Reward or Premium for the same, shall produce to the proper Officers of his Majesty's Customs (who are to grant Certificates upon the Importation of Tar) such Certificate upon Oath, that all the said Tar was made without Mixture of any other Tar therewith, according to the Directions of the said Act, as in the said Act for that Purpose is particularly mentioned and required.

XII. And whereas there are in several Parts of North Britain commonly called Scotland, great Store of Pine and Fir Trees fit for Masts, Yards and Bowsprights, but the Lands and Woods, which may yield such Naval Stores, are mostly in Parts mountainous and remote from navigable Rivers; therefore, for the Encouragement of the Proprietors of such Lands and Woods, in the making Roads, Passages and Rivers in those northern Parts useful and commodious to the Publick, as well as for conveying such Trees fit for Masts, Yards and Bowsprights to Sea Ports in North Britain, to be brought by Sea to that Part of Great Britain called England: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons, or Bodies Corporate, that shall, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, during the Time limited for the granting of Premiums to the Importers of Naval Stores from America by Virtue of this Act, bring from North Britain aforesaid, into any Port of South Britain aforesaid, any Trees of twelve Inches Diameter and upwards, fit for Masts, Yards or Bowsprights, regularly converted and hewed at least into eight Squares, sound, fresh and in good and merchantable Condition, shall have and receive as a Reward or Premium for bringing such Naval Stores from North Britain to South Britain, for such Trees fit for Yards, Masts or Bowsprights per Tun (allowing forty Foot to each Tun, Sixt-measure, according to the customary Way of measuring round Bodies) the Sum of one Pound, which said Reward and Premium shall likewise be paid and answered, in good and lawful Money of Great Britain, by the Commissioners or principal Officers of his Majesty's Navy, who are hereby required and impowered to make out a Bill or Bills to be paid in Course for the same, upon Certificate of the respective Chief Officer or Officers of the Customs in any Port of South Britain, where such Trees fit for Masts, Yards or Bowsprights shall be imported as aforesaid; such Bill or Bills to be made out and given to the Person or Persons, or Bodies Corporate, importing the same as aforesaid, within twenty Days after the Discharge and Unlading of the Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels in which such Trees shall be imported, upon a Certificate or Certificates to be produced to the Chief Officer or Officers of the Customs where such Trees shall be imported, which Certificate or Certificates shall be under the Hands and Seals of the Comptroller and Collector of his Majesty's Customs, and such Naval Officer as his Majesty shall think fit to appoint, or any two of them, residing at any such Port or Ports in North Britain as his Majesty under the Great Seal of Great Britain shall think fit to appoint, where such Trees shall be embarked or shipped, in order for importing the same into any Port of South Britain, that before the Departure of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, the Persons, Traders or Factors concerned or employed in cutting down such Trees, or any two of them, had made Affidavit in Writing before such Comptroller and Collector of his Majesty's Customs in North Britain, and such Naval Officer as his Majesty shall think fit to appoint, or any two of them, that such Trees, so brought to such Port of North Britain, were truly and bona fide of the Growth and Produce of North Britain aforesaid; in which Affidavit the particular Number, Quantity and Qualities of such Trees, together with the Time when such Trees were cut down, the Names of the Proprietors thereof, and the Place or Places where the same did grow, shall be fully and plainly specified and contained; which Affidavits the said Comptroller and Collector of his Majesty's Customs in North Britain, and such such Naval Officer as his Majesty shall think fit to appoint, or any two of them, are hereby impowered to take, and to administer such Oath as aforesaid, and the same Affidavits to keep in their Custody, and in which Certificate a true Copy of such Affidavit shall be inserted; as likewise upon Oath to be made within any Port of South Britain, by the Master or Masters of such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels importing such Trees, that the same were truly laden on board such Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels within North Britain aforesaid, and that he or they know or believe, that the said Trees were of the Growth of North Britain aforesaid: Provided always, That the Pre-emption or Refusal of such North British Trees be offered and tendered to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy upon landing the same; and if, within the Term of twenty Days after such Tender, the said Commissioners shall not contract or bargain for the same, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Owner or Owners of the said North British Trees, otherwise to dispose thereof.

XIII. And for the better preventing any fraudulent Importation of foreign Trees for Masts, Pards or Bowspights (not being of the Growth or Produce of North Britain) to South Britain, in order to obtain the Reward or Premium hereby granted for North British Trees: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, during the Continuance of this Act, falsly make Affidavit of and swear to the Growth of any Trees imported as fit for Masts, Pards or Bowspights, not being of the Produce of North Britain, or shall counterfeit any such Affidavit or Certificate, as herein is before described, in order to get the Premium hereby granted for North British Trees, all and every such Person and Persons shall suffer the like Pains and Penalties, as are incurred by Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury, and all and every such Person and Persons committing such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the King's most excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to any Person or Persons that will sue for the same in any Court of Record of Great Britain, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; and if any Comptroller, Collector or Naval Officer shall make any false Certificate contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, such Comptroller, Collector or Naval Officer, and every of them so offending, shall incur the same Pains and Penalties, as any Officer of any Port for the like Offence is for making a false Certificate for Goods and Merchandizes liable to, by an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel shall clandestinely import or receive in such Ship or Vessel, to be imported into South Britain, any Trees fit for Masts, Pards or Bowspights, not being of the Growth of North Britain, as Trees of the Growth of North Britain, knowing the same to be foreign Trees, and shall demand or receive for such foreign Trees the Reward or Premium hereby granted for North British Trees, such Master or Owner shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered in like Manner as aforesaid, and the Ship or Vessel in which such foreign Trees shall be so fraudulently imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, shall be forfeited to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Exportation of all Masts, Pards and Bowspights of the Growth of Scotland, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September next, shall be under the same Restrictions, Regulations, Payments and Penalties as are directed in this Act to be observed, paid and performed on the Exportation of Masts, Pards and Bowspights imported from the Plantations.

XVI. Provided always, That the Importation of the Naval Stores following, viz. Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Masts, Pards and Bowspights of the Growth or Produce of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, shall be subject to the same Regulations, Restrictions and Limitations, in Reference to the shipping and navigating thereof, and such Security shall be given for importing the same into Great Britain, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Importation of Sugar, Tobacco, Cotton, Wool, Indigo, Ginger, Fustick and other dying Wood, for his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, are subject unto.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the aforementioned Premiums upon Masts, Pards and Bowspights, Tar, Pitch and Turpentine, shall be paid upon the Importation of the said Naval Stores, for and during the Term of thirteen Years, to commence from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants Service.

WHEREAS the Welfare and Riches of this Kingdom greatly depend on the Trade and Navigation thereof, the same being of great Use and Benefit, and tending very much to enrich the Subjects thereof, upon which great Numbers of the Artificers and Manufacturers Livelihoods wholly depend; and whereas, for several Years last past, the Navigation carried on by the Merchants to Parts beyond the Seas, hath been and doth still remain under very great Difficulties and Expences, by the Uncertainty they labour under by Seamen and Mariners, who ship themselves on board Merchant Ships, and after they have so done, neglect their Duty, and will not remain on board their Ships or Vessels to discharge their Duty; and very often, when Ships and Vessels come to be cleared out, in order to proceed on their respective Voyages, the Seamen refuse to proceed with them, without coming to new Agreements for increasing their Wages, and many of them will leave their Ships and Vessels and not proceed on their Voyages, which puts the Owners of such Ships and Vessels to great Trouble and Charges to get other Sailors or Mariners in their Stead, and often is a Means to overset the Voyages of such Ships and Vessels, to the great Prejudice of the Owners and Freighters of the Goods on board the said Ships and Vessels; and yet such Seamen and Mariners, after they have committed such Offences and Disorders, will bring Actions against the Owners or Masters of the said Ships and Vessels for the Recovery of their Wages, from the Time of their shipping themselves unto the Time they quit the said Ships and Vessels: And whereas many of the said Seamen and Mariners will neglect their Duty when on board at Sea, and desert their Ships and Vessels in foreign Parts, which puts the said Owners of Ships and Vessels to very great Difficulties and Expences, to get others in their Stead, to bring their Ships and Vessels home; and afterwards such Seamen and Mariners insist on recovering their Wages, notwithstanding their voluntary Desertion; all which is a great Discouragement to Trade and Navigation: Therefore, in order to prevent such Practices for the future, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, it shall not be lawful for any Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel bound to Parts beyond the Seas, to carry any Seaman or Mariner, except his Apprentice or Apprentices, to Sea, from any Port or Place where he or they were entered or shipped, to proceed on any Voyage to Parts beyond the Seas, without first coming to an Agreement or Contract with such Seamen or Mariners for their Wages, which Agreement or Agreements shall be made in Writing, declaring what Wages each Seaman or Mariner is to have respectively during the whole Voyage, or for so long Time as he or they shall ship themselves for; and also to express in the said Agreement or Contract the Voyage for which such Seaman or Mariner was shipped, to perform the same; and in case any Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel shall carry out any Seaman or Mariner, except his Apprentice or Apprentices, upon any Voyage to Parts beyond the Seas, without first entering into such Agreement or Contract as aforesaid, and he and they signing the same, such Master or Commander shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for every such Seaman or Mariner which he shall carry to Sea, without entering into such Agreement in Writing as aforesaid, to the Use of Greenwich Hospital, to be recovered upon Information on the Oath of one or more Witnesses or Witnesses, before any one or more of his Majesty's Justice or Justices of the Peace, who are hereby authorized and required to issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants to bring before him or them such Master or Commander of any such Ship or Vessel; and in case he or they refuse to pay such Penalty or Forfeiture as aforesaid, to grant his or their Warrant or Warrants, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods; and, in case no Distress can be found, to commit the Offender or Offenders to the common Gaol of the City, County, Town or Place, there to remain until he or they shall pay the same.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Seaman or Mariner enter or ship himself on board any Merchant Ship or Vessel on any intended Voyage for Parts beyond the Seas, he and they so entering themselves as aforesaid, shall, and they are hereby obliged to sign such Agreement or Contract within three Days after he or they shall have entered themselves on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to proceed on any Voyage as aforesaid; which Agreement or Agreements, or Contracts, after the signing thereof, shall be conclusive and binding to all Parties, for and during the Time or Times so agreed or contracted for, to all Intents and Purposes, any Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Seaman or Mariner shall desert or refuse to proceed on the Voyage on board any Ship or Vessel, bound to Parts beyond the Seas as aforesaid, or that shall desert from the Ship or Vessel to which he or they shall belong, in Parts beyond the Seas, after he or they shall have signed such Contract or Agreement, he or they shall forfeit to the Owners of such Ship or Vessel the Wages which shall be due to him or them at the Time of his or their deserting from such Ship or Vessel, or obstinately refusing to proceed on such Voyage.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Seaman or Mariner shall desert or absent himself from any such Ship or Vessel, after he or they have entered into and signed such Contract or Agreement to proceed upon any Voyage to Parts beyond the Seas as aforesaid, upon Application made to any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within their respective Jurisdictions, by the Master or Commander, Owner or Owners, or other Person or Persons having Charge of the said Ship or Vessel to which such Seaman or Mariner did belong, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and they are hereby required to issue forth his or their Warrant or Warrants to apprehend such Seaman or Mariner; and in case he or they shall refuse to proceed on the Voyage for which he or they entered into Contract or Agreement to perform as aforesaid, and shall not give a sufficient Reason for such Refusal, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, then to commit such Seaman or Mariner to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour, not exceeding thirty Days nor less than fourteen Days, any Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Seaman or Mariner shall absent himself from the Ship or Vessel to which he shall belong, without Leave from the Master or Commander, or other Chief Officer, having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, every such Seaman or Mariner shall, for every such Day's Absence, forfeit two Days Pay to the Use of Greenwich Hospital, to be recovered, applied and disposed of as is herein after directed by this Act.

VI. And whereas Seamen and Mariners, after their Ships Arrival at their unlivering Port in Great Britain, oftentimes leave the Ships and Vessels before they are unladen, or before the said Seamen and Mariners are discharged by the Masters or Commanders of such Ships and Vessels; in order to prevent such Practices for the future; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Seaman or Mariner, not entering into the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall leave such Ship or Vessel, to which he or they belong, before he or they shall have a Discharge in Writing from the Master or Commander, or other Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, he or they so leaving such Ship or Vessel shall forfeit one Month's Pay, to be recovered, applied and disposed of as is herein after directed.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel into Great Britain from Parts beyond the Seas, the Masters or Commanders of such Ships or Vessels shall be, and they are hereby obliged to pay the Seamen and Mariners belonging to such Ships or Vessels their Wages, if demanded, in thirty Days after the said Ships or Vessels being entered at the Custom-house, except in case where a Covenant shall be entered into to the contrary, or at the Time the said Seamen and Mariners shall be discharged, which which shall first happen, if demanded, deducting out of such Wages the Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, under the Penalty of paying to each Seaman or Mariner that shall be unpaid, contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, twenty Shillings over and above the Wages that shall be due to each Person, to be recovered by the same Means and Methods as the Wages may be recovered; and such Payment of Wages aforesaid shall be good and valid in Law, notwithstanding any Action, Bill of Sale, Attachment or Intumbrance whatsoever.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Seaman or Mariner by entering into or signing such Contract or Agreement as aforesaid, shall be deprived of or hindered from using any Means or Methods for the Recovery of Wages against any Ship, the Master or Owners thereof, which he may now lawfully make use of, and that in all Cases where it shall or may be necessary that the Contract or Agreement in Writing aforesaid should be produced in Court, no Obligation shall lie on any Seaman or Mariner to produce the same, but on the Master, Owner or Owners of the Ship for which the Wages shall be demanded; and no Seaman or Mariner shall fail in any Suit, Action or Process for Recovery of Wages for want of such Agreement or Contract being produced; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of Suit for Wages, Master obliged to produce the Agreement. And Seamen not deprived of other Remedies.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Masters or Commanders, or Owners of any Ships or Vessels shall and they hereby have full Power to deduct, out of the Wages of any Seaman or Mariner, all the Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred by this Act, and to enter them in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose, and to make Oath, if required, to the Truth thereof; which Book or Books shall be signed by the said Master or Commander of each Ship or Vessel respectively, and two or more principal Officers belonging to such Ships or Vessels, setting forth that the Penalties and Forfeitures contained in such Book or Books, are the whole Penalties and Forfeitures kept from any Seamen or Mariners during the whole Voyage; which Penalties and Forfeitures (except the Forfeiture of Wages to the Owners on the Desertion of any Seaman or Mariner, or on refusing to proceed on the Voyage) shall go to and be applied to the Use of Greenwich Hospital, and not otherwise, to be paid and accounted for by the Masters and Commanders of Ships and Vessels coming from Parts beyond the Seas, to the same Officer or Officers, at any Port or Place, who collects the six Pence per Month, deducted out of Seamen's Wages, for the Use of the said Hospital; which Officer shall have and hereby hath full Power to administer an Oath to every Commander or Master respectively touching the Truth of such Penalties and Forfeitures, to be paid, applied and disposed of as aforesaid.

Masters to deduct out of Seamen's Wages all Penalties due to Greenwich Hospital.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case any Masters or Commanders, or Owners of any Ships or Vessels shall deduct out of the Wages of any Seamen or Mariners, any of the Penalties and Forfeitures, which by this Act are directed to be deducted and applied to and for the Use of Greenwich Hospital, and shall not pay the Money so deducted to some Officer or Officers who collect the six Pence per Month, deducted out of Seamen's Wages, for the Use of the said Hospital, in the Port or Place where such Deduction shall be made, within three Months after such Deduction, every Person so neglecting to pay the Money deducted as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay treble the Value thereof to the Use of the said Hospital; which, together with the Money deducted as aforesaid, shall and may be recovered by the same Means and Methods as any Penalties and Forfeitures for not duly paying the said six Pence per Month can or may be recovered.

Forfeitures to be paid to the Hospital within 3 Months.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act; and all Judges and Justices are hereby obliged to take Notice of it as such, without special pleading the same.

Publick Act.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in Force for the Space of five Years, to be reckoned from the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Continuation of the Act. Continued by 23 Geo. 2. c. 26.

XIII. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to debar any Seaman or Mariner belonging to any Merchant Ship or Vessel, from entering or being entered into the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, on board any of his or their Ships or Vessels; nor shall such Seaman or Mariner, for such Entry, forfeit the Wages due to him, during the Term of his Service in such Merchant Ship or Vessel; nor shall such Entry be deemed a Desertion.

An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; for exempting from the said Duties Cyder and Perry used for Distilling; for ascertaining the Bounty for Malt exported; for better preventing Frauds in the malting of Corn for Exportation; for making good the Deficiency of a late Malt Act; and for giving further Time to Clerks and Apprentices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures and Contracts.

Two Clauses in the Act 6 Geo. 1. c. 21. sect. 1, 2.

XIII. AND whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Revenues of Excise, Customs, Stamp Duties, Post Office and House Money, it is enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, no Malster or Maker of Malt for Exportation, shall cause or permit any Barley or other Corn or Grain by him, her or them making into Malt, to be steeped, wetted or watered upon the Couch or Floor, or in any other Place but in their respective Cisterns duly entered for that Purpose, on Pain of forfeiting for every Bushel of Malt, which shall be found to have been steeped, wetted or watered contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence: And whereas in the before recited Act it is further enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty, no such Malster or Maker of Malt for Exportation shall cause or permit any Corn or Grain by them making into Malt, to be worked or made in such Manner that the same shall accrespire (that is to say) run out, grow or sprout at that End of the Corn or Grain from which the Blade proceeds; and in case it shall appear upon Examination that more than one Part in fifteen of such Corn or Grain is accrespired, the entire Wetting of Malt, whereof such Corn or Grain was Part, shall be deemed, taken and charged as accrespired Malt, and the Malster and Maker thereof shall be charged with the full Duty of six Pence a Bushel for every Bushel of Malt of that Wetting, and shall also forfeit and lose for every Bushel of the said Malt, the further Sum of five Shillings: And whereas at the Time of making the said Act all Malt was liable to and charged with the Duties imposed thereon, but such Malt, as should afterwards be exported to foreign Parts, was to have the Benefit of drawing back the Duties paid on the making thereof; but since that Time, for some Years last past, and by this Act, all Malt made and entered for Exportation only, is not charged with any Duty on the making thereof, and on that Account hath not any Drawback on the Exportation thereof: And whereas the before recited Clauses were chiefly intended to prevent any Frauds that might be committed in drawing back, on such Exportation, more Money than was at first paid or charged for the Duties on the making such Malt, but as no such Drawbacks do now subsist, and as by frequent Experience it hath been found, the Method prescribed by the said Clauses for preventing accrespiring, hath in many Cases been impracticable, and hath occasioned great Vexations and Disputes between the Makers of Malt and the Officers for inspecting and managing the said Duties, and is a great Obstruction to the free and extensive Exportation of malted Corn, whereby Foreigners are encouraged to malt Corn themselves, to the great Prejudice of this Nation: For the preventing these Mischiefs and Inconveniencies, and for the better encouraging the Exportation of malted Corn, and at the same Time preventing any Abuses in the Bounties or Allowances still allowed by Law on Malt exported; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the said two before recited Clauses in the said Act of the sixth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign shall be and are hereby repealed, made null and void, to all Intents and Purposes, and from thenceforth shall not be put in Execution; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

The two Clauses repealed.

Allowances for Exportation of Malt.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, there shall be allowed to Malsters and Makers of Malt for Exportation, for every twenty Quarters of Barley or other Corn or Grain that shall be entered and made into Malt for Exportation, an Allowance of thirty Quarters, after the same shall be dried and made into Malt, and no more, upon the Exportation thereof, though by their steeping, wetting and watering the same, the said twenty Quarters shall be run out to any greater Quantity, exceeding the said thirty Quarters, according according to an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Exportation of Corn, and in such Cases where by the aforesaid Act of Parliament they are intituled to the same, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, if any Person or Persons who shall export any Malt into foreign Parts, shall produce a Certificate or Certificates from the Officer or Officers with whom the Entry of the Corn or Grain intended to be made into Malt shall have been made, of the particular Sum or Sums of Money that such Person or Persons is intituled to receive, according to the aforesaid Allowance of thirty Quarters of Malt for every twenty Quarters of Corn or Grain, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity that shall have been entered to be made into Malt for Exportation, which Certificates the said Officers are hereby upon Demand required to give gratis; and upon such Person or Persons giving sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantity of Malt which shall be intended to be exported as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, shall not be relanded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain, which Security the Customer or Collector of the Port, where the same is intended to be exported, is hereby directed and authorized to take in his Majesty's Name, and to his Majesty's Use; then the Collector or Chief Officer of the Port where such Malt shall be exported, shall give to the Exporter thereof a Certificate or Debenture directed to the proper Person or Persons, by whom the said Allowance by the aforesaid Act of Parliament is directed to be paid; which Certificate or Debenture being produced to such Person or Persons, he is hereby required to pay such Allowance to the Persons or their Agents so exporting the same. Provided always, That if after the shipping of any such Malt to be exported, and the giving such Security as aforesaid, in order to obtain the aforesaid Allowance, the Malt so shipped to be exported or any Part thereof, shall be relanded in any Part of Great Britain, that then, and in every such Case, over and above the Penalty of the Bond, which shall be levied and recovered to his Majesty's Use, all the Malt which shall be relanded, and treble the Value thereof shall be forfeited; that is to say, one Moiety thereof to the King, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons that shall seize, inform or sue for the same.

On Certificate of Malt being exported, and Security, Allowance to be paid.

Penalty on relanding.

XVI. And whereas Malsters and Makers of Malt for Exportation, do frequently mix the Produce of two or more Steepings of Corn or Grain that have been entered to be made into Malt for Exportation, on or as soon as it comes off from the Kiln, by Reason whereof the Officers for the Duties upon Malt cannot ascertain the real Produce thereof, by which Means great Quantities of each Steeping of such Malt are or may be privately conveyed away, and made use of for home Consumption, though the same has not been charged with the Duty as all Malt made for home Consumption ought to be: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all and every Malster or Malsters, Maker or Makers of Malt for Exportation, shall keep the whole and entire Quantity of his, her or their Corn or Grain making into Malt for Exportation, of one Steeping or Wetting, when the same shall be on the Kiln, or after the same shall be taken off the Kiln, separate and apart from all and every Part of any other former Steeping or Wetting of Corn or Grain, until the same shall have been measured by such Malsters or Makers of Malt, in the Presence of some Officer or Officers for the Duty upon Malt, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Malt steeping for Exportation to be kept separate till measured.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all such Malsters or Makers of Malt for Exportation, shall give Notice in Writing to some Officer or Officers of the Duties upon Malt, or shall leave Notice in Writing at the next Office of Excise where the Journal is kept, of the Hour when he, she or they shall intend to take any Malt off the Kiln or Kilns, that such Officer or Officers may attend the measuring of such Malt; and after such Malt has been measured, the same shall be immediately carried on Shipboard, if intended to be then exported, or else shall immediately be locked up and secured in some Storehouse, or other Place belonging to such Malsters or Makers of Malt, in the Presence of the said Officer or Officers, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Malsters to give Notice to Officers, &c.

Malt to be exported, or locked up.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, if any such Malster or Malsters, or Maker or Makers of Malt, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, by his Order, Privy or Directions, after any Steeping or making of Malt shall have been locked up and secured in any Storehouse, or other Place or Places in Manner as aforesaid, shall open any of the Locks or Doors, or shall make any Way or Kind of Entrance into such Storehouse, or other Place or Places, or shall remove any Part whatever of the Partition between any such Storehouse or Place, or any other Place or Places whatever next thereunto adjoining, or shall remove out of the said Storehouse or other Place, any Quantity whatever of the said Malt that has been so locked up and secured, without the Knowledge or Consent of, or without having first given Notice to some Officer or Officers for the said Duties, he, she or they shall respectively forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalty on opening the Locks, &c.

XIX. And the better to enable the Officers for the Duties upon Malt to discover whether all such Malt made for Exportation, and that has been locked up and secured in any Storehouse, or other Place or Places, to be exported, has been really exported: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Malster or Malsters, or Maker or Makers of Malt, that on the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty shall have any Quantity of Malt locked up and secured in any Storehouse, or in any other Place or Places, as is before directed, to be exported, shall within nine Months next after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty remove and clear out of his Storehouse, or other Place or Places, all and every Part and Parcel thereof, that at any Time after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty shall be locked up and secured in such Storehouse or other Place, in order to be exported, and shall always from Time to Time, in every nine Months, remove and clear out of such Storehouse, or other Place or Places, in order to be exported, all and every Part and Parcel of Malt, that at any Time, within every nine Months after the last clearing, shall be locked up and secured in any Storehouse, house, or in any other Place or Places that shall be made use of by him, her or them, for the keeping of Malt for Exportation, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of fifty Pounds.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, that shall become Malsters or Makers of Malt for Exportation, and shall make use of any Storehouse or Storehouses, Place or Places, for the keeping of Malt for Exportation, shall within nine Months after the beginning to make use of any such Storehouse or Storehouses, or such other Place or Places, remove and clear out of such Places, to be exported, all and every Part and Parcel of such Malt, that at any Time or Times shall have been put into such Place or Places, within nine Months after he, she or they shall have begun to make use of such Place or Places, and shall always from Time to Time remove and clear out of such Storehouse or other Place, to be exported, all and every Quantity of Malt whatever, that within every nine Months after the last clearing shall at any Time be locked up and secured in such Storehouse or Storehouses, or in any other Place or Places that shall be made use of by him, her or them, for the keeping of Malt made for Exportation, on Pain of forfeiting and losing the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be levied.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offence against this Act, shall be sued for, levied and recovered or mitigated, by the same Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture given by any of the Laws of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, can or may be sued for, levied, recovered or mitigated, or by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that one Moiety of such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform or sue for the same.

Clause of Loan at 3 l. per Cent. Money lent may be transferred. Exchequer may issue out new Exchequer Bills, to bear Interest at 2 d. per Cent. per Diem, and to be placed as Cash in the Exchequer. Monies arising by this Act applied to pay off the Loans and Exchequer Bills, &c. Clause for Relief of Clerks, &c. whose Masters have omitted to pay the Duties, and to have their Indentures stamped. An Act for reviving and amending an Act made in the sixth and seventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to prevent Exactions of the Occupiers of Locks and Weirs upon the River of Thames westward, and for ascertaining the Rates of Water-carriage upon the said River. 24 Geo. 2. c. 2.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was made and passed in the sixth and seventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to prevent Exactions of Occupiers of Locks and Weirs upon the River of Thames westward, and for ascertaining the Rates of Water-carriage upon the said River, which said Act, whilst it continued in Force, was found to be useful to the Trade and Navigation of the said River, and also beneficial to all Persons concerned therein, but the same hath been for many Years expired; and whereas since the Expiration of the said Act, the Occupiers of the Locks, Weirs, Banks, Dams, Floodgates, Winches, and other Engines, upon or near adjoining to the River of Thames and Ifis westward, to Cricklade in the County of Wilts, and from thence to the City of London, exact such exorbitant Sums of Money for the Passage of Barges, Boats, and other Vessels, to and from thence to London and other Places upon the said Rivers, as tend greatly to the Discouragement of the Navigation, and the enhancing the Prices of Water-carriage upon the said Rivers; and whereas of late several Persons demand and take large Sums of Money for towing Paths, which Paths used to be free for Men to tow their Barges, Boats, and other Vessels, and towing the said Barges and Boats requires such Numbers of Men as renders it very chargeable, and it is found much more convenient to tow with Horses; but by Reason of the Necessity of making use of Horses for such Purposes, the Owners and Occupiers of the said

Lands

Lands oblige the Barge-Masters to pay such Sums of Money for the Passage of the said Horses, as if not regulated and ascertained, will lessen the Navigation of the said Rivers, and render the same less useful to the Publick; and whereas the erecting of the said Locks, Wears, Banks, Dams, Floodgates, and other Engines, are and may be of Use to the Navigation of the said Rivers; but the Tenants and Occupiers of the same do now take such large Rates for Barges, Boats, and other Vessels having Occasion to make use of the same, or of their Assistance, for or in their Passage, that the Water-carriage on those Rivers is very much raised, and the said Tenants and Occupiers of the said Locks, Wears, Banks, Dams, Floodgates, and other Engines, have upon sudden Summer Floods, exacted great Sums of Monies from the Owners and Tenants of the Meadows above them, before they would open the Gates and Locks to draw off the Flood, and divers other Abuses are committed by the Bargemen in their Navigation upon the said Rivers: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted, &c.

The Commissioners, &c. may appoint some of their Number to view the Locks, &c. and to inquire on Oath of the Rates taken at Locks. Rates for towing Paths of 35 Years to continue. Commissioners may rate the Price of Carriage. Bargemen acting contrary to the Rule or Assessments forfeit 5*l.* and Freight of Goods. On extraordinary Occasions, and Notice in the Gazette Commissioners to meet. On Death of Commissioners others to be chosen. Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Justices of Assize. Rules to be written on Parchment, and kept among the Records of the Sessions. Barge-Master answerable for his Crew. Commissioners may remove Piles: They may on Complaint that the Water runs over the Water-Mark, order the Locks to be open till the Water is sunk. They may order the Rivers to be cleaned. Disputes about Wears, &c. to be determined at the next Town. Commissioners to have 100*l.* per Annum Freehold. Continuation for nine Years. E X P. See 24 Geo. 2. c. 8.

An Act for importing of Salt from Europe into the Colony of New York in America.

WHEREAS the River, Bay and Coast of the Colony of New York in America, and the Seas adjoining, are very commodiously situated for carrying on of the fishing Trade, and they abound with great Quantities of Shadd, Sturgeon, Bass, Sardine, and several other Kinds of Fish, which may be caught and cured, and made fit for foreign Markets, whereby the Trade of Great Britain, and the Inhabitants of the said Colony, would reap considerable Benefit, which would enable the said Inhabitants to purchase more of the British Manufactures for their Use, than at present they are able, by Reason of the little Trade and Produce the said Colony affords, were it permitted for his Majesty's Subjects to import Salt from Europe into the said Colony for the curing of their Fish withal, in the like Manner as is practised in New England and Newfoundland, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second for that Purpose: And whereas formerly the Northern Parts of America were comprehended under the general Name of New England, but since have been divided into several Provinces and Colonies, and bear other distinct Names, which occasions a Doubt whether Salt can be imported into them without the further Aid of Parliament, by which a very considerable and beneficial Fishery might be carried on there, to the great Benefit of your Majesty's Subjects in General: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, it shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesty's Subjects, to carry and import Salt from any Part of Europe into the Colony of New York in America, in British Ships and Vessels, manned and navigated according to the Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, and in the same Manner as Salt may be imported from Europe into New England and Newfoundland, by an Act made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of the said King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

After 1 June 1730. Salt may be imported from Europe into New York in America.

An Act for making navigable the River Stroudwater in the County of Gloucester, from the River Severn, at or near Framiload, to Wallbridge near the Town of Stroud in the same County. PR.

WHEREAS the River called Stroudwater is capable of being made navigable from the River Severn at or near Framiload in the County of Gloucester, to Wallbridge near the Town of Stroud in the same County, which if effected, will be of great Advantage not only to the cloathing Trade of the said County, but likewise to the Publick, by opening a Trade and Commerce between the City of Bristol and the several Market-Towns and other Places near the said River Stroudwater, whereby the Poor will be much better employed, the Highways greatly preserved, and the Woollen Manufacture of the said County much improved and increased: To the End therefore that the said River called Stroudwater may be made navigable and passable for Boats, Barges, Lighters, and other Vessels; Be it enacted, &c.

Persons authorized to make the River Stroud navigable. Commissioners appointed to determine Differences. Any seven of the Commissioners may settle Differences between Undertakers and others. If any refuse to treat, they may order a Jury to assess Damages. Their Verdict binding. The Decrees to be kept among the Records of the County of Gloucester. On Payment or Tender of the Assessments Undertakers may act. Persons summoned not appearing, &c. forfeit 40*s.* On Death of Commissioners new ones to be chosen. Rates to be paid to Undertakers, viz. For every Ton of Coals, Corn, Malt, Grain or Meal, 3*s.* 6*d.* For every Ton of other Goods, carried upon the River between the Severn at Framiload, and Wallbridge near Stroud, 5*s.* and in Proportion for any less Weight or Distance. Undertakers may set up Winches, &c. Bargemaster answerable for his Crew. This River not under the Survey of Commissioners of Sewers. Undertakers to secure Lands from being overflowed, and make good Damages. The River free for all Passengers, on paying the Rates. Exception as to Manure. Undertakers to begin by 24 June 1732. and finish before 24 June 1740. not to assign their Interest till Navigation perfected. All Damages not provided for to be settled by a Jury. From 24 August to 15 October yearly, no Barges to pass without Consent of the Owners of Mills. Undertakers to open the Locks to Barges. An Act for reducing the Annuity or Fund of the united East India Company, and for ascertaining their Right of Trade to the East-Indies, and the Continuance of their Corporation for that Purpose, upon the Terms therein mentioned.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third, of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two millions upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and

and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies, it is amongst other Things enacted, That all the Monies arising by the several Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, and upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, in the said Act mentioned, should be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer every Year, reckoning the first Year to begin from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, and that one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum of the Monies to arise by the said several Duties, and to be brought into the Exchequer by weekly or other Payments, should be the yearly Fund for and towards the answering and paying off certain Annuities of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, to such Persons or Corporations, as should subscribe and pay in their Monies upon the Terms of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, That it should be lawful for his Majesty, by Commission under the Great Seal of England, to authorize and appoint any Number of Persons to take and receive all such voluntary Subscriptions for or towards the said Sum of two millions, to be so paid as in the said Act is mentioned; in and by which Act it was further enacted, That such Subscribers as aforesaid should respectively receive and enjoy for ever, out of the Fund by the said Act settled, one Annuity for the whole Sum by them subscribed, according to the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, in the Manner thereby prescribed; and it is thereby further enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for his said late Majesty, by his Letters Patents, to incorporate all and every such the said Subscribers, upon whose Subscriptions such Payments should be made as is therein expressed, and all Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, deriving Title from or under them, so long as they respectively should have any such Share or Interest in the said yearly Fund, to be one Body Politick and Corporate by the Name of The General Society intituled to the Advantages given by an Act of Parliament for advancing a Sum not exceeding two millions, for the Service of the Crown of England, with such Succession, Capacity and Powers, as in the said Act is mentioned, and in such Charters or Letters Patent such further Rules, Powers and Clauses for carrying on the Trade, and pursuing the Ends and Intent of the said Act, were to be inserted, as should be lawfully and reasonably desired in that Behalf; and it was thereby enacted, That in case the said whole Sum of two millions, or one Moiety, or any greater Part of the said Sum of two millions, should be subscribed as aforesaid, on or before the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, that then and from thenceforth all and every the said Subscribers, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, deriving Title by, from or under such Subscribers, so long as they respectively should continue to have any Share or Interest in the said yearly Fund, and all and every Person and Persons licensed by them, should or lawfully might for ever thereafter, by themselves severally, or by such Factors, Agents or Servants, as they severally should think fit to intrust, freely traffick and use the Trade of Merchandize in, to, and from the East-Indies, and other Parts or Limits in the said Act mentioned, in such Manner, and by such Proportions, and subject to such Restrictions as in the said Act are expressed; and it was further thereby enacted, That if any Corporations, or other Persons having particular Shares or Interests in the said Principal Stock of the said General Society, should be desirous to unite and join together such their several Shares and Interests, and to be incorporated so as they might be able to manage their Trade (in Proportion to their Interests) as a Company, and by a Joint Stock, then it should and might be lawful for his said late Majesty, by his Letters Patents, to incorporate all such Persons and Corporations, by such proper Names as he should think fit, to be one Company, with Power to manage and carry on their Trade to the East-Indies, and other the Limits in the said Act mentioned, by a Joint Stock, and to have perpetual Succession, and a Common Seal, with other Privileges in the said Act mentioned; and it is thereby further enacted, That such Persons or Corporations as should in Pursuance of that Act have a Right and Power to trade to the East-Indies, and other the Parts aforesaid, according to such Provisions, Proportions and Restrictions, as in the said Act are contained, should use and enjoy the whole and sole Trade and Traffick, and the only Liberty, Use and Privilege of trading, trafficking and exercising the Trade or Business of Merchandize to and from the East-Indies, and to and from the several Places in the said Act mentioned; and that the same should not be visited, frequented or haunted by any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act prescribed and enacted; subject nevertheless to a Condition or Proviso therein contained, that upon three Years Notice, after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eleven, and Repayment of the said Sum of two millions, and all Arrears of the said Annuities or yearly Payments, then and from thenceforth the said Duties, and the yearly Fund charged thereupon, and the Duty of five Pounds per Centum for the imported Goods, and the Corporations to be erected in Pursuance of the said Act, and the Benefit of Trade thereby given, should cease and determine: And whereas in Pursuance of the said Act, his said late Majesty by a Commission under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Westminster the fourteenth Day of July in the tenth Year of his Reign, did authorize several Persons therein named to be Commissioners, with Power to take Subscriptions for or towards the raising and paying the said Sum of two millions: And whereas it appeared by Duplicates transmitted into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of his said late Majesty's Exchequer, that several Sums, amounting in the whole to the said Sum of two millions of Pounds Sterling, were subscribed pursuant to the said Act, and the said whole Sum of two millions was intirely answered to his Majesty's Use: And whereas by a Charter under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Westminster the third Day of September in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, his Majesty created and established the said Corporation or Body Politick, called The General Society, intituled to the Advantages given by an Act of Parliament for advancing a Sum not exceeding two millions, for the Service of the Crown of England, with such Powers, Privileges and Benefits, as are therein expressed: And whereas by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England bearing Date at Westminster the fifth Day of September in the said tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, reciting that the Subscribers towards the said Sum of two millions, therein particularly named and expressed, were desirous to unite or join together their several Shares and Interests in the Principal Stock of the said General Society, and to be incorporated, so as they might be able to manage their Trade in Proportion to their Interest as a Company, and by a Joint Stock, his said late Majesty did grant that the Subscribers therein particularly named, and every of them, and all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns, or by any other lawful Title derived by, from or under the said Subscribers, should have or be intituled to any Part, Share or Interest, of or in the said yearly Fund settled by the said Act, or of or in the proportionable Annuity or yearly Payments issuing out of the said yearly Fund, so long as they should respectively have any Part, Share or Interest therein, should be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The English Company trading to the East-Indies, with such Benefit of Trade, Powers, Privileges and Advantages, and subject to such Restrictions, Conditions, Covenants and Agreements, and to such Proviso of Redemption, as are therein referred to or expressed: And whereas in and by one other Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE (for assuring to the English Company trading to the East-Indies, on Account of the United Stock, a longer

Time

Time in the Fund and Trade therein mentioned, and for raising thereby the Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions) it was enacted, That upon Payment to her Majesty of the Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, at the Times, and upon the Terms in the said Act mentioned, they the said English Company trading to the East-Indies should have further Time and Interest in the said Fund and Trade to the East-Indies, as in the last mentioned Act is particularly set forth, but subject to the Proviso or Condition of Redemption in the said last mentioned Act, and therein set forth; that is to say, It was thereby declared and enacted, that at any Time, upon three Years Notice after the twenty-fifth Day of March which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, upon the Expiration of the said three Years, and upon Repayment by Parliament as well of the said Sum of two millions then before advanced, as of the said Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds then to be advanced, and since advanced and paid accordingly, making in the whole three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, and of all Arrears which at the End of the said three Years should be due for and upon the said Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, then and from thenceforth, as well the said Duties upon Salt, as the said Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and all the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and all the Corporations erected in Pursuance of the said Acts, and the Benefit of Trade granted by them, or by any Charters made in Pursuance thereof, or by that Act, should absolutely cease and determine: And whereas by Virtue of the said last mentioned Act, and of an Award made in Pursuance thereof, by the Right Honourable Sidney Earl of Godolphin, an Union between the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the East-Indies, and the said English Company trading to the East-Indies, was compleated, and the said Name and Style of the said English Company trading to the East-Indies was thereupon changed into the Name of The United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, as was also directed by the said Act: And whereas in and by one Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE (for continuing the Trade and Corporation Capacity of the United East-India Company, although their Fund should be redeemed) it was enacted, That the last mentioned Proviso for Redemption and Determination of the said several Duties, yearly Fund, Annuities, Corporations, and Benefit of Trade, should be and was thereby repealed and made void, and that the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and the Duty of five Pounds in the Hundred charged by the said Acts upon Goods imported from the East-Indies, should continue, and the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and their Successors, should have and enjoy the said yearly Sum of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, or such Part thereof, as they then were or thereafter should be intitled unto, and all the Benefit of Trade, Franchises, Privileges, Profits and Advantages whatsoever in respect thereof given and granted, or intended to be given or granted unto them by the said Act of the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, or by the said Charter of the fifth Day of September in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, or by the said Act of the sixth Year of the Reign of her then Majesty, or by any of them, freed and discharged of and from the said former Proviso or Condition of Redemption, contained in the said therein last recited Act, and all other Provisoes, Powers, Acts, Matters or Things thentofore had, made, done or committed for redeeming, determining or making void the same Duties, yearly Fund, Benefit of Trade, Franchise, Privilege, Profits and Advantages, or any of them, subject nevertheless to the Restrictions, Covenants and Agreements in the said therein recited Acts and Letters Patents, or any of them contained, and subject to the general Provisoes or Condition of Redemption therein after contained, in which said Act there is afterwards contained a Proviso in the Words or to the Effect following; that is to say, Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time upon three Years Notice, after the twenty-fifth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and upon Repayment by Parliament, as well of the said Sum of two millions, as of the said Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, making in the whole three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, unto such Companies, Corporations and Persons as shall be then intitled thereto, and of all Arrears which to the End of the said three Years shall be due, for or upon the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum; then and from thenceforth the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, and the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds shall absolutely cease and determine: And whereas one other Act of Parliament was made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First (for the better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesty's Subjects to and from the East-Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all his Majesty's Subjects trading thither under foreign Commissions): And whereas one other Act was made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, amongst other Things, for the further preventing his Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East-Indies under foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto: And whereas one other Act was also made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First (to prevent his Majesty's Subjects from subscribing, or being concerned in encouraging or promoting any Subscription for an East-India Company in the Austrian Netherlands, and for the better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesty's Subjects to and from the East-Indies) as by the said several Acts of Parliament, Commission and Charters, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, are legally possessed of and intitled to, the said Principal or Capital Stock of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, and to the said yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, redeemable as aforesaid, and are also possessed of and intitled to an additional Stock in Trade, and several Forts, Factories, Settlements, Possessions, Estates and Hereditaments, for the Benefit of or in Trust for, the Members of the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, in Proportion and according to their respective Parts, Shares and Interests in the said yearly Fund, and in the said Principal Stock of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds: And whereas the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, by Virtue of the said Acts of Parliament and Charters, some or one of them, claims to be a Body Politick and Corporate, and to have perpetual Succession, and claim also the whole and sole Trade, exclusive of all others, in, to and from the East-Indies, and Limits aforesaid for ever: But nevertheless the said United Company being willing, that all Doubts touching the Continuance of their Corporation, and of their Right to the whole and sole Trade within the Limits aforesaid for ever, after the Redemption of the said yearly Fund should be removed, were and are contented, and accordingly have consented and agreed, to subject their Right and Claim to the said whole, sole, and exclusive Trade, to be redeemable or determinable by Parliament, in Manner herein after mentioned; and have consented and agreed that their present Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, payable in respect of their said Capital

Capital Stock or Debt of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds from the Publick, be from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty, reduced to an Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred twenty-eight thousand Pounds, redeemable by Parliament on one Year's Notice to be given after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-six, on Payment to them of their said whole Capital Debt, with all Arrears in respect thereof, in Manner hereafter mentioned, and were and are moreover willing, and have consented and agreed to pay into his Majesty's Exchequer, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the full Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds, without any Interest or Addition to their said Capital Stock or Debt for the same, to be applied as hereafter mentioned, but upon such Terms, Conditions, Grants, Confirmations, Articles and Provisions nevertheless as herein after are made, granted, provided, declared and enacted: Now for the preventing, quieting and determining any Doubts, Disputes or Difficulties that have been, or may be raised concerning the Right or Claim of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, to the whole and sole Trade to the East-Indies, exclusive of all others, and for perfecting and compleating the several Matters and Things so as aforesaid consented to by the said Company, and to the End the said Company may be able to support and carry on the Trade to the East-Indies with Credit and Security, and improve the same for the Benefit of this Nation, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said United Company, in Pursuance of their before recited Agreement, shall and they are hereby required and enjoined to pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the full and entire Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be applied towards the Supplies granted to his Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty, for which no Interest shall be ever payable, nor shall any Addition be made to their Capital Stock or Debt from the Publick on Account of the same, nor shall the same, or any Part thereof, be repayable to the said United Company.

United Company
to pay 200,000l.

On one Year's Notice after 25
March 1736.
and Repayment,
&c. Annuity to cease.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time, upon one Year's Notice to be given by Parliament, after the twenty-fifth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-six, upon the Expiration of the said Year, and upon Repayment by Parliament of the said whole Capital Stock or Debt of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds unto the said United Company, and of all Arrears of their said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds, which shall be due at the End of the said Year; then and from thenceforth their said Annuity or yearly Fund shall cease, determine and be no longer paid or payable to them.

VI. And

VI. And in regard it is intended, that at any Time or Times after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-six the said Capital Stock or Debt of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, may be paid off to the said United Company by any Payments not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time, and that, as the said lesser Payments shall be made, the said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds, payable to the said Company, shall proportionally sink and be abated; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time or Times, upon one Year's Notice after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-six, to be given by Parliament, upon the Expiration of the said Year, on Repayment by Parliament to the said United Company of any Sum of Money not being less than five hundred thousand Pounds, in Part of the said Capital Stock or Debt of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, and upon Payment of all Arrears which shall then be due on their said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund, or upon any Part thereof, then from and after such Payments, so much of the said Annuity as shall bear Proportion to the Monies so paid in Part shall cease, determine and be abated, and so on from Time to Time, on such yearly Notices to be given by Parliament, and Payment from Time to Time of such other Sums, in Part of the said Capital Stock or Debt, not less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time, and of such Arrears of their then Annuity or yearly Fund, until the Payment of the whole shall be compleated, so much of their said Annuity or Fund as shall bear Proportion to such respective Sums paid in Part, shall from Time to Time, as such Payments are made, sink and be abated, until their whole Annuity or yearly Fund shall be intirely sunk and determined.

An Act for raising five hundred and fifty thousand Pounds by Exchequer Bills towards the Supply granted to his Majesty; and for the further Application of the Produce of the Sinking Fund; for applying the Arrears of former Land Taxes; for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for giving Relief with respect of an Over-payment to the Land Tax for the Year one thousand seven hundred twenty-one by the Receiver General for the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to raise the necessary Supplies which we have cheerfully granted to your Majesty, in the easiest and least burthensome Way for your Majesty's Subjects, Do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to or for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, at any Time or Times before the twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out for any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of five hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, in the same or like Manner, Form and Order, and according to the same or like Rules and Directions, as in and by a certain Act of this present Session of Parliament (for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty) are enacted and prescribed concerning the Exchequer Bills to be made in pursuance of the same Act.

Treasury may issue out Exchequer Bills of 550,000 l. 4 Geo. 2. c. 9.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers and Authorities for contracting for the Circulation and Exchange of the Exchequer Bills to be made forth in pursuance of the same Act, at a Rate or Premium not exceeding three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and all and every other Clauses, Provisoes, Powers, Privileges, Advantages, Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities contained in the said last mentioned Act, relating to the Exchequer Bills authorized to be made in pursuance of the same Act (except such Clauses as do charge them on the Monies arising from the Aids thereby granted) shall be applied and extended to the Exchequer Bills to be made in pursuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Exchequer Bills had been originally authorized by the said last mentioned Act, or as if the said several Clauses or Provisoes had been particularly repeated or re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Subject to the Powers in the Land Tax of this Session.

III. And be it enacted, That all such Exchequer Bills as shall be made forth in pursuance of this Act, and the Interest, Premium, Rate and Charges incident to or attending the same, shall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon, and shall be repaid or born by or out of the first Aids or Supplies which shall be granted in Parliament next after the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and in the mean time and until such Supplies shall be granted sufficient for those Purposes, the same shall be and are hereby charged and chargeable on such Surplus Monies, as at any Time or Times from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty shall arise into the Exchequer, from the several Duties and Revenues now charged and on the Surplus of the Duties chargeable with the India Company's Annuities.

Chargeable on the first Aids after 29 Sept. 1730.

charged with the Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, now payable to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and shall be more than sufficient to pay and satisfy the quarterly Payments or Arrears of the said Annuity or yearly Fund, or which shall hereafter arise by any Savings in the Monies arising by the said Duties and Revenues, by any Reduction that is or shall be made in the said Annuity or yearly Fund payable to the said Company, with their own Consent; and all and every such Surplus Monies or Savings which shall from Time to Time arise into the Exchequer, before the granting such Aids or Supplies as aforesaid, and until all the Exchequer Bills to be made in pursuance of this Act shall be cancelled and discharged, shall be quarterly applied towards the paying and defraying the Premium, Interest and Charges attending on or incident to the same Exchequer Bills, and subject thereto, towards cancelling and discharging the Principal of the said Exchequer Bills in course, and from and after the Discharge of the said Exchequer Bills, and subject thereto, the said Surplus Monies or Savings shall be reserved for the future Disposition of Parliament.

9 Geo. 1. c. 6.

IV. And whereas by an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First (for reviving and adding two millions to the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company) the whole increased Capital Stock of the said Company, being then computed at thirty-three millions eight hundred and two thousand four hundred and eighty-three Pounds fourteen Shillings and a Half-penny, was divided into two equal Parts, and one Moiety thereof, being therein stated at sixteen millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred and forty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and a Farthing, was to be converted into a Joint Stock, attended with certain Annuities payable out of the Funds of the said Company, in lieu of all the Dividends, Profits and Advantages such Moiety was then intitled to, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and from thenceforth with Annuities at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and the same were thenceforth to be called The Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities; and the other Moiety or Half Part of the said whole Capital Stock, amounting to the like Sum of sixteen millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred and forty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and a Farthing, was to remain, continue and be in the said Company as a Joint Stock in their own Right, attended with the Residue of the Annuities or yearly Funds payable in the Exchequer for their said whole Capital, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, and attended with the several Allowances settled or to be settled for Charges of Management, and with all the other Benefits, Profits of Trade, Privileges and Advantages then belonging to the said Company; and by the same Act it was provided, That after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven the same Stocks might be redeemed by any Payments not less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time, and that such Payments should from Time to Time be applied, either towards discharging the Principal Sums which should belong to the said South-Sea Company in their own Right, or towards discharging the Principal Sums of the said South-Sea Annuities, or towards discharging as well the Principal Sums of the said Company, as of the said South-Sea Annuities, in such Proportions, Manner and Form, as should be prescribed by the respective Act or Acts of Parliament for furnishing such Sums: And whereas by reason or means of a small Error in computing the Amount of the whole increased Capital Stock, and since rectified, and by a Payment and Application of a Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds in Moieties towards reducing the Capital Sums both of Excesses and Overplus Monies, and to be repaid out of the same, as they shall quarterly afterwards arise, together with an Interest for the Forbearance thereof, in the mean Time, after a Rate not exceeding four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and in such case the Money so to be lent or advanced, shall be issued and paid to the said Company, together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, to compleat the Payment of the said entire Sum of one million of Pounds; and the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise from the said Surplusses, shall quarterly be issued and applied to discharge and satisfy such Loans with the Interest thereof, in the due Order and common Course of the Exchequer, in cases of Loans; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company shall forthwith, upon the Receipt of the said Sum of one million of Pounds, or as soon after as conveniently may be, divide out, and distribute the same, amongst all the several Proprietors of their said Capital Stock, towards sinking and discharging so much of their Shares or Interests in the said Capital Stock, by even and equal Dividends amongst them all, in Proportion to their respective Shares or Interests therein.

South-Sea Company to distribute out the Money to the Proprietors.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company or any Member thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by reason of any thing done in pursuance of this Act; nor shall the Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor or any of the Directors now or for the Time being, after the Payments hereby directed shall take place, be deemed to be disqualified to continue Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor or Directors, if, by reason of such Payments, there shall not remain in their own respective Names or Rights so much Capital Stock of the said Company, as they before were required to have for the Qualification of such Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor or Director respectively, so as such Sub-Governor, Deputy-Governor or Director respectively, within three Months after his being obliged to receive any Sum or Sums of Money in discharge of any Part of his Share or Interest in the said Capital Stock of the said Company, which will reduce his Interest or Share therein under the Sum required for such his Qualification, do or shall obtain, by Purchase or otherwise, so much more Capital Stock of the said Company, to be transferred into his own Name and Right, as shall compleat the Sum necessary for such his Qualification.

Sub-Governor, &c. of the South-Sea Company not to incur any Disability hereby.

VII. And for the Accommodation of such of the Proprietors of the said Capital Stock, as shall be obliged to receive small Sums as Dividends of their said Capital, and for enabling them to replace the same with the least Expence: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every Case and Cases, where any Proprietor or joint Proprietors of any Share or Shares in the said Capital Stock, shall, out of the said Sum of one million, be paid off a Dividend of Capital on such their respective Shares or Interests, which Dividend shall not amount to more than the Sum of one hundred Pounds, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Company, their Officers or Servants, and they are hereby required at any time before the Day to be appointed by the Court of Directors for the shutting up their Transfer Books, in order to the Payment of the half Year's Annuity, to be due on the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, to permit or suffer any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, being Proprietors of the said Stock, to transfer to such Proprietor or Proprietors respectively, any Sum or Quantity of South-Sea Capital Stock, not exceeding the Sum or Sums so divided out of Capital, to him, her or them respectively, by Writing in the Transfer Books of the said Company, without any of the Stamps being impressed thereon, which by any former Act or Acts of Parliament are required in Cases of Transfers, and without any Fees or other Charges to the said Company, or their Officers, Clerks or Servants, for the same; and also to permit and suffer the Transferees, or some other Person or Persons on their behalfs respectively to accept the same; and that such Transfers without Stamps (subject to the Restrictions before mentioned) shall be as good, valid and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been stamped according to any former or other Law or Laws for that purpose; and that no Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by any such former Law or Laws for or on Account of making or permitting Transfers of Stock, without being first stamped, shall be incurred by any Person or Persons acting therein in pursuance of this Act; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said South-Sea Company, within the Time before mentioned, to sell and dispose of, to any such of their Proprietors, any Parcels or Quantities of that Part of their Capital Stock as now remain in the said Company, or in any Person or Persons in Trust for them, not distributed amongst the rest of their Adventurers, as shall be necessary or sufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, and no more, at such Price or Prices as shall be from Time to Time agreed on between the said Company and such Proprietors, and to cause the same to be transferred accordingly, free from such Stamps, Fees or other Charges as aforesaid; any thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Small Sums received as Dividends of Capital may be replaced without Stamps.

VIII. And to the End, Intent and Purpose that all trust Estates or Interests in the said Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company, may be preserved and improved for the Benefit of the Persons concerned therein, with the least Expence and Inconvenience to them: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every Case where, in pursuance of this Act, any Payments or Dividends shall be made of the Capital of any such Stock, as shall be vested in any Person or Persons in Trust for other Persons, who have or claim distinct or different Interests therein, or for any other Ends or Purposes, for which the Capital Sum or Stock ought to be preserved entire, such Payments or Dividends of the Capital Stock shall not be paid or applied as Dividends of Profit, Annuity or Interest, but shall remain in the Hands of such Trustees respectively, till otherwise disposed of at Interest; and for that Purpose it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustee or Trustees, who shall receive the same, at his or their Discretion, to lay out or dispose of the same or any Part thereof, in the Purchase of so much other Capital Stock of the same kind, as at the current Market Price of such Stock the Monies received for such Dividends shall, as near as conveniently may be, extend to purchase; which new purchased Stock shall be transferred to such Trustee or Trustees, and a Receipt or Receipts shall be given and signed by the Person or Persons transferring the same, for the Monies paid for the same; and in case such Trustees respectively, by Writing indorsed on or annexed to such Receipts, and signed or acknowledged Dividends of Stock in Trust not to be paid as Dividends of Profit, &c.

ledged before one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, shall declare that the Monies in the said Receipts were the Produce of the said Dividends of the said Capital Stock, which Signing or Acknowledgment such Masters in Chancery are hereby required to accept or take; and each and every such Master, before whom the same shall be done, shall at the same time certify the same, by subscribing his Name thereto; for doing whereof such Master shall be paid for each such Certificate one Shilling and no more; then, and in every such Case, the Stock mentioned in such Receipts to be transferred, shall respectively go and be deemed subject and liable to the same Trusts, for the Benefit of the same Persons, and for the same Uses, Ends, Intents and Purposes, as the rest of the trust Stock remaining in such Trustees respectively will or ought to be subject or liable to; and such Trustees respectively shall from thenceforth be indemnified from any Loss, Charges or Damages, on account of their so doing, at the Expences of the said trust Estates.

Trustees may dispose of the Trust Monies in any Securities.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to restrain or prohibit any such Trustees from laying out or disposing of any of the said trust Monies in any other Purchases or any other Securities, whether publick or private, if they shall so think fit, in the same Manner and with the same Freedom and Security to themselves as they might have done if this Act had not been made.

Clause for applying the Arrears of former Land-Taxes.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of eleven thousand six hundred fifty-five Pounds eleven Shillings and nine Pence Half-penny, remaining in the Exchequer for Arrears of several Land Taxes, payable in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven or before, shall or may be issued or applied as Part of his Majesty's Supply granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Appropriation of the Monies granted this Session.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate, and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Land Tax, shall be satisfied or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; for exempting from the said Duties, Cyder and Perry used for distilling; for ascertaining the Bounty for Malt exported; for better preventing Frauds in the malting of Corn for Exportation; for making good the Deficiency of a late Malt Act; and for giving further Time to Clerks and Apprentices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures or Contracts, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Duties thereby granted or continued, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties shall be satisfied or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and also the Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds, to be paid into his Majesty's Exchequer by the united Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, in pursuance of another Act of this present Session of Parliament, for reducing the Annuity of the said Company, and ascertaining their Trade to the East-Indies, and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer by Exchequer Bills on this Act, and the Sum of eleven thousand six hundred fifty-five Pounds eleven Shillings and nine Pence Half-penny, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer on Arrears of former Land Taxes, shall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are herein after prescribed: that is to say, it is hereby enacted and declared, that out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding eight hundred fifty-three thousand seven hundred eighty-six Pounds sixteen Shillings and five Pence, for or towards the naval Services herein after more particularly expressed, that is to say, for or towards defraying the Charge of the Ordinary of his Majesty's Navy, and for Half-pay to Sea Officers, and for or towards Victuals, Wages, Wear and Tear of the Navy, and the Victualling thereof performed and to be performed, and for or towards extraordinary Repairs of his Majesty's Navy performed and to be performed, and for or towards other Services of the Navy performed and to be performed.

Invalids, for Guards, Caribons and six Independent Companies for the Service of the High-lands, and other his Majesty's Land Forces in Great Britain, Guernsey and Jersey, and other Services relating to the Forces for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred sixty thousand two hundred thirty-five Pounds eight Shillings and one Penny Half-penny, for maintaining his Majesty's Forces and Caribons in the Plantations, Minorca and Gibraltar, and for Provisions for the Caribons at Annapolis Royal, Placentia and Gibraltar, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding twenty-three thousand four hundred fifty-two Pounds sixteen Shillings and three Pence, upon Account of Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding twenty-eight thousand seven hundred eighty Pounds twelve Shillings and five Pence three Farthings, for defraying several extraordinary Expenses and Services incurred, and not provided for by Parliament; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding sixty-four thousand Pounds, upon Account of Half-pay to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as are herein after prescribed concerning the same; and the Sum of two hundred forty-one thousand two hundred fifty-nine Pounds one Shilling and three Pence for defraying the Expence of twelve thousand Hessians, taken into his Majesty's Pay for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding twenty-five thousand Pounds, for one Year's Subsidy to the Duke of Brunswick Lunenburgh Wolfenbuttel, pursuant to a Treaty dated the twenty-fifth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven.

XV. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred fifteen thousand four hundred forty-six Pounds and three Pence, towards making good the Deficiency of the Grants for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding sixty-three thousand three hundred forty-four Pounds sixteen Shillings and five Pence Farthing, to make good the Deficiency of the Fund commonly called The General Fund, for raising seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one fifth Part of a Penny, for the Year ended at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding two thousand five hundred Pounds, for the Purchase of the Interest of Dougall Cuthbert Esquire, or any Person or Persons claiming under him in a reversionary Grant to him during his Life, in the Office of Warden of the Fleet Prison, after the Decease of Thomas Bambridge Esquire; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding ten thousand Pounds, towards the Maintenance of the British Forts and Settlements belonging to the Royal African Company of England, on the Coast of Africa; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one thousand five hundred Pounds, upon Account of one Year's Pensions, from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, to be allowed to the Widows of such half-pay Officers of the Land Forces, as served and were married before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen; which said Sum of one thousand five hundred Pounds shall be issued to such Person or Persons, as his Majesty shall, by Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, direct or appoint to receive the same, to be by him or them paid over to such Widows of half-pay Officers or their Assigns, according to such Establishments, Lists or other Directions, and with and subject to such Conditions, Qualifications, Deductions or other Allowances for the same, as his Majesty by such or the like Warrant or Warrants shall be graciously pleased, from Time to Time, to direct or appoint.

Deficiencies of Funds, &c.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the said Aids or Supplies, provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies or other Payments, directed to be satisfied thereout, by any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in any other Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament.

Not to be applied to any other Use.

XVII. And as to the said Sum of sixty-four thousand Pounds, by this Act appropriated on Account of Half-pay as aforesaid; it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules herein after prescribed shall be duly observed in the Application thereof; that is to say, that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor and under the Age of sixteen Years, at the Time when the Regiment, Troop or Company, in which he served, was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who hath resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons who would have been otherwise intitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any of the Officers of the five Regiments of Dragoons, and eight Regiments of Foot lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

Rules to be observed in Application of the Half-pay.

XVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the second Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to ascertain the Custom payable for Corn and Grain imported; for better ascertaining the Price and Quantity of Corn and Grain, for which a Bounty is payable upon Exportation; for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for giving further Time to Clerks and Apprentices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures and Contracts, several Supplies which had been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding fifty-seven thousand Pounds, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application

Geo. 2. c. 32.

An Act for taking off certain Duties on Salt, and for making good any Deficiencies in the Funds, that may happen thereby; and for charging the reduced Annuity, payable to the East-India Company, on the Aggregate Fund; and for Relief of Matthew Lyon, Executor of Matthew Page deceased, in respect of the Duty for Salt lost by the overflowing of the River Mercy, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four.

5 & 6 W. & M.
c. 7.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-four, there should be, throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, levied, collected and paid unto their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, until the seventeenth Day of May which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, for Salt, the Rates and Duties following; that is to say, For every Gallon of Salt, not being of the Product or Manufacture of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, imported or to be imported into England, Wales or Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of three Pence of lawful Money of England, over and above the then Duties payable on Salt imported, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; and for every Gallon of Salt and Rock Salt, made at the Salt Works, or taken out of any Pits, within the said Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of one Penny Half-penny, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; with divers Provisions and Directions in the said Act contained, for managing, collecting, paying and applying the same Duties: And whereas by another Act made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of their said late Majesties, intituled, An Act for continuing to his Majesty certain Duties upon Salt, Glass Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and for granting several Duties upon Tobacco Pipes and other Earthen Wares, for carrying on the War against France, and for establishing a National Land Bank, and taking off the Duties upon Tunnage of Ships, and upon Coals, the same Rates and Duties were continued for ever, for the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas by a subsequent Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, For making good Deficiencies, and satisfying the Publick Debts, and for erecting a Corporation to carry on a Trade to the South-Seas, and for the Encouragement of the Fishery, the before mentioned Duties, amongst other Duties therein enumerated, were made Part of the Duties and Revenues on which the Fund or Annuity, and Allowance for Charges of Management, thereby made payable to the South-Sea Company, to be erected by virtue and in pursuance of the same Act, for or in respect of the several Publick Debts or Securities thereby authorized to be subscribed into the Capital or Joint Stock of the same Company, were charged: And whereas by virtue of the same last recited Act, and of the Subscriptions made of Publick Debts or Incumbrances in pursuance thereof, and of a further Sum of Money advanced by the said South-Sea Company into the Exchequer, in pursuance of an Act of the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For enlarging the Capital Stock and yearly Fund of the South-Sea Company, and by several subsequent Acts of Parliament, the said South-Sea Company are intitled, either in the Right of their present Capital Stock, or in Trust for the Proprietors of the Capital Stock of South-Sea Annuities, as the same were divided into Moieties, by an Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, to have and receive out of the several Duties and Revenues appropriated by the said recited Act of the ninth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, and such subsequent Acts as aforesaid, one Annuity or yearly Fund of four hundred thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and also the yearly Allowance of eight thousand Pounds for Charges of Management, subject to Redemption by Parliament, on Payment to them of the Sum of ten millions, by any Sums not less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a Time: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two millions upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies, it was amongst other Things enacted, That there should be raised, levied, collected and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever, for Salt, whether imported from foreign Parts, or home made, several additional Rates and Duties therein mentioned (over and above all other Duties already payable for the same, by any Act or Acts of Parliament before that time made, and then in Force) and the same additional Duties on Salt, together with certain additional Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, therein mentioned or referred to, were charged with an Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, to the Subscribers of two millions, in pursuance of the same Act: And whereas the said Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds still remains charged on the same additional Duties on Salt, and Stamp Duties, and is now payable to the united Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, redeemable by Parliament, on Payment to the said united Company of the Capital Sum or Debt from the Publick, of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds; but the said united Company have agreed and consented to reduce the same Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, from the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, to an Annuity or yearly Sum of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds, redeemable by Parliament, on such Terms as are particularly expressed in another Act of this present Session of Parliament: And whereas by the Articles of Union between the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, all the said Duties on Salt were, from the Times therein mentioned, to take place in Scotland (except the additional Duty on home made Salt) with some Provisions for preventing Salt made in Scotland from being brought into England, without paying the said additional Duty on Salt made in England; Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, having considered how great a Relief it would be to your Majesty's Subjects, to take off the Duty imposed by the said first recited Act on home made Salt, and also to take off all the additional Duties on Salt, whether Foreign or home made, imposed by the said Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and being desirous at the same Time, to secure the Creditors of the Publick from any Injury and Damage they may suffer thereby, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the Duty of one Penny half-penny per Gallon on Salt and Rock Salt, made at the Salt-works or taken out of any Pits within this Kingdom, which was granted by the said Act of the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and since made perpetual, and also all the additional Duties on Salt, whether imported from Foreign Parts or home made, which were granted by the said Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, shall cease, determine and be no longer paid or payable; and then and from thenceforth all the Powers and Authorities given or granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament for the levying, securing, collecting or recovering the same, and all Penalties and Forfeitures relating thereto, and all Provisions, Regulations or Restrictions, relating to the importing or bringing of Salt made in Scotland into England, without paying the said additional Duty on Salt, shall cease, determine and not be put in Execution, and then and from thenceforth the Right or Demand of any Person or Persons, in pursuance of the said recited Acts or any of them, on his or their exporting beyond the Seas any Salt, for which the said Duties had been before secured or paid, to have the Securities for the same discharged or the Monies paid for the same repaid, shall also cease and determine, as to so much of such Securities or Payments, as were given or made for any of the Duties by this Act to be determined, and that no Drawbacks on account of such Duties so secured or paid before the said twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty (except for the Duty of three Pence per Gallon on Foreign Salt imposed by the first herein recited Act) shall be made and allowed on any Salt exported beyond the Seas after that Time.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to determine the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon on Salt not of the Product or Manufacture of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, so as aforesaid granted by the said Act of the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of their late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and since made perpetual; nor shall the same extend or be construed to extend to determine or make void any the Provisions, Rules or Regulations, made or given by the said Acts or any of them, and now in Force, for Payment of the same Duty by the Importers of such foreign Salt upon the Entry thereof, or for preventing the Landing thereof before such Entry made, or the securing the same by Bond with sufficient Duties on foreign Salt to continue.

cient Sureties, or for allowing the Discounts on paying the said Duty in ready Money, or for Allowances for Drawbacks of the Duties paid or secured on the re-exporting the same for foreign Parts, or for making good any Losses or Accidents that may happen in such Salt after shipping the same for Exportation to foreign Parts, or to be carried coastwise, or for ascertaining the Weight in each Bushel, by which the said Duty shall be computed, or to determine or make void any former Act or Clause relating to Ships or Vessels laden with foreign Salt found hovering on the Coast, or relating to such Salt exported to Ireland, and landed there; but the same and every of them shall remain and be in as full Force and Virtue as they now are or would be if this Act had not been made, or as if the same had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

What shall be deemed foreign Salt.

III. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon on foreign Salt shall extend only to such Salt as is not the Product and Manufacture of some Part of the whole united Kingdom of Great Britain, and that all Salt of the Product or Manufacture of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland shall be exempted from the said Duty, as well as Salt of the Product or Manufacture of that Part of Great Britain called England is exempted from the same, by the Description of the said Duty in the said first recited Act which originally granted the same.

Penalties, &c. for Offences about foreign Salt, to continue,

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to determine or make void any the Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted or imposed by the said former Acts or any of them, and now in Force, for any Offences in the landing of such foreign Salt before Entry, or for any other Frauds or Abuses upon the re-exporting the same, in Relation to the Drawbacks of Duties which had been before paid upon the first importing the same, and afterwards relanding the same in any Part of Great Britain clandestinely, or for any other Offences against the said Acts, in Relation to the same Duty, nor to alter any Provisions now in Force for the Distribution of the said Penalties and Forfeitures between his Majesty and the Informers, when recovered, or the Method of suing for or recovering the same, save only that from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the Provisions for suing for, recovering, receiving or mitigating the same, by the same Means, Rules, Ways and Methods as any Penalty or Forfeiture is to be sued for or recoverable by any Laws relating to the Excise, shall cease and determine; and then and from thenceforth the same shall be sued for, levied, recovered and received for any Frauds or Offences that shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called England, by Action of Debt, Bill, Suit, Complaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and for any Frauds or Offences that shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparance.

how to be sued for.

Prosecution for Penalties before Justices to continue.

V. Provided always, That in any Cases where any Provisions are made by any former Acts of Parliament for suing for, prosecuting or recovering any Penalties or Forfeitures for any Offences or Frauds in Relation to the said Duties, before any two or more Justices of the Peace, the same Powers or Provisions for suing for, prosecuting or recovering the same before such Justices of the Peace, in Relation to the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon on foreign Salt, shall continue in full Force and be put in Execution; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act not to discharge Proprietors of Salt made before 25 Dec. 1730.

VI. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to acquit, release or discharge any Importers or Makers or Proprietors of Salt or Rock Salt from any Duties due or to grow due for Salt imported, or Rock Salt taken out of the Pits, or Salt made and removed, before the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, or any Securities for the same, or any Penalties or Forfeitures incurred, or to which any Person or Persons was, were or shall become liable for any Frauds or Offences in Relation to the said Duties before that Time; but the same shall remain due, payable, liable for and recoverable in the same Manner as they would have been if this Act had not been made.

Treasury to continue after 25 Dec. Officers for getting in Arrears of Salt Duties.

VII. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to continue or appoint, for some reasonable Time, not exceeding in the whole eighteen Months, after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, such and so many Officers of the Salt Duties, or other Person or Persons as shall be necessary for the getting in, receiving and accounting for the Duties on Salt hereby determined, or any Arrears or Securities for the same, which may be due at or after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and for recovering the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred before the said Time, with such reasonable Allowances for the same as may be thought necessary.

VIII. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to repeal, determine or make void all or any of the Bounties or Allowances enacted or directed to be paid on the Exportation of Fish from Great Britain, out of the Duties on Salt, by an Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in foreign Parts, and for better securing the Duties upon Salt, but the same shall continue to be paid and payable on all Fish exported, in such Manner and upon such Terms, and with and under such Regulations, Rules and Instructions as the same would have been payable in case this Act had not been made, or any of the said Duties on Salt had not ceased and been determined.

How the Bounties shall be paid.

IX. Save only, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the said Bounties and Allowances, as from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, shall become due or payable for Fish cured in and exported from any Port or Ports in that Part of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the same shall be paid and payable out of the Monies arisen or to arise for Salt remaining in the Hands of the respective Collectors of the Duties of Salt or Customs stoms in the Port or Ports where such Fish was exported, or, in Default thereof, out of the Monies arisen or to arise, and remaining in the Hands of the Collectors of the Customs or Subsidies, out of which the Bounties or Allowances for Corn or other Grain exported are now by Law payable; and in case the Collectors of the Customs or the Duties on Salt in any Out-Port of that Part of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall not have Monies sufficient in their Hands to pay the said Bounties or Allowances arising by the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon on foreign Salt, or by Monies arising by Customs, out of which the Bounties on Corn exported are payable, that then such Collector or Collectors shall give to the Exporter, or the Person impowered to demand the same (without Fee or Reward) a Certificate under his Hand, attested by the Comptroller of the same Out-Port, of what is due to such Exporter for the Fish so exported from such Out-Port, certifying to the Commissioners of the Customs in London, that he or they have not Monies in his or their Hands sufficient to pay the same; which Certificate being affixed to the Debenture for the Fish so exported, and being produced to the said Commissioners at London, they the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required, on Demand by the Person that shall bring the same, to cause the Monies thereby due to be paid in three Months by the Receiver General, or Cashier of the Customs for the Time being (without Fee or Reward) out of such Monies in his Hands, arising by the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon on foreign Salt, or by such Customs or Duties as are chargeable with the Payment of the Bounty for the Exportation of Corn or Grain, in like Manner as the Debentures for the Bounty on Corn or Grain exported are now paid or payable; and as to such of the said Bounties and Allowances as shall become due or payable for Fish cured in and exported from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the same shall continue to be paid or payable in the same Manner and out of the same Duties and Revenues arising in that Part of the said united Kingdom, as the same are now payable there by any Law or Laws now in Being; any Thing in this Act before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the Duties heretofore granted on foreign Salt imported, and not by this Act determined, the same Liberty of importing the same, for the Use of the British Fishery, free from the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon, and the same Powers or Obligations for locking up, delivering and accounting for the same for the curing of Fish to be exported, and the same Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offences therein, as was or were granted or enacted by the said Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King GEORGE the First, and the same Means and Methods for executing, suing for, prosecuting or recovering the same, except only what relates therein to the Laws of Excise, shall continue and remain in Force in as full and ample Manner as they would have been if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

5 Geo. 1. c. 12.

XI. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the Management of the levying, collecting, receiving, recovering or securing the Duty on foreign Salt imported, hereby continued, shall be under the Care of the Commissioners and Officers of his Majesty's Customs for the Time being, in the same Manner and Form as the Customs or Duties arising by the Act of Tunnage and Poundage, of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, or by any other Law relating to the Customs, are managed, levied, collected or accounted for, the necessary Charges of Management being first deducted; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Foreign Salt imported to be under the Commissioners of the Customs.

12 Car. 2. c. 4.

XII. Provided always, That such Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or their under Officers, as shall be in the Possession or Execution of their several Offices at the Time when the said Duties shall first come under their Care or Management, shall not on that Account only be obliged to qualify themselves again, as the Laws require all Persons to do, that accept any new Office or Place of Profit or Trust under the Crown, so as they have before that Time duly qualified themselves for the respective Offices they shall then be in the Possession or Execution of; nor shall they or any of them be liable to or incur any Penalties, Forfeitures or Disabilities for their omitting the same on that Occasion.

Commissioners and Officers not obliged to qualify themselves on that Account only.

XIII. And whereas by two several Acts of Parliament made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For taking off the Duty upon all Salt used in curing of Red Herrings or White Herrings, and for laying proportionable Duties on such Herrings consumed at Home only, one Duty or Rate of one Shilling and eight Pence per Thousand was laid on all Red Herrings cured promiscuously with Red Herrings designed for Exportation, but afterwards delivered out for home Consumption; and another Duty or Rate of three Shillings and four Pence per Barrel was laid on all White Herrings cured promiscuously with White Herrings designed for Exportation, but afterwards delivered out for home Consumption; and in each of the said Acts there is a Provision, that in case the Duties of Excise on Salt (which then amounted to three Shillings and four Pence per Bushel on home made Salt, and six Shillings and eight Pence per Bushel on foreign Salt) or any of them should cease, determine or be redeemed by Parliament, then the respective Rates and Duties thereby imposed should cease or be lessened in Proportion to the Duties on Salt, that should so cease, determine or be abated.

8 Geo. 1. c. 4. & 16.

XIV. And whereas in Consequence of this present Act, four Parts in five of the whole of the said Duties on Salt, both home made and foreign, computed together, will cease, determine and be abated from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a proportional Part or Parts of the said several Rates and Duties imposed by the last mentioned Acts on Red Herrings and White Herrings delivered out for home Consumption, that is to say, four Parts in five of each of them shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, cease, determine or be abated, so that the Duties or Rates on such Red or White Herrings shall from thenceforth be charged only after the Rate of four Pence for every thousand of such Red Herrings, and of eight Pence for every Barrel of such White Herrings; and the said reduced Duties shall be paid and payable to the proper Officers of the Customs in the Manner as before is directed concerning the Duty on foreign Salt; and in all other Respects the several several Provisions in the same Acts, in Relation to the said Duties or Rates, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

On Oath of the Curer of Herrings, that they were cured only with home made Salt, no Duty to

s. 16.

XV. Provided always, That if the Maker or Curer of such Red or White Herrings for home Consumption, at the Time of making the Entry directed by both the said Acts of the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First (in order to have the Casks and Vessels containing the same, marked, and a Permit from the Officer for the Removal thereof) shall make Oath in Writing before the Officer to be appointed for receiving the said Entry (which Oath the said Officer is hereby impowered to administer) that the Red or White Herrings then entered for home Consumption were cured only with Salt of the Product or Manufacture of Great Britain, without any Mixture of foreign Salt whatsoever, then and in such Case the said Red or White Herrings shall not be charged with any Duty at all; but nevertheless the Casks or Vessels containing the same shall be marked, and such Permit shall be given by the Officer for the Removal thereof, as the said Acts direct, save only that instead of expressing in such Permit, that the Duties had been paid for such Red or White Herrings, the same shall express that such Oath had been made as is before directed; and if it shall afterwards appear, that the said Red or White Herrings, so as aforesaid permitted to be removed without paying any Duty, were cured with foreign Salt or any Mixture thereof, the Maker or Curer thereof shall (over and besides the Penalties or Punishments which he may suffer by Law for false Swearing or Perjury) be also liable to all the Penalties and Forfeitures which are by the said last mentioned Acts respectively laid or imposed on any Offenders, that shall remove Red or White Herrings without Entry, or not paying the said Duties.

5 Ann. c. 29.

XVI. And whereas by the eighth Article of the Treaty of Union between the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, it was (amongst other Things relating to the Duties on Salt, which Scotland was after the Union to be liable to) agreed, That from and after the Union there should be allowed five Shillings Sterling for every Barrel of Beef or Pork salted with foreign Salt, without Mixture of British or Irish Salt, and exported for Sale from Scotland to Parts beyond Sea, alterable by the Parliament of Great Britain: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the Ease of her Majesty's Subjects, in Relation to the Duties upon Salt, and for making the like Allowances upon the Exportation of White Herrings, Flesh, Oatmeal and Grain called Beer, alias Bigg, as are made upon Exportation of the like from Scotland, it was amongst other Things enacted, That for every Barrel of salted Beef or Pork which should be exported for Sale from any Port of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to Parts beyond the Seas, after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and seven, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there should be for each Barrel the like Allowances as are to be allowed on such Beef and Pork exported from Scotland, to be paid out of the Duties on Salt: And whereas the granting to Scotland the said Allowance on the Exportation of Beef or Pork salted with foreign Salt only, to which they were immediately after the Union to become liable, and the granting the same Allowance to England, was to preserve an Equality of Trade in both the Kingdoms, when united; but as in Consequence of this Act, seven Parts in ten of the Duties on foreign Salt will be taken off or be abated, it is reasonable also that the said Allowances should on that Account be reduced and abated also; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the said Allowances of five Shillings per Barrel on the Exportation of salted Beef or Pork exported for Sale, from any Part of Great Britain to any Parts beyond the Seas, shall be reduced to an Allowance of one Shilling and six Pence per Barrel, and no more, on all Beef or Pork salted with foreign Salt only, without any Mixture of British or Irish Salt, to be paid out of the same Duties or Revenues, and in the same Manner as the Bounties or Allowances on Fish exported are hereby before directed to be paid.

XVII. And whereas by an Act passed in the fourth and fifth Years of their said late Majesties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, an additional Impost of five Shillings per Wey was laid on Salt imported (except such Salt as shall be used in curing of Fish) and there being no Provision made to ascertain the Quantity of Salt that may be so used; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the said Duty of five Shillings per Wey on foreign Salt shall be paid and accounted for in the like Manner and Form, and subject to the same Rules and Regulations as the said Duty of three Pence per Gallon on Salt shall be paid and accounted for by this Act; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, no foreign Salt shall be imported from Parts beyond the Seas in any Ship or Vessel of less Burden than forty Tuns, and in Bulk only (except for the necessary Provisions of the Ships) upon Pain of forfeiting the said Salt and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Person importing the same: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal, determine or any ways alter the Powers granted by the said Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, and the several Justices of the Peace in their several Counties throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to set from Time to Time the Rates and Prices at which Salt shall be sold, but the same shall continue and remain in full Force and Effect, the determining any of the said Duties on Salt or any other Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And whereas after the ceasing of the said Duties on Salt, many of the Officers and other Persons employed in the Management of the said Duties, may be disquieted with Prosecutions and Actions for what they may have done in the due Execution of their respective Offices, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Prosecution or Action shall from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one be brought or commenced by any Person or Persons whatsoever, against any Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons employed in the said Revenue, for any Thing done by him or them in the Execution of his or their Offices or Employments in the said Revenue.

XX. And

XX. And for the preventing or remedying any Injury or Damage which may happen to the Governor and Company of Merchants of England trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, in Respect of the Diminution of the Produce of the Duties and Revenues, so as aforesaid charged with their Annuity or yearly Fund of four hundred thousand Pounds, and their said annual Allowance of eight thousand Pounds for Charges of Management, by the ceasing and determining the Duties on home made Salt, included therein; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case at the End of any one Quarter of a Year, to be computed at each and every of the four most usual Quarters of a Year, from the Feast-Day of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the Produce into the Exchequer of the Monies arising from the several Duties and Revenues, appropriated particularly to discharge the Annuity or Allowance for Charges of Management to the said South Sea Company, in Respect of their original Capital Stock of ten millions, shall not be sufficient, together with the present Provisions by Parliament, for making good any quarterly Deficiencies therein, to discharge the Quarter's Annuity and Allowance that shall then be due in respect of the said ten millions, or so much thereof as shall be unredeemed, then, and in every such Case, the same shall from Time to Time be made good out of any Monies which, at the respective Times of such Deficiencies happening, shall be and remain in the Exchequer, of the Monies arisen or to arise for the Duties and Revenues commonly called The Aggregate Fund, established by an Act of the third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, which shall be more than sufficient to answer, pay and satisfy what will then be due and demandable for any prior Charges and Incumbrances on the said Aggregate Fund.

Quarterly Deficiencies of the South-Sea Company's Annuity to be made good out of the Aggregate Fund.

3 Geo. 1. c. 7.

XXI. And for the preventing and remedying any Injury or Damage which may happen to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, in respect of the Diminution that may happen in the Produce of the Duties and Revenues, so as aforesaid charged with their present Annuity or Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds per Annum, by the ceasing and determining the before mentioned additional Duties on Salt, before or until the said intended Reduction of their said present Annuity or yearly Fund shall take Place, and the same reduced Annuity or yearly Fund be charged upon new Duties and Revenues with their Consent, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case at the End of any one Quarter of a Year, to be computed from the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, until such intended Reduction shall take Place, and such new Security be provided for, the said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund, the Produce into the Exchequer of the Monies arising from the said additional Duties on Salt, and the said additional Duties on stamped Cellum, Parchment and Paper, so as aforesaid particularly charged with the present Annuity or Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, payable to the said United Company, shall not be sufficient, together with the present Provisions by Parliament for making good the Deficiencies thereon, to discharge the Quarter's Annuity that shall be then due to them; then and in every such Case, and as often as the same shall happen, such quarterly Deficiencies shall from Time to Time be made good out of any Monies which at the respective Times of such Deficiencies shall be and remain in the Exchequer, of the Monies arisen or to arise for the said Duties and Revenues commonly called The Aggregate Fund, which shall be more than sufficient to answer, pay and satisfy what will then be due or demandable for any prior Charges or Incumbrances on the said Aggregate Fund.

The Deficiencies to the East-India Company out of the same Fund.

XXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, in case the said intended Reduction of the said Annuity or Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds so as aforesaid payable to the said United Company shall then take Place, then and from thenceforth such reduced Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds shall be transferred from the several Duties and Revenues now charged with the said present Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and be charged upon and payable out of the Monies arisen or to arise into the Exchequer from Time to Time, for the said several Duties and Revenues composing the Aggregate Fund, to be paid and payable to the said United Company or their Successors, by such and the like quarterly Payments as their present Annuity or yearly Fund is now payable, subject nevertheless to such Redemption by Parliament as is or shall be enacted by any other Act of this present Session of Parliament, and subject to such prior Charges and Incumbrances as are or shall be made by Parliament on the growing Produce of the said Aggregate Fund, before the taking Place of such Reduction.

After 29 Sept. 1730, the India Company's reduced Annuities to be paid out of the Aggregate Fund.

XXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after such Time as the said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds shall become charged on the said Aggregate Fund, then and from thenceforth the said additional Duties on stamped Cellum, Parchment and Paper so as aforesaid charged, together with the said additional Duties on Salt, with their said present Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds shall be discharged therefrom, and also from the said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund and every Part thereof, and shall be deemed a Saving to the Publick by such Reduction as aforesaid, and shall go and be applied to such Uses, and for such Purposes as by any other Act of this present Session of Parliament, or any future Act or Acts of Parliament are or shall be from Time to Time directed or appointed concerning the same.

Duty on Stamp and Salt discharged therefrom.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any Thing done or executed in Pursuance of this Act or any of the before recited Acts, he or they shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act or any of the said before recited Acts in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for the better Regulation of Juries.

WHEREAS many evil Practices have been used in corrupting of Jurors returned for the Trial of Issues joined to be tried before the Justices of Assize or Nisi prius, and the Judges of the Great Sessions in Wales, and the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the Counties Palatine of Lancaster, Chester or Durham, and many Neglects and Abuses have happened in making up the Lists of Freeholders, who ought to serve on such Trials, and many Persons being lawfully summoned to serve on Juries have neglected to appear, to the great Injury of many Persons in their Properties and Estates; in order to prevent the like Practices, Neglects and Abuses: Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of same, That from and after the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the Person or Persons required by a Statute made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Ease of Jurors, and better regulating of Juries, and by a Clause in another Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of the late Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for making perpetual an Act for the more easy Recovery of small Tithes; and also An Act for the more easy obtaining Partition of Lands in Coparcenary, Joint Tenancy and Tenancy in Common; and also for making more effectual and amending several Acts relating to the Return of Jurors, to give in, or who are by Virtue of this Act to make up, true Lists in Writing of the Names of Persons qualified to serve on Juries, in order to assist them to complete such Lists, pursuant to the Intent of the said Act, shall (upon Request by him or them made to any Parish Officer or Officers who shall have in his or their Custody any of the Rates for the Poor or Land Tax in such Parish or Place) have free Liberty to inspect such Rates, and take from thence the Name or Names of such Freeholders, Copyholders or other Persons qualified to serve on Juries, dwelling within their respective Parishes or Precincts for which such List is to be given in and returned, pursuant to the said Acts; and shall yearly and every Year, twenty Days at least before the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, upon two or more Sundays, fix upon the Door of the Church, Chapel and every other publick Place of religious Worship within their respective Precincts, a true and exact List of all such Persons intended to be returned to the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, as qualified to serve on Juries, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act, and leave at the same Time a Duplicate of such List with a Churchwarden, Chapelwarden or Overseer of the Poor of the said Parish or Place, to be perused by the Parishioners without Fee or Reward, to the End that Notice may be given of Persons so qualified who are omitted, or of Persons inserted by Mistake who ought to be omitted out of such Lists; and if any Person or Persons, not being qualified to serve on Juries, shall find his or their Name or Names mentioned in such List, and the Person or Persons required to make such List shall refuse to omit him or them, or think it doubtful whether he or they ought to be omitted, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division at their respective General Quarter-Sessions, to which the said Lists shall be so returned, upon Satisfaction from the Oath of the Party complaining, or other Proof, that he is not qualified to serve on Juries, to order his or their Name or Names to be struck out or omitted in such List, when the same shall be entered in the Book to be kept by the Clerk of the Peace for that Purpose, pursuant to the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons required by the said Acts to return or give in, or by Virtue of this Act to make up any such List, or concerned therein, shall willfully omit out of any such List any Person or Persons whose Name or Names ought to be inserted, or shall willfully insert any Person or Persons who ought to be omitted, or shall take any Money or other Reward for omitting or inserting any Person whatsoever, he or they so offending shall, for every Person so omitted or inserted in such List, contrary to the Meaning of this Act, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings for every such Offence, upon Conviction before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding or Division where such Offender shall dwell, upon the Confession of the Offender, or Proof by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses on Oath, one Half thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other Half to the Poor of such Parish or Place for which the said List is returned; and in case such Penalty shall not be paid within five Days after such Conviction, the same shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant or Warrants from one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, returning the Overplus, if any there be; and the said Justice or Justices, before whom such Person shall be convicted of such Offence, shall, in Writing under their Hands, certify the same to the Justices at their next General Quarter-Sessions which shall be held for the County in which the Person or Persons so omitted or inserted shall dwell, which Justices shall direct the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being to insert or strike out the Name or Names of such Person or Persons as shall by such Certificate appear to have been omitted or inserted in such Lists, contrary to the Meaning of this Act; and Duplicates of the said Lists, when delivered in at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, and entered in such Book to be kept by the Clerk of the Peace for that Purpose, shall, during the Continuance of such Quarter-Sessions, or within ten Days after, be delivered or transmitted by the Clerk of the Peace to the Sheriff of each respective County, or his Under Sheriff, in order for his returning of Juries out of the said Lists; and such Sheriff or Under Sheriff shall immediately take care, that the Names of the Persons contained in such Duplicates shall be faithfully entered alphabetically, with their Additions and Places of Abode, in some Book or Books to be kept by him or them for that Purpose; and that every Clerk of the Peace neglecting his Duty therein shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds to such Person or Persons as shall inform or prosecute for the same, until the Party be thereof convicted upon an Indictment before the Justices of the Peace at any General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the same County, Riding, Division or Precinct.

Willfully omitting or inserting wrong Persons, forfeits 20s.

Duplicates of the Lists to be transmitted to the Sheriff.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer to whom the Return of Juries shall belong, shall summon and return any Person or Persons to serve on any Jury in any Cause to be tried before the Justices of Assize or Nisi prius, or Judges of the said Great Sessions, or the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, whose Name is not inserted in the Duplicates so delivered or transmitted to him or them by such Clerk of the Peace, if any such Duplicate shall be delivered or transmitted, or if any Clerk of Assize, Judge's Associate or other Officer shall record the Appearance of any Person so summoned and returned as aforesaid, who did not really and truly appear, then and in such Case any Judge or Justice of Assize or Nisi prius, or Judge or Judges of the said Great Sessions, or the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, shall and may, upon Examination in a summary way, set such Fine or Fines upon such Sheriff or Under Sheriff, Clerk of the Assize, Judge's Associate or other Officer, for every such Person so summoned and returned as aforesaid, and for every Person whose Appearance shall be so falsely recorded, as the said Judge or Justice of Assize, Nisi prius, or of the said Great Sessions, or the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine shall think meet, not exceeding ten Pounds, and not less than forty Shillings.

Penalty on Sheriff, &c. returning any Person whose Name is not in the Duplicate.

Clerk of Assize recording Appearances when the Party did not appear, to be fined.

IV. And for preventing Abuses by Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs or other Officers concerned in the summoning or returning of Jurors: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Persons shall be returned as Jurors to serve on Trials at any Assizes or Nisi prius, or at the said Great Sessions, or at the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, who have served within the Space of one Year before in the County of Rutland, or four Years in the County of York, or of two Years before in any other County, not being a County of a City or Town; and if any such Sheriff shall willfully transgress therein, any Judge or Justice of Assize or Nisi prius, or of the said Great Sessions, or the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, may and is hereby required on Examination and Proof of such Offence, in a summary Way, to set a Fine or Fines upon every such Offender as he shall think meet, not exceeding five Pounds for any one Offence.

Justices of Assize, &c. may fine Sheriff, &c. for returning Jurors irregularly.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff, Under Sheriff or other Officer to whom the Return of Juries shall belong, shall from Time to Time enter or register in a Book to be kept for that Purpose the Names of such Persons as shall be summoned, and shall serve as Jurors on Trials at any Assizes or Nisi prius, or in the said Courts of Great Sessions, or Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, together with their Additions and Places of Abode alphabetically, and also the Times of their Services; and every Person so summoned and attending or serving as aforesaid, shall (upon Application by him made to such Sheriff, Under Sheriff or other Officer) have a Certificate testifying such his Attendance or Service done, which Certificate the said Sheriff, Under Sheriff or other Officer is hereby directed and required to give without Fee or Reward; and the said Book shall be transmitted by such Sheriff, Under Sheriff or other Officer, to his or their Successor or Successors, from Time to Time.

Sheriff, &c. to enter the Names of those who have served.

And give Certificates.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer or Person whatsoever, shall directly or indirectly take or receive any Money or other Reward to excuse any Person from serving or being summoned to serve on Juries, or under that Colour or Pretence, and that no Bailiff or other Officer appointed by any Sheriff or Under Sheriff to summon Juries, shall summon any Person to serve thereon other than such whose Name is specified in a Mandate signed by such Sheriff or Under Sheriff, and directed to such Bailiff or other Officer; and if any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer shall willfully transgress in any the Cases aforesaid, any Judge or Justice of Assize, Nisi prius or Great Sessions aforesaid, or the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, may and is hereby required, on Examination and Proof of such Offence, in a summary Way, to set

No Money to be taken to excuse Persons from serving.

Penalty.

set a Fine or Fines upon any Person or Persons so offending as he shall think meet, not exceeding ten Pounds, according to the Nature of the Offence.

Constables, &c.
to subscribe their Lists before Justices, on Oath,
&c.

VII. And whereas by the said Act of the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and also by another Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, all Constables, Tythingmen and Headboroughs are obliged to give in true Lists at the respective General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace holden for each County, Riding or Division, of the Names and Places of all Persons within their respective Precincts or Places qualified to serve on Juries, to the Justices of the Peace in open Court, which hath by Experience been found inconvenient and expensive to several Constables, Tythingmen and Headboroughs, such Quarter-Sessions being often held at a great Distance from their Abode: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty, it shall be lawful and sufficient for all or any Constables, Tythingmen or Headboroughs after they shall have made and compleated such Lists of Persons qualified to serve on Juries for their respective Parishes or Precincts, according to the Manner directed by the before mentioned Acts and this present Act, to subscribe the same in the Presence of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for each respective County or Place, and also at the same Time to attest the Truth of such Lists upon Oath to the best of their Knowledge or Belief, which Oath such Justice or Justices respectively are hereby impowered and required to administer; and the said Lists shall (being first signed by the said Justices respectively, before whom the same shall be attested on Oath, and subscribed as aforesaid) be delivered by the said Constables, Tythingmen or Headboroughs to the Chief or High Constables of the Hundreds or Divisions whereunto the same shall respectively belong, who are hereby directed and required to deliver in such Lists to the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding or Division at their respective General Quarter-Sessions in open Court, attesting at the same Time upon Oath their Receipt of such Lists from the Constables, Tythingmen or Headboroughs respectively, and that no Alteration hath been therein made since their Receipt thereof; and the said Lists, so delivered in and attested, shall be deemed as effectual, as if they had been delivered in by the Constables, Tythingmen or Headboroughs for their respective Parishes or Precincts.

Sheriff, &c. on Return of Writs of Venire facias to annex a Panel of Jurors, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty, every Sheriff or other Officer to whom the Return of the Venire facias juratores, or other Process for the Trial of Causes before Justices of Assize or Nisi prius in any County in England, doth or shall belong, shall, upon his Return of every such Writ of Venire facias (unless in Causes intended to be tried at Bar, or in Cases where a special Jury shall be struck by Order or Rule of Court) annex a Panel to the said Writ, containing the Christian and Sur-names, Additions and Places of Abode of a competent Number of Jurors named in such Lists as qualified to serve on Juries, the Names of the same Persons to be inserted in the Panel annexed to every Venire facias, for the Trial of all Issues at the same Assizes in each respective County; which Number of Jurors shall be not less than forty-eight in any County, nor more than seventy-two, without Direction of the Judges appointed to go the Circuit and sit as Judges of Assize or Nisi prius in such County, or one of them, who are hereby respectively impowered and required, if he or they see Cause, by Order under his or their respective Hand or Hands, to direct a greater or lesser Number, and then such Number as shall be so directed shall be the Number to serve on such Jury; and that the Writs of Habeas corpora juratorum, or Distringas, subsequent to such Writ of Venire facias juratores, need not have inserted in the Bodies of such respective Writs the Names of all the Persons contained in such Panel, but it shall be sufficient to insert in the mandatory Part of such Writs respectively, Corpora separalium personarum in pannello huic brevi annexo nominatarum, or Words of the like Import, and to annex to such Writs respectively Panels containing the same Names as were returned in the Panel to such Venire facias, with their Additions and Places of Abode, that the Parties concerned in any such Trials may have timely Notice of the Jurors who are to serve at the next Assizes, in order to make their Challenges to them, if there be Cause; and that for the making the Returns and Panels aforesaid, and annexing the same to the respective Writs, no other Fee or Fees shall be taken than what are now allowed by Law to be taken for the Return of the like Writs and Panels annexed to the same; and that the Persons named in such Panels shall be summoned to serve on Juries at the then next Assizes or Sessions of Nisi prius for the respective Counties to be named in such Writs, and no other.

Return of Jurors in Wales,

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Sheriff or other Officer, to whom the Return of Juries for the Trial of Causes in the Court of Grand Sessions in any County of Wales do or shall belong, shall, at least eight Days before every Grand Sessions, summon a competent Number of Persons qualified to serve on Juries, out of every Hundred and Commote within every such County, so as such Number be not less than ten or more than fifteen, without the Directions of the Judge or Judges of the Grand Sessions held for such County, who is and are hereby impowered, if he or they shall see Cause, by Rule or Order of Court, to direct a greater or lesser Number to be summoned out of every such Hundred and Commote respectively; and that the said Officer and Officers who shall summon such Persons, shall return a List containing the Christian and Surnames, Additions and Places of Abode of the Persons so summoned to serve on Juries, the first Court of the second Day of every Grand Sessions; and that the Persons so summoned or a competent Number of them, as the Judge or Judges of such Grand Sessions shall direct, and no other, shall be named in every Panel to be annexed to every Writ of Venire facias juratores, Habeas corpora juratorum, and Distringas, that shall be issued out and returnable for the Trial of Causes in such Grand Sessions.

and Counties Palatine of Chester,
Lancaster and Durham.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Sheriff or other Officer to whom the Return of the Venire facias juratores, or other Process for the Trial of Causes before the Justices of the Courts or Sessions to be held for the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster or Durham doth belong, shall, fourteen Days at the least before the said Courts or Sessions shall respectively be held, summon a competent Number of Persons qualified to serve on Juries, so as such Number be not less than forty-eight nor more than seventy-two, without the Direction of the Judge or Judges of the Courts or Sessions to be held for such Counties Palatine respectively, and shall, eight Days at the least before such Courts or Sessions shall respectively respectively be held, make or cause a List to be made of the Persons so summoned to serve on Juries, containing their Christian and Surnames, Additions and Places of Abode; and the List so made shall forthwith be publickly hung up in the Sheriff's Office, to be inspected and read by any Person or Persons whatsoever; and that the Persons named in such List and no other, shall be summoned to serve on Juries at the next Courts or Sessions to be held for the said respective Counties Palatine; and the said Sheriff or other Officer is hereby required to return such List on the first Day of the Court or Sessions to be held for the said Counties Palatine respectively; and the Persons so summoned, or a competent Number of them, as the Judge or Judges of such Courts or Sessions respectively shall direct, and no other, shall be named in every Panel to be annexed to every Writ of Venire facias juratores, Habeas corpora juratorum and Distringas, that shall be issued out and returnable for the Trial of Causes in such Courts or Sessions respectively.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Name of each and every Person who shall be summoned and impanelled as aforesaid, with his Addition, and the Place of his Abode, shall be written in several and distinct Pieces of Parchment or Paper, being all as near as may be, of equal Size and Bigness, and shall be delivered unto the Marshal of such Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, or of the said Great Sessions, or of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, who is to try the Causes in the said County, by the Under Sheriff of the said County, or some Agent of his; and shall by Direction and Care of such Marshal be rolled up all as near as may be, in the same Manner, and put together in a Box or Glass to be provided for that Purpose; and when any Cause shall be brought on to be tried, some indifferent Person, by Direction of the Court, may and shall in open Court draw out twelve of the said Parchments or Papers one after another; and if any of the Persons whose Names shall be so drawn, shall not appear, or be challenged and set aside, then such further Number, until twelve Persons be drawn who shall appear, and after all Causes of Challenge shall be allowed as fair and indifferent; and the said twelve Persons so first drawn and appearing, and approved as indifferent, their Names being marked in the Panel, and they being sworn, shall be the Jury to try the said Cause; and the Names of the Persons so drawn and sworn shall be kept apart by themselves in some other Box or Glass to be kept for that Purpose, till such Jury shall have given in their Verdict, and the same is recorded, or until such Jury shall, by Consent of the Parties or Leave of the Court, be discharged; and then the same Names shall be rolled up again and returned to the former Box or Glass, there to be kept with the other Names remaining at that Time undrawn, and so toties quoties, as long as any Cause remains then to be tried.

Names of Persons impanelled to be written, and delivered to the Marshal of the Assize, and put in a Box to be drawn, &c.

XII. Provided always, That if any Cause shall be brought on to be tried in any of the said Courts respectively, before the Jury in any other Cause shall have brought in their Verdict, or be discharged, it shall and may be lawful for the Court to order twelve of the Residue of the said Parchments or Papers, not containing the Names of any of the Jurors who shall not have so brought in their Verdict, or be discharged, to be drawn in such Manner as is aforesaid, for the Trial of the Cause which shall be so brought on to be tried.

Where the Jury have not brought in their Verdict, twelve others to be drawn.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person or Persons, whose Name or Names shall be so drawn as aforesaid, and who shall not appear after being openly called three Times, upon Oath made by some credible Person that such Person so making Default had been lawfully summoned, shall forfeit and pay for every Default in not appearing upon Call as aforesaid (unless some reasonable Cause of his Absence be proved by Oath or Affidavit, to the Satisfaction of the Judge, who sits to try the said Cause) such Fine or Fines not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, and not less than forty Shillings, as the said Judge shall think reasonable to inflict or assess for such Default.

Penalty on Defaulters.

XIV. Provided always, That where a View shall be allowed in any Cause, that in such Case six of the Jurors named in such Panel, or more, who shall be mutually consented to by the Parties or their Agents on both Sides, or if they cannot agree, shall be named by the proper Officer of the respective Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, Exchequer at Westminster, or the Grand Session in Wales, and the said Counties Palatine, for the Causes in their respective Courts, or if need be, by a Judge of the respective Courts where the Cause is depending, or by the Judge or Judges, before whom the Cause shall be brought on to Trial respectively, shall have the View, and shall be first sworn, or such of them as appear, upon the Jury to try the said Cause, before any Drawing as aforesaid, and so many only shall be drawn to be added to the Viewers who appear, as shall after all Defaulters and Challenges allowed, make up the Number of twelve to be sworn for the Trial of such Cause.

Method in case of View.

XV. And whereas some Doubt hath been conceived touching the Power of his Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, to appoint Juries to be struck before the Clerk of the Crown, Master of the Office, Prothonotaries, or other proper Officer of such respective Courts, for the Trial of Issues depending in the said Courts, without the Consent of the Prosecutor or Parties concerned in the Prosecution or Suit then depending, unless such Issues are to be tried at the Bar of the same Courts: Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer at Westminster respectively, upon Motion made on Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or on the Motion of any Prosecutor or Defendant in any Indictment or Information for any Misdemeanor, or Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, depending or to be brought or prosecuted in the said Court of King's Bench, or in any Information depending or to be brought or prosecuted in the said Court of Exchequer, or on the Motion of any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants in any Action, Cause or Suit whatsoever, depending or to be brought and carried on in the said Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer, or in any of them, and the said Courts are hereby respectively authorized and required, upon Motion as aforesaid, in any of the Cases before-mentioned, to order and appoint a Jury to be struck before the proper Officer of each respective Court, for the Trial of any Issue joined in any of the said Cases, and triable by a Jury of twelve Men, in such Manner as Special Juries have been, and are usually struck in such Courts respectively, upon Trials at Bar had in the said Courts, which said Jury so struck as aforesaid, shall be the Jury returned for the Trial of the said Issue.

In Trials of Issues at Westminster, on Motion of Parties, Judges may order a Special Jury.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Person or Party who shall apply for such Jury to be struck as aforesaid, shall bear and pay the Fees for the striking such Jury, and shall not have any Allowance for the same, upon Taxation of Costs.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That where any special Jury shall be ordered by Rule of any of the said Courts to be struck by the proper Officer of such Court, in the Manner aforesaid, in any Cause arising in any City, or County of a City or Town, the Sheriff or Sheriffs, or Under Sheriff of such City, or County of a City or Town, shall be ordered by such Rule to bring, or cause to be brought before the said Officer, the Books or Lists of Persons qualified to serve on Juries within the same, out of which Juries ought to be returned by such Sheriff or Sheriffs, in like Manner as the Freeholders Book hath been usually ordered to be brought, in order to the striking of Juries for Trials at the Bar, in Causes arising in Counties at large, and in every such Case the Jury shall be taken and struck out of such Books or Lists respectively.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons having an Estate in Possession in Land in their own Right, of the yearly Value of twenty Pounds or upwards, over and above the reserved Rent payable thereout, such Lands being held by Lease or Leases for the absolute Term of five hundred Years or more, or for ninety-nine Years or any other Term determinable on one or more Life or Lives, the Names of every such Person or Persons shall and may, and are hereby directed and required to be inserted in the respective Lists as aforesaid, in order to their being inserted in the Freeholders Book; and the Persons appointed to make such Lists are hereby directed to insert them accordingly; and such Leaseholder or Leaseholders shall and may be summoned or impanelled to serve on Juries, in like Manner as Freeholders may be summoned and impanelled by Virtue of this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpose, and be subject to the like Penalties for Non-appearance; any Law, Statute, Use or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriffs of the City of London for the Time being, shall not impanel or return any Person or Persons to try any Issue joined in any of his Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer, or to be or serve on any Jury at the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, Gaol-Delivery or Sessions of the Peace, to be had or held for the said City of London, who shall not be an Householder within the said City, and have Lands, Tenements or Personal Estate, to the Value of one hundred Pounds; and the same Matter and Cause alledged by way of Challenge, and so found, shall be taken and admitted as a principal Challenge, and the Person or Persons so challenged, shall and may be examined on Oath of the Truth of the said Matter.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriffs or other Officers, to whom the returning of Juries doth or shall belong, for any County, City or Place respectively, shall not impanel or return any Person or Persons to serve on any Jury for the Trial of any Capital Offence, who at the Time of such Return would not be qualified in such respective County, City or Place, to serve as Jurors in Civil Causes for that Purpose; and the same Matter and Cause alledged by way of Challenge, and so found, shall be admitted and taken as a principal Challenge, and the Person or Persons so challenged, shall and may be examined on Oath of the Truth of the said Matter.

XXI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be openly read once in every Year at the General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for every County, City or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England and Wales, next after the twenty-fourth Day of June.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in Force until the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer,

WHEREAS the Shipping employed in the Coal Trade has for many Years past laboured under great Difficulties, and been in a very declining State, whereby that valuable Nursery of Seamen has been much impaired, and without some speedy Relief, will be in great danger of Ruin; and whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made touching Watermen and Wherry-men rowing on the River of Thames, and for the better ordering and governing the said Watermen, Wherry-men and Lightermen, upon the said River between Gravesend and Windsor, many Persons keeping Wharfs, and others dealing in Coals, are restrained from carrying the same from and to any Part of the River Thames, in their own Lighters, or other Boats; and whereas several Lightermen have exacted unlawful Premiums or Rewards for vending some Sorts of Coals in Preference to others, and have refused to make their Notes, given in Payment for the same, for Value received, and have become Crimps or Factors to the Masters of Coal Ships, at the same Time they are Buyers of Coals on their own Account, all which have been found by Experience to be greatly prejudicial to the Navigation and Coal Trade, injurious to the Publick, detrimental to the Masters and Owners of Ships employed in that Trade, and have tended to a Monopoly thereof; and whereas there have been great Abuses in the measuring of Sea Coals by many Dealers therein, whereby the fair Traders have been much injured, and the Consumers imposed on: For Remedy whereof, and to prevent the like Evils for the future, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, who now do or hereafter shall keep any Wharf or Wharfs on the River Thames, or on any Creek or Branch thereof, and for any other Person or Persons, who now do or hereafter shall trade or deal in Coals or other Goods, to keep, use and employ their own Lighters, Barges, and other Craft, in and for the carrying of Coals and other Goods, to and from any Ship or other Vessel, in the River Thames, and to and from any Wharf, Dock, Creek or other Place whatsoever, on or near the said River where such Goods might, before the making of this Act, be lawfully landed or shipped off, by any Lighterman or other Person, so as the Person or Persons, who shall be employed in rowing or navigating any such Lighter, Barge or other Craft, be such as by the Laws now in Being, is or are duly qualified to row or navigate the same on the River Thames; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all and every Person or Persons (not being a Lighterman or Lightermen) who shall by Virtue of this Act become intitled to use, keep, work or employ his, her or their own Lighter or Lighters, or other great Craft for carrying Coals or other Goods on the River Thames, shall before his, her or their so working, using or employing the same, make or tender, before the said Company of Watermen and Lightermen, or some proper Officer, which the said Company are hereby required to appoint for this Purpose, an Entry or Entries of such their respective Lighter or Lighters or other Craft, designed to be used, kept, worked or employed as aforesaid; for each of which Entries such Officer shall receive from the Persons making such Entries, for the Use of the Company, five Shillings and no more; and thereupon such Officer shall forthwith register the same in a Book or Books to be kept by him, on the Part of the said Company for that Purpose, together with the Owner's Name or Place of Abode, and the Number or Mark intended to be affixed or described on such Lighter or Lighters, or other great Craft respectively; and after such Entry made or tendered to be made, such Owner or Owners respectively shall affix or describe, or cause or permit to be affixed or described, such Number or Mark in Metal or Colours, on the outside of the said Lighter or Lighters or other great Craft, visible above Water when fully loaded, there to remain without Alteration (except with Consent of the Company, or in Cases of involuntary Accidents) and that until such Entry made or such Tender thereof, and such Number or Mark affixed or described thereon, such Owner or Owners shall not be intitled to use, work or employ such his Lighter or Lighters or other great Craft, in any other Manner than he or they might lawfully do before the making of this Act; and that from and after such Entry made and registered, and such Number or Mark being affixed or described as aforesaid, such Lighter or Lighters or other great Craft, and the Owner or Owners thereof shall be subject and liable, in respect of such Entries, Registers, Numbers or Marks, to such Orders, Rules or Constitutions as are or shall be made by the said Company, in regard to the Entries, Numbers or Marks, of or on the Lighters or other great Craft, belonging to Lightermen free of the said Company, and no other.

and subject to the Rules of the Watermen's Company.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, no Lighterman or other Buyer of Coals for Sale, nor any of their Partners, Agents or Servants, or any in Trust for them, shall act as a Crimp, Agent or Factor, for any Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel importing Coals into the Port of London; and that every Lighterman and other Buyer of Coals for Sale, his or their Partner, Agent or Servant, who shall after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, act as a Crimp, Agent or Factor, for selling of Coals for any Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds; and that every Master of a Ship, who shall after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, employ any Lighterman or other Buyer of Coals for Sale, or his or their Partner, Agent or Servant, or any in trust for them, knowing him to be such, to be his Crimp, Agent or Factor, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Buyers of Coals for Sale acting as Crimps, and Masters employing them, to forfeit 200l.

IV. And whereas in and by a Clause in an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act to dissolve the present, and prevent the future Combination of Coal Owners, Lightermen, Masters of Ships and others, to advance the Price of Coals in Prejudice of the Navigation, Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for the further Encouragement of the Coal Trade, it is enacted, That if any Lighterman or Lightermen, Master or Masters of Ships, Crimp, Coal Factor or other Person or Persons buying or selling or dealing in Coals, or otherwise concerned in the Coal Trade, by him or themselves, his or their Agent or Servant, or any other Person or Persons, shall at any Time or Times from and after the first Day of June aforesaid, receive or take for the Use or Benefit of such Lighterman or Lightermen, Master or Masters of Ships, Crimp, Coal Factor or other Person or Persons, any Salary, Gratuity, Reward, Allowance, Sum or Sums of Money, from any Coal Owner, Fitter, Master of Ships, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, for contracting, buying, vending, selling or disposing of any particular Sorts of Coals, in Preference of any other Sorts of Coals, or for the loading of any Ship or Vessel, or for the Dispatch, Delivery or Disposal of the Coals from on Board of any Ship or Ships or Vessels, before other Ship or Ships or Vessels, or shall knowingly sell one Sort of Coals for and as a Sort which they really are not, every Person offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds; but the Remedy provided by the said recited Clause, having been found ineffectual to prevent the Mischiefs and Inconveniencies therein mentioned, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty shall take or receive any Premium, Gratuity, Reward, Sum or Sums of Money or Allowance in Coals, or in Account or otherwise, from any Coal Owner, Fitter or Master of a Ship, or any of their Agents or Servants, for contracting, buying, vending or disposing of any particular Sort of Coals, or shall otherwise offend contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the above recited Clause of the said Act, shall over and above the Penalty inflicted by the said Act for such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; and that every Coal Owner or Fitter, who shall after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, by himself or themselves, his or their Agent or Servant, give or agree to give to any Shipmaster, Lighterman, Crimp or Buyer of Coals, or to any of their Agents or Servants, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for such Shipmaster, Lighterman, Crimp or Buyer of Coals, any Premium, Salary, Gratuity, Reward, Sum or Sums of Money, or any Allowance in Coals, or in Account or otherwise, for contracting, buying, vending, selling or disposing of any particular Sort of Coals, or for the loading of any Ship or Vessel with such Coal Owner's Coals, or for the Dispatch, Delivery or Disposal of such Coals from such Coal Owners' Collieries or Staiths, and every Person who shall knowingly sell sell one Sort of Coals for and as a Sort which they really are not, every such Coal Owner, Fitter or Person so offending contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

V. Provided always, That this Act or any Thing herein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend, to prevent or hinder any Coal Owner from employing or giving any Salary, Gratuity or Reward, to any Fitter or Fitters for the bending, selling and disposing of his Coals from his Colliery and Staiths, or to prevent or hinder any Master or Owners of any Ship or Vessel using the Coal Trade, from employing Crimps or Factors (not being Lightermen or Buyers of Coals for Sale, or any of their Partners, Agents, Servants, or any in Trust for them) to sell or dispose of their respective Loadings of Coals, or pay them Crimpage or Factorage as has usually been paid.

VI. And for making more effectual all Agreements between Shipmasters and Buyers of Coals for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all Bargains or Contracts for Coals, between Buyer and Seller at the Market of Billingsgate or other Place of Sale within the Bills of Mortality, shall by the Crimp or Factor, who has the Disposal of such Coals, be fairly entered with the Conditions thereof, in the Pocket or other Book of such Crimp or Factor, subscribed by the Seller and the Buyer, and witnessed by the said Crimp or Factor, of which Bargain or Contract the said Crimp or Factor shall at the same Time deliver gratis, a Copy by him attested to the Seller and Buyer respectively; and the said Entries so made and subscribed, and the said Copies so given and attested, shall be admitted as Evidence on Trials in any Court of Law whatsoever; and if any Crimp or Factor shall neglect or refuse to enter such Bargain or Contract, and to subscribe and attest the same, or shall refuse to give Copies thereof as aforesaid, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied, recovered and disposed of, as any other Penalties or Forfeitures, above the Sum of five Pounds, are by this Act directed to be levied, recovered and disposed of.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all Lightermen and other Buyers of, or Contractors for, Coals on Board of any Ship or Vessel in the Port of London, shall at the Time of the Delivery of such Coals, either pay for the same in ready Money, or for such Part thereof as shall not be so paid for, shall give their respective Promissory Note or Notes of their Hands for Payment thereof, expressing therein the Words Value received in Coals, payable at such Day or Days, Time or Times, as shall for that Purpose be agreed upon between such Lighterman or other Buyer of or Contractor for Coals, and the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel, or his Agent or Factor on his Behalf; and that all such Notes, in case of Nonpayment at the respective Days and Times therein mentioned, shall and may be protested or noted in such Manner as Inland Bills of Exchange may now be; and in Default of such protesting or noting by any Indorsee, and Notice thereof given by such Indorsee to the respective Indorsor or Indorsors, within twenty Days after such Failure of Payment, such respective Indorsor or Indorsors, to whom such Notice shall not be given, shall not be chargeable with or liable to answer or pay such Sum of Money, as shall be mentioned to be payable in or by such Note or Notes, nor any Part thereof; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Lightermen, or other Buyers of or Contractors for Coals, who shall after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty refuse to give their Note or Notes for Coals to them respectively delivered, and shall refuse to insert the said Words, Value received in Coals, and every such Master, who shall take any such Note from any Dealer in Coals, in which Note the Words Value received in Coals are not expressly inserted, such Lightermen, Buyers of or Contractors for Coals, and Masters shall for every such Refusal or Acceptance respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

IX. And whereas the Masters of Ships employed in the Coal Trade are for the most part invested both with the grand Bill of Sale and Possession of such Ship or Ships, as he or they are Masters of, by which Means many ill disposed Masters, although they hold but small Parts in their own Right, refuse to observe and obey the Directions of their Owners, or to render an Account when thereunto required, neither can they (as the Law now stands) be compelled so to do, without tedious and expensive Suits in Chancery: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, every Master of a Ship or Vessel using the Coal Trade, shall be subject to the Direction of the Owner or Owners of the major Part of his Ship or Vessel, and shall keep, and once a Year render to such Owner or Owners, if required, a true, plain, just and perfect Account in Writing of the Produce and Expence of every respective Voyage he or they shall make within such Year in such Ship or Vessel; and that in case any such Master shall refuse or neglect to observe and obey the Directions of such Owner or Owners, given under his or their Hands in Writing, or shall refuse to give such Account, being likewise thereunto required by an Order in Writing under his or their Hands, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds: Provided nevertheless, That in such Directions there be nothing contained which shall relate to the restraining or enhancing the Price of Coals in the River of Thames, or to keeping of Turn in delivering of Coals there.

X. And whereas by ancient Custom in the Port of London, one Chaldron of Coals is allowed in to every Score bought on board Ship, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, which is called Ingrain, notwithstanding which many Persons dealing in Coals do load the same from on board Ship bare Measure, without the aforesaid Ingrain, to the great Injury of the Consumer; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Lightermen and other Persons dealing in Coals, who shall from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, sell to any Person or Persons any Parcel or Quantity of Coals as and for Pool Measure, videlicet, such Measure as is usually given or allowed in the Pool or River Thames, including the aforesaid Ingrain, and shall not justly and without Fraud deliver to such Person or Persons, Buyers or Consumers thereof, the full Quantity of Coals so sold, and accordingly measured from from on board Ship to such Lighterman or other Dealer in Coals, by the Meter, together with the Ingrain thereof, such Lighterman or other Dealer in Coals shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

XI. And for the better discovering and preventing Frauds and Abuses in the measuring of Coals, and the Encouragement of the fair Trader therein, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all Coals which shall be landed at any Wharf, Dock, or other landing Place on the River Thames, or on any Creek or Branch adjacent or near thereto, and which shall be carried to any Place or Places within the Cities or Suburbs of London or Westminster, or the Bills of Mortality, in any Car, Cart, Waggon, or other Carriage of any Denomination whatsoever, shall be carried to the respective Buyers thereof in Linen Sacks, sealed and marked with white Paint in Oil at Guild-Hall, London, or at the Exchequer Office at Westminster, by the proper Officer there; which Sacks shall be full four Feet and two Inches in Length, and six and twenty Inches in Breadth, after they shall be made; which Sacks all Dealers in and Carriers of Coals shall use for Carriage of Coals within the Limits aforesaid, and no others, and all Makers of Coal Sacks shall make them of the aforesaid Dimensions at the least; and that every Dealer in and Carrier of Coals, who shall from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty, make use of any other Sack or Sacks for Carriage of Coals within the Limits aforesaid, shall for every Sack he or they shall so make use of, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings.

Coal Sacks to be sealed and marked.

Penalty.

XII. Provided nevertheless, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend, to prevent or hinder any Consumer of Coals from fetching or carrying home his own Coals by Porters, or in his own or hired Carts, Waggon or other Carriages, without being obliged to use such Sacks, as are herein before directed and described; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Consumers of Coals exempted from using such Sacks.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty, all Dealers in and Sellers of Coals by the Chaldron or lesser Quantity, within the Cities of London and Westminster, or within ten Miles round the same, shall constantly keep and use at their respective Wharfs, Warehouses, and other Places for the Sale of their Coals, a lawful Bushel, such as is described in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the speedy and effectual preserving the Navigation of the River of Thames, by stopping the Breach in the Levels of Havering and Dagenham in the County of Essex, and for ascertaining the Coal Measure, with which Bushel all such Dealers in and Sellers of Coals, shall justly measure, or cause all the Coals they shall so sell by the Chaldron or lesser Quantity, to be measured, and shall put three Bushels of Coals so justly measured into each Sack before described, which said Sacks they shall use, and no other, for the Carriage of such Coals to the Buyers thereof; and that all such Dealers in and Sellers of Coals within the said Limits, who from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty shall not constantly keep and use such a Bushel and such Sacks, as herein before described, and no other, or shall not so fill their Coal Sacks from such Bushels, or shall otherwise offend against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds; and if any Servant or Servants of such Dealer or Dealers in Coals shall, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty, fill such Coals into Sacks, without first duly measuring the same by such Bushel, such Servant or Servants shall for every such Offence be committed to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding thirty Days, nor less than fourteen Days.

What shall be deemed lawful Coal Bushels, &c.

12 Ann. Stat. 4. c. 17.

Penalty on using other Measures.

XIV. And forasmuch as it hath hitherto been usual for Coal Bushels and smaller Measures to be marked or sealed with a hot Iron on the Wood thereof, and that ill disposed Persons, before they have ironed and fitted such Bushels and small Measures for work and use, have cut away the upper Parts thereof, so as they did not contain so much as the Law directs: For Remedy whereof, and to prevent such ill Practices for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons dealing in Coals, and using Coal Bushels and smaller Measures, shall before they presume to use the same, have them fitted for work and use with Iron or Copper, and after they are so fitted, shall carry them to the Guildhall London, or to the Exchequer Office at Westminster, to be sealed or stamped by the proper Officer there, with a Steel Instrument on the uppermost Iron or Copper Hoop and Strap, which Measures shall be by them respectively kept without any Alteration, and so used at their respective Places of Sale of their Coals, which Places of Sale are hereby declared to be the respective Wharfs, Warehouses, Docks, Sheds, Cellars, or other Repositories, for the Coals of such Persons as are Dealers therein, and that all Persons dealing in Coals, who shall from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty offend herein, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds; and that all Persons who shall, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and thirty, alter and make less any such Bushel or other Measure, or any of the Sacks before mentioned, after the same have been sealed or marked as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Measures to be sealed or stamped.

Penalty.

XV. And for the better Discovery of the Offences herein before mentioned, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person who shall be guilty of any of the Offences declared by this Act, and shall, within six Calendar Months after such Offence shall be committed, make an effectual Discovery of any Coal Owner or Coal Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of a Colliery or Collieries, or of his or their Agent or Agents, Servant or Servants, or of his, their or any of their Fitters, Officers or Clerks, or of any Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Lighterman, Crimp, Coal Factor, or Seller or Retailer of Coals, or other Person concerned in the Coal Trade, who shall have committed any Offence contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, so as he, they or any of them shall be convicted of any such Offence, such Person making such Discovery shall be, and is hereby fully discharged of and from the said Penalties and Forfeitures for all such Offences by him before that Time committed, and shall also be intitled to have and receive the same Benefit and and Advantage from such Discovery and Conviction, as any other Person shall in the like Case be intitled to by Virtue of this Act.

Penalties how to be levied.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the Penalties and Forfeitures for Offences in this Act mentioned, above the Sum of five Pounds, shall be one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them who shall inform and sue for the same within the Space of six Calendar Months next after such Offence or Offences shall be committed, to be recovered with double Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, wherein no Effoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor more than one Imparance given; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures for Offences in this Act mentioned, of or under the Sum of five Pounds, shall be recovered by way of Complaint made unto the Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, or any one Justice of the Peace within the City of London and Liberties thereof, or one Justice of the Peace of the several and respective Counties and Places where such Offender or Offenders shall live, who are hereby required to call the Parties before them, and to hear and examine such Complaint upon Oath, which by Virtue of this Act is to be by him administered, and upon due Proof thereof made to his Satisfaction, to grant a Warrant under his Hand and Seal for levying such Forfeitures accordingly; the one Moiety thereof to be to and for the Use of the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to be to and for the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence or Offences shall be committed; and in case such Forfeitures shall not be forthwith after such Conviction or Convictions paid, that then the same shall be levied by Distress and Sale of such Offender's Goods and Chattels by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of the Lord Mayor of London, or such Justice of the Peace before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, rendering the Overplus, if any shall be, to such Offender or Offenders; and for want of sufficient Distress or Distresses such Offender or Offenders shall be committed to the House of Correction for any Time not exceeding thirty Days, and not less than fourteen, there to be kept to hard Labour.

Publick Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and other Persons whatsoever, without the same being specially pleaded or set forth.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons.

3 Geo. 2. c. 22.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, it is amongst other Things enacted, That it should be lawful for any Person or Persons, charged in Execution for any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of one hundred Pounds, after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, within the Prison of the Marshalsea, or County Gaol of Surrey, and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, in any other Gaol or Prison, to exhibit a Petition to any of the Courts of Law from whence the Process issued, upon which he, she or they was or were taken or charged in Execution, in the Manner by the said Act directed; which Court is thereby required, by Order or Rule of Court, to cause the Prisoner to be brought up, and the several Creditors at whose Suit he, she or they stood charged, to be summoned to appear personally or by their Attorney in Court, and upon any of their Neglect or Refusal to appear, upon Affidavit of the due Service of such Rule and Order, such Court should in a summary Way examine into the Matter of the said Petition, and also administer to such Prisoner the Oath in the said Act mentioned and directed to be administered upon such Examination as aforesaid: And whereas it hath been found inconvenient to bring Prisoners up to the Courts in Westminster-Hall from Prisons that are at a great Distance from thence, as the said Act directs, by reason of the great Difficulties and Expences which attend the same: Therefore for remedying the said Inconveniencies, and to the Intent that the Creditor or Creditors may be the better enabled to inquire into the true State of the Real and Personal Estate of any Prisoner or Prisoners who shall be in Execution as aforesaid, on his, her or their Account, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of Trinity Term next ensuing, before any Prisoner or Prisoners being in any Prison (except such who are in the Prisons in the Cities of London and Westminster and the Borough of Southwark) shall petition any of the Courts in Westminster-Hall from whence the Process issued, upon which he, she or they was or were charged in Execution, in such Manner as the said Act mentions, such Prisoner or Prisoners shall give or cause to be given a Writing, importing Notice to the several Creditors, at whose Suit he, she or they shall stand charged as aforesaid, that he, she or they doth or do intend to petition the Court from whence the Process issued, upon which he, she or they was or were taken in Execution, and also a true Copy of the Account or Schedule in Writing of his, her or their whole Real or Personal Estate, which he, she or they doth or do intend to deliver into any such Court, the said Notice to be left with or served upon the said Creditor or Creditors, his, her or their Executors or Administrators, or some or one of them, or his or their Attorney or Agent employed in such Cause or Causes, for which he, she or they shall be imprisoned.

Prisoners in Execution to give Notice to their Creditors, that they design to petition the Court.
3 Geo. 2. c. 24.

Prisoner, by Rule of Court, to be brought to the next Assizes: Expences thereof how to be paid.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That upon such Petition made by any Prisoner or Prisoners to any of the said Courts from whence the Process issued, such Court is hereby required to make a Rule to cause the Prisoner or Prisoners to be brought, at an Expence not exceeding twelve Pence a Mile, to be paid to the Officers out of the Effects of the Prisoner, and in case the Prisoner has not sufficient Effects, then to be repaid by the Treasurer of the County out of the County Stock, to the next Assizes to be holden for the County or Place where he, she or they shall be imprisoned, if the same shall be within that Part of Great Britain called England, and if within the Principality of Wales or County Palatine of Chester, then such such Prisoner or Prisoners shall be brought to the next Great Sessions to be holden for the County where he, she or they shall be imprisoned; and the several Creditors at whose Suit such Prisoner or Prisoners shall stand charged as aforesaid, shall also be summoned to appear at the said next Assizes or Great Sessions personally, or by his, her or their Attorney or Attorneys, by Rule or Order of the Court from whence the Process issued, to be served on such Creditor or Creditors, or to be left at his, her or their Dwelling-house or usual Place of Abode, thirty Days at the least before such Assizes or Great Sessions.

Creditors to be summoned.

III. And it shall be lawful for the Judges of Assize or Great Sessions, or one of them, and he and they are hereby required to appoint a Time for hearing the Matter upon the said Petition at and during such Assizes or Great Sessions; and upon Appearance of the Creditors so summoned, or in Default thereof, upon Affidavit of their being so summoned, and duly served with such Notice, and Copy of Account of such Prisoner's Real and Personal Estate as aforesaid, and also with the Rule or Order of Court for their Appearance at such Assizes or Great Sessions, the said Judge or Judges shall in a summary Way examine into the Matter of such Petition, and hear what can or shall be alledged on either Side for or against the Discharge of such Prisoner, upon which Examination the said Judge and Judges is and are empowered and required to administer or tender to such Prisoner the Oaths in the said recited Act directed and appointed to be taken by any Prisoner before the Judges of the Court out of which the Process upon which such Prisoner was taken in Execution issued; and the said Judge or Judges of Assize or Great Sessions shall give such Judgment, Relief and Directions as the Court out of which the Process issued for the taking of such Prisoner in Execution, might or ought to have given before the making of this Act; which Judgment, Relief and Directions, by the said Judge or Judges of Assize or Great Session so given as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been made in the Court out of which the Process issued on which such Prisoner was taken in Execution; and the like Proceedings shall be had thereupon, and a Record of such Judgment shall be made up in the same Form, and returned and certified under the Hand or Hands of the Judge or Judges before whom it shall be made, unto the Court from whence the Process on which such Prisoner was taken in Execution issued, to be a Record of the said Court, and to be kept as such amongst the other Records there.

The Cause to be heard in a summary Way.

Judgments to be entered on Record.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Judges of the Great Sessions in Wales, and the Judges of the County Palatine of Chester, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall and they hereby have the same Cognizance, Power, Authority and Jurisdiction for the Relief of Debtors, with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, who shall be imprisoned within their respective Precincts, by Virtue of any Execution to be issued out of their respective Courts, and to proceed in the same Manner concerning the Discharge of such Debtor or Debtors, and to give the same Judgment, Relief and Directions relating thereto, as the said Courts in Westminster-Hall are empowered and directed to do by the said herein before recited Act.

Judges of Wales and Chester to have the like Power within their own Precincts.

V. And whereas divers Rules or Orders may have been made by the Courts of Law in Westminster-Hall for the bringing up of Prisoners, pursuant to the said recited Act, from Prisons at great Distance from the Cities of London and Westminster, which have not been obeyed by the respective Sheriffs or Gaolers in whose Custody such Prisoner or Prisoners then were, by reason of the great Expence attending the same; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Rules or Orders as have been made by any of the Courts in Westminster-Hall, for bringing up of such Prisoners to any such Courts, and all Attachments and Proceedings thereon, be and the same are hereby discharged and made void; and that all Sheriffs and Gaolers be and are hereby protected and indemnified against all Actions that are or shall be brought against them, or any of them, for not obeying such Rules or Orders.

Orders made for bringing Prisoners to Westminster-Hall vacated.

VI. And whereas by the said recited Act the Officers are restrained from carrying any Person or Persons by them arrested to any Gaol or Prison within twenty-four Hours from the Time of such Arrest; and several Persons, who have been arrested, refusing to be carried by the Officers to any House whatsoever, to be kept in safe Custody during that Time, have kept the Officers abroad with them in the Night-time, and thereby have found Means to make their Escapes from such Officers: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, after the first Day of Trinity Term next, shall be arrested or in Custody of any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff, Serjeant at Mace or other Officer or Minister whatsoever, by Virtue of any Writ, Process or Warrant, and such Person or Persons so arrested shall refuse to be carried to some safe and convenient Dwelling-house of his, her or their own Nomination and Appointment, so as such Dwelling-house shall be within a City or Market-Town, in case such Person or Persons shall be there arrested, or, if such Arrest shall be made out of any City or Market-Town, then within three Miles from the Place where such Arrest shall be made, and so as such House be not the House of the Person arrested, provided it be within the same County and Liberty, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Sheriff or other Officer or Minister to convey or carry the Person or Persons so refusing to such Gaol or Prison, as he, she or they is or are liable to be sent to by Virtue of such Writ or Process; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prisoner refusing to go with the Officer to some House, to be carried to Prison.

Encouragement

Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trade, and for the better securing the Plantation Trade: And whereas his Majesty's Province of Carolina in America has by Experience been found to be a proper Soil for producing Rice to very great Perfection, and for many Years last past the Produce thereof has increased; and it is reasonable to expect, that not only the Produce thereof in those Parts, but also the Exportation thereof would be greatly increased, for the mutual Benefit of this Kingdom and the said Province, if (notwithstanding the Laws relating to Navigation and Trade to and from the Plantations) Liberty or Licence were granted for Ships built in and sailing from Great Britain, to load Rice in the said Province, and to carry the same directly to any Ports of Europe lying Southward of Cape Finisterre, without bringing the same first to Great Britain, as the said Laws now require, whereby the same will arrive at such Ports more seasonably and in better Condition for the Consumption thereof, and prevent their being supplied with the same Commodity from other Countries: For this End, and for providing proper Securities for your Majesty's Duties, and for preventing any Prejudice or Damage to this Nation, which might happen thereby from any other unlawful Commerce between the Plantations and any other foreign Countries, as to any other enumerated Commodities, or otherwise; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act passed in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty, so far as the same extends to the making of Rice of the Growth and Produce of his Majesty's Plantations in America an enumerated Commodity, shall be and is hereby ratified and confirmed, as to all Persons, Ships, Vessels or Places, in all Respects whatsoever, except only as to such of the said Rice as by this Act shall be permitted or allowed to be exported from his Majesty's Province of Carolina in America, by such Persons, and in such Ships and Vessels, and to such foreign Countries and Places, and under such Entries, Securities, Restrictions, Regulations, Limitations, Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein after particularly described, appointed, limited and enacted for that Purpose.

Act 3 & 4 Ann. which makes Rice an enumerated Commodity confirmed; except Rice from Carolina.

After 29 Sept.
1730, Rice may be carried directly to any Part of Europe Southward of Cape Finisterre,

on Licence, Certificate and Bond.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty it shall and may be lawful, notwithstanding any of the Acts aforesaid, or any other Act of Parliament, for any of his Majesty's Subjects, in any Ship or Vessel built in Great Britain, or belonging to any of his Majesty's Subjects residing in Great Britain, and navigated according to Law, that shall clear outwards in any Port of Great Britain for the Province of Carolina in America, to ship or load Rice in the said Province, and to carry the same directly to any Part of Europe Southward of Cape Finisterre, without carrying the same to any other of his Majesty's Plantations in America, or to Great Britain, the Master or other Person having or taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, before he clears outwards from Great Britain, first taking a Licence under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being, or any three of them, for the loading and carrying the same from the said Province of Carolina directly to some Part of Europe to the Southward of Cape Finisterre, upon a Certificate from the Collector and Comptroller of the Port where such Licence shall be desired, certifying that Bond has been given, with one or more sufficient Security, in the Sum of one thousand Pounds, if the Ship be of less Burthen than one hundred Tuns, and the Sum of two thousand Pounds, if the Ship shall be of that or a greater Burthen, that no Tobacco, Sugars, Cotton, Wool, Indigo, Ginger, Fustick or other dyeing Wood, Melasses, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Hemp, Halls, Yards, Bowspits, Copper Bar, Beaver Skins or other Furs, of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any British Plantations in America, shall be laden or taken on board such Ship or Vessel at Carolina, or any other of his Majesty's Plantations in America, unless it be for the necessary Provisions of the Ship in their Voyage; and that such Ship or Vessel shall proceed directly with all the Rice that shall be so laden on board such Ship, by virtue of such Licence, to some Port of Europe to the Southward of Cape Finisterre, and there land the said Rice, and that such Ship, after landing the said Rice, shall proceed for Great Britain before he returns to any of his Majesty's Plantations in America; and in case the Master or other Person shall not, within four Months after his Arrival at such Port, produce a Certificate of having landed and discharged the said Rice so taken on board in the said Province of Carolina, at such Port, which Certificate is to be under the Hand and Seal of the British Consul, or where there is no Consul, to be under the Hands and Seals of two known British Merchants residing in the Port or Place where such Rice shall be landed; otherwise such Bond shall be forfeited to his Majesty, and shall and may be sued and prosecuted in any of the Courts of Record in Great Britain.

Before Rice be put on board at Carolina, Master to deliver his Licence to Collector,
&c.

III. And be it further enacted, That before any Rice be laden or put on board any Ship or Vessel at Carolina, by Virtue of the said Licence, to be carried to some Part of Europe to the Southward of Cape Finisterre, the Master or other Person having or taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel shall, before his Departure out of the said Province of Carolina, deliver to the Collector of the Port where such Ship is to take in her Lading, the said Licence, signed by the said Commissioners of the Customs, and a Certificate of such Bond having been given in Great Britain as aforesaid, and shall declare in Writing upon Oath before the Collector, which such Collector is hereby impowered to administer, whether he intends to load any Rice pursuant to such Licence, and to what Place bound.

Merchant to make Entry, and to take out a Cocquet, and indorse the Quantity.

IV. And in order to ascertain the true Quantity of Rice exported from Carolina pursuant to such Licence and the Liberty granted by this Act, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That before the same shall be shipped or put on board, the Merchant or other Person exporting the same shall make an Entry thereof in Writing with the Collector of his Majesty's Customs and the Naval Officer, and also with the Comptroller, where there is such an Officer, and shall take out a Cocquet or Certificate of such Entry, and shall, before the Rice be shipped or put on board, indorse on the Back of such Cocquet or Certificate the true Quantity intended to be shipped, mentioning the Marks, Numbers and Contents of each Cask, and shall deliver the Cocquet so indorsed to the Searcher or other Officer appointed for the examining and shipping thereof; and if upon weighing and examining the Rice brought or intended to be shipped by virtue of such Cocquet or Certificate, either before or after the shipping thereof, the Quantity shall appear to be greater than is indorsed thereon, or if any Rice shall be laden or put on board any Ship or Vessel having Liberty to trade by virtue of this Act, or any Hoy, Lighter, Bottom, Boat or other Vessel, in order to be put on board such Ship or Vessel, before such Entry or taking out such Cocquet, and Indorsing and Delivery of the same as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, all such Rice so shipped or intended to be shipped shall be forfeited, as also the Hoy, Lighter, Bottom, Boat or other Vessel employed in shipping the same; and the Owner of such Rice, or other Person employed in shipping the same, shall also forfeit treble the Value thereof, to be recovered in the Court of Vice-Admiralty held in any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, or in any other Court of Record in any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, at the Election of the Informer or Prosecutor; one third Part thereof to be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, one third Part to the Governor of the said Colony, and the other one third to the Informer or Prosecutor; and before such Ship or Vessel shall depart from Carolina with the Rice laden as aforesaid, the Master or other Person having or taking Charge thereof shall receive the said Licence from the Collector and Naval Officer, and Comptroller, who shall indorse thereon the Marks, Numbers and Contents of each Cask of Rice so shipped on board, and the Collector and other Officer shall make two Copies of such Licence and Indorsement; for all which Entries, Cocquets, Indorsements or Copies no more shall be taken by the said Officers than the accustomed Fees; and the Master or other Person having or taking Charge of such Ship shall, before he receives the said Licence, attest the said Copies under his Hand, which are to be left with the Collector and other Officers; and the said Master or other Person having or taking Charge of such Ship shall also, on the Return of the said Ship or Vessel to Great Britain, produce and deliver the said Licence to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or to the Collector or Comptroller of the Port where Bond was given when the said Ship or Vessel set sail from Great Britain, with the Indorsement made thereon by the Collector and other Officers of the Quantity laden on board in Carolina, as also a Certificate signed and sealed by the Consul, or two known British Merchants, at the Port or Place where the Rice was landed, certifying the Landing thereof, with the Number of Casks so landed, and the Marks, Numbers and Contents of each Cask, with the Name of the Ship and Master, and that they verily believe that no Sugar, Tobacco, or other enumerated Goods before-mentioned, except Rice, have been there landed out of such Ship or Vessel.

Penalty for false
Entry, &c.

Master's Duty on Return of the Ship to Great Britain.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Collector and other Officers in Carolina shall, as soon as conveniently they can, transmit one of the said Copies of the said Indorsement to the Commissioners of the Customs in Great Britain, and thereupon there shall be payable to his Majesty so much as the Half-Subsidy of the Rice so shipped in Carolina shall amount unto, which would have remained in case the said Rice had been first imported into Great Britain and afterwards re-exported; and the said Commissioners, or the Collector and Comptroller of the Port in which such Ship was entered to sail for Carolina, as soon as they or either of them shall receive the said Licence so indorsed, or one of the Copies of the Indorsement attested by the Master or other Person having or taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid (which shall first come to the Hands of the said Commissioners, or the Collector and Comptroller) may and shall demand from any of the Person or Persons who entered into Bond before the Ship set sail from Great Britain as aforesaid, the full Sum due for the Half-Subsidy for all the Rice mentioned in such Indorsement, or the Copy thereof attested as aforesaid; and in case the same is not paid within thirty Days after such Demand made, the Bond shall be forfeited, and shall and may be put in Suit, and the Persons bound therein shall pay treble Costs.

The Officers in Carolina to transmit a Copy of the Indorsement, to ascertain the Half-Subsidy.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in Force five Years, to be reckoned from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act for continuing and amending an Act for regulating the Price and Affize of Bread; for Relief of Bankrupts whose Certificates were not allowed before the Expiration of a late Act (For the better preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts) for allowing further Time for Inrolment of Deeds or Wills made by Papists, and for Relief of Protestant Purchasers and Lessees; and for making further Provision concerning Certificates relating to the Settlements of poor Persons, and the Charges of maintaining and removing certificated Persons.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was made and passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act to regulate the Price and Affize of Bread, and the same was to continue in Force for three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas the said Act, having been by subsequent Acts further continued, was found very useful and beneficial, but the same is now near expiring; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, together with such Alterations as were made thereto, in and by an Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for continuing several Laws therein mentioned relating to Coals, Hemp and Flax, Irish and Scotch Linen, and the Affize of Bread; and for giving Power to adjourn the Quarter-Sessions for the County of Anglesea for the Purposes therein mentioned, shall be and is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Bread for Sale, or exposing Bread to Sale, shall sell any Peck, Half-Peck or Quartern Loaf or Loaves at any greater or higher Price than shall be set and ascertained by the said Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, or by the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, by Order of the said Court, or by the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen or chief Magistrates for the Time being of any other City, Town Corporate or Borough, or by any two or more Justices of the Peace in such Towns and Places where there shall be no such Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen or chief Magistrates, he, she or they so doing, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings; the said Forfeiture or Forfeitures to be given to the Informer or Informers, and to be adjudged, levied and recovered in such Manner, as the Penalty of forty Shillings is by the said Act of the eighth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign to be adjudged, levied and recovered.

III. Provided always, That before any Reduction is made in the Assize of Bread by the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, a Copy of the Prices delivered in by the Deal Weighers for the said City for the Time being shall be left at the common Hall of the Bakers Company by the Space of twelve Hours before any such Reduction, to the Intent that the said Company shall have an Opportunity to be heard thereupon before the said Court.

IV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts, it was enacted, That all Persons who should become Bankrupts, and should surrender themselves to the Commissioners named and authorized in or by any Commissions of Bankrupts to be awarded against them, and should in all Things conform as in the said Act is directed, should be discharged from all Debts by them due or owing at the Time they did become Bankrupts, in case the Commissioners should certify, that such Bankrupts had made a full Discovery of their Estates and Effects, and conformed themselves according to the Directions of the said Act, and four Parts in five of their Creditors should sign such Certificate, and consent to their Discharge, and in case such Certificates should be allowed by the Lord Chancellor, or others therein named, in Manner in the said Act mentioned, and any of the Creditors of such Bankrupts were to be heard, if they should think fit, against the making such Certificate and against the Confirmation thereof; and whereas the said Act expired at the End of the last Session of Parliament; and whereas before the Expiration of the said Act several Persons, against whom Commissions had been issued, were duly declared Bankrupts, and since the Issuing of the said Commissions have made full Discoveries of all their Estates and Effects, and delivered the same up for the Benefit of their Creditors, notwithstanding which some of their Creditors have since brought Actions against them, and held them to Bail thereupon, and their Certificates not being allowed and confirmed, such Bankrupts are deprived of the Benefit intended them by the said Act, although they are liable to the Penalties thereby inflicted; For Relief therefore of the said unfortunate Bankrupts, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who was or were duly declared a Bankrupt or Bankrupts on or before the fourteenth Day of May which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, shall be intitled to all and singular the Relief and Discharge from his, her or their Debts, and other Benefit and Advantages, and be also subject and liable to all the Penalties in the said Act of the fifth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign contained or mentioned; and for that Purpose the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, and other the Persons in the said Act authorized to put the same in Execution, are hereby authorized and empowered to proceed in all Respects touching and concerning the Bankrupt or Bankrupts, who was or were so declared on or before the said fourteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, in the same Manner and Form, and as effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said recited Act was in Force; and all Actions brought against the said Bankrupt or Bankrupts, or any of them, for any Debts contracted before his or their Bankruptcy, and the Bail given thereon, shall, from and after the Allowance of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts Certificate and Certificates, be and are hereby discharged.

V. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to revive the said Act, save only as to such Bankrupt or Bankrupts as was or were so declared on or before the said fourteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and who have obtained or shall obtain Certificates of their Conformity, assented to by four Parts in five, in Number and Value, of their Creditors, and allowed and confirmed, as the said Act directs, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And whereas by a Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the third Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for explaining an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for such Registering, and for securing Purchases made by Protestants, it was enacted, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventeen no Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or any Interest therein, or Rent or Profit thereout, should pass, alter or change from any Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion, by any Deed or Will, except such Deed within six Months after the Date, and such Will within six Months after the Death of the Testator, should be inrolled in one of the King's Courts of Record at Westminster, or else within the same County or Counties, wherein the Manors, Lands and Tenements lie, in such Manner as therein for that Purpose is particularly directed: And whereas by a Clause in another Act of Parliament passed in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to oblige all Persons being Papists, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Persons in Great Britain refusing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, by several Acts herein mentioned, to register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for taking the said Oaths and making such Registers, and for allowing further Time for the Inrolment of Deeds or Wills made by Papists, which have been omitted to be inrolled, pursuant to an Act of the third Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, and also for giving Relief to Protestant Lessees, it was enacted, for the Relief of such Persons who had neglected or omitted to inrol their Deeds or Wills, that every Deed and Will which had been then made, since the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in order to pass, alter or change any Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments or any Interest therein, or Rent or Profit thereout, from any Person professing the Popish Religion, though not then inrolled, should be as good and effectual in the Law, as the same would have been, in case the said Deeds and Wills had been inrolled within the Time limited by the said Clause in the said said former Act for Inrolment thereof, provided the said Deeds and Wills should be inrolled on or before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four in such Manner as by the said former Act was directed: And whereas several of his Majesty's Protestant Subjects, since the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, have purchased Lands and taken Leases upon Fines paid, where some small Rents have been reserved, from Papists or Persons professing the Popish Religion, and have omitted and neglected to inroll their Purchase Deeds and Leases within the Times limited by the said Clauses, in the said Acts directed for the Inrollment thereof, and are in danger of being defeated of their said Purchases and Leases: And whereas several Infants and others, claiming under the last Wills and Testaments of Papists or Persons professing the Popish Religion, may be defeated of their said Lands so devised to them, through the Neglect or Omission of the Executors or Trustees of such Wills to inroll the same in due time, according to the Direction of the said Clauses in the said Acts: To relieve therefore such Protestant Purchasers and Lessees, and such other Persons as have neglected or omitted to inroll their Deeds or Wills in due time as aforesaid, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Deed and Will, made since the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in order to pass, alter or change, any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or any Interest therein, or Rent or Profit thereout, from any Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion, though not inrolled, shall be as good and effectual in the Law as the same would have been in case the said Deeds and Wills had been inrolled within the Times limited in the said Clauses in the said Acts for the Inrollment thereof; provided the same Deeds and Wills shall be inrolled on or before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, in such Manner as by the said Clause in the said first mentioned Act is directed.

Protestant Purchasers from Papists may inroll Deeds or Wills, before 29 Sept. 1731.

VII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to make good any such Deed, Will or Lease already made, and not inrolled, of the want of Inrollment whereof Advantage shall have been taken on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty; but every such Deed, Will and Lease, shall remain of such Force and Effect only, as the same would have had if this Act had never been made, and of none other.

Defaults, whereof Advantage has been taken, excepted.

VIII. And to prevent Disputes which often happen, touching the Proof of Certificates given by the Officers of any Parish or Place, acknowledging any Person or Persons therein named, to be an Inhabitant or inhabitants legally settled in such Parish, Town or Place, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and for making such Certificates more effectual, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the Witnesses who attest the Execution of such Certificates by the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers, signing and sealing the same, or one of the said Witnesses, shall make Oath before the Justices of the Peace, who by the said Act are directed to allow the same (which Oath they are hereby authorized to administer) that such Witness or Witnesses did see the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Overseer or Overseers, whose Names and Seals are thereunto subscribed and set, severally sign and seal the said Certificate, and that the Names of such Witnesses attesting the said Certificate are of their own proper Hand writing; which said Justices of the Peace shall also certify that such Oath was made before them; and every such Certificate so allowed, and Oath of the Execution thereof so certified, by the said Justices of the Peace, shall be taken, deemed and allowed, in all Courts whatsoever, as duly and fully proved, and shall be taken and received as Evidence, without other Proof thereof; and that all Certificates given in pursuance of the said Act, before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, shall be also taken and allowed in all Courts as Evidence, without other Proof; provided the same are duly allowed by two Justices of the Peace, as by the said Act is required.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30.

Witness to Certificates of Settlements to swear that they saw the Churchwardens, &c. sign them.

IX. And whereas by an Act made in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for supplying some Defects in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, all Parishes and Places are obliged to receive and entertain as Inhabitants all and every Person and Persons and their Families, which come from any other Parishes or Places with such Certificates of their Settlement, as in the said Act are directed and required, until such Certificate Persons become chargeable, in which case and no others, the Parishes and Places to which they have been sent by Certificate, are authorized to reconvey, and those from whence they came, required to receive the said Certificate Persons and their Families, as their proper Parishioners and Inhabitants; but no Provision is made in the said Act for reimbursing the Parishes and Places the Charges they may be put to in reconveying the said Certificate Persons to their former Parishes and Settlements, or for the Maintenance of them when sick or disabled, till they may be in a Condition to be so removed, whereby divers Parishes and Places are often put to great and unavoidable Expences in removing and maintaining such Certificate Persons and their Families: Now to remedy and prevent the same for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish or Place, or other Person, shall remove back any Person or Persons or their Families, residing in such Parish or Place, or sent thither by Certificate, and becoming chargeable as aforesaid, to the Parish or Place to which such Person or Persons shall belong, such Overseers or other Persons shall be reimbursed such reasonable Charges as they may have been put unto, in maintaining and removing such Person or Persons, by the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place, to which such Person or Persons is or are removed, the said Charges being first ascertained and allowed of by one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County or Place to which such Removal shall be made; which said Charges, so ascertained and allowed, shall, in case of Refusal of Payment, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place to which such Certificate Person or Persons is or are removed by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices, returning the Overplus, if any there be; which Warrant or Warrants he or they are hereby required to grant.

Overseers to be reimbursed on reconveying Certificate Persons.

C A P. XXX.

An Act to put an end to certain Disputes touching Orders and Decrees made in the Court of Chancery.

Orders and Decrees made by the Master of the Rolls valid.

Exception.

WHEREAS divers Questions and Disputes have arisen touching the Authority of the Master of the Rolls in the High Court of Chancery, For putting an end to all Disputes concerning the same, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Orders and Decrees made by the present Master of the Rolls or any of his Predecessors, or hereafter to be made by the said Master of the Rolls, or any of his Successors, except Orders and Decrees of such Nature or Kind as, according to the Course of the said Court, ought only to be made by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the Time being, shall be deemed and taken to be valid Orders and Decrees of the said Court of Chancery; subject nevertheless to be discharged, reversed or altered by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the Time being, and so as no such Orders or Decrees be enrolled till the same are signed by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act for enabling the Judges of the Court of Session in Scotland, to make an Adjournment of the said Court; and for limiting the Time for the Execution of Sentences importing Corporal Punishments in that Part of the Kingdom.

The Judges of the Court of Session may make an Adjournment between Dec. 15 and Jan. 15.

WHEREAS the continued Sittings of the Court of Session in Scotland from the first Day of November to the last Day of February yearly, without any Recess, has been found inconvenient and burthenfome, Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of the said Court of Session in Scotland, and they are hereby impowered to make an Adjournment of their Sessions on such Day, betwixt the fifteenth Day of December and the fifteenth Day of January yearly, and for such Time as they shall judge most convenient, not exceeding the Space of ten Days; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Time limited for Execution of Sentences importing Corporal Punishment less than Death.

II. And whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the more effectual disarming the Highlands in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for the better securing the Peace and Quiet of that Part of the Kingdom, it is enacted, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, no Sentence or Judgment of any Civil Magistrate or Court of Judicature, importing a Capital or Corporal Punishment, if pronounced in Edinburgh or any other Part of Scotland, to the Southward of the Firth or River of Forth, should (for the Reasons in the said Clause mentioned) be put in Execution within less than thirty Days after the Date of such Sentence; and if pronounced in any Place to the Northward of the said Firth or River of Forth, should be put in Execution in less than forty Days after the Date of such Sentence: And whereas the Maintenance and securing in Gaols all Criminals convicted and adjudged to suffer any Corporal Punishment, for so many Days after Judgment given, hath been found burthenfome to Burghs, and others his Majesty's Subjects, and a Discouragement to the apprehending and punishing Offenders, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, it shall and may be lawful to and for all the said Magistrates and Courts of Judicature to put in execution any Judgment or Sentence, importing any Corporal Punishment less than Death or Dismemb'ring, if given or pronounced in any Part of Scotland to the Southward of the Firth or River of Forth, after the elapsing of eight Days, and if given or pronounced in any other Place, to the Northward of the said Firth or River of Forth, after the elapsing of twelve Days, from and after the Date of such Judgment or Sentence respectively.

Court of Justiciary may stay execution of Judgment from an inferior Court 30 Days.

III. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Judges of the Court of Justiciary or any of them, who are hereby severally authorized and required upon Application made, and a reasonable Cause shewn to him or them, by any Person or Persons, who shall find themselves aggrieved by any such Sentence or Judgment, given or pronounced by any Court of Regality, or other inferior Civil Magistrate or Court of Judicature, to stay all Execution of such Judgment or Sentence, for the Space of thirty Days, to the end that such Application may be made for Redress, as is agreeable to the Laws of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

An Act for confirming a Patent granted by her late Majesty Queen ANNE to William Trench Esquire, deceased, for erecting a Lighthouse upon the Island or Rock called Skerries, and for the better Maintenance of the said Lighthouse, and for making the Duties granted for maintaining the same perpetual. P R.

WHEREAS her late Majesty Queen ANNE was pleased to grant her Letters Patent to William Trench Esquire, in the Words and Form following; that is to say,

"ANNE, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting: Whereas we have received abundant Information, and are our self well satisfied, that the building, supporting and maintaining a Lighthouse or Beacon, with a Light or Lights therein continually burning in the Night Time, in or upon the Island or Rock called Skerries, lying in the Sea near Holyhead in our County of Anglesea, is absolutely necessary, and will be of great publick Use and Benefit to the Navigation in those Parts in general, and to our own Ships in particular, and may, for the Time to come, prevent such Wrecks as have frequently happened there, to the great impairing of our Customs, and to the Prejudice of Traders, Mariners and others of our good Subjects: And whereas our beloved Subject William Trench Esquire, being possessed of the said Rock or Island called Skerries, for a long Term of Years yet to come and unexpired, is willing, at his own Expence and Charge, to erect and build, and to support and maintain a Lighthouse or Beacon thereon as aforesaid: Now know ye that we, as well for and in Consideration of the great Expences and Charges the said William Trench, his Executors or Assigns, must necessarily be at, in erecting and maintaining the said Lighthouse or Beacon, and in keeping the same in Repair, with the Lights burning therein, as in Consideration of the great Use and publick Benefit thereof, and also for and in Consideration of the yearly Rent in and by these our Letters Patent reserved, and of the Covenants and Clauses herein expressed, on the Part and Behalf of the said William Trench, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, to be done and performed, of our especial Grace, and by the Advice of our right trusty and well beloved Cousin and Counsellor Robert Earl of Oxford, and Earl Mortimer, our High Treasurer of Great Britain, and of our beloved Counsellor Sir William Wyndham Baronet, Chancellor and Under Treasurer of our Exchequer, have given and granted, and by these Presents for us, our Heirs and Successors, do give and grant unto the said William Trench all that the free Liberty, Licence, Power and Authority of erecting, supporting and maintaining a Lighthouse or Lighthouses, Beacon or Beacons, with Lights to be continually burning therein in the Night Season, upon the said Island or Rock of Skerries near Holyhead in the County of Anglesea, in our Dominion of Wales; and also full Power and Authority to demand, collect, receive and take of and for every Ship, Hoy, Bark, Crayer, Catch or other Vessel (except our Ships of War) which shall pass to, from or by the said Island or Rock of Skerries, or in Sight thereof, or having any Benefit by the said Lighthouse or Lighthouses, the Duty of one Penny upon every Tun, according to the Burden of the Ship or Vessel; and also from all Ships, Hoys, Barks, Crayers, Catches, and other Vessels or Bottoms whatsoever (except our Ships of War) which should pass to, from, by or near the said Island or Rock of Skerries, or shall or may have any Benefit by the said Lighthouse or Lighthouses, although such Ship or Vessel do not usually pass in or to any of our Ports, Havens or Creeks, but in Cases of necessity by Storm, Tempest or Leakages, or for Relief of their Wants, and although such Ship or other Vessel shall not unload or take in any Lading or Ballast, the like Sum or Duty of one Penny for every Tun, according to the Burden of such Ship or other Vessel; and also the further Power and Authority to ask, demand, collect, levy and receive, the said Duty of one Penny per Tun, in all and every or any of our Custom-houses, Castles, Forts, Harbours, Roads, Creeks, Ports and Bays, when the said Ships, or other Bottoms or Vessels whatsoever, shall harbour, put in, or cast Anchor, whether the same be there laden or not, to have, hold, &c."

Reciting Queen ANNE's Patent for erecting a Lighthouse on the Skerries.

The Lighthouse, &c. vested in Sutton Morgan, for ever. Rates for Ships, 1 d. per Tun. Double for Foreigners. Coal Ships only to pay for one Voyage in a Year from Great Britain to Ireland. 50 l. per Annum to be paid by the Postmaster General. An Act for the further Application of the Sinking Fund, by paying off one million of South-Sea Annuities.

Most gracious Sovereign,

9 Geo. 1. c. 6.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the ninth Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First (for reviving and adding two millions to the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company) the whole increased Capital Stock of the said Company, being then computed at thirty-three millions eight hundred and two thousand four hundred eighty-three Pounds fourteen Shillings and a Half-penny, was divided into two equal Parts, and one Moiety thereof, being therein stated at sixteen millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred and forty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and a Farthing, was to be converted into a joint Stock, attended with certain Annuities, payable out of the Funds of the said Company, in lieu of all the Dividends, Profits and Advantages, such Moiety was then intitled to, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and from thenceforth, with Annuities at four Pounds per Centum per Annum, redeemable by Parliament, and the same were thenceforward to be called, The joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities; and the other Moiety or half Part of the said whole Capital Stock, amounting to the like Sum of sixteen millions nine hundred and one thousand two hundred forty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and a Farthing, was to remain, continue and be in the said Company, as a joint Stock in their own Right, attended with the Residue of the Annuities, or yearly Funds payable in the Exchequer for their said whole Capital, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, and attended with the several Allowances settled or to be settled for Charges of Management, and with all the other Benefits, Profits of Trade, Privileges and Advantages then belonging to the said Company; and by the same Act it was provided, That after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, the same Stocks might be redeemed by any Payments not less than five hundred thousand Pounds at a time, and that such Payments should from Time to Time be applied, either towards discharging the principal Sums, which should belong to the said South-Sea Company in their own Right, or towards discharging the principal Sums of the said South-Sea Annuities, or towards discharging as well the principal Sums of the said Company, as of the said South-Sea Annuities, in such Proportions, Manner and Form, as should be prescribed by the respective Act or Acts of Parliament for furnishing such Sums: And whereas by reason or means of a small Error in computing the Amount of the whole increased Capital Stock, and since rectified, and by a Payment and Application of a Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds in Moieties, towards reducing the Capital Sums both of the Stock of the Company, and of the joint Stock of Annuities, in pursuance of an Act of the first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the Capital Sum remaining due on each of them did amount to sixteen millions six hundred fifty-one thousand one hundred and one Pounds twelve Shillings and nine Pence Farthing respectively, and no more; and by a further Payment and Application of one million of Pounds, towards reducing the Capital Sum of the Stock of the said Company, in pursuance of an Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, the Capital Sum remaining due on the Stock of the same Company doth now amount to fifteen millions six hundred fifty-one thousand one hundred and one Pounds twelve Shillings and nine Pence Farthing, and on the joint Stock of Annuities, to sixteen millions six hundred fifty-one thousand one hundred and one Pounds twelve Shillings and nine Pence Farthing, and no more: And whereas it is deemed just and equitable, that the Sum of one million Sterling should be paid and applied for and towards paying off so much of the said remaining Capital Stock or principal Sum belonging to the said Company, commonly called South-Sea Annuities; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That by or out of such Monies, as are or shall be in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, arisen or to arise at or from the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one (after Payment of, or reserving sufficient to pay such Monies, as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same) there shall be issued and applied to the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, at the said Feast-Day, and afterwards quarterly, from Time to Time, as the same shall arise, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall on such Quarter Day or Days, be in the said Receipt of Exchequer, for or towards redeeming Part of the Annuities attending on the said Capital Stock of Annuities remaining due to the said Company, until the same Payments shall in the whole amount to the Sum of one million Sterling; and that as the said Payments of Principal Money shall be from Time to Time made, a proportional Part of their said Capital Stock of Annuities, and of the Annuities attending thereon, shall also from Time to Time cease and determine, for the Benefit of the Publick.

Sinking Fund at Michael. 1731, and so quarterly, to be applied for redeeming 1,000,000 l of South-Sea Annuities.

II. But as it may so happen, that on the said Feast-Day of Saint Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, there may not be sufficient Money in the Receipt of the Exchequer arisen from the said Surplusses to satisfy and pay the said intire Sum of one million, and the said South-Sea Company may desire then to receive the whole Sum in one intire Payment in order to make one Distribution of the whole amongst all the Proprietors of their said Capital Stock of Annuities at one time; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Application being made by the said Company to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, and giving them Notice of such their Desire to have and receive the said one million in one intire Payment ten Days at least before the said Feast-Day, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer, by Warrant under their Hands to permit or suffer any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance or lend to his Majesty at the Receipt of his Exchequer so much Money, as together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, shall be wanting to compleat the said Sum of one million, upon Credit of the growing Produce of the said Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, and to be repaid out of the same, as they shall quarterly afterwards arise, together with an Interest for the Forbearance thereof, in the mean Time, after a Rate not exceeding four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and in such case the Money so to be lent or advanced, shall be issued and paid to the said Company, together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, to compleat the Payment of the said entire Sum of one million; and the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise from the said Surplusses, shall quarterly be issued and applied to discharge and satisfy such Loans with the Interest thereof, in the due Order and common Course of the Exchequer, in cases of Loans; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Money may be lent at 4 l. per Cent. on Credit of the Sinking Fund to make up a Deficiency at Michaelmas.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company shall forthwith, upon the Receipt of the said Sum of one million, or as soon after as conveniently may be, divide out, and distribute the same, as near as may conveniently be done, amongst all the several Proprietors of their said Capital Stock of Annuities, towards sinking and discharging so much of their Shares or Interests in the said Capital Stock of Annuities, by even and equal Dividends amongst them all, in Proportion to their respective Shares or Interests therein.

The Money to be distributed to the Annuity Proprietors.

IV. And to the End, Intent and Purpose that all trust Estates and Interests in the said Capital Stock of Annuities of the South-Sea Company, may be preserved and improved for the Benefit of the Persons concerned therein, with the least Expence and Inconvenience to them; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every Cases where, in pursuance of this Act, any Payments or Dividends shall be made of the Capital of any such Annuity Stock, as shall be vested in any Person or Persons in Trust for other Persons, who have or claim distinct or different Interests therein, or for any other Ends or Purposes, for which the Capital Sum or Annuity ought to be preserved intire, such Payments or Dividends of the Capital Stock of Annuities shall not be paid or applied as Dividends of Profit, Annuity or Interest, but shall remain in the Hands of such Trustees respectively, till otherwise disposed of at Interest; and for that Purpose it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustee or Trustees, who shall receive the same, at his or their Discretion, to lay out or dispose of the same or any Part thereof, in the Purchase of so much other Capital Stock of the same kind, as at the current Market Price of such Annuity Stock the Monies received for such Dividends shall, as near as conveniently may be, extend to purchase; which new purchased Stock of Annuities shall be transferred to such Trustee or Trustees, and a Receipt or Receipts shall be given and signed by the Person or Persons transferring the same, for the Monies paid for the same; and in case such Trustees respectively, by Writing indorsed on or annexed to such Receipts, and signed or acknowledged before one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, shall declare that the Monies in the said Receipts were the Produce of the said Dividends of the said Capital Stock of Annuities, which Signing or Acknowledgment such Masters in Chancery are hereby required to accept or take; and each and every such Master, before whom the same shall be done, shall at the same time certify the same, by subscribing his Name thereto; for doing whereof such Master shall be paid for each such Certificate one Shilling and no more; then, and in every such Case, the Annuity Stock mentioned in such Receipts to be transferred, shall respectively go and be deemed subject and liable to the same Trusts, for the Benefit of the same Persons, and for the same Uses, Ends, Intents and Purposes, as the rest of the trust Annuity Stock remaining in such Trustees respectively will or ought to be subject and liable to; and such Trustees respectively shall from thenceforth be indemnified from any Loss, Charges or Damages, on account of their so doing, at the Expences of the said trust Estates.

Trustees of Annuities how to act.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to restrain or prohibit any such Trustees from laying out or disposing of any of the said trust Monies in any other Purchases or any other Securities, whether publick or private, if they shall so think fit, in the same Manner and with the same Freedom and Security to themselves as they might have done if this Act had not been made.

C A P. VI.

An Act to indemnify Persons who through Ignorance of Law have omitted to qualify themselves for Employments or Offices, by taking the Oaths, and making and subscribing the Declaration against Transubstantiation, and receiving the Sacrament, and Members of Corporations who have neglected to take the Oaths of Office, and Persons who have not read the Common Prayer, and declared their Assent and Consent to the same, according to Law, upon the Terms therein mentioned. EXP.

Persons qualifying themselves before 23 January 1731 indemnified. Members of Corporations who have neglected to take the Oaths of Office, qualifying themselves by 21 January 1731, indemnified. Offices avoided by Law, not to be restored. Ecclesiastical Persons who have omitted to read the Common Prayer in time indemnified. But not to prejudice others lawfully instituted in their Places.

An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Juries, so far as the same relates to the County of Middlesex.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Juries, it is among other Things enacted, That no Persons shall be returned as Jurors to serve on Trials at any Assizes or Nisi Prius, or at the Great Sessions in Wales, or at the Sessions

Geo. 2. c. 25.

Sessions for the Counties Palatine of Lancaster, Chester and Durham, who have served within the Space of one Year before in the County of Rutland, or four Years in the County of York, or of two Years before in any other County, not being a County of a City or Town: And if any such Sheriff shall wilfully transgress therein, any Judge or Justice of Assize, or Nisi Prius, or of the said Great Sessions, or the Judge or Judges of the Sessions for the said Counties Palatine, may, and is hereby required, on Examination and Proof of such Offence in a summary Way, to set a Fine or Fines upon every such Offender, as he shall think meet, not exceeding five Pounds for any one Offence: And whereas by reason of the frequent Sessions of Nisi Prius in the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer at Westminster, the said Provision cannot be put in Execution in the County of Middlesex, but is found to be impracticable: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, the said recited Clause or any Part thereof shall not extend or be construed to extend to the said County of Middlesex.

After 1 May 1731, Clause in the Jury Act not to extend to Middlesex.

None to be returned, who has been returned in the two Terms preceding. Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 2. c. 37.

Leaseholders, where the improved Rents amount to 50l. per Annum, liable to serve on Juries.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall be returned to serve as a Juror at any Session of Nisi Prius in the County of Middlesex, who has been returned to serve as a Juror at any such Session of Nisi prius in the said County, in the two Terms or Vacations next immediately preceding, under such Penalty upon the Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer employed or concerned in the summoning or returning of Jurors in the said County of Middlesex, as might have been insisted upon them or any of them for any Offence against the said recited Clause.

III. And whereas by the very frequent Occasions there are for Juries in the County of Middlesex, and by the small Number of Freeholders that are in the said County, the Sheriffs of the said County may be under Difficulties in procuring Juries to answer the Purposes of this Act; for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Leaseholders upon Leases where the improved Rents or Value shall amount to fifty Pounds or upwards per Annum over and above all Ground Rents or other Reservations payable by virtue of the said Leases, shall be liable and obliged to serve upon Juries when they shall be legally summoned for that Purpose; any thing in this or any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made and passed in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third, of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, further Duties upon Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, it is enacted, That from and after the first Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, there shall be throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, collected and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever, for the several and respective things therein mentioned, which should be written or ingrossed at any Time or Times, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, over and above the Rates and Duties, and Sums of Money then payable to his Majesty or to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatsoever, for the same, the several and respective Rates, Impositions, Duties, Charges and Sums of Money, therein particularly expressed: And whereas in and by one other Act made and passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a Sum not exceeding two millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for settling the Trade to the East-Indies, as also in and by one other Act made and passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for assuring to the English Company trading to the East-Indies, on Account of the united Stock, a longer Time in the Fund and Trade therein mentioned, and for raising thereby the Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's occasions, all the Monies arising by the said several additional Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper, by the first recited Act granted for ever, are appropriated with other Duties on Salt and Rock Salt, for the raising and making good a yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, for and upon the respective principal Sums of two millions, and one million two hundred thousand Pounds, advanced and paid in pursuance of the two Acts last mentioned: And whereas by an Act made and passed in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King GEORGE the Second, intituled, An Act for reducing the Annuity or Fund of the united East-India Company, and for ascertaining their Right of Trade to the East-Indies, and the Continuance of their Corporation for that Purpose, upon the Terms therein mentioned, it is amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the said Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds should be and is thereby reduced to an Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds, in respect of the said Capital Stock or Debt of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, and that the said reduced Annuity should be and remain charged upon, and be payable from Time to Time out of the same Duties and Revenues and by the like weekly or quarterly Payments, and with the same Provisions for making good any Deficiencies from Time to Time in the said reduced Fund, until some new or other Provision be made by Parliament, with Consent of the said United Company for the same: And whereas by another Act made and passed in the third Year of his said Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for taking off certain Duties on Salt, and for making good any Deficiencies in the Funds that may happen thereby, and for charging the reduced Annuity payable to the East-India Company on the Aggregate Fund, and for Relief of Matthew Lyon, Executor of Matthew Page deceased, in respect of the Duty for Salt lost by the over-flowing of the River Mercy in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, it is amongst other things enacted, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty, the reduced Annuity of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds, payable to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the

the East-Indies, should be transferred from the several Duties and Revenues then before charged with the said Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and be charged upon and payable out of the Monies arisen or to arise into the Exchequer from Time to Time, for the several Duties and Revenues composing the Aggregate Fund, to be paid to the said Company and their Successors, by such and the like quarterly Payments, as their then present Annuity was payable, and from and after such Time as the said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand Pounds should become charged on the said Aggregate Fund, the said additional Duties on stamp Vellum, Parchment and Paper should from thenceforth be discharged from the said reduced Annuity or yearly Fund, and be deemed a Saving to the Publick, and should go and be applied to such Uses and Purposes as should be directed by Parliament; and whereas by another Act made and passed in the third Year of his said Majesty's Reign, ^{3 Geo. 2. c. 16.} intituled, An Act for raising five hundred and fifty thousand Pounds by Exchequer Bills, towards the Supply granted to his Majesty, and for the further Application of the Produce of the Sinking Fund, for applying the Arrears of former Land Taxes, for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament, and for giving Relief with Respect to an Over-payment to the Land Tax for the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, by the Receiver General for the County of Salop, it was amongst other Things enacted, That the Exchequer Bills which were made forth in Pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, and the Interest, Premium, Rate and Charges incident to or attending the same, should be charged and chargeable upon the first Aids or Supplies which should be granted in Parliament next after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and in the mean Time, and until such Supplies should be granted, the same should be and are thereby charged and chargeable on such Surplus Monies, as at any Time or Times from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty, should arise into the Exchequer from the several Duties and Revenues then charged with the Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, and should be more than sufficient to pay and satisfy the quarterly Payments or Arrears of the said Annuity or yearly Fund, or which should thereafter arise by the said Duties and Revenues, by the Reduction made in the said Annuity or yearly Fund, should be quarterly applied towards the defraying and paying the Premium, Interest and Charges attending the said Exchequer Bills, and subject thereto, towards cancelling and discharging the Principal of the said Exchequer Bills in course, and subject thereto, the said Surplus Monies should be reserved for the future Disposition of Parliament: And whereas all the Exchequer Bills made forth in Pursuance of the last recited Act, which remained uncanceled and undischarged, with all Premiums, Rates, Interest and other Charges attending thereon, have been or are intended to be fully paid off, satisfied and discharged, by and out of the Aids or Supplies granted or to be granted to his Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, by Means whereof the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper are freed and discharged from all Incumbrances whatsoever, and remain for the Disposition of Parliament: Now we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to raise the necessary Supplies which we have cheerfully granted to your Majesty in the easiest Manner we are able for the Benefit of your Subjects, have freely and voluntarily given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant unto your Majesty, the Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, to be raised in such Manner and Form as is herein after directed; and to that End do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Annuities which by this Act shall be granted and made payable in Respect of the said principal Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, until Redemption thereof by Parliament in Manner herein after mentioned, shall, from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, be charged and chargeable upon, and payable out of the Monies which, from and after the said Feast Day, shall from Time to Time arise into the Exchequer, by or from the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper; and the said additional Duties are hereby appropriated for that Purpose.

1,200,000 l. to be raised and charged on the additional Stamp Duties.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That all the Monies arising by the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper for Payment of the several and respective Annuities which shall be payable upon this Act, shall be fairly and duly entered in one or more Book or Books to be kept in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer and Clerk of the Pells for that Purpose, to which all Persons concerned, at all reasonable Times, shall have free Access without Fee or Charge.

The Monies arising by the additional Duties to be entered.

III. And for or towards raising the said Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to contribute, advance and pay into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer for his Majesty's Use, at such Time or Times as shall be appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or by the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding four hundred thousand Pounds in Part of the said whole Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, for the absolute Purchase of any certain Annuity or Annuities, to commence from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, and to be paid and payable to such Contributor or Contributors, or such as he, she or they shall nominate his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns respectively, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, in Manner herein after contained in that Behalf; which certain Annuities shall be computed at the Rate of three Pounds ten Shillings per Annum for every one hundred Pounds, and proportionably for any greater Sum so to be advanced and paid; and the Purchase Money so paid for every such Annuity at the Rate aforesaid, is hereby appointed to be paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer at the Time or Times before mentioned; all which Annuities so to be purchased, shall be paid and payable at two of the most usual Feasts or Days of Payment in the Year, that is to say, the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Michael the Archangel, by even and equal Portions; the first Payment thereof to be due and payable at the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and paid half yearly.

Annuities at 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. per Ann. to commence from 29 Sept. 1731.

Contributors Names, &c. to be entred in the Books of the Auditor and Clerk of the Pells.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, That in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells in the Exchequer severally, there shall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which there shall be fairly entered the Names of all Persons who shall be Contributors for such certain Annuities as aforesaid, and of all Persons by whose Hands the said Contributors shall pay in any of the said Sums upon this Act, and also the Sums paid for such Annuities; to which Book it shall be lawful for the said respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns from Time to Time, and at all seasonable Times, to have Resort and to inspect the same without Fee or Reward.

Annuities how to be paid;

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Annuities so to be purchased upon this present Act, shall be and are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid and payable, from Time to Time, out of the Money arising by the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper by this Act directed to be applied for the Payment thereof, and that all and every Contributor and Contributors upon this Act, duly paying the Consideration or Purchase Money at the Rate aforesaid, at the Time or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf for any such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, or such as he, she or they shall appoint his, her or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns shall have, receive and enjoy, and be intitled by Virtue of this Act to have, receive and enjoy the respective Annuity and Annuities so to be purchased out of the Monies by this Act appropriated, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso herein after contained in that Behalf; and that all and every such Purchasers, their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns respectively, shall have good, sure, absolute and indefeasible Estates and Interests in the several Annuities, so by them respectively to be purchased, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; and that all such Estates and Interests of and in the said Annuities and every of them, shall be, and be adjudged, taken and accepted in Construction of Law, and in all Courts of Law and Equity whatsoever, to be a Personal and not a Real Estate, and shall go to the Executors or Administrators of the Person or Persons dying possessed thereof, interested therein or intitled thereunto, and not to the Heirs of such Person or Persons; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all the said Annuities to be purchased on this Act as aforesaid, and every of them shall be free from all Taxes, Charges and Impositions whatsoever.

a Personal Estate.

Tallies and Orders to be struck for the Annuities.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Contributor upon this Act for any such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns upon Payment of the Consideration or Purchase Money for the same at the Rate aforesaid, into the said Receipt of Exchequer, at the Time or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, shall immediately have one or more Tally or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of the Purchase Money as shall be so paid for any such Annuity or Annuities at the Rate aforesaid; and every such Contributor, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors or Assigns respectively, shall have an Order for paying the said Annuity or Annuities, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso herein after contained in that Behalf, which Order shall be signed by the Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being; and, after signing thereof, the same shall be firm, good, valid and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treasurer or Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them, or any of them; nor shall any Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any Commissioners of the Treasury now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand or make void such Orders so signed as aforesaid, or any of them.

Orders assignable.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Proprietors of the Orders to be made forth for the said Annuities in Pursuance of this Act, shall or may, from Time to Time, by proper Words of Assignment to be indorsed on his, her or their Order, assign or transfer his, her or their Right, Title, Interest or Benefit of such Order or Orders to any other Person or Persons, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, the Officers there shall cause an Entry or Memorial thereof to be made in the Book of Registry for such Orders, without Fee or Charge; and after such Entry made, such Assignment shall intitle such Assignee, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns to the Benefit thereof and Payment thereon, and such Assignee may in like Manner assign again, and so toties quoties, and afterwards it shall not be in the Power of such Person or Persons who shall make such Assignments, to make void, release or discharge the same, or any Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

New Orders to be made forth in Lieu of defaced ones.

VIII. And whereas it may so happen, in Process of Time, that several of the said standing Orders may become defaced, obliterated or incumbered with many Assignments indorsed thereon, or by Reason thereof, or some other Defects therein, it may become necessary that the said defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Orders should be taken in and cancelled, and new Orders made forth, and delivered to the Owners and Proprietors of the Orders so to be cancelled, in Lieu thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all or any of the said Cases, any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, may, if he or they shall so think fit, from Time to Time, cause to be made forth new standing Orders for and in Lieu of such defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Orders, so as such defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Order or Orders be at the same Time delivered up and cancelled, and the new Order or Orders to be made out in Lieu thereof be made payable to the Person or Persons who shall appear to be the Proprietor or Proprietors of the said Order or Orders so delivered up and cancelled at the Time of such Delivery up as aforesaid; and the Auditor of the Receipt aforesaid shall always take Care that such Entries or Memorandums be made upon the said new Orders as may denote their being made out in Lieu of such defaced, obliterated, incumbered or otherwise defective Orders cancelled, and as may secure the Publick against any double Payments, for or by Reason of the making out or issuing such new Orders in Manner aforesaid.

IX. And

IX. And for the preventing all Frauds and Abuses in or about the said standing Orders or any Assignments thereof, or the receiving the Annuities due or to grow due thereon, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly or wilfully aid and assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Order or Orders made forth or to be made forth in Pursuance of this present Act, or any Assignment or Assignments of such Order or Orders, or of the Annuities payable thereon, or of any Receipt or Discharge to the Exchequer for the Annuities due or to grow due on any such Order or Orders, or of any Letter of Attorney, or other Authority or Instrument to transfer, assign, alien or convey any such Order or Orders, or to receive the Annuities due or to grow due thereon, or any Part thereof, or shall forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly or wilfully aid or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any the Name or Names of any of the Proprietors of any such Order or Orders, in or to any such pretended Assignment, Receipt, Letter of Attorney, Instrument or Authority, or shall knowingly or fraudulently demand, or endeavour to have or receive any such Annuity or Annuities, or any Part thereof, by Virtue of any such forged or counterfeited Receipt, Letter of Attorney, Instrument or Authority, or shall falsely and deceitfully personate any true and real Proprietor or Proprietors of any of the said Order or Orders, and thereby assigning or endeavouring to assign any of the said Order or Orders, or receiving or endeavouring to receive the Money of such true and lawful Proprietor, as if such Offender were the true and lawful Owner thereof, then, and in every such Case, all and every Person and Persons, being thereof lawfully convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Forging Orders or Assignments, &c. Felony.

X. And be it further enacted, for the better encouraging Persons to advance the said Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds in Part of the said whole Sum not exceeding one million two hundred thousand Pounds, upon the respective Terms and Advantages in this Act mentioned, that all Receipts and Issues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, shall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving directly or indirectly any Fee, Reward or Gratuity for the same; and in case the Officers of the Exchequer shall take or demand any such Fee or Reward, or shall divert or misapply any of the Monies to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for making up the aforesaid Fund, or shall pay or issue out of the same, otherwise than according to the Intent of this Act, or shall not keep Books or Registers, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things which by this Act they are required to perform, every such Officer shall forfeit his Office, and be for the future incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall answer and pay treble Damages and Costs of Suit to any Contributor or Person claiming under him, that will sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law, Injunction or Order of Restraint, or more than one Imparllance shall be granted or allowed; and in the said Action the Plaintiff, upon Recovery, shall have full Costs of Suit, one third of which Sum so to be recovered, shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Benefit of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other two thirds shall be to and for the Use of the Prosecutor.

All Receipts and Issues to be without Fee.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Monies from Time to Time arising at the said Receipt of Exchequer, of or for the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper hereby appropriated as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, to reward the Officers and Clerks in the Exchequer, and others, that shall and may be any way employed in the Execution of this Act, in Relation to the said Annuities to be payable thereupon, for their Labours, Pains and Services therein respectively, and to discharge and satisfy such incident Charges as shall necessarily attend the Execution of the same, in such Manner as the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being shall from Time to Time think fit and reasonable in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Charge of Management to be paid out of the additional Duties on Stamps.

XII. And whereas it is intended that a further Sum, not exceeding eight hundred thousand Pounds, shall be raised by way of a Lottery, and be charged on the same additional Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, which, with the Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds before by this Act directed to be charged thereupon, will complete the said whole Sum of one million two hundred thousand Pounds, intended by this Act to be raised upon the said additional Duties; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, a further certain yearly Sum of twenty-four thousand Pounds, by and out of the Monies which, from and after the said Feast-Day, shall arise and be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, of or for the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, shall be, and the same yearly Sum of twenty-four thousand Pounds is by this Act declared and enacted to be a Fund and Security for answering and paying all and every the Annuities or yearly Payments, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the Contributors in the Lottery herein after mentioned, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in Manner hereafter in this Act expressed, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso hereafter in this Act contained in that Behalf; and that the said yearly Sum of twenty-four thousand Pounds, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the Sums which shall grow due from Time to Time, for or upon the said Annuities, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall, from Time to Time, be paid half yearly at Christmas and Midsummer, by even and equal Portions, until Redemption of the said Annuities, according to the true Meaning of this Act, at the said Receipt of Exchequer, to the Chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Time being, by way of Imprest and upon Account, for Payment of the same Annuities, the first Payment of the said yearly Sum to the said Cashier to be made on the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; and the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer, Under Treasurer and Commissioners of the Treasury of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for the Time

1731, a further

And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England and their Successors, shall from Time to Time, until the said Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum shall be redeemed according to this Act, appoint and employ one sufficient Person within their Office in the City of London, to be their Chief or First Cashier, and one other sufficient Person within the same Office, to be their Accountant General; and that the said Cashier or Cashiers, to whom the said Monies shall from Time to Time be issued for Payment of the said Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall from Time to Time without Delay apply and pay the same same accordingly, and render his Account thereof according to the due Course of the Exchequer; and the said Accountant General for the Time being shall from Time to Time inspect and examine all Receipts and Payments of the said Cashier, and the Vouchers relating thereunto, in order to prevent any Fraud, Negligence or Delay; and that all Persons and Corporations who shall be intitled to any of the same Annuities so to be payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being, pursuant to this Act, and all Persons claiming under them shall be possessed thereof as a Personal Estate, and the same shall not be descendable to the Heir, and shall not be liable to any foreign Attachment by the Custom of London or otherwise; any Law, Statute or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the principal Monies, for which the said several Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum shall be payable by the Cashier of the Bank of England for the Time being as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be one Capital or Joint Stock, on which the same Annuities shall be attending, and shall be called The Joint Stock of Lottery Annuities for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; and that all Persons and Corporations, in Proportion to their respective Annuities, shall have a Share in such Stock, and that all such Shares shall be assignable, transferrable and deviseable, in the same Manner as is prescribed by Act or Acts of Parliament made in the first Year of his late Majesty's Reign, touching the Annuities after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum therein mentioned, and that no Stamp Duties whatsoever shall be chargeable on such Transfers; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England (notwithstanding the Redemption of all or any other Funds or Annuities in Pursuance of the Acts for establishing the same, or any of them) shall continue a Corporation to all Intents and Purposes relating to the receiving, paying or accounting for the said Annuities of three Pounds per Centum per Annum so payable by their Cashier, till the same shall be redeemed according to this Act; and that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Members thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by Reason of their doing any Matter or Thing in Pursuance of this Act.

XXXIV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Fee or Gratuity whatsoever shall or may be demanded or taken of any of his Majesty's Subjects for paying the said Annuities of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, or any of them, by the said Cashier for the Time being; and that no Fee or Gratuity shall be demanded or taken for any Transfer of any Sum, great or small, to be made in Pursuance of this Act, upon Pain that any Officer or Person offending, by taking any Fee or Gratuity contrary to this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds to the Party grieved, to be recovered with full Costs in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies of the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper by this Act appropriated or mentioned to be appropriated as aforesaid, shall be issued and applied in Manner and Form following; that is to say (such Charges as are herein before directed to be paid thereout excepted) to answer and pay the Annuity of fourteen thousand Pounds, being after the Rate of three Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, upon the principal Sum of four hundred thousand Pounds, by this Act before directed to be advanced and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon Credit of the said additional Duties, reckoning the first Payment thereupon to be paid and payable at the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and the subsequent Payments half yearly, by even and equal Portions, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Proviso herein after contained in that Behalf; and after reserving sufficient to pay and satisfy from Time to Time so much as at any half yearly Feast-Day shall be grown due upon the said Annuity of fourteen thousand Pounds, by this Act made payable at the Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, then to issue and pay unto the said Cashier of the Bank of England, out of the Monies remaining in the said Receipt of Exchequer, arisen by the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, the further yearly Sum or Annuity of twenty-four thousand Pounds, for answering and paying all and every the Annuities or yearly Payments after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the Contributors in the Lottery in this Act before mentioned, reckoning the first Payment thereupon to be paid and payable at the Feast-Day of the Birth of our Lord Christ in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, and the subsequent Payments half yearly, until Redemption thereof by Parliament as aforesaid; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXVI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times the Produce of the said additional Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper shall happen to be so low or deficient, as that the Monies arising therefrom into the Exchequer shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge both or either of the respective Annuities by this Act appropriated and directed to be paid thereout, at the End of either of the respective half yearly Days of Payment, at which the same are hereby directed to be made, then and so often, and in every such Case, such Deficiency or Deficiencies shall and may be supplied out of the overplus Monies that shall or may happen to arise and be paid into the Exchequer, in any or either of the subsequent half Years, as the said respective Annuities shall from Time to Time in course become due and payable; and in case such overplus Monies shall not be sufficient to satisfy the Deficiencies hereby intended from Time to Time to be paid thereout, that then, and in every such Case, the Deficiencies so from Time to Time happening, shall from Time to Time be answered and made good by and out of the first Supplies which shall be granted in Parliament next after such Deficiencies shall appear; and in case no such Supplies shall be granted within six Months next after such Deficiencies shall happen, then the same shall be made good out of any the Monies which at any Time or Times shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies commonly called The Sinking Fund (except such Monies of the same Sinking Fund as are appropriated to any particular Use or Uses, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf) and such Monies of the said Sinking Fund shall and may from Time to Time be issued and applied accordingly.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatever Monies shall be so issued out of the said Sinking Fund, shall from Time to Time be replaced by and out of the first Supplies to be then after granted in Parliament.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said additional Duties at the End of any one Year, after the said several and respective Annuities and all Arrears thereof are satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall from Time to Time be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be issued but by Authority of Parliament, and as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIX. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time upon one Year's Notice to be printed in the London Gazette, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange in London, by the Authority of Parliament, at any of the half yearly Feast-Days for Payment of the said respective Annuities, or either of them, and upon Repayment by Parliament of the respective principal Sums, for which the said respective Annuities, or either of them, shall be payable to such respective Persons or Corporations as shall be intitled to the same Annuities, and also upon full Payment of all Arrearages of the same Annuities, then, and not till then, the said respective Annuities shall cease and determine, and be understood to be redeemed, and from and after such Redemption the Monies arising from the said additional Duties on stamped vellum, parchment and paper shall not be issued or applied to any Use or Purpose, but as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and that any Vote or Resolution of the House of Commons, signified by the Speaker in Writing to be inserted in the said London Gazette, and affixed on the Royal Exchange in London as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged to be sufficient Notice, within the Words and Meaning of this Act.

XL. And it is enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in Pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sum of thirty-two thousand five hundred and sixteen Pounds twelve Shillings and eleven Pence three Farthings, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer for Arrears on former Land Taxes, payable in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight or before, and also the Sum of six hundred and sixty-nine Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence half-penny, remaining in the said Receipt of Exchequer, on Arrears of former Duties on Malt, and likewise the Sum of nine thousand five hundred and twenty-eight Pounds three Shillings and one Penny, remaining in the said Receipt of Exchequer, for the Duty on Compound Liquors, and for Licence Money for retailing the said Liquors, and for Forfeitures on the said Retailers, shall and may be issued and applied as Part of his Majesty's Supply granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XLII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Duties thereby granted and continued, as shall arise or remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium, Rate or Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties shall be satisfied; or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Land Tax, shall be satisfied; or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and also all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, by granting Annuities after the Rate of three Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and by Contributions by way of a Lottery, on this Act, and the Sum of thirty-two thousand five hundred and sixteen Pounds twelve Shillings and eleven Pence three Farthings, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer on Arrears of former Land Taxes; and the Sum of six hundred and sixty-nine Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence half-penny, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, on Arrears of former Duties on Malt; and also the Sum of nine thousand five hundred twenty-eight Pounds three Shillings and one Penny, remaining in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, for the Duty on Compound Liquors, and for Licence Money for retailing the said Liquors, and for Forfeitures on the said Retailers, shall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are herein after prescribed; that is to say,

XLIII. It is hereby enacted and declared, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding seven hundred thirty-two thousand thirty-four Pounds four Shillings and four Pence, for or towards the naval Services herein after more particularly expressed; that is to say, for or towards defraying the Charge of the Ordinary of his Majesty's Navy, and for half-pay to Sea

Sea Officers, and for or towards Victuals, Wages, Wear and Tear of the Navy, and the victualling thereof performed and to be performed, and for or towards extraordinary Repairs of his Majesty's Navy performed and to be performed, and for or towards other Services of the Navy performed and to be performed.

XLIV. And it is hereby further enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding ten thousand Pounds, upon Account, for and towards the Support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, for the better Maintenance of the Seamen of the said Hospital, worn out and become decrepit in the Service of their Country. 10,000l. for Greenwich Hospital.

XLV. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding eighty-six thousand nine hundred and twenty-three Pounds ten Shillings and ten Pence, for or towards defraying the Charge of the Office of Ordnance for Land Service performed and to be performed, and for defraying the extraordinary Expence of the Office of Ordnance for Land Service not provided for by Parliament. 86,923l. 10s. 10d. for the Office of Ordnance for Land Service.

XLVI. And it is hereby likewise enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall or may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one million two hundred and fourteen thousand eight hundred and nine Pounds ten Shillings and nine Pence, for or towards maintaining his Majesty's Land Forces, and other Services herein after more particularly expressed; that is to say, any Sum of Money not exceeding six hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and eighty-four Pounds seventeen Shillings one Penny half-penny, for defraying the Charge of seventeen thousand seven hundred and nine Men, including Commission and Non-commission Officers and Invalids, for Guards, Caribons and six independent Companies for the Service of the Highlands, and other his Majesty's Land Forces in Great Britain, Guernsey and Jersey, and other Services relating to the Forces for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred sixty-nine thousand eight hundred and thirty-five Pounds eight Shillings and one Penny half-penny, for maintaining his Majesty's Forces and Caribons in the Plantations, Minorca and Gibraltar, and for Provisions for the Caribons at Annapolis Royal, Placentia and Gibraltar, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding thirty-two thousand four hundred and eighty-three Pounds two Shillings and six Pence, upon Account for Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, including the Sum of seven thousand Pounds, towards making good the Deficiencies of the Surplus of the Deductions of Poundage, and Day's Pay of the Forces, and of the annual Sums granted in Parliament, on Account of the Expences of Chelsea Hospital, as estimated on the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding thirty thousand nine hundred and twenty-six Pounds five Shillings and eleven Pence for defraying several extraordinary Expences and Services incurred, and not provided for by Parliament; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding sixty-one thousand one hundred and fifty-eight Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence, upon Account of Half-pay to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as are herein after prescribed concerning the same; and the Sum of two hundred and forty-one thousand two hundred and fifty-nine Pounds one Shilling and three Pence, for defraying the Expence of twelve thousand Hessians, taken into his Majesty's Pay for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding twenty-five thousand Pounds, for one Year's Subsidy to the Duke of Brunswick Lunenburgh Wolfenbuttel, pursuant to a Treaty dated the twenty-fifth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding two thousand six hundred and sixty-two Pounds, for paying off Pensions to the Widows of such reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, as died upon the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain (and who were married to them before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen) for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; which said Sum of two thousand six hundred and sixty-two Pounds shall be issued to such Person or Persons as his Majesty shall, by Warrant or Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, direct or appoint to receive the same, to be by him or them paid over to such Widows of half-pay Officers or their Assigns, according to such Establishments, Lists or other Directions, and with and subject to such Conditions, Qualifications, Deductions or other Allowances for the same, as his Majesty by such or the like Warrant or Warrants shall be graciously pleased, from Time to Time, to direct or appoint.

XLVII. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred thirty-four thousand three hundred and twelve Pounds fourteen Shillings and six Pence, towards making good the Deficiency of the Grants for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding thirty-nine thousand three hundred and fifty-three Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, for making good the Deficiency of the Fund commonly called The General Fund, for raising seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one fifth Part of a Penny, for the Year ended at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and thirty; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding five hundred ten thousand four hundred Pounds to discharge such Exchequer Bills as remain uncanceled, which were made forth in Pursuance of an Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, and were to be repaid out of the first Aids or Supplies to be granted in Parliament, after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and, until such Supplies should be granted, were charged upon such Surplus Monies or Savings, as from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty should arise into the Exchequer from the several Duties and Revenues then charged with the Annuity or yearly Fund of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, payable to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the

C A P. XII.

An Act to continue the Duties for Encouragement of the Coinage of Money.

May it please your most excellent Majesty,

WHEREAS great Benefit and Advantage did accrue to England by one Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, and continued by another Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King CHARLES, intituled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage, both which said Acts were revived by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his Majesty King JAMES the Second, and were continued by an Act made in the fourth Year of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of Blessed Memory, and were further continued by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King WILLIAM, and were further continued by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, of Blessed Memory, and then extended to Scotland, and were further continued by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, of Glorious Memory, to be in Force for seven Years from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifteen, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and were further continued by another Act made in the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, for seven Years, from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following; so that unless the said Act be continued, the Encouragement given thereby will cease, and this Kingdom be deprived for the future of so great a good, as it hath for many Years last past enjoyed: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do give and grant unto your Majesty, the Rates, Duties and Impositions herein after mentioned, for and during the Term and Time herein after expressed; and do humbly pray that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such and the like Rates, Duties and Impositions, as by the said Act of Parliament of the eighteenth Year of King CHARLES the Second were granted, and by the said subsequent Acts were continued, for and upon the Importation of Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy and Strong Waters imported, during the respective Terms or Times therein mentioned, shall be further continued, and be paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy and Strong Waters which shall be imported or brought into Great Britain within or during the Space of seven Years, to commence from the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following and no longer, and that all the said former Acts, and all other Acts of Parliament concerning Coinage, and every of them, and every Clause, Article and Sentence in them or any of them contained, now being in Force, shall be and are by Virtue of this Act continued, and shall be in Force, and be duly put in Execution, for and during all such Time and Term as are before mentioned, as fully and effectually, as if the same were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; any former Law, Statute, Provision, Matter or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Coinage Duties continued for seven Years. Further continued by 19 Geo. 2. c. 14.

II. And to the End the Importers of Gold and Silver into the Mints of England and Scotland respectively, may not be discouraged by any Deficiency of the Revenue by this Act settled for defraying the Coinage thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, out of the Monies arising by this Act, or out of any other publick Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament, to cause so much Money to be applied, as shall be necessary for defraying the Expences of the said Mints of England and Scotland respectively, by way of Imprest, and upon Account for that Service, so as the same, together with the Coinage Duties arising by this Act, do not exceed in any one Year, the Sum of fifteen thousand Pounds, and so as the said Monies be issued out of the Exchequer of Great Britain to the Master of the Mint in England and the Master of the Mint in Scotland respectively, for the said Purposes.

Treasury, out of the Monies arising by this Act or other publick Supplies, to defray the Expences of the Mints.

Officers by Warrant may search for Starch concealed.

Penalty for concealing Starch.

WHEREAS the Laws relating to the Duties upon Starch have not in many Instances been found so effectual as is necessary for the raising, levying and collecting the Duties thereby intended to be raised, levied and collected, nor sufficient to prevent the Frauds that have been committed, and are still carrying on by the Makers of Starch, to the great Damage and Loss of the fair Traders, and to the lessening of the Revenue; Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, all and every Maker or Makers of Starch shall make use of regular, square or oblong Boxes only, for boring and draining their green Starch, before the same shall be dried in the Stove, and that if any such Maker of Starch shall make use of any other Sort of Box or Basket, or any other Kind of Vessel whatsoever, for the Purposes aforesaid, he, she or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; and that the proper Officer for the Duties upon Starch may know the exact Time when such Starch shall be put into such Boxes as aforesaid, and may not by unnecessary Delays be hindered from giving due Attendance to his other Business, by which Means his other Business must either be neglected, or an Opportunity given to the Makers of Starch to commit Frauds; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June all and every Maker of Starch, residing within the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, is and are hereby required to give Notice in Writing of his, her or their Intention to put any green Starch into any such Boxes as aforesaid, to the proper Officer or Officers for the Duties upon Starch, twelve Hours at least before he, she or they shall begin to box the same; and that all and every Maker of Starch, living out of the Limits aforesaid, is and are hereby required to give such Notice as aforesaid, to the proper Officer or Officers for the Duties upon Starch, twenty-four Hours at least before he, she or they shall begin to box any green Starch, on Pain of forfeiting and paying the Sum of twenty Pounds, and that all and every Maker of Starch shall, within the Space of two Hours, after such Notice in Writing by them respectively shall have been given as aforesaid, begin to Box or put in Boxes, all their green Starch, and shall from thence continue to Box and put into Boxes, all and every Part of their green Starch, that shall then be in readiness and Condition fit to be boxed, till the whole making is boxed, so that the proper Officer may have a Cage of the whole making in the Boxes, on Pain of forfeiting and paying the Sum of twenty Pounds.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Maker or Makers of Starch shall remove or cause to be removed any Quantity whatever of Starch, after the same shall be dried, out of his, her or their Stove or Stoves, or out of any other Place or Places made use of by them for the drying of Starch, before the same has been weighed, and an Account taken thereof by the proper Officer appointed for that Purpose, he, she or they, shall respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise or Customs, to seize any Quantity of Starch or Hair Powder, together with the Boxes and Package containing the same, that shall be found in any Ship or Vessel, or shall be carrying in any Cart or Waggon, or in any other Carriage whatsoever, where they shall have good Reason to suspect and believe the same hath been made in some private Workhouse or other Place, or clandestinely imported without Payment of any Duty, or that the same is Starch or Hair Powder, which hath been exported and reloaded again, after the Duty had been repaid and drawn back for the same, at the Time of Exportation thereof, and that after such Seizure shall have been made, the said respective Officer or Officers of Excise or Customs are hereby required, within ten Days next after such Seizure, to exhibit an Information before any three or more of his Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, or any two or more Justices of the Peace residing near the Place where any such Seizures shall be made, and if at the Hearing of such Information, the Party in whose Possession any such Starch or Hair Powder hath been found, does not make it appear that the Duty hath been paid for the same, all the said Starch and Hair Powder so seized for the Causes aforesaid, shall be forfeited together with the Boxes and Package contained in the same; and the Person in whose Possession such Starch or Hair Powder shall be found, shall likewise forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for every Hundred Weight, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; and the said Commissioners or Justices of the Peace shall then proceed to give Judgment for the Forfeiture of the said Starch or Hair Powder, together with the Boxes and Package containing the same, and likewise for the Forfeiture of the said Sum, in Proportion as aforesaid.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer or Officers for the Duties upon Starch, or any Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall have cause to suspect that Starch is privately making in any Place or Places whatsoever, or that any Starch is lodged or concealed in any Place or Places whatsoever, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty of his Duty; then and in every such Case, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before the Commissioners for the Duties upon Starch, or any one or more of them, or before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, residing near the Place where such Officer or Officers shall suspect the same to be privately making, or to be lodged or concealed, setting forth the Ground of his or their Suspicion, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioner or Commissioners, Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, before whom such Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made, if he or they shall judge it reasonable, by special Warrant under his or their respective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers, by Day or by Night (but if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace) to enter into all and every such Place or Places, where he or they shall so suspect that any Starch is so privately making, lodged or concealed, and to seize and carry away all such Starch as they shall there find so privately making, together with with all the Materials that shall be there ready and preparing for the making of Starch, and likewise all such Starch as they shall find so lodged and concealed in any Place or Places whatever, as forfeited, for the Use of such Persons as by this Act is hereafter directed, together with all and every the Boxes, and all and every other Thing or Things, wherein the same shall be contained, and the Person or Persons that shall be found so privately making Starch as aforesaid, or the Person or Persons in whose Possession any Starch shall be found, unless he, she or they do make it appear that the Duty has been paid for the same as aforesaid, shall respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds; and if any Person or Persons whatever shall let, obstruct or hinder any of the aforesaid Officers from entering any such Place or Places for the Purposes aforesaid, or in seizing and carrying away any Starch, or any Materials for the making of Starch, which is and are before declared to be forfeited for the Causes aforesaid, together with all and every the Boxes, Thing or Things wherein the same is contained, the Person or Persons offending therein shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

V. And for the better preventing Frauds and Abuses in the making of Hair Powder, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, if any Baker or Bakers of Hair Powder, or any Perfumer, Peruke-maker, Barber, or any Seller or Sellers of or Dealers in Hair Powder, shall mix or cause to be mixed, any Powder of Alabaster, Plaster of Paris, Talk, Chalk, Whiting, Lime, or any other Material or Materials of any other Kind or Nature whatsoever (Rice first made into Starch, and Sweet Scents only excepted) with any Starch, or with any Powder of Starch to be made use of for making of Hair Powder, and shall make or cause to be made any Hair Powder, with any of the Materials before mentioned, or with any other Material or Materials of any other Kind or Nature whatsoever, other than Starch or Powder of Starch, or of Rice first made into Starch, and shall use, sell or offer to sell, any Hair Powder so mixed or made, he, she or they shall forfeit all the Hair Powder so mixed or made, and likewise the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Penalty for mixing with Hair Powder, any Alabaster, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons, who is, are or shall be a Baker or Bakers of Hair Powder, shall at the chief Office of Excise in London, or at the Office of Excise next adjoining to the Place where he, she or they shall respectively inhabit or reside, make a true Entry in Writing of his, her or their respective Place or Places of Abode, together with all and every the Workhouse or Workhouses, and all and every other Place or Places whatsoever, that shall be made use of by any Person or Persons whatsoever, for the making of Hair Powder, on Pain of forfeiting and paying the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Makers of Hair Powder to make true Entries at the Excise Office.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers for the Duties upon Starch, at all Times by Day, at his or their Request, to enter the House or Houses, Workhouse or Workhouses, and all and every other Place or Places whatsoever, belonging to or that shall be made use of by any Person or Persons, for the making of Hair Powder, and likewise the Shop or Shops belonging to any Perfumer, Peruke-maker, Barber, or other Seller or Sellers of or Dealers in Hair Powder, and there to examine all and every Parcel or Parcels of Hair Powder, and to carry away any Sample or Parcel of the same, paying a reasonable Price for the same, according to the Price that Hair Powder shall then commonly bear and be sold for; and if upon Examination of the Hair Powder so bought, it shall appear that the same is mixed, or made with any Alabaster, Plaster of Paris, Talk, Chalk, Whiting, Lime, or with any other Material or Materials of any other Kind or Nature whatsoever, other than Starch or Powder of Starch (Rice first made into Starch and Sweet Scent only as before excepted) the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall have been found, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Officers may enter Workhouses, &c. to examine Hair Powder.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Starch-maker or Starch-makers, Powder-maker or Powder-makers, Dealer or Dealers in Hair Powder whatsoever, shall have in his, her or their Possession, any Alabaster, Plaster of Paris, Talk, Chalk, Whiting, Lime, or any other Material or Materials whatsoever, besides Starch or Powder of Starch, or of Rice first made into Starch, for the making, mixing or counterfeiting of Hair Powder, he, she or they shall forfeit all and every the said Material or Materials, and likewise the Sum of ten Pounds.

Penalty for having in Custody any Alabaster, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Starch-maker or Starch-makers, or Baker or Bakers of Hair Powder, or Perfumer, Peruke-maker or Barber, or any other Seller or Sellers of or Dealers in Hair Powder, upon due Request or Demand made by any such Officer or Officers as aforesaid, in the Day-time, shall refuse to permit, or shall not permit such Officer or Officers to enter and go into all and every the Workhouse or Workhouses, Shop or Shops, and all and every other Place or Places belonging to or that shall be made use of by him, her or them, for the making or keeping of any Hair Powder, or shall refuse to suffer or permit any such Officer or Officers to examine, and to take and carry away with him or them, any Parcel or Sample of Hair Powder, upon his or their offering to pay for the same the Price that Hair Powder shall then commonly bear and be sold for, every such Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Penalty for not permitting Officers to enter Workhouses, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by any Person or Persons, for any Offence or Offences committed by them contrary to this Act, shall be sued for, levied, recovered and mitigated by such Ways and Means, as any Penalty or Forfeiture for any Offence or Offences committed by any Person or Persons, against any of the Laws of Excise, or either of them, can or may be sued for, levied, recovered or mitigated, or by Assize of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; and that one Moiety of every such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform or sue for the same within six Months next after the Offence committed.

Penalties to be sued for, as by the Laws of Excise.

XI. And

Penalty for so-phisticating Tea.

XI. And whereas several ill disposed Persons do frequently dye, fabricate or manufacture, very great Quantities of Sloe Leaves, Liquorish Leaves, and the Leaves of Tea that have been before used, or the Leaves of other Trees, Shrubs or Plants in Imitation of Tea, and do likewise mix, colour, stain and dye such Leaves, and likewise Tea, with Terra Japonica, Sugar, Molosses, Clay, Logwood, and with other Ingredients, and do sell and vend the same as true and real Tea, to the Prejudice of the Health of his Majesty's Subjects, the Diminution of the Revenue, and to the Ruin of the fair Trader: For Remedy of such Frauds and Abuses for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, if any Person or Persons, who shall be a Dealer in or Seller of Tea, shall dye, fabricate or manufacture any Sloe Leaves, Liquorish Leaves, or the Leaves of Tea that have been used, or the Leaves of any other Tree, Shrub or Plant in Imitation of Tea, or shall mix, colour, stain or dye such Leaves or Tea, with Terra Japonica, Sugar, Molosses, Clay, Logwood, or with any other Ingredients or Materials whatsoever, or shall sell and vend, or utter, offer or expose to Sale, or shall have in his, her or their Custody or Possession, any such dyed, fabricated or manufactured Leaves in Imitation of Tea, or any such coloured, stained or dyed Leaves, or Tea mixed with any of the Ingredients before mentioned, or with any other Ingredients whatsoever, such Person or Persons shall respectively, for every Pound of such Leaves so dyed, fabricated or manufactured in Imitation of Tea, and for every Pound of such mixed, coloured, stained or dyed Leaves or Tea, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Penalty for importing Cocoa Nutshells or Husks without the Nuts.

XII. And whereas great Quantities of Cocoa Nutshells and Husks have been lately imported, and after such Importation are fabricated and worked up, so as to imitate either Coffee or Chocolate, and then after are vended and sold as such, to the endangering the Healths of his Majesty's Subjects, and to the great Diminution and lessening of the Inland Duties charged upon those Commodities: For preventing whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, shall import any Cocoa Nutshells or Husks, without the Nuts thereunto belonging, it shall and may be lawful for any of his Majesty's Officers of the Customs, Excise, or the said Inland Duties, to seize and secure the same, wherever such Cocoa Nutshells or Husks shall be imported or found, together with the Bags, Bores and other Package where the same shall be contained, and that after such Seizure the said Cocoa Nutshells or Husks, together with the Bags and other Package, shall be condemned according to due Form of Law, and after such Condemnation, such Cocoa Nutshells or Husks shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as his Majesty's Commissioners of the Customs, Excise or Inland Duties respectively concerned, or any three or more of them shall think fit to direct and appoint; and for the Encouragement of his Majesty's said Officers to discover the Importation of such Cocoa Nutshells and Husks, his Majesty's Commissioners of the Customs, Excise and Inland Duties respectively concerned, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorized and required to reward any such Officer or Officers, making Seizure of such Cocoa Nutshells or Husks imported as aforesaid, in any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings per Hundred Weight, out of the Duties arising upon the Importation of Cocoa Nuts, or by the Inland Duties upon Chocolate, or either of them.

An Act for importing from his Majesty's Plantations in America directly into Ireland, Goods not enumerated in any Act of Parliament.

7 & 8 W. 3.
c. 22.

Goods not enumerated in any Act of Parliament, may be imported into Ireland from the Plantations, in British Ships, &c.

WHEREAS by several Acts of Parliament made in this Kingdom, and now in Force, it is enacted, That no Sugars, Tobacco, Cotton, Wool, Indigo, Ginger, Speckle Wood or Jamaica Wood, Fustick, or other dying Wood, Rice, Molasses, Beaver Skins, and other Furs, Copper Ore, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Masts, Yards and Bowsprights, of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of his Majesty's Lands, Islands, Plantations or Colonies in America, shall be carried, conveyed or imported from any of the said Plantations to any Land, Territory, Dominion, Port or Place whatsoever, other than to such other Plantations as do belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or to the Kingdom of Great Britain: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in this Kingdom in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuses in the Plantation Trade, it is (among other Things) enacted, That it shall not be lawful, on any Pretence whatsoever, to put on Shore in the Kingdom of Ireland any Goods or Merchandizes of the Growth or Product of any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, unless the same have been first landed in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and paid the Rates and Duties wherewith they are chargeable by Law, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of the Ship and Goods: And whereas the said Act of the seventh and eighth Years of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, hath been construed to extend to prohibit the importing from his Majesty's Plantations in America into the Kingdom of Ireland, as well such Goods and Merchandise of the Growth or Product of his Majesty's said Plantations as are not enumerated, as those Goods and Merchandise of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of the said Plantations which are in the several Acts for that Purpose enumerated, and required to be imported into this Kingdom of Great Britain, or to some other of the said Plantations, to the great Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, and his Majesty's said Plantations: For Remedy whereof be it enacted, And it is hereby enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to import into the said Kingdom of Ireland from his Majesty's Plantations in America, and to land and put on Shore in the said Kingdom of Ireland, all Goods and Merchandizes of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of any of his Majesty's said Plantations (except Sugars, Tobacco, Cotton, Wool, Indigo, Ginger, Speckle Wood or Jamaica Wood, Fustick, or other dying Wood, Rice, Molasses, Beaver Skins, and other Furs, Copper Ore, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Masts, Yards and Bowsprights, of the Growth, Product or Manufacture of the said Plantations); any Thing in the said recited Act of the seventh and eighth Years of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, or in any other Act contained, or any Law or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, That the Goods and Merchandize to be imported into the said Kingdom of Ireland from his Majesty's Plantations in America, by Virtue of this Act, shall be imported in British Shipping, whereof the Master and three fourths of the Mariners at least are British.

An Act to prevent counterfeiting the Passes, commonly called Mediterranean Passes.

WHEREAS certain Treaties or Conventions have been concluded, and are subsisting between the King's most excellent Majesty and the several States and Governments of Barbary, for establishing and preserving a firm and inviolable Peace between his Majesty and the said States and Governments, and their respective Dominions and Subjects, by which Treaties it is stipulated and agreed, That all Ships and Vessels belonging to his Majesty, or any of his Subjects, may freely pass the Seas, and safely enter and come into the Ports and Harbours of the said respective States and Governments, without any Lett, Hindrance, Seizure or Molestation, upon producing Passes of a certain Form under the Hand and Seal of the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being; and in Conformity to those Treaties, and pursuant to several Orders of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, such Passes have from Time to Time been issued and are commonly called Mediterranean Passes: And whereas divers wicked and ill-disposed Persons, Subjects of his Majesty, have made and forged such Passes, and have counterfeited the Seal of the said Office and the Hands of several of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, and have sold and published such false and counterfeit Passes in Parts beyond the Seas, or elsewhere, which Practices do not only tend to the manifest Prejudice of his Majesty's Revenue and the Loss and Damage of the Merchants of this Kingdom, by subjecting their Ships, Persons and Effects to be seized and detained; but may also occasion a Breach of the Peace, Amity and Friendship between this Kingdom and the States and Governments afore-mentioned, should such Offenders go unpunished: And whereas the said Crimes and Offences, being frequently committed in foreign Parts, are not triable or cognizable in any Court in Great Britain or Ireland; For remedying such Defect and Inconvenience, and also for inflicting a more exemplary Punishment upon such Offenders, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, shall within Great Britain or Ireland, or any other his Majesty's Dominions, or without, falsly make, forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsly made, forged or counterfeited, or wittingly or knowingly act or assist in the falsly making, forging or counterfeiting any Pass or Passes for any Ship or Ships whatsoever, commonly called a Mediterranean Pass or Mediterranean Passes, or shall counterfeit the Seal of the said Office, or the Hand or Hands of the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or of any Commissioner or Commissioners for executing the said Office for the Time being, to any such Pass or Passes, or shall alter or erase any true and authentick Pass or Passes issued or made out by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the said Office for the Time being, or shall utter or publish as true any such false, forged, counterfeited, altered or erased Pass or Passes, knowing the same to be false, forged, counterfeited, altered or erased, all and every such Person and Persons, being in due Form of Law convicted of any of the Offences afore-said in any proper Court of Great Britain, Ireland, or any of his Majesty's Plantations beyond the Seas, where such Offence shall be committed respectively, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

without Benefit of Clergy.

These Crimes committed in his Majesty's Dominions, or without, may be tried in any Shire of Great Britain,
&c.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Crimes and Offences before-mentioned, which shall be done or committed in any Country or Place out of Great Britain, either within the Dominions of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or without, shall and may be inquired of, tried, heard, determined and adjudged in any Shire or County of Great Britain, by virtue of the King's Commission or Commissions of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, or before any Court of Justiciary in Scotland respectively, in the same Manner as if such Offence or Offences was or were done or committed within the same County or Shire where such Offender or Offenders shall be tried; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to explain a Clause in an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, For naturalizing foreign Protestants, which relates to the Children of the natural-born Subjects of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for naturalizing of foreign Protestants, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Children of all natural-born Subjects, born out of the Ligeance of her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, should be deemed, adjudged and taken to be natural-born Subjects of this Kingdom to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever: And whereas in the tenth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign another Act was made and passed to repeal the said Act (except what related to the Children of her Majesty's natural-born Subjects, born out of her Majesty's Allegiance:) And whereas some Doubts have arisen upon the Construction of the said recited Clause in the said Act of the seventh Year of her late Majesty's Reign: Now for the explaining the said recited Clause in the said Act, relating to Children of natural-born Subjects, and to prevent any Disputes touching the true Intent and Meaning thereof, May it please your most excellent Majesty that it may be declared and enacted, and be it declared and enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Children born out of the Ligeance of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain, or which shall hereafter be born out of such Ligeance, whose Fathers were or shall be natural-born Subjects of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain, at the Time of the Birth of such Children respectively, shall and may, by virtue of the said recited Clause in the said Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, and of this present Act, be adjudged and taken to be, and all such Children are hereby declared to be natural-born Subjects of the Crown of Great Britain, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever.

Children of natural-born Subjects born out of the Allegiance of the Crown, declared to be natural-born.

7 Ann. c. 5. f. 3.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in the said recited Act of the seventh Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, or in this present Act contained, did, doth or shall extend, or ought to be construed, adjudged or taken to extend, to make any Children born or to be born out of the Ligeance of the Crown of England, or of the Crown of Great Britain, to be natural-born Subjects of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain, whose Fathers at the Time of the Birth of such Children respectively were or shall be attainted of High Treason, by Judgment, Outlawry or otherwise, either in this Kingdom or in Ireland, or whose Fathers at the Time of the Birth of such Children respectively, by any Law or Laws made in this Kingdom or in Ireland, were or shall be liable to the Penalties of High Treason or Felony, in case of their returning into this Kingdom or into Ireland without the Licence of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or of any of his Majesty's Royal Predecessors, or whose Fathers at the Time of the Birth of such Children respectively were or shall be in the actual Service of any foreign Prince or State then in Enmity with the Crown of England, or of Great Britain, but that all such Children are, were and shall be and remain in the same State, Plight and Condition to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever, as they would have been in, if the said Act of the seventh Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, or this present Act, had never been made; any Thing herein, or in the said Act of the seventh Year of her said late Majesty's Reign contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Children of Parents attainted of Treason, or in actual Service of foreign Princes in Enmity with the Crown, excepted.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Child, whose Father at the Time of the Birth of such Child was attainted of High Treason as aforesaid, or was liable to the Penalties of High Treason or Felony, in case of returning into this Kingdom or Ireland without Licence as aforesaid, or was in the actual Service of any foreign Prince or State then in Enmity with the Crown of England, or of Great Britain (other than and excepting always out of this Proviso all Children of such Persons, who went out of Ireland in pursuance of the Articles of Limerick) hath come into Great Britain or Ireland, or any other of the Dominions belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, and hath continued to reside within Great Britain or Ireland, or other the Dominions aforesaid, for the Space of two Years,

An Act that all Proceedings in Courts of Justice within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be in the English Language.

WHEREAS many and great Mischiefs do frequently happen to the Subjects of this Kingdom, from the Proceedings in Courts of Justice being in an unknown Language, those who are summoned and impleaded having no Knowledge or Understanding of what is alledged for or against them in the Pleadings of their Lawyers and Attornies, who use a Character not legible to any but Persons practising the Law: To remedy these great Mischiefs, and to protect the Lives and Fortunes of the Subjects of that Part of Great Britain called England, more effectually than heretofore, from the Peril of being ensnared or brought in danger by Forms and Proceedings in Courts of Justice, in an unknown Language, Be it enacted by the Kings most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, all Writs, Process and Returns thereof, and Proceedings thereon, and all Pleadings, Rules, Orders, Indictments, Informations, Inquisitions, Presentments, Verdicts, Prohibitions, Certificates, and all Patents, Charters, Pardons, Commissions, Records, Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, Bonds, Rolls, Entries, Fines and Recoveries, and all Proceedings relating thereunto, and all Proceedings of Courts Leet, Courts Baron and Customary Courts, and all Copies thereof, and all Proceedings whatsoever in any Courts of Justice within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and which concern the Law and Administration of Justice, shall be in the English Tongue and Language only, and not in Latin or French, or any other Tongue or Language whatsoever, and shall be written in such a common legible Hand and Character, as the Acts of Parliament are usually ingrossed in, and the Lines and Words of the same to be written at least as close as the said Acts usually are, and not in any Hand commonly called Court Hand, and in Words at Length and not abbreviated; any Law, Custom or Usage heretofore to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: And all and every Person or Persons offending against this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in Westminster Hall, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Mistranslation, Variation in Form by reason of Translation, Misspelling or Mistake in Clerkship, or Pleadings or Proceedings begun or to be begun before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, being part in Latin and part in English, shall be no Error, nor make void any Proceedings by reason thereof; but that all manner of Mistranslation, Errors in Form, Misspellings, Mistakes in Clerkship, may at any Time be amended, whether in Paper or on Record or otherwise, before or after Judgment, upon Payment of reasonable Costs only.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act, nor any thing herein contained, shall extend to certifying beyond the Seas any Case or Proceedings in the Court of Admiralty; but that in such Cases the Commissions and Proceedings may be certified in Latin as formerly they have been.

IV. And whereas several good and profitable Laws have been enacted, to the Intent that the Parties in all manner of Actions and Demands might not be delayed and hindered from obtaining the Effect of their Suits, after Issue tried and Judgment given, by reason of any subtle, ignorant or defective Pleadings, nor for any Defect in Form, commonly called Jeofails, It is hereby enacted and declared, That all and every

An Act for further encouraging the Manufacture of British Sail Cloth, by taking off the Duties and Drawbacks therein mentioned; and allowing an additional Bounty on British made Sail Cloth exported; and for stamping British made Sail Cloth with the Name and Place of Abode of the Maker.

WHEREAS the Wealth and Prosperity of this Kingdom does very much depend upon the Preservation and Improvement of its Manufactures, and whereas the Manufacture of Sail Cloth does give a comfortable Support and Maintenance to many of his Majesty's Subjects employed in the same, and there is reason to believe that it would be greatly improved in this Kingdom, and the Exportation of it to foreign Parts considerably increased, if the Duties payable upon the Importation of rough and undressed Flax, and the Drawback upon the Re-exportation of foreign Sail Cloth or foreign made Sails, were taken off, and an additional Bounty allowed on all British made Sail Cloth exported; Therefore may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to import into this Kingdom any Quantity of rough or undressed Flax, without paying any Subsidy, Custom, Impostition or other Duty whatsoever, for the same, so as a due Entry be first made thereof in the Customhouse belonging to the Port into which the same shall be imported, in such Manner and Form, and expressing the Quantities of such rough or undressed Flax, as were used and practised before the making of this Act, and so as the same be landed in the presence of the proper Officer appointed for that Purpose, and the Importation thereof be according to the Rules prescribed and enjoined by an Act of Parliament passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That on Failure of the Conditions or Directions herein last mentioned being performed, or any of them, in manner aforesaid, all such rough or undressed Flax shall be liable to the respective Duties charged thereon, as the same might or would have been liable to, if this Act had never been made; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, there shall not be allowed or made, on the Re-exportation of foreign Sail Cloth, or any foreign made Sails, any Drawback or Repayment of any of the Customs or Duties charged and paid on the Importation thereof into this Kingdom, by any Act or Acts of Parliament; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, there shall be allowed, over and above the Allowance already given, a further Reward or Recompence of one Penny for every Ell of British made Sail Cloth exported, the same to be given and paid out of the Money arising from an additional Duty laid on all Sail Cloth imported into this Kingdom, by an Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the better Encouragement of the making of Sail Cloth in Great Britain, and continued by subsequent Acts; which said further Reward of one Penny per Ell shall be subject to the same Provisoes and Penalties as the Allowance already given is subject and liable to.

V. And to the End that no Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, who is or are intitled to any Part, Share or Interest, in the Monies arising by the said Duties on rough or undressed Flax imported into this Kingdom, may be no Losers or receive any Prejudice, by taking off the said Duties, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, the High Treasurer or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and they are hereby enjoined and required, on or before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, to cause an Account to be made up and stated of the Monies which shall have arisen by the said Duties on rough or undressed Flax, for seven Years last past.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, That the Medium of the Monies appearing to have arisen by the said Duties within seven Years, shall be a certain annual Sum to be charged on the Fund called The Aggregate Fund, and being so charged, shall from Time to Time be issued, paid, distributed and applied, to make good to the several publick Creditors or other Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, having Interest or Security in the Money arising from the same Duties on rough or undressed Flax, would have been apportioned and applied, in case the said Duties had been continued, and not been determined by this Act.

VII. And whereas foreign unwrought Hemp re-exported does draw back Part of the Duties payable upon Importation thereof, to the great Discouragement of manufacturing of Cordage within this Kingdom, to be exported to America, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, there shall not be allowed or made on the Re-exportation of Hemp unwrought to any of his Majesty's British Dominions in America, any Drawback or Re-payment of any of the Duties or Customs, charged charged and paid on the Importation thereof into this Kingdom, by any Act or Acts of Parliament; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Manufacturer or Maker of Sall Cloth in Great Britain shall after the said twenty-fourth Day of June affix at the End of every Piece of such Sall Cloth a Stamp containing the Name and Place of Abode of such Manufacturer or Maker, in plain distinct Letters and Words at Length; and if any Manufacturer or Maker of Sall Cloth shall sell or expose to sale, any Piece or Pieces of Sall Cloth, without being stamped as aforesaid, such Manufacturer or Maker so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, upon the Oath of any one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, City or Town, where the Offence shall be committed (which Oath such Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered and required to administer) shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for each and every Piece of Sall Cloth, by him or them sold or exposed to sale, not being stamped as aforesaid, and if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall wilfully or maliciously cut off, destroy or obliterate, any Stamp so affixed as aforesaid, or shall affix or make use of any Stamp, on which shall be marked the Name and Place of Abode of any other Person or Persons, and not his or their real Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode, such Person or Persons being convicted of any of the Offences aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; both which last mentioned Forfeitures shall and may be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, City or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, and shall go and be applied to the Use of the Informer or Informers.

An Act for the more effectual preventing Frauds committed by Tenants, and for the more easy Recovery of Rents, and Renewal of Leases.

FOR securing to Lessors and Land Owners their just Rights, and to prevent Frauds frequently committed by Tenants, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case any Tenant or Tenants for any Term of Life, Lives or Years, or other Person or Persons, who are or shall come into Possession of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by, from or under, or by Collusion with such Tenant or Tenants, shall wilfully hold over any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, after the Determination of such Term or Terms, and after Demand made, and Notice in Writing given, for delivering the Possession thereof, by his or their Landlords or Lessors, or the Person or Persons to whom the Remainder or Reversion of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments shall belong, his or their Agent or Agents thereunto lawfully authorized; then and in such Case such Person or Persons so holding over, shall, for and during the Time he, she and they shall so hold over, or keep the Person or Persons intitled, out of Possession of the said Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as aforesaid, pay to the Person or Persons so kept out of Possession, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, at the Rate of double the yearly Value of the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments so detained, for so long time as the same are detained, to be recovered in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, whereunto the Defendant or Defendants shall be obliged to give special Bail, against the recovering of which said Penalty there shall be no Relief in Equity.

Persons holding over Lands, &c. after Expiration of Leases, to pay double the yearly Value.

II. And whereas great Inconveniencies do frequently happen to Lessors and Landlords, in Cases of Re-entry for Nonpayment of Rent, by reason of the many Niceties that attend Re-entries at Common Law; and forasmuch as when a legal Re-entry is made, the Landlord or Lessor must be at the Expence, Charge, and Delay, of recovering in Ejectment, before he can obtain the actual Possession of the demised Premises; and it often happens that after such a Re-entry made, the Lessee or his Assignee, upon one or more Bills filed in a Court of Equity, not only holds out the Lessor or Landlord by an Injunction, from recovering the Possession, but likewise, pending the said Suit, do run much more in Arrear, without giving any Security for the Rents due, when the said Re-entry was made, or which shall or do afterwards incur: For remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases between Landlord and Tenant, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, as often as it shall happen that one half Year's Rent shall be in Arrear, and the Landlord or Lessor, to whom the same is due, hath Right by Law to re-enter for the Nonpayment thereof, such Landlord or Lessor shall and may, without any formal Demand or Re-entry, serve a Declaration in Ejectment for the Recovery of the demised Premises, or in case the same cannot be legally served, or no Tenant be in actual Possession of the Premises, then to affix the same upon the Door of any demised Messuage, or in case such Ejectment shall not be for the Recovery of any Messuage, then upon some notorious Place of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, comprized in such Declaration in Ejectment, and such affixing shall be deemed legal Service thereof, which Service or Affixing such Declaration in Ejectment, shall stand in the Place and Stead of a Demand and Re-entry; and in case of Judgment against the casual Ejector, or Nonsuit for not confessing Lease, Entry and Distress, it shall be made appear to the Court where the said Suit is depending, by Affidavit, or be proved upon the Trial, in case the Defendant appears, that half a Year's Rent was due before the said Declaration was served, and that no sufficient Distress was to be found on the demised Premises, counterbailing the Arrears then due, and that the Lessor or Lessors in Ejectment had Power to re-enter; then and in every such case the Lessor or Lessors in Ejectment shall recover Judgment and Execution, in the same Manner as if the Rent in Arrear had been legally demanded, and a Re-entry made; and in case the Lessee or Lessees, his, her or their Assignee or Assignees, or other Person or Persons claiming or deriving under the said Leases, shall permit and suffer Judgment to be had and recovered on such Ejectment, and Execution to be executed thereon, without paying the Rent and Arrears, together with full Costs, and without filing any Bill or Bills for Relief in Equity, within six Calendar Months after after such Execution executed; then and in such case the said Lessee or Lessees, his, her or their Assignee or Assignees, and all other Persons claiming and deriving under the said Lease, shall be barred and foreclosed from all Relief or Remedy in Law or Equity, other than by Writ of Error, for Reversal of such Judgment, in case the same shall be erroneous, and the said Landlord or Lessor shall from thenceforth hold the said demised Premises discharged from such Lease; and if on such Ejectment Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited therein, except for the Defendant or Defendants not confessing Lease, Entry and Duffer, then in every such case such Defendant or Defendants shall have and recover his, her and their full Costs: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to bar the Right of any Mortgagee or Mortgagees of such Lease, or any Part thereof, who shall not be in Possession, so as such Mortgagee or Mortgagees shall and do, within six Calendar Months after such Judgment obtained, and Execution executed, pay all Rent in Arrear, and all Costs and Damages sustained by such Lessor, Person or Persons intitled to the Remainder or Reversion as aforesaid, and perform all the Covenants and Agreements, which on the Part and Behalf of the first Lessee or Lessees are and ought to be performed.

Not to bar the

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the said Lessee or Lessees, his, her or their Assignee or Assignees, or other Person or Persons claiming any Right, Title or Interest, in Law or Equity, of, in or to the said Lease, shall, within the Time aforesaid, file one or more Bill or Bills, for Relief in any Court of Equity, such Person or Persons shall not have or continue any Injunction, against the Proceedings at Law on such Ejectment, unless he, she or they do or shall, within forty Days next after a full and perfect Answer shall be filed by the Lessor or Lessors of the Plaintiff in such Ejectment, bring into Court, and lodge with the proper Officer such Sum and Sums of Money as the Lessor or Lessors of the Plaintiff in the said Ejectment shall, in his, her or their Answer, swear to be due and in Arrear, over and above all just Allowances, and also the Costs taxed in the said Suit, there to remain till the hearing of the Cause, or to be paid out to the Lessor or Landlord on good Security, subject to the Decree of the Court; and in case such Bill or Bills shall be filed within the Time aforesaid, and after Execution is executed, the Lessor or Lessors of the Plaintiff shall be accountable only for so much and no more as he, she or they shall really and bona fide without Fraud, Deceit or wilful Neglect, make of the demised Premises from the Time of his, her or their entering into the actual Possession thereof, and if what shall be so made by the Lessor or Lessors of the Plaintiff, happen to be less than the Rent reserved on the said Lease, then the said Lessee or Lessees, his, her or their Assignee or Assignees, before he, she or they shall be restored to his, her or their Possession or Possessions, shall pay such Lessor or Lessors, or Landlord or Landlords, what the Money so by them made, fell short of the reserved Rent, for the Time such Lessor or Lessors of the Plaintiff, Landlord or Landlords, held the said Lands.

Tenant paying all Rent with Costs, Proceedings to cease.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Tenant or Tenants, his, her or their Assignee or Assignees, do or shall at any time before the Trial in such Ejectment, pay or tender to the Lessor or Landlord, his Executors or Administrators, or his, her or their Attorney in that Cause, or pay into the Court where the same Cause is depending, all the Rent and Arrears, together with the Costs, then and in such case, all further Proceedings on the said Ejectment shall cease and be discontinued; and if such Lessee or Lessees, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, shall, upon such Bill filed as aforesaid, be relieved in Equity, he, she and they, shall have, hold and enjoy the demised Lands, according to the Lease thereof made, without any new Lease to be thereof made to him, her or them.

Method of recovering Seck
Rents, &c.

V. And whereas the Remedy for recovering Rents Seck, Rents of Assize and chief Rents, are tedious and difficult, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, all and every Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, shall and may have the like Remedy by Distress, and by impounding and selling the same, in cases of Rents Seck, Rents of Assize and chief Rents, which have been duly answered or paid for the Space of three Years, within the Space of twenty Years before the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, or shall be hereafter created, as in case of Rent reserved upon Lease; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Chief Leases
may be renewed without surrendering all the Under Leases.

VI. And whereas many Persons hold considerable Estates by Leases for Lives or Years, and lease out the same in Parcels to several Under Tenants: And whereas many of those Leases cannot by Law be renewed without a Surrender of all the Under Leases derived out of the same, so that it is in the Power of any such Under Tenants to prevent or delay the Renewing of the principal Lease, by refusing to surrender their Under Leases, notwithstanding they have covenanted so to do, to the great Prejudice of their immediate Landlords the first Lessees: For preventing such Inconveniencies, and for making the renewal of Leases more easy for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Lease shall be duly surrendered in order to be renewed, and a new Lease made and executed by the chief Landlord or Landlords, the same new Lease shall without a Surrender of all or any the Under Leases be as good and valid to all Intents and Purposes as if all the Under Leases derived thereout had been likewise surrendered at or before the taking of such new Lease; and all and every Person and Persons in whom any Estate for Life or Lives or for Years, shall from Time to Time be vested by virtue of such new Lease, and his, her and their Executors and Administrators, shall be intitled to the Rents, Covenants and Duties, and have like Remedy for Recovery thereof, and the Under Lessees shall hold and enjoy the Messuages, Lands and Tenements, in the respective Under Leases comprised, as if the original Leases, out of which the respective Under Leases are derived, had been still kept on foot and continued, and the Chief Landlord and Landlords shall have and be intitled to such and the same Remedy, by Distress or Entry in and upon the Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments comprised in any such Under Lease, for the Rents and Duties reserved by such new Lease, so far as the same exceed not the Rents and Duties reserved in the Lease out of which such Under Lease was derived, as they would have had in case such former Lease had been still continued, or as they would have had in case the respective Under Leases had been renewed

An Act for grahnting an Allowance upon the Exportation of British made Gunpowder.

WHEREAS the Wealth and Prosperity of this Kingdom doth very much depend upon the Improvement of its Manufactures, and the profitable Trade carried on by Exportation of the same, which Trade ought by all proper Means to be encouraged, for the Enlargement of the Commerce of Great Britain: And whereas the Exportation of Gunpowder to foreign Parts has of late Years considerably decreased, by Reason of the Duties payable upon the Importation of Salt Petre and Brimstone, the principal Ingredients used for making the same: And whereas his Majesty's trading Subjects, from the Greatness of the Price of Gunpowder made here, are obliged to furnish themselves at foreign Markets, in order to carry on their Trade to Africa, and other Parts beyond the Seas, to the great Prejudice and Discouragement of the said Manufacture; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be paid to every Person or Persons, who at any Time or Times within or during the Term of five Years, to be reckoned from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, or at any Time or Times before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall really and truly export out of this Kingdom, by way of Merchandize, any Quantities of Gunpowder of the Manufacture of Great Britain, an Allowance of the Sum of four Shillings and six Pence for every Barrel of such Gunpowder, containing one hundred Pounds net Weight, and so in Proportion for greater or less Quantities; which Allowance shall be paid and answered by the Customer or Collector of the Customs, with the Privy of the Comptroller of the Port from whence the same shall be exported, on a Debenture to be made forth by the Customer or Collector, according to the Entry of such Gunpowder, without Fee or Reward, and the Shipping thereof verified by the Searcher, and Oath, or being of the People called Quakers, solemn Affirmation, made by the Exporter, on the Entry or Debenture, before the Customer or Collector or Comptroller of such Port, that the said Gunpowder is of British Manufacture, and is exported or intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, by way of Merchandize, and not for the Use of the Ship in her Voyage, and not relanded or intended to be relanded in any Part of Great Britain, the Exporter first giving Security to the said Customer or Collector of the Port, in a Penalty of five Pounds for each Barrel, containing one hundred Pounds net Weight (which Security they are hereby impowered to take in the Name, and to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors) that the Gunpowder so shipped or intended to be shipped, or any Part thereof, shall not be relanded or brought on Shore again into any Port or Part of Great Britain, and such Securities shall be discharged in the Manner hereafter mentioned, (that is to say) For so much of the said Gunpowder as shall be entred for or landed in the Kingdom of Ireland, the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations abroad, the Condition of the Bond shall be to bring Certificates in Discharge thereof from each Place respectively, importing that such Gunpowder was there landed, and testifying the Landing thereof; which Certificate shall be signed by the proper Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs as respectively reside there, and for want of such Officers residing there, then by the Governour of those Islands and Colonies or Plantations, or the Deputy Governour thereof respectively, who are hereby required to give the same without Fee or Reward; and for such Gunpowder as shall be so entred for any foreign Port or Place, to bring a Certificate under the Hand of any of his Majesty's Consuls residing in such Port or Place, or under the Hands of two known British Merchants then being at such Port or Place, that such Gunpowder was there landed; or such Bond or Bonds shall be discharged, upon Proof in either of the said Cases, that the same was taken by Enemies, or perished in the Seas, the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively for the Time being.

An Allowance of 4 s. per Barrel for British Gunpowder exported as Merchandize, Continued by 24 Geo. 2. c. 52.

Gunpowder exported for Africa.

II. And whereas Gunpowder exported for Africa is sold and delivered in very small Parcels, and at Places along the Coast, where no Certificates can be had, Therefore be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case upon Proof made upon Oath, or being of the People called Quakers, upon solemn Affirmation of the Master, Mate, Purser or other Person, having the Charge of the Ship during the Voyage, importing that such Gunpowder was sold and delivered upon the Coast of Africa, and also of the Oath or solemn Affirmation as aforesaid of the Merchant Exporter, if living, that to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, the said Goods have been disposed of at the Places to be mentioned in the respective Oaths, Affidavits or Affirmations of the Master, Mate, Purser or other Person, having Charge of the Ship during the Voyage, and that they have not been relanded or brought on Shore again in any Port or Part of Great Britain, the same shall be taken in lieu of the Certificates aforesaid, and be allowed of in full Discharge of the Bonds to be given in Pursuance of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Gunpowder shipped to be exported, for which Allowance is hereby made, shall be relanded or unshipped in any Port or Place in Great Britain, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, without the Licence of one or more of the principal Officers of such Port or Place first had and obtained, or unless it be in case of Distress to save the said Gunpowder from perishing, which shall be forthwith made known to one or more of the said Officers, the said Gunpowder, over and above the Penalty of the Bond to be levied and recovered to his Majesty's Use as aforesaid, and treble the Value of such Gunpowder, shall be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be prosecuted and divided in the Manner herein after mentioned.

Penalty for relanding.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Allowance shall be forthwith paid by the respective Customer or Collector, out of any Money in his Hands arising from from Customs or other Duties upon Goods imported from Parts beyond the Seas; and the Money so paid shall be accepted of in his or their Account, as so much paid to his Majesty, and he and they is, are and shall be discharged thereof accordingly.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Duties now payable upon the Importation of Salt Petre and Brimstone, shall during the Continuance of this Act be redeemed, or otherwise cease to be payable, so much of the Allowance to be made on the Exportation of Gunpowder shall be abated, as shall bear a Proportion to the Duties so redeemed, or that shall cease to be payable on the Importation of Salt Petre and Brimstone; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Penalties in this Act mentioned shall and may be prosecuted and determined by Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively; wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; and one Moiety shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who will sue or prosecute for the same.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Thing done in Pursuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in Pursuance and by the Authority of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law.

An Act for rendring more effectual an Act made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Coal Trade, so far as the same relates to the preventing the inhancing the Price of Coals in the River of Thames by the keeping of Turn in delivering of Coals there.

3 Geo. 2. c. 26.

Penalty on keeping Turn in delivering Coals in the Thames, 100l.

WHEREAS by a Clause in an Act passed in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Coal Trade, it is enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, every Master of a Ship or Vessel using the Coal Trade should be subject to the Direction of the Owner or Owners of the major Part of his Ship or Vessel, provided there was nothing contained in such Directions, which should relate to the restraining or inhancing the Price of Coals in the River of Thames, or to the keeping of Turn in delivering of Coals there: And whereas notwithstanding the Provision made by the said in Part recited Clause, the same has been evaded, by Means whereof the Price of Coals may be advanced to the Prejudice of several Manufactures, as well as to the Oppression of the Poor: For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, it shall not be lawful for any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel employed in the Coal Trade, or any Person authorized by them, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, directly or indirectly, by Writing or otherwise, to give any Orders or Directions to any Master or Person having the Command or Rule of any Ship or Vessel employed in the Coal Trade, or to any Agent or Servant employed in the selling of Coals, which shall any Ways relate to the keeping of Turn in selling or delivering of Coals in the River of Thames, and that no Master or Masters, or other Person having the Command or Rule of any Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, shall obey any such Orders or keep Turn as aforesaid, upon Pain that every Person giving such Directions, and the Person or Persons observing and following the same, or any other wise directly or indirectly acting contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every such Offence, one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall sue for the same, within the Space of six Months next after such Offence or Offences shall be committed, to be recovered with treble Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

II. And whereas in order to oblige Ships employed in the Coal Trade to keep Turn, a Method has been or may be practised, for the Masters of such Ships to deliver their Cocquets into the Hands of particular Agents employed by the Owners of such Ships, by which Means such Masters have been or may be disabled from delivering their Coals, until permitted by such Agents, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of every Ship or Vessel loaded with Coals, or other Person having the Care or Charge thereof, shall deliver or cause to be delivered, to the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port of London, the Cocquets containing the Lading of such Ship or Vessel, within the Space of four Days after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel as high as Gravesend, in the said River of Thames, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of fifty Pounds, on their Neglect or Refusal so to do, to be sued for, recovered and disposed of in the Manner before directed.

An Act for obviating a Doubt which hath arisen concerning the usual Allowance made upon the Delivery of Letters sent by the Penny Post to Places out of the Cities of London and Westminster and Borough of Southwark, and the respective Suburbs thereof.

WHEREAS upon the first Establishment of the Office called the Penny Post Office, the Carriage or Conveyance of the Letters by that Post was confined to the Cities of London and Westminster, the Borough of Southwark, and the respective Suburbs thereof; and whereas upon the Application of the Inhabitants of several Towns and Places within the Compass of ten Miles round the City of London, and upon their voluntary Offer to allow and pay to the Messengers or Persons carrying or transmitting such Letters, in consideration of their being obliged to travel with an Horse to Places at that Distance, one Penny upon the Delivery of every Letter directed to any Person at any Place out of the Cities of London and Westminster and Borough of Southwark, and the respective Suburbs thereof, over and above the Penny paid upon putting every such Letter into the Penny Post Office in London, the Carriage and Conveyance of Letters and Pacquets by the said Post, commonly called The Penny Post, was extended ten Miles round the City of London, and one Penny hath been constantly allowed to and taken by such Messengers, on the Delivery of every Letter directed to any Person at any Place out of the Cities of London and Westminster, the Borough of Southwark, and the respective Suburbs thereof, over and above the Penny paid upon putting such Letter into the Penny Post Office in London; and whereas by Reason of the Provisions contained in an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for establishing a General Post Office for all her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions, some Doubts have lately arisen, whether the Messengers or Persons carrying or transmitting such Letters, could lawfully receive and take the said Allowance of one Penny, upon the Delivery of every Letter, directed or delivered to or for any Person, at any Place out of the Cities of London and Westminster, the Borough of Southwark, and the respective Suburbs thereof, over and above the Penny paid upon putting such Letter into the Penny Post Office in London; For obviating and taking away all such Doubts, Be it declared and enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said Act of the ninth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign shall or ought to be construed to extend to restrain or hinder any such Messenger, or Person carrying or transmitting Letters by the said Post, commonly called The Penny Post, from demanding or taking for every Letter originally sent by the Penny Post, and not first passing by the General Post and from thence transmitted by the Penny Post, which hath been or shall be delivered to or for any Person, at any Place out of the Cities of London and Westminster, the Borough of Southwark, and respective Suburbs thereof, one Penny, over and above the Penny paid upon putting every such Letter into the Penny Post Office, and that no such Messenger or other Person shall incur, or shall be deemed, adjudged or taken to have incurred, or to incur any Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever, for demanding and taking for any such Letter so delivered or to be delivered as aforesaid, one Penny, over and above the Penny paid upon putting such Letter into the Penny Post Office, or for detaining or delaying any such Letter, until such one Penny for any such Letter so delivered or to be delivered as aforesaid, was or shall be paid; any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for the more easy Recovery of Debts in his Majesty's Plantations and Colonies in America.

WHEREAS his Majesty's Subjects trading to the British Plantations in America lie under great Difficulties, for want of more easy Methods of proving, recovering and levying of Debts due to them, than are now used in some of the said Plantations: And whereas it will tend very much to the retrieving of the Credit formerly given by the trading Subjects of Great Britain to the Natives and Inhabitants of the said Plantations, and to the advancing of the Trade of this Kingdom thither, if such Inconveniences were remedied; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, in any Action or Suit then depending, or thereafter to be brought in any Court of Law or Equity in any of the said Plantations, for or relating to any Debt or Account, wherein any Person residing in Great Britain shall be a Party, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Plaintiff or Defendant, and also to and for any Witness to be examined or made use of in such Action or Suit, to verify or prove any Matter or Thing by Affidavit or Affidavits in Writing upon Oath, or in case the Person making such Affidavit be one of the People called Quakers, then upon his or her solemn Affirmation, made before any Mayor or other chief Magistrate of the City, Borough or Town Corporate in Great Britain, where or near to which the Person making such Affidavit or Affirmation shall reside, and certified and transmitted under the Common Seal of such City, Borough or Town Corporate, or the Seal of the Office of such Mayor, or other chief Magistrate, which Oath and solemn Affirmation every such Mayor and chief Magistrate shall be and is hereby authorized and impowered to administer; and every Affidavit or Affirmation so made, certified and transmitted, shall in all such Actions and Suits be allowed to be of the same Force and Effect, as if the Person or Persons making the same upon Oath or solemn Affirmation as aforesaid, had appeared and sworn or affirmed the Matters contained in such Affidavit or Affirmation viva voce in open Court, or upon a Commission issued for the Examination of Witnesses, or of any Party in any such Action or Suit respectively; Provided that in every such Affidavit and Affirmation there shall be expressed the Addition of the Party making such Affidavit or Affirmation, and the particular Place of his or her Abode.

After Sept. 29, Plantation Debts may be proved here on Oath before a chief Magistrate.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Suits now depending, or hereafter to be brought in any Court of Law or Equity by or in Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in any of the said Plantations, for or relating to any Debt or Account, that his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall and may prove his and their Debts and Accounts, and examine his or their Witnesses or Witnesses by Affidavit or Affirmation in like Manner as any Subject or Subjects is or are impowered or may do by this present Act.

Debts to his Majesty may be proved in the same Manner.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Person making such Affidavit upon Oath or solemn Affirmation as aforesaid, shall be guilty of falsity and wilfully swearing or affirming any Matter or Thing in such Affidavit or Affirmation, which, if the same had been sworn upon an Examination in the usual Form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, every Person so offending being thereof lawfully convicted, shall incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are provided against Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Penalty on false Oath or Affirmation.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, the Houses, Lands, Negroes, and other Hereditaments and real Estates, situate or being within any of the said Plantations belonging to any Person indebted, shall be liable to and chargeable with all just Debts, Duties and Demands of what Nature or Kind soever, owing by any such Person to his Majesty, or any of his Subjects, and shall and may be Assets for the Satisfaction thereof, in like Manner as Real Estates are by the Law of England liable to the Satisfaction of Debts due by Bond or other Specialty, and shall be subject to the like Remedies, Proceedings and Processes in any Court of Law or Equity, in any of the said Plantations respectively, for seizing, extending, selling or disposing of any such Houses, Lands, Negroes, and other Hereditaments and Real Estates, towards the Satisfaction of such Debts, Duties and Demands, and in like Manner as Personal Estates in any of the said Plantations respectively are seized, extended, sold or disposed of, for the Satisfaction of Debts.

Lands, Houses, Negroes, &c. in the Plantations liable to satisfy Debts.

An Act for amending and making more effectual an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of King JAMES the Second, intituled, An additional Act for the Improvement of Tillage.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King JAMES the Second, intituled, An additional Act for the Improvement of Tillage, Provision was made for examining and determining the common Market Prices of middling English Corn and Grain, which nevertheless hath been found ineffectual; Therefore for the better ascertaining the common Market Prices of middling English Corn and Grain, and for preventing the fraudulent Importation of foreign Corn and Grain, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Justices of Peace for the several and respective Counties within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, wherein foreign Corn or Grain shall or may be hereafter imported, and they are hereby enjoined and required, at every their Quarter-Sessions, to give in Charge in open Court to the Grand Jury there assembled, to make Inquiry and Presentment upon their Oaths of the common Market Prices of middling English Corn and Grain of the respective Sorts and Quantities mentioned in an Act made in the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for Improvement of Tillage and Breed of Cattle, as the same shall be commonly bought and sold in every such County, which Inquiry and Presentment the said Grand Jury are hereby impowered and required to make.

After 1 June 1732, Justices at Quarter-Sessions to charge the Grand Jury, who are to present on Oath the Market Prices of English Corn. 22 Car. 2. c. 13.

Presentment to be made in open Court, certified to Collector of Customs, and hung up at the Custom-houses for publick View.

Duties on foreign Corn to be paid according to the Prices in the Certificates.

Not to extend to London.

1 Jac. 2. c. 19.

No Warrant, &c. to be granted for transporting any foreign Corn to any other English Haven, after Importation.

Foreign Corn so transported forfeited, and 20 s. per Bushel.

Vessel and Tackle forfeited.

Three Months Imprisonment on assisting in such Transportation.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Presentment shall be made in open Court, and shall be certified by the said Justices in Writing to his Majesty's Chief Officer and Collector of the Customs for the Time being, residing in every such Port or Haven, where such Corn and Grain shall be imported, and shall be hung up in some publick Place in the Custom-house belonging to every such Port or Haven, to be resorted to by all Persons for their Information.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, the Custom and Duty of foreign Corn and Grain imported into that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, appointed to be paid by the said Act made in the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King Charles the Second, shall be collected and paid according to the Prices contained in such respective Certificates as aforesaid, and not otherwise; any Thing in the said Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King JAMES the Second to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. An Act for enlarging the Term granted by an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, for rebuilding the Pier and Harbour of Parton in the County of Cumberland. P R.

11 Geo. 1. c. 16.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the Pier and Harbour of Parton in the County of Cumberland, a Duty was laid upon all Coals shipped on board any Ship or Vessel in the said Harbour, and divers other Duties in the said Act particularly mentioned were granted for the Term of fifteen Years, to commence from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five; by which said Act the Trustees therein named and thereby appointed and constituted, and the Trustees that should then after be appointed and constituted in Pursuance of the said Act, were impowered to borrow any Sum not exceeding two thousand Pounds, at an Interest not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon Security of the said Duties for rebuilding the said Pier and Harbour: And whereas the said Trustees have borrowed the said Sum of two thousand Pounds upon Security of the said Duties, and applied the same to the rebuilding the said Pier, whereby the Harbour is capable of receiving several small Ships, and from which there is a frequent Exportation of Coals to Ireland, and other Parts: And whereas, to make the said Harbour complete and capable of receiving more Ships and of greater Burthen, it will be necessary to add several Yards to the Foot of the said Pier, and for cleansing the said Harbour, and carrying away and keeping the same clear of Sand, it will be necessary to bring and cause a small Brook, called Morresby Beck, running near to the said Harbour, to run into the same; all which cannot be done, unless the said Duties be continued for a longer Term, and the Trustees impowered to borrow a further Sum upon the Security thereof: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Duties continued for 21 Years after the Expiration of the Term before granted by 4 & 5 Ann. c. 18. Trustees appointed by 11 Geo. 1. c. 16. to execute this Act, who may borrow the further Sum of 2,500 l. and assign the Duties.

An Act for rendring more effectual an Act passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for improving the Navigation of the River Ouze in the County of York. P R.

13 Geo. 1. c. 33.

WHEREAS the Trustees appointed to put in Execution the several Powers and Authorities given by an Act passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for improving the Navigation of the River Ouze in the County of York, have proceeded to improve the said Navigation, and to that End have expended considerable Sums of Money: And whereas the Commissioners appointed in and by the said Act, in Conjunction and with the Concurrence of the said Trustees, have in Pursuance thereof laid the several Tolls or Rates therein mentioned on all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes and other Commodities, to the very Extent of the Power given them by the said Act; but by Reason of the great Inequality and Disproportion of the Rates which the said several Goods, Wares and Merchandizes pay, the annual Income arising therefrom is not sufficient to effect the Improvement of the Navigation of the said River, and to answer the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, which would with more Ease and Certainty be perfected, if the Tolls or Rates were more equally and proportionably laid upon the several Goods, Wares and Merchandizes in the said Act mentioned, according to the respective Values, and if further Powers were given to the said Trustees relating thereunto: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

After 24 June 1732, the following Duties to be paid, viz. All Goods carried on the River Ouze above Wharfmouth (except Manure or Lime used in Tillage) for every Tun of Wines, Groceries, &c. 2 s. 6 d. For every Tun of Cheese, &c. 2 s. For every Tun of Oak, Bark, Corn, &c. 1 s. For every Tun of Allom, Copperas, &c. 6 d. For every Firkin or other Vessel of Butter 1 d. For every Hundred of Oysters 1 d. Goods to be entred before unladen. Master of Vessels to give a Copy of Bill of Lading. Bills of Lading to be attested on Oath, on Refusal the Goods to be weighed at Master's Charge. Duties assignable for Money borrowed. Not to lessen the former Mortgage. Duties to be lessened, after Payment of Money borrowed.

vented) to their great Vexation and Damage, and the hindring the rebuilding of the said Town; Therefore to remedy the same, and also to promote the rebuilding of the said Town, be it enacted, &c.

Court for determining Differences. Definitive Order of the Court to be final. Court may enlarge or abridge Estates in the Premises. To appoint the Form and Order of Buildings. Court may take or give Ground from one to another, making Satisfaction to the Owners. In case of Disability a Jury to assess Damages. Owners refusing the Jury's Award, to be for ever barred. Court may dispose of Houses to be rebuilt on Owners Neglect in the Time limited, and summon a Jury to assess Recompence. Houses to be covered with Lead, Slate or Tyle; not so covered a common Nuisance, and also perilous Trades. Decrees of the Court to bind all Parties, and be kept as Records. Duration of the Act for ten Years.

An Act for the further Application of the Sinking Fund, by paying off one million of South-Sea Stock; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets and Orders, lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to have the Publick Debts and Incumbrances lessened and discharged, as fast as conveniently may be with Regard to Justice and the Publick Faith, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spirittual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That by or out of such Monies as are or shall be in the Receipt of Exchequer of the Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, arisen or to arise at or from the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two (after Payment of or reserving sufficient to pay such Monies as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same) there shall be issued and applied to the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, at the said Feast-Day, and afterwards quarterly from Time to Time, as the same shall arise, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall on such Quarter Day or Days be in the said Receipt of the Exchequer, for or towards redeeming Part of the Annuities attending on the Capital Stock or Sum remaining due to the said Company in their own Right, until the same Payments shall in the whole amount to the Sum of one million of Pounds Sterling; and that as the said Payments of Principal Money shall be from Time to Time made, a proportional Part of their said Capital Stock, and of the Annuities attending thereon, shall also from Time to Time cease and determine for the Benefit of the Publick: But as it may so happen, that on the said Feast-Day of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, there may not be sufficient Money in the Receipt of the Exchequer arisen from the said Surplusses to satisfy and pay the said intire Sum of one million of Pounds Sterling, and the said South-Sea Company may desire then to receive the whole Sum in one intire Payment, in order to make one Distribution of the whole amongst all the Proprietors of their said Capital Stock at one Time, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Application being made by the said Company to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, and giving them Notice of such their Desire to have and receive the said one million of Pounds in one intire Payment ten Days at least before the said Feast-Day, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer, by Warrant under their Hands to permit or suffer any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance or lend to his Majesty at the Receipt of his Exchequer so much Money, as together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, shall be wanting to compleat the said Sum of one million of Pounds, upon Credit of the growing Produce of the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, and to be repaid out of the same, as they shall quarterly afterwards arise, together with an Interest for the Forbearance thereof, in the mean Time, after a Rate not exceeding four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and in such case the Money so to be lent or advanced, shall be issued and paid to the said Company, together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, to compleat the Payment of the said entire Sum of one million of Pounds; and the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise from the said Surplusses, shall quarterly be issued and applied to discharge and satisfy such Loans with the Interest thereof, in the due Order and common Course of the Exchequer, in cases of Loans; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company shall forthwith, upon the Receipt of the said Sum of one million of Pounds, or as soon after as conveniently may be, divide out and distribute the same, as near as conveniently may be done, amongst all the several Proprietors of their said Capital Stock, towards sinking and discharging so much of their Shares or Interests in the said Capital Stock, by even and equal Dividends amongst them all, in Proportion to their respective Shares or Interests therein, or may pay and apply the said Sum of one million in Satisfaction and Discharge of one million of the Principal Money due upon the Bonds of the said Company which remain undischarged, in such Manner and at such Times as the said Company in a General Court thereof shall think fit to order and direct: Provided always, That in such Case one million of the Capital Stock of the said Company, together with the Annuity attending thereon, be redeemed and discharged for the Benefit of the Publick.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company, or any Member thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by Reason of any Thing done in Pursuance of this Act; nor shall the Sub-Governor, Deputy Governor or any of the Directors now or for the Time being, after the Payments hereby directed shall take Place, be deemed Sums.

IV. And for the Accommodation of such of the Proprietors of the said Capital Stock as shall be obliged to receive small Sums as Dividends of their said Capital, in case such Dividends shall be agreed to be made, and for enabling them to replace the same with the least Expence, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every Case and Cases, where any Proprietor or Joint Proprietors of any Share or Shares in the said Capital Stock shall, out of the said Sum of one million, be paid off a Dividend of Capital on such their respective Shares or Interests, which Dividend shall not amount to more than the Sum of one hundred Pounds, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Company, their Officers or Servants, and they are hereby required, at any Time before the Day to be appointed by the Court of Directors for shutting up their Transfer Books, in order to the Payment of the half Year's Annuity to be due on the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, to permit or suffer any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, being Proprietors of the said Stock, to transfer to such Proprietor or Proprietors respectively, any Sum or Quantity of South-Sea Capital Stock, not exceeding the Sum or Sums so divided out of Capital, to him, her or them respectively, by Writing in the Transfer Books of the said Company, without any of the Stamps being impressed thereon, which by any former Act or Acts of Parliament are required in Cases of Transfers, and without any Fees or other Charges to the said Company, or their Officers, Clerks or Servants for the same, and also to permit and suffer the Transferees, or some other Person or Persons on their Behalf respectively, to accept the same, and that such Transfers without Stamps (subject to the Restrictions before mentioned) shall be as good, valid and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been stamped according to any former or other Law or Laws for that Purpose; and that no Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by any such former Law or Laws, for or on Account of making or permitting Transfers of Stock without being first stamped, shall be incurred by any Person or Persons acting therein in Pursuance of this Act; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said South-Sea Company, within the Time before mentioned, to sell and dispose of, to any such of their Proprietors, any Parcels or Quantities of that Part of their Capital Stock as now remains in the said Company, or in any Person or Persons in Trust for them, not distributed amongst the rest of their Adventurers, as shall be necessary or sufficient for the Purposes aforesaid and no more, at such Price or Prices as shall be from Time to Time agreed on between the said Company and such Proprietors, and to cause the same to be transferred accordingly, free from such Stamps, Fees or other Charges as aforesaid; any Thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Transfers to be without Stamps or Fees.

Trust Estates
to be preserved.

V. And to the End, Intent and Purpose that all Trust Estates or Interests in the said Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company, in case the said Sum of one million shall be agreed to be distributed and divided as aforesaid, may be preserved and improved for the Benefit of the Persons concerned therein, with the least Expence and Inconvenience to them; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every Case where, in Pursuance of this Act, any Payments or Dividends shall be made of the Capital of any such Stock as shall be vested in any Person or Persons in Trust for other Persons, who have or claim distinct or different Interests therein, or for any other Ends or Purposes, for which the Capital Sum or Stock ought to be preserved entire, such Payments or Dividends of the Capital Stock shall not be paid or applied as Dividends of Profit, Annuity or Interest, but shall remain in the Hands of such Trustees respectively, till otherwise disposed of at Interest, and for that Purpose it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustee or Trustees who shall receive the same, at his or their Discretion, to lay out or dispose of the same or any Part thereof, in the Purchase of so much other Capital Stock of the same Kind, as at the current Market Price of such Stock, the Monies received for such Dividends shall, as near as conveniently may be, extend to purchase; which new purchased Stock shall be transferred to such Trustee or Trustees, and a Receipt or Receipts shall be given and signed by the Person or Persons transferring the same, for the Monies paid for the same; and in case such Trustees respectively, by Writing indorsed on or annexed to such Receipts, and signed and acknowledged before one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, shall declare that the Monies in the said Receipts were the Produce of the said Dividends of the said Capital Stock (which Signing or Acknowledgment such Masters in Chancery are hereby required to accept or take) and each and every such Master (before whom the same shall be done) shall at the same Time certify the same, by subscribing his Name thereto, for doing whereof such Master shall be paid for each Certificate one Shilling and no more, then and in every such Case, the Stock mentioned in such Receipts so to be transferred, shall respectively go and be deemed subject and liable to the same Trusts, for the Benefit of the same Persons, and for the same Uses, Ends, Intents and Purposes, as the rest of the Trust Stock remaining in such Trustees respectively will or ought to be subject or liable to; and such Trustees respectively shall from thenceforth be indemnified from any Loss, Charges or Damages, on Account of their so doing, at the Expences of the said Trust Estates.

Not to hinder
the disposing of Trust Monies in other Securities.

VI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to restrain or prohibit any such Trustees from laying out or disposing of any of the said Trust Monies in any other Purchases or any other Securities, publick or private, if they shall so think fit, in the same Manner and with the same Freedom and Security to themselves, as they might have done if this Act had not been made.

VII. Provided

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Duties thereby granted and continued, as shall arise or remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Land Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reviving the Duties on Salt for the Time therein mentioned, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Duties thereby granted, as shall arise and remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and also the Sum of one hundred twenty-three thousand five hundred and eighty Pounds two Shillings and five Pence Half-penny, granted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, and not applied for the Service of that Year, shall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are herein after prescribed; that is to say,

VIII. It is hereby enacted and declared, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding six hundred eighty-eight thousand eight hundred and eighty-five Pounds seven Shillings and five Pence, for or towards the naval Services herein after more particularly expressed; that is to say, for or towards defraying the Charge of the Ordinary of his Majesty's Navy, and for Half-pay to Sea Officers, and for or towards Victuals, Wages, Wear and Tear of the Navy, and the Victualling thereof performed and to be performed, and for or towards extraordinary Repairs of his Majesty's Navy performed and to be performed, and for or towards other Services of the Navy performed and to be performed.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding ten thousand Pounds, upon Account, for and towards the Support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, for the better Maintenance of the Seamen of the said Hospital, worn out and become decrepit in the Service of their Country.

X. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding eighty-six thousand and ninety-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and three Pence, for or towards defraying the Charge of the Office of Ordnance for Land Service performed and to be performed, and for defraying the extraordinary Expence of the Office of Ordnance for Land Service not provided for by Parliament.

XI. And it is hereby likewise enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall or may be issued or applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding nine hundred thirty-four thousand three hundred and eighty-one Pounds seventeen Shillings and two Pence Half-penny, for or towards maintaining his Majesty's Land Forces, and other Services herein after more particularly expressed; that is to say, any Sum of Money not exceeding six hundred fifty-three thousand two hundred and sixteen Pounds ten Shillings and one Penny, for defraying the Charge of seventeen thousand seven hundred and nine Men, including Commission and Non-commission Officers and Invalids, for Guards, Caribons and six Independent Companies for the Service of the Highlands, and other his Majesty's Land Forces in Great Britain, Guernsey and Jersey, and other Services relating to the Forces for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred sixty thousand two hundred and fourteen Pounds four Shillings and eleven Pence, for maintaining his Majesty's Forces and Caribons in the Plantations, Minorca and Gibraltar, and for Provision for the Caribons at Annapolis Royal, Canso, Placentia and Gibraltar, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding twenty-five thousand three hundred and forty-eight Pounds two Shillings, upon Account for Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding eleven thousand two hundred and fifty-eight Pounds ten Shillings and eight Pence Half-penny, for defraying several extraordinary Expences and Services incurred, and not provided for by Parliament; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding fifty-eight thousand six hundred and eighty-eight Pounds two Shillings, upon Account of Half-pay to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two; subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as are herein after prescribed concerning the same; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding two thousand nine hundred and sixty-two Pounds, for paying of Pensions to the Widows of such reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, as died upon the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain (and who were married to them before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixteen) for the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two; which said Sum of two thousand nine hundred and sixty-two Pounds shall be issued to such Person or Persons as his Majesty shall, by Warrant or Warrants

XII. And it is hereby also enacted, That out of all or any the Aids or Supplies provided as aforesaid, there shall and may be issued and applied any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding forty-one thousand three hundred forty-six Pounds one Shilling and one Penny three Farthings, for making good the Deficiency of the Fund commonly called The General Fund, for raising seven hundred twenty-four thousand eight hundred forty-nine Pounds six Shillings and ten Pence and one fifth Part of a Penny, for the Year ended at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one; and any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding ten thousand Pounds, towards the Maintenance of the British Forts and Settlements belonging to the Royal African Company of England, on the Coast of Africa; and the Sum of fourteen thousand Pounds, to be applied and paid to Sir Thomas Lombe as a Reward and Recompence to him for the eminent Service he has done this Nation in discovering, with the greatest Hazard and Difficulty, the Art of making and working the three Capital Italian Engines erected by him at Derby for making Organzine Silk, and introducing and bringing the same to full Perfection in this Kingdom at his own great Expence.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the said Aids or Supplies, provided as aforesaid, shall not be issued or applied to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other than the Uses and Purposes before mentioned, or for the several Deficiencies or other Payments, directed to be satisfied thereout, by any particular Clause or Clauses for that Purpose contained in any other Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament.

XIV. And as to the said Sum of fifty-eight thousand six hundred and eighty-eight Pounds and two Shillings, by this Act appropriated on Account of Half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules herein after prescribed shall be duly observed in the Application thereof; that is to say, That no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who was a Minor and under the Age of sixteen Years, at the Time when the Regiment, Troop or Company, in which he served, was reduced; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, except such Persons who did actual Service in some Regiment, Troop or Company; that no Person having any other Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, shall have or receive any Part of the said Half-pay; that no Chaplain of any Garrison or Regiment, who has any Ecclesiastical Benefice in Great Britain or Ireland, shall have or receive any of the said Half-pay; that no Person shall have or receive any Part of the same, who hath resigned his Commission, and has had no Commission since; that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any Person by Virtue of any Warrant or Appointment, except to such Persons who would have been otherwise intitled to the same as reduced Officers; and that no Part of the same shall be allowed to any the Officers of the five Regiments of Dragoons and eight Regiments of Foot lately disbanded in Ireland, except to such as were lately taken off the Establishment of Half-pay in Great Britain.

4 Geo. 2. c. 9.

XV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising one million two hundred thousand Pounds by Annuities and a Lottery, in Manner therein mentioned; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets and Orders lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed, several Supplies which had been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding sixty-one thousand one hundred fifty-eight Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence, was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf: Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared, by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Sum of sixty-one thousand one hundred fifty-eight Pounds fifteen Shillings and ten Pence, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers, according to the said Rules by the said Act prescribed to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall or may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed or lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or such others, as by reason of their long Service or otherwise his Majesty shall judge to be proper objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act, or the said former Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

posed of to Officers Widows, &c.

Exchequer Bills,
Lottery Tickets,
&c. lost or destroyed,

on Oath before a Baron of the Exchequer,

XVI. And whereas several Bills commonly called Exchequer Bills, and several Tickets commonly called Lottery Tickets, and also several Orders and Certificates made forth, not only in lieu of the said Lottery Tickets, but likewise for Annuities of divers Kinds payable at or near the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, have by Casualty or Mischance been lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed, which Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets, Certificates, Annuity Orders, and other Orders of the respective Denominations aforesaid, were made forth by and in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament in that Behalf: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where it shall appear by Affidavit to be made before any of the Barons of the Exchequer for the Time being, who shall interrogate the Deponent thereupon, to the Satisfaction of such Baron or Barons, that any such Exchequer Bills or any such Tickets, Certificates, Annuity Orders or other Orders as aforesaid, before the twenty-eighth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, have been or are lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed, or that there be good Reason to believe the same have been, burnt, lost or otherwise destroyed, it shall and may be lawful for the respective Officers and Persons appointed to issue or make forth such Exchequer Bills, Tickets, Certificates, Annuity Orders or other Orders, or to pay or discharge the same, or to issue any Monies

nies due or payable thereon, upon producing a Certificate from any of the said Barons of such Affidavit made before him (which Affidavit the said Barons or any of them is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to make and grant without Fee or Reward) and on Security given to the said respective Officers and Persons to their good Liking, to indemnify them respectively against all other Persons whatsoever, for or concerning the Monies specified in or due upon such respective Bill or Bills, Ticket or Tickets, Certificate or Certificates, Order or Orders, they the said Persons and Officers respectively shall and are hereby required to make forth Duplicates of the said Bills, Tickets, Certificates and Orders at the Request of the respective Owners, and to pay and discharge the same, and all such Interest as is or shall be due on any of them carrying Interest, as he or they should have paid or discharged on the said original Bills, Tickets, Certificates, Annuity Orders or other Orders, if the same had been produced, and shall be allowed all such Payments in their respective Accounts.

and Certificate,

the Originals
were produced.

XVII. And in all Cases where the Signing of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain for the Time being, is necessary for making the said Duplicates or any of them effectual for the Purposes aforesaid, It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to sign such Duplicates accordingly.

Duplicates to be signed.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act for the further Qualification of Justices of the Peace.

WHEREAS the constituting Persons of mean Estates to be Justices of the Peace may be highly prejudicial to the publick Welfare, Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three no Person shall be capable of being a Justice of the Peace, or to act as a Justice of the Peace for any County within that Part of Great Britain called England, or the Principality of Wales, who shall not have an Estate of Freehold or Copyhold to and for his own Use and Benefit, in Possession, for Life, or for some greater Estate, either in Law or Equity, or an Estate for Years, determinable upon one or more Life or Lives, or for a certain Term originally created for one and twenty Years, or more, in Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments lying in that Part of Great Britain called England, or Principality of Wales, of the clear yearly Value of one hundred Pounds, over and above what will satisfy and discharge all Incumbrances that may affect the same.

Amended by 12 Geo. 2. c. 20.

No Persons to be Justices who have not 100 l. a Year clear of Incumbrances.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Attorney, Solicitor or Proctor in any Court whatsoever shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, be capable to continue or be a Justice of the Peace within any County for that Part of Great Britain called England, or the Principality of Wales, during such Time as he shall continue in the Business and Practice of an Attorney, Solicitor or Proctor.

Attornies, Solicitors and Proctors incapacitated.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, who shall not be qualified according to the Directions of this Act, shall after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three accept or take upon himself the Office of a Justice of the Peace, or shall do any Act as such, the Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; one Moiety whereof shall be to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as will sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no Essoign, Protection, Wager of Law or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

Persons acting as Justices not so qualified, to forfeit 100 l.

IV. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to any City or Town, being a County of itself, or to any other City, Town, Cinque Port or Liberty having Justices of the Peace within their respective Limits and Precincts by Charter, Commission or otherwise; but that in every such City, Town, Liberty and Place such Persons may be capable to be Justices of the Peace, and in such Manner only as they might have been, if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Not to extend to Cities which are Counties, or other Places having Justices by Charter,

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to incapacitate any Peer or Lord of Parliament, or the eldest Son or Heir apparent of any Peer or Lord of Parliament, or of any Person qualified to serve as Knight of a Shire by an Act, intituled, An Act to secure the Freedom of Parliaments by the further qualifying Members to sit in the House of Commons, to be a Justice of the Peace for any County, or to act as such; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

nor to the eldest Sons of Peers, or of Knights of Shires,
9 Ann. c. 5.

VI. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to incapacitate or exclude the Officers of the Board of Green Cloth from being Justices of the Peace within the Verge of his Majesty's Palaces, or to incapacitate or exclude the Commissioners and principal Officers of the Navy, or the two Under Secretaries in each of the Offices of Principal Secretary of State, from being Justices of the Peace in and for such Maritime Counties and Places where they usually have been Justices of the Peace; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

nor to the Board of Green Cloth, or principal Officers of the Navy,

VII. Provided always, That this Act, nor any Thing herein contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to any of the Heads of Colleges or Halls in either of the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, but that they may be made Justices of the Peace of and in the several Counties of Oxford, Berks and Cambridge, and the Cities and Towns within the same, and execute the Office thereof as fully and freely in all Respects, as heretofore they have lawfully used to execute the same, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

nor to Heads of Colleges in either University.

C A P. XIX.

An Act to oblige the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions to determine Appeals made to them according to the Merits of the Case, notwithstanding Defects of Form in the original Proceedings; and to oblige Persons suing forth Writs of Certiorari to remove Orders made on such Appeals into his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, to give Security to prosecute the same with Effect.

After 24 June
1732, Justices may rectify Defects of Form on Appeals,

and may proceed to determine them.

No Certiorari to be allowed to remove Justices Orders, without a Recognizance of 50 l. to prosecute to Effect.

On Refusal of Recognizance Justices to proceed.

Recognizances to be certified into the King's Bench.

Attachment for Contempt.

WHEREAS in many Cases where his Majesty's Justices of the Peace by Law are impowered to give or make Judgments or Orders, great Expences have been occasioned by reason that such Judgments or Orders have, on Appeals to the Justices of the Peace at their respective General or Quarter Sessions, been quashed or set aside upon Exceptions or Objections to the Form or Forms of the Proceedings, without hearing or examining the Truth and Merits of the Matter in Question between the Parties concerned: Therefore to prevent the same for the future, may it please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, upon all Appeals to be made to the Justices of the Peace at their respective General or Quarter Sessions to be holden for any County, Riding, City, Liberty or Precinct, within that Part of Great Britain called England, against Judgments or Orders given or made by any Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, such Justices so assembled at any General or Quarter Sessions shall and they are hereby required from Time to Time, within their respective Jurisdictions, upon all and every such Appeals so made to them, to cause any Defect or Defects of Form that shall be found in any such original Judgments or Orders, to be rectified and amended without any Cost or Charge to the Parties concerned, and after such Amendment made shall proceed to hear, examine and consider the Truth and Merits of all Matters concerning such original Judgments or Orders, and likewise to examine all Witnesses upon Oath, and hear all other Proofs relating thereto, and to make such Determinations thereupon as by Law they should or ought to have done, in case there had not been such Defect or Want of Form in the original Proceeding; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And whereas divers Writs of Certiorari have been procured to remove such Judgments or Orders into his Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster, in Hopes thereby to discourage and weary out the Parties concerned in such Judgments or Orders by great Delays and Expences: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Certiorari shall be allowed to remove any such Judgment or Order, unless the Party or Parties prosecuting such Certiorari, before the Allowance thereof, shall enter into a Recognizance with sufficient Sureties before one or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Place, or before the Justices at their General Quarter Sessions or General Sessions where such Judgment or Order shall have been given or made, or before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the said Court of King's Bench, in the Sum of fifty Pounds, with Condition to prosecute the same at his or their own Costs and Charges with Effect, without any wilful or affected Delay, and to pay the Party or Parties, in whose Favour and for whose Benefit such Judgment or Order was given or made, within one Month after the said Judgment or Order shall be confirmed, their full Costs and Charges, to be taxed according to the Course of the Court where such Judgments or Orders shall be confirmed; and in case the Party or Parties prosecuting such Certiorari shall not enter into such Recognizance, or shall not perform the Conditions aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices to proceed and make such further Order or Orders for the Benefit of the Party or Parties for whom such Judgment shall be given, in such Manner as if no Certiorari had been granted.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Recognizance and Recognizances to be taken as aforesaid shall be certified into the Court of King's Bench at Westminster, and there filed with the Certiorari and Order, or Judgment removed thereby; and if the said Order or Judgment shall be confirmed by the said Court, the Persons intitled to such Costs for the Recovery thereof, within ten Days after Demand made of the Person or Persons who ought to pay the said Costs, upon Oath made of the making such Demand and Refusal of Payment thereof, shall have an Attachment granted against him or them by the said Court for such Contempt, and the said Recognizance so given, upon the allowing of such Certiorari, shall not be discharged, until the Costs shall be paid, and the Order so confirmed shall be complied with and obeyed.

C A P. XX.

An Act for the better Regulation and Government of Pilots licensed by the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond in the County of Kent, and to prevent Mischiefs and Annoyances upon the River of Thames below London Bridge.

WHEREAS the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Guild, Fraternity or Brotherhood of the most glorious and undivided Trinity, and of Saint Clement, in the Parish of Deptford Strond in the County of Kent, have for above two hundred Years last past been a Corporation, and by long Usage and by Virtue of divers Letters Patent granted to them by the Crown, been authorized and impowered to appoint Pilots, Loadsmen or Guides to conduct Ships and Vessels out of the Rivers of Thames and Medway through the North Chanel to or by Orfordness, and round the Long Sand-head into the Downs, and from and by Orfordness up the North Chanel and the Rivers of Thames and Medway, and also to make such Orders and Constitutions as should be necessary for the wholesome Government, Maintenance and Increase of Navigation, and of all Seafaring Men coming or being within the River of Thames, and in Pursuance of such Powers and by ancient Usage have, from Time to Time, appointed a competent Number of Pilots for the Purposes before-mentioned, and made Orders, from Time to Time, for the better Regulation and Government of the same, and also for preventing Mischiefs, Damages and Annoyances upon the said River; but divers Persons, without Examination, Licence or Authority by or from the said Corporation, have taken upon themselves to act as Pilots or Loadsmen, and to conduct and guide Ships and Vessels to and from the several Places aforesaid, to the great Hazard of such Ships and Vessels and their Cargoes, and the Lives of the Persons on board the same, and to the Obstruction of Navigation within the said Limits, and the the Prejudice of lawful and licensed Pilots, who attend wholly on that Service, and on which their Livelihood chiefly depends: And whereas great Losses by Fire may happen to Merchants and Owners of Ships, occasioned by Powder being taken in and remaining on board while Ships lie in the River of Thames, and by heating of Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Grease, Tallow, Oil and other combustible Matters and Things on board Ships and other Vessels lying in the said River: And whereas by the keeping Guns shotted on board Ships lying in the said River, and by firing Guns in the Night-time, not only the Ships lying in the said River, but also his Majesty's Docks and Yards, and the Tower and City of London, and the Lives of divers Persons, may be greatly endangered: And whereas the Powers and Authorities vested in the said Corporation are found not sufficient or effectual to remedy and prevent the Mischiefs and ill Practices before-mentioned: Therefore for promoting and securing a more safe Navigation for Ships and Vessels in the River of Thames, and for the more effectual preventing and remedying the Dangers, Mischiefs and Annoyances upon the said River below London Bridge, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, if any Person shall take upon himself the Charge of any Ship or Vessel as Pilot down the River of Thames, or through the North Chanel to or by Orfordness, or round the Long Sand-head into the Downs, or down the South Chanel into the Downs, or from or by Orfordness up the North Chanel, or the River of Thames, or the River Medway, other than such Person as shall be licensed and authorized to act as a Pilot by the said Master, Wardens and Assistants for the Time being, under the Common Seal of the Corporation, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted before any two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the City of London, or the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent or Surrey, or any of them, within their respective Jurisdictions, in Manner herein after mentioned, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds: Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the obliging of any Master or Owner of any Ship in the Coal Trade, or other Coasting Trade, to employ or make use of any Pilot.

After 24 June 1732, none to act as Pilots on the Thames, &c. without Licence.

Penalty 20 l. Not to extend to Colliers, &c.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Master or Commander of any Ship or other Vessel whatsoever outward bound, shall receive, or cause or permit to be received on board any such Ship or Vessel any Gunpowder, either as Merchandise, or as Store or Ammunition for the Voyage (except for his Majesty's Service) before such Ship or Vessel shall be at, or over-against, or below Blackwall, upon Pain of forfeiting for every fifty Pounds Weight of Gunpowder to be so shipped or received on board such Ship or Vessel the Sum of five Pounds, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

No Gunpowder to be put on board above Blackwall.

Penalty.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master or Commander of every Ship or Vessel coming into the River Thames shall land and put on shore, or cause to be landed and put on shore, all the Powder on board such Ship or Vessel, either before the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at Blackwall, or within twenty-four Hours, in case the Weather shall permit, after such Ship or Vessel shall come to an Anchor there, or at the Place of her Unloading, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Pounds for every fifty Pounds Weight of Gunpowder found on board, and in the like Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and if any Gunpowder shall be found on board any such Ship or Vessel above Blackwall, after the Time hereby limited for unloading the same, the Master or Commander of every such Ship or Vessel shall, for every fifty Pounds Weight of Gunpowder so found on board, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

Ships coming into the Thames to land their Powder before Arrival at Blackwall.

Penalty.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Master or Commander, or other Officer of any Ship or Vessel (except his Majesty's Ships) shall, while such Ship or Vessel shall lie or be in the River of Thames between London Bridge and Blackwall, keep any Gun or Guns of and belonging to such Ship or Vessel shotted or loaded with Ball, or shall fire or discharge, or cause or permit to be fired or discharged, any Gun or Guns on board such Ship or Vessel lying above Blackwall, before Sun rising or after Sun setting, such Master, Commander or Officer shall for every such Gun so kept shotted or loaded forfeit the Sum of five Shillings; and for every Gun so fired or discharged the Sum of ten Shillings: And also, That if any Master, Commander or other Officer of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Person on board the same shall, while such Ship or Vessel shall lie or be in the River of Thames between London Bridge and Blackwall, heat or melt, or cause or permit to be heated or melted by Fire, Logger Heat, Shot or any other Thing, on board any such Ship or Vessel, any Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Grease, Tallow, Oil or other such combustible Matter or Things, every Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

No Ship Guns to be fired between London Bridge and Blackwall after Setting of the Sun.

Penalty.

No Pitch, Tar, &c. to be melted on board such Vessels.

Penalty.

V. And for the better Discovery of the Offenders against this Act, and bringing them to condign Punishment, and ascertaining and recovering the Penalties hereby inflicted and directed to be levied, It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Master, Wardens and Assistants for the Time being, by Instrument or Instruments under their Common Seal, to authorize and appoint any elder Brother of the said Corporation to go in a Boat between the Sun rising and Sun setting to any Ship or Vessel, and to enter and go on board the same (his Majesty's Ships always excepted) in order to search for Powder, Guns shotted, and the heating and melting such combustible Matters as aforesaid, within the Limits wherein such Offences are respectively by this Act prohibited; and if the Master, Commander or other Officer in any such Ship or Vessel shall, upon Demand in that Behalf made, refuse to permit, or shall not permit any Person or Persons so authorized and appointed for the respective Services as aforesaid, to enter into and come on board such Ship or Vessel, and make a due and proper Search and Examination for the Purposes aforesaid, every such Master, Commander or other Officer shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

Corporation to appoint a Person to inspect Vessels;

Penalty on obstructing him.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the pecuniary Forfeitures and Penalties arising and imposed by this Act shall be paid, disposed of and applied for the Benefit of the Poor of the said Corporation.

Penalties to be applied to the Use of the Poor of the Corporation.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for two or more Justices of the Peace in the City of London, or any of the four Counties above-mentioned, within their respective Jurisdictions, not being Mem- bers of the said Corporation, to hear and determine any of the Offences against this Act; and such Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhib- ited or Complaint made in that Behalf within ten Days after any such Offence committed, to summon the Party or Parties accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, or after Oath made of the Commission of any of the Facts above-mentioned, by one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to issue a Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Party offend- ing in the said City of London, or any of the Counties within their respective Jurisdictions, or upon the River of Thames within any of the Limits above mentioned, and upon the appear- ance or Contempt of the Party accused in not appearing (upon the Proof of Notice given) to proceed to the Examination of the Witness or Witnesses on Oath (which Oath they are hereby authorized, impowered and required to administer) and to give Judgment or Sentence accordingly; and where the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence, either by the View of the said Justices or any of them, or upon such Information as aforesaid, or on Con- fession of the Party accused, to award and issue Warrants for the levying any pecuniary Pe- nalties so adjudged on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within five Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any there be, and where Goods of such Offenders cannot be found, to commit such Offender to Prison, there to remain for the Space of three Months, or until such pecuniary Penalty or Penalties shall be paid; and if any Person or Persons shall find himself or themselves ag- grieved, or remain unsatisfied in the Judgment of the said Justices, then such Person or Per- sons shall and may by virtue of this Act complain or appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next Quarter-Sessions, for the County, City or Place wherein such Offence shall be committed, who are hereby impowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same, and in case of Conviction to issue Warrants for levying or compelling, by such Means as aforesaid, the Payment of the said Penalties.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every the Pilot and Pilots already ad- mitted and appointed, or hereafter to be admitted and appointed by the said Corporation, shall, from Time to Time, and at all times hereafter, be subject to the Regulation and Go- vernment of the said Corporation; provided such Regulations do not relate to the Pilots keeping of Turns, or to the settling the Rates of Pilotage; and shall pay the ancient and accustomed Dues, provided the same do not exceed one Shilling in the Pound, out of their respective Wages, Loadmanage or Pilotage, which they shall respectively receive, for the Use and Benefit of the Poor of the said Corporation, within ten Days after the Service of such Pilots respectively shall be ended, unto such Person or Persons as by the Corporation shall, from Time to Time, be appointed to receive the same.

IX. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such Pilot or Pi- lots shall refuse to take the Charge or Conduct of any of his Majesty's Ships, when appointed thereto by Order of the said Corporation, or that it shall appear to the Corporation, that such Pilot or Pilots shall have misbehaved themselves in the Conduct of any Ship or Ships, or in the Execution of any other Part of their Duty as Pilots, or if such Pilot or Pilots shall re- fuse to obey any Summons of the said Corporation requiring their Appearance, or to obey such Orders as the said Corporation shall make in the Premises, or in any wise offend against this Act, then the General Court of the said Corporation, upon Examination thereof, are hereby authorized and required to recall the Warrant or Warrants granted to such Pilot or Pilots, and to declare the same to be from thenceforth utterly void; and if any such Person or Persons so offending shall (after such Declaration and Notice thereof given by the Clerk of the said Corporation to him or them in Person, or left at his or their usual Place of Abode) act as a Pilot within the Limits aforesaid mentioned, he or they shall be subject to all the Penalties inflicted on Persons acting as unlicensed Pilots by this Act, to be levied in manner aforesaid.

X. And whereas by the frequently laying up and mooring of Ships and other Vessels in the Mouth and other Parts of Saint Saviours Dock in the County of Surrey, great Quantities of Soil and Mud have settled and lodged there, which obstructs the passing and repassing of Ships and Vessels in and out of the said Dock; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Ship or Ves- sel shall, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty- two, be laid up or moored in the Mouth or any Part of the said Dock (except such Ships or Vessels as shall be loading or taking in or unloading or delivering their Cargoes respectively, and also except such Ships or Vessels, not exceeding two in Number at any one time, as shall lie at the Ward called Shipwright Yard, at the North-West Corner of the said Dock, during the Time such Ships and Vessels shall be repairing and no longer) the Master or Owner of every such Ship or Vessel so laid up or moored, shall forfeit and pay for every Day such Ship or Vessel shall so continue to be laid up and moored (unless for the Purposes aforesaid) the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered, applied and disposed of in such Manner and for such Purposes, as the other pecuniary Penalties inflicted by this Act are directed to be recovered and applied.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to the taking away, abridging, defeating, impeaching or interrupting of any Grants, Liberties, Franchises and Privileges heretofore granted to or which by any ancient Usage and Custom have from Time to Time been enjoyed and used by the Pilots of the Trinity House of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, or the Trinity House of Newcastle upon Tyne.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That this Act or any thing therein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to the taking away, lessening, abridging, prejudicing or impeaching any of the Grants, Liberties, Franchises, Powers, Au- thorities or Immunities, nor to lessen or take away the sole Right and Privilege of piloting all Merchant Ships and Vessels from or by Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, up the Rivers Thames and Medway, granted, given and allowed to the Society and Fellowship of the Master, Warden and Pilots of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, by an Act of Parliament Parliament made the third Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE, intituled, An Act for the better regulating of Pilots for the conducting of Ships and Vessels from Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, up the Rivers of Thames and Medway, which said Act, together with a Clause contained in an Act of the seventh Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further preventing his Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East-Indies under Foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto, and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, was further confirmed and continued by an Act of the tenth Year of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for continuing Acts for preventing Theft and Rapine on the Northern Borders of England, and for better regulating of Pilots, and for regulating the Assize of Bread, and for better Encouragement of the making of Sail Cloth in Great Britain, all which Grants, Liberties, Franchises, Powers, Authorities and Immunities as before expressed, and the said sole Right and Privilege of Pilotage as aforesaid, are hereby declared and enacted to remain wholly untouched, and to continue in as full Force and Virtue to them the said Master, Wardens and Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, as if this present Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act, of which all Judges, Justices and other Persons are to take notice; and if any Suit or Action shall be brought or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any thing done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, that in every such Case the Action or Suit shall be commenced within three Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid or brought in the County, City or Place where the cause of Action arises, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, Not Guilty, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear so to be done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County, City or Place, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her or their Action or Actions, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or take away any Right, Property or Jurisdiction of the Mayor, or of the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, to, in and upon the River of Thames aforesaid.

XV. Provided also, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to abridge, prejudice or derogate from any Right, Authority or Jurisdiction belonging to the Office of Lord High Admiral; but that the same shall be and continue in the same State and Condition as before the making of this Act.

C A P. XXI.

An additional Act for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, by the more effectual preventing the unlawful Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures of the Kingdom of Ireland to foreign Parts.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wool out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England, and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England, certain Ships and Sloops are directed to cruize on the Coasts of England and Ireland, particularly between the North of Ireland and Scotland, with Orders to take and seize all Ships, Vessels and Boats, which shall export any Wool, with intent to carry it into foreign Parts, but the Commanders of such Ships and Sloops are not thereby authorized to seize Ships, Vessels and Boats, which shall export any Woollen Manufactures from Ireland into foreign Parts, the Exportation whereof is nevertheless prohibited by Law, and are discouraged by other Restrictions in the said Act from putting the same in Execution; Therefore, to render the said Act more effectual, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, shall from Time to Time direct and appoint three Ships of the sixth Rate, and eight or more armed Sloops, constantly to cruize on the Coasts of Great Britain and Ireland, in such Stations as the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for the Time being, shall assign to such Ships and Sloops respectively, with Orders for taking and seizing all Ships, Vessels and Boats, in which any Worsted, Bay or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serges, Bays, Kerseys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth Serges, Shalloons or any other Drapery Stuffs or Woollen Manufactures whatsoever, made up or mixed with Wool or Wool-flocks, shall be exported or laden in order to be exported from Ireland into foreign Parts; and that the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for the Time being, shall send a List of such Ships and Sloops, and the Names of the Commanders thereof, together with true Copies of the several Instructions to them given, within ten Days after the Date of the said Orders, to his Majesty's Commissioners for the Management of the Customs in Great Britain, and to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue in Ireland.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commander of every such Ship and Sloop in any Port, Creek or Road, or in the open Sea, within the Limits of the Station which shall be assigned to such Ship or Sloop as aforesaid, to enter and search or cause to be entered and searched, any Ship, Vessel or Boat; and if upon such Search any of the said prohibited Commodities shall be found therein, and the Master or Commander of such Ship, Vessel or Boat, shall not immediately produce to the Commander of such Ship or Sloop a lawful Cocket or Warrant, licensing the Exportation or Transportation thereof, to take and seize such Ship, Vessel or Boat, and to carry the same, together with the Crew and Cargo thereof, into any Port in Great Britain or Ireland.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Ship, Vessel or Boat so taken and seized, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, and all the said prohibited Commodities which shall be found therein, shall be forfeited, and the said prohibited Commodities shall be lodged in the King's Warehouse in such Port into which such Ship, Vessel or Boat shall be carried as aforesaid, until it shall be condemned according to Law, and being so condemned, shall be exposed publicly to sale, after one and twenty Days publick Notice thereof in Writing, being affixed upon the Custom-house of the said Port, by Inch of Candle, to the last and best Bidder; and that every such Ship, Vessel or Boat, and all the Guns, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel thereof, shall after Condemnation thereof be exposed to sale in like manner; and that one fourth Part of the Produce of such Sale or Sales shall be to the Commander of the Ship or Sloop, that shall make such Seizure as aforesaid, one other fourth Part to the other Officers of such Ship or Sloop, one other fourth Part to the Mariners thereof, to be equally distributed to the said Mariners by the chief Officer of the Customs in the said Port, or by such Person or Persons as shall be authorized to make such Sale or Sales as aforesaid, and the other fourth Part thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, after a Deduction made out of the last fourth Part for all the Charges of Prosecution and Condemnation: Provided always, That if such Seizure shall be made upon the Information of any Person or Persons, such Informer or Informers shall not only be indemnified from the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which Exporters of the said prohibited Commodities, their Aiders and Abettors are liable, but shall also receive one fifth Part of the Produce of such Sale or Sales, and the Residue thereof shall be divided into four equal Parts, and distributed in such Manner as is herein before directed.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action shall be commenced against any Person for what he shall do in pursuance of this Act, such Person shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue the Action, or if a Verdict shall pass against him, or Judgment be given against him upon a Demurrer, the Defendant shall recover treble Costs.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be admitted to claim Property in any Seizure that shall be made upon any Clause in this or any Act of Parliament for preventing the unlawful Exportation of Woollen Goods from Ireland, till he or they shall first have given sufficient Security by Recognizance entered into before one of the Commissioners of the Revenue in Ireland, or one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in England, to answer the Penalties attending the Forfeiture thereof.

VI. And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for continuing several Laws therein mentioned, and for explaining the Act, intituled, An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wool out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into Foreign Parts, and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England, it is enacted and declared, That neither the said Act made in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, nor any thing therein contained, shall be construed to extend to subject any Person or Persons, or any Ship or Vessel, to any of the Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, in the said Act contained, for or touching such Woolfells, Shorlings or Mortlings, as shall be necessary for the Use of the Gunner or Boat-swain's Stores, for the Ship or Vessel only, and as for so much Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerseys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth Serges, Shalloons or other Drapery Stuffs, or other Manufactures, as shall be for the proper Use for Clothes only of any Mariner or Passenger, for his or her Wearing Apparel or Furniture, on Board such Ship in the Voyage, and shall not exceed in the whole, for any one Mariner or Passenger, the Value of forty Shillings: And whereas under pretence of the Exemption in the said Clause contained, great Quantities of Woolfells, Shorlings and Mortlings, and of Cloth, Serge, Bays, Says, Kerseys, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth Serges, Shalloons or other Drapery Stuffs, or other Manufactures, have been exported from Ireland into Foreign Parts, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause shall from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, be and is hereby repealed.

VII. Provided always, That this Act or any thing therein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to disannul or make void any other Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by any former Law, upon the Exportation of Wool and Woollen Manufactures, or to alter or repeal any Clause therein contained, which is not hereby altered or repealed; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXII.

An Act to prevent the Exportation of Hats out of any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America and to restrain the Number of Apprentices taken by the Hat-makers in the said Colonies or Plantations, and for the better encouraging the making Hats in Great Britain.

WHEREAS the Art and Mystery of making Hats in Great Britain hath arrived to great Perfection, and considerable Quantities of Hats manufactured in this Kingdom have heretofore been exported to his Majesty's Plantations or Colonies in America, who have been wholly supplied with Hats from Great Britain; and whereas great Quantities of Hats have of late Years been made, and the said Manufacture is daily increasing in the British Plantations in America, and is from thence exported to foreign Markets, which were heretofore supplied from Great Britain, and the Hat-makers in the said Plantations take many Apprentices for very small Terms, to the Discouragement of the said Trade, and debasing the said Manufacture: Wherefore for preventing the said ill Practices for the future, and for promoting and encouraging the Trade of making Hats in Great Britain, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, no Hats or Felts whatsoever, dyed or undyed, finished or unfinished, shall be shipped, loaden or put on Board any Ship or Vessel in any Place or Parts within any of the British Plantations, upon any Pretence whatsoever, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, and After 29 Sep.

1732, no Hats or Felts to be transported from British Plantations.

and also that no Hats or Felts, either dyed or undyed, finished or unfinished, shall be laden upon any Horse, Cart or other Carriage, to the Intent or Purpose to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried or conveyed out of any of the said British Plantations to any other of the British Plantations, or to any other Place whatsoever, by any Person or Persons whatsoever.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Offender and Offenders, Offence and Offences against this Act, shall be subject and liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures herein after mentioned, that is to say, The said Hats or Felts dyed or undyed, finished or unfinished, so exported, transported, shipped off, carried, conveyed or laden contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited, and that every of the Offender and Offenders therein shall likewise forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds for every such Offence committed; and every Master, Mariner, Porter, Carter, Waggoner, Boatman, or other Person whatsoever knowing such Offence, and wittingly aiding and assisting therein, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Pounds; which said several Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or in such of the said Plantations wherein such Offence shall be committed (in which Suit no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparllance shall be allowed) and shall go and be applied, one Moiety to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her or them, that shall sue for the same.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to seize, take, secure and convey to his Majesty's next Warehouse all such Hats and Felts dyed or undyed, finished or unfinished, as he or they shall happen to see, find, know or discover to be laid on Board in any Ship, Vessel or Boat, or to be brought, carried or laid on Shore, at or near the Sea, or in any navigable River or Water, to the Intent or Purpose to be exported or conveyed out of the said Plantations, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or to be laden upon any Horse, Cart or other Carriage to the Intent or Purpose to be exported, conveyed or carried into any other of the said Plantations, or into any other Part or Place whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and that such Person or Persons, that shall happen so to seize, take or secure any of the Commodities aforesaid, shall be indemnified for so doing to all Intents and Purposes.

Prohibited Hats and Felts to be seized and carried to the King's Warehouse.

Seizers indemnified.

IV. And to the Intent and Purpose that this Act may more effectually be put in Execution, for preventing the growing Mischiefs that daily do or may arise to this Kingdom, from the Exportation of such Goods as aforesaid, or any of them, out of the British Plantations, should the same still be suffered to be sent from thence to supply other Plantations and Foreign Markets, that are or have been supplied from Great Britain:

Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Commissioner or Commissioners, or other Officer or Officers of the Customs of any Port or Place within the British Plantations, or any Farmer or Farmers of the Revenue of the Customs arising in the Plantations, or any Officer or Officers employed in the Management of the said Revenue, shall, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, take or suffer to be taken any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket, Warrant or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting any Hats or Felts dyed or undyed, finished or unfinished, or shall wittingly and willingly permit, contrive or suffer the same to be done, directly or indirectly, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that then and in every such case, such Commissioner or Commissioners, Farmer or Farmers, Officer or Officers so signing such Cocket, Warrant or Sufferance, or passing such Entry for the same, or any wise conniving thereat, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, shall for every such Offence or Neglect, forfeit his Office, and shall moreover for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and applied in Manner and Form as aforesaid.

Officers of Customs, &c. permitting Entries of such Hats or Felts, forfeit Office, and 500 l.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Offence committed against this Act shall and may be inquired of, tried, heard and determined, in the County where any such Goods shall be so laden or put on Board as aforesaid, or else in the County or Place either in Great Britain or the Plantations where such Offender shall happen to be apprehended or arrested for such Offence, or where any of the Goods aforesaid shall happen to be seized, taken or brought in; and that the said Trial shall be in such Manner and Form, and in such Effect to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Offence had been wholly done and committed in the same County or Place where the same shall be tried by virtue and in pursuance of this Act.

Offences where to be tried.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person for what he shall do in pursuance of this Act, such Person so sued shall and may file common Ball or enter into a common Appearance, and plead the General Issue, Not Guilty, and, upon Issue joined, may give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become Nonsuit, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him, or if upon Demurrer Judgment pass against him, the Defendant shall recover treble Costs and Damages.

General Issue.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person residing in any of his Majesty's Plantations in America shall, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, make or cause to be made, any Felt or Hat of or with any Wool or Stuff whatsoever, unless he shall have first served as an Apprentice in the Trade or Art of Felt-making during the Space of seven Years at the least; neither shall any Felt-maker or Hat-maker in any of the said Plantations employ, retain or set to work, in the said Art or Trade, any Person as a Journeyman or hired Servant, other than such as shall have lawfully served an Apprenticeship in the said Trade for the Space of seven Years; nor shall any Felt-maker or Hat-maker in any of the said Plantations have, take or keep above the Number of two Apprentices at one Time, or take any Apprentice for any less Term than seven Years, upon pain to forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for every Month that he shall continue offending in the Premises contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, of which one Moiety shall go and be applied to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Society thereof to such Person or Persons as will sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, to be commenced, brought or prosecuted in any Court in the said Plantations, wherein no Escoin, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be admitted or allowed for the Defendant.

Penalty on im-ploying Negroes.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons inhabiting in the said Plantations, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, shall retain or set on Work, in the said Art of Hat or Felt making, any Black or Negro, upon Pain to forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for every Month wherein such Person or Persons shall so offend, contrary to the Meaning of this Act; and to be recovered and applied in Manner, and to the Uses aforesaid.

Sons may work in their Fathers Houses.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge any Person or Persons lawfully exercising the said Art, with any Penalty or Forfeiture for setting or using his or their own Son or Sons to the making or working Hats or Felts in his or their own House or Houses, so as every such Son or Sons be bound by Indenture of Apprenticeship, for the Term of seven Years at the least, which Term shall not be to expire before he shall be of the full Age of twenty-one Years; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Exceptions
touching Houf-holders and Journymen.

X. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Felt-maker residing in the said Plantations, who at the Beginning of this present Session of Parliament was a Maker or Worker of Hats or Felts, and being an Householder, and likewise all such as were at the Beginning of this present Session Apprentices, Covenant Servants, or Journey-men in the same Art or Mystery of Felt-making, so as such Apprentices serve or make up their respective Apprenticeships, shall and may continue and exercise the Trade or Art of making Hats and Felts in the said Plantations, although the same Persons were not bound Apprentices to the same Art for the Term of seven Years; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Publick Act.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Act shall be deemed, and is hereby declared to be a publick Act, of which all Judges and Justices are to take Notice without special pleading the same.

Contract with
W. Smith.

Premises, expectant on the Death of the said John Radcliffe, without Issue Male of his Body, was also vested in the said Commissioners and Trustees, the said George Gregory, Sir Thomas Hales, Henry Cunningham, Denis Bond, John Birch, and Sir John Eyles, in Execution of the Powers and Authorities afore mentioned, and for and in Consideration of one thousand and sixty Pounds, for which the said William Smith contracted with them, not only for the Purchase of the same Premises for the Remainder in Tail Male, so forfeited by the Attainder of the said Charles Radcliffe, and the Reversion in Fee so forfeited by the Attainder of the said James late Earl of Derwentwater, but also for the Purchase of a Remainder limited by another Settlement to the said Charles Radcliffe and his Issue Male, and the Reversion in Fee to the said James late Earl of Derwentwater, of and in the Barony of Langley, and divers Lands and Hereditaments mentioned in the Indenture of Bargain and Sale, herein last before recited, did bargain and sell all and singular the Manors, Lordships, Hamlets, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Mills, Rectories, Tithes and other the Premises in the said Settlement of the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-one comprized, with their and every of their Appurtenances, unto the said William Smith (whom the said Commissioners and Trustees did thereby declare and confirm the Purchaser thereof, he having bid most for the same, on the publick Sale by Cant or Auction had for that Purpose, according to the last mentioned Act of Parliament) and his Heirs, to hold to him, his Heirs and Assigns (in case the said John Radcliffe should happen to die without Issue Male of his Body) for and during the natural Life of the said Charles Radcliffe, and so long as he should have Issue Male of his Body; and in case the said William Radcliffe and Arthur Radcliffe should both happen to die without Issue Male of their respective Bodies, then to hold the same Premises unto the said William Smith, his Heirs and Assigns, to the Use of him, his Heirs and Assigns for ever: And whereas by Indenture bearing Date the said twenty-eighth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and made between the same Commissioners and Trustees of the one Part, and Matthew White of Blagdon in the County of Northumberland, Esquire, of the other Part, reciting the said Deed Poll of the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-nine, and the Attainder of Charles Radcliffe, and that the said Annuity or yearly Rent of two hundred Pounds so granted to him for his Life, and all Arrears thereof, were vested in the said Commissioners and Trustees for the Uses afore mentioned; the said George Gregory, Sir Thomas Hales, Henry Cunningham, Denis Bond, John Birch and Sir John Eyles, in Execution of the Trusts, Powers and Authorities afore mentioned, and for and in Consideration of one thousand two hundred and one Pounds one Shilling, for which the said Matthew White had contracted with the said Commissioners and Trustees, for the Purchase of the said Annuity or yearly Rent of two hundred Pounds, during the Life of the said Charles Radcliffe, and the Arrears thereof, from the Time of his Attainder, did bargain and sell the said Annuity or yearly Rent of two hundred Pounds so granted to the said Charles Radcliffe for his Life as aforesaid, and all Benefits, Privileges, Advantages, Powers and Authorities, which they the said Commissioners and Trustees could, might or ought to have or claim for the raising, levying, taking, receiving and recovering the said Annuity or yearly Rent of two hundred Pounds issuing out of and charged upon the Barony, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in the Counties of Northumberland and Cumberland, therein particularly mentioned and described, together with the Arrears thereof, incurred and grown due from the Time of the Attainder of the said Charles Radcliffe, to the Day of the Date of the said Indenture, unto the said Matthew White (whom the said Commissioners and Trustees did thereby declare and confirm the Purchaser thereof, he having bid most for the same on the publick Sale, by Cant or Auction had for that Purpose, according to the aforesaid Act of Parliament) and his Heirs and Assigns, to hold to him, his Heirs and Assigns during the natural Life of the said Charles Radcliffe: And whereas the said William Smith did on the eleventh Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, contract to purchase the Estate mentioned in a Particular published by the said Commissioners and Trustees, and which contained the Barony and all the Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments comprized in the said two recited Indentures, dated the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-one, and the twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve respectively, for the Continuance of an Estate in Tail Male, vested in Charles Radcliffe, in Remainder expectant on the Death of John Radcliffe under Age and without Issue Male; which Contract was, on the thirtieth of the same July, vacated and torn out of the Book of Contracts, and a new one then procured, and dated as on the eleventh of July, by which the said William Smith not only obtained the said Remainder in Tail, but also the Reversion in Fee of the said Estate, for the Sum of one thousand and sixty Pounds, although a sufficient Number of Commissioners and Trustees, as required by Act of Parliament, was not present either on the eleventh or thirtieth of the said July, nor had any Notice been given of exposing to Sale the Reversion in Fee of the said Estate: And whereas the said Matthew White was, on the thirtieth of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, declared the Purchaser of the said Annuity of two hundred Pounds during the Life of the said Charles Radcliffe, and of all the Arrears thereof from his Attainder, for one thousand two hundred and one Pounds one Shilling, without due Notice of Time or Place for exposing such Annuity to Sale, and without the Presence of a sufficient Number of Commissioners and Trustees so required as aforesaid, and the said William Smith and Matthew White were present on the said thirtieth of July, when Samuel Allen Secretary of the said Commissioners and Trustees signed the Names of Sir Thomas Hales and Sir John Eyles to the said respective pretended Contracts made with the said William Smith and Matthew White respectively; and when no other of the said Commissioners and Trustees were present, but the said Denis Bond and John Birch; and whereas the contracting for the Sale of the aforesaid Estates by a less Number of Commissioners and Trustees than four, and the not giving fifteen Days Notice at least of such Sales, was a manifest Violation of the Act of Parliament for the Sale of the said Estates, highly injurious to the Publick, and a notorious Breach of the Trust reposed in such Commissioners and Trustees; and whereas the said Commissioners and Trustees did, by an Order or pretended Order, signed with the Names of the said Commissioners and Trustees, and dated the eleventh Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, direct the said William Smith to pay the Sum of two hundred and twelve Pounds, Part of the said Sum of one thousand and sixty Pounds, into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, on or before the first Day of August then next, and the further Sum of eight hundred and forty-eight Pounds, Residue thereof, on or before the twenty-eighth Day of September then next, for the Purchase of the said Estate so contracted or pretended to be contracted to be sold to him, and which said Sums were by him paid accordingly; and the said Commissioners and Trustees did, by another Order or pretended Order, signed with the Names of the said Commissioners and Trustees, dated the thirtieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, direct the said Matthew White to pay the Sum of two hundred and forty-one Pounds four Shillings and two Pence, Part of the said Sum of one thousand two hundred and one Pounds one Shilling, into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, on or before the second Day

Day of August then next, and the further Sum of nine hundred and sixty Pounds sixteen Shillings and ten Pence, Residue thereof, on or before the twenty-eighth Day of September then next, for the Purchase of the said Annuity so contracted or pretended to be contracted to be sold to him, and which said Sums were by him paid accordingly: And whereas the said Contracts and Sales were unduly and fraudulently made and obtained, Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Sales declared to be illegally made, and set aside. M. White to account for Arrears, and be repaid with Interest. W. Smith to be repaid. New Sale of the Premises to be made by Direction of the Court of Exchequer. Purchasers to have Seisin and Possession. Premises to be held of his Majesty. Treasury may collect and sue for Arrears till Sale. The Interests of his Majesty, and of all others, in the Premises saved.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act for encouraging the Growth of Coffee in his Majesty's Plantations in America.

WHEREAS there is great Reason to believe that the Soil and Climate of the Island of Jamaica, and of other British Plantations in America, are proper for the Growth of Coffee, and that great Quantities of that Commodity may be produced in the said Plantations, and from thence imported into this Kingdom, if Encouragement be given for that Purpose, to the great Advantage not only of the said Plantations, but likewise of this Kingdom: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate and Cocoa Paste imported, and for granting certain inland Duties in Lieu thereof, and for prohibiting the Importation of Chocolate ready made, and Cocoa Paste, and for better ascertaining the Duties payable upon Coffee, Tea and Cocoa Nuts imported; and for granting Relief to Robert Dalzell late Earl of Carnwath, it was enacted and declared, That the several Duties upon Coffee then payable by an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, and by one other Act of Parliament made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, should cease, determine and be no longer paid or payable; and that an Inland Duty should be charged and imposed upon all Coffee to be sold in Great Britain, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, after the Rate of two Shillings per Pound Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above all Customs, Subsidies and Duties which then remained payable to his Majesty for the same upon the Importation thereof, which Duty was to be managed and collected by Persons to be nominated and appointed by Virtue of the said Act, under certain Rules, Limitations, Forfeitures and Penalties therein mentioned: Now for encouraging the Growth of Coffee in the said Plantations, and the Importation of the same from thence into this Kingdom, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five, all Coffee of the Growth and Product of any of the British Plantations in America shall, in Lieu of the said Inland Duty of two Shillings per Pound Weight, pay an Inland Duty of one Shilling and six Pence, and no more, per Pound Weight Averdupois, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity; and the Persons nominated and appointed by Virtue of the first mentioned Act, to manage and collect the said Inland Duty arising thereby, shall and are hereby empowered to take and receive the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence per Pound and no more, for all Coffee of the Growth and Product of the British Plantations above mentioned; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Provided and be it enacted, That the said Duty shall be applicable to the Uses and Purposes contained and declared in the said Act of the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, and all Officers employed in managing and collecting the same, and all Persons importing, selling, buying or dealing in such Coffee shall be subject to the Rules, Limitations, Restrictions, Forfeitures and Penalties to be prosecuted, received and divided in the Manner thereby prescribed and directed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five, no Coffee shall be suffered to be put on board any Ship or Vessel in any of his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America, until the Planter or Grower of such Coffee, or his known Agent, shall make Oath or Affirmation in Writing before two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace in or near the Place where the said Coffee grew (which Oath or Affirmation such Justices are hereby empowered to administer) that the same is actually of the Growth and Produce of such Planter's or Grower's Plantation lying in the District, Division or Parish of which Oath or Affirmation shall be produced to the Collector, Comptroller and Naval Officer, or any of them, by the Person or Persons who shall enter or ship such Coffee, before the Entry and Shipping thereof for Great Britain; and such Person or Persons shall likewise make Oath or Affirmation before the said Officers, or any two of them, that the Coffee then to be shipped is the very same Coffee, and no other than what is mentioned in such Oath or Affirmation of the Planter or Grower, or his known Agent as aforesaid, which Oath or Affirmation the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and Naval Officer at the Port where the said Coffee is to be loaded, or any two of them, are empowered to administer; and the said Collector and Comptroller, and Naval Officer are hereby required to deliver a Certificate of such Affidavit or Affirmation, under their respective Hands and Seals, to the Commander or Master of such Ship or Vessel, on board of which the said Coffee is to be shipped; and the Master or Person having Command of such Ship or Vessel shall, before clearing his Ship or Vessel, also make Oath in the like Manner, that he has received such Coffee on board his Ship or Vessel, and that he has no more or other Coffee on board his Ship or Vessel than such for which Proofs shall be made as aforesaid, and that he will not take or receive any more Coffee on board before his Arrival in Great Britain, and making a Report of his Lading there, for which Affidavit or Affirmation, and Certificate, the said Collector and Comptroller, or Naval Officer shall receive as a Fee or Reward the Sum of five Shillings, and no more; and all Certificates of such Affidavits or Affirmations shall, by the Commander or Master of such Ship or Vessel importing such Coffee into this Kingdom, be produced, by such Master or Person having Command of the Ship or Vessel, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port where such Ship shall unlade at the Time of making his Report, and shall at the same Time deliver to such Collector and Comptroller a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and Naval Officer of the Port or Place where such Coffee shall have been shipped, or any two of them, testifying the particular Quantities of such Coffee which shall be so laden, and of which such Proofs shall be made as aforesaid, specifying the Package or Packages in which the same is contained, with the particular Marks, Numbers and Weights of each Package; and the said Master shall likewise make Oath, or if he be one of the People called Quakers, solemnly affirm before them, that the Coffee in the said Certificate or Certificates mentioned was truly taken on board, as in the said Certificate or Certificates is expressed, and that after his Departure from the Place or Places where such Coffee mentioned in the said Certificate or Certificates was laden, he did not take on board, or permit to be laden on board, his said Ship or Vessel, either at Sea or elsewhere, any Parcel or Parcels of Coffee, and that all the Coffee on board his said Ship is mentioned and set forth in the said Certificate or Certificates; and upon the Entry of such Coffee at the Custom-house, and paying or securing the several Duties then due thereupon, a Mark shall be set on every Parcel, denoting it to contain Coffee of the Growth of the British Plantations, and where and by what Ship imported, and thereupon such Parcel or Parcels of Coffee so marked shall be lodged in a Warehouse or Warehouses, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty; and the Importer or Proprietor of any Parcel or Parcels of Coffee, or any other Person who shall be employed by such Importer or Proprietor to make an Entry with the Receiver or Collector of the said Inland Duty, shall deliver to the said Receiver or Collector the said Certificate or Certificates of the Affidavit or Affirmation of the Growth of the said Coffee in the British Plantations, made before the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs or Naval Officers, together with the said Oath or Affirmation made as aforesaid, by the Master of such Ship or Vessel, at the Port where such Coffee was taken on board, together with the Oath or Affirmation, or a Copy thereof, made by the Planter or Grower before two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace there, in the Manner before directed; as also the said Certificate of the Package, Marks and Numbers of the Coffee so laden on board; which said Certificate or Certificates, Oath or Affirmation, shall remain with the said Collector or Receiver of the said Inland Duty.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commander, or other Person having Charge of any Ship or Vessel, shall take in, or permit or suffer to be taken in at any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, or at Sea, or in any Creek, Harbour or other Place in America, or shall land, suffer or permit to be landed, out of any Ship or Vessel in any of the said Plantations, any Coffee of the Growth or Produce of any foreign Country, except such Coffee as shall be regularly exported from Great Britain, on Pain of forfeiting all such Coffee, and the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and likewise shall suffer twelve Months Imprisonment; such Forfeiture to be sued for, recovered and adjudged, in any Court of Record in any of his Majesty's Dominions in Europe, or in any of his Majesty's Plantations; and what shall be recovered in pursuance of this Act, in any Court of Record in any of his Majesty's Dominions in Europe, shall be paid, one Moiety to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same; and what shall be recovered in the Plantations, shall be divided, one third to his Majesty, one third to the Governor or Commander in Chief, and the other third to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall falsely make any Oath or Affirmation by this Act directed to be made, and shall thereof be legally convicted in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain, or in any of the Courts of Admiralty in any of the said Plantations where such Offence was committed, such Person so Guilty shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and be imprisoned for the Space of twelve Months; and if any Person shall forge or counterfeit a Certificate of the said Oath or Affirmation, or shall publish such Certificate, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, and be legally convicted thereof in any of the Courts aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and such Forfeiture shall be paid, one Moiety to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Person or Persons who shall inform and sue for the same, to be recovered and divided as is before directed and appointed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in force from the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five to the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven and thirty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for making Process in Courts of Equity effectual against Persons who abscond, and cannot be served therewith, or who refuse to appear.

WHEREAS sometimes Persons have withdrawn themselves beyond the Seas, or otherwise absconded, to avoid appearing in Courts of Equity, or being served with Process for that Purpose, or being brought into Court by Habeas Corpus, have refused to appear; For Remedy of the Inconveniencies thence ensuing, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if in any Suit which hath been, or hereafter shall be, commenced in any Court of Equity, any Defendant or Defendants, against whom any Subpoena or other Process shall issue, shall not cause his, her or their Appearance to be entered upon such Process within such time, and in such manner as according to the Rules of the Court the same ought to have been entered in case such Process had been duly served, and an Affidavit or Affidavits shall be made to the Satisfaction of such Court, that such Defendant or Defendants is or are beyond the Seas, or that upon Inquiry at his, her or their usual Place of Abode, he, she or they could not be found so as to be served served with such Process, and that there is just Ground to believe that such Defendant or Defendants is or are gone out of the Realm or otherwise abscond, to avoid being served with the Process of such Court, then and in such Case the Court out of which such Process issued, may make an Order directing and appointing such Defendant or Defendants to appear at a certain Day therein to be named; and a Copy of such Order shall within fourteen Days after such Order made be inserted in the London Gazette, and published on some Lord's Day, immediately after Divine Service, in the Parish Church of the Parish where such Defendant or Defendants respectively made his, her or their usual Abode within thirty Days next before such his, her or their absenting; and also a Copy of such Order shall within the Time aforesaid be posted up as after mentioned (that is to say) a Copy of every such Order made in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, Court of Exchequer, or the Court of the Dutchy Chamber of Lancaster at Westminster, shall be posted up in some publick Place at the Royal Exchange in London; and a Copy of every such Order made in any of the Courts of Equity of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or of the great Sessions in Wales, shall be posted up at some publick Place in some Market Town within the Jurisdiction of the Court by which such Order was made, and nearest to the Place where such Defendant or Defendants respectively made his, her or their usual Abode as aforesaid, such Place of Abode being also within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and if the Defendant or Defendants do not appear within the Time limited by such Order, or within such further Time as the Court shall appoint, then on Proof made of such Publication of such Order as aforesaid, the Court being satisfied of the Truth thereof may order the Plaintiff's Bill to be taken pro confesso, and make such Decree thereupon as shall be thought just, and may thereupon issue Process to compel the Performance of such Decree, either by an immediate Sequestration of the real and personal Estate and Effects of the Party so absenting (if any such can be found) or such Part thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the Demands of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the said Suit, or by causing Possession of the Estate or Effects demanded by the Bill to be delivered to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs or otherwise, as the Nature of the Case shall require; and the said Court may likewise order such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to be paid and satisfied his, her or their Demands out of the Estate or Effects so sequestered, according to the true Intent and Meaning of such Decree, such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs first giving sufficient Security in such Sum as the Court shall think proper, to abide such Order touching the Restitution of such Estate or Effects as the Court shall think proper to make concerning the same, upon the Defendant or Defendants Appearance to defend such Suit, and paying such Costs to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs as the Court shall order; but in case such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall refuse or neglect to give such Security as aforesaid, then the said Court shall order the Estate or Effects so sequestered, or whereof Possession shall be decreed to be delivered, to remain under the Direction of the Court, either by appointing a Receiver thereof or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem meet, until the Appearance of the Defendant or Defendants to defend such Suit, and his, her or their paying such Costs to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, as the said Court shall think reasonable, or until such Order shall be made therein as the Court shall think just.

and justly suspected to abscond to avoid the Process, Court to fix a Day for his Appearance, to be inserted in the Gazette, and published in the Parish Church of the Defendant, and posted in some publick Place.

Defendant not appearing, the Plaintiff's Bill to be taken pro confesso, his Estate sequestered, and Plaintiff satisfied, on giving Security to the Court to defend the Suit on Defendant's Appearance; Plaintiff refusing such Security, the Effects sequestered to remain under Direction of the Court.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of Easter Term one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, if any Defendant or Defendants, by virtue of any Writ of Habeas Corpus or other Process issuing out of any Court of Equity, shall be brought into Court, and shall refuse or neglect to enter his, her or their Appearance according to the Rules or Method required by the said Court, or to appoint a Clerk in Court, or Attorney of such Court to act on his, her or their Behalf respectively, such Court may appoint a Clerk in Court or Attorney of such Court to enter an Appearance for such Defendant or Defendants respectively, and such Proceedings may thereupon be had in the Cause, as if the Party had actually appeared.

After first Day of Easter Term 1732, Defendants brought into Court by Habeas Corpus, and refusing to enter Appearance, Court to enter it for them.

III. Provided always, That if any Person, against whom any Decree shall be made, upon Refusal or Neglect to enter his, her or their Appearance, or appoint a Clerk in Court, or Attorney to act on his, her or their Behalf, shall be in Custody or forthcoming, so that he, she or they may be served with a Copy of such Decree, then he, she or they shall be served with a Copy thereof, before any Process shall be taken out to compel the Performance thereof.

Persons in Custody so refusing, to be served with a Copy of the Decree.

IV. Provided also, That if any Decree shall be made in pursuance of this Act against any Person or Persons being out of the Realm, or absconding in manner aforesaid, at the Time such Decree is pronounced, and such Person or Persons shall within seven Years after the making such Decree return or become publickly visible, then and in such Case he, she or they shall likewise be served with a Copy of such Decree within a reasonable Time after his, her or their Return or Publick Appearance shall be known to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; and in case any Defendant against whom such Decree shall be made, shall within seven Years after the making such Decree, happen to die before his or her return into this Realm, or appearing openly as aforesaid, or shall within the Time last before mentioned die in Custody before his or her being served with a Copy of such Decree, then his or her Heir, if such Defendant shall have any real Estate sequestered, or whereof Possession shall have been delivered to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and such Heir may be found, or if such Heir shall be a Feme Covert, Infant, or Non compos mentis, the Husband, Guardian or Committee of such Heir respectively; or if the personal Estate of such Defendant be sequestered, or Possession thereof delivered to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then his or her Executor or Administrator (if any such there be) may and shall be served with a Copy of such Decree within a reasonable Time after it shall be known to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, that the Defendant is dead, and who is his or her Heir, Executor or Administrator, or where he, she or they respectively may be served therewith.

Persons out of the Realm affected by such Decree, if they return within 7 Years, to be served with a Copy, or in case of Death, his Heir, &c.

V. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons so served with a Copy of such Decree, shall not within six Months after such Service appear and petition to have the said Cause reheard, such Decree so made as aforesaid shall stand absolutely confirmed against the Person and Persons so served with a Copy thereof, his, her and their respective Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and all Persons claiming or to claim by, from or under him, her, them or any of them, by virtue of any Act done or to be done subsequent to the Commencement of such Suit.

If Persons served with such Copies, shall not petition a rehearing of the Cause within 6 Months, the Decree to be absolutely confirmed, and bar all claiming by them.

An Act to explain, amend and render more effectual an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the first, intituled, An Act to prevent frivolous and vexatious Arrests.

Recital of 12 Geo. 1. c. 29.
Revised by
21 Geo. 2. c. 3.

WHEREAS in an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act to prevent frivolous and vexatious Arrests, it is amongst other things enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, no Person should be held to special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any superior Court, where the Cause of Action should not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards, nor out of any inferior Court, where the Cause of Action should not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings or upwards; and that in all Cases where the Cause of Action should not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards in any such superior Court, or to forty Shillings or upwards in any such inferior Court (and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs should proceed by the way of Process against the Person) he, she or they should not arrest or cause to be arrested the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but should serve him, her or them personally, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, with a Copy of the Process; and if such Defendant or Defendants should not appear at the Return of the Process, or within four Days after such Return, in such Case it should and might be lawful to and for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Affidavit being made and filed in the proper Court of the personal Service of such Process as aforesaid (which said Affidavit should be filed gratis) to enter a common Appearance or file common Bail for the Defendant or Defendants, and to proceed thereon, as if such Defendant or Defendants had entred his, her or their Appearance, or filed common Bail, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas the said Process in the said Act mentioned is in a Language for the most part unknown to such Defendant or Defendants: And whereas such Defendant or Defendants are to appear at the Return of such Process, or within four Days after such Return, the Shortness of which Time hath been found inconvenient in many Cases: And whereas Affidavit is to be made of the personal Service of such Process, and unnecessary Expence and Delay hath been occasioned for want of a sufficient Number of Persons duly authorized to take such Affidavits: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards in any superior Court, or to forty Shillings or upwards in any inferior Court, the Writ, Process, Declaration and all other Proceedings shall be in the English Tongue, and written in Words at length, in a common legible Hand and Character; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Cases (a Copy of such Process in English having been served, as by the said Act is directed) shall appear at the Return thereof, or within eight Days after such Return, and the Affidavit of the Service of such Process shall and may be made before any Judge or Commissioner of the Court, out of which such Process shall issue, authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, or else before the proper Officer for entering common Appearances in such Court, or his lawful Deputy; and which Affidavit is hereby directed to be filed gratis.

After the End of this Session Processes under 10 l.

Defendant to appear within 8
Days after Return of the Process.

Affidavit to be made of the Service.

II. Provided always, That no Attorney, Bailiff or other Person, shall have, take, charge or demand more than five Shillings, for the making and serving a Copy of such Process issuing out of any superior Court, or more than one Shilling for the making and serving a Copy of such Process, issuing out of any inferior Court, on such Defendant or Defendants respectively as aforesaid.

III. Provided nevertheless, That in particular Franchises and Jurisdictions the proper Officer there shall execute such Process.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon every Copy of such Process, to be served upon any Defendant, shall be written in like manner an English Notice to such Defendant of the Intent and Meaning of such Service to the Effect following, videlicet,

A. B. you are served with this Process, to the Intent that you may by your Attorney appear in his Majesty's Court of _____ at the Return thereof, being the _____ Day of _____ (as the Case shall happen to be) in order to your Defence in this Action; and for which said English Notice no Fee or Reward shall be demanded or taken.

V. And whereas great and unnecessary Expences have been occasioned in small and trifling Suits; by the suing forth of special Writs; For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards in any superior Court, or to forty Shillings or upwards in any inferior Court, no special Writ or Writs, nor any Process specially therein expressing the Cause or Causes of Action, shall be sued forth or issued from any such superior or inferior Court respectively, in order to compel any Person or Persons to appear thereon in such Court or Courts: And all Proceedings and Judgments, that shall, from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament, be had on any such Writ or Process, shall be, and is hereby declared to be void and of none effect; and every Attorney or Officer of such Court or Courts, suing forth or issuing any such Writ or Process, shall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds to the Person or Persons aggrieved thereby, who shall and may recover the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, together with full Costs of Suit, in which no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law, shall be allowed or any more than one Imparlance.

VI. And whereas the said Act hath been found by Experience to be useful and beneficial, Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act (except wherein the same is by this present Act explained and amended) shall be and is hereby continued, and shall, together with this present Act, be and remain in full force from the End of this present Session of Parliament, for and during the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

An Act for encouraging the Greenland Fishery.

WHEREAS the Trade to Greenland, the Greenland Seas, and Davis's Streights, in the fishing for Whales, Seals and other Creatures caught there, is a very beneficial Trade to this Kingdom, not only in employing great Numbers of Seamen and Ships, and consuming great Quantities of Provisions, but also in bringing into this Nation great Quantities of Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, and Oil Skins, and other Produce of Seals and other Creatures; and whereas the permitting the Importation of such Fins, Oil, or Blubber, or other Produce whatsoever of Whales, Seals, and other Creatures caught by his said Majesty's Subjects in the said Seas, Streights, or in any other Parts of the Seas adjoining thereunto, without paying any Duty for the same for a competent Time, may greatly contribute to the Encouragement and support of the said Trade; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, for and during the Space of nine Years, to be computed from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, to import Whale Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, Seal Oil, Seal Skins, or any other Produce of Seals, or other Fish or Creatures taken or caught in the said Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, or in any other Parts of the Seas adjoining or adjacent thereunto, in British Ships, whereof the Captain or Master, and one third Part at the least of the Mariners are British Subjects, without paying any Custom, Subsidy, or other Duty for the same, during the said Term of nine Years, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give Liberty of importing any of the before mentioned Commodities Duty free, unless the Captain, Master or other commanding Officer of the Ship or Vessel importing the same shall first make Oath before some or one of the Commissioners or principal Officer of the Customs in the Port or Ports of Importation (who is and are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath) that all the Whale Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, Seal Oil, Seal Skins, or other Produce of Seals, or other Fish or Creatures, imported in such Ship or Vessel was really and bona fide the Fins, Oil, or Blubber of Whales, or the Skins, Oil, or other Produce of Seals, or other Fish or Creatures caught and taken in the said Greenland Seas, Davis's Streights, or other Parts of the Seas adjoining or adjacent thereunto, by the Crew of such Ships and Vessels only, whereof the Captain or Master, and one third Part at the least of the Mariners were British Subjects.

An Act to prevent the Committing of Frauds by Bankrupts.

5 Geo. 1. c. 24. WHEREAS Commissions of Bankrupt have been issued against several Persons not long before and since the Expiration of the Statute made in the fifth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts, and such Persons have been declared Bankrupts by the Commissioners by such Commissions authorized, and yet several of such Bankrupts, by reason of the Expiration of the said Statute, have not only refused to surrender themselves to the Commissioners, and to discover and deliver up their Estate and Effects to the said Commissioners for the Benefit of their Creditors, but have carried away and concealed the same in such Manner, that the said Commissioners have not been able to seize the same, to the manifest Wrong and Injury of their Creditors, and to the great Discouragement of Trade: And whereas many evil-minded Persons have, since the Expiration of the said Statute, bought and taken upon Trust and Credit divers great Quantities of Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, and have thereby, and by their extravagant Manner of living and otherwise, contracted great Debts, and having gotten such Goods and Effects into their Custody, have sold or pawned the same for less than the Value thereof, and thereby raised ready Money, and have withdrawn themselves from their usual Places of Abode, with their Effects, into secret Places, in order to oblige their Creditors to accept of such Composition for their respective Debts, as such evil-minded Persons think fit to offer, or have carried away their Effects beyond the Seas, whereby their Creditors have been totally deprived of their Debts: And whereas many Persons have and do daily become Bankrupts, not so much by reason of Losses and unavoidable Misfortunes, as to the Intent to oblige their Creditors to accept such their unjust Proffers and Composition, and to defraud and hinder their Creditors of their just Debts: Therefore to remedy the said Abuses, and to supply the Defects and Inconveniencies of former Laws relating to Bankrupts, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, who since the fourteenth Day of May which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, hath or have become Bankrupt, or who shall at any Time hereafter during the Continuance of this Act become Bankrupt, within the Intent and Meaning of the several Statutes made and now in Force concerning Bankrupts, or any of them, and against whom a Commission of Bankrupt under the Great Seal of Great Britain hath, since the said fourteenth Day of May which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, been awarded and issued out, or shall at any Time hereafter be awarded and issued out, whereupon the Person or Persons against whom such Commission hath issued or shall issue, hath or have been or shall be declared Bankrupt or Bankrupts, shall not within forty-two Days after Notice thereof in Writing, to be left at the usual Place of Abode of such Person or Persons, or personal Notice, in case such Person or Persons be then in Prison, and Notice given in the London Gazette, that such Commission or Commissions is, are or have been issued, and of the Time and Place of a Meeting of the Commissioners therein named, or the major Part of them, surrender him, her or themselves to the said Commissioners named in the said Commission, or the major Part of them, and sign or subscribe such Surrender, and submit to be examined from Time to Time upon Oath, or being of the People called Quakers, upon the solemn Affirmation by Law appointed for such People, by and before such Commissioners, or the major Part of them, by such Commission authorized, and in all Things conform to the several Statutes already made and now in Force concerning Bankrupts; and also upon such his, her or their Examination fully and truly disclose and discover all his, her or their Effects and Estate real and personal, and how and in what Manner, to whom and upon what Consideration, and at what Time or Times he, she or they have or hath disposed of, assigned or transferred any of his, her or their Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Monies or other Estate and Effects (and all Books, Papers and Writings relating thereunto) of which he, she or they was or were possessed, or in or to which he, she or they was or were any ways interested or intitled, or which any Person or Persons had, or hath or have had in Trust for him, her or them, or for his, her or their Use, at any Time before or after the Issuing of the said Commission, or whereby such Person or Persons, or his, her or their Family or Families, hath or have, or may have or expect any Profit, Possibility of Profit, Benefit or Advantage whatsoever, except only such Part tors.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, in case any Commission of Bankruptcy shall issue against any Person or Persons, who after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two shall have been discharged by virtue of this Act, or shall have compounded with his, her or their Creditors, or delivered to them his, her or their Estate or Effects, and been released by them, or been discharged by any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors after the Time aforesaid, that then and in either of those Cases the Body and Bodies only of such Person and Persons conforming as aforesaid shall be free from Arrest and Imprisonment by virtue of this Act; but the future Estate and Effects of every such Person and Persons shall remain liable to his, her or their Creditors, as before the making of this Act (the Tools of Trade, the necessary Household Goods and Furniture, and necessary Wearing Apparel of such Bankrupt and his Wife and Children Children only excepted) unless the Estate of such Person or Persons, against whom such Commission shall be awarded, shall produce clear after all Charges, sufficient to pay every Creditor under the said Commission, fifteen Shillings in the Pound for their respective Debts.

X. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Discovery upon Oath or solemn Affirmation to be made by any Bankrupt or Bankrupts of his, her or their Estate and Effects pursuant to this Act, shall intitle such Bankrupt or Bankrupts to the Benefits allowed by this Act, unless the Commissioners authorized by such Commission, or the major Part of them, shall in Writing under their Hands and Seals certify to the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper, or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, that such Bankrupt or Bankrupts hath or have made a full Discovery of his, her or their Estate and Effects, and in all Things conformed himself, herself or themselves according to the Directions of this Act, and that there doth not appear to them any Reason to doubt of the Truth of such Discovery, or that the same is not a full Discovery of all such Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; and unless four Parts in five in Number and Value of the Creditors of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, who shall be Creditors for not less than twenty Pounds respectively, and who shall have duly proved their Debts under such Commission, or some other Person by them respectively duly authorized thereunto, shall sign such Certificate, and testify their Consent to such Allowance and Certificate, and to the said Bankrupt's Discharge in pursuance of this Act, to be also certified by such Commissioners; but the said Commissioners shall not certify the same, till they shall have Proof by Affidavit or Affirmation in Writing of such Creditors, or of the Person by them respectively authorized for that Purpose, signing the said Certificate, and of the Power and Authority by which any Person shall be authorized by any Creditor to sign such Certificate for any Creditor; which Affidavit or Affirmation, together with such Warrant or Authority to sign, shall be laid before the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal, with the said Certificate, in order for the allowing and confirming the same; and unless such Bankrupt make Oath, or being of the People called Quakers, solemnly affirm in Writing, That such Certificate and Consent of the Creditors thereunto were obtained fairly and without Fraud; and unless such Certificate shall, after such Oath or Affirmation of the Bankrupt, be allowed and confirmed by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, or by such two of the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas or Barons of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, to whom the Consideration of such Certificate shall be referred by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal for the Time being; and any of the Creditors of such Bankrupt are allowed to be heard, if they shall think fit, before the respective Persons aforesaid, against the making such Certificate, and against the Confirmation thereof; nor shall any Commissioner sign such Certificate, till after four Parts in five in Number and Value of the said Creditors shall have signed the same as aforesaid.

On what Conditions Certificates to be signed.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Bond, Bill, Note, Contract, Agreement or other Security whatsoever, to be made or given by any Bankrupt, or by any other Person, unto or to the Use of or in Trust for any Creditor or Creditors, or for the Security of the Payment of any Debt or Sum of Money due from such Bankrupt at the Time of his becoming Bankrupt, or any Part thereof, between the Time of his becoming Bankrupt and such Bankrupt's Discharge, as a Consideration, or to the Intent to persuade him, her or them to consent to or sign any such Allowance or Certificate, shall be wholly void and of no Effect; and the Moneys thereby secured or agreed to be paid shall not be recovered or recoverable; and the Party sued on such Bond, Bill, Note, Contract or Agreement shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; any Thing herein contained, or any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Contracts to induce Creditors to sign Certificates, void.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend, or give or grant any Privilege, Benefit or Advantage, to any Bankrupt whatsoever, against whom a Commission of Bankrupt under the Great Seal of Great Britain, since the said fourteenth Day of May which was in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, hath issued, or hereafter shall issue, who hath or shall, for or upon Marriage of any of his or her Children, have given, advanced or paid above the Value of one hundred Pounds, unless he or she shall prove, or by his or her Books fairly kept, or otherwise upon his or her Oath, or being of the People called Quakers, upon solemn Affirmation, before the major Part of the Commissioners in such Commission named and authorized, that he or she had at the Time thereof, over and above the Value so given, advanced or paid, remaining in Goods, Wares, Debts, ready Money, or other Estate Real or Personal, sufficient to pay and satisfy unto each and every Person, to whom he or she was any ways indebted, their full and entire Debts; or who hath or shall have lost in any one Day the Sum or Value of five Pounds, or in the whole the Sum or Value of one hundred Pounds within the Space of twelve Months next preceding his, her or their becoming Bankrupt, in playing at or with Cards, Dice, Tables, Tennis, Bowls, Billiards, Shovelboard, or in or by Cock-fighting, Horse-races, Dog-matches or Foot-races, or other Pastimes, Game or Games whatsoever, or in or by bearing a Share or Part in the Stakes, Wagers or Adventures, or in or by betting on the Sides or Hands of such as do or shall play, act, ride or run as aforesaid, or that within one Year before he or she became Bankrupt, shall have lost the Sum of one hundred Pounds, by one or more Contracts for the Purchase, Sale, Refusal or Delivery of any Stock of any Company or Corporation whatsoever, or any Parts or Shares of any Government or Publick Funds or Securities, where every such Contract was not to be performed within one Week from the Time of the making such Contract, or where the Stock or other Thing so bought or sold was not actually transferred or delivered in Pursuance of such Contract.

Persons excepted from the Benefits of this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Bankrupt who shall have obtained his or her Certificate from the acting Commissioners, and such Certificate shall have been allowed and confirmed as by this Act is directed, shall be taken in Execution, or detained in Prison, on Account of any Debts due or owing before he or she became Bankrupt, by reason that Judgment was obtained before such Certificate was allowed and confirmed, it shall and may be lawful for any one or more of the Judges of the Court, wherein Judgment has been so obtained against such Bankrupt, on such Bankrupt's producing his or her Certificate allowed and confirmed, to order any Sheriff or Sheriffs, Bailiff or Officer, Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, who hath or shall have any such Bankrupt in his Custody, by Virtue of any such Execution, to discharge such Bankrupt out of Custody on such Execution without Payment of any Fee or Reward; and such Sheriff or Sheriffs, Bailiff or Officer, Gaoler or Keeper is and are hereby required to discharge such Bankrupt out of Custody accordingly, and is and are hereby indemnified from any Action for an Escape for his or their so doing.

Judges or Justices may grant Warrants to apprehend Bankrupts not conforming.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Certificate made under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners by such Commission authorized, or to be authorized, or the major Part of them, that such Commission is issued, and such Person or Persons proved before them to become Bankrupt or Bankrupts, it shall and may be lawful to and for all or any of the Justices of his Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, or Common Pleas, or Barons of the Court of Exchequer, and to and for all and every the Justices of the Peace within that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and they are hereby empowered and required, upon Application to them for that Purpose made, to grant his or their Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hands and Seals for the taking and apprehending such Person or Persons, and him, her or them to commit to the common Gaol of the County where he, she or they shall be so apprehended and taken, there to remain until he, she or they be removed by Order of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals; and the Gaoler or Keeper, to whose Custody such Person or Persons shall be committed, is hereby required to take and receive such Person or Persons into his Custody, and forthwith to give Notice to one or more of the said Commissioners in the said Commission named, of such Person or Persons being in his or their Custody, to the Intent the said Commissioners may send their Warrant to such Gaoler or Keeper (which they are hereby empowered and required forthwith to send) for the delivering such Bankrupt or Bankrupts to the Person or Persons named in such Warrant, who shall be thereby authorized to convey and bring such Person or Persons to the said Commissioners, in order to such Examination and Discovery as aforesaid; and the said Commissioners are hereby likewise authorized and empowered by such their Warrant, or any other Warrant, to take and seize any of the Goods, Wares, Merchandizes and Effects of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts (the necessary wearing Apparel of such Bankrupt, or of his Wife or Children only excepted) and any of his, her or their Books, Papers or Writings, which shall be then in the Custody or Possession of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, or of any other Person or Persons, in any Prison or Prisons whatsoever, any Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Gaolers to give Notice to Commissioners.

Goods or Books to be seized in Prisons.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Person or Persons so apprehended and taken, shall within the Time or Times allowed by this Act for that Purpose, submit to be examined, and in all Things conform, as if he, she or they had surrendered, as by this Act such Bankrupt or Bankrupts is or are required, that then such Person so submitting and conforming shall have and receive the Benefit of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes, as if he, she or they had voluntarily come in and surrendered himself, herself or themselves; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Bankrupts so apprehended, on Conformity, to have the Benefit of the Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, to examine as well by Word of Mouth, as on Interrogatories in Writing, all and every Person and Persons, against whom any Commission of Bankrupt is or shall be awarded, touching all Matters relating to the Trade, Dealings, Estate and Effects of all and every such Bankrupt and Bankrupts, and also to examine in the Manner aforesaid all and every other Person duly summoned before, or present at any Meeting of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, touching all Matters relating to the Person, Trade, Dealings, Estate and Effects of all and every such Bankrupt and Bankrupts, and any Act or Acts of Bankruptcy committed by him, her or them, and also to take down or reduce into Writing the Answers of Verbal Examinations of every such Bankrupt or other Person, had or taken before them as aforesaid; which Examination so taken down or reduced into Writing, the Party examined shall and is hereby required to sign and subscribe: And in case any such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, or other Person or Persons, shall refuse to answer, or shall not fully answer to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, all lawful Questions put to him, her or them, by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, as well by Word of Mouth, as by Interrogatories in Writing, or shall refuse to sign and subscribe his, her or their Examination so taken down or reduced into Writing as aforesaid (not having a reasonable Objection either to the wording thereof or otherwise, to be allowed by the said Commissioners) it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit him, her or them to such Prison, as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall think fit, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until such Time as such Person or Persons shall submit him, her or themselves to the said Commissioners, and full Answer make to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners to all such Questions as shall be put to him, her or them as aforesaid, and sign and subscribe such Examination as aforesaid, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Persons not answering Interrogatories of Commissioners, to be imprisoned.

to be particularly specified in the Warrant.

XVII. Provided always, That in case any Person or Persons shall be committed by the said Commissioners for refusing to answer, or not fully answering any Question or Questions put to him, her or them, by the said Commissioners by Word of Mouth, or on Interrogatories, that the said Commissioners shall, in their Warrant of Commitment, specify such Question or Questions.

If Habeas Corpus be brought on such Commitment,

XVIII. Provided also, That in case any Person or Persons committed by the Commissioners Warrant, by Virtue of this or any other Acts now in Force concerning Bankrupts, shall bring any Habeas Corpus in order to be discharged from any such Commitment, and on the XXII. And whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the explaining and making more effectual the several Acts concerning Bankrupts, Persons taking Bills, Bonds, Promissory Notes, or other personal Security for their Money payable at a future Day, are enabled to prove their Debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy, but not to petition for or join in petitioning for any new Commission, which having been found to be inconvenient: Now it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Act as disables any such Person from petitioning for or joining in any Petition for a Commission against any Person or Persons who have before committed any Act of Bankruptcy, is hereby repealed: And it shall and may be lawful hereafter for such Person to petition for or join in petitioning for any such Commission of Bankruptcy; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Persons having Commissions.

XXIII. And for preventing the taking out Commissions of Bankrupts maliciously, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commission of Bankrupt under the Great Seal of Great Britain shall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, be awarded and issued out against any Person whatsoever, upon the Petition of one or more Creditors, unless the single Debt of the Creditor, or of two or more Persons being Partners petitioning for the same, do amount to the Sum of one hundred Pounds or upwards, or unless the Debt of two Creditors, so petitioning as aforesaid, shall amount to one hundred and fifty Pounds or upwards, or unless the Debt of three or more Creditors, so petitioning as aforesaid, shall amount to two hundred Pounds or upwards, and the Creditor or Creditors petitioning for such Commission shall, before the same shall be granted, make an Affidavit, or (being one of the People called Quakers) make a solemn Affirmation in Writing before one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery (which Oath or Affirmation they are hereby

XXIV. And whereas Commissions of Bankrupts are frequently taken out by Persons who by Means of such Commissions (on a Composition proposed by the Bankrupts) and on Promise not to execute the same, prevail with and extort from the Bankrupts their whole Debts, or much greater Part thereof than such Bankrupts pay to their Creditors, or otherwise get from such Bankrupts Goods or other real or personal Security, which is contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Statutes made concerning Bankrupts, which said Statutes intend, that all such Bankrupts Creditors shall be on an equal Foot, and not one preferred before another, or paid more than another in Respect of his or her Debt: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall, after issuing of any Commission against him, her or them, pay to the Person or Persons who sued out the same, or otherwise give or deliver to such Person or Persons Goods or any other Satisfaction or Security for his, her or their Debt, whereby such Person or Persons suing out such Commission shall privately have and receive more in the Pound in respect of his, her or their Debt than the other Creditors, such Payment of Money, Delivery of Goods, or giving greater or other Security or Satisfaction, shall be deemed and taken to be such an Act of Bankruptcy, whereby on good Proof thereof such Commission shall and may be superseded: And it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, to award to any Creditor or Creditors petitioning another Commission; and such Person or Persons so taking or receiving such Goods or other Satisfaction as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose as well his, her or their whole Debt, as the whole he, she or they shall have taken or received, and shall pay back and deliver up the same or the full Value thereof, to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners acting under such new Commission shall appoint, in Trust for and to be divided amongst the other of the Bankrupt's Creditors in Proportion to their respective Debts.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Creditor or Creditors who shall petition for and obtain any Commission of Bankrupt, shall be and is and are hereby obliged, at his, her or their own Costs and Expences, to sue forth and prosecute the same, until an Assignee or Assignees shall be chosen of such Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; and the Commissioners to be named in any such Commission shall, at the same Meeting which shall be appointed for the Choice of the Assignees, ascertain such Costs, and by Writing under their Hands shall direct and order the Assignee or Assignees of such Bankrupt's Estate, who is and are hereby required to pay and reimburse such petitioning Creditor or Creditors such his, her or their Costs and Charges as aforesaid, out of the first Monies or Effects of the said Bankrupt that shall be got in and received under the said Commission; and every Creditor of the said Bankrupt shall be at Liberty to prove his, her or their Debt or Debts under the said Commission, without paying any Contribution or Sum of Money whatsoever for or on Account of such Debt or Debts, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Commission of Bankrupt shall issue out from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, the Commissioners therein named, or the major Part of them thereby authorized, shall forthwith, after they have declared the Person or Persons against whom such Commission shall issue a Bankrupt or Bankrupts, cause Notice thereof to be given in the London Gazette, and shall appoint a Time and Place for the Creditors to meet, which Meeting for the City of London and all Places within the Bills of Mortality shall be at the Guildhall of the said City, in order to choose an Assignee or Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; at which Meeting the said Commissioners shall admit the Proof of any Creditor's Debt, that shall live remote from the Place of such Meeting of the Commissioners, by Affidavit, or being of the People called Quakers, by solemn Affirmation, and also permit any Person duly authorized by Letter of Attorney from such Creditors, Oath or Affirmation being made of the due Execution thereof, either by an Affidavit sworn or Affirmation made before a Master in Chancery, ordinary or extraordinary, or before the Commissioners viva voce (which Oath or Affirmation they are hereby respectively authorized to administer) and in case of Creditors residing in foreign Parts, such Affidavits or solemn Affirmations to be made before a Magistrate where the Party shall be residing, and shall together with such Creditor's Letters of Attorney be attested by a Notary Publick, to vote in the Choice of an Assignee or Assignees of such Bankrupt's Estate and Effects in the Place and Stead of such Creditor; and the Commissioners, or the major Part of them authorized, shall assign every such Bankrupt's Estate and Effects unto such Person or Persons as the major Part in Value of such Creditors, according to the several Debts then proved, shall choose as aforesaid; and the Assignee or Assignees so chosen shall be obliged to keep one or more distinct Book or Books of Account, wherein he or they shall duly enter all Sum and Sums of Money or other Effects, which he or they shall have got in or received out of the said Bankrupt's Estate, to which Book or Books of Account every Creditor who shall have proved his or her Debt shall at all reasonable Times have free Resort, and inspect the same as often as he or she shall think fit.

XXVII. Provided

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Creditor or any other Person for and on the Behalf of any Creditor shall be permitted to vote in such Choice of Assignee or Assignees, whose Debt or the Debt of the Person or Persons so authorizing him to vote, shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards.

What Persons not qualified to choose.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where it shall appear to the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, that there hath been mutual Credit given by the Bankrupt and any other Person, or mutual Debts between the Bankrupt and any other Person, at any Time before such Person became Bankrupt, the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, or the Assignees of such Bankrupt's Estate, shall state the Account between them, and one Debt may be set against another; and what shall appear to be due on either Side on the Balance of such Account, and on setting such Debts against one another, and no more, shall be claimed or paid on either Side respectively.

Mutual Credit to be settled.

XXIX. And whereas many Abuses have been committed by pretended Creditors of Bankrupts, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person at any Time hereafter shall, before the acting Commissioners in any Commission of Bankrupt, or by Affidavit or Affirmation exhibited to them, swear or depose, or, being of the People called Quakers, affirm, that any Sum of Money is due to him or her from any Bankrupt or Bankrupts, which Sum of Money is not really due or owing, or shall swear or affirm, that more is due than is really due or owing, knowing the same to be not due or owing, and that such Oath or Affirmation is false and untrue, and being thereof convicted by Indictment or Information, such Person shall suffer the Pains and Penalties inflicted by the several Statutes made and now in Force against wilful Perjury, and shall moreover be liable to pay double the Sum so sworn or affirmed to be due or owing as aforesaid, to be recovered and levied as other Penalties and Forfeitures are upon penal Statutes after Conviction to be levied and recovered; and such double Sum shall be equally divided among all the Creditors seeking Relief under the said Commission.

Penalty on Debts falsely claimed.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners authorized as aforesaid, or the major Part of them, as often as they shall see Cause, for the better preserving and securing the Bankrupt's Estate, immediately to appoint one or more Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any Part thereof; which Assignee or Assignees, or any of them, shall or may be removed or displaced at the Meeting of the Creditors so to be appointed as aforesaid, for the Choice of Assignees, if they or the major Part in Value of them (whose Debts respectively amount to ten Pounds or upwards as aforesaid) then present, and of such Persons duly authorized as aforesaid, shall think fit; and such Assignee or Assignees as shall be so removed and displaced shall deliver up and assign all the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt which shall have come to his or their Hands or Possession, or which shall have been assigned by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, unto such other Assignee or Assignees who shall be so chosen by the Creditors as aforesaid; and all the Estate and Effects of the Bankrupt which shall be delivered up or assigned, shall be, to all Intents and Purposes, as effectually and legally vested in such new Assignee or Assignees as if the first Assignment had been made to him or them by the said Commissioners: And if such first Assignee or Assignees shall refuse or neglect by the Space of ten Days next after Notice given of the said Choice of such new Assignee or Assignees, and of his and their Consent to accept such Assignment, signified to the first Assignee or Assignees by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to make such Assignment and Delivery as aforesaid, every such first Assignee or Assignees shall respectively forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be divided and distributed amongst the Creditors, towards Satisfaction of their Debts, in such Manner as the Estate of the Bankrupt is or ought to be divided and distributed, and to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by such Person or Persons as such the major Part of the Commissioners, authorized as aforesaid, shall appoint to sue for the same, with full Costs of Suit, wherein no Privilege, Protection or Wager in Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners may appoint Assignees.

Penalty on first Assignees not delivering up the Effects to the new ones.

XXXI. And whereas it may be found necessary, that as well Assignments of Bankrupts Estates already made by Commissioners, as Assignments hereafter to be made pursuant to the Choice of Creditors, should be vacated, and a new Assignment or Assignments be made of the Debts and Effects unreceived and not disposed by the then Assignees to other Persons to be chosen by the Creditors as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, upon Petition of any Creditors, to make such Order therein as he or they shall think just and reasonable: And in case a new Assignment shall be ordered to be made as aforesaid, that then such Debts, Effects and Estate of such Bankrupt shall be thereby effectually and legally vested in such new Assignee or Assignees; and it shall and may be lawful for him and them to sue for the same in his or their Name or Names, and to discharge any Action or Suit, or to give any Acquittance for such Debts as effectually to all Intents and Purposes as the Assignee or Assignees in the former Assignment might have done in case no new Assignment had been made, any Thing herein or in any former Act contained or made to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and that the said Commissioners shall cause publick Notice to be given in the two London Gazettes that shall immediately follow the Removal of such Assignee or Assignees, and the Appointment of such other Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, that such Assignee or Assignees is or are removed, and such other Assignee or Assignees appointed in his or their Stead, and that such Persons as are indebted to the said Bankrupt's Estate, do not pay such Debt or Debts to such Assignee or Assignees as shall be removed as aforesaid.

Notice of Removal to be given in the Gazette.

XXXII. And whereas by Reason of the Monies which are lodged in the Hands of Assignees until a Dividend is made, Assignees do oftentimes delay the dividing thereof, to the very great Prejudice of the Bankrupt's Creditors: For preventing whereof, and to the End Assignees may make speedy Dividends of the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupts, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That before the Creditors shall proceed to the Choice of an Assignee or Assignees of any Bankrupt's Estate, the major Part in Value of the said Bankrupt's Creditors then present shall, if they think fit, direct in what Manner, how, and with whom and where the Monies arising by, and Creditors, before choosing Assignees, to fix the Method of Dividends.

and to be received from Time to Time out of the Bankrupt's Estate, shall be paid in and remain until the same shall be divided amongst all the Creditors as by this Act is directed: to which Rule and Direction every such Assignee and Assignees, afterwards to be chosen, shall conform, as often as one hundred Pounds shall be got in and received from such Bankrupt's Estate, and shall be and are hereby indemnified for what they shall do in Pursuance of such Direction of the said Creditors as aforesaid.

Method of making Dividends.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons chosen or who shall be chosen Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Bankrupt, shall, at some Time after the Expiration of four Months and within twelve Months from the Time of issuing of such Commission, cause at least twenty-one Days publick Notice to be given in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place the Commissioners and Assignees intend to meet, to make a Dividend or Distribution of such Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; at which Time the Creditors, who have not before proved their Debts, shall then be at Liberty to prove the same; which Meeting for the City of London and all Places within the Bills of Mortality, shall be at the Guildhall of the said City; and upon every such Meeting the Assignee or Assignees shall produce, to the said Commissioners and Creditors then present, fair and just Accounts of all his and their Receipts and Payments touching the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, and of what shall remain out standing, and the Particulars thereof; and shall, if the Creditors then present, or the major Part of them, require the same, be examined upon Oath, or, being of the People called Quakers, upon solemn Affirmation before the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, touching the Truth of such Accounts; and in such Accounts the said Assignee or Assignees shall be allowed and retain all such Sum and Sums of Money as they shall have paid and expended in suing out and prosecuting of such Commission, and all other just Allowances, on Account of and by Reason or Means of their being Assignee or Assignees; and the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall order such Part of the neat Produce of the said Bankrupt's Estate, as by such Accounts or otherwise shall appear to be in the Hands of the said Assignees, as they or the major Part of them shall think fit, to be forthwith divided amongst such of the Bankrupt's Creditors, who have duly proved their Debts under such Commission, in Proportion to their several and respective Debts; and the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall make such their Order for a Dividend in Writing under their Hands, and shall cause one Part of such Order to be filed amongst the Proceedings under the said Commission, and shall deliver unto each of the Assignee or Assignees, under such Commission, a Duplicate of such their Order likewise under the Hands of the said Commissioners; which Order of Distribution shall contain an Account of the Time and Place of making such Order, and the Sum Total or Quantum of all the Debts proved under the said Commission, and the Sum Total of the Money remaining in the Hands of the Assignee or Assignees to be divided, and how much in particular in the Pound is then ordered to be paid to every Creditor under the said Commission; and the said Assignee or Assignees, in Pursuance of such Order, and without any Deed or Deeds of Distribution to be made for that Purpose, shall forthwith make such Dividend and Distribution accordingly, and shall take Receipts, in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, from each Creditor, for the Part or Share of such Dividend or Distribution which he or they shall make and pay to each Creditor respectively; and such Order and Receipt shall be a full and effectual discharge to such Assignee, for so much as he shall fairly pay, pursuant to such Order as aforesaid.

Assignees, with Consent of Creditors, may submit Disputes to Arbitration.

XXXIV. And whereas Assignees are, and may sometimes be prevented from making such speedy Dividends of the Estate and Effects of Bankrupts, as by this Act is intended, by Reason of Debts due, or pretended and claimed to be due from such Bankrupts, upon long and intricate Accounts or Demands, which are disputed or not admitted by the Commissioners and Creditors to be just and fair Debts, and such Claimants are thereby obliged to ascertain such their Demands by Actions or Suits in Law or Equity, which are oftentimes many Years depending, and many other Differences and Difficulties do arise under Commissions of Bankrupts, which might be determined by Arbitration, if Assignees had Power to submit the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Assignee or Assignees of any Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Bankrupt's Creditors, who shall have duly proved their Debts under such Commission, and who shall be present at any Meeting of the said Creditors, pursuant to Notice to be for that Purpose given in the London Gazette, to submit any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Person or Persons whatsoever, for or on Account, or by Reason or Means of any Matter, Cause or Thing whatsoever, relating to such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, his, her or their Estate or Effects, to the final End and Determination of Arbitrators to be chosen by the said Assignee or Assignees, and the major Part in Value of such Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they shall have such Difference, and to perform the Award of such Arbitrators, or otherwise to compound and agree the Matters in Difference and Dispute between them, in such Manner as the said Assignee or Assignees, with such Consent as aforesaid, shall think fit, and can agree, and the same shall be binding to all the Creditors of the said Bankrupt or Bankrupts; and the Assignees are hereby indemnified for what they shall fairly do according to the Direction aforesaid.

Assignees with Consent of Creditors may compound Debts.

XXXV. And be it further also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Assignee or Assignees made or chosen as aforesaid, shall be, and is and are hereby impowered, by and with the Consent of the major Part of such Bankrupt's Creditors in Value, who shall be present at a Meeting to be had for that Purpose, of which publick Notice shall be given in the London Gazette, to make Composition with any Person or Persons, Debtors or Accountants to such Bankrupts, where the same shall appear necessary and reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part as can upon such Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bankrupts, after Allowance of Certificate, to attend Assignees in settling Accounts.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after such Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall have obtained his, her or their Certificate, and the same shall be duly confirmed as herein is mentioned, every such Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall, and is, and are hereby obliged to give his, her or their Attendance, upon every reasonable Notice in Writing, ting to be given to him, her or them, or to be left at his, her or their usual Place of Abode, by the Assignee or Assignees, or their Order, thereby requiring him, her or them, to attend the Assignee or Assignees of such Bankrupt's Estate, in order to make up, adjust or settle any Account or Accounts between such Bankrupt or Bankrupts and any Debtor to or Creditor of such Bankrupt's Estate, or to attend any Court or Courts of Record, in order to be examined touching the same, or for such other Business, which such Assignee or Assignees shall judge necessary for getting in the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, for the Benefit of his, her or their Creditors; for which said Attendance the Bankrupt shall be allowed and paid the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence per Diem by such Assignee or Assignees out of the Bankrupt's Estate; and in case such Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall neglect or refuse to attend, or, on such Attendance, shall refuse to assist in such Discovery, without good and sufficient Cause to be shewn to the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, for such his, her or their Neglect or Refusal, to be by them allowed as sufficient, such Assignee or Assignees making due Proof thereof upon Oath, or, being of the People called Quakers, upon solemn Affirmation before the said Commissioners authorized as aforesaid, or the major Part of them, the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, are hereby impowered and required to issue a Warrant or Warrants, directed to such Person or Persons as they shall think proper, for apprehending such Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and him, her or them to commit to the County Gaol, there to remain in close Custody without Bail or Mainprize, until he, she or they shall duly conform to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners authorized as aforesaid, and be by the said Commissioners, or the special Order of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, or otherwise by due Course of Law discharged; and such Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison to which such Bankrupt or Bankrupts shall be committed, is hereby required to keep such Person or Persons in close Custody within the Walls of the said Prison, until he, she or they be duly discharged as aforesaid, under the Pains and Penalties before mentioned, for such Gaoler or Keeper suffering such Prisoners, committed pursuant to this Act, to escape and go at large.

Allowance for Attendance.

Imprisonment on Non-attendance.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That within eighteen Months next after the issuing of any such Commission as aforesaid, the Assignee or Assignees shall make a second Dividend of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, in case the same was not wholly divided upon the first Dividend, and shall cause a Notice to be inserted in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place the said Commissioners intend to meet to make a second Dividend and Distribution of such Bankrupt's Estate or Effects, and for the Creditors, who shall not before have proved their Debts, to come and prove the same; and at such Meeting every such Assignee or Assignees shall produce upon Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, his, her or their Account or Accounts of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, and what upon the Balance thereof shall appear to be in his, her or their Hands, shall, by the like Order of the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, be forthwith divided amongst such of the Bankrupt's Creditors who shall have made due Proof of their Debts, in Proportion to their several and respective Debts; which second Dividend shall be final, unless any Suit at Law or in Equity shall be depending, or any Part of the Estate standing out, that cannot have been disposed of, or that the major Part of the Creditors shall not have agreed to be sold and disposed of in Manner aforesaid, or unless some other or future Estate or Effects of the said Bankrupt shall afterwards come to or vest in the said Assignee or Assignees, in which Case the said Assignee or Assignees shall, as soon as may be, convert such future or other Estate and Effects into Money in Manner aforesaid, and shall, within two Months next after the same shall be converted into Money as aforesaid, by the like Order of the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, divide the same among such Bankrupt's Creditors who shall have made due Proof of their Debts under such Commission.

Final Dividend within 18 Months.

Exceptions.

XXXVIII. Provided always, That no Suit in Equity shall be commenced by any Assignee or Assignees, without the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Bankrupt, who shall be present at a Meeting of the Creditors, pursuant to Notice to be given in the London Gazette for that Purpose.

No Suit in Equity to be commenced without Consent of Creditors.

XXXIX. And whereas Persons dealing as Bankers, Brokers and Factors, are frequently intrusted with great Sums of Money, and with Goods and Effects of very great Value belonging to other Persons: It is hereby further enacted, That such Bankers, Brokers and Factors, shall be and are hereby declared to be subject and liable to this and other the Statutes made concerning Bankrupts.

Bankers, Brokers and Factors liable to Statutes. Persons not liable.

XL. Provided always, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Farmer, Grazier or Drover of Cattle, or any Person or Persons, who is or are, or shall be Receiver General of the Taxes granted by Act of Parliament, shall be intitled as such to any of the Benefits given by this Act, or be deemed a Bankrupt within the same, or within any of the Statutes now in Force concerning Bankrupts; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLI. And whereas Commissions of Bankrupts, and the Depositions taken before the Commissioners of Bankrupts, and the Proceedings upon such Commissions, are most commonly kept by such Persons as act as Clerks or Secretaries to such Commissioners, and by reason of the Death of such Clerks or Secretaries are many Times lost and mislaid, by Means whereof such Persons as have or may purchase any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, under any Commission grounded upon the Statutes made concerning Bankrupts, may be disabled to make out their Right and Title to the same: And there being no certain Place where the Creditors of any Bankrupt, or any Person or Persons claiming any Estate or Interest in any Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by or under any such Commission as aforesaid, can have Recourse to such Commission and the Proceedings thereupon; and such Commissions, Depositions and Proceedings, in case they can be produced, are not at present of Record, nor can be given in Evidence, which may be of very evil Consequence to such Purchasers or Persons claiming as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Petition of any Person or Persons to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, praying that such Commissions, and the Depositions taken thereon, or any Part of such Depositions, and such Certificates to be allowed and confirmed as aforesaid, or any Certificates heretofore allowed and confirmed, or any other Matters or Things relating to the said Commissions, or the Proceedings thereupon, may be entered of Record, the Proceedings to be entered on Record.

By Direction of the Lord Chancellor.

the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal, shall and may direct and order such Commissions, Depositions, Proceedings and Certificates, or other Matters or Things, to be entered of Record; and in case of the Death of the Witnesses proving such Bankruptcy, or in case the said Commissions, Depositions, Proceedings, or other Matters or Things, shall be lost or mislaid, a true Copy of the Record of such Commissions, Depositions and Proceedings, or other Matters or Things, signed and attested as herein after is mentioned, shall and may upon all Occasions, be given in Evidence to prove such Commissions, and the Bankruptcy of such Person, against whom such Commission hath been or shall be awarded, or other Matters or Things; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: And all Certificates which have been allowed and confirmed, or to be allowed and confirmed, and entered of Record as aforesaid, or a true Copy of every Certificate signed and attested as herein after is mentioned, shall and may be given in Evidence in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, and be without any further Proof, deemed, adjudged and taken, to be a full and effectual Bar and Discharge of and against any Action or Suit, which shall be commenced or brought by any Creditor or Creditors of such Bankrupt, for any Debt or Demand contracted, due or demandable before the issuing of such Commission, unless any Creditor or Creditors of the Person that hath such Certificate, shall prove that such Certificate was fraudulently obtained; in which case Costs shall be allowed to either Party, as in other common Cases: And to the End any Creditor or other Person or Persons may know where to search and see whether such Commission hath issued, and find what Depositions have been taken by virtue thereof, and what Proceedings have been thereupon, and whether the said Bankrupt hath made such Affidavit or Affirmation as aforesaid, and whether such Certificates are entered of Record as aforesaid, and all other Matters or Things which shall be entered of Record in pursuance of this Act, the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal shall appoint a certain proper Place near the Inns of Court, where all and every the Matters aforesaid shall be entered of Record, where all Persons shall be at Liberty to search and see if the same are duly entered of Record; and the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners shall, by a Writing under his or their Hands, appoint a proper Person, who shall, by himself, or his sufficient Deputy, to be approved by the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners, by a Writing under his or their Hands, enter of Record such Commissions, Depositions, Proceedings and Certificates, and other Matters and Things, and have the Custody of the Entries thereof; and also appoint such Fee and Reward to be paid to such Person for his Labour and Pains therein, as the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners shall think reasonable, not exceeding what is usually paid in the like Cases; and that the Person so to be appointed, and his Deputy, shall continue to enter of Record all and every the Matters and Things aforesaid, and to have the Custody of the same, so long as he or they shall respectively behave themselves well in entering the same of Record, and keeping such Entries, and shall not be removed, but by Order in Writing under the Hand of the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners, on a good and sufficient Cause therein specified; and in case such Person shall die, or be as aforesaid removed, the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Time being shall and may, in Writing under his or their Hands, appoint another Person to enter the same of Record, who shall have the Custody of the Entries thereof, and shall have and receive the like Fee and Reward for his Labour and Pains therein.

Liberty to search.

Clause to prevent unnecessary Expenses.

XLII. And whereas the suing out and prosecuting of Commissions of Bankrupt is at present very expensive, to the great Prejudice of the Bankrupt and his Creditors; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall not be paid or allowed by the Creditors, or out of the Estate of the Bankrupt, any Monies whatsoever for Expenses in Eating or Drinking of the Commissioners, or of any other Persons at the Times of the Meeting of the said Commissioners, or any of the Creditors: And that no Schedule shall be annexed to any Deed of Assignment of the personal Estate of such Bankrupt from the Commissioners to the Assignee or Assignees of the said Estate: And if any Commissioner or Commissioners in any Commission shall order any such Expence to be made, or eat or drink at any such Meeting at the Charge of the Creditors, or out of the Estate of such Bankrupt, or receive or take above the Sum of twenty Shillings each Commissioner for each respective Meeting, every such Commissioner so offending shall be disabled for ever to act as a Commissioner in such or any other Commission founded on this Act, or any of the Statutes made concerning Bankrupts.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners authorized as aforesaid, and every of them, shall not be capable of acting as a Commissioner or Commissioners in the Execution of any of the Powers and Authorities given and granted by this present Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force concerning Bankrupts, after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two (unless it be the Power hereby given of administering Oaths to Commissioners) until such Time as he and they respectively shall have taken an Oath to the Effect following; that is to say,

Commissioners Oath,

I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, execute the several Powers and Trusts reposed in me as a Commissioner in a Commission of Bankrupt against Affection, Prejudice or Malice.

So help me God.

a Memorial thereof to be entered.

XLIV. Which Oath any two or more of the said Commissioners are hereby impowered and required to administer to each other in the same Commission named and authorized; and they the said Commissioners shall and are hereby required to enter and keep a Memorial or Memorials thereof, signed by them respectively, among the Depositions and other Proceedings on each respective Commission that shall be issued forth by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force concerning Bankrupts.

XLV. And

XLV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commission of Bankrupt shall abate by reason of the Death of his present Majesty (whom God long preserve) his Heirs or Successors, but such Commissions shall continue in full Force; and if it shall be necessary to renew any such Commission by reason of the Death of the Commissioners named in such Commission, so that a sufficient Number of Commissioners shall not be living, who can act therein, or for any other Cause, in every such Case such Commission shall be renewed, and but half of the Fees usually paid upon granting or obtaining of Commissions of Bankrupt shall be paid for any such renewed Commissions.

Commissions not to abate by the Death of his Majesty, &c.

XLVI. And to the End that Commissions of Bankrupt may be carried on and prosecuted with as little Expence as reasonably may be, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Bills of Fees or Disbursements claimed or demanded by any Solicitor, Clerk or Attorney employed under any Commission of Bankrupt shall be settled, adjusted and certified by one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery; and so much as the Master shall certify to be due to such Clerk, Solicitor or Attorney, and no more, shall be paid by the Assignee under such Commission; and the Master who shall settle and adjust such Bill, shall have and receive for his Care in settling and adjusting the same, as also for his Certificate thereof, the Sum of twenty Shillings, and no more.

Bills of Fees, &c. to be settled by a Master in Chancery.

XLVII. And whereas several Bankrupts have, either through Inadvertency or the Intricacy and Multiplicity of their Affairs, failed to obtain, within the Time limited, Certificates allowed as directed by a Clause in an Act passed in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (amongst other Things) for Relief of Bankrupts whose Certificates were not allowed before the Expiration of a late Act for the better preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts, now expired, notwithstanding they have discovered all their Estate and Effects, and delivered the same up for the Benefit of their Creditors, and been conformable unto the said Act in other Particulars; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Bankrupt and Bankrupts, who was or were declared a Bankrupt or Bankrupts on or before the fourteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, and have discovered all their Estate and Effects, and have delivered up the same for the Benefit of their Creditors, shall be intitled to all and singular the Relief, Benefit and Advantages, and be subject and liable to all the Penalties mentioned or contained in the Act of Parliament passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts, if they already have obtained, or shall hereafter, at any Time before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, obtain Certificates of their Conformity pursuant to the said Act; and such Certificates shall be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certificates of Bankrupts before 14 May 1729, on Conformity, confirmed.

XLVIII. And whereas Actions may have been brought against such Bankrupts, and other Proceedings had thereupon, for Causes and Matters arising and growing due before the Time of the Bankruptcy of such Bankrupts, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Actions, and all Proceedings thereon for any such Causes or Matters, shall be and are hereby discharged against such Bankrupts and their Bail so obtaining such Certificates allowed as aforesaid.

and Proceedings against them discharged.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in Force for the Space of three Years from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Duration of the Act. Continued by 24 Geo. 2. c. 57. sect. 8.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for appointing Commissioners for taking, stating and determining all the Claims and Demands of the Creditors of The Charitable Corporation for Relief of industrious Poor, by assisting them with small Sums upon Pledges at legal Interest; and of all Persons claiming any Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund of the said Corporation, and for enabling the said Corporation to name one Person to be an Assignee under the respective Commissions of Bankruptcy awarded against George Robinson and John Thomson; and for enabling the Commissioners acting under the said Commissions of Bankruptcy to proceed and inquire of the Estates, Goods and Effects of the said Bankrupts, and to apply the same; and to oblige John Thomson, Father of the said John Thomson the Bankrupt, to appear before the said Commissioners of Bankruptcy in England. PR.

WHEREAS many and great Disputes and Law Suits have arisen and are like to continue between the Proprietors of The Charitable Corporation for Relief of industrious Poor, by assisting them with small Sums upon Pledges at legal Interest, and their Creditors: And whereas the said Charitable Corporation have already suffered great Losses: And whereas it is just and reasonable, that the said Disputes should be settled with as little Expence, and in as short and easy a Manner as may be, and that the State of the Affairs of the said Corporation, and the Demands of all Persons claiming any Share, Interest, Debts or Sums of Money in, to, out of or from the same, may be ascertained, settled, adjusted and determined: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

Trustees for ascertaining Claims: Duration of their Authority for six Months. Creditors to deliver their Claims by 1 Aug. 1732. Officers of the Corporation to assist the Trustees. Persons refusing to answer Commissioners, to be imprisoned. Persons possessed of Goods belonging to the Corporation 11 O.S. 1731, to discover them. Claims not entered in the Time limited, void. The Corporation in a General Court may choose an Assignee for each Bankrupt's Estate, and displace them again. New Assignments to be certified under the Company's Seal. Effects to be delivered to the new Assignees. Surplus of the respective Estates to go to the Corporation. J. Thomson's Father not submitting to Examination, declared a Felon. J. Thomson's Father answering, not to hinder any other Evidence. Commissioners to deliver Accounts to the Parliament.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act to restrain Sir Robert Sutton, Knight of the Bath, Sir Archibald Grant, Baronet, Denis Bond, William Burroughs, Esquires, Richard Woolley and Thomas Warren, from going out of this Kingdom for the Space of one Year and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and for discovering their Estates and Effects, and to prevent the transporting or alienating the same; and to oblige William Squire to surrender himself at a Time and Place mentioned in the Act, and to give Security for his not going out of this Kingdom for the Space of one Year and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and for discovering his Estate and Effects, and to prevent the transporting or alienating the same; and for committing the aforesaid William Burroughs to the Prison of the Fleet, until he shall have complied with the Directions of this Act. P R.

WHEREAS many notorious, fraudulent and indirect Practices have for some Years last past been carried on by Persons concerned in the Direction and Management of The Charitable Corporation for Relief of industrious Poor, by assisting them with small Sums upon Pledges at legal Interest, their Servants, Agents and Accomplices, contrary to the Intention of their Charter, whereby Numbers of his Majesty's Subjects have suffered very great Losses: And whereas there is Reason to apprehend, that the Right Honourable Sir Robert Sutton, Knight of the Bath, Sir Archibald Grant, Baronet, Denis Bond, William Burroughs, Esquires, Richard Woolley and Thomas Warren, have been concerned in promoting, abetting and carrying on some or all of the said fraudulent and indirect Practices: And whereas it is reasonable that the said Sir Robert Sutton, Sir Archibald Grant, Denis Bond, William Burroughs, Richard Woolley and Thomas Warren should be answerable for the same, in such Manner as by the Wisdom and Justice of Parliament shall be hereafter adjudged: And whereas it is prudent and necessary to secure the Persons and Estates of the said Sir Robert Sutton, Sir Archibald Grant, Denis Bond, William Burroughs, Richard Woolley and Thomas Warren, in order to their forth coming, to abide and answer such Judgment in Parliament; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

Sir R. Sutton, &c. to give Security for not departing this Kingdom for one Year. On Neglect to be committed to the Fleet. Departing the Kingdom in the Time limited, Felony. To deliver Inventories of their Estates to the Barons of Exchequer. Barons to deliver Inventories to the Parliament. On Refusal to be examined, to be committed to the Fleet. Forfeited Goods to be paid into the Exchequer for the Use of the Corporation. W. Squire not surrendering by 24 June 1732, and giving Security, guilty of Felony. Effects of W. Squire liable to the Penalties of this Act. W. Burroughs committed to the Fleet till Compliance.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament passed in the first Year of his present Majesty for punishing such Persons as should wilfully and maliciously pull down or destroy Turnpikes for repairing Highways, or Locks or other Works erected by Authority of Parliament for making Rivers navigable: And whereas the Provisions by the said Act made for punishing such Offenders have by Experience been found to be insufficient: For Remedy thereof, and for rendering the said Act more effectual, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, shall either by Day or Night wilfully and maliciously break down, cut down, pluck up, throw down, level or otherwise destroy any Turnpike Gate or Turnpike Gates, or any Post or Posts, Rail or Rails, Wall or Walls, or other Fence or Fences belonging to any such Turnpike Gate or Turnpike Gates, erected or to be erected to prevent Passengers from passing by without paying the Toll directed to be paid by any Act or Acts of Parliament already made, or hereafter to be made for that Purpose, and shall be lawfully convicted of the same upon Indictment before any of his Majesty's Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery for the County, City, Town, Borough or Corporation where such Offence or Offences shall be committed, every such Person and Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and every such Felon and Felons shall be subject and liable to like Pains and Penalties, as in Cases of Felony; and the Courts, by and before whom such Person or Persons shall be tried, shall and hereby have Power and Authority to transport such Felons for the Space of seven Years, in like Manner as other Felons are directed to be transported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Offender or Offenders shall return into Great Britain or Ireland before the Expiration of the said Term of seven Years, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, or of the said Act passed in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for punishing such Persons as shall wilfully and maliciously pull down or destroy Turnpikes for repairing Highways, or Locks or other Works erected by the Authority of Parliament for making Rivers navigable, he or they so returning shall suffer Death as Felons, and have Execution awarded against them as Persons attainted of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustees, Commissioners, Proprietors, Undertakers or other Person or Persons whatsoever authorized or impowered to put in Execution any Act or Acts of Parliament made or to be made for repairing of Highways or making Rivers navigable, shall and may, by and out of the Tolls, Rates and Duties arising by virtue of any such Act or Acts of Parliament, pay and discharge the Costs, Charges and Expences arising or becoming due for or by reason of any Action, Information, Indictment or other Prosecution whatsoever, which shall or may be commenced or prosecuted for or on account of the pulling down or otherwise destroying any Turnpike Gate, Post, Rail or other Fence or Fences belonging to any Turnpike Gate or any Turnpike House or Houses, or any Lock, Sluice, Floodgate or other Works, on any navigable River, erected or to be erected by Authority of Parliament.

IV. And

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Commissioners and Trustees appointed or to be appointed to put any Act of Parliament made or to be made for the Repair of any Highway or Highways in Execution, shall abuse or exceed their Power by erecting or causing to be erected, or continuing or causing to be continued, any Gate or Gates, Turnpike or Turnpikes, where they have not any Power by virtue of any Act of Parliament, to erect such Gate or Gates, Turnpike or Turnpikes, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace of the County where any such Gate or Gates, Turnpike or Turnpikes, is, are or shall be erected or continued, in their General Quarter-Sessions assembled, upon Complaint of any such Abuse or Excess of Power in such Commissioners and Trustees, in a summary Way to hear and determine the same, and thereupon to order the Sheriff of the County (who is hereby authorized and required to execute such Order) to remove any such Gate or Gates, Turnpike or Turnpikes.

Sheriff, by Order of Justices in their General Quarter-Sessions, to remove unwarrantable Turnpikes.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and also the said Act hereby explained and amended, and every Article, Clause and Sentence therein contained, not altered by this present Act, shall from henceforth continue and be in full Force and Effect for the Term of five Years, to be computed from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Act 1 Geo. 2. Stat. 2. c. 19. and this, continued for 5 Years. Made perpetual by 27 Geo. 2. c. 16.

Anno Regni GEORGII II. sexto.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the twenty-third Day of January, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE II. by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and from thence continued by several Prorogations to the sixteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, being the sixth Session of this present Parliament.

An Act to allow a further Time to John Thomson to appear and produce the Books, and discover the Effects of The Charitable Corporation for Relief of industrious Poor, by assisting them with small Sums upon Pledges at legal Interest, and to be examined thereupon at the Times and Places fixed in the Bill, and for allowing the said John Thomson a Proportion out of the Effects of the said Corporation which he shall discover, and for preventing fraudulent Releasing or Assigning any Debt due, from George Robinson or the said John Thomson, or either of them. P R.

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed in the last Session of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act to encourage and compel George Robinson, Esquire, and John Thomson, to appear and produce the Books and discover the Effects of The Charitable Corporation for Relief of industrious Poor, by assisting them with small Sums upon Pledges at legal Interest, and to be examined thereupon at the Times and Places therein mentioned, it was amongst other Things enacted, That if the said George Robinson and John Thomson respectively should not, on or before the thirtieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, appear before either House of Parliament or a Committee of either House of Parliament, and submit to be examined touching the Matters and Things, and in the Manner therein mentioned, and in that Case should not, on or before the fourth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, surrender himself or themselves respectively to the Commissioners named in the several Commissions of Bankruptcy therein mentioned to be awarded against them respectively, or to some of them, and submit to be examined from Time to Time upon Oath by and before the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, and in all Things conform themselves to the several Statutes made concerning Bankrupts, and also upon such Examination make such Discovery as is in the said Act mentioned, and deliver up to the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, all such Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Effects and Estate, and all Books, Papers and Writings relating thereunto, as at the Time of such Examination before such Commissioners should be in the Possession, Custody or Power of the said George Robinson or John Thomson, or either of them, then such of them the said George Robinson and John Thomson as should be guilty of any Default or wilful Omision therein, being thereof lawfully convicted by Indictment, should be deemed and adjudged to be a Felon, and should suffer as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy, and all Justices of Peace within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed were authorized and required by the said Act, in case the said George Robinson or John Thomson respectively should not appear before either House of Parliament or a Committee of either House of Parliament, and submit to be examined as aforesaid within the Time thereby limited for that Purpose, to grant Warrants for the taking and apprehending the said George Robinson or John Thomson, and them or either of them so taken to commit to the common Gaol of the County, City or Place where they or either of them should be so taken and apprehended; and Power and Authority was also given by the same Act to any Person or Persons, by virtue of a Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners of Bankruptcy in and by the said Commissions respectively authorized, to demand Admittance in the Day-time into any House or Room wherein they or any of them should have Reason to believe, or should be informed, the said George Robinson or John Thomson, so making Default as aforesaid, were, and upon Refusal to be admitted into such House or Room, in the Company of a Constable or other Peace-Officer in the Day-time, to break or cause to be broke open the Doors or Locks of every such House or Room, and the said George Robinson or John Thomson so making Default as aforesaid to seize, take and carry away, and to deliver to such Person or Persons, as by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, should be impowered and appointed to receive them respectively: And

whereas

whereas the said George Robinson and John Thomson have both of them neglected to comply with the Terms of the said Act of Parliament, and are thereby become liable to be indicted for Felony by virtue of the same Act: And whereas an humble Application hath been made to Parliament on the Behalf of the said John Thomson, who hath withdrawn himself, and is now beyond the Seas, that a further Time may be allowed him for submitting to the Terms and Conditions of the said Act, and it is apprehended that it would be for the Service of the said Corporation, that the said John Thomson should return into this Kingdom, and be examined touching the Matters and Things in the said recited Act directed and appointed to be inquired into, and that the Discoveries he is capable to make may tend to the Benefit and Advantage of the said Corporation, and of the Sufferers by the fraudulent Management of the same: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Clause relating to the apprehending John Thomson repealed: On his Submission and Conformity by 9 March 1732, not liable to Actions on that Account, and to be protected from Arrests, but on Neglect the former Sentence confirmed, and the Clause relating to the apprehending of him to be in full Force. Penalty on G. Robinson and J. Thomson, if they deliver up any Mortgage, &c.

An Act for allowing further Time for the Inrolment of Deeds and Wills made by Papists, and for Relief of Protestant Purchasers and Lessees. EXP.

3 Geo. 1. c. 18. WHEREAS by a Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the third Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for explaining an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to oblige Papists to register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for such Registering, and for securing Purchases made by Protestants, it was enacted, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventeen no Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or any Interest therein, or Rent or Profit thereout, should pass, alter or change from any Papist or Person professing the Popish Religion, by any Deed or Will, except such Deed within six Months after the Date, and such Will within six Months after the Death of the Testator, should be inrolled in one of the King's Courts of Record at Westminster, or else within the same County or Counties, wherein the Manors, Lands and Tenements lie, in such Manner as therein for that Purpose is particularly directed: And whereas by a Clause in another Act of Parliament passed in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for explaining and amending the Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to oblige all Persons being Papists, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Persons in Great Britain refusing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, by several Acts herein mentioned, to register their Names and Real Estates, and for enlarging the Time for taking the said Oaths and making such Registers, and for allowing further Time for the Inrolment of Deeds or Wills made by Papists, which have been omitted to be inrolled, pursuant to an Act of the third Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, and also for giving Relief to Protestant Lessees, it was enacted, for the Relief of such Persons who had neglected or omitted to inrol their Deeds or Wills, that every Deed and Will which had been then made, since the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in order to pass, alter or change any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments or any Interest therein, or Rent or Profit thereout, from any Person professing the Popish Religion, though not then inrolled, should be as good and effectual in the Law, as the same would have been, in case the said Deeds and Wills had been inrolled within the Time limited by the said Clause in the said former Act for Inrolment thereof, provided the said Deeds and Wills should be inrolled on or before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four in such Manner as by the said former Act was directed: And whereas by a Clause in another Act of Parliament passed in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread, for Relief of Bankrupts whose Certificates were not allowed before the Expiration of a late Act for the better preventing Frauds committed by Bankrupts, for allowing further Time for Inrolment of Deeds or Wills made by Papists, and for Relief of Protestant Purchasers and Lessees, and for making further Provision concerning Certificates relating to the Settlements of poor Persons, and the Charges of maintaining and removing certificated Persons, it was enacted, for the Relief of such Persons who had neglected or omitted to inrol their Deeds or Wills, that every Deed and Will which had been made since the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in order to pass, alter or change any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein or Rent or Profit thereout, from any Person professing the Popish Religion, though not then inrolled, should be as good and effectual in the Law, as the same would have been, in case the said Deeds and Wills had been inrolled within the Times limited in the said Clauses in the said former Acts for the Inrolment thereof; provided the same Deeds and Wills should be inrolled on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, in such Manner as by the said Clause in the said first mentioned Act is directed: And whereas several of his Majesty's Protestant Subjects, since the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, have purchased Lands and taken Leases upon Fines paid, where some small Rents have been reserved, from Papists or Persons professing the Popish Religion, and have omitted or neglected to inrol their Purchase Deeds and Leases within the Times limited by the said Clauses in the said Acts directed for the Inrolment thereof, and are in Danger of being defeated of their said Purchases and Leases: And whereas several Infants and others, claiming under the last Wills and Testaments of Papists or Persons professing the Popish Religion, may be defeated of their said Lands so devised to them, through the Neglect or Omission of the Executors or Trustees of such Wills, to inrol the same in due Time, according to the Direction of the said Clauses in the said Acts: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Deeds and Wills made by Papists since 29 Sept. 1717, and not duly inrolled, shall be good, if inrolled by 29 Sept. 1733. Deeds or Wills, of whose Deficiency in Inrolment Advantage was taken by 1 Feb. 1732, excepted. No Purchase made for valuable Consideration by any Protestant shall be avoided for want of Inrolment: So as no Judgment, &c. hath been obtained.

C A P. VI.

An Act for obviating a Doubt which may arise upon an Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act that all Proceedings in the Courts of Justice within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be in the English Language, so far as the same doth or may relate to the Court of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, or to any Members or Branches thereof.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act that all Proceedings in the Courts of Justice within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be in the English Language, it is amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three all Writs, Process and Returns thereof and Proceedings thereon, and all Pleadings, Rules, Orders, Indictments, Informations, Inquisitions, Presentments, Verdicts, Prohibitions, Certificates, and all Patents, Charters, Pardons, Commissions, Records, Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, Bonds, Rolls, Entries, Fines and Recoveries, and all Proceedings relating thereunto, and all Proceedings of Courts Leet, Courts Baron and Customary Courts, and all Copies thereof, and all Proceedings whatsoever in any Courts of Justice within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and which concern the Law and Administration of Justice, shall be in the English Tongue and Language only, and not in Latin or French, or any other Tongue or Language whatsoever, and shall be written in such a common legible Hand and Character as the Acts of Parliament are usually ingrossed in, and the Lines and Words of the same to be written at least as close as the said Acts usually are, and not in any Hand commonly called Court Hand, and in Words at length and not abbreviated: And whereas a Doubt may arise, whether the Proceedings in the Court of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer are or may be comprehended or included within the said Act, or any general Words therein contained; For obviating the said Doubts, Be it declared and enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed, deemed or taken to extend to the said Court of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, or to any Proceedings therein, or to any Members or Branches thereof.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Court of Receipt and the several Members thereof, and their Under Officers, Deputies and Clerks, shall carry on the Business to them severally and respectively belonging and appertaining, according to the usual Course and ancient Method and Practice, and in like Manner as if the said Act had never been made; any Thing therein to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. VII.

An Act for the free Importation and Exportation of Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Emeralds and all other Jewels and precious Stones.

WHEREAS this Kingdom is now become a great Mart for Diamonds and other precious Stones and Jewels, from whence most foreign Countries are supplied, and great Numbers of rough Diamonds are sent from abroad to be cut and polished here, which is a great Advantage to this Nation, and there is great Reason to believe, if the Importation thereof was encouraged and made easy, the said Trade would increase: And whereas among the Rules in the Table of Fees and Allowance due and payable to the Officers of the Customs, dated the seventeenth Day of May one thousand six hundred and sixty-two, signed by Sir Edward Turnor, then Speaker of the House of Commons, and confirmed by the Act of Tunnage and Poundage passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and since continued, and now in Force, it is declared, That Diamonds, precious Stones, Jewels and Pearls of all Sorts shall pass outwards without Warrant or Fee; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the tenth Day of April which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three all Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Emeralds, and all other precious Stones and Jewels, shall pass inwards without Warrant or Fee, in like Manner as they now pass outwards, and free from the Payment of any Duty granted to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; and it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import or export the same in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; Subject nevertheless to the Proviso herein after contained.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to annul or make void the Duty granted to his Majesty for the Use of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies by an Act passed in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, for such Pearls, Diamonds and other precious Stones or Jewels as shall be imported into this Kingdom from any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the said Company, or to take away or alter any Privileges, Profits or Advantages granted to or now held or enjoyed by the said Company.

An Act for rebuilding the Parish Church of Saint George the Martyr in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, as one of the fifty new Churches directed to be built by two Acts of Parliament, one made in the ninth, the other in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne. P. R.

The Church of Saint George the Martyr in Southwark to be built as one of the fifty new Churches. 6,000 l. to be paid out of the Coal Duty by 24 June 1733, for that Purpose.

C A P. IX.

An Act to explain and amend two Acts of Parliament, one made in the twelfth and the other in the thirteenth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, for making navigable the River Dun in the County of York, and for the better perfecting and maintaining the said Navigation, and for uniting the several Proprietors thereof into one Company. P.R.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for making the River Dun in the West Riding of the County of York, navigable from Holmstile in Doncaster up to the utmost Extent of Tinsley Westward, a Township within two Miles of Sheffield, the Masters, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants and Commonalty of the Company of Cutlers in Hallamshire in the County of York, their Successors and Assigns, are nominated and appointed Undertakers of the said Navigation, with Power to make the said River navigable, at their own Expence, from Holmstile aforesaid, up the said River above Holmstile to the utmost Extent of Tinsley Westward, and for making and erecting Wharfs and Warehouses, Locks, Dams, and for making Towing-paths on the Banks of the said River, for the haling of Vessels with Men or Horses, and for purchasing Lands for the Purposes aforesaid, and also such Powers of taking Tunnage and Lock Dues, and other Sums of Money, as a Recompence for the Expences they shall be at in making the said River navigable, as in and by the said Act will more fully appear: And whereas by one other Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for improving the Navigation of the River Dun, from a Place called Holmstile in the Township of Doncaster, in the County of York, to Wilfick House in the Parish of Barnby Dun in the said County, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster in the said County of York, their Successors and Assigns, are nominated and appointed Undertakers of the said Navigation from Holmstile aforesaid down the said River Dun below Holmstile to Wilfick House aforesaid, and they, their Successors and Assigns, are thereby impowered, by themselves, their Servants, Agents, Workmen and Assigns, at their own Expence, to carry the Navigation of the said River, from Holmstile in Doncaster aforesaid, down the said River to Wilfick House, and to make the same River passable with Boats, Barges, Lighters and other Vessels, at all times in the Year, from Holmstile aforesaid to Wilfick House, and to scour and cleanse the said River, make Ways and Bridges, Locks, Cuts, Dams, and exercise all such other Powers and Authorities, by the said Act given them, and also to make Towing-paths on the Banks of the said River, for haling of Vessels with Men or Horses, and also to purchase Lands for the Purposes aforesaid, and also Powers of taking Tunnage, Lock Dues, and other Sums of Money, as a Recompence for the Expences they shall be at in making the said River navigable, and to exercise several other Powers and Authorities, mentioned in the said Act, as in and by the last mentioned Act will more fully appear: And whereas by the said last in part recited Act, three Wood Bridges over the River commonly called the New River or Dutch River, in the same Act mentioned, and fifteen Yards of the Banks of the same River, on each Side thereof (except so much of such Part of the Bank near one of the said three Bridges, called Rockcliffe Bridge, whereon there is a Cottage erected and built, and the Yard of the said Cottage) were and are vested in the said Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Doncaster and their Successors, who were and are obliged by the said Act, for ever, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, to repair, maintain and rebuild, the said Bridges, and the said Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, by the same Act, are authorized and obliged to make Leaves to draw up, or Draw-bridges, and such other Alterations of and in the said three Bridges, as should be convenient and necessary for the more easy Passage of Boats, Lighters and other Vessels with Masts, through the same, without taking down or lowering their Masts in such their Passage, and the said Corporation of Doncaster, by the said Act, was obliged to make such Leaves or Draw-bridges within the Space of two Years, next after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, and from thenceforth for ever after to keep and maintain such Leaves or Draw-bridges, in the said three Bridges, for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid, and the said Corporation of Doncaster and their Successors, for and in respect of the Charge which they should be put to in altering the said three Bridges, and making such convenient Passage for Boats, Lighters and other Vessels, through the same, and for repairing and maintaining the said three Bridges, and fifteen Yards of the Banks (except before excepted) above and below each of the said Bridges, and building new Bridges in lieu of them, so often as there shall be occasion, are by the said Act authorized to demand, receive and take, for the Passage of every such Boat, Lighter or other Vessel, which shall pass through the said three Bridges, or any of them (for the Passage of which Boat, Lighter or other Vessel, such Draw-bridges or any of them shall be opened) of the Owner or Master of every such Boat, Lighter or other Vessel, certain Duties or Sums of Money, by the said Act directed, and the Participants and Owners of Lands lying in the Level of Hatfield Chase and Parts thereto adjacent, in the Counties of York, Lincoln and Nottingham, in the said Act mentioned, were and are by the said Act obliged to pay the said Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and their Successors, twenty Pounds a Year at certain Days and Times therein mentioned, and such Remedies were and are given to them for the Recovery thereof, as in and by the said Act are expressed: And whereas the Undertakers of the said two separate Navigations of the said River, above and below Holmstile, have laid out several great Sums of Money in carrying on the said respective Navigations, amounting in the whole to seventeen thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, and have made great Progress in making of the said River Dun navigable, as well above as below Holmstile, and the said two Corporations for carrying on the said Work found it necessary to divide their respective Interests, in the said two separate Navigations, into Shares, and to assign several Shares thereof unto several Persons, who had contributed towards raising of the said seventeen thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, for the carrying on of the said respective Navigations: And whereas for the better carrying on and compleating of the said Navigations, above and below Holmstile, it is found necessary, that the Undertakers of both the said Navigations should be united into one Company and Copartnership, and that all the Interest of the Undertakers of both the said Navigations should be divided into one hundred and fifty Shares, to be distributed unto and among the said two Corporations, and other the Contributors to the said Undertakings, in proportion to the several Sums of Money by them respectively advanced, towards carrying on both the said Navigations, for each of which said Shares there hath been already advanced and paid or laid out, the Sum of one hundred and fifteen Pounds a Share, amounting in the whole to the said Sum of seventeen thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds: And to the end that both the said Navigations, above and below Holmstile, should be thence after carried on by the Proprietors, of the said one hundred and fifty Shares, at their common Expence, according to the Proportion of their respective Interests in the said Shares, they, by Indenture bearing Date the fifth Day of January in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty, made or mentioned to be made, &c.

Powers given by the former Acts to the separate Navigations vested in the united Company, and the whole to be divided into 150 Shares. After 24 June 1733, the Undertakers of each Navigation made one Body Corporate, and may purchase Lands, Tenements, &c. The Books of Accounts to be kept at Sheffield and Doncaster. General Court may alter former Rules, or make new ones. The Navigation to be continued to Tinsley, and capable of Vessels of 20 Tun. On Defect of such Continuation by the Proprietors, the Cutlers Company to carry it on, and receive the Duties. If the Corporation of Doncaster neglect to repair the three Bridges on the New River, Land Owners there may repair them. This Act not to lessen the Powers given to Commissioners by the former Act.

And for the better raising, levying and collecting the said Duties, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Importation of any such Goods as aforesaid, into any of the said Colonies or Plantations belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, an Entry or Entries shall be made with the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs, or the Impost Officer, or proper Officer of the Excise, in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and that all and every the said Duties hereby imposed, for and upon all such Rum, Spirits, Molasses, Syrups, Sugar and Paneles, of such foreign Growth, Produce or Manufacture aforesaid, which shall be imported into any of the said Colonies or Plantations of or belonging to the Crown of Great Britain as aforesaid, shall be paid down in ready Money by the Importers thereof, before the landing of the same respectively.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the said Commodities shall be landed or put on Shore in any of his Majesty's said Colonies or Plantations in America, out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and before the Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon shall be duly paid, or without a Warrant for the landing and delivering the same, first signed by the Collector, or Impost Officer, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Custom or Excise belonging to such Port or Place respectively, all such Goods as shall be so landed or put on Shore, or the Value of the same, shall be forfeited, and all and every such Goods as shall be so landed or put on Shore, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall and may be seized by the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the Time being, of the Colonies or Plantations where the same shall be so landed or put on Shore, or any Person or Persons by them authorized in that behalf, or by Warrant of any Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate (which Warrant such Justice or Magistrate is hereby impowered and required to give upon Request) or by any Custom-house Officer, Impost or Excise Officer, or any Person or Persons him or them accompanying, aiding and assisting; and all and every such Offence and Forfeitures shall and may be prosecuted for and recovered in any Court of Admiralty in his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America (which Court of Admiralty is hereby authorized, impowered and required to proceed to hear and finally determine the same) or in any Court of Record in the said Colonies or Plantations where such Offence is committed, at the Election of the Informer or Prosecutor, according to the Course and Method used and practised there in Prosecutions for Offences against penal Laws relating to Customs or Excise; and such Penalties and Forfeitures so recovered there, shall be divided as follows; viz. One third Part thereof for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be applied for the Support of the Government of the Colony or Plantation where the same shall be recovered, one third Part to the Governor or Commander in Chief of the said Colony or Plantation, and the other third Part to the Informer or Prosecutor who shall sue for the same.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, no Sugars, Paneles, Syrups or Molasses, of the Growth, Produce and Manufacture of any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, nor any Rum or Spirits of America, except of the Growth or Manufacture of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies there, shall be imported by any Person or Persons whatsoever into the Kingdom of Ireland, but such only as shall be fairly and bona fide laden and shipped in Great Britain in Ships navigated according to the several Laws now in being in that behalf, under the Penalty of forfeiting all such Sugar, Paneles, Syrups or Molasses, Rum or Spirits, or the Value thereof, together with the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, Ammunition, and Apparel; and if any of the Commodities aforesaid shall be imported into Ireland contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, all and every such Commodities, with the Ship or Vessel wherein they shall be imported, and the Tackle, Ammunition and Furniture thereof, shall and may be seized by the Lord Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, or Lords Justices, for the Time being, for the Kingdom of Ireland, or any Person or Persons authorized by him, them or any of them, or by Warrant of any Justice of the Peace or other Magistrate (which Warrant such Justice or Magistrate is hereby impowered and required to give upon Request) or by any Custom-house Officer, or Excise Officer, or any Person or Persons him, them or any of them, accompanying, aiding and assisting; and all and every the said Offences, committed against this Act, may be prosecuted, and the Penalties and Forfeitures recovered, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in Dublin, at the Election of the Informer or Prosecutor, by Bill, Complaint or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlane; and the Penalties and Forfeitures recovered on such Prosecution shall go and be divided and applied in manner following; viz. One Moiety to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Informer or Prosecutor.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be aiding and assisting in bringing on Shore or landing any such Sugar, Paneles, Syrups or Molasses, Rum or Spirits, into the Kingdom of Ireland, or into any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or shall receive into his, her or their House or Custody, any of the Commodities aforesaid, knowing the same to be imported or landed and brought on Shore, contrary to this Act, every such Person so offending shall forfeit treble the Value of such Goods, to be estimated and computed according to the best Price that each respective Commodity bears at the Place where any such Seizures shall be made, to be sued for, recovered and applied in manner aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall hinder, molest or resist, any Custom-house Officer, Impost or Excise Officer, or their or any of their Assistants, in the due Execution of his or their Duty in seizing or securing any of the Commodities aforesaid, imported into the Kingdom of Ireland, or landed or put on Shore in any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, which now are or hereafter may be in the Possession or under the Dominion Dominion of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, contrary to the Purport or true Meaning of this Act, he, she or they shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be sued for, recovered and applied in manner aforesaid, and shall also be liable to be prosecuted for the same, by Indictment or otherwise, and being thereof found guilty, shall be imprisoned for three Months without Bail or Mainprize; and if any Officer or Officers of the Customs, Impost or Excise Officer or Officers, or their Assistants, shall be sued or prosecuted for any thing done in Execution of his or their Duty for the better and more effectual putting in force this present Act, he or they may and shall plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence, and the Judges shall allow thereof; and if any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, in the Kingdom of Ireland, or any Officer or Officers of the Customs, Impost or Excise Office, in any of his Majesty's Plantations or Colonies in America, shall wilfully or knowingly connive at the fraudulent Importation, or landing and bringing on shore, of any of the Commodities aforesaid, contrary to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, or such Officer or Officers shall take upon him or them to seize any of the said Commodities, and shall by Fraud or Collusion desist from or delay the Prosecution thereof to Condemnation, he or they so conniving, desisting or delaying, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be sued for, recovered and applied in manner aforesaid, and such Officer or Officers shall also be incapable of holding any Office or Employment under his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

Officer, if sued may plead the General Issue.

50 l. Penalty on Officer conniving at such fraudulent Importation.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of his Majesty's Subjects, who is or shall be Master, or have the Charge of any Ship or Vessel, shall take in, or permit or suffer to be taken in, at Sea or in any Creek or Harbour, or other Place, any Sugar, Paneles, Syrups or Molasses, Rum or Spirits, in order to be imported into Ireland, or brought on shore and landed in any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every such Master or other Person, so offending, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be sued for, recovered and applied in manner herein before mentioned.

100 l. Penalty on Master of Ship, &c. permitting such Importation.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That upon all Suits and Prosecutions for the Importation of any of the Commodities aforesaid into the Kingdom of Ireland, or for the bringing on shore and landing of any of the Commodities aforesaid in any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, contrary to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, the Onus probandi, that the same and every Part thereof were fairly and bona fide, and without Fraud, laden and shipped in Great Britain, in Ships navigated according to the several Laws in Being in that behalf, or that the Rum or Spirits were made of the Growth or Manufacture of some of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, or that all and every the Commodities aforesaid, which shall be imported into any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, were of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations there, or were duly entered, and had really and bona fide paid the Duties hereby charged and chargeable thereon, before the bringing on shore and landing thereof in any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, shall lie on the Claimer or Owner thereof.

The Onus probandi in Suits to lie on the Owners.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Sugar or Paneles of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of any of the Colonies or Plantations belonging to or in the Possession of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, which shall have been imported into Great Britain after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, shall at any time within one Year after the Importation thereof, be again exported out of Great Britain, and that due Proof be first made, by Certificate from the proper Officers, of the due Entry and Payment of the Subsidies or Duties charged or payable upon the Importation thereof, together with the Oath of the Merchant or his Agent importing and exporting the same, or in case such Merchant or Agent shall be one of the People called Quakers, by his solemn Affirmation to the Truth thereof, and that all other Requisites shall be performed that are by Law to be performed in Cases where any of the said Subsidies or Duties are to be paid by any former Statute, all the Residue and Remainder of the Subsidy or Duty, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament granted and charged on such Sugar or Paneles as aforesaid, shall without any Delay or Reward be repaid to such Merchant or Merchants, who do export the same, within one Month after Demand thereof.

Duties paid for Sugar or Paneles imported from the British Plantations after 24 June 1733, to be repaid on Exportation within the Year.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, for every hundred Weight of Sugar refined in Great Britain, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, which shall be exported out of this Kingdom, there shall be, by virtue of this Act, repaid at the Custom-house to the Exporter, within one Month after the Demand thereof, over and above the several Sums of three Shillings and one Shilling per Hundred, payable by two former Acts of Parliament, one of them made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and the other in the second and third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, the further Sum of two Shillings, Oath or solemn Affirmation as aforesaid, being first made by the Refiner, that the said Sugar so exported, was produced from Brown and Muscovado Sugar, and that as he verily believes, the same was imported from some of the Colonies or Plantations in America belonging to and in the Possession of the Crown of Great Britain, and that as he verily believes, the Duty of the said Brown and Muscovado Sugar was duly paid at the time of the Importation thereof, and that the same was duly exported, his Majesty's Searcher also certifying the Shipping thereof, and all other Requisites being duly performed, according to the Book of Rates.

Allowance on Exportation for Sugars refined in Great Britain.

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 23.

2 & 3 Ann. c. 9.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Suits and Prosecutions for any Offence against this Act shall be brought and commenced within two Years after such Offence committed.

Suits to be commenced in two Years after Offence.

XII. And for the better and more effectual carrying this Act into Execution, Be it further enacted, That the Expence of prosecuting any Offence against this Act shall be paid and born, in the first Place, out of the Shares and Parts of the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby given and granted to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Seizure, Condemnation and

Charge of Prosecution how to be born.

Judgment to be had and obtained for or by reason of any Fraud or Misbehaviour against the true Intent or Meaning of this Act.

Sugars may be imported from the Spanish or Portuguese Dominions, as formerly.

XIII. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to hinder or restrain the Importation of any Sugars, being of the Growth or Produce of any of the Dominions belonging to the King of Spain, or the King of Portugal, from any Part or Place from whence such Sugars might lawfully have been imported before the making of this Act; any thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Publick Act. Continued by 26 Geo. 2. c. 32.

XIV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That this present Act shall be taken to be a Publick Act, of which all Judges and Justices shall take Notice, without specially Pleading the same; and the same shall continue and be in Force for the Space of five Years, to be computed from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament.

C A P. XIV.

An Act for the more effectual preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, and for the more easy Recovery of Debts and Damages, in the Courts of Great Sessions in the Principality of Wales, and in the Court of Assize in the County Palatine of Chester, and for the obviating a Doubt which has arisen upon an Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act that all Proceedings in Courts of Justice, within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be in the English Language, so far as the same Act doth or may relate to the Courts of Justice holden within the said Principality, and for explaining and amending the said Act.

5 Geo. 2. c. 7.
12 Geo. 1. c. 29.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain, amend and render more effectual an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act to prevent vexatious Arrests, it is (inter alia) enacted, That where the Cause of Action should not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds or upwards, in any superior Court, the Writ, Process, Declaration and all other Proceedings should be in the English Tongue, and written in Words at length, in a common legible Hand and Character, and the Defendant or Defendants in such Cases (a Copy of such Process in English having been served, as by the said Act is directed) shall appear at the Return thereof, or within eight Days after such Return: And whereas the Courts of Great Sessions in the Principality of Wales, and the Court of Assize in the County Palatine of Chester, are held only for and during the Space of six Days, Therefore for the more effectual and speedy Determination of all Actions personal, to be commenced in the said Courts of Great Sessions, and the said Court of Assize respectively, where the Debt or Damages expressed in the said Process, or declared for, do not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, be it enacted therefore by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all such personal Actions where the Debt or Damages as aforesaid, shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, to be commenced in the said Courts of Great Sessions and Assize, and where the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in such Action or Actions, shall sue out an original Writ or Process, and serve the Defendant or Defendants with a true Copy thereof, by a literate Person, at least eight Days before the Commencement of the said Courts of Great Sessions and Assize respectively, and shall cause on every Copy of such Process to be written the Notice in the said Act specified and directed, the Defendant or Defendants in such Cases shall appear at the Return of such original Writ or Process, or at or before the third Court to be held in the same respective Courts of Great Sessions and Assize, and in case the said Defendant or Defendants shall not appear at the Return of the said original Writ or Process, or at or before the said third Court, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his or their Attorney, upon Affidavit being made and filed in the proper Court, of the personal Service of such Writ or Process as aforesaid (which said Affidavit shall be filed in the said Court, and for the filing whereof there shall be paid the Sum of one Shilling to the proper Officer, and no more) to enter an Appearance for such Defendant or Defendants, and to proceed thereon as if the Defendant or Defendants had entered his, her or their Appearance to such Action or Actions; any Law or Usage in the said Courts of Great Sessions or of Assize to the contrary notwithstanding.

In personal Actions under 10l. in the Courts of Great Sessions, &c. on original Writ and Service, &c.

and Defendant's Nonappearance at the third Court,

Plaintiff, &c. on Affidavit of Service, may enter Appearance for him.

5s. only for Copy and Service.

II. Provided always, no Attorney, Bailiff or other Person shall have, take, charge or demand more than the Sum of five Shillings for the making and serving a Copy of such original Writ or Process issuing out of such Courts of Great Sessions or of Assize, on such Defendant or Defendants respectively as aforesaid.

The Act 4 Geo. 2. c. 26. That Proceedings in Courts of Justice shall be in English, extended to Wales.

III. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether an Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act that all Proceedings in Courts of Justice within that Part of Great Britain called England, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall be in the English Language, doth extend to the said Courts of Great Sessions and other Courts in the Principality of Wales, the said Courts of Great Sessions, and the said other Courts in the said Principality, not being therein mentioned: For the removing and obviating of such Doubts, be it further enacted, and it is hereby declared, That the said last mentioned Act, and all Clauses and Directions therein, shall be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby directed to be deemed and taken to extend to the said Courts of Great Sessions, and all other Courts within the said Principality of Wales, in as large, ample and beneficial Manner as if the said Courts of Great Sessions, and the said other Courts in the said Principality, had been particularly mentioned and expressed in the said Act.

Penalties for Offences there against the said Act where to be recovered.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That where any Person or Persons shall offend against the said last mentioned Act in the said Courts of Great Sessions, or the said other Courts in Wales, that the Penalty expressed in the said Act to be forfeited and paid for such Offence, shall and may be sued for and recovered by such Person who shall sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, either in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in Westminster, as by the said Act is directed, or in the Court of Great Sessions held for the County where the same Offence shall be committed, wherein no Escoign, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed.

V. And

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Writs, Process and Returns thereof, and Proceedings thereon, and all Pleadings, Rules, Orders, Indisments, Informations, Inquisitions, Presentments, Verdicts, Prohibitions, Certificates, Patents, Charters, Pardons, Commissions, Records, Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, Bonds, Rolls, Entries, Fines and Recoveries, and all Proceedings relating thereunto, and all Proceedings of Courts Leet, Courts Baron and Customary Courts, and all Copies thereof, and all Proceedings whatsoever, in any Courts of Justice within England, Wales and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and which concern the Law and Administration of Justice, may from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, be written or printed in a common legible Hand and Character, and with the like Way of Writing or Printing, and with the like Manner of expressing Numbers by Figures, as have been heretofore or are now commonly used in the said Courts respectively, and with such Abbreviations as are now commonly used in the English Language, and that no Penalty or Punishment shall be incurred, by Virtue of the said recited Act, for any other Offence than for Writing or Printing any of the Proceedings, or other the Matters and Things above mentioned, in any Hand commonly called Court Hand, or in any Language except the English Language, nor shall any such Penalty or Punishment be extended to the expressing the proper or known Names of Writs or other Process or Technical Words in the same Language as hath been commonly used, so as the same be written or printed in a common legible Hand and Character, and not in any Hand commonly called Court Hand; and that all Prosecutions for Offences against the said Act shall be commenced within three Months after the same shall be committed; and that the several Officers in the several Offices of the King's and the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and in the Offices of the Clerk of the Pipe, and the Clerk of Excheats in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, shall and may write and send out, in Process for his Majesty's Service, Rolls or Schedules of all such Debts as have been forfeited and became due and owing to his said Majesty, before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, in the same Manner they used to do, provided the Writ or Process to be annexed to the said Rolls or Schedules shall be in the English Tongue and in a common legible Hand, and according to the Direction of the said recited Act; any Thing in the said Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

After 25 March 1733. No Penalty to be incurred for Abbreviations commonly used in English, nor Technical Terms, &c.

Prosecutions to be commenced within 3 Months.

Process of the Pipe Office, &c. may be issued as formerly, if the Process annexed be in English, and a common Hand.

C A P. XV.

An Act for making more effectual an Act passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, for repairing the Roads therein mentioned, from the Parish of Enfield in the County of Middlesex, to the Town of Hertford, and to the great Bridge in Ware in the County of Hertford, and for amending the Road from the said great Bridge to the South End of the great Bridge at Wades Mill, and from the great Road at Cheshunt to the West End of Small Lea Bridge in the said County of Hertford. P R.

All Powers granted by the Act 11 Geo. 1. c. 11. for repairing Enfield Road further continued for 7 Years, and after 3 May 1733, extended to Wades Mill, &c.

C A P. XVI.

An Act for repairing the Roads leading from a Place called Saint Johns Bridge in the County of Berks, to a Place called Fyfield in the said County. P R.

The Toll took Place from the first Day of June 1733, and is to have Continuance for 21 Years. Continued by 12 Geo. 2. c. 11.

C A P. XVII.

An Act for repealing an Act for laying a Duty on compound Waters or Spirits, and for licensing the Retailers thereof, and for determining certain Duties on French Brandy, and for granting other Duties in Lieu thereof, and for enforcing the Laws for preventing the running of Brandies.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament made in the second Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty on compound Waters or Spirits, and for licensing the Retailers thereof, hath not answered the good Purposes thereby intended, and hath been a Discouragement to the distilling of Spirits from Corn in Great Britain, We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, the said Act and every Matter and Thing therein contained, shall be and is hereby repealed; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The said Act after 24 June 1733, repealed.

II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh and eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty upon all French Goods and Merchandizes, it is amongst other Things enacted, That for every Tun of French Brandy of single Proof, imported after the twenty-eighth Day of February one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, for the Term of thirty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, there should be paid the Sum of thirty Pounds, and for every Tun of French Brandy of double Proof, imported as aforesaid, sixty Pounds, over and above the Duties charged thereupon, without any Deduction, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, which said several Duties have been by several Acts of Parliament since continued, and are now payable to his Majesty: And whereas the high Duties upon French Brandies have tempted many of the Traders therein to import great Quantities thereof from Flemish Ports, and as German or Flemish Brandy, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue and the fair Trader; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, the said Duty of thirty Pounds per Tun on French Brandy of single Proof, and sixty Pounds per Tun on French Brandy of double Proof, shall cease, determine and be no longer paid or payable.

The Duties imposed by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 26. on French Brandy repealed.

III. And to the Intent that no Failure or Deficiency may accrue or happen in the respective Funds, to which the Duties by this Act determined were appropriated and applicable, by the Determination of the aforesaid Duties; we your Majesty's said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, have, in Lieu of the said last mentioned Duties hereby determined, freely and unanimously resolved to give and grant to your Majesty the Duty and Imposition herein after mentioned, and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, in Lieu of the said Duties hereby determined, there be raised, levied, collected and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties of Excise herein after expressed, that is to say,

For every Gallon of single Brandy, Spirits of Aqua Vitæ imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before landing, over and above the Duties payable for the same, one Shilling.

For every Gallon of Brandy, Spirits of Aqua Vitæ above Proof, commonly called Double Brandy, imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before landing, over and above the Duties payable for the same, two Shillings.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Rates, Duties and Impositions shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and accounted for unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways and Means, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, and with such Power of Mitigation, and other Powers, and with such Allowances, as any the Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale or other Liquors are by any Act or Acts of Parliament or Law whatsoever now in Force, enacted, appointed or allowed to be raised, levied, collected, managed, recovered and paid; and that so much of the said Acts as are now in Force for the raising, levying, collecting, paying and answering the said Duties of Excise, shall be continued, and be practised, put in Execution and observed, in and for the raising, levying, collecting, managing, adjudging and answering the said Duties of Excise by this Act granted, as fully and effectually as if the same were particularly and at large re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Commissioners of Excise shall pay all the Monies that they respectively shall receive of the said Duties (the necessary Charges of receiving, levying, managing and accounting for the same excepted) into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinct and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues, for the Purposes in this Act expressed.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Monies arising by the said Duties by this Act charged and imposed, shall be appropriated, issued and applied, and the same are hereby appropriated and made payable to the same Uses, Intents and Purposes as the said last mentioned Duties, hereby determined as aforesaid, were appropriated and applicable before the making of this present Act, and shall have the same Continuance, and shall be also subject and liable to the same Redemption by Parliament as the said last mentioned Duties, hereby determined as aforesaid, were subject and liable unto.

VII. And for the Encouragement of the Exportation of Spirits drawn from Corn in Great Britain, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Distiller or Distillers, or other Person or Persons, to export such Spirits drawn from Corn as aforesaid, upon Oath made before any two or more of the Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of the Peace for the County or Place from whence any such Spirits, drawn from Corn in Great Britain, are intended to be exported, That the same are drawn from Corn in Great Britain without any Mixture with any other Materials, either native or foreign, and that the Duties of the same are duly entered and paid, and that the same are exported for Merchandize to be spent beyond the Seas; and upon producing a Certificate under the Hands of the Officers of Excise for the Port or Place where such Spirits were shipped, of the Quantity so shipped, and that the same was shipped in the Presence of such Officer, that such Distiller or Distillers, or other Person or Persons, so exporting the same, shall be allowed or paid back by the Commissioners of Excise, or their Collector for the Port or Place where such Spirits shall be shipped off, the Sum of four Pounds eighteen Shillings for every Tun of such Spirits so shipped off, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity, in full of all Drawbacks and Bounty that can be made for the same, except the Bounty of one Pound ten Shillings for every Tun of such Spirits, which shall be payable at the Custom House in Manner herein after directed.

VIII. And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Exportation of Corn, an Allowance of two Shillings and six Pence per Quarter is to be paid to the Exporter of Barley or Malt, when the same is sold at twenty-four Shillings the Quarter or under: And whereas in the making of a Tun of Spirits drawn from Barley or Malt twelve Quarters of Barley or Malt are made use of, but it is uncertain how much of the said Barley is made into Malt; For preventing any Question or Dispute that may arise thereupon, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for every Tun of Spirits drawn from Barley, Malt or other Corn, there shall be paid to the Exporter of the same, by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or other proper Officers belonging to them, when Barley is at twenty-four Shillings per Quarter or under, upon such Proof of the Exportation of the same, as by the said Act is directed, and out of such Duties as are liable to the Payment of the Bounties on Corn exported, the Sum of one Pound ten Shillings, in the same Manner as if the like Quantity of Barley, Malt or other Corn had been exported, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed, deemed or taken to extend to alter the Duties now paid on Rum or Spirits that shall be of the Growth or Manufacture of his Majesty's Plantations in America.

X. And for the more effectual securing the due Execution by the inferior Officers of his Majesty's Customs of the Provisions in the several Acts for preventing the running of Brandy: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Officer or Officers of the Customs shall neglect to seize and prosecute any Vessel, Boat, Horses or other Cattle or Carriage which shall be forfeited for the Causes above mentioned, every such Officer and Officers being thereof lawfully lawfully convicted upon his or their Appearance or Default, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or by the Confession of the Offender or Offenders, by or before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Division or Liberty where such Offence shall be committed, or the Offender shall be found (which Oath such Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby required to administer) the Offender and Offenders so convicted shall severally forfeit for every such Neglect the Sum of fifty Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Use of the King, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of the Informer or Prosecutor, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom such Offender shall be convicted as aforesaid; and for want of such Distress, every such Offender shall by such Justice or Justices be committed to Prison, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of six Months.

50 l. Penalty on Custom-house Officer for every Neglect of his Duty herein.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, no Person or Persons shall hawk or sell, or expose to Sale, any Brandy, Strong Waters or other Spirits about the Streets in any Wheelbarrow, or upon the Water in any Ship, Boat or Vessel, or in any other Manner whatever, or shall sell or expose the same to Sale on any Bulk or Bulks, Shed or Sheds, Stall or Stalls, or on or in any other Place or Places, other than the Dwelling House of the Persons so selling the same, upon Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence the Sum of ten Pounds; and that it shall and may be lawful for any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for or near the Place or Places where such last mentioned Offence or Offences shall be committed, and he or they are hereby impowered to hear and determine, upon the Confession of the Offender, or upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath or Oaths the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby impowered and required to administer) in a summary Manner, every such Offence or Offences, upon Complaint made to him or them thereof within one Calendar Month next after the Offence is committed; and if any Person or Persons shall be convicted of any such Offence or Offences, the said Penalty or Forfeitures shall and may be raised and levied by such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the said Justice or Justices, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hands and Seals; and that after the same shall be levied, it shall be paid, one Moiety thereof to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety into the Hands of the Overseers of, and for the Use of, the Poor of that Parish where any such Offence or Offences shall happen to be committed; and in case any such Person or Persons as shall have been convicted of any such Offence or Offences last mentioned shall refuse to pay the said Sum of ten Pounds, or shall not have Goods and Chattels upon which the same may be levied, the said Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months, nor less than one Month.

50 l. Penalty on hawking or selling Brandy, &c. about the Streets.

On want of Distress, Offender to be sent to the House of Correction.

An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs and other Officers in the electing and returning such Members, so far as the same relates to the holding of County Courts.

7 & 8 W. 3.
c. 25.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs and other Officers in the electing and returning such Members, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That the Sheriff of any County, upon the Election to be made of any Knight or Knights of the Shire, should proceed to Election at the next County Court, unless the same should fall out to be held within six Days after the Receipt of the Writ, or upon the same Day, and then should adjourn the said Court to some convenient Day, giving ten Days Notice of the Time and Place of Election: And whereas by the same Act it was also enacted, That all County Courts held for the County of York, or any other County Courts, which were used to be held on a Monday, should from thenceforth be called and begun on a Wednesday: And whereas there was no express Provision to prevent the Adjournment of any County Court to a Monday, whereby Doubts have arisen whether the same might not be adjourned to a Monday, which is declared by the said Act to be a very inconvenient Day to all the Suitors thereunto, which hath given Occasion to County Courts being frequently adjourned over to a Monday, to the great Inconvenience of such Suitors, who at Elections for Knights of the Shire, and their Services at other Times, are thereby obliged to travel on Sundays: And whereas there is no Provision made by the said Act, with relation to not adjourning County Courts to a Friday or Saturday, which is as inconvenient to all the Suitors as if the same were adjourned to a Monday, For Remedy whereof be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, no County Court whatsoever, held within that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be adjourned to a Monday, a Friday or Saturday, and that all and every such Adjournment and Adjournments, and all and every Act and Deed done or performed at such Courts so adjourned, shall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be utterly null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

After 24 June 1733, no County Court in Great Britain to be adjourned to a Monday, Friday or Saturday: Repealed by 18 Geo. 2. c. 18. sect. 11.

But County Courts begun on any other Days may be adjourned to those.

II. Provided nevertheless, That any County Court began, holden on or adjourned to a Day not prohibited by this Act, or the said other recited Act, for electing any Knight or Knights of the Shire for any County, or for hearing and determining Causes, or such other Matters and Business as are usually transacted at County Courts within the Limits aforesaid, may be adjourned over from Day to Day, though the same may happen on a Monday, Friday or Saturday, until such Election or such other Matters as aforesaid be fully finished and determined; any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for the more effectual repairing the Roads leading from Wades Mill in the County of Hertford, to Barley and Roydon in the said County. P R.

The Tolls took Place from the 24th Day of June 1733, and have Continuance for 21 Years. Continued by 16 Geo. 2. c. 16.

C A P. XXV.

An Act for enabling his Majesty to apply five hundred thousand Pounds out of the Sinking Fund for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and for the further Disposition of the said Fund, by paying off one million of South-Sea Annuities, and for enabling his Majesty out of the Monies arisen by Sale of the Lands in the Island of Saint Christopher, to pay the Sum of eighty thousand Pounds for the Marriage Portion of the Princess Royal, and ten thousand Pounds to the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia in America, and for making good all Deficiencies and Charges by taking of Broad Pieces into the Mint, out of the Coinage Duty; and for appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament, and for issuing to the Subdean, Treasurer and Steward of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster, out of the Monies reserved for building fifty new Churches within the Cities of London and Westminster and the Suburbs thereof, and for making Provisions for the Ministers of the same, four thousand Pounds for the Repair of the said Collegiate Church, and twelve hundred Pounds for finishing the Dormitory belonging thereunto.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, being desirous to have the Publick Debts and Incumbrances lessened and discharged, as fast as conveniently may be with Regard to Justice and the Publick Faith, and at the same Time to raise a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds towards the Supply for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most

most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That by or out of such Monies as are or shall be in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, of the Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies commonly called The Sinking Fund, at or at any Time before the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three (after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sum and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Acts to be paid out of the same) there shall be issued, paid and applied, a Sum not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds, towards the Supply for the said Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three as aforesaid, and the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, and the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby authorized and impowered to issue and apply the same accordingly.

500,000l. out of the Money in the Sinking Fund at Midsummer 1733, to be issued towards the Supply of the current Year.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That by or out of such Monies as are or shall be in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, Excesses and Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, arisen or to arise at or from the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three (after Payment of or reserving sufficient to pay the said Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, and such other Monies as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same) there shall be issued, paid and applied to the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, at the said Feast-Day, and afterwards quarterly from Time to Time, as the same shall arise, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall on such Quarter Day or Days be in the Receipt of Exchequer, for or towards redeeming Part of the Annuities attending on the Capital Stock of Annuities remaining due to the said Company, until the same Payments shall in the whole amount to the Sum of one million Sterling; and that as the said Payments of Principal Money shall be from Time to Time made, a proportional Part of their said Capital Stock of Annuities, and of the Annuities attending thereon, and of the Allowance for Charges of Management, shall also from Time to Time cease and determine for the Benefit of the Publick: But as it may so happen, that on the said Feast-Day of Saint Michael the Archangel which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, there may not be sufficient Money in the Exchequer arisen from the said Surplusses to satisfy and pay the said intire Sum of one million, and the said South-Sea Company may desire then to receive the whole Sum in one intire Payment, in order to make one Distribution of the whole amongst all the Proprietors of their said Capital Stock of Annuities at one Time, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Application being made by the said Company to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, and giving them Notice of such their Desire to have and receive the said one million in one intire Payment, ten Days at least before the said Feast-Day, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer, by Warrant under their Hands, to permit or suffer any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance or lend to his Majesty at the Receipt of his Exchequer so much Money, as together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, shall be wanting to compleat the said Sum of one million, upon Credit of the growing Produce of the said Surplusses, Excesses or Overplus Monies, and to be repaid out of the same, as they shall quarterly afterwards arise, together with an Interest for the Forbearance thereof, in the mean Time, after a Rate not exceeding three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and in such case the Money so to be lent or advanced, shall be issued and paid to the said Company, together with the Monies then remaining in the Exchequer of the said Surplusses, to compleat the Payment of the said intire Sum of one million, and the Monies which from thenceforth shall arise from the said Surplusses, shall quarterly be issued and applied to discharge and satisfy such Loans with the Interest thereof, in the due Order and common Course of the Exchequer, in cases of Loans; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Monies arising by the said Fund, to be afterwards applied towards discharging 1,000,000l. of South-Sea Annuities.

Treasury may borrow Money at 3l. per Cent. on the said Fund to supply Deficiencies.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said South-Sea Company shall forthwith, upon the Receipt of the said Sum of one million, or as soon after as conveniently may be, divide out and distribute the same, as near as conveniently may be done, amongst all the several Proprietors of their said Capital Stock of Annuities, towards sinking and discharging so much of their Shares or Interests in the said Capital Stock of Annuities, by even and equal Dividends amongst them all, in Proportion to their respective Shares or Interests therein.

The Money to be equally distributed to the Proprietors.

IV. And to the End, Intent and Purpose that all Trust Estates and Interests in the said Capital Stock of Annuities of the South-Sea Company may be preserved and improved for the Benefit of the Persons concerned therein, with the least Expence and Inconvenience to them, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all and every Case and Cases where, in Pursuance of this Act, any Payments or Dividends shall be made of the Capital of any such Annuity Stock as shall be vested in any Person or Persons in Trust for other Persons, who have or claim distinct or different Interests therein, or for any other Ends or Purposes for which the Capital Sum or Annuity ought to be preserved intire, such Payments or Dividends of the Capital Stock of Annuities shall not be paid or applied as Dividends of Profit, Annuity or Interest, but shall remain in the Hands of such Trustees respectively, till otherwise disposed of at Interest, and for that Purpose it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustee or Trustees who shall receive the same, at his or their Discretion, to lay out or dispose of the same or any Part thereof, in the Purchase of so much other Capital Stock of the same Kind, as at the current Market Price of such Annuity Stock, the Monies received for such Dividends shall, as near as conveniently may be, extend to purchase, which new purchased Stock of Annuities shall be transferred to such Trustee or Trustees, and a Receipt Trust Estates to be preserved.

Receipt or Receipts shall be given and signed by the Person or Persons transferring the same, for the Monies paid for the same; and in case such Trustees respectively, by Writing indorsed on or annexed to such Receipts, and signed or acknowledged before one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, shall declare that the Monies in the said Receipts were the Produce of the said Dividends of the said Capital Stock of Annuities (which Signing or Acknowledgment such Masters in Chancery are hereby required to accept or take, and each and every such Master, before whom the same shall be done, shall at the same Time certify the same, by subscribing his Name thereto, for doing whereof such Master shall be paid for each Certificate one Shilling and no more) then and in every such Case, the Annuity Stock mentioned in such Receipts to be transferred, shall respectively go and be deemed subject and liable to the same Trusts, for the Benefit of the same Persons, and for the same Uses, Ends, Intents and Purposes, as the rest of the Trust Annuity Stock remaining in such Trustees respectively will or ought to be subject and liable to, and such Trustees respectively shall from thenceforth be indemnified from any Loss, Charges or Damages, on Account of their so doing, at the Expence of the said Trust Estates.

Not to hinder the disposing of Trust Monies in other Securities.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to restrain or prohibit any such Trustees from laying out or disposing of any of the said Trust Monies in any other Purchases or any other Securities, whether publick or private, if they shall so think fit, in the same Manner and with the same Freedom and Security to themselves, as they might have done if this Act had not been made.

80,000 l. out of the Sale of Lands in St. Christopher's Island granted as the Marriage Portion of the Princess Royal,

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Money arisen by Sale of the Lands in the Island of Saint Christopher, now remaining in the Exchequer, there be issued and applied the Sum of eighty thousand Pounds for the Marriage Portion of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, without any Deduction, Fee or Reward whatsoever; any Law, Statute or Provision to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

and 10,000 l. to the Colony of Georgia.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after satisfying and paying, or reserving sufficient to satisfy and pay the Sum of eighty thousand Pounds, by this Act granted as a Marriage Portion to her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, there shall and may be issued and applied, out of the Money arisen by Sale of the Lands in the Island of Saint Christopher, now remaining in the Exchequer, the Sum of ten thousand Pounds, to the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia in America, to be applied towards defraying the Charges of carrying over and settling foreign and other Protestants in the said Colony.

The Appropriation of the Monies granted this Session.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and for giving further Time to Clerks and Apprentices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures and Contracts, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Duties thereby granted and continued, as shall arise or remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Duties shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved in the Exchequer to discharge the same; and all the Monies coming into the Exchequer, either by Loans or Exchequer Bills, upon one other Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and so much Money, if any such be, of the Tax thereby granted, as shall arise or remain after all the Loans or Exchequer Bills made or to be made on the same Act, and all the Interest, Premium or Rate and Charges thereon, and the Charges thereby allowable for raising the said Land Tax, shall be satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved to discharge the same; and the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds by this Act granted out of the Surplusses, Excises or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, arisen or to arise into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, at or before the Feast Day of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three; and also the Sum of thirty-three thousand one hundred forty-three Pounds six Shillings and one Penny half-penny, remaining in the Receipt of Exchequer for Arrears of former Land Taxes, shall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated for and towards the several Uses, Intents and Purposes herein expressed, subject nevertheless to such Restrictions as are herein after prescribed; that is to say,

Bills, Lottery Tickets and Orders lost, burnt or otherwise destroyed; several Supplies which had been granted to his Majesty, as is therein mentioned, were appropriated to several Uses and Purposes therein expressed, amongst which any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding fifty-eight thousand six hundred eighty-eight Pounds two Shillings was appropriated to be paid to the reduced Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, subject nevertheless to such Rules to be observed in the Application of the said Half-pay, as in and by the aforesaid Act were prescribed in that Behalf: Now it is hereby provided, enacted and declared, That so much of the said Sum of fifty-eight thousand six hundred and eighty-eight Pounds two Shillings, as is or shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the said reduced Officers, according to the said Rules by the said Act prescribed to be observed in the Application thereof, or any Part of such Overplus, shall or may be disposed of to such Officers who are maimed or lost their Limbs in the late Wars, or such others, as by reason of their long Service or otherwise his Majesty shall judge to be proper Objects of Charity, or to the Widows or Children of such Officers, according to such Warrant or Warrants under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, as shall be signed in that Behalf; any Thing in this Act, or the said former Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three there shall be allowed upon the Books of every Ship of War, in Sea Pay, a Man in every hundred Men, that the Complement of such Ship of War shall consist of, and that the Produce of the Wages of each such Seaman, and Value of his Victuals, shall be given and applied to the Relief of the poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, according to such Rules, Orders and Regulations, as his Majesty hath established and appointed, or shall establish and appoint for that Purpose; and the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy Royal, now and for the Time being, and all other Persons herein concerned, shall and are hereby authorized and empowered to give Allowance on such Ships Books of the said one Man in every hundred Men borne thereupon accordingly.

XIX. And whereas on or about the nineteenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two an humble Address of the Commons in Parliament was presented to his Majesty, that he would be pleased to authorize and require the Officers of the Mint to allow four Pounds one Shilling per Ounce Troy to all such Persons as should bring any of the Gold Coins of twenty-five Shillings or twenty-three Shillings, commonly called Broad Pieces, or any Halves or Quarters thereof, into the Mint for the Space of one Year, and to coin the same into the other current Gold Coins of this Kingdom; and it was on the twentieth Day of the said February resolved by the said Commons, That the Charge and Waste in melting the said Broad Pieces and any Halves and Quarters thereof, and the Deficiency which shall be occasioned by receiving the same into the Mint at the Rate of four Pounds and one Shilling per Ounce Troy, be made good out of the Monies that have arisen or shall arise by the Coinage Duty: And his Majesty, by a Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual bearing Date the twenty-eighth Day of the said February, did authorize and command the Officers of his Majesty's Mint to receive by Weight, from all Persons and Bodies Politick and Corporate, or any of them, all such of the said Coins as shall be brought into the Mint within the Space of one Year, and to cause the same to be melted down into Ingots, and to be coined into the current Gold Coins of this Kingdom, and also to allow to the Importers of such Gold Coins as aforesaid four Pounds one Shilling per Ounce Troy for every Ounce Troy: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, and it is hereby enacted, That the Deficiency which will be occasioned by taking the said Gold Coins into the Mint at the Rate of four Pounds one Shilling per Ounce Troy, during the Space of one Year, and the Charges of receiving, melting and assaying the same, and of the Waste thereupon, be supplied or made good out of the Monies which have arisen or shall arise by the Duty commonly called The Coinage Duty; any former Act or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to issue and pay, or cause to be issued and paid, out of the Monies reserved for building fifty new Churches within the Cities of London and Westminster and the Suburbs thereof, and for making Provision for the Ministers of the same, unto the Sub-Dean, Treasurer and Steward of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter Westminster for the Time being, the Sum of four thousand Pounds for the Repair of the said Collegiate Church, to be employed and laid out thereupon in such Manner, as to the Dean and Chapter of the same Church, or the major Part of them, shall seem most necessary; and also to issue and pay to the said Sub-Dean, Treasurer and Steward the further Sum of one thousand two hundred Pounds, for finishing the Dormitory belonging to the said Collegiate Church, by and under the Direction of the said Dean and Chapter as aforesaid; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXVI.

EXP.

An Act to prevent the Coining or Counterfeiting any of the Gold Coins commonly called Broad Pieces.

WHEREAS upon an humble Address of the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled his Majesty was pleased, with the Advice of his Privy Council, to issue his Royal Proclamation bearing Date the twenty-first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, prohibiting all Persons to receive or utter in Payment, by Tale, any of the Gold Coins of twenty-five Shillings or twenty-three Shillings, commonly called Broad Pieces, or any Halves or Quarters thereof; and was also graciously pleased, in order to give Ease to his People, and to prevent any considerable Loss on account of the Prohibition of the Currency of the said Gold Coins, by his said Proclamation to charge and command all the Collectors and Receivers of the Revenues and Taxes, for and during the Space of one Year from the said twenty-first of February, to receive such Gold Coins at the Rate of four Pounds and one Shilling per Ounce Troy in all Payments on account of such Revenues and Taxes, and also to authorize, command and require the Officers of the Mint within the said Time to receive all such Gold Coins as aforesaid as should be brought into the Mint, and to coin the same into other current Gold Coins of this Kingdom, and to allow for such Gold Coins so to be brought in after the said Rate of four Pounds and one Shilling per Ounce Troy: Now to the Intent that evil-minded Persons may not, for the Sake of the Advantages allowed for bringing in such Gold Coins, be induced to forge, counterfeit or coin the same, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, on or before the twenty-first of February which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, shall forge, counterfeit or coin any of the said Gold Coins of twenty-five Shillings or twenty-three Shillings, commonly called Broad Pieces, or any Halves or Quarters thereof, or any other Gold Coins commonly called Broad Pieces, or any Halves or Quarters thereof, or shall utter or vend any of the said Gold Coins, knowing them to be so forged, counterfeited or coined as aforesaid, then all and every such Offender and Offenders, their Counsellors, Procurers, Aiders and Abettors in that Behalf shall be and is and are hereby adjudged to be guilty of High Treason, and being of the said Offences, or of any of them, convicted or attainted, according to the Order and Course of the Laws of this Realm, shall suffer Death as in Cases of High Treason.

Before 21 Feb. 1733. Persons guilty of counterfeiting or coining Broad Pieces shall suffer as in High Treason.

II. And for the better Discovery of Offenders in the Premises, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person, who shall apprehend and take any Person or Persons who have been or shall be guilty of forging, counterfeiting or coining any of the said Gold Coins, or of uttering or vending the same, knowing them to be so forged, counterfeited or coined as aforesaid, and shall prosecute such Person or Persons, until he, she or they be convicted of such Offences, or of any of them, shall have and receive from the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where such Conviction shall be made, for every such Offender so convicted, the Sum of forty Pounds, to be paid, distributed and defrayed in the same Manner, as the Sum of forty Pounds by an Act made in the sixth and seventh Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to prevent counterfeiting and clipping the Coin of this Kingdom, is to be defrayed, distributed and paid to any Person who shall discover, prosecute and convict any Person or Persons of counterfeiting or any ways diminishing the current Coin of this Realm, and shall also be intituled to all such Gold Coins called Broad Pieces so forged, counterfeited or coined, or knowingly uttered or vendend as aforesaid, which shall be found in the Custody or Possession of or shall belong to such Forgers, Counterfeiters, Coiners, Utterers or Venders of the same.

401. Reward on convicting such Offender, to be paid as the Reward by the Act 6 & 7 W. 3 c. 3. against Clipping.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, being out of Prison, who shall have been guilty of forging, counterfeiting or coining any of the said Gold Coins called Broad Pieces, or any Halves or Quarters thereof, or of uttering or vending any of the same, knowing them to be so forged, counterfeited or coined as aforesaid, shall discover one or more Persons, who have been or shall be guilty of the same Crimes, or of any of them, so as one or more of the Persons so discovered shall be convicted of the same, any such Discoverer or Discoverers shall have, and is and are hereby intituled to, the gracious Pardon of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for all such Crimes against this Act, which he, she or they have committed at any Time or Times before such Discovery made; and if the Person making such Discovery be an Apprentice, he shall be deemed and taken and is hereby declared a Freeman, and shall and may exercise any lawful Trade, Profession or Mystery with all Liberties and Privileges, and in as full and ample Manner, as if the said Person had served the full Time of his Apprenticeship; any Law, Custom, Statute or Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Offenders on convicting others intituled to his Majesty's Pardon, and if Apprentices, declared Freeman.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act or any Thing herein contained, or any Attainder or Attainders of any Person or Persons for any Offence or Offences made Treason by this Act, shall not in any wise extend or be judged, interpreted or expounded to make any Corruption of Blood to any the Heir or Heirs of such Offender or Offenders, or to make the Wife of any such Offender to lose or forfeit her Dower of or in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or her Title, Action or Interest to the same.

But not to extend to Corruption of Blood, &c.

V. And that all and every Person or Persons that shall or may be accused or impeached of any of the Offences made Treason by this Act, shall and may be indicted, arraigned, tried, convicted and attainted by such like Evidence and in such Manner and Form, as now are or may, by the Laws of this Realm, be had or used against any Offender or Offenders for counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom.

Offences how to be tried.

VI. Provided always, That no Person shall be prosecuted for any Offence against this Act, unless the Prosecution against him or her shall be commenced within six Months after such Offence committed.

Prosecutions to be commenced in 6 Months after the Fact.

said Act, and for the Relief of Persons who have served as Clerks to such Attornies or Solicitors for and during the Space of five Years, and have been bound by Contracts in Writing, but have not served for and during the Space of five Years since the Dates of such Contracts, or who, being Sons of such Attornies or Solicitors, have served as Clerks to their respective Fathers for and during the Space of five Years, but have not been bound by Contracts in Writing; Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every such Person being first examined and approved, as by the said Act is directed, shall and may, on or before the last Day of Michaelmas Term which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, be qualified to be sworn, admitted and inrolled an Attorney in the several and respective Courts in the said Act mentioned; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person who hath been by virtue of the said Act admitted an Attorney in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, shall and may be capable of being admitted to practise as an Attorney in any inferior Court of Record, provided such Person be in all other Respects capable and qualified to be admitted an Attorney according to the Usage and Custom of such inferior Court; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act for the converting a further Part of the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company into Annuities redeemable by Parliament, and for settling the remaining Part of the said Stock in the said Company.

Recital of the Act 9 Geo. 1. c. 6.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament of the ninth Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for reviving and adding two millions to the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company, and for reviving a proportional Part of the yearly Fund payable at the Exchequer, and for dividing their whole Capital (after such Division made) into two equal Parts or Moieties, and for converting one of the said Moieties into certain Annuities for the Benefit of the Members, and for settling the remaining Moiety in the said Company, and for continuing for one Year longer the Provision formerly made against requiring Special Bail in Actions or Suits upon such Contracts as are therein mentioned, it was amongst other Things enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three the whole Capital Stock of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South-Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, commonly called The South-Sea Company, should be divided and separated into two equal Parts or Moieties, and that one Moiety thereof should be converted into a Joint Stock, attended with certain Annuities payable out of the Funds of the said Company, as in the said Act is provided, and should from thenceforth be called The Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities; and that the other Moiety should remain in the said Company as their Capital Stock, attended with the Residue of the said Annuities or Funds, payable at the Exchequer, and also with the several Sums settled and allowed for Charges of Management, and with all other Benefits, Profits of Trade, Privileges and Advantages then belonging to the said Company, as in and by the said Act, Relation being had thereto, may appear: And whereas in pursuance of several subsequent Acts of Parliament the said Capital Stock of the said Company hath by Redemption been reduced to fourteen millions six hundred fifty-one thousand one hundred and three Pounds eight Shillings and one Penny, or thereabouts; and the said Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities hath by Redemption been reduced to fifteen millions six hundred fifty-one thousand ninety-nine Pounds seventeen Shillings and five Pence, or thereabouts: And whereas it is judged adviseable and necessary, and also conducive to the better establishing of publick Credit, to make a further and larger Reduction of the said Capital Stock of the said Company, by dividing the same into Annuities and a Trading Stock: May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three the whole Capital Stock of the said South-Sea Company, which doth by Computation amount to fourteen millions six hundred and fifty-one thousand and one hundred and three Pounds eight Shillings and one Penny as aforesaid; and the Shares of the respective Members and Proprietors of and in the same, shall be divided and separated into four equal Parts, and the same from thenceforth shall be deemed and adjudged to be divided and separated accordingly.

After 24 June 1733, the whole Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company to be divided into four equal Parts.

Three Parts of which shall be converted into Annuities, at 4l. per Cent.

The other fourth Part to continue as a Trading Stock.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That three of the said four equal Parts, or three fourth Parts of the said Capital Stock so divided and separated, which three fourth Parts or three Parts in four will by Computation amount to ten millions nine hundred eighty-eight thousand three hundred twenty-seven Pounds eleven Shillings and three Farthings shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, be converted into a Joint Stock, attended with certain Annuities payable out of the Funds of the said South-Sea Company, in Lieu and full Recompence of all the Dividends, Profits and Advantages which such three fourth Parts or three Parts in four of the said Capital Stock are now intitled to (that is to say) with Annuities after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, until Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, and that the same three fourth Parts or three Parts in four so converted into such Joint Stock shall from thenceforth be called The new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities; and that the other fourth Part or one Part in four of the said whole Capital Stock, amounting by Computation to three millions six hundred sixty-two thousand seven hundred seventy-five Pounds seventeen Shillings and a Farthing, shall remain, continue and be in the said South-Sea Company as a Trading or Capital Stock in their own Right, attended with the Residue of the said Annuities or Funds, which are payable at the Exchequer to the said Company for their whole Capital, until the Redemption thereof by Parliament, according to the Purport and true Meaning of this Act, and also attended with the several Sums settled and allowed for Charges of Management, and with all Monies, Effects, Benefits, Profits of Trade, Debts, Dependancies, Privileges and Advantages now due, due, owing or belonging to the said South-Sea Company, subject as the same is hereafter made subject.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Member and Members, Proprietor and Proprietors, having any Share or Interest, on the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, of or in the said three fourth Parts or three Parts in four of the said Capital Stock, amounting to the said Sum of ten millions nine hundred eighty-eight thousand three hundred twenty-seven Pounds eleven Shillings and three Farthings, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns respectively, in Lieu and full Recompence of and for such his and their Share and Shares therein, and of the proportional Annuities or Funds, Dividends, Profits and Advantages, which belonged to every such Share or Shares before the making of this Act, shall at the Times hereafter mentioned have, receive and enjoy, and be intitled, by Force and Virtue of this Act, to have, receive and enjoy, free of all Charges, one or more certain Annuity or Annuities, to be computed after the said Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the said Sum of ten millions nine hundred eighty-eight thousand three hundred twenty-seven Pounds eleven Shillings and three Farthings, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, until Redemption by Parliament, and proportional Annuities for any greater or lesser Sums; and the said South-Sea Company shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, have and receive, and be intitled by Virtue of this Act to have and receive at the Exchequer, out of the Duties, Revenues and Incomes charged with their whole Annuities or Funds payable there, the Annuity to attend the said three fourth Parts or three Parts in four so as aforesaid converted into the said new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities, from the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, until Redemption by Parliament as aforesaid, by weekly or other Payments, as the whole Funds or Annuities of the same Company are now payable to them; nevertheless in Trust and for the Benefit of the Annuitants, or the Members or Proprietors who shall be intitled to the said new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities, according to their respective Interests therein; and the said South-Sea Company shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, have and receive, and be intitled by virtue of this Act to have and receive in their own Right at the Exchequer, in the same Manner as their whole Funds or Annuities are now payable, the Residue of the said Annuities or Funds, as the Annuity or Fund to attend the said remaining Trading Stock of the said South-Sea Company hereby intended to be continued in the said Company as aforesaid, till Redemption thereof by Parliament; and shall also, until such Redemption, have, receive and enjoy, and be intitled to have, receive and enjoy the said Allowances made and to be made for Charges of Management as aforesaid, and shall also be intitled to all the Monies, Effects, Debts and Dependencies whatsoever due, owing or belonging to the said South-Sea Company, and also to hold, exercise and enjoy all the Profits of Trade and other Privileges and Advantages belonging to the said Company before the making of this Act.

The said Annuities to be paid quarterly, in full of all Profits, by the Company, who are to receive the same at the Exchequer in Trust for the Annuitants.

The Allowances made to the Company for Charges of Management, &c. continued.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Members or Proprietors having any Share or Shares, on the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, in the said remaining fourth or one Part in four of the said Capital Stock to be continued in the said South-Sea Company, and be their Trading Stock as aforesaid, his, her and their Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns respectively shall have and be intitled to proportional Shares of and in the said Annuities or Funds attending the same, and also all the Monies, Effects, Debts and Dependencies aforesaid, and all Benefits of Trade, Advantages and Benefits whatsoever belonging and remaining in the said South-Sea Company, and the said Allowances made and to be made for Charges of Management, solely and exclusively from the said new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities.

Proprietors of the Trading Stock intitled to all Benefits of Trade.

V. And for the better preventing any Exceedings in Dividends to be made by the said South-Sea Company for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Accomptant of the said Company shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, twice in every Year (that is to say) at Christmas and Midsummer, or within one Month after, state and prepare an Account of the said Company's Affairs, which shall be laid before the next General Court of the said Company, in order to their declaring a Dividend; and that all Dividends to be declared and made by the said South-Sea Company to the several Members and Proprietors thereof shall be declared and made out of the clear Revenue and Profits of the said Company, after the current Payments of Interest and other Outgoings, Charges and Expences of the said Company shall be thereout first allowed and deducted; and that such Dividends shall not, at the respective Times of making thereof, exceed in the whole what the said Company at such respective Times, according to their then Circumstances and Ability (any sudden or unforeseen Losses which may happen to the said Company in their Trade, or otherwise, excepted) can or may reasonably divide, without incurring any farther Debt on their said Trading or Capital Stock, so near as the same can be computed; provided that the said Company shall not at any Time divide more than after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, until their present Debts and Incumbrances shall be cleared and paid off; and the said South-Sea Company in the State and Condition it shall be in, from and after the said Separation and Division of their present Capital Stock into a new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities, and a Trading Stock of the said Company as aforesaid, and also their said Trading Stock, and the Fund or Annuities attending the same, shall, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, remain and be solely and exclusively from the said new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities, liable and subject to and chargeable with all the Debts, Demands, Charges and Incumbrances whatsoever, which the said South-Sea Company shall, on the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, or at any Time hereafter, be liable and subject to or chargeable with on any Account whatsoever.

Half yearly Account to be laid before the General Court, who are to appoint the Dividend.

XXV. Provided always, That from and after the said Division and Separation of the said present Capital Stock of the said Company into Annuities and a Trading Stock, the Fund of the said Trading Stock of the said Company or any Part thereof, shall not, without the Consent of the said Company, be liable to be redeemed by Parliament, until the said new Joint Stock of South-Sea Annuities shall have been reduced, by Redemption by Parliament, to

to a Capital or Principal Sum not exceeding in the whole the Sum of three millions five hundred thousand Pounds.

XXVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Court of Directors shall likewise cause the Numbers, Dates and Sums of all the Bonds now owing by the Company to be fairly entered and registered in a Book, and that no new Bonds shall be issued under the Seal of the Company, nor any Bonds paid off or bought up with the Company's Money, except the Proprietors of the said Company shall, in a General Court called and held for that Purpose, be first acquainted with the Uses for which the said Bonds are intended to be issued, and that, within the Space of fourteen Days, and twenty-one Days from the Time of holding the said General Court, one other General Court shall likewise be assembled and held, to take the Resolutions of the Proprietors, whether any new Bond shall be issued or not; always provided, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Directors to affix the Seal of the Company to any new Bonds which shall be made out in lieu of any of the present Bonds now standing out, which shall be filled by Indorsements, or which shall be worn out or lost, on due Proof being made thereof; and that no Calls of any Sum or Sums of Money shall be made from the Members and Proprietors of the said Company, for the carrying on of Trade or any other Purposes whatsoever, except the same Notice shall be in like Manner first given in a General Court, and the Resolutions of the Proprietors taken in another General Court to be assembled and held at the same Distance of Time before mentioned.

The Company's old Bonds to be registered; and no new ones to be issued, but with Consent of a General Court.
7 Geo. 2. c. 17.

Exception.

No Calls of Money to be made without a General Court.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said in Part recited Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, as relates to the bequeathing any South-Sea Annuities by Writing attested by two or more credible Witnesses, be and is hereby repealed.

Part of the Act 9 Geo. 1. c. 3. repealed.

XXVIII. And it is hereby declared, That the said Annuities might have been and may be bequeathed in such Manner as any other personal Estate might have been, or may, by the Laws of this Realm, be bequeathed.

The Annuities may be bequeathed as a personal Estate.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act, of which Notice shall be judicially taken by all Judges, Justices and other Persons whatsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Publick Act.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act for the better Regulation of Lestage and Ballastage in the River Thames.

WHEREAS the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond in the County of Kent, have, by Grants from the Crown, the Lestage and Ballastage, and the sole Right of supplying all Ships and Vessels with Ballast that sail, pass and re-pass in the River of Thames, between London Bridge and the Main Sea, at the Rates and Prices accustomed; and are also intitled to and have a Right to dig, raise and take up the Gravel, Sand and Soil of the said River of Thames for the ballasting such Ships and Vessels as aforesaid: And whereas the said Master, Wardens and Assistants have for several Years last past constantly employed sixty Ballast Lighters, and one hundred and twenty Men to dig and raise Ballast from the Shelves and Sand Banks of the said River, and to carry and convey such Ballast to Ships and Vessels having Occasion for the same, and thereby the Channel of the said River hath been considerably deepened, and several Obstructions to the Navigation therein removed: And the said Master, Wardens and Assistants have constantly paid for the raising and delivering every Tun of such Ballast the Sum of six Pence, whereof four Pence hath been paid to the two Ballast Men for their Labour in raising the same, and two Pence for the Use of the Ballast Lighters employed in that Service: And the said Master, Wardens and Assistants have received of the Masters and Owners of Ships and Vessels using such Ballasting, the usual Rates and Prices following, videlicet, Nine Pence for every Tun of Ballast furnished to Ships employed in the Coal Trade, and twelve Pence a Tun from all other British Ships and Vessels, and sixteen Pence a Tun from all foreign Ships and Vessels; and the Net Profits arising and produced from the said Rates and Duties are applied and disposed of towards the Maintenance and Relief of many Hundreds of decayed Seamen, their Widows and Orphans: And whereas of late Years great Frauds have been committed by the Ballast Men, in not delivering due Tunnage of Ballast to Masters and Commanders of Ships: And whereas the Ballast Men and Owners of Lighters have represented and complained, that the Price of Provisions and Labour in general is greatly advanced, and the River is much deeper than formerly, and the Ballast more difficult to be raised, and farther to be fetched, and the Lighters obliged to be stronger built, and fitted with Masts, Sails and other Rigging; and that unless the Wages and Hire of the Ballast Men and Lighters be raised, the said Lighters cannot be made serviceable for the Purposes intended, nor the Ballast Men maintain themselves and Families: And the said Ballast Men have entered into a Combination, refusing to work and supply Ships with Ballast at the usual and accustomed Rates and Prices, and have demanded and received, of several Masters of Ships and Vessels, an advanced Price of three Pence per Tun for Ballast delivered to them respectively: And whereas the said Master, Wardens and Assistants are desirous that all Frauds and Abuses in Ballastage may be effectually remedied and prevented; and although several Merchants and Owners of Ships are willing and desirous to advance the Rates and Duties of Ballastage, yet as the said Master, Wardens and Assistants are not warranted or authorized to take more than the Rates and Prices accustomed, the same cannot be established without the Authority of Parliament: Wherefore for the remedying and preventing such Frauds and Abuses as aforesaid, and preserving the Navigation of the River Thames, and promoting and encouraging the Trade of this Kingdom, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, all Masters and Owners of Ships and Vessels lying in the River of Thames, having Occasion for any Ballast on Board any such Ship or Vessel, shall pay to the said Corporation of Trinity House, for all such Ballast demanded and entered at the Ballast Office of the said Corporation, the Rates and Prices following, (that is to say) For every Tun of Ballast consisting of twenty hundred Weight, carried to any Ship or Vessel employed in the Coal Trade, the Sum of twelve Pence, and no more, and for every such Tun of Ballast carried to any other British Ship or Vessel the Sum of fifteen Pence, and no more, and for every such Tun of Ballast carried to any foreign Ship or Vessel, Prices to be paid for Ballast after 1 June 1733. to Ballast Men.

fel, the Sum of nineteen Pence, and no more; and that from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, the said Corporation of Trinity House shall pay for the raising and carrying every Tun of Ballast consisting of twenty hundred Weight, so to be carried to any such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels respectively, the Sum of nine Pence, whereof the Sum of six Pence shall be paid to the two Ballast Men for their Labour, and the Sum of three Pence for the Use of the Ballast Lighters employed in that Service; and no greater or higher Rates or Prices shall be paid to or demanded by the said Corporation for the Ballast to be so raised and carried to any such Ship or Vessel, nor any greater or higher Wages paid to or demanded by the Ballast Men or Owners of Lighters for the raising and carrying the same, than the respective Rates, Prices, Wages and Hire above mentioned.

The Price of washed Ballast not to be altered.

Penalty on Ballast Men delivering short Quantities, or not observing Orders, &c.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to alter the Price of washed Ballast used by or delivered to any Ship or Vessel respectively.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any working Ballast Man shall, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, deliver or cause to be delivered to any Ship or Vessel any Ballast which shall fall short of the Quantity or Tunnage at and for which the same shall be delivered, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver to any Ship or Vessel such Quantity of Ballast as the Rulers of the Ballast Office of the said Corporation shall, by their usual Notes or Tickets for the Purpose, order or direct; or shall deliver to any Ship or Vessel any more or other Ballast than shall be ordered or directed by the said Rulers to be delivered to any such Ship or Vessel respectively; then and in such Case, every Ballast Man so offending, and Dath being made of the Fact within ten Days after the Offence committed, or within ten Days after the next Return of such Ship or Vessel into the River of Thames, by the Master, Mate or other Officer of any such Ship or Vessel, before any Supervisor of the Ballast Office of the said Corporation, being an Elder Brother (and which Dath any such Supervisor is hereby authorized and required to administer without Fee or Reward) shall, for every Tun which the Ballast so delivered shall appear, upon Dath as aforesaid, to fall short of the Tunnage or Quantity the same was delivered for, and also for every Tun of Ballast so ordered and directed by the Ballast Rulers on board any Ship or Vessel, which such Ballast Man shall neglect or refuse to deliver as aforesaid, and for every Tun of Ballast so delivered without or contrary to the Orders and Directions of the said Rulers as aforesaid, forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence.

Master and Wardens to make good Deficiencies in Ballast delivered, on Penalty of 50*l*.

IV. And it is hereby further declared and enacted, That the said Master, Wardens and Assistants shall, from Time to Time, pay, satisfy and make good to the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel, the Quantity or Value of the Ballast which upon such Proof as aforesaid shall be found deficient, and not delivered as aforesaid, either by delivering the like Quantity of Ballast or paying the Value thereof in Money, at the respective Rates and Prices aforesaid, at the Option of the Party aggrieved: And in case such Recompense, Payment and Satisfaction be refused to be made, or shall not be made within ten Days after the same shall be demanded, then the said Corporation in every such Case shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds to be recovered against the said Corporation by Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law, and no more than one Imparllance shall be allowed; one Moiety of which Penalty shall be applied to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, the other Moiety to the Person who shall sue for the same, which Recompense, Payment and Satisfaction the said Corporation are hereby impowered and authorized to stop and retain out of the Wages due to such Ballast Men as shall offend in delivering short Tunnage of Ballast as aforesaid, over and above the Penalties insisted hereby for every such Offence.

Owners of Ships, &c. not to compel Ballast Men to deliver Ballast contrary to Order.

Penalty on collusively receiving more Ballast than entered at the Office.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, no Master, Owner or Officer of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Person whatsoever, shall oblige or compel any Ballast Man to carry and deliver to any Ship or Vessel any Quantity of Ballast which shall be ordered and directed by the Rulers of the Ballast Office of the said Corporation to be carried to any other Ship or Vessel: And if any Master, Mate or other Officer of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Person shall, after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, fraudulently, or by Collusion with any of the Ballast Men, take or receive on board any such Ship or Vessel, any greater or other Quantity of Ballast than they respectively shall enter and pay for at the said Ballast Office, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted upon the Dath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the City of London, or the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent or Surrey, or any of them, within their respective Jurisdictions, in Manner herein after mentioned, shall, for every Tun of Ballast so fraudulently taken and received above the Quantity so entered and paid for, forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence.

Penalty on Ballast Men refusing to work at the Wages appointed, &c.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ballast Man shall, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, refuse to work at and for the Hire and Wages herein before mentioned, or, having contracted to serve the said Corporation for any Term or Time, shall quit or depart from such Service, in breach of and contrary to such Contract, or shall otherwise, at any Time, quit or depart from the Service of the said Corporation without giving three Months Notice in Writing to the Supervisors of the Ballast Office, or one of them, or shall refuse to work, or shall not work in such Places or Stations in the River of Thames as the said Corporation shall in that Behalf assign and appoint, or shall work in any Place or Station contrary to the Orders or Direction of the Rulers of the Ballast Office, or any one of them, given in Writing for that Purpose, or shall begin, promote, cause or join in any Combination, in order to raise the Wages of the Ballast Men, or otherwise to obstruct the Service of the said Corporation, or the Navigation of the River Thames, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

VII. And

VII. And whereas the Ballast Lighters belonging to and employed by the said Corporation are marked at the Stem and Stern with Numbers denoting every five Tuns of their Tunnage and Burthen respectively: And whereas it would tend more to the Satisfaction of the Masters and Owners of Ships and Vessels having Occasion for Ballast, and would prevent Frauds in delivering the same, that the Weight and Tunnage of every such Lighter should be distinguished by Marks denoting and expressing every two Tuns and a Half of the Tunnage or Burthen thereof respectively: It is therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Corporation of Trinity House shall, before the tenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, cause visible Marks to be made and set on the Stem and Stern of every such Lighter between every two Gauge Marks now placed on the Stem and Stern of every such Lighter respectively, in order that the Tunnage and Burthen of every such Lighter may be computed and distinguished by a gradual Progression of two Tuns and an Half.

The Burthen of Ballast Lighters to be new marked on the Stern by 10 July 1733.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Masters of all Ships and Vessels taking Ballast of the said Corporation, and they are hereby authorized and impowered to meet in the Square at Billingsgate on the twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and on the third Monday in June in every succeeding Year, and to adjourn to such Place as the Majority of them shall think fit, and then and there, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of the major Part of them, to appoint one or more Person or Persons, being or having been Masters or Rates of Ships or Vessels, to inspect and survey all the Ballast Lighters belonging to the said Corporation, and which said Person or Persons, so to be appointed, shall be, and is and are hereby authorized and impowered, from Time to Time, to view and examine the Marks of every such Lighter respectively; and in case such Person or Persons shall suspect that any of the Marks denoting the Tunnage of any such Lighter have been altered or displaced, and shall, at the Ballast Office of the said Corporation, require the same Lighter to be re-weighed, then and in every such Case the said Corporation shall, within ten working Days after such Request made (Weather permitting) cause such Lighter to be re-weighed by Weights provided by the said Corporation; and in case, upon such re-weighing of any such Lighter, the same shall be found to be of as great Tunnage as by the Marks thereof shall be signified and denoted, then and in such Case the Charge of such re-weighing shall be paid by the Person or Persons requiring the same; and in case such Person or Persons shall not pay the Charge of re-weighing of such Lighter, within ten Days after such re-weighing, then and in every such Case the Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds; but if such Lighter shall, upon re-weighing thereof, be found to be of less Tunnage than the Marks thereof denote or import, then the Charge of such re-weighing shall be born and paid by the said Corporation, who shall immediately, upon such re-weighing, cause the Marks on the Stem and Stern of such Lighter to be placed and made in such Manner as to signify and denote the true Tunnage thereof; and in case the said Corporation shall refuse or neglect, upon such Request made, to have any such Lighter re-weighed, or to mark the same according to the Directions and true Meaning of this Act, then and in every such Case the said Corporation shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered by Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law, and no more than one Imparllance shall be allowed; one Moiety of which Penalty shall be applied to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed, the other Moiety to the Person who shall sue for the same.

Masters of Ships taking Ballast, may appoint Persons to inspect the Marks of Ballast Lighters.

Lighters, on Suspicion, to be re-weighed.

Penalty on Corporation for Neglect.

IX. Provided nevertheless, That no more than two Lighters shall be required to be re-weighed within the Space of any one Week.

Two Lighters only to be re-weighed in one Week.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every or any Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel to appoint any two Persons belonging to such Ship or Vessel (whereof the Mate to be always one) to go on board any Lighter bringing Ballast to such Ship or Vessel, to examine, view and inspect the Marks at which such Lighter swims, both before and after the Delivery of such Ballast; and that all and every Ballast Man and Ballast Men shall immediately, before the Delivery of any Ballast to any Ship or Vessel, trim every such Ballast Lighter, so as to make the same swim at equal Marks at the Stem and Stern thereof, and pump all the Water out of the same; and if any Ballast Man or other Person working on board any such Lighter, shall, from and after the tenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, obstruct, hinder or interrupt any Person so to be appointed as aforesaid, from going on board any such Lighter, in order to examine, view and inspect the same, for the Purposes aforesaid, or shall begin to deliver the Ballast on board any Ship or Vessel, before such Lighter shall be so trimmed to swim at equal Marks as aforesaid, and the Water pumped out of the same, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five Pounds.

Masters of Ships may appoint Persons to inspect the Lighters Depth in Water.

Penalty on obstructing them.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ballast Man shall, from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, work or deliver Ballast in any Lighter not weighed, marked, numbered and allowed by the said Corporation, or if any Ballast Man or other Person shall remove, alter, deface or counterfeit any of the Gauge Marks, denoting the Tunnage of any Ballast Lighter, or the Number of any such Lighter in the Service of the said Corporation, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Penalty on working Light not weighed and marked, or defacing the Gauge Marks.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ballast Man shall, after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, demand and receive of and from any Master or Officer of any Ship or Vessel, any Sum of Money, Fee or Reward, for or on Account of any Ballast, or the Delivery of the same, to or for the Use or Service of any such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, then and in such Case, every Ballast Man so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted in Manner last above mentioned, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings.

Penalty on Ballast Men demanding Money of Masters of Ships.

XIII. And

Ballast Men to be subject to the Regulation of the Corporation, but their Wages not to be lessened.

Masters of Ships, after 1 June 1733, may carry Dung, Chalk, &c. as Ballast, on Entry at the Ballast Office, and Licence.

Allowance for Licence.

Penalty on carrying Goods as Ballast without Licence.

Quantity of Dung, &c. to be yearly shipped as Ballast.

Entries thereof when to be made at London.

After 10 July 1733, Owners of Ships may ship as Ballast, Bricks, Tiles, &c. without paying for it.

Forfeitures how to be disposed of.

Two or more Justices to determine Offences subject to pecuniary Penalties.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Ballast Men employed or hereafter to be employed in the Service of the said Corporation, shall, from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, be subject to the Regulation and Government of the same Corporation; provided such Regulations do not extend to the lowering the Wages of the said Ballast Men hereby directed and appointed to be paid to them for their Labour and Work as aforesaid.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Master of any Ship or Vessel, from Time to Time, to ship, transport and carry in his, their or any of their Ships or Vessels, as Ballast from London or any Part of the River Thames, any Dung or Compost, or any Chalk, Chalk Rubbish, Soap-Ashes, Soap-Waste, Flints, Tobacco-Pipe Clay or other Clay, or any other Goods or Commodities now claimed to be furnished as Ballast by the said Corporation of the Trinity House, subject nevertheless to the Rates and Duties, Provisions and Restrictions herein after mentioned, expressed and contained.

XV. Provided always, That the Master or Owner of every such Ship or Vessel shall first make a due Entry at the Ballast Office of the Trinity House in London, or with the Officer of the said Corporation at Gravesend, of the said Goods, Commodities and Things so licensed and authorized to be shipped and transported, and the Name of such Ship or Vessel, and of the Master or Commander of the same.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That at the Time of such Entry the Master or Owner of every such Ship or Vessel shall pay for such Licence or Authority, to the said Corporation, one Penny for every Tun of the said Goods, Commodities and Things so to be entered as aforesaid.

XVII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Master, Owner or Officer of any Ship or Vessel shall ship or put on Board any Ship or Vessel any of the said Goods, Commodities and Things herein before mentioned, specified and enumerated, before such Entry and Payment shall be made as aforesaid, or shall ship and take on board any greater Quantity thereof than what shall be so entered and paid for as aforesaid, then and in every such Case every Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the City of London, or the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent and Surrey, or any of them, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, whereof one Moiety shall go and be applied to and for the Use of the Poor of the said Corporation, and the other Moiety to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same.

XVIII. Provided also, That the whole Quantity of Dung and Compost herein before licensed and authorized to be shipped and transported for Ballast as aforesaid, for the Use of the Coasters and Colliers, do not exceed the Quantity of three thousand Tuns in any one Year, to commence and be computed from the first Day of June inclusive in every Year; and that the whole Quantity of Chalk and Chalk Rubbish herein before licensed and authorized to be shipped and transported as Ballast as aforesaid, for the Use of the Coasters and Colliers, do not exceed the Quantity of three thousand Tuns in any one Year, to commence and be computed as aforesaid; and that the Quantity of Soap-Ashes and all other Sorts of Commodities herein before licensed and authorized to be also shipped and transported as Ballast as aforesaid, for the Use of the Coasters and Colliers, do not exceed the Quantity of two thousand Tuns in any one Year, to commence and be computed as aforesaid.

XIX. Provided also, That all the Entries of any of the Goods, Commodities and Things so licensed, which shall be shipped and put on board any Ship or Vessel in the last seven Days of the Month of May in any one Year, shall be made at the Trinity-House in London, and not at Gravesend or any other Place.

XX. Provided always, That from and after the tenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel, from Time to Time, to ship, transport and carry in any such Ship or Vessel, as Ballast from London, or any Part of the River of Thames, any Quantity of Bricks, Tiles or Lime, or any other merchandizeable Commodity, without paying any Thing to the said Corporation for the same.

XXI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the pecuniary Forfeitures and Penalties arising and imposed by this Act (except such as are herein appointed to be applied otherwise) shall be paid, applied and disposed of in the Manner and for the Purposes following; videlicet, in the first Place for the paying, satisfying and defraying the Losses and Damages that the said Corporation of the Trinity House shall sustain by Reason or on Account of short or fraudulent Tunnage being delivered to any Ships or Vessels, or by Reason or on Account of any such Ships or Vessels being not supplied or furnished with the Quantity of Ballast directed by the Ballast Rulers to be delivered to such Ships or Vessels as aforesaid, and afterwards, and subject thereto, for the Benefit of the Poor of the said Corporation.

XXII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for two or more Justices of the Peace for the City of London, or any of the four Counties above mentioned, within their respective Jurisdictions (not being Members of the said Corporation) to hear and determine any of the Offences which are made subject to and punishable by any pecuniary Penalties directed to be levied by this Act, except such Matters and Offences as are particularly directed by this Act to be otherwise determined; and such Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made in that Behalf within ten Days after such Offence committed, to summon the Party or Parties accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and, after Oath made of the Commission of any of the Facts above mentioned by one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to issue a Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Party offending in the said City of London, or any of the four Counties aforesaid, within their respective Jurisdictions, or upon the River of Thames, and upon the Appearance or Contempt of the Party Party accused in not appearing (upon the Proof of Notice given) to proceed to the Examination of the Witness or Witnesses on Oath (which Oath they are hereby authorized, impowered and required to administer) and to give Judgment or Sentence accordingly; and where the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence, either by the View of the said Justices, or any of them, or upon such Information as aforesaid, or on Confession of the Party accused, to award and issue Warrants for the levying the pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures so adjudged on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed in five Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus (if any there be) and where Goods of such Offenders cannot be found, to commit such Offender to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding the Space of three Months, or until such pecuniary Penalty or Penalties shall be paid.

Distress on Non-payment of Forfeitures.

XXIII. Provided nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices of the Peace from Time to Time, where they see Cause, to mitigate, compound or lessen any of the said Forfeitures or Penalties, as they in their Discretion shall think fit; so as such Mitigation do not extend to remit above one Moiety of the Penalties inflicted and directed to be levied by this Act; and every such Mitigation shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Persons offending respectively for so much of the said Penalties and Forfeitures as shall be so lessened, mitigated or remitted.

Justices may mitigate Penalties.

XXIV. Provided also, That if any Person or Persons shall find himself or themselves aggrieved, or remain unsatisfied in the Judgment of the said Justices, then such Person or Persons shall or may, by virtue of this Act, complain or appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions for the County, City or Place wherein such Offence shall be committed, who are hereby impowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same, and in case of Conviction to issue Warrants for levying or compelling, by such Means as aforesaid, the Payment of the said Penalties and Forfeitures.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter-Sessions.

XXV. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act, of which all Judges, Justices and other Persons are to take Notice; and if any Suit or Action shall be brought or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Thing done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, in every such Case the Action or Suit shall be commenced within three Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid or brought in the County, City or Place where the Cause of Action arises, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, Not Guilty, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear so to be done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time limited for bringing the same, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her or their Action or Actions, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

Publick Act.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in Force from the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, for and during the Space of five Years and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Duration of this Act. Continued by 18 Geo. 2. c. 21.

C A P. XXX.

An Act to recover and preserve the Navigation of the River Dee, in the County Palatine of Chester. PR.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act to enable the Mayor and Citizens of Chester to recover and preserve the Navigation of the River Dee, reciting, That the said River Dee was thentofore navigable for Ships and Vessels of a considerable Burthen from the Sea to the City of Chester, but by Neglect of the said River, and for want of sufficient Banks, Works and Fences on the Sides thereof, against the Flux and Reflux of the Sea, the Chancel of the said River was become so various and uncertain, that by Sands and otherwise the Navigation to the said City was almost lost and destroyed, the Mayor and Citizens of the said City of Chester, and their Successors, were impowered to make the said River navigable from the Sea to the said City of Chester for Ships of one hundred Tuns or upwards, and to enable them so to do certain Duties in the said Act mentioned were laid upon Coals, Lime and Lime Stone brought to and unloaded within the Liberties of the said City, for the Term of twenty-one Years, and the Property of the Sands, Soil and Ground therein mentioned was immediately, from and after such Time as the said River and Chancel should be made navigable and passable with and for such Ships and Vessels to and from the said City of Chester, to be vested in the said Mayor and Citizens, and their Successors for ever, and they were at Liberty to defend, inclose and improve the same, and receive the Rents and Profits thereof, and apply the same for maintaining and repairing the intended Works and Fences, and for making, erecting and doing such further and other Works, Fences and Things from Time to Time, as Occasion should require, for making and keeping the said River navigable: And whereas several considerable Sums of Money have been laid out and expended pursuant to the said Act, but the said River is not made navigable, the Provisions for making the same navigable by the said recited Act being insufficient, and the Time thereby granted for making the same navigable is now expired: And whereas the Sands, Soil and Ground not bearing Grass, commonly called The White Sands, from the City of Chester to the Sea, and lying between the County of Chester on the North Side and the County of Flint on the South Side, are of great Breadth in most Places, and the said River not being navigable is chiefly owing to the Breadth of the said Sands and to the shifting of the Chancel from one Side thereof to the other, as the Winds and Tide vary: And whereas the said Sand, Soil and Ground, commonly called The White Sands, are not nor are likely to be of any Advantage or Benefit to any Person whatsoever, unless the said River be bounded in and made navigable by Sea Walls, Banks and Fences as aforesaid, which will require a very great Expence, as well to erect as to maintain and repair from Time to Time, as Occasion shall require; yet nevertheless, if the said Sands, Soil or Ground, commonly called The White Sands, were recovered from the Sea by Sea Walls,

21 & 22 W. 3. c. 24.

Banks and Fences as aforesaid, and the Chanel thereby confined to one certain Course, it would not only effectually make the said River navigable, but vesting the said White Sands in the Undertakers would be a considerable Encouragement to the Undertaking thereof: And whereas the making the said River navigable will be a Means to advance the Trade of the said City, and great Benefit will accrue thereby to the Inhabitants thereof and to the Towns and Countries adjacent or near the said River, as also be a Means to increase the Number of Seamen and Watermen, and promote the publick Good of this Kingdom: May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

N. Kinderley and his Assigns impowered to make and keep navigable the River Dee at their own Charge. The Names of the Undertakers appointed by N. Kinderley to be inrolled within 12 Months, and no Ground cut till such Inrolment. After the River shall be made navigable, the following Duties are to be paid. For every Tun of Goods in every Ship coming from or going to any Place between St. David's Head and Carlisle, 6 d. Paving Stones, Slates and Oysters excepted. And for every Tun of Goods in every Ship coming from or going to any Place beyond St. David's Head and Carlisle, and not beyond the Land's End and the Shetland Isles, 9 d. And for every Tun of Goods in every Ship coming from or going to any other Place within Great Britain, Ireland and the Isle of Man, 11 d. 6 d. And for every Tun of Goods in every Ship coming from or going to any foreign Place (Pitch, Tar and Timber excepted) 2 s. And for every Tun of Pitch, Tar or Timber in every Ship coming from or going to any foreign Parts, 11 s. And for every Tun of Goods to be carried from or brought to Chester in or from any Ship at Park-Gate, Flint or other Place within the Port of Chester and below the new Cut, 6 d. 6 d. per Tun only to be paid by Vessels employed by London Cheesemongers not lading at Chester. Duties on Skins or Wool to be paid by Weight. If Vessels laden with Cheese, and drawing 14 Foot Water, cannot safely pass down the said River, the Commissioners, on 14 Days Notice, are to inquire thereinto, and may order N. Kinderley, &c. to make a Wet Dock capable of holding 20 Ships at least. Commissioners for adjusting Differences. Commissioners Determination to be final, unless Application be made for a Jury within a Month. If the Justices of Great Session certify, in 10 Days after Assessment, that the Damages assessed are too great or too little, either Party, on Payment of 50 l. for Charges, may have the Damage re-assessed. N. Kinderley to deposit 10,000 l. as a Fund for answering Damages. No Works prejudicial to Lands, &c. to be begun till the Deposit be made. After three Years the Duties liable to answer Damages. 20 l. Penalty on emptying Ballast to prejudice the River. Royalties and Liberties of fishing not to be prejudiced. If the River be not fordable on Horseback, Commissioners may order two free Ferry Boats. Persons damaging the Banks or Works guilty of Felony. The Navigation not subject to a Commission of Sewers. Amended, and other Duties granted, by 17 Geo. 2. c. 28.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for the Relief of Parishes and other Places from such Charges as may arise from Bastard Children born within the same.

WHEREAS the Laws now in Being are not sufficient to provide for the securing and indemnifying Parishes and other Places from the great Charges frequently arising from Children begotten and born out of lawful Matrimony: For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, if any single Woman shall be delivered of a Bastard Child, which shall be chargeable or likely to become chargeable to any Parish or extraparochial Place, or shall declare herself to be with Child, and that such Child is likely to be born a Bastard and to be chargeable to any Parish or extraparochial Place, and shall in either of such Cases, in an Examination to be taken in Writing, upon Oath, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, wherein such Parish or Place shall lie, charge any Person with having gotten her with Child, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Justices, upon Application made to him or them by the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, or by any one of them, or by any substantial Householder of such extraparochial Place, to issue out his or their Warrant or Warrants for the immediate apprehending such Person so charged as aforesaid, and for bringing him before such Justice or Justices, or before any other of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, and the Justice or Justices before whom such Person shall be brought, is and are hereby authorized and required to commit the Person so charged as aforesaid to the common Gaol or House of Correction of such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, unless he shall give Security to indemnify such Parish or Place, or shall enter into a Recognizance with sufficient Surety, upon Condition to appear at the next General Quarter-Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, and to abide and perform such Order or Orders as shall be made in pursuance of an Act passed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ELIZABETH, concerning Bastards begotten and born out of lawful Matrimony.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Woman so charging any Person as aforesaid shall happen to die, or be married before she shall be delivered, or if she shall miscarry of such Child, or shall appear not to have been with Child at the Time of her Examination, then and in any of the said Cases such Person shall be discharged from his Recognizance at the next General Quarter-Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, or immediately released out of Custody, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace residing in or near the Limits where such Parish or Place shall lie.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Application made by any Person who shall be committed to any Gaol or House of Correction by virtue of this Act, or by any Person on his Behalf, to any Justice or Justices residing in or near the Limits where such Parish or Place shall lie, such Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to summon the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, or one or more of the substantial Householders of such extraparochial Place, to appear before him or them at a Time and Place to be mentioned in such Summons, to shew Cause why such Person should not be discharged; and if no Order shall appear to have been made in pursuance of the said Act of the eighteenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ELIZABETH, within six Weeks after such Woman shall have been delivered, such Justice or Justices shall and may discharge him from his Imprisonment in such Gaol or House of Correction to which he shall have been committed.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to send for any Woman whatsoever before she shall be delivered, and one Month after, in order to her being examined concerning her Pregnancy,

After 24 June 1733, the Person charged on Oath of being the Father of a Bastard Child, may be immediately apprehended, and committed to Prison, unless he give Security.

18 Eliz. c. 3.

Such Person on the Woman's Miscarriage, &c. shall be discharged.

The Justices, on Prisoner's Request, may summon the Overseers, &c.

and if no Order be made within six Weeks after the Woman's Delivery, Prisoner to be set at Liberty.

The Woman not to be examined relating to her Pregnancy, till one Month after her Delivery.

Pregnancy, or supposed Pregnancy, or to compel any Woman before she shall be delivered to answer to any Questions relating to her Pregnancy; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act to enable certain Persons to propound the Papers importing to be the last Will, Codicils and testamentary Schedules of Richard Norton, late of Southwick in the County of Southampton, Esquire, deceased, in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, and to sue for Administration with the same annexed. PR.

WHEREAS Richard Norton, late of Southwick in the County of Southampton, Esquire, departed this Life on or about the seventh Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred thirty and two, and since the Death of the said Richard Norton there have been produced and deposited in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury a certain Paper or Writing, bearing Date the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen, importing to be the last Will and Testament of the said Richard Norton, and certain other Papers or Writings, severally importing to be Codicils or testamentary Schedules of the said Richard Norton: And whereas in the said Paper or Writing importing to be the last Will and Testament of the said Richard Norton there are certain Clauses contained in the Words or to the Effect following, that is to say, 'And after my Funeral Expences, my Legacies and Debts shall be fully, punctually discharged and paid, I do devise, will and give all my Real and Personal Estates whatsoever (except as abovesaid) in the County of Southampton, with every Thing that I hold, possess or enjoy, or in any Manner, whatsoever it be, belonging to the same Real and Personal Estates, to the Poor, that is to say, to the Poor, Hungry and Thirsty, Naked and Strangers, Sick and Wounded and Prisoners, and to and for no other Use or Uses whatsoever; and I do hereby make, constitute and appoint the Poor abovesaid to be my general and absolute Heir and Heirs to the End of the World. I do presume to make, constitute and appoint all and every Person and Persons that do, shall or may make or compose, or are to be the supream Legislature of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, to be my Executor or Executors of this my last Will and Testament; and if I have presumed too high, and it be refused, then and in that Case only I will and beseech the most Reverend the Archbishops, together with the Right Reverend the Bishops of Great Britain or of England for the Time being, and all and every of their Successors, Archbishops and Bishops as aforesaid; and I do hereby constitute and appoint all and every of them, all and every of their Successors as aforesaid, to be my Executor and Executors of this my said last Will and Testament; and I do will, that any five of them, whereof the Archbishop of Canterbury to be one, shall and may, by any Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals, act, order, do and fully perform and execute my true Meaning and Intent, herein declared and mentioned to be performed, to the End of the World; and I do most humbly beg of them all to be zealous Advocates for the Poor as aforesaid, to the Legislature of Great Britain; and if it shall happen, that at the Time of my Decease the supream Legislature aforesaid shall not be held or sitting, then I will that the said most Reverend and Right Reverend Fathers in God, they and every of them, their and every of their Successors as aforesaid, or any five of them, whereof the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury to be one, may immediately be pleased to take Care provisionally of all Matters and Things herein contained, and may and shall act, order, do and fully perform, by Order in Writing as aforesaid, all and every such Act or Acts as shall by them as aforesaid be adjudged necessary to be done, acted or performed, according to this my last Will and Testament, until such Time as the supream Legislature aforesaid shall next meet, sit or be held: Now to the End that the Validity of the said Papers or Writings, so far as the same relate to the Personal Estate of the said Richard Norton, may be examined and determined in the proper Ecclesiastical Court or Courts, and that fit Persons may be appointed to institute, prosecute and defend all Suits concerning the same, so far as the same relate to the Personal Estate of the said Richard Norton, Be it enacted, &c.

M. Frecker, N. Paxton and J. Lawton impowered to sue for Administration. On the Death of all the said Nominees before full Administration, Ecclesiastical Court to appoint others. This Act not to give greater Force to the said Will, than it had before.

C A P. XXXIII.

An Act for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fishery carried on by his Majesty's British Subjects.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the twelfth Year of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, and by another Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland Fishery, it is declared, That the Whale Fins, Oil and Blubber taken in the Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, and the adjacent Seas, in British Ships, and imported by British Subjects, shall be free of Customs on the Conditions therein mentioned: And whereas the said Encouragements have been by many Years Experience found insufficient for the regaining of this beneficial Trade, which is at present in great Danger of being intirely lost, and large Quantities of Oil and Whale Fins are at a great Expence bought of Foreigners and annually imported into this Kingdom; it is therefore thought proper, for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fishery, That a Bounty be paid on the Return of every Ship employed by his Majesty's Subjects in the Whale Fishery, and licensed as herein after is directed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That during the Continuance of the last mentioned Act every British Ship or Vessel of two hundred Tuns and upwards, that shall proceed from any Port of Great Britain on the Whale Fishery to the Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, and the adjacent Seas, manned and navigated as by the Laws now in Force is directed, shall, before she proceed on such Voyage, or be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, be visited by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs belonging to such Port, who shall examine into such Ship or Vessel, and take an Account of the Tunnage thereof by Admeasurement, and shall certify such his or their Visitation, Examination and Admeasurement to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs; and if it appear by the Certificate of such Officer or Officers, that she hath on board such a Number of Men, Provisions, Boats, Fishing Lines and Instruments to be used in such Fishery, as herein after are mentioned, that she is strongly built, and otherwise a proper Ship for such Voyage and Fishery, and hath on board among her Crew a sufficient Number of Harpooneers, Steersmen and Line Managers, who have before been employed in such Voyages (the Names of such Persons to be contained in such Certificate) and if it further further appear by the Oath of one or more Owner or Owners, and of the Master or Chief Officer of such Ship, written at the Foot of such Certificate, and made before the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (who are hereby impowered and required to administer the same) that it is really and truly their firm Purpose and determined Resolution, that such Ship shall, as soon as Licence shall be granted, forthwith proceed, so manned, furnished and accounted, in a Voyage to the Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, or the Seas adjacent, and there, in the then approaching Season, to use the utmost Endeavours of themselves and their Ships Company to take Whales or other Creatures living in the Sea, and on no other Design or View of Profit in such Voyage, and to import the Whale Fins, Oil and Blubber thereof into the Kingdom of Great Britain (naming the Port to which it is their Intention to return) and if the Master, after such Certificate had and Oath made, do also become bound with two sufficient Securities unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Penalty of such Sum as shall be equal to treble the Bounty intended by this Act (which Bond the said Collector, with the Approbation of the Comptroller, is hereby required to take, and is to be in Force for the Term of three Years against the Master and Sureties, for the faithful Dealing of the said Master and Ship's Company in regard to the said Ship and Voyage) then and in all such Cases it shall and may be lawful for any three or more of the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively for the Time being, on receiving such Certificates and Oaths made, and it being certified to them by the Collector and Comptroller of such Port, that sufficient Security hath been given as aforesaid, to give and grant, and they are hereby required to give and grant, to the Master and Owners of such Ship, full Licence and Authority to proceed on such Voyage as aforesaid.

II. And to prevent any Disputes that may arise, whether a Ship be properly qualified and duly fitted out for the Whale Fishery, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and intitled to a Certificate thereof from the Custom-house Officers, It is hereby enacted, That every Ship of the Burthen of two hundred Tuns designed for this Fishery shall and is hereby obliged to have on board forty Fishing Lines of one hundred and twenty Fathom each, forty Harpoon Irons, four Boats with seven Men (including a Harpooner, a Steersman and a Line Manager to each Boat, making in the whole twenty-eight Men, besides the Master and Surgeon) with six Months Provisions at the least for such Number of Men, and every Ship of larger Burthen an Increase of six Men, one Boat, ten such Lines and ten Harpoon Irons more for every fifty Tuns above the said two hundred Tuns, together with Provisions in Proportion.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on the Return of such Ship to the Port to which the Master and Mate declared on Oath their Intention to return, the proper Officers of the Customs at such Port shall immediately repair on board, and view the Condition of such Ship and her Lading, and certify the same, together with their Observations thereon, as also the real Tunnage of the said Ship; and the said Officers are also to take an Account or Schedule of the Names of the Master, Mate and other Persons on board, distinguishing therein the Harpooners and Persons more immediately employed in the said Fishery, and to certify the same, and the Master and Mate shall make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller (who are hereby impowered and required to administer the same) on the Back of or annexed to the Licence granted as aforesaid, which they are hereby then required to deliver up, that they did in pursuance thereof (mentioning the Day of their Departure) proceed in a Voyage directly to the Places aforesaid, and have not since been on any other Voyage, or pursued any other Design or View of Profit, and that they did there (mentioning the Time of their Stay in those Seas) use their utmost Endeavours of themselves and their Ship's Company to take Whales and other Creatures living in those Seas; and that all the Whale Fins, Oil and Blubber imported (if any) in such Ship was really and bona fide caught and taken in the said Seas by the Crew of such Ship only; all which Schedule, Certificate, Licence and Oath shall be transmitted by the Collector and Comptroller of such Port to the respective Commissioners for that Part of Great Britain from whence the Ship departed with her Licence; and such Commissioners being fully satisfied of the faithful Dealings of the Master and other Persons employed in such Ships, with respect to such Voyage and Fishery, shall on Demand cause Payment to be made to the Master or Owners, or to his or their Assigns, by the Receiver General of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain from whence the Ship departed, the Sum of twenty Shillings per Tun, according to the Allowance of such Ship duly certified as aforesaid.

IV. And whereas the Dispatch of Ships to the Greenland Seas, Davis's Streights and Seas adjacent on the Whale Fishery must of Necessity be within the Months of March or April, and some British Ships, for the Sake of keeping the Men that have been taught the Art of the said Fishery in Employ, and to prevent their going into foreign Service, may have been fitted out from the River of Thames or other Parts of his Majesty's British Dominions, and proceeded on the said Whale Fishery to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights and Seas adjacent, since the Commencement of this Session of Parliament, and before the Regulations intended by this Act to be observed by the respective Owners and Masters before the Sailing of any Ship or Ships to be employed in the said Trade were made, and it will therefore be but just and reasonable, that the Bounties intended to be given on the Return of Ships hereafter to be fitted out on such Voyage, should be given also to the Owners of such Ships already sailed upon such Voyage, and not yet returned; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Ships already sailed on the said Voyage and Fishery respectively shall, on or before the thirtieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller from whence such Ship departed (who are hereby impowered and required to administer the same) that it was the Design, Resolution and express Direction of the said Owner or Owners respectively to proceed on the said Voyage for the Purposes aforesaid mentioned, and to import the Whale Fins, Oil and Blubber of the Whales to be caught in the said Voyage into Great Britain, and that the said Ships respectively were so properly qualified and duly fitted out for the Whale Fishery as aforesaid, and shall enter into such Bonds of such Penalty, Tenor, Purport and Condition as aforesaid, and in case on the Return of such Ships respectively to Great Britain the Master or Mate, or other Chief Officer of such Ships respectively shall make Oath before the said Collector and Comptroller, that they did proceed on the said Voyage for the Purposes aforesaid, and behaved themselves therein pursuant and in conformity to the Directions of this Act, and if the said Master and Mate, or other Chief Officer of such Ships, shall do and perform on their Parts all Matters and Things required by this Act to be done and performed on the Return of Ships hereafter to be employed in the said Trade, then the said Commissioners shall, on Demand, cause Payment to be made to the Master or Owners of such of the said Ships respectively so qualified and intitled as aforesaid, or to his or their Assigns, by the Receiver General of the Customs for that Part of Great Britain whence the Ship departed, the Sum of twenty Shillings per Tun, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship or Ships respectively; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

to have the same Allowance.

An Act for reviving so much of the Act made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected more effectually to perform their Quarentine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, and to hinder the spreading of Infection, as relates to the performing of Quarentine, and preventing the spreading of Infection, and to enable his Majesty to prohibit Commerce with any Country or Place infected with the Plague, for a certain Time therein limited. E X P.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected more effectually to perform their Quarentine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, and to hinder the spreading of Infection, it was amongst other Things enacted, That the said Act, and the several Clauses and Provisions therein contained, should commence and take Effect, from and after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and that the same, except so much thereof as enabled his Majesty to prohibit or restrain Commerce between his Majesty's Subjects and those of any other Country or Place infected with the Plague, and the several Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Matters and Things relating thereto, should continue in Force for the Space of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer: And whereas the said Act was found to be useful and beneficial, but is expired, and certain Places in foreign Parts being at this Time visited with the Plague, it is become necessary that some Provision should be made by Parliament for obliging Ships and Persons coming from any Place so infected more effectually to perform Quarentine, in such Manner as hath been or shall be ordered by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and for punishing Offenders therein in a more expeditious Manner than can be done by the ordinary Methods of Law, and for preventing the bringing in and spreading of Infection: Be it enacted, &c.

So much of the said Act as relates to the performing Quarentine, &c. continued 2 Years longer from 2 June 1733. His Majesty, by Proclamation, before 24 June 1734, may forbid any Person to go from Great Britain, &c. to any Place infected, &c. or to come from any infected Place to Great Britain, &c. Persons exporting Goods contrary to Proclamation to forfeit double the Value. 500 l. Penalty on going to infected Places after Proclamation. Landing Goods contrary thereto, Felony without Benefit of Clergy, and Ships and Goods forfeited. Persons procuring Goods to be imported contrary to Proclamation, to forfeit treble the Value. Reasonable Time for Notice to be allowed in the Proclamation. Attainders by this Act not to extend to Corruption of Blood, &c.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act for appointing Commissioners to examine, state and report who of the Sufferers in the Charitable Corporation are Objects of Compassion, according to the Descriptions therein mentioned; and for giving Relief to such Sufferers; and for enforcing the Laws made against foreign Lotteries; and for empowering the said Commissioners to hear and determine the Claims of such Creditors and Proprietors of the said Corporation, as have not made their Claims within the Time limited by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for taking stating and determining all the Claims and Demands of the Creditors of the said Corporation, and of all Persons claiming any Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund of the said Corporation. P R.

WHEREAS divers of his Majesty's Subjects have sustained great Losses, and have been reduced to great Necessity, by the fraudulent and indirect Practices carried on in the Management of the Affairs of the Charitable Corporation for Relief of industrious Poor, by assisting them with small Sums upon Pledges, at legal Interest: And by a Report delivered to both Houses of Parliament, made by the Commissioners appointed by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for the taking, stating and determining the Claims and Demands of the Creditors of the said Corporation, and all Persons claiming any Share or Interest in the Stock of the same, it appears, that the whole Sum for which the Corporation was, at the Time of signing the said Report, answerable to all the Persons who had any Demands upon or were any ways interested in the said Corporation, amounted to four hundred eighty-seven thousand eight hundred and ninety-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and ten Pence three Farthings: And whereas upon Examination into the State of the Effects of the said Corporation, it appears, that to make good the said four hundred eighty-seven thousand eight hundred and ninety-five Pounds fourteen Shillings and ten Pence three Farthings, there remains in Money and Effects no more than thirty-four thousand one hundred and fifty Pounds thirteen Shillings and one Penny Half-penny; so that the Net Loss to the said Corporation is four hundred fifty-three thousand seven hundred and forty-five Pounds one Shilling and nine Pence Farthing, except what may be recovered from Persons indebted to the said Corporation, of which no Estimate can yet be made: And whereas it will be a reasonable Act of Charity, to give some Relief or Satisfaction to such of the Sufferers as shall appear upon Examination to be proper Objects of Compassion, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act: May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

Estimate of Loss

Commissioners to give in Writing the Names and Qualifications of Persons seeking Relief, to the Parliament. The Duration of the Commissioners Power for 12 Months. 500,000 l. to be raised by way of Lottery at 4 l. per Ticket. Commissioners to appoint the Managers of the Lottery. There shall be printed 125,000 Tickets, and 28,169 Tickets shall be The Fortunate Tickets, one of 10,000 l. one of 5,000 l. three of 3,000 l. four of 2,000 l. twenty of 1,000 l. forty of 500 l. two hundred of 100 l. four hundred of 50 l. twelve hundred of 20 l. twenty-six thousand three hundred of 10 l. which together with 500 l. to the first drawn Ticket, and 500 l. to the last drawn, will amount to 400,000 l. to be repaid, and the remaining 100,000 l. is intended to be reserved for the Relief of the Sufferers. The Residue of the Money, after paying the Fortunate Tickets and incident Charges, to be disposed of to the Sufferers, by Parliament. Penalty on selling Chances or Shares of Tickets, or proposing Schemes of the Lottery, &c.

9 Geo. I. c. 19.

XXIX. And whereas in an Act which passed in the ninth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to continue the Duties for Encouragement of the Coinage of Monies, and for Relief of William late Lord Widdrington, and to prevent foreign Lotteries being carried on in this Kingdom, and for ascertaining the Duty on bound Books imported, and for issuing Certificates and Debentures for Arrears due to five Regiments, to be satisfied by Annuities therein mentioned, and for discharging the Duties of Rock Salt lost on the Rivers Wear and Mercy, and for limiting the Times of Continuance of Commissioners for forfeited Estates in England and Scotland respectively, and for appropriating the Supplies granted to his Majesty in this Session of Parliament, and to rectify Misnomers and Omissions of Commissioners for the Land Tax in the Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, Provision is made against selling or disposing of any Tickets in any foreign Lottery, under the Penalty of forfeiting two hundred Pounds, and suffering one Year's Imprisonment for every such Offence; yet in Evasion of the said Law, and to the great Prejudice and Damage of many of his Majesty's good Subjects, several evil minded Persons have undertaken to keep Offices for the issuing of Tickets or Receipts for Numbers in several foreign Lotteries, or Classes of such Lotteries, or have made Duplicates of such Lotteries, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act: For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, if any Person or Persons shall sell, procure or deliver any Ticket, Receipt, Chance or Number in or belonging to any foreign Lottery or pretended foreign Lottery, or in or belonging to any Class, Part or Division of such Lottery or pretended Lottery, or in or belonging to any Undertaking whatsoever in the Nature of a Lottery, or shall sell, procure or deliver any Ticket, Receipt, Chance or Number in or belonging to any Duplicate or pretended Duplicate of any foreign Lottery or pretended foreign Lottery, or shall receive or cause to be received, any Money whatsoever for any such Ticket, Receipt, Chance or Number, or for or in Consideration of any Money to be repaid, in Case any Ticket or Tickets, Number or Numbers in any foreign Lottery or pretended foreign Lottery, or any Class, Part or Division thereof, shall prove fortunate, and shall be convicted of any of the said Offences, upon Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster (in which no Essoign, Privilege, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed) or upon the Oath or Oaths, or Affirmation or Affirmations, of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, Division or Liberty where such Offence shall be committed, or the Offender shall be found (which Oath or Affirmation such Justices of the Peace are hereby empowered and required to administer or give) the Person so convicted shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, one third Part thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, one third Part thereof to him, her or them who shall sue for the same, or make Information of the Offence, and the remaining third Part thereof to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, the same (in case of Conviction before two Justices) to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted; and shall also, for every such Offence, by the Court or by such Justices as the Case shall happen, be committed to the County Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of one whole Year, and from thence till the said Sum of two hundred Pounds so forfeited as aforesaid, shall be fully paid and satisfied.

Appeal to the Quarter-Sessions,

XXX. Provided nevertheless, That any Person who shall think him or herself aggrieved by the Judgment or Determination of such Justices in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall have Liberty to appeal to the next Quarter-Sessions to be held for the County, City or Place where such Judgment or Determination shall be made or given, and that the Judgment to be given by the Justices of the next Quarter-Sessions shall be final.

whose Determination shall be final.

Relief for Claims not determined in the Time limited by the former Act.

XXXI. And whereas, by Reason of the Absence of several Persons, being Creditors and others of the said Corporation, and of other Impediments and Disabilities, their respective Claims could not be received, heard, adjusted and determined within the Time limited and prescribed by the Act herein first recited: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Robert Holford, John Bennet, James Lightboun, William Kynaston and Francis Elde, or any three or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority to state and ascertain the Accounts, and to hear and determine the Claims and Demands of all and every such Person and Persons, being Creditors of the said Corporation, or intitled to any Share or Shares in the Stock or Fund of the said Corporation, or any ways interested in any of the Effects of or belonging to the same, as have not made and entered their respective Claims in the Manner and within the Time limited, directed and prescribed by the said Act; provided the said Claims be made on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three; any Thing contained in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Publick Act.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a publick Act, of which all Judges and Justices are to take Notice, and if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person for what he shall do in Pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months, and not afterwards; and such Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence.

An Act for making perpetual the several Acts therein mentioned, for the better Regulation of Juries, and for empowering the Justices of Session or Assizes for the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, to appoint a Special Jury in Manner therein mentioned, and for continuing the Act for regulating the Manufacture of Cloth in the West Riding of the County of York (except a Clause therein contained) and for continuing an Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; and to prevent the cutting or breaking down the Bank of any River or any Sea Bank, and to prevent the malicious cutting of Hop-binds; and for continuing an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, for preventing Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England; and for reviving and continuing certain Clauses in two other Acts made for the same Purpose.

WHEREAS the Laws herein after mentioned, which have by Experience been found useful and beneficial, are expired or near expiring; May it therefore please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Juries, and also one other Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his said present Majesty, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Juries, so far as the same relates to the County of Middlesex, which said Acts are temporary and are near expiring, shall be and are hereby made perpetual.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Session or Assizes for the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, upon Motion made on Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or on Motion of any Prosecutor or Defendant in any Indictment or Information for any Misdemeanor, or on the Motion of any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, in any Action, Cause or Suit whatsoever, depending or to be brought and carried on in the Courts of Session or Assize of the said Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or in any of them, shall and may, in case such Justices in their Discretion shall think fit, order and appoint a Jury to be struck before the proper Officer of each Court respectively, for the Trial of any Issue joined in any of the said Cases, in such Manner as Special Juries have been usually struck in the Courts of Law at Westminster, upon Trials at Bar had in the said Courts, which Jury so struck as aforesaid, shall be the Jury returned for the Trial of such Issue as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the better regulating the Manufacture of Cloth in the West Riding of the County of York, and every Clause, Article and Thing therein contained (other than and except such Part of the said Act as restrains any Person, not having served seven Years as an Apprentice to the Trade of a Broad Clothier, or not having exercised and used such Trade for the Space of two Years before the Commencement of the said Act, except as therein is excepted, from making or causing to be made any Broad Cloth in the said West Riding, under the Penalties therein mentioned) which said Act was to continue in Force for the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and is near expiring, shall by Virtue of this Act be continued, and shall be in Force from the Expiration thereof until the first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament and no longer.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice, which was to continue in Force for three Years from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and which, by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, was continued from the Expiration thereof for five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and is near expiring, shall be and is hereby further continued until the first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-six, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and during the Continuance of the last before mentioned Act, shall unlawfully and maliciously break down or cut down the Bank or Banks of any River, or any Sea Bank, whereby any Lands shall be overflowed or damaged, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, shall (during the Continuance of the before mentioned Act, intituled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons, going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice) unlawfully and maliciously cut any Hop-binds growing on Poles in any Plantation of Hops, every Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, and which by several Acts hath from Time to Time been continued, and is near expiring, shall be and is hereby further continued, and shall be and continue in Force until the first Day of September which shall be in the

IX. And whereas in and by an Act made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act to continue a former Act to prevent Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, the Benefit of Clergy is taken away from great, known and notorious Thieves and Spoil-takers in the Counties of Northumberland and Cumberland, or either of them, during the Continuance of the said Act, who should be duly convicted for Theft done or committed within the said Counties, or either of them, or otherwise that it should and might be lawful for the Justices of the Assize and Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, before whom such Offenders should be convicted within the said Counties, or either of them, to transport or cause to be transported the said Offenders, and every of them, into any of his Majesty's Dominions in America, there to remain and not return: And whereas in and by an Act made in the twenty-ninth and thirtieth Years of the Reign of the said King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for continuing of two former Acts for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, the several Justices of the Peace of the said respective Counties of Northumberland and Cumberland are impowered, from Time to Time, at the respective Quarter-Sessions, to take good and sufficient Security of the Person or Persons by them employed in the said Service for the Preservation of the said respective Counties from Theft and Rapine, to answer the Damages sustained by any Person or Persons by his or their Neglect or Default therein, and to pay and satisfy the same within four Months after that Proof thereof should have been made by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before the Justices of the Peace of the said respective Counties, at the next Quarter-Sessions in the respective County (which Oath or Oaths the said Justice or Justices are thereby authorized to administer) so as the Goods stolen were entred in one of the Books to be kept for that Purpose, within the Space of forty-eight Hours after the same should have been stolen or gone: And it is thereby enacted, that Books should be kept for that End in every Market Town of the said respective Counties, and at such other convenient Places therein, and by such Person or Persons as the said Justices of the Peace in the said respective Counties, at their General Sessions of the Peace, should order or appoint, and also that the said several Justices of the Peace of the said respective Counties, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the said Counties respectively, should yearly, or every two Years at the farthest, in open Court, make choice of and appoint such Person or Persons, as they should respectively think fit, for the said Counties respectively, to be employed in the said Service; which said several Clauses, Powers and Authorities, have by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and are expired: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the several herein before mentioned Clauses, Powers and Authorities in the said several Acts, for the preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, contained, shall be and are hereby revived, from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and shall continue in Force until the first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament and no longer.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Acts, as to the said herein before mentioned Clauses, Powers and Authorities in the said several Acts, for the preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, contained, shall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be publick Acts, and be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and other Persons whatsoever.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for enlarging the Time for Exportation of Tea. EXP.

7 Geo. I. Stat. 1. c. 21.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE, intituled, An Act for the further preventing his Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East-Indies under foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto, and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, the respective Times then limited by Law for the Exportation of all foreign Goods and Merchandizes intituled to Drawbacks, were extended and enlarged to the Time of three Years from the Importation of such Goods: And whereas the above mentioned Time of three Years hath by Experience been found inconvenient, and too short for the Exportation of Tea: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three it shall and may be lawful to export to foreign Parts any Tea lawfully imported, and then remaining in the Warehouse or Warehouses of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, so as the same be exported within the Space of three Years, to be computed from the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and so as the same do remain in the said Warehouse or Warehouses of the said Company, until the same shall be duly delivered out for the Exportation thereof, and that the same Repayments, Allowances and Drawbacks shall be made and allowed for and upon the Exportation thereof as are made and allowed upon the Exportation thereof pursuant to the Laws for that Purpose now in Force.

After 24 June 1733, Tea lawfully imported, and then remaining in the Warehouses of the East-India Company, may be exported in 3 Years, on due Compliance to all Laws touching such Exportation, not hereby altered.

II. Provided nevertheless, That all and every the Laws now in Force relating to the Exportation of Tea, or to the Repayments, Allowances or Drawbacks upon the Exportation thereof, be, in every Circumstance and Respect not altered by this Act, duly complied with and observed.
